The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3561-James felt terrifying power rush toward him, snaking through the Crepe Myrtle Divine Sword and into his body.

Overwhelmed by the force, he took a step backward.

Daereth retracted his sword, looked at James, and smirked. "That's enough. You may proceed."

James shook off the numbness in his arm, then put away the Crepe Myrtle Divine Sword. He clasped his hands together and said, "Thank you."

Afterward, he continued ascending Mount Divine Sword.

Melinda followed closely behind him.

After walking for a while, the second disciple appeared before him.

The disciple blocking his path spoke, "Strike, James. Show me how profound your Second Swordsmanship is."

Without any hesitation, James summoned the Crepe Myrtle Divine Sword again. He leaped into the air, and countless shadows spread in the sky. Each of the shadows represented a Sword Move he had learned.

The number of shadows mirrored the amount of Sword Moves he had integrated into the move. The more shadows he could summon, the stronger his Sword Path.

The shadows fused in a flash, and James reappeared in front of his opponent.

James used the Second Swordsmanship to strike the second disciple but failed to injure his opponent. Instead, he was blasted back by the tremendous force of the collision.

"Proceed."

After the disciple finished speaking, he vanished from sight.

James continued to move up the mountain.

Soon, a third disciple appeared in sight.

Before he could speak, James interrupted him. "You don't need to tell me anything. I already know the rules. I have to attack you using the Third Swordsmanship."

The disciple smiled lightly and said, "Since you understand, let's cut to the chase. Go ahead, come at me."

The Third Swordsmanship was Sword Will, one of the most crucial techniques.

The Sword Heart was a reflection of one's heart. The Sword Heart was closely linked to the other four stages.

The third test assessed James' Sword Heart.

James shifted his mindset in preparation for the battle. He cleared his mind and only thought about his sword. novelebook.com He imagined himself as a sharp and invincible blade.

Translucent Sword Energy shot out from the top of his head and charged toward his opponent.

The disciple smiled faintly and calmly watched James' Sword Heart.

James' Sword Heart turned into a sharp blade and closed in on the disciple. However, the disciple calmly repelled the attack.

"Please proceed."

After giving James permission to advance, the disciple disappeared from sight.

James held the Crepe Myrtle Divine Sword and continued to climb the mountain.

Soon, he arrived at the fourth disciple's location.

James immediately felt a powerful Sword Intent race toward him. The Sword Intent crashed down like a colossal wave, threatening to drown him.

James quickly reacted and unleashed his own Sword Intent. His Sword Intent blazed like a raging fire and consumed the opponent's Sword Intent instantly.

Immediately afterward, his opponent's Sword Intent transformed.

The Sword Intent became solid and indomitable like a rock. Although James' fiery Sword Intent was devastating, it could not do anything against the disciple's transformed Sword Intent.

James' Sword Intent then transformed into an indestructible, sharp blade and forcefully sliced the opponent's robust Sword Intent apart.

One's Sword Intent was the reflection of the user's mind.

One's mentality determined the attribute of the summoned Sword Intent.

James had gained a variety of knowledge and could transform his powers into his Sword Intent. He could also use power from heaven and earth to form terrifying Sword Intent that reflected his robust mental state.

He fought at a disadvantage with every exchange of blows.

“Very good! You can keep going.”

The disciple chuckled loudly, then vanished.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3562-While making his way up the mountain, James encountered four disciples of Mount Divine Sword that were dispatched to test his swordsmanship.

James knew the Ancestral Sword Master had to be secretly watching and analyzing his performance.

Through these battles, the Ancestral Sword Master would know his comprehension of swordsmanship and could provide him with better guidance.

James firmly believed the Ancestral Sword Master was definitely going to teach him. When he leaves Mount Sword God, his swordsmanship will be on a higher level.

He continued to ascend the mountain.

Soon, he arrived on top of Mount Divine Sword. Atop the mountain was a building constructed for cultivation. The building looked very strange. It was shaped like a sharp blade and was surrounded by abundant Sword Energy.

James could see mysterious inscriptions circulating within the Sword Energies.

The Sword Energies gathered into inscriptions exuding terrifying power that contained supreme swordsmanship.

Just as James took the final steps onto the mountaintop, the fifth disciple of Mount Divine Sword appeared before him.

The man looked to be in his 40s. He had a round face, with large eyebrows and big eyes. His appearance was rather rough and he looked like a rowdy man.

He greeted James with a hoarse voice.

James clasped his hands in response.

Immediately afterward, James pointed his sword forward and said, “Let’s begin.”

The man stood firmly in place and beckoned James, “Go ahead.”

James’ figure immediately split into countless shadows in the sky.

The shadows quickly merged, and reformed James as he thrust the Crepe Myrtle Divine Sword at the fifth disciple.

The attack contained James’ comprehension of Sword Moves, Sword Shadow, Sword Heart, and his Sword Intent.

James’ Sword Intent swept forward with mighty strength.

Although they were in Mount Divine Sword, James’ Sword Energy and Sword Intent caused the space around the disciple to distort.

The man casually waved his hand, and Sword Energy materialized from his palm. novelebook.comThe Sword Energy gradually transformed into a long, bright sword.

The disciples easily blocked James’ attack.

The latter’s firm Sword Heart and Sword Intent were broken instantly.

The man put away his long sword and made a welcoming gesture, saying, “Off you go. Master is in the back mountains and he’s awaited your arrival for a long time.”

Then, he looked at Melinda and said respectfully, “Princess Melinda, our Master has already arranged your lodgings for you. Please follow me.”

Melinda looked at James and said, “You should go ahead. I’ll stay at Mount Divine Sword and wait for you to finish.”

After speaking, she with the disciple.

James made his way toward Mount Divine Sword’s back mountain.

The scenery at the back of the mountain was mesmerizing.

Several sword-shaped rocks could be seen on the cliff.

A middle-aged man sat on one of the stones in a lotus position. A breeze blew at him, causing his long, white hair to flutter.

When James arrived, he immediately spotted the Ancestral Sword Master. Standing behind him, James clasped his fist and greeted him courteously. "It's a pleasure to see you, Sir."

The Ancestral Sword Master turned around to face James. He pointed at a rock opposite him and said, "Don't be so formal. Have a seat."

James leaped toward the sword-shaped rock and also sat in a lotus position.

James felt miraculous power flow out from the rock as soon as he sat down. The power suffused his body, and he was cloaked by the mysterious Sword Energy.

At that moment, his pores were opened. His mind gradually cleared, and the image of a sword appeared in his head. The sword unsheathed itself and shot up into the sky with unparalleled strength, splitting open space and charging toward the deepest parts of Chaos.

James was shocked by the scene he saw in his mind.

After his reaction, he suddenly found that everything around him was not as it initially seemed.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3563-There was no power coming from the rock and the rocks that were initially sword-shaped became ordinary rocks.

"Amazing."

James gasped in amazement.

The Ancestral Sword Master looked at James happily. He was satisfied with James' progress.

"There are Five Great Sword Realms. Everyone knows that I created the Five Great Sword Realms. Not only are they extensive, but they also explain everything about swordsmanship."

James nodded lightly.

He agreed with the Ancestral Sword Master's words. The Five Great Sword Realms were truly all-encompassing. Most of the Sword Cultivators of this age, and in the future, followed the Ancestral Sword Master's swordsmanship.

The Five Great Sword Realms greatly influenced many generations of Sword Cultivators.

It was impossible for Sword Cultivators not to be influenced by the Ancestral Sword Master's swordsmanship.

The Ancestral Sword Master said, "Actually, that isn't the truth."

"Huh?"

James was slightly taken aback. He did not understand what the Ancestral Sword Master meant. He asked curiously, "What do you mean?"

The Ancestral Sword Master replied, "I didn't create the Five Great Sword Realms. I learned it from some other place."

James was startled by his confession.

The Ancestral Sword Master was one of the strongest in their universe. He was almost unbeatable unless he had to fight against a Macrocosm Ancestral God. Who could the real creator be if not him?

The Ancestral Sword Master raised his head and began to recall past events.

After a while, he said slowly, "My swordsmanship originated from another universe."

James silently looked at the Ancestral Sword Master. Although he maintained his composure, he was internally shocked by the revelation.

'It came from another universe? How could that be?' thought James.

The Ancestral Sword Master said, "The Lord of the Ninth Universe is the most skilled swordsman ever to exist. My swordsmanship originated from the Ninth Universe. The Ninth Universe's Lord taught me about the Five Great Sword Realms.

"In fact, it's supposed to be Six Great Sword Realms. Unfortunately, I only managed to learn five. If I had comprehended the Sixth Swordsmanship, I would've been able to convert my Sword Path's Power into Macrocosm Power and become a Macrocosm Ancestral God.

“Huff,” The Ancestral Sword Master sighed and said, novelebook.com “I spent my whole life studying the Sword Path but haven’t grasped the Sixth Swordsmanship. This is why I’ve never had the chance to become a Macrocosm Ancestral God.”

James was surprised.

He never expected a Sixth Swordsmanship to exist.

The Ancestral Sword Master said, “The Five Great Sword Realms are Sword Moves, Sword Shadow, Sword Heart, Sword Intent, and Singularity. The Sixth Swordsmanship is called Essence.

“When I was learning from the Ninth Universe’s Lord, he told me that I’d have to comprehend the Sixth Swordsmanship on my own. If I successfully comprehended it, I can become a Macrocosm Ancestral God.”

James fell into thought.

The Ancestral Talisman Master also told him Curse Magic originated from the Eleventh Universe.

Now, he learned that even the Ancestral Sword Master’s swordsmanship was from the Ninth Universe.

Were the other universes really that much more powerful? What are the other universes like?

James was intrigued by the mention of the Eleventh Universe and wanted to visit the other universes.

The Ancestral Sword Master read James’ mind and smiled knowingly. “If you want to travel to other universes, you’ll need the strength to travel through the Chaos, which is very dangerous. It won’t be easy to pass through it. You’ll only be able to travel to another universe after reaching the Terra Ancestral God Rank.”

Hearing this, James gave up on his plans.

The Terra Ancestral God Rank was practically unreachable for him.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3564-Although it was not possible now for James to travel through the Chaos to other universes, he believed he would have the strength to in the future.

The Ancestral Sword Master looked at James, shook his head, and said, "Throughout the ages, no one has mastered all of my swordsmanship techniques until you arrived. However, your skills are still sloppy."

Hearing this, James was slightly embarrassed.

James thought his attainments in swordsmanship were pretty good. However, it was lacking in the eyes of the Ancestral Sword Master."

The Ancestral Sword Master parted his lips and spoke. "The First Swordsmanship, Sword Moves.

"The so-called Sword Moves aren't just about the techniques you've learned. You only have a superficial understanding of it.

"Every Supernatural Sword Power contains Five Great Sword Realms. The Five Great Sword Realms can't be practiced separately. If you cultivate them individually, you can indeed increase your First Swordsmanship's strength. However, your First Swordsmanship's strength won't reach its full potential without the support of the other Four Swordsmanship."

The Ancestral Sword Master explained to James. Then, he casually waved his hand.

A brand flew over from a distance and appeared in his hand. The Ancestral Sword Master grabbed the branch and casually brandished it.

Every move he made contained exquisite swordsmanship.

James saw countless Sword Moves and Sword Shadows. Moreover, he could sense the Ancestral Sword Master's firm Sword Heart, invincible Sword Intent, and Singularity.

"The Five Great Sword Realms are indispensable and must work in concert. If one of them is lacking, the strength of your swordsmanship will be significantly reduced.

"Among them, one's Sword Heart has the most influence over one's skills. You'll need a tenacious Sword Heart to continuously hone your swordsmanship."

The Ancestral Sword Master began to break down his knowledge of the Five Great Sword Realms.

He explained everything from the First Swordsmanship to the Fifth Swordsmanship.

"I've given public lectures, sharing the same knowledge with everyone. However, very few could properly comprehend it.

“You’ll have to comprehend the essence of the Five Great Sword Realms so that your cultivation in swordsmanship will be much more efficient, novelebook.com allowing you to better understand the Sword Path.”

After speaking, the Ancestral Sword Master casually waved his hand again. A wisp of Sword Energy flew over from a distance and floated before James.

A few inscriptions could be seen in the Sword Energy.

At that moment, the Ancestral Sword Master decomposed the inscriptions into a unique Sword Path.

It was very strange but seemed inextricable from the Five Great Sword Realms.

“Swords are the greatest weapons. If you have a strong connection with your sword, you can take on the world with it.

“You can’t simply be bound by what you presume about swords and must think outside of the box for your understanding of the Sword Path to improve.”

James sat in a lotus position on the rock and listened attentively to the Ancestral Sword Master’s teaching.

The Ancestral Sword Master taught him everything from the basics of the Five Great Sword Realms to what a sword truly was and what kind of Sword Heart a Sword Cultivator must have to practice the Sword Path.

These were the basic tenets of the Sword Path.

Although James had obtained the inheritance of the Ancestral Sword Master, this fundamental knowledge was not left behind for him. James acquired the most detailed understanding of the Sword Path.

He had been practicing swordsmanship for a long time.

After learning the basics from the Ancestral Sword Master, James was enlightened.

“The power of one’s sword comes from the heart. Your sword can absorb the power from heaven and earth.

“You can split the skies and cleave the earth. When you’re stronger, you can even slash apart the Chaos. If you reach the highest levels of swordsmanship, you will have the most terrifying power in the world. The Ninth Universe’s Lord cultivated three Macrocosm Powers relying on only his Sword Path.”

The Ancestral Sword Master’s voice became softer and slowly faded away.

James sat in a lotus position with his eyes closed. He began trying to comprehend the Sword Path.

In the past, he only had his own understanding to rely on.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3565-James wholeheartedly began to comprehend the Five Great Sword Realms.

After he became the Master of Mount Nothingness, he was blessed with great wisdom. Thus, he quickly understood the Ancestral Sword Master's teachings and his knowledge of the Sword Path grew deeper.

The Ancestral Sword Master had understood the extent of James' comprehension of swordsmanship after analyzing his fights against the five disciples he dispatched on Mount Divine Sword. As such, he began to guide James to overcome his shortcomings.

James learned a lot, and his Sword Heart improved.

One's Sword Heart was crucial to one's swordsmanship and determined how far one could go in the Sword Path.

James' Sword Heart evolved continuously and affected the entire Mount Divine Sword. The Sword Energy on the mountain was controlled by his Sword Heart.

The Sword Energy throughout Mount Sword God gathered atop Mount Divine Sword.

The Sword Energies materialized and formed Sword Path Inscriptions.

Every inscription contained Sword Path Power and the essence of the Five Great Sword Realms.

James seemed to have incorporated with the environment, and the Sword Path Inscription became part of his body.

His understanding of the Sword Path grew progressively.

His Sworth Path went from the Grand Emperor Rank's Fourth Heaven to the Ninth Heaven.

As his Sword Path improved, his Sword Path Power strengthened in turn. Unknowingly, his Sword Path's Power had already reached the Grand Emperor Rank's Ninth Heaven.

“Huff!”

After a long time, James opened his eyes, and two dazzling swords burst forth from his eyes.

James took a deep breath and murmured, “As soon as I was enlightened, my cultivation rank improved rapidly.”

His Sword Path Seal had already reached the Grand Emperor Rank’s Ninth Heaven and was close to reaching the Quasi Ancestral Rank.

It was absolutely terrifying how fast his cultivation base improved.

The Ancestral Sword Master was satisfied to see James’ improvements. He murmured, “James really is a savant. He immediately grasped my teaching. He’ll surpass me soon enough. He might even comprehend the Sixth Swordsmanship and evolve his Sword Path into Macrocosm Power. Eventually, he’ll be able to become a Macrocosm Ancestral Master with his Sword Path.”

Immediately, his face became solemn.

“He’s already cultivated several Macrocosm Powers. If he improves his cultivation rank, he’ll easily become a Macrocosm Ancestral God.”

James stopped his cultivation, and the Sword Path Inscriptions around him dispersed.

Then, he clasped his hands together and said, “Thank you for your tutelage, Sir.”

The Ancestral Sword Master waved his hand lightly and said, “Your fate and mine seem woven together. I look forward to you mastering the Sixth Swordsmanship. I’ve nothing else to teach you, and no one else will be able to provide you with any more assistance. You’ll have to rely on yourself to comprehend the Sixth Swordsmanship.

“The maximum rank you can reach with your Path Seals is the Grand Emperor’s Ninth Heaven.

“To reach the Quasi Ancestral God and Ancestral God Rank, you must keep improving your own strength and mentality.”

“As long as you have good mental fortitude, your cultivation rank will also improve.”

James nodded lightly, leaped off the rock, and landed on the ground. He clasped his fists and said, “I appreciate it. I hope we meet again, Sir.”

After speaking, James turned and left Mount Divine Sword's back mountain.

James greatly benefitted from his trip to Mount Divine Sword. He thoroughly comprehended the Five Great Sword Realms. Next, he would have to keep improving his Sword Path's Power and his mentality to reach the Quasi Ancestral God Rank.

The Quasi Ancestral God Rank had three stages—Illuminated, Theosophical, and Path Integration.

These three stages seemed very simple but were not easy to achieve. Many living beings existed throughout the universe, but very few could become Quasi Ancestral Gods.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3566-James left the back mountain of Mount Divine Sword.

After listening to the Ancestral Sword Master's teachings, his understanding of swordsmanship improved significantly. He gained deeper insight into the Five Great Sword Realms.

James was unaware of how much time he spent cultivating at Mount Divine Sword. After he left, he sensed the time and found that he had spent 300 years in Mount Sword God.

He felt like he had only cultivated for a short while and was surprised to find that 300 years had passed.

However, he improved his Sword Path from the Grand Emperor Rank's Third Heaven to the Ninth Heaven and this growth was considered to be exceptional. His cultivation rank had also reached the Grand Emperor Rank's Ninth Stage. His next objective was to raise his other Path Seals to the same rank.

It could be a fast process, but it could also take a long time depending on the circumstances.

If he gained profound insight into the different paths, he could raise the level of his path seals quickly. Otherwise, reaching the next rank would take a very long time. Getting stuck on a certain cultivation rank indefinitely was also possible.

James headed to find Melinda. She had stayed in Mount Divine Sword for the past 300 years. During this whole time, she was treated with the utmost respect.

When James found her, she was secretly learning swordsmanship from a sword master on Mount Divine Sword. He called out to her from afar, "Let's go, Melinda."

Melinda broke her concentration and quickly walked toward James. She smiled at him. "There's been huge fluctuations throughout Mount Divine Sword for the past three hundred years. You must've gained a lot, right?"

James gave her a small nod and said, "Yes. I've gained a deeper understanding of the Sword Path through the Ancestral Sword Master's guidance. My Sword Path has risen from the Grand Emperor Rank's Third Heaven to the Ninth Heaven in just three hundred years."

Melinda clapped in approval and exclaimed proudly. "Amazing! You're exceptional, James. It's usually sufficient when a cultivator manages to raise their rank even once after deepening their understanding of a path. Yet, you managed to raise your rank successively!"

Returning her smile, he said, "I've achieved my purpose for coming to Mount Sword God. We should get going."

Melinda asked, "Where are we going next?"

"We're going to visit the Ancestral Talisman Master."

The Ancestral Talisman Master was another esteemed powerhouse that James highly respected.

Although Curse Magic was considered evil in the Apocalypse Age, it was only because most of its practitioners used an incomplete version of it. No one could obtain the Ancestral Talisman Master's complete Curse Magic.

The Ancestral Talisman Master knew that the Heavenly Path would use Curse Magic to cause the extinction of the Human Race. Thus, he made preparations for that day.

The Ancestral Talisman Master held great compassion for others.

James asked, "Do you know where the Ancestral Talisman Master lives?"

Although he had been in the Primeval Age for a long time, James had no idea where the Ancestral Talisman Master actually was.

The Ancestral Talisman Master was a very enigmatic person. Unlike the Ancestral Sword Master, he kept a low-profile.

Melinda shook her head lightly and said, "I don't. From what I know, the Ancestral Talisman Master has always been shrouded in mystery and rarely appeared in public. No one knows where he lives."

James fell into deep thought.

'If even Melinda had no idea, who else could he ask about the Ancestral Talisman Master?

'Do I have to head back to Mount Nothingness to find out?'

However, Melinda was accompanying him. Thus, James knew he could not return to Mount Nothingness. After considering everything briefly, James decided to head to the Callahan Residence to ask Thea.

"Let's head to the Callahan Residence first," said James.

Melinda nodded.

Then, James got up and left Mount Divine Sword.

After walking out of Mount Sword God, James created a spatial passage. Then, James led Melinda through it, disappearing from the field outside of Mount Sword God.

Shortly after, they appeared outside the Callahan Residence.

"You're here, Mr. Caden."

"Good to see you, Mr. Caden."

Along the way, many of the Callahans' disciples greeted him respectfully.

James was no longer a nameless nobody. Now, he was a prodigy, famous throughout the universe. He was the strongest cultivator amongst those below the Quasi Ancestral God Rank.

What's more, he was the Deputy Leader of Mount Heavenly Path's Mount Teva.

There were also rumors going around that James was about to marry Mount Heavenly Path's Princess and was about to become Hadad's son-in-law.

He was about to become one of the most influential people in the universe. Therefore, the Callahans showed a lot of respect toward James. James also greeted the disciples of the Callahans in a friendly manner. Then, he walked directly toward Thea's spiritual mountain. Soon, he arrived at Thea's seclusion sanctuary.

Thea immediately showed up when he arrived at her sanctuary door.

Thea looked at Melinda, who was accompanying James. Then, she turned back to James and said coldly, "I see how it is, James. You repeatedly refused to marry Sienna but then you immediately got together with Mount Heavenly Path's Princess. So you think Melinda is better than Sienna, is that it?"

James was taken aback by her words.

He never expected Thea to question him about the marriage with Melinda as soon as he came to the Callahan Residence. James was unsure how to explain the matter to her. He scratched his head awkwardly and said, "It's not what you think, Thea."

Thea narrowed her eyes. "What else could it be? Did you forget who tried to save you when Mount Heavenly Path wanted to kill you? Now that the crisis is over, you turn your back on us and suck up to Mount Heavenly Path."

James knew it was impossible to explain the situation clearly with the way things looked now.

Before James could respond, Melinda stepped forward and said as she stared Thea down, "Please watch your words, Bria. novelebook.com James didn't want to marry Sienna because he had no feelings for her."

Thea looked at her and said, "So does he have feelings for you?"

"Of course."

Melinda linked arms with James and said affectionately, "James and I have known each other for a long time. When we first met, he took the initiative to strike up a conversation with me."

Thea did not bother replying to Melinda's provocation. She was a Caelum Ancestral God, and it would be petty of her to bicker with Melinda.

Thea looked at James and asked coldly, "What are you here for?"

Thea was disappointed in James. She had done so much to bind James to the Callahans so that their family could become even more influential in the future.

Ultimately, her efforts were wasted.

James, on the other hand, kept saying he liked her. Yet ultimately was going to marry Melinda.

'Haha. Men can't be trusted,' thought Thea.

James said, "I came to ask you for some information. You're a Caelum Ancestral God and should be well-informed. Do you, by chance, know where the Ancestral Talisman Master's spiritual mountain is?"

She was taken aback by the question. "The Ancestral Talisman Master?"

Although she was disappointed with James, she was a Caelum Ancestral God and had to give James his answer.

Her brows furrowed, and she asked. "Why are you asking about him?"

James said, "I obtained a few Curse Inscriptions by chance and cultivated the Curse Path. I wanted to look for him to ask for a few pointers."

Thea reminded him, "Whether the Ancestral Talisman Master is a good or bad person is ambiguous. He is a bizarre person who is also prone to mood swings. You shouldn't get close to him.

James had met the Ancestral Talisman Master before and understood his personality somewhat.

James said, "You just need to tell me his location. I'll worry about the rest."

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3568-James could sense that Thea was not pleased with him. Thus, it was really useless to explain himself at the moment.

For now, he simply wanted to find out the Ancestral Talisman Master's whereabouts. Then, he could ask the Ancestral Talisman Master to guide him in cultivating Curse Magic. He needed to improve his Curse Path in order to improve his cultivation rank and grow stronger.

Thea's brows furrowed. Although unhappy with James, she was optimistic about his future potential. As such, she did not want James to get close to the Ancestral Talisman Master.

However, James insisted on knowing his location, so she knew persuading him was useless.

After a brief thought, Thea said, "The Ancestral Talisman Master's spiritual mountain is in an isolated area. He invited me to the Talisman Land some time ago, so I've been there before."

James responded in delight. "Where's the Talisman Land?"

"It's not in the Human Realm."

After speaking, she took out a map of the universe. Powerful realms and well-known places were marked out on the map. Since the universe was extremely vast, it was impossible to mark out every corner of the universe.

Thea pointed to an area on the map and said, "The Ancestral Talisman Master is somewhere in the region."

James looked at the map and burned the location into his mind. Then, he clasped his hands and said gratefully, novelebook.com "Thank you, Thea."

Thea waved her hand dismissively. "You can leave now."

After she finished speaking, she vanished from his sight.

James felt at a loss with her cold attitude. He turned toward Melinda beside him and said, "Let's go."

The two left the Callahan Residence together.

Afterward, James used the Space Path's Power to open a spatial passage. The two stepped into the spatial passage and left the Human Realm.

The next moment, they had arrived in the depths of the universe.

The Talisman Land was the Ancestral Talisman Master's residence.

However, only a handful of people knew of the Talisman Land. Only top powerhouses were aware of the place.

The Talisman Land was actually a world called the Talisman Realm, which was a relatively small planet.

The Ancestral Talisman Master resided within the planet. Thus, the planet's space was relatively stable, even more so than some other powerful worlds. In addition, the Ancestral Talisman Master was a powerful cultivator that mastered potent Supernatural Powers.

With his supreme Supernatural Powers, he moved a few Primordial Pulses from throughout the universe to the planet. Thus, the Talisman Realm was suffused with concentrated Primordial Energy and almost on par with the Human Realm.

Somewhere in the starry outer space, James looked ahead and said, "Thea said the Talisman Land is in this region."

Melinda nodded and said, "Yeah. However, it's only a rough guess of the actual location. It will take some time before we find the Ancestral Talisman Master."

James immediately activated his Divine Sense to survey the surroundings.

Even though he was a Ninth Heaven Grand Emperor who could perceive things remotely, the universe was far too big. Even a tiny portion of the universe was massive.

James sensed the surroundings and found only uninhabited planets around them.

He began to move forward while sensing the surrounding planets.

Three months later, James finally found an inhabited planet.

"I found it."

James flew toward the planet excitedly. Shortly after, he arrived there.

Compared to the Seven Realms, it was a relatively small planet.

Shortly after, they appeared outside a mountain range. James activated his Divine Sense and scanned the planet. However, the strongest person he could locate on the planet was only a Quasi Ancestral God. There was not even an Ancestral God on the planet.

Moreover, James could not sense Curse Power in the Talisman Realm.

His brows furrowed.

Beside him, Melinda asked. "What's wrong, James?"

James replied. "I used my Divine Sense just now. Although the Primordial Energy here is abundant, there are very few powerhouses. The strongest is only a Quasi Ancestral God. Moreover, I don't sense any Curse Magic on this planet."

"The Ancestral Talisman Master is a highly prestigious powerhouse. There must be a formation around his residential area. Perhaps you're not strong enough to sense the formation he set up. Let's just walk around and ask around about him."

"Alright." James nodded.

For now, there was no other option.

James and Melinda began to wander around the Talisman Realm, trying to obtain information about the Ancestral Talisman Master.

Within the Chaos, twelve universes existed.

Every universe was vast and wide.

Although the universe was massive, there were limits to how big it could be. Meanwhile, the Chaos was boundless.

Even Macrocosm Ancestral Gods could not perceive the end of the Chaos.

The so-called Chaos was a dark abyss. Within the void were countless substances, unknown forces, novelebook.com and even undiscovered treasure.

James' Infinite Steles existed since the beginning of the Twelfth Universe.

These kinds of treasures originated from the Chaos.

In some unknown place within the Chaos, a glimmer of light appeared. It continued to brighten dazzlingly.

The light gradually illuminated the dark void.

Boom!

Shortly after, it exploded.

With the explosion, a space appeared and rapidly expanded.

In that moment, Hadad was resting in his palace in the Twelfth Universe.

Suddenly, he sensed something abnormal and abruptly opened his eyes. At that moment, strange light burst forth from his eyes.

“What...?”

He exclaimed in shock. “The Thirteenth Universe has formed.”

Hadad took a deep breath.

He had sensed the explosion in the Chaos and that a universe had been born.

Hadad was not the only one that noticed the strange phenomenon. The other Macrocosm Ancestral Gods from the other universes and Caelum Ancestral Gods sensed the abnormal fluctuations coming from the depths of the Chaos. All of them immediately knew that a new universe had formed.

Countless Chaotic Treasures would enter the new universe.

The Macrocosm Ancestral Gods were interested in the Chaotic Treasure. Some of Macrocosm Ancestral Gods did not have a Chaotic Treasure of their own. A Chaotic Treasure could allow them to obtain another Macrocosm Power.

At that moment, all Macrocosm Ancestral Gods from the Twelve Universes headed into the depths of the Chaos to visit the newly-born universe.

The Chaos was vast and boundless. Even Macrocosm Ancestral Gods could get lost there. However, they could sense the new universe and easily made their way over.

Soon, the Macrocosm Ancestral Gods of the Twelve Universes gathered outside the new universe.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3570-A new universe paved the way for many opportunities.

After the birth of a new universe, many Chaotic Treasures would appear. These Chaotic Treasures were so remarkable that even Macrocosm Ancestral Gods did not want to miss the chance.

Moreover, more opportunities to become a Macrocosm Ancestral God would also be available with the appearance of the new universe.

Therefore, the Macrocosm Ancestral Gods around the Twelve Universes immediately rushed to the new universe after sensing its birth.

They all arrived at almost the same time.

“Haha! What a crowd. I haven’t been to such a lively event in a long time.”

An animated voice boomed in the new universe.

Shortly after, an arrogant-looking man appeared. He wore a white robe and looked to be in his 20s.

“Long time no see, Kallinikos. I’m curious how much you’ve improved since we last met.”

Another voice resounded, and an older man made his way through the crowd.

Suddenly, a beautiful woman then appeared before the younger man.

The younger man in the white robe was the Ninth Universe’s Lord. He was also a Macrocosm Ancestral God. He was a Sword Cultivator that cultivated multiple Macrocosm Powers using his Sword Path.

His name was Kallinikos Yoav, and he was the teacher of the Ancestral Sword Master.

The beautiful woman that appeared was the Tenth Universe’s Lord. She was also Kallinikos’ wife, Yekaterina Larkspur.

The old man’s expression hardened after seeing them together. The couple were very powerful and not to be trifled with.

Soon, Macrocosm Ancestral Gods from other universes also appeared.

The Twelfth Universe’s Lord, Hadad showed up. Hadad was a Macrocosm Ancestral God with one Macrocosm Power and was the weakest among them.

The First Universe’s Lord glanced at the others around him. He was a middle-aged man dressed in a golden robe.

The First Universe's Lord was called the Omnipotent Lord, as the first universe was the first to come into being. Therefore, he was recognized as the most potent Macrocosm Ancestral God.

The Omnipotent Lord looked at the others around him and said, "With the birth of the new universe, there'll be many new opportunities. I know everyone is here to acquire the Macrocosm Core to improve their strength. However, the new universe will cease to exist if that core is taken away. It's only newly formed and can't exist without the core.

"I suggest we older folks refrain from obtaining the treasures on the new planet. Let's leave the opportunity to the newer generations," novelebook.com suggested The Omnipotent Lord.

Kallinikos asked. "What do you mean?"

The Omnipotent Lord said, "This universe has just taken form and isn't stable yet. It is still in the process of maturing. It will eventually stabilize with time, bringing many great boons with it.

"However, the space of this universe won't be able to withstand the aftermath of fierce battles even after stabilizing. How about we each send out representatives under the Ancestral God Rank to come to this universe? Whoever obtains the boons will be the keeper. Also, the next Macrocosm Ancestral God will be decided by their fate. "

"Alright. I agree with the Omnipotent Lord's suggestion. The universe has just formed, and if Macrocosm Ancestral Gods like us were to enter, we could destroy the universe. We should allow those under the Ancestral God Rank to enter the new universe instead."

"I agree."

"I also concur with the idea."

"If it's the Omnipotent Lord's suggestion, then I'm fine with it."

"If any Ancestral Gods breach our agreement and enter the universe, I'll be sure to kill them."
