The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3585-James nodded. "Yeah, I've already been informed."

Thea said solemnly, "Although the new universe has countless opportunities, it's also a perilous place. I strongly suggest against going."

Thea knew James had gone to the Rune Land with the Ancestral Talisman Master. She had been waiting for James to finish cultivating and specifically came to see him to persuade him not to go to the new universe.

"Our Heavenly Path is the weakest, so even if you're at the same cultivation rank as the other universes' cultivators, you won't stand a chance against them."

"You should stay in the Twelfth Universe. With your potential, you'll definitely become a Macrocosm Ancestral God."

James did not expect Thea to be worried about his safety. He asked teasingly, "Are you worried about me?"

Thea's beautiful face flushed, and she felt slightly embarrassed. However, she quickly suppressed the feeling and glared at James, saying lightly, "I simply don't want a prodigy to die so easily. Also, I don't wish for Sienna to return and blame me for not holding you back after she finds out about your death."

"Liar."

James walked toward Thea and closed in on her. He leaned toward her, and her face zoomed before him. Even her pores were visible.

Thea held her breath as James got closer. She was slightly nervous and could not help but take two steps backward.

James quickly stepped toward her and wrapped one arm around Thea's slender waist.

"You..."

James did not give her the chance to speak. He pulled her into his embrace and kissed her lips.

"Mhm... Mhm..."

Thea could not speak with James' lips pressed against hers.

After a few seconds, she reacted and pushed James away. Then, she quickly turned around, refusing to let James see her face.

James smiled brightly. In the past, Thea would knock him away with her energy whenever he got close. However, this time, she did not exert her energy to blast him away.

Thea was a Caelum Ancestral God. If she was unwilling, no one could get close to her.

James was delighted. Since Thea allowed him to kiss her, it meant she was slightly fond of him. Thea had allowed him to get close. Thus, James assumed she might even be in love with him.

At that moment, Thea felt conflicted. She was unsure why she did not immediately push James away but instead let him get close.

It was her first time having such feelings. James remained silent, and so did she.

After a while, Thea calmed herself down and turned around.

James had a bright smile on his face as he called out, "Thea."

Thea rolled her eyes. James was mesmerized by her and felt like she had taken his breath away.

"Must you go?" asked Thea.

James nodded and said, "Mhm. I still have many things to do. I need to obtain these boons. Hadad will constantly suppress me in the Twelfth Universe, and it'll be impossible for me to become a Macrocosm Ancestral God. I will only get the chance if I go to the new universe."

"But..."

Thea wanted to persuade him once more, but James interrupted her.

"You don't have to worry. Even though our universe's Heavenly Path is the weakest and they're much stronger than us, I'm not afraid. I'm sure I'll be invincible once I reach the Quasi Ancestral God's Path Integration Rank. Even a cultivator from the First Universe won't be a match against me."

James beamed with confidence.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3586-Thea agreed with James. However, he would have to reach the peak of the Quasi Ancestral God's Path Integration Rank. James still had a long way to go before he reached that rank, and he might not make it with the remaining time.

She did not want James to take such a dangerous risk.

Although she had never been to other universes, she knew how strong the powerhouses there were.

She frowned slightly.

James inched closer to her again, took her hand, and said, "How about I promise not to go if I don't reach the Quasi Ancestral Rank?"

Thea broke away from James and put her hands behind her. She sighed and said, "Since you've already made up your mind, so be it. novelebook.com Come to the Callahan Residence before you depart to the new universe."

Thea knew she could not convince James to stay. Thus, she hoped that James would come to see her before leaving for the new universe.

James nodded and said, "Mhm. Before I leave, I'll drop by the Callahan Residence."

Thea did not say much in response and disappeared with a flash.

James looked in the direction she left and smiled faintly. He came to the Primeval Age for Thea. However, he did not exist to her.

Fortunately, things seemed to be moving in a good direction.

He had slowly become important to her.

After a long time, James turned around and returned to Metal City's gate.

When he returned to the city gate, many fully armed guards were around the area. The guards respectfully stood in front of James.

Seeing James return, Melinda rushed over and asked, "Did something happen? Is everything alright?"

James smiled lightly and said, "It's nothing serious."

The head of the guards walked over and said respectfully, "Princess Melinda, Mr. Caden. I'm Metal City's head of guards. What brings the two of you here today? Is there something we can do for you two?"

James looked at him and said, "I'm here to see the Ancestral Gold Master."

"The Ancestral Gold Master is current on Mount Element. Please do come into the city first. I'll report your visit to him immediately."

Faced with James and Melinda, the head of guards was very respectful and quickly attended to them, welcoming them into the city.

James and Melinda entered the city. Then, they were brought to the City Lord's Mansion to await the Ancestral Gold Master. The head of guards quickly left for Mount Element to report their visit.

After they had waited for a while, the guard returned. He quickly said, "Princess Melinda, Mr. Caden, the Ancestral Gold Master would like to invite you two up to Mount Element."

James nodded and said, "Alright. Lead the way."

The central mountain of Mount Element was where the Five Elements gathered.

At that moment, the Five Ancestral Masters met on Mount Element.

An elderly man in a golden robe said, "James has come to Mount Element."

Another elderly man wearing a brown robe stroked his beard and said, "First, he went to Mount Sword God to get advice from the Ancestral Sword Master and improved his Sword Path Seal to the peak of the Grand Emperor Rank's Ninth Heaven. Then, he went to the Rune Land to seek the Ancestral Talisman Master's guidance and also improved his Curse Path Seal to the peak of the Grand Emperor Rank's Ninth Heaven. Now, he has come to Mount Element. He's most likely here to ask us to help him cultivate in the Elemental Path.

"This kid's potential is really terrifying. He came to this Age with the Five Elements of Genesis he acquired in the future. We still don't know his purpose for coming to our age.

"It's impressive that he resisted Karma Power and traveled through the River of Time.

"Perhaps something happened in the future, and he came to seek a solution."

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3587-The Five Ancestral Masters gathered and discussed James.

Their discussion lasted very briefly, as nothing came out of it.

Shortly after, James appeared.

Seeing the five elderly men before him, James walked over and clasped his hands. He greeted them respectfully, "My name is James Caden. It's a pleasure to meet all of you."

The Ancestral Gold Master waved his hand and said, "Treat Mount Element like your home. You don't have to be so restrained. Here, have a seat."

While speaking, the Ancestral Gold Master waved his hand, and a chair manifested.

James walked over and sat down.

The Ancestral Aqua Master looked at James and asked, "Did you come to improve your Elemental Paths?"

James replied truthfully, "Yeah. A new universe has been born, and Lord Hadad wants to send me there to seize the treasures that will appear. However, my current cultivation rank is very low. I've cultivated five of the Elemental Path Seals. I came to seek guidance since you five have the deepest understanding of the Elemental Path. I humbly ask for your teachings."

The Ancestral Wood Master looked at James with satisfaction. Then, he said, "You've already cultivated an Elemental Holy Body and have the Five Elements of Genesis with you. Also, you've already formed Elemental Path Seals. As long as you continue cultivating, you can perfect the Elemental Path."

"The new universe is dangerous, but we're optimistic about you. I really hope you seize more Chaotic Treasures in the new universe and help improve the Twelfth Universe's strength."

The Five Ancestral Masters had great expectations of James.

The Ancestral Gold Master suddenly remembered something and asked, "By the way, what's the Elemental Supernatural Power you use?"

Five of them had been secretly paying attention to James.

From the moment James used the Five Elements of Genesis, they had sensed his existence and knew James could perform Elemental Inversion.

They were the creators of Elemental Inversion. However, they were still developing it and had not perfected it yet.

Faced with the Five Ancestral Master's questions, James replied respectfully, "Everything I've learned and know about the Elemental Path was left behind by the five of you."

The Ancestral Gold Master said, "We were right. Our speculations were correct, and we're going in the right direction. novelebook.comFusing the Five Elements of Genesis with Elemental Power can create Macrocosm Power."

The Five Ancestral Masters did not ask much about the future events, nor did they inquire about Elemental Inversion. Since James came from the future, it would attract Karma Power if they were to discuss Elemental inversion with him. Even as Caelum Ancestral Gods, they could not withstand Karma Power.

"Let's get started."

The Ancestral Gold Master spoke, then all of them leaped into the air and returned to their respective mountains.

Each of the Five Ancestral Gods corresponded with a mountain.

At that moment, James sensed the Power of Metal, Wood, Water, Fire, and Earth merging to form the Elemental Inversion Formation.

The Elemental Inversion Formation was a Supernatural Power from Elemental Inversion, capable of absorbing all kinds of power from the surrounding environment.

After the Five Ancestral Masters activated the Elemental Inversion Formation, the power of heaven and earth quickly gathered.

The Powers of Metal, Wood, Water, Fire, and Earth intertwined in the sky, forming a magical pattern.

At that moment, James leaped into the center of the formation. He could sense the Elemental Power around him. The Elemental Power materialized into mysterious Elemental Inscriptions.

"You've cultivated an Elemental Holy Body but never used it in battle, nor have you been using its greatest potential.

"We will use the Elemental Path's Power to enhance your physical body.

"While this happens, you'll clearly sense the existence of our Elemental Path's Power. How much you comprehend will be up to you."

The Five Ancestral Master's voices resounded throughout the area.

James took a deep breath.

He knew it was a great opportunity for him.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3588-The Five Ancestral Masters activated the Elemental Inversion Formation, which was only a fraction of the completed Elemental Inversion.

They had created the Elemental Inversion Formation a long time ago.

At that moment, James floated in the center of the formation. He could sense the majestic Elemental Energy entering his body and nourishing his flesh.

The Five Ancestral Masters urged their Elemental Power to temper James' physical body.

James' current physical strength was still far from the Quasi Ancestral God Rank and was considered weak. He would have to raise it to the peak of the Quasi Ancestral God Rank to compete with the other universes' powerhouses.

At the same time, his surroundings were full of Elemental Path runes.

The Five Ancestral Masters fused their comprehension of the Elemental Path into runes and passed it on to James.

While James' body was being tempered, he began cultivating in the Elemental Path.

His physical strength and comprehension of the Elemental Path kept growing.

Three million years passed in a flash.

James' physical strength had already reached the peak of the Grand Emperor Rank's Ninth Heaven, and he was only one step away from reaching the Quasi Ancestral God Rank.

His understanding of the Elemental Path had also grown much deeper.

James' Elemental Path Seals had also reached the Grand Emperor Rank's Ninth Heaven.

So far, his Sword Path, Curse Path, and Elemental Paths had reached the Grand Emperor Rank's Ninth Heaven.

His Path Seals of the Yin and Yang Path, Five Great Paths, Dark Path, and Karma Path were left.

The formation on Mount Element disappeared.

James slowly descended from the sky and landed firmly on the ground.

Immediately afterward, the Five Ancestral Masters approached him.

The Ancestral Gold Master said, "We've already done all we can to help you, James. You'll have to figure the rest out yourself. I know you've practiced many Paths, and the strongest among them is the Five Great Paths."

The Ancestral Earth Master said, "The Five Great Paths are amazing. Throughout the ages, no cultivator that practiced either of the Five Great Paths has successfully become an Ancestral God."

"No one can help you with the Five Great Paths. You'll be on your own."

The Five Ancestral Gods gave a few comments.

James clasped his fists and said, "Thank you for your guidance."

"Go on."

The Ancestral Gold Master waved his hand and said, "You've been here for three million years. novelebook.com There's not much time left. You must continue working hard with the remaining time."

James nodded lightly.

He was in a race against time. He had stayed in the Rune Land for three million years and on Mount Element for another three million years.

Two-tenth of his time had passed.

James bid farewell to the Five Ancestral Masters, then left Mount Element.

Outside Mount Element, Melinda asked, "Where are we going next?"

James answered without hesitation, "To see the Ancestral Needle Master."

The only person left that could guide him was the Ancestral Needle Master.

The Ancestral Needle Master cultivated the Medical Path and Yang Path. He was also one of the first batch of living beings that was born in the Twelfth Universe.

Melinda said, "Okay. I'll go wherever you go."

The Ancestral Needle Master usually traveled the universe, and his whereabouts were uncertain. However, it was easy for James to find him.

James immediately took out Crucifier, and Karma Power struck. However, Karma Power could no longer harm him, and he could even absorb it.

After James summoned Crucifier, the Ancestral Needle Master immediately sensed it.

Swoosh!

Soon, a white glow appeared before James.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3589-An old man with white hair appeared before James.

James clasped his fists and said, "It's a pleasure to see you, Sir."

The Ancestral Needle Master waved his hand and asked, "What's the matter?"

James said, "I'd like to cultivate under your guidance for a while."

"Sure!"

The Ancestral Needle Master's face lit up. He had wanted to give James a few pointers since a long time ago.

James had obtained Crucifier, so he must have also acquired his inheritance. Thus, the Ancestral Needle Master was very optimistic about James.

The Ancestral Needle Master suddenly remembered something and asked, "By the way, I've investigated the matter after we parted last time. A Chaotic Treasure called the Time Capsule appeared when the Twelfth Universe was born. It's a very miraculous Chaotic Treasure."

James listened attentively. The Ancestral Needle Master only had Crucifier and not Exalter. Since he had brought it up now, he must have learned about the truth of the matter.

The Ancestral Needle Master continued, "The Time Capsule is a very powerful treasurer. It's most likely one of the strongest among the Chaotic Treasures that have been found. When our universe was first formed, countless powerhouses from different universes fought frantically over the Time Capsule. They accidentally shattered the Time Capsule into two, resulting in the Yin and Yang Needles—Crucifier and Exalter.

“I was fortunate enough to obtain Crucifier. Meanwhile, Exalter was taken by a powerhouse from another universe.”

“Another universe’s powerhouse took it?”

Jame was surprised.

The Ancestral Needle Master said, “Yeah. I’ve investigated for quite a long time and learned that a Caelum Ancestral God of the Eleventh Universe called the Ancestral Soul Master had obtained Exalter. He has very strong Demonic Power.”

James’ brows furrowed.

‘How did Exalter end up in the Twelfth Universe in the future if it was supposed to be in the Eleventh Universe?’ thought James.

All these things were still unsolved mysteries.

The Ancestral Needle Master said, “Now that you’ve obtained Crucifier and Exalter and also mastered the technique of fusing them into a Time Capsule, we shouldn’t bother with them for now.”

“Alright.” James nodded.

James was sure a major event would happen in the Twelfth Universe. However, these matters had nothing to do with him. novelebook.com He would return to the future after Thea’s soul was extracted to refine the Ancestral God Rank Elixir.

His life was in the future, and the Primeval Age’s future was not his concern.

James found out he had another Chaotic Treasure.

After coming to the Primeval Age, James learned about Chaotic Treasures. They were powerful treasures that appeared when a new universe was born and could provide one with Macrocosm Power.

However, this only applied to Caelum Ancestral Gods. Cultivators below that would be unable to unleash the Chaotic Treasure’s full potential.

James already had three Chaotic Treasures—the Five Elements of Genesis, the Infinite Steles, and the Time Capsule.

It was terrifying for someone to have that many Chaotic Treasures.

The Ancestral Needle Master looked at James and said, “I practice the Heavenly Path, also known as the Yang Path. You’ve also cultivated the Yang Path. Yin and Yang are a whole, and it’ll be too slow if you cultivate them separately. Thus, I plan to take you to a special place to cultivate.”

James asked, “Where is that?”

The Ancestral Needle Master replied, “The Yin and Yang Valley.”

“The Yin and Yang Valley?” James was surprised.

The Ancestral Needle Master nodded and said, “Yeap. It’s one of the Ten Holy Lands, which makes it a perfect place to cultivate. I visited the Yin and Yang Valley and read a few books there to find the truth about the Time Capsule.”

James said, “I’ll do as you say.”

The Ancestral Needle Master said, “But, the Yin and Yang Valley is a sect isolated away from the universe. The people there are very hard to get along with. When we get there, you should behave yourself. I’ll take care of the rest.”

James replied, “Alright.”

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3590-The palace was not within the Seven Realms. Instead, it was located on an unknown small planet.

The Ten Holy Lands had already been forgotten a long time ago. Apart from a few older generations that knew about it, the younger generations had no clue what the Ten Holy Lands were and where they were located.

Swoosh!

Three figures appeared in outer space.

It was the Ancestral Needle Master, James, and Melinda.

The Ancestral Needle Master pointed at a red planet ahead of them and said, “That’s Kaiga Realm. For countless years, the Yin and Yang Valley has stayed hidden from others. Very few know about their existence. Let’s get going.”

The Ancestral Needle Master strode toward the red planet.

James and Melinda followed closely behind him.

After entering the planet, the three of them landed in a forest.

The forest's environment was harsh, and there were many spatial rifts in the sky and ground that emitted violent energy. The Primordial Energy around them was also very scarce. Other living beings would never step foot into this place.

The Ancestral Needle Master said, "We've arrived at the Yin and Yang Valley. When our universe was born, an intense battle broke out here, destroying the surrounding space. As a result, there exist countless spatial rifts here. Even Heaven's Law is incapable of repairing the space. novelebook.com Therefore, this area was left in such a tragic state. The Yin and Yang Valley is hidden within this mountain range."

The Ancestral Needle Master looked at the mountain range ahead of them and shouted, "It's me, the Ancestral Needle Master. Please open the mountain gate, Valley Master!"

His voice resounded throughout the area.

Shortly after, a figure appeared in front of him. The person that appeared was not polite toward the Ancestral Needle Master at all. He shouted back, "You've already visited us before and read all kinds of articles within our valley. What else do you want?"

The Ancestral Needle Master replied, "I brought a junior to cultivate in the Yin and Yang Valley for a while."

"I'm sorry, but the Yin and Yang Valley is a precious land to us. It's not open to the public, so please leave."

After the person finished speaking, he disappeared.

James looked at the Ancestral Needle Master and asked, "What should we do now, Sir?"

The Ancestral Needle Master smiled lightly and said, "Do you know how I got in last time?"

Puzzled, James shook his head.

The Ancestral Needle Master said, "I fought my way in."

After speaking, a powerful aura erupted from his body and soared to the sky like a giant dragon. His energy dispersed around the area, and the formation protecting the mountain range showed signs of disintegrating.

The Ancestral Needle Master was a very famous powerhouse. He was powerful and could easily destroy the Yin and Yang Valley if he wanted.

After sensing the substantial Heavenly Power, James was shocked and thought, 'As expected from the Ancestral Needle Master. His Heavenly Power is terrifying.'

The Yin and Yang Valley was forced to open their formation after being pressured by the Ancestral Needle Master.

After the formation was deactivated, the environment around them immediately changed drastically. James sensed abundant Primordial Energy, and a few spiritual mountains appeared in sight.

Soon, a white-haired old man with a beard wearing a white robe appeared before them. He said helplessly, "Ancestral Needle Master, you should know the Yin and Yang Valley wants to stay isolated from the universe and is not willing to expose itself. Yet, you've repeatedly trespassed into our valley. What exactly do you want this time?"

The Ancestral Needle Master smiled and said, "I already told you. I brought a junior to cultivate in your valley for some time."

The old man was none other than the Yin and Yang Valley's Master, Darden Ywain. He cultivated the Yin and Yang Path, and his strength was that of a Terra Ancestral God.
