The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3591-Regardless of how powerful the rank of a Terra Ancestral God was, it was simply not high enough to make the cut.

“Ancestral Needle Master, the Place of Yin and Yang is the holy site of my valley. Only the disciples of my valley may enter. Plus, we have strict regulations. Powerful figures who have not reached the Quasi Ancestral God Rank are barred from entering the Place of Yin and Yang,” said Darden Ywain.

The Ancestral Needle Master caressed his white beard as he said, “This is not a matter of your concern. All you need to do is open up the Place of Yin and Yang.”

Darden replied, “Even if I were to allow you in, the disciples of my sect would not approve of it. How about this? You may first enter the valley and stay here while I gather my disciples to convene on this matter.”

“That works,” The Master said.

Just like that, the Ancestral Needle Master, James, and Melinda settled into the Valley of Yin and Yang.

Melinda asked curiously, “Where is this place actually? Why has it been named one of the Ten Great Cultivation Holy Sites?”

James was curious as well and waited patiently for the Ancestral Needle Master to answer her question.

The Ancestral Needle Master said, “The Place of Yin and Yang is the mystical birthplace of the Time Capsule. This site encloses True Heavenly Yang Energy and True Demonic Yin Energy, as well as mystical scripts of the Paths of Yin and Yang. James has the Needle of Yin and Yang and Exalter, which can be merged to form the Time Capsule. He’s still not familiar with the power of the Time Capsule, so I brought him here to help him with his cultivation and to buttress his understanding of the Capsule.”

“Thank you so much for your thoughtfulness,” James said gratefully.

The Ancestral Needle Master shrugged it off and said, “Let’s wait for now. If the valley disapproves of our entry, we will have no choice but to use force.”novelebook.com He was rather confident about his capacity. There was no issue in forcing the valley to cooperate.

In the main hall of the Valley of Yin and Yang, many people gathered. Darden, the Sect Leader, sat on his seat with a worried look on his face. He said, “The Ancestral Needle Master came again. The last time he came to our valley, he dug up many of our ancient books. This time, he brought a youngster with him, wanting to cultivate in the Place of Yin and Yang.”

“No way.”

An elder stepped forward, condemning, “The Place of Yin and Yang is the holy site of our valley, how can we allow foreigners to simply enter the site?”

“Exactly.”

“The power of the Place of Yin and Yang has been accumulated for quite some time now to benefit the next genius of our valley. This power has now been materialized into the Yin and Yang Holy Body. If we allow someone else to enter the Place, then the preparations of the entire Valley are just going to go to waste.”

One by one, all the Elders joined the discussion.

Darden said helplessly, “I don’t want it to happen as well, but the Ancestral Needle Master is a Caelum Ancestral God. He has the Needle of Yin and Yang, which is a differentiation of the Time Capsule and is overwhelmingly powerful. All of us won’t stand a chance against him.”

“Then, what should we do?”

“How about this? Let’s set up a challenge. If they wish to enter the Place of Yin and Yang, they must complete the challenge.”

“That’s our only option left provided our circumstances. But, how are we supposed to set up a challenge when we’re unsure of their capacity?”

“That’s easy. I’ll test them out,” Darden said.

“Alright.” The Elders nodded.

After the brief meeting, Darden left the main hall for the Ancestral Needle Master’s place of accommodation.

He smiled widely at the gates of their lodging, greeted them, and said, “Have my disciples treated you well?”

The Master replied with a smile, “Not bad.”

Darden shifted his glance unto James and Melinda and asked, “May I know which of you would like to cultivate in the Place of Yin and Yang?”

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3592-The Ancestral Needle Master pointed at James and said, "Him."

Hearing this, Darden, who was a Terra Ancestral God and had reached the peak of that rank, looked at James. Although he could not see how many Path Seals James had cultivated, he could sense that James was only at the Grand Emperor Rank's Ninth Heaven.

"This can't do, I'm afraid," He said. His eyebrows lowered as he explained, "The Place of Yin and Yang isn't any regular place. It's impossible to survive there, let alone cultivate if you haven't reached the Quasi Ancestral God Rank."

The Master smiled and said, "That is none of your concern. All you need to do is to open up the Place of Yin and Yang. Whether he makes it out dead or alive will have no bearing on you."

Darden's pupils oscillated. He knew that the Master was a renowned powerful figure, so anyone he brought with him must have been extraordinary. Even if James' rank was at the Grand Emperor Rank's Ninth Heaven, his capacity must have surpassed that.

After giving the Master's words some thought, he smiled and said, "Ancestral Needle Master, I have discussed this with the Elders. The Elders do not approve of this, but I have convinced them by saying that we should allow for exceptions, especially when you're the Ancestral Needle Master who holds the Needle of Yin and Yang, a treasure that shares the same source with the Valley. Upon hearing this, they have agreed to permit your entry, but on one condition."

The Master saw this coming and asked smilingly, "What condition?"

Darden replied, "Let me be honest with you and say that the power of Yin and Yang has been accumulated in the Place of Yin and Yang for quite a while now. novelebook.com This extremely rich power is meant for the use of a genius of our sect. If you want to enter the Place, you'll require the approval of this genius. I've already asked him, and he said that you'd be permitted entry as long as you succeeded in defeating him."

The Ancestral Needle Master said with a smile, "That's easy. Just let him fight James now."

The Valley of Yin and Yang was too isolated from the rest of the universe. They interacted so little with the outer world that they were not aware of how big a reputation James had gained. They had no idea that James defeated the champion of the Martial Ranking when he was merely at the Great Emperor Rank's Third Heaven.

Darden replied uncomfortably, "But, the genius of our sect is quite high-ranked. If James were to fight him, wouldn't that constitute bullying on our part?"

The Ancestral Needle Master asked, "What's the rank of this so-called genius of yours?"

"The Quasi Ancestral God Rank." Darden was honest. "He's also cultivated many Path Seals, attained the peak of the Path Integration rank, and is very near to attaining the Ancestral God Rank. This holy site is for him to break through and reach the Ancestral God Rank."

The Master took a quick glance at James and asked, "Do you have faith in defeating him?"

James let out a casual smile and said, "I'm not sure. We'll need to come to grips to find out." He was not sure about his battle strength as well, as the last time he fought someone was back on Mount Heavenly Path, which was a long time ago.

Hearing James' reply, the Ancestral Needle Master was relieved. He looked at Darden and said, "We're in a hurry, so arrange for it now."

The Ancestral Needle Master's expression became stern after Darden's departure. He reminded James, "James, don't be too careless. Although the Valley of Yin and Yang is isolated from the universe, it's still one of the Ten Great Cultivation Holy Sites. No genius born here is an easy opponent."

James replied, "My Sword Path, Curse Path, and Elemental Path have all reached the Great Emperor Rank's Ninth Heaven. With this capacity, I might even stand a chance against powerful figures at the Path Integration Rank who've cultivated many Paths."

James was confident in himself. He was much stronger than when he defeated the champion of the Martial Ranking. At that time, he was merely a Third Heaven Great Emperor.

"It's good that you have confidence in your capabilities," the Ancestral Needles Master said as he caressed his white beard.

On the other hand, Darden started making arrangements immediately after leaving the lodging.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3593-It did not take too long for the arrangements to be completed. At the peak of a mountain in the Valley of Yin and Yang, a huge platform was set up. Surrounding the platform was a mystical Formation Boundary.

On the platform was a man in a black robe who looked like he was in his twenties. With his arms crossed, he wore an expression of confidence and pride.

James was brought outside the platform where he observed his surroundings. He saw many living beings at the ranks of Ancestral Gods gathered outside the platform. He also saw the man on the platform, who was to be his opponent for the day. Defeating him successfully would grant him entry to the Place of Yin and Yang.

Darden was all smiles as he said, "My friend, it's not too late to back out of this. Although the Place of Yin and Yang is indeed a holy site, novelebook.com not everyone can go there to cultivate. This genius is not just anyone. He has successfully cultivated Five Paths." He was kindly reminding James.

The Five Paths were the upper limits of the Path Integration Rank. James could not conceal his shock.

Darden continued and said, "The Valley of Yin and Yang has both Yin and Yang energy and is the optimal site to cultivate the Yin and Yang Path. Being my disciple, he has naturally cultivated the Yin and Yang Path, the Martial Path, and the Murderous Path. More importantly, he has comprehended the Death Path, one of the Five Great Paths."

Darden was very proud of his disciple. If it were not due to the Death Path, this disciple of his would have attained the Ancestral God Rank by now.

All eyes around the platform were directed at James. After the Elders sensed that he had merely attained the Grand Emperor Rank's Ninth Heaven, they could hardly suppress their laughter.

"What's wrong with the Ancestral Needle Master bringing this young lad into the Valley of Yin and Yang? And he even has the audacity to enter the Place of Yin and Yang!"

"This must be a joke. Even if Nurlan Yakim doesn't stop him, the energies of Yin and Yang will melt his body once he enters the Holy Site."

In the eyes of all the Elders of the Valley, only death awaited James. Even the Ancestral Needle Master was worried, as he reminded James softly, "Be careful, James. This youngster is not an easy opponent. He would've made it into the Sage Ranking if he gave himself a chance and left the Valley."

James knew of the Sage Ranking. The Martial Ranking was for those who had yet to attain the Quasi Ancestral God Rank, whereas the Sage Ranking was reserved for those above the Quasi Ancestral God Rank. Those who could make it into the Sage Ranking were definitely forces to be reckoned with.

The corners of James' lips upturned slightly as he said, "Don't worry. I have many cards up my sleeve. Just the Path Seal of the Five Elements of Genesis will make him shudder."

"That did indeed slip my mind." The Master chuckled as he caressed his beard.

The merging of the Path Seals of the Five Elements of Genesis would create Macrocosm Power. Thus, even if James' rank was low, the Macrocosm Power would supersede all other powers. Defeating Nurlan should not be a problem in this case.

Darden stood up and said, "The competition's rules are very simple, Young Lad. Go up the platform and defeat my disciple. You can use any type of martial art skill during the battle. If you cannot win against him, you can surrender. Once you surrender, do not injure or kill anyone."

"I understand." James nodded.

Melinda cheered for James as she said, "All the best, James. I know you can do this."

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3594-Melinda had full faith in James. At the Grand Emperor Rank's Third Heaven, he had already defeated the champion of the Martial Ranking. Now, he was at the late stage of the Grand Emperor Rank's Ninth Heaven, with many of his Paths at this rank as well.

James leaped onto the platform.

Around the platform were Formation Boundaries. Once he entered the Formation, he could sense a frightening pressure that was not detectable outside of it.

This frightening pressure came from the man facing him. It felt like an entire world had collapsed on him, and it almost suffocated him. He adjusted his aura to get used to the pressure.

Nurlan crossed his arms and looked at James. Hostility emanated from his mediocre face.

"So you're the one who wants to enter the Place of Yin and Yang?" Although his voice was calm, it was also filled with Murderous Energy.novelebook.com This Energy was not solely directed at James. Rather, it was innate in Nurlan.

James looked at him. With his fist clasped in his other palm, he said, "I'm James Caden. It's a pleasure."

Nurlan remained still and said, "You're not worthy of being my opponent. Fighting you is a humiliation to me. Yet, I can't simply disobey my teacher's instructions. It's not too late to surrender now, for once I launch my first attack, you will surely die."

Nurlan was fearless, and rightfully so. He had cultivated five Paths. Apart from the Yin and Yang Path, he also cultivated the Martial Path, the Murderous Path, and most strikingly, the Death Path. If it were not because he had unknowingly cultivated the Death Path, he would have attained the Ancestral God Rank or even the Caelum Ancestral God Rank long ago. Thus, the Place of Yin and Yang was shut off just for him. It was closed to allow for the accumulation of enough Yin and Yang energy for him to reach the Ancestral God Rank.

James merely smiled. Indeed, Nurlan was amazing, but James was not weak either. He summoned the Sword Path, the Curse Path, as well as the Elemental Path altogether, elevating his aura to the maximum immediately. Although he had only attained the Grand Emperor Rank's Ninth Heaven, the overlapping of all his Path Seals was still enough to make a person's flesh run cold.

"Very well." Enthusiasm suddenly shone through Nurlan's eyes. He could not help but admire James. "I underestimated you. This capacity of yours seems to be worth my time."

Once he finished speaking, he instantly appeared before James. Although he had not mastered space and time, his speed was insane. He was so agile that he surpassed the limits of time.

In a split second, he appeared before James. His two fists were charged directly at James. This blow was filled with pure Martial Path Power. One should know that the Martial Path was an insanely frightening Path.

One hit sufficed to twist the void. Heaven and earth showed signs of cracking apart. Fortunately, this place was protected by Formation Boundaries. Otherwise, this attack would be enough to annihilate the entire Kaiga Realm, let alone the Valley of Yin and Yang.

James' pupils constricted. He realized just how frightening Nurlan was. Nurlan was undoubtedly the most powerful figure he had ever encountered since he became a cultivator. It was possible that even Heaven's Adjudicators might not be Nurlan's match.

Before Nurlan's fist touched James' skin, powerful energy came at James in waves. James felt sick although his physical power had reached the peak of the Grand Emperor Rank's Ninth Heaven.

He summoned the Time Path and allowed himself to disappear into thin air, only to uncannily appear behind Nurlan.

“The Time Path?” Nurlan squinted his eyes and said, “Interesting.”

“Break!”

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3595-His blow hit the void, producing a vibration so intense that the space above the platform shattered entirely.

Cracks appeared in the void. James could no longer use the Space Path to avoid Nurlan’s attacks.

Nurlan turned around to take a look at James, who was floating in mid-air far away from himself. The numerous cracks in the space above the platform looked like a cobweb.

“Young Lad, you’re quite something, aren’t you? The Space Path, huh?” Nurlan looked at James differently now. He praised him, saying, novelebook.com “Those who can cultivate the Five Great Paths are all extremely rare geniuses. I hate to kill you, but when I deploy the Murderous Path and the Death Path, I can’t even control my power well at times. So, I advise you to surrender now, otherwise, your death may very well be near.”

“Don’t worry. Just use whatever tricks you have up your sleeves.” James emitted a strong aura as he hovered in mid-air. He had learned about Paths from the Ancestral Needle Master, the Ancestral Talisman Master, and the Five Ancestral Masters but had not had the chance to test his skills. A good battle was what he craved at this very moment, especially when Nurlan was such a great opponent.

“If you insist.” Nurlan launched his attack upon finishing his sentence. Suddenly, he appeared before James and launched continuous attacks at him. With each blow materialized uncountable fist shadows. Each shadow encapsulated frightening power as they were made of pure Martial Path Power. Not only so, but there were also many secret moves in the shadows. James would be hurt by them even if his physical power was at the peak of the Quasi Ancestral God Rank, not to mention that he was currently merely at the Grand Emperor Rank’s Ninth Heaven.

James stayed put, but his Divine Sense moved across the entire platform. He could clearly sense the energy embodied by each first shadow.

Right then, many inscriptions appeared in his mind. These inscriptions changed continuously, merging with one another incessantly.

James attacked, causing innumerable fist shadows to materialize. His fist shadows were in head-on conflict against those of Nurlan's. Yet, his energy was much weaker than Nurlan's, causing his fist shadows to be shattered in a split second.

James seized this opportunity to escape to the edges of the platform.

"Not bad." Nurlan was shocked as he said, "You managed to copy my moves."

James smiled slightly. He had learned Curse Magic and mastered the Curse Inscription. Theoretically speaking, he could use the Curse Inscription to form any sort of martial art skill. However, this fight with Nurlan made him realize how far he was lagging behind. Plus, Nurlan had only used the energy of the Martial Path and had yet to use the other four Paths. As for James, he had already deployed the Sword Path's power, Curse Power, and the energy of the Elemental Path. Perhaps the energy of all of James' Paths combined would only measure up to the energy of a single Path of Nurlan's.

James furrowed his eyebrows as he came to grips with Nurlan. Using force in this battle was no longer feasible. He could only deploy other Martial Art Skills.

"You managed to resist my attacks although you're only at the Ninth Heaven of the Grand Emperor Rank. What a feat, James." Nurlan was stunned. His rank was at the peak of the Quasi Ancestral God Rank, which was much higher than that of James. Although he had cultivated the Murderous Path and the Death Path and embodied Murderous Energy and Death Energy, he was not inherently evil. He appreciated geniuses like James. Yet, he was curious about James' actual limits.

"Again!" Nurlan roared before launching yet another attack.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3596-Nurlan used pure Martial Path energy in this attack. His Martial Path energy was rather frightening as it surpassed the combined strength of James' many energies. Both his Martial Path and speed exceeded the confinement of time.

The Time Path was of no use to James. He had to be at the same rank as his opponent for the Time Path to work on them.

James had yet to realize that Nurlan was moving toward him. He did, however, manage to sense the incredibly frightening energy coming at him like waves.

He attempted to escape but to no avail. The energy from Nurlan's palm hit his chest. novelebook.comThe impact was so great that it caused a bloody, red hole to develop in his chest. The energy of the Martial Path spread from the injury throughout James' body, causing his physical body to break immediately like glass.

At this urgent moment, James deployed the energy of the Life Path. Life Energy flowed throughout his entire body, rejuvenating his injuries.

He backed up before wiping off the fresh blood dripping from the edges of his mouth. He looked serious as he murmured, "How frightening... The Valley of Yin and Yang is indeed one of the Ten Great Cultivation Holy Sites to have created such a scary, powerful figure. He must have reached the upper limits in all ranks and cultivated the capacity to defeat the Heavenly Path in each of them. Otherwise, it'd be impossible for a single, pure energy to materialize such an invincible force."

James took a deep breath. He was not to take Nurlan lightly. He summoned the powers of his other Paths, including the Elemental Path, the Dark Path, and the Karma Path. Although these Paths of his were at the Third Heaven of the Grand Emperor Rank, the total force created by them was still immense.

James' aura surged once more.

As Nurlan observed James from a distance, he could not help but be stupefied. He exclaimed, "How many Paths has he cultivated? Has he surpassed the limits set by Heaven and Earth?"

"Again!" This time, it was James who roared. He charged forward, appearing before Nurlan.

James sent a blow to Nurlan, who countered the attack. Two immense powers wrestled with one another, causing the space above the platform to split open, revealing a gigantic black hole.

The black hole spread to the Formation Boundaries before stopping just in time to save the Valley of Yin and Yang from complete decimation.

Nurlan was forced to take a few steps back due to the impact of this attack. He then spat out a mouthful of fresh blood.

James had used all of his Paths, as compared to Nurlan who had only used one of them. As such, James' energy currently exceeded that of Nurlan.

"Not bad." Nurlan wiped off the blood on his lips and looked at James with a face of shock. He said, "You're really strong. You managed to push me back and cause me to spit blood when you're only at the Ninth Heaven of the Grand Emperor Rank."

Although Nurlan had let his guard down, his Martial Path was still the strongest of all his Paths. His Yin and Yang Path and his Murderous Path had not reached a level equivalent to his Martial Path.

James smiled widely, saying, "Use whatever means you have against me."

"Alright."

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3597

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3597-Nurlan roared, "Not bad, Young Lad. Today, I'll only use the energy of one Path--the Martial Path. If you can defeat me, I'll let you enter the Place of Yin and Yang freely."

Outside the platform, the Ancient Needle Master could not help but smile. He looked at Darden who was sitting next to him and said, "I see that your disciple has lost his mind. I think it'll be rather difficult for him to beat James by using the energy of only one Path."

Darden was mad as well. He yelled, "What is Nurlan thinking? James is clearly not an easy opponent. Why won't he just summon all his energy to defeat him instead of wasting time?"

The other Elders looked serious as well. They had sensed the energy of many Paths in James, which meant that he had cultivated many Path Seals. If Nurlan was careless, it would surely result in his loss.

"Nurlan, don't underestimate him. Summon all your energies and kill him."

"It's a matter of life and death in the arena. Don't think about anything else."

A number of Elders reminded Nurlan. Yet, Nurlan took no heed of these reminders. As he stood in mid-air, his aura had an obvious change, influencing the entire arena. Each strand of his hair was erected. A white halo appeared around his body, embracing it. He looked very enigmatic, like a Divine King.

"This guy is really something." Outside the arena, the Ancestral Needle Master looked stupefied. He could not suppress his praises. novelebook.com "He's even comprehended the Omniscience Path and has reached a level surpassing that of Gutierre."

As a Caelum Ancestral God, he could sense that Nurlan had already comprehended the Omniscience Path deeply, even though he himself had not cultivated the Path.

At the platform, James could sense the change in Nurlan's aura. He saw the faded halo that was slowly materializing around him and was slightly taken aback.

“What’s this?”

He did not initially consider that it was the Omniscience Path. He only sensed Nurlan’s aura surrounding the entire arena with his Divine Sense scattered at every corner.

At that moment, Nurlan’s Divine Sense and aura seemed to have merged with Heaven and Earth. He was both Heaven and Earth.

“The Omniscience Path,” James exclaimed after he realized what was happening.

“Not bad. You know your stuff.” Nurlan was stretching at a distance. Each movement of his encapsulated the rhythm and Principles of the Path.

“Indeed, this is the Omniscience Path. It’s considered your honor to witness such a special rank,” Nurlan’s voice roared.

“Why is his Omniscience Path so different from Gutierre’s?” James’ eyebrows furrowed as he stared at Nurlan.

Nurlan was slightly taken aback and asked, “Why? You’ve seen someone else use the Omniscience Path before?”

The Omniscience Path was scarcely recorded even in ancient texts. Even though it was recorded, its cultivation method was unrecorded, as the Omniscience Path could not be taught. It could only be comprehended by oneself. It was thus extremely rare for someone to successfully cultivate the Omniscience Path.

Those who cultivated the Omniscience Path were not necessarily powerful figures, but they were surely forces to be reckoned with.

James took a deep breath and said, “I fought a genius once. He gave me similar conditions to yours but with some differences.”

James described his battle with Gutierre to Nurlan.

Upon hearing this, Nurlan smiled and said, “He’s just begun to comprehend the Omniscience Path and only peered into the threshold of it. I, on the other hand, have comprehended it for a very long time now.”

James was interested in the Omniscience Path and could not help but ask, “How exactly does one comprehend and cultivate the Omniscience Path?”

Nurlan looked clueless and said, “Indeed, how does one comprehend and cultivate it?”

Immediately, he continued, “It can only be comprehended and cannot be taught. I myself comprehended the Omniscience Path by chance.”

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3598

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3598-For Nurlan, he had comprehended the Omniscience Path by coincidence. After that, he touched the threshold of the Omniscience Path. His level of comprehension of the Path had reached striking levels after many years.

James enquired, "Surely there are some prerequisites before one can comprehend the Omniscience Path?"

Nurlan shook his head slightly, saying, "There seem to be no prerequisites. But, based on the records of the Valley, those who could comprehend the Omniscience Path were seemingly powerful figures who had reached the Ninth Heaven of the Grand Emperor Rank. Those below this rank could never comprehend the Path."

James fell into deep thought after hearing this, only to be awakened by Nurlan's cry. "Young Lad, stop wasting time. Strike now!"

James composed himself. A flash of purple light materialized into a glimmering purple sword. The long sword in his hand added much more to his aura. Holding the Divine Sword, he felt a strong sense of conviction within him. He summoned his mind, causing infinite Sword Intent to rage forward like a herd of ten thousand horses. It was rather frightening.

Yet, James' invincible Sword Intent did not harm Nurlan in the slightest bit. Nurlan still remained upright in mid-air, the edges of his clothes fluttering in the wind. He looked dashing, to say the very least.

James moved, appearing before Nurlan in the next second. He lunged forward, piercing his long sword at Nurlan. This ordinary-looking thrust was in fact the product of innumerable Sword Paths combined. It comprised the Five Great Sword Realms, sufficient to kill common Ancestral Gods.

Nevertheless, Nurlan deflected this attack easily. Right before the sword penetrated him, his body slanted ever so slightly, avoiding the thrust. At the same time, he raised his fingers, lightly hitting them against the Crepe Myrtle Divine Sword.

Clank! A clear clanking sound came from the sword. Subsequently, an extremely unnerving energy spread from the Divine Sword, sending James' body flying away from it.

James was stupefied. His Sword Path was presently incomparable to what it had been in the past. Ever since he received guidance from the Ancestral Sword Master, his Sword Path ascended through many ranks. His current capacity was enough to kill an Ancestral God with one thrust.

However, he was unable to hurt Nurlan at all even though he had used the Sword Path. Worse even, his Sword Path was easily disintegrated by Nurlan.

After stabilizing himself, he attacked once more.

Silhouettes flashed across the platform.

Each attack from James was ferocious, causing Sword Energy to continuously spread throughout the platform. The destructive potential was encapsulated in each ounce of energy. Still, that was not enough to injure Nurlan, who had already deployed the Omniscience Path. He seemed to have reached a level where he could do whatever he wanted, and so he could avoid all attacks in a leisurely manner. He seemed to be immune to all energies.

However, the many Elders of the Valley of Yin and Yang were shocked to see James' deployment of the Sword Path.

"This young lad really obtained the true legacy of the Ancestral Sword Master."

"Luckily, Nurlan summoned the Omniscience Path and entered into a special combat form. Otherwise, James' Sword Path would render him in a very embarrassing situation, if not injure him."

James' capacity was very strong, but Nurlan himself was not weak either.

The Omniscience Path was an invincible rank, so all of them were very confident in Nurlan.

James was focused on the intense battle and was simultaneously observing Nurlan's every move closely. Nurlan's speed was too fast. His reaction time was also extremely quick, allowing him to avoid each attack ingeniously. This sparked James' interest in the Omniscience Path.

James still had many tricks up his sleeves.
