The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3601-The Ancestral Needle Master sat down and contemplated. After some time, he said, "The Place of Yin and Yang is one of the Ten Greatest Cultivation Holy Sites of this universe. It is located in a mysterious place, where Yin and Yang exist. The Chaotic Treasure Time Capsule was created there. Surely you about the Time Capsule? It's a device that allows you to travel from the future to the past or vice versa."

Then, his expression turned grim.

"Theoretically, Yin and Yang have nothing to do with time. However, the Time Capsule possesses such a capability. If you separate the Time Capsule, it will form two treasures, and one of them is Crucifier. Though I don't know much about Exalter, I am very knowledgeable about Crucifier. This is a magical treasure that possesses an incredible healing ability. No matter how grave the injury is, Crucifier will patch you up in no time. However, Heavenly Power is needed to accomplish such a feat. Heavenly Power came about through the transformation of the power of the Yang Path."

After he spoke, he looked at James and asked, "What kind of ability does Exalter possess?"

James said, "I'm not really sure about the specifics. I only know that it's a terrifying weapon."

"How strange..." The Ancestral Needle Master said puzzledly, "I'm baffled. How did the fusion of the Yin and Yang Needle bring about the Time Capsule?novlebook.com I think traversing through time is only one of the Time Capsule's abilities. To better understand the Time Capsule, you need to head into the Place of Yin and Yang, its place of origin, to know more."

"The Time Capsule was created at the Crossroads of Yin and Yang. I have never been there. When I was scrolling through the ancient texts in Yin and Yang Valley, I came across records that state that the Crossroads of Yin and Yang is the core of the place. In that place, Yin and Yang intermingle yet repulse each other at the same time, forming a brand-new power."

The Ancestral Needle Master's expression turned grim as he cautioned, "I think the power brought about by the fusion of Yin and Yang is a Macrocosm Power. When you head to the Crossroads, you have to be extra careful."

"Macrocosm Power?"

James furrowed his eyebrows.

How could this be Macrocosm Power? Why were there so many Macrocosm Powers in this world? Although there were so many of them, why were there only two living beings who crossed into the Macrocosm Ancestral God Rank? However, since the Ancestral Needle Master was a Caelum Ancestral God, his doubts must be reasonable.

“Mhm, I’ll be careful.”

Then, James looked at him and asked, “Master, as a Caelum Ancestral God, you must be knowledgeable about the other universes. To your understanding, which of the twelve universes is the strongest?”

Straight away, the Ancestral Needle Master said, “The First Universe, of course. Whether or not the ruler of the First Universe or a certain living being in the First Universe is up to contention. After all, I have never concerned myself with the affairs of other universes.”

James asked once more, “In that case, how strong is the most powerful individual in the First Universe? I heard that one will be in the Macrocosm Ancestral God Rank’s First Stage by cultivating one Macrocosm Power. In that case, how many Macrocosm Powers can one cultivate at most?”

The Ancestral Needle Master shook his head and said, “I do not know. You should ask the owner of Mount Heavenly Path. He’s a Macrocosm Ancestral God and the ruler of the universe. He would surely know more than I do.”

“Alright, then.”

James nodded.

Since the Ancestral Needle Master did not know, he did not inquire further. However, he was now intrigued by the powerful figures of the other universes. Now, he possessed many Macrocosm Powers—Macrocosm Power of the Five Great Paths, Elemental Path and Elemental Inversion, and so on. If he could reach the Macrocosm Ancestral God Rank, he would reach the Macrocosm Ancestral God Rank’s Third Stage. If even Yin and Yang could produce Macrocosm Power, he would reach the Fourth Stage.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3602-James put those thoughts aside for now. That was because he still had a long way to go before even reaching the Caelum Ancestral God Rank. Now, he needed to cultivate inside the Place of Yin and Yang as soon as possible so that his Yin and Yang Path could reach the pinnacle of the Ninth Heaven Grand Emperor Rank. Then, he would continue cultivating other Paths.

He remained inside his accommodation for the next few days.

Three days later, Darden appeared and informed James and the Ancestral Needle Master that the Place of Yin and Yang would soon be opened. Then, he brought them to the entrance.

In the deepest parts of Yin and Yang Valley...

This was a valley formed inside the crevice of two mountains. In the depths, there was a powerful Formation.

At that moment, there were already a group of people standing before the Formation. They were all Sect Elders of Yin and Yang Valley and possessed immense power as they were all Ancestral Gods. Such a team in the outside world would be considered a powerful sect.

Once he brought James here, Darden reminded him, "This is the entrance. Feel free to cultivate inside. However, there's one thing to keep in mind here. Never head to the Crossroads of Yin and Yang."

Hearing this, James froze and asked, "Why not?"

Darden explained, "This place contains a terrifying, violent power. After all, it's created by the fusion and repulsion of Yin and Yang. Even a Caelum Ancestral God would be annihilated by the power."

"It's that powerful?" James was stunned.

"Of course." Darden said, "This place was where the Chaotic Treasure Time Capsule was created. In any case, just don't let your guard down. Don't blame me if anything happens."

Then, he walked toward the Sect Elders and ordered, "Activate the formation."

As he gave his orders, the Sect Elders raised their hands at the same time, and mysterious sigils and symbols appeared in their hands. novelebook.com As they entered straight ahead, an illusory door slowly appeared.

Darden pointed at the illusory door and said, "Please enter. You're allowed to cultivate inside for a million years. However, you must leave this place within the time limit. That's because even a Caelum Ancestral God will be obliterated by terrifying Yin and Yang Power once he spends more than a million years inside."

Darden warned him.

James looked at the Ancestral Needle Master, who said, "Go cultivate in peace. Melinda and I will be waiting for you outside."

Melinda waved at James and said, "Go, James. I'll be waiting for you in Yin and Yang Valley. I hope you gain enormous benefits out of this."

"Mhm, I'll do my best."

James nodded and walked toward the illusory door. As he entered the door, it slammed shut before disappearing from view.

James arrived at a desolate place. Though there were mountains and rivers in the distance, they were all utterly destroyed long ago. There were even cracks in the void, from which violent power poured out. These powers were formed by shattered Path Seals. So, even a Quasi Ancestral God could have their physical bodies obliterated here.

Upon arriving at this place, James immediately noticed that a violent power was destroying his physical body. At that moment, he finally understood why Darden said that cultivators beneath the Quasi Ancestral God Rank would not be able to cultivate here. The moment he arrived here, his physical body began to suffer damage. What should he do if he ventured deeper and encountered more violent powers? However, since he was already here, he could not retreat.

He sensed his surroundings. Apart from the violent powers, there was also majestic Yin and Yang Power present here. However, the Yin and Yang Power were convoluted, seemingly having broken free of the Heavenly Path's control.

James strode forward and traversed through abandoned mountains and rivers. The more he advanced, the more violent the power in the air was. Unable to resist the overwhelming power of heaven and earth, cracks began to appear on his body, and he had no choice but to catalyze the Life Path and heal his injuries. Without the support of the power of the Life Path, he could not walk safely inside the Place of Yin and Yang.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3603-The deeper he ventured, the greater the Yin and Yang Power in Heaven and Earth. At that moment, James had arrived at the deepest parts of the Place of Yin and Yang. Mysterious runes brought about by Yin and Yang filled the sky. Comprehending the runes was equivalent to comprehending Yin and Yang.

James found a spot and sat in a lotus position. Then, as he waved his hand, he set up a Time Formation.

His time was limited. Though a million years seemed long, the higher one's rank, the longer the time one needed to spend while in closed-door meditation. He had no guarantees that he could comprehend the Yin and Yang Path in a million years. So, that was why he set up the Time Formation. While inside the Time Formation, he relaxed his mind and put all thoughts aside. Slowly and gradually, his soul completely fused with Heaven and Earth. As there was no one here to provide him guidance, he could only comprehend everything himself.

He could clearly sense the mysterious Yin and Yang characters in Heaven and Earth and the changes that occurred. novelebook.com Slowly, he was immersed in the comprehension of Yin and Yang.

Time passed silently.

James' comprehension of the Yin and Yang Path grew deeper and more profound. The higher the rank of the Yin and Yang Path Seal, the greater the power.

Fourth Heaven Grand Emperor Rank... Fifth Heaven Grand Emperor Rank...

The rank of his Yin and Yang Path slowly increased from the previous Third Heaven Grand Emperor Rank to the peak of the Ninth Heaven Grand Emperor Rank. After cultivating for God knows how many years, James slowly opened his eyes. As he stood up, he stretched his tendons. Then, he raised his hands. On the left was Yin, and on the right was Yang. Two powers of different attributes appeared.

Sensing the immense power of Yin and Yang Power, James said satisfactorily, "My Yin and Yang Path has finally reached the pinnacle of the Ninth Heaven Grand Emperor Rank."

He dispersed the Time Formation. Then, upon sensing the time, he realized that only a thousand years had passed outside. It was not a long time. Even so, he managed to increase the rank of his Yin and Yang Path. He had accomplished his objective here. However, the Yin and Yang Power here was majestic, so James was wondering if he should absorb all the power here.

After some thought, he dismissed the idea. The Yin and Yang Power here was reserved for Nurlan to help him ascend the Ancestral God Rank. There was no need for him to take everything away from him.

"The Crossroads of Yin and Yang," James murmured.

He was reminded of the Ancestral Needle Master's words. The Ancestral Needle Master speculated that there could be Macrocosm Power at the Crossroads. Not only that, this place was also where the Time Capsule was created. So, the Ancestral Needle Master wanted him to investigate the place.

However, Darden had warned him that even a Caelum Ancestral God could be obliterated by such a power.

James fell into deep thought.

However, driven by curiosity, he planned to head over there to have a look. If the place was truly dangerous, he would leave the Place of Yin and Yang and cultivate anew. Now, only the Five Great Paths, the Karma Path, and the Dark Path had yet to reach the Ninth Heaven Grand Emperor Rank. However, these were the hardest Paths to cultivate. He had no idea whether he could reach the pinnacle of the Ninth Heaven Grand Emperor Rank in what limited time he had.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3604-The Place of Yin and Yang is huge. In the past, this was a battlefield. On this battlefield, countless mountains and rivers had been destroyed, and there were countless cracks in the sky. Though this was an ancient battlefield, the place was full of mysterious Yin and Yang Power.

James used his Divine Sense to scan his surroundings. Under the perception of his Divine Sense, he spotted the Crossroads of Yin and Yang. Then, he hurriedly made his way there. Soon, he arrived at his destination.

However, before he could approach, he sensed an immense power crashing toward him. Unable to withstand the pressure, cracks began to appear on his body, and he hurriedly used his power to resist.

For now, he managed to resist the violent power. Then, he tried pushing forward. The more he advanced, the greater the power became. Before long, he could not resist it anymore despite using his full strength.

He furrowed his eyebrows.

This was only the outer perimeter of the Crossroads of Yin and Yang. There was still a distance away from reaching the Crossroads. novelebook.comAt that moment, he believed in Darden's words that even a Caelum Ancestral God would be obliterated if he approached the Crossroads.

"Am I going back just like that?" James murmured.

"This place possesses immense power. It's possible that this is Macrocosm Power that the Ancestral Needle God mentioned. Macrocosm Power is rare. If I miss this opportunity, I don't know when I will ever return. Besides, this place has a lot to do with the Time Capsule."

James fell into deep thought.

In the end, he decided to go there and have a look.

He strode forward.

Before long, the immense power made him extremely uncomfortable. Even as he resisted with all his might, it was no use.

“What should I do?”

James did not want to give up. Then, he catalyzed the Infinity Steles and tried to use them to resist the violent power. The Infinity Steles appeared in the surroundings and formed a powerful Formation that resisted most of the power. This lessened the pressure on James as he continued moving forward. However, before long, even the Infinity Steles lost their effect.

James stopped and thought of ways to resist the power. After some time, an idea flashed through his mind. This was where the Time Capsule was created. Perhaps the Time Capsule was able to resist this immense power.

As his mind stirred, Crucifier and Exalter came into being. Then, he catalyzed both Heavenly Power and Demonic Power before catalyzing the cultivation methods recorded in Heavenly Transformation and Demonic Transformation. With the support of these two powers, Crucifier and Exalter slowly merged. As the two needles merged, they fused with each other like Yin and Yang. Then, a new power emerged.

Before long, the Time Capsule materialized into being. The Time Capsule was not huge and was only an enlarged version of a needle. On the surface of the Time Capsule, there were mysterious inscriptions engraved, which Crucifer and Exalter did not.

As James' mind stirred, the Time Capsule appeared in his hand. Holding the Time Capsule in his hand, he could clearly sense an immense power coming from within. He borrowed that power, opened the void, and entered the River of Time.

Then, he shook the Time Capsule a few times, and the region ahead of him was completely destroyed.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3605-James took a deep breath.

“What terrifying power... I didn’t use any strength at all. I only waved a few times, and the Time Capsule’s power destroyed the space here.novelebook.com If I ambush an Ancestral God with it, he might even perish at my hand.”

James was stunned by the Time Capsule’s power. As expected of a Chaotic Treasure.

He was able to summon the Time Capsule’s power because he catalyzed the cultivation method recorded in Heavenly Transformation and Demonic Transformation at the same time. He firmly believe that once he comprehended the inscription on the Infinity Steles, he would be able to possess such strength as well. That was because the Infinity Steles were also Chaotic Treasures that could potentially be more terrifying than the Time Capsule.

Holding the Time Capsule in his hand, James could feel that the violent power no longer had any effect on him.

“It worked.”

James breathed a sigh of relief and stored the Infinity Steles away. He ventured forward, holding the Time Capsule in his hand.

Soon, he arrived at the Crossroads of Yin and Yang. As he scanned his surroundings, he realized that there were storms ahead of him. These were not ordinary storms but rather ones formed by Yin and Yang Power. There were two powers inside the storm — Yin and Yang. As they merged and repulsed each other, a brand-new form was formed. This power was trapped in the storm. Only by carefully sensing the storm can I detect the presence of this power.

As James had cultivated the Yin and Yang Path, he could clearly sense that there was a power that he had yet to master in the storm. So, he shut his eyes and sensed. Under his perception, he realized there was a violent and immense power in the region. This power was not exuded from Yin and Yang Power but rather from the threads of power that existed inside the storm.

“Is this a brand-new Macrocosm Power? Though the amount is negligible, it has such terrifying power that even a Caelum Ancestral God could be destroyed in an instant,” James muttered.

Then, he opened his eyes and looked at the storm ahead. He tried to approach the Crossroads to witness the fusion and repulsion of Yin and Yang.

Soon, he arrived before the storm.

Hlss!

A violent hurricane swept through the air, carrying Yin and Yang and the Macrocosm Power that was formed. This power was capable of destroying anything. In the Twelfth Universe, not many could resist this power. James, however, could pull this off as he possessed the Time Capsule.

Standing before the storm, he could clearly see that the Yin and Yang Power in the storm had materialized, forming an inscription. These two different inscriptions changed constantly and were intermingled together. Meanwhile, the brand-new Macrocosm Power was born while the changes and intermingling of the inscription occurred.

"If I can comprehend these characters, I can cultivate a brand-new Macrocosm Power," James murmured.

Then, he sat in a lotus position on the ground.

He planned to comprehend the Path for some time here to see if he could comprehend the characters formed by Yin and Yang power. To conserve time, he even set up a Time Formation around him. Then, as his mind stirred, the Time Capsule hovered above his head, exuding an immense power to shield him from harm.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3606-With the Time Capsule's protection, James could now cultivate in peace.

He fixed his gaze on the inscription formed by the Yin and Yang Power inside the storm. This was a mysterious inscription that was profound and ever-changing. However, James had comprehended Karma, the Karma Path, and even the Karma Script. So, comprehending the Yin and Yang Script would not be too difficult. Though difficult, he only needed more time to comprehend.

He began observing the changes in each character. The changes in the inscription were essentially changes in Yin and Yang Power. At the same time while the changes occurred, a brand-new power was formed. This should be Macrocosm Power. After all, no other power apart from Macrocosm Power could annihilate an Ancestral God.

He was immersed in cultivation.

Time passed silently.

James had spent a long time in the Time Formation. All this time, he simply sat there unmoving and immersed himself in the changes of the Yin and Yang Script. novelebook.com Now, he had completely understood those changes and comprehended a new cultivation method from these changes. He could accomplish such a feat because he cultivated Yin and Yang at the same time. He was only able to understand the Yin and Yang Script because he cultivated Heavenly Transformation and Demonic Transformation in advance in the Time Capsule.

Heavenly Transformation and Demonic Transformation were characters recorded on the Time Capsule. Meanwhile, the characters were similar to the ones in the storm. The two shared the same origin. To cultivate Yin and Yang Transformation, one needed to cultivate the prerequisites.

After a long time, James slowly opened his eyes and stood up. As he raised his hand, his left hand was imbued with Yin Energy, whereas his right hand was imbued with Yang Energy.

He looked at the Yin and Yang Power in his palm.

“Yin and Yang Transformation!”

He roared.

Then, the two powers merged. As they merged, a repulsion occurred. The power of the repulsion was so strong that even James could barely control them. However, he forcibly catalyze the Yin and Yang Transformation he comprehended to control the fusion. Soon, Yin and Yang Power completely merged to form a brand-new power. This power was violent and possessed the capability to destroy anything.

As James looked at the brand-new power, a smile crept up on his face.

“What a magical power... So a new Macrocosm Power is born. Now, I have mastered many Macrocosm Powers.”

James was pleased.

Though he had used Yin and Yang Power in battle and fused them before, that was not a true fusion. Rather, it was as if he merely attached them together. Now, true fusion had been attained, just like the Five Elements of Genesis.

James dispersed Yin and Yang Transformation, Yin and Yang Power, and the Time Formation. Then, as he reached out his hand, the Time Capsule hovering above his head appeared in his hand. After comprehending Yin and Yang Transformation, he was now more knowledgeable about Yin and Yang and Macrocosm Power. The power the Time Capsule possessed was the power needed to create Yin and Yang Transformation. However, one was created by Yin and Yang Transformation, whereas the other was an innate ability of the Time Capsule. After all, the Time Capsule's power was a form of Macrocosm Power. Upon comprehending Yin and Yang Transformation, he used the cultivation method to stabilize the Time Capsule so that it was no longer divided into Yin and Yang and Crucifier and Exalter.

He catalyzed Yin and Yang Transformation once more and created a brand-new Macrocosm Power to control and rejuvenate the Time Capsule.

This scene lasted ten years.

After ten years, the Time Capsule was completely restored. Now, the Time Capsule would no longer be divided.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3607-"The Time Capsule has finally been restored."

At that moment, the storm before him mysteriously disappeared.

"Huh?"

James froze.

Then, he remembered something.

"The Time Capsule was created here. It must have shattered then, causing it to be incomplete. This could be the reason why there's remaining power here. Now that the Time Capsule is restored, they have fulfilled their destiny," James murmured.

"Fortunately, I have Crucifier and Exalter in my possession to form the Time Capsule. Otherwise, I won't be able to comprehend Yin and Yang Transformation and restore the Time Capsule. If that happens, this invincible Chaotic Treasure will not exist."

James stored the Time Capsule away. He firmly believed that he could defeat figures that were more powerful than he was with the Time Capsule. Upon storing away the Time Capsule, he sensed the time.

"800,000 years..."

Upon realizing the time that had passed, he took a deep breath.

"I didn't expect such a long time to have passed in the outside world..."

800,000 years in the outside world meant that a long time had passed in the Formation. However, in the midst of cultivation and comprehension, novelebook.com James had no idea about the passage of time. Now, he could finally understand why certain powerful figures would enter a closed-door meditation for many Epochs.

He put those thoughts aside and stood before, heading to the outside world. Soon, he arrived at the entrance. Looking at the illusory door before him, he took a step forward.

At the entrance of Yin and Yang Valley...

There were many powerful figures gathered here. They were all Sect Elders who had gathered because they sensed the disappearance of the mysterious power inside the Place of Yin and Yang. So, they came here to investigate the situation.

Swoosh!

At that moment, a figure descended from the sky and landed steadily on the ground.

“James!”

Upon James’ appearance, Melinda rushed toward him and grabbed his hand.

After James entered the Place of Yin and Yang, she had been here waiting for his return. The Ancestral Needle Master did not leave either and had been in meditation all this while. As James appeared, he opened his eyes and slowly stood up.

Darden looked at James and questioned, “What happened? Why did the powerful energy at the Crossroads of Yin and Yang disappear?”

The other Sect Elders looked at James.

The Crossroads had existed since the creation of the universe and never had any anomalies. After James entered the place, however, it mysteriously disappeared.

James shrugged and said, “How am I supposed to know? You were the one who said that even a Caelum Ancestral God would be obliterated by approaching the place. So, after I comprehended the Yin and Yang Path, I immediately left.”

“Is that so?”

Darden’s face was full of doubt.

The other Sect Elders did not believe James’ words either.

The Ancestral Needle Master stepped forward and said, “Even a Caelum Ancestral God would be destroyed there. Do you seriously think James has the strength to approach the Crossroads?”

Darden nodded slightly and said, “You are right. It seems that the disappearance of the power had nothing to do with James.”

The Ancestral Needle Master looked at James. From his jubilant look, he could tell that James had reaped enormous benefits from this journey to the Place of Yin and Yang.

“Thank you for your hospitality, Darden. We shouldn’t linger here for long. Farewell.”

Then, he looked at James and Melinda and said, “We will leave after you bid farewell to Darden.”

“Are we letting them go just like that?”

“That’s right. James must have something to do with this event.”

They said.

Darden sighed and said, “The energy at the Crossroads is powerful, and not even I can approach the place. How did James manage to approach the place?”

“He must have come prepared.”

“Without the Crossroads, the Place of Yin and Yang is worthless.”

“That’s right!”

They said.

Darden fell silent. He knew that James must have something to do with this. However, he had no idea how James approached the Crossroads and took the power away.

“Let’s go have a look for now.”

After some contemplation, he said. Under his guidance, he entered the Place of Yin and Yang alongside the Sect Elders.

Meanwhile, James had left the planet and arrived in space.

At a random place in the universe, the Ancestral Needle Master asked with a bright smile, “How did it go, James? What did you obtain inside?”

James said with a satisfied smile, "My Yin and Yang Path has reached the pinnacle of the Ninth Heaven Grand Emperor Rank while I was cultivating in the Place of Yin and Yang. Besides, I have been to the Crossroads of Yin and Yang. There, I comprehended a Supernatural Power which I named Yin and Yang Transformation. novelebook.com By performing Yin and Yang Transformation, I can create a brand-new power once Yin and Yang merge. This power is a Macrocosm Power, a power that the Time Capsule possesses. Besides, I have fixed the Time Capsule. From today onward, the Time Capsule will no longer be divided into Yin and Yang."

As he said that, he took out the Time Capsule.

The Time Capsule was only the size of a blade and resembled a huge needle. Mysterious characters were engraved on the surface of the Time Capsule, which also exuded a terrifying power.

"Let me see."

The Ancestral Needle master was intrigued.

James gave the Time Capsule to him.

The moment the Ancestral Needle Master touched the Time Capsule, however, he could sense terrifying Karma Power sweeping toward him. Under the destruction of the Karma Power, his hand was immediately corroded, and cracks began to appear.

He hurriedly tossed the Time Capsule away, and James casually caught it.

"What terrifying Karma..."

The Ancestral Needle Master furrowed his eyebrows and exclaimed.

James said smilingly, "The Time Capsule is a Chaotic Treasure that comes from the future. Thus, it's contaminated by terrifying Karma Power."

The Ancestral Needle Master looked him in the eye and shifted the subject, asking, "Where do you plan to go next?"

James put away Time Capsule.

At that moment, he was at a loss.

"Where indeed?"

Now, his Sword Path, Curse Path, Elemental Path, and the Yin and Yang Path had reached the pinnacle of the Ninth Heaven Grand Emperor Rank. Now, only the Dark Path, Karma Path, and the Five Great Paths remained. The Five Great Paths were mysterious. Even though there were living beings who cultivated the Five Great Paths in the universe, no one was able to cross into the Ancestral God Rank by cultivating the Five Great Paths.

Though he wanted to seek guidance, there was no one to offer him any. Karma, meanwhile, was worse. Since antiquity, there had not been any precedence in cultivating Karma.

He fell into deep thought.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3609-Since he had no need to cultivate the Five Great Paths and Karma Path for the time being, the only Path he needed to cultivate was the Dark Path. Besides, since he had the Dark Wellspring in the Celestial Abode, he could cultivate the Dark Path rather easily. The Dark Wellspring came from the depths of the Dark World. Since two Caelum Ancestral Gods fought against each other for the Dark Wellspring's possession, not to mention that the Lord of the Dark World was even here in the Twelfth Universe in pursuit of the object, this must be an incredible treasure.

Time was running out for James. In the remainder of his time, he would have to increase the rank of all his Paths and try crossing into the Quasi Ancestral God Rank. Then, he would refine his physical body. This was the only way for him to head to the new universe and compete for providence against the prodigies of other universes.

After some contemplation, he said, "I plan to cultivate in the universe for now and try to increase my strength before arriving at the new universe."

"Mhm."

The Ancestral Needle Master stroked his beard and nodded, saying, "In that case, I won't be accompanying you any longer. With your strength, you can travel the entire universe without having to worry about encountering any danger. Those powerful figures who have heard of you will not attack you recklessly."

James clasped his fists and said, "Thank you for everything you've done for me. If not for you bringing me to Yin and Yang Valley, I wouldn't have comprehended Yin and Yang Transformation and cultivated a Macrocosm Power."

"Hahaha... That is merely your providence."

The Ancestral Needle Master laughed and disappeared from James' view.

"Where are we going next, James?" Melinda asked.

James glanced at her.

In truth, he planned to return to Mount Nothingness. Mount Nothingness was the place of residence of the previous ruler of the universe. Besides that, there was a Chamber of Scriptures there, where there must be texts about the Five Great Paths. So, he planned to head there and have a look. Meanwhile, since Melinda was Hadad's daughter, he could not bring her along.

"Melinda, you should return to Mount Heavenly Path. I plan to train by myself for now."

Stunned, Melinda said, "What? No way. You promised me I can accompany you while you train."

"I plan to travel to all four corners of the universe. As you're the princess of Mount Heavenly Path, I'm afraid I can't bring you along." James turned her down.

"But..."

"No buts. Return to Mount Heavenly Path for now. I promise you I will marry you once I cross into the Ancestral God Rank. novelebook.com I won't go back on my words."

"A-Alright, then," Melinda said.

She looked at James with a wistful look on her face and waved, saying, "Be careful, alright? I'll be waiting for you at Mount Heavenly Path."

"Go on." James waved her goodbye.

This was his only way to trick Melinda into leaving. As for the marriage, he was still lightyears away from reaching the Ancestral God Rank anyway. He could put those thoughts aside for now.

Melinda did not linger for long. After waving James goodbye, she turned to leave and disappeared without a trace.

After Melinda disappeared, James breathed a sigh of relief.

"Next, I plan to head to Mount Nothingness. Then, I will enter the Celestial Abode there and cultivate the Dark Path."

He murmured.

After confirming his directions, he catalyzed the Space Path and forcibly tore the void open before leaving the area. When he reappeared, he was already outside Mount Nothingness. Gazing at the area ahead that was enveloped in a black mist, James did not hesitate at all. He strode forward and entered the black mist. Soon, he traversed through many mountain ranges and arrived at the gates of the Palace of Nothingness.

Upon his arrival, many powerful figures of Mount Nothingness appeared.

“You’re back, Your Holiness.”

“Welcome back.”

Many spoke.

“Mhm.”

James nodded.

“By the way,” Karter said, “Your Holiness, a new universe has come into being. It is apparent that Hadad is trying to send you to your death by sending you there. I would advise you not to go. You do not lack providence at the moment. With what you have in your possession, you can cross into the Macrocosm Ancestral God Rank with no problem at all as long as you conceal yourself and cultivate. The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3610-The creation of a new universe was a secret in the Twelfth Universe. Apart from Caelum Ancestral Gods, no others had heard about this. However, as Mount Nothingness was the place of residence of the previous ruler of the universe, there were many Caelum Ancestral Gods there. As such, they could detect the creation of a new universe. As James was their master, they naturally would pay attention to his words and actions. Naturally, they knew about James’ plan to head to the new universe. They also knew just how terrifying the other universes were. As James’ rank was still insignificant, he would only be getting himself killed. As such, none of them wanted James to go.

Xosha nodded and said, “That’s right, you already have sufficient providence. As long as you concentrate wholeheartedly on your cultivation, you will be able to reach the Macrocosm Ancestral God Rank. There’s no need to risk your life for this.”

James, however, said, “I want to go to the new universe. Even if Hadad didn’t order me to, I plan to head there regardless. novelebook.com I wish to fight against the prodigies of other universes and see how strong they are.”

He looked at the powerful figures of Mount Nothingness around him and noticed their worried expressions.

James said smilingly, "I know you're worried about me. But there's still time before I head to the new universe. In that period of time, I will emerge as a force to be reckoned with."

The powerful figures of Mount Nothingness knew about this. As they had been paying close attention to James, they knew everything about his whereabouts and experience.

Karter asked, "Have you returned to enter a closed-door mediation?"

"Mhm." James nodded and said, "I obtained the Dark Wellspring in the Dark World previously. The Dark Wellspring is a treasure of such great significance that even the Lord of the Dark World has arrived at the Twelfth Universe and demanded Hadad to return him the object in an Epoch. Otherwise, he would invade the Twelfth Universe, he said. As I'm worried about my safety absorbing Dark Power in the outside world, I can only come here to Mount Nothingness."

Xosha said, "Don't worry, Your Holiness. Even if Hadad comes here, he won't be able to have his way."

Hearing this, James was relieved. After greeting everyone, he simply turned to leave and arrived at a manor in Mount Nothingness. After setting up a Time Formation in the manor's surroundings, he entered the Celestial Abode.

Upon entering the Celestial Abode, however, he was utterly stunned. He had not paid any attention to the Celestial Abode for a very long time now. At present, the Celestial Abode was full of Dark Power, and all divine objects had been destroyed.

"The Dark Wellspring is truly terrifying..." James took a deep breath.

At that moment, the Spirit Tool appeared and said, "You're finally here, James. The Celestial Abode is about to be destroyed by Dark Power."

James had not thought things through. Once the Celestial Abode was destroyed by Dark Power, rumors about him possessing the Dark Wellspring would spread. By then, the Lord of the Dark World, let alone Hadad, would come knocking on his door.

"Looks like I'll have to deal with the Dark Wellspring as soon as possible," James murmured.

Then, he turned to look at the Spirit Tool and said, "I understand."

Fortunately, the Spirit Tool was not a living being. Otherwise, he would have been devoured by the Dark Power inside the Celestial Abode.

James walked around the Celestial Abode.

The Dark Power in the Celestial Abode was too immense. Even though he had cultivated Dark Power, and his soul had long merged with his physical body, thereby allowing him to ignore Dark Power, the Dark Power here was enough to cause him damage.

Fortunately, the damage was not fatal.

Then, James arrived before the Dark Wellspring. Looking at the ball of black mist, he could clearly sense mysterious inscriptions in it. He theorized that the inscription could be the key to the Dark Wellspring.
