The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3613-Then, he headed toward the Palace of Nothingness and arrived at the main hall. Upon his arrival, many powerful figures of Mount Nothingness appeared. Looking at them, James said, "I plan to head to the Chamber of Scriptures and read through the ancient texts to see if there's anything I want. So, I'll be taking my leave then."

Since James was the owner of Mount Nothingness, no one stopped him.

James went to the Chamber of Scriptures and searched around. However, he could not find anything about the Five Great Paths. Even if there were, only superficial records that were of no use to him existed. So, he left Mount Nothingness.

At that moment, he already had a plan in mind. He would head to the Path Sect in the Katun Realm. Though the Path Sect was not a powerful sect in the universe, they were well-renowned. That was because there was a mysterious Sacred Blossom in the Path Sect that blossoms once every Epoch.novellebook.com Each time the Sacred Blossom blossomed, powerful figures from all over the universe would flock over to watch. Even powerful figures such as the Ancestral Talisman Master would appear.

Previously, James obtained the cultivation method of the Five Great Paths from the petals of the Sacred Blossom when he was spectating the blossoming of the Sacred Blossom. To increase the rank of the Five Great Paths and Karma Path, he could only head to the Path Sect where the Sacred Blossom was located. Even though the Sacred Blossom had withered, not to mention now was not the time to reblossom once more, there were powerful traces of the Path there. Among them were the traces of the Five Great Paths and the Karma Path. This was absolutely a holy site for cultivation.

After bidding farewell to the powerful figures of Mount Nothingness, James left Mount Nothingness and used the Space Path to traverse through space. When he reappeared, he was already outside the Path Sect.

Upon his return to the Path Sect, James had mixed feelings in his heart. Previously when he was here, he was merely an insignificant individual. Now, he was a powerful figure. Though his rank was low, he could annihilate an ordinary Ancestral God anytime he wanted.

As he strode forward, he soon arrived at the gates of the Path Sect. Immediately, an elderly man appeared.

"Welcome, James Caden."

The man was Xzavier Darius, Sect Leader of the Path Sect.

"Many years have passed since our last encounter. To think you are now a well-renowned figure who's one of the most powerful in the universe."

James waved slightly and said, "You flatter me."

Xzavier asked with a bright smile, "What brings our well-esteemed guest here, may I ask?"

James hurriedly said, "Oh, I came here to watch the Sacred Blossom and to enter a closed-door meditation for a while."

"No problem at all."

Xzavier did not refuse him, nor did he dare to do so. He personally led James to the place where the Sacred Blossom was located.

This area was huge and spacious.

Many others were also in a closed-door meditation here.

Upon seeing this, James frowned and turned to look at Xzavier behind him, asking, "Sect Leader, I wish to meditate alone here. Can you chase everyone here out?"

As James cultivated the Five Great Paths and Karma Path, he did not wish to be interrupted by others, nor did he want them to know that he had cultivated the Karma Path. If word spread, it would create a commotion.

Though he had used Karma Power many times in the past, the public only knew that he was contaminated by Karma, not that he had cultivated the Karma Path.

Xzavier was at a loss.

Then, he nodded and said, "Alright then, I will make an exception for you."

Apart from the Sect Elders of the Path Sect, there were a group of powerful figures from all over the world here cultivating. Though the Path Sect could not risk offending any of them, James was one of the core members of Mount Heavenly Path. To avoid offending Mount Heavenly Path, he had no choice but to expel everyone here.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3614-Xzavier personally showed the way out for the living beings cultivating here. Upon hearing that the Path Sect was chasing them away, they were livid. However, upon learning that James wished to cultivate here, they shut their mouths and hurriedly left. Without much trouble, Xzavier chased them all away. Now, only James remained.

“James, I have chased everyone here cultivating away.” Xzavier walked toward James and said smilingly, “You may now cultivate in peace. When you return to Mount Heavenly Path, I hope you can put in a good word for me.”

The Path Sect wished to ride on the coattails of Mount Heavenly Path.

James smiled and said, “No problem at all. If there’s nothing else, please leave. I would like to cultivate now.”

“Understood.”

Xzavier turned to leave.

James headed to the central region of the area and scanned his surroundings. Though this was not the season when the Sacred Blossom blossomed, traces of the Paths would always be left behind. As the Sacred Blossom blossomed many times in history, the traces of the Path here were powerful.

His body flashed, and he appeared in mid-air before sitting in a lotus position. novelebook.com Then, he relaxed his mind and used his Divine Sense to sense the Five Great Paths and Karma Path to sense the region. The traces of the Five Great Path and Karma Path were sufficient for James to comprehend them.

“Since antiquity, there have been few who cultivated the Five Great Paths, let alone the Karma Path. The traces of the Five Great Path and Karma Path here are terrifying. This is a perfect place to cultivate. If I set up a Time Formation and cultivate within, I should be able to reach the pinnacle of the Ninth Heaven Grand Emperor Rank for the Five Great Paths and Karma Path before my journey to the new universe,” James murmured.

This was the most he could do in such a limited amount of time. Certainly, he would not be able to reach the Quasi Ancestral God Rank before heading to the new universe. However, he possessed the strength to head there despite being at the Ninth Heaven Grand Emperor Rank. As long as he does not encounter truly invincible monsters, he was unafraid.

He took a deep breath and put those thoughts aside.

Then, he set up a Time Formation in his surroundings and began cultivating to comprehend the Five Great Paths and Karma Path. He did not comprehend them one at a time but at the same time.

Time passed silently.

In the blink of an eye, five million years passed.

Ever since Thea's separation from James, she had returned to the Callahans and entered a closed-door meditation. At the same time, however, she was aware of the passing of time. At that moment, she suddenly opened her eyes and gazed into the distance, murmuring to herself, "The thirty-million-year deadline is just around the corner. James should begin making his departure to the new universe soon."

She left her closed-door meditation sanctuary and arrived at the Callahans' main hall.

"Men!"

As she sat on the throne, she said.

Immediately, a few disciples of the Callahans walked in and knelt on one knee.

Thea asked, "Where is James at the moment?"

"James departed to the Path Sect in the Katun Realm five million years ago and has been cultivating there ever since. All this while, he has never left the Path Sect."

Hearing this, Thea furrowed her eyebrows.

"Is he still cultivating? I wonder what's his rank now considering so much time has passed."

She had a deal with James. Before heading to the new universe, he would have to come to the Callahans. However, the deadline was almost up, and James was not here yet. She was worried that he was running out of time.

She stood up and left the Callahans' main hall before arriving at the mountain behind the Callahans.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3615-The scenery was picturesque, and there was an abundance of Primordial Energy. There was even a terrifying Formation there.

The Callahans were a powerful family in this universe, and its might stemmed from the eight distinguished daughters who spread the Callahans' fame far and wide. However, even without them, the Callahans were still an influential family. The Callahans' history can be traced back to the creation of the universe. A Grand Patriarch of the Callahans was one of the powerful figures who appeared. However, as he was competing for a Chaotic Treasure, he was injured by the powerful figures from other universes. Even though countless years had passed, the Grand Patriarch still had not recovered from his injuries and was still in a closed-door meditation in a restricted area.

At that moment, Thea arrived at the mountain at the back of the Callahans and the restricted area. Before her was a stone cavern, from which a powerful aura could be detected. The power of this aura stunned even Thea, who was a Caelum Ancestral God.

"The Grand Patriarch's aura is growing increasingly steady. His injuries must be close to recovering," Thea murmured. Then, she entered the stone cavern.

There was a stone house inside the stone cavern. Inside sat an elderly man who was dressed in a green robe. There were mysterious characters circulating around his body, and each character possessed a terrifying Will of the Path.

"Grand Patriarch."

As Thea appeared, she greeted him respectfully.

The elderly man dispersed his aura, and the mysterious inscription around him disappeared. Then, he stood up and glanced at Thea before saying, novelebook.com "You're here, Thea."

"Mhm." Thea nodded. "I am here to retrieve the Demon-Slayer Sword."

Hearing this, the elderly man's expression turned grim, and he asked, "Why do you need the Demon-Slayer Sword? Who do you intend to fight against?"

Thea shook her head slightly and said, "I'm not planning to fight against anyone."

"Then why do you need the sword?"

"I need to give it to someone," Thea answered truthfully.

"To James?" The elderly man looked at her.

"Yes," Thea said, "James is about to leave the Twelfth Universe and head to a new universe to compete for providence. I don't know what rank he's at now. But I do know that the Demon-Slayer Sword is a Chaotic Treasure that possesses greater strength than the Crepe Myrtle Divine Sword."

The elderly man sighed and said, "Thea, you must understand that the Demon-Slayer Sword was a sword left behind by a Lord of the Dark World in the Twelfth Universe. When he was here to compete for other treasures, he was injured and lost the sword in the process. I only managed to obtain the sword by chance. The Demon-Slayer Sword is too malevolent. At James' rank, he might not be able to control it."

Thea said, "He has cultivated the Dark Path. As such, he must be able to wield the Demon-Slayer Sword. With a Chaotic Treasure in his possession, he would be able to guarantee his safety."

"Thea, have you fallen for him?"

Thea fell silent. Then, she shook her head and said, "I don't know. Ever since he appeared in my world, my Cultivation Heart has lost its composure. Even though I have been in closed-door meditation for many years, I cannot soothe it."

The elderly man simply said, "The Demon-Slayer Sword doesn't belong to the Callahans in the first place. Since I'm unable to control the sword either, I won't stop you from giving it to James."

The elderly man headed deeper into the cavern, while Thea followed close behind. Soon, they arrived at the depths of the cavern. There were many layers of Formation here.

After passing through the Formations, a sword glimmering in black appeared in full view. Mysterious characters were carved on the sword, which exuded a terrifying power. Even a Caelum Ancestral God like Thea gulped upon sensing the aura exuded by the sword.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3616-The Demon-Slayer Sword was a Chaotic Treasure from the depths of the Dark World. This sword was pitch-black in color, and mysterious Dark Characters were engraved on the sword. The tip of the sword was slightly vent, and the blade radiated a chilling gleam that would make one's blood run cold.

Looking at the Demon-Slayer Sword, Thea walked toward the sword. Powerful energy materialized in her palm, which enveloped the sword. Through her immense power, she forcibly took the sword away.

Upon seeing this, the Grand Patriarch simply said, "Since your Cultivation Heart is in chaos, you should reincarnate. With your state of mind, you won't be able to reach the peak of the Caelum Ancestral God Rank, let alone the Macrocosm Ancestral God Rank. Reaching the Macrocosm Ancestral God Rank requires fortune and providence. However, reaching the peak of the Caelum Ancestral God Rank requires a Cultivation Heart."

Thea fell silent. After some time, she said, "Thank you for your advice. I know what to do now. novelebook.com Let me hand the sword over to James first."

Thea bid the Grand Patriarch farewell before turning to leave. She then headed to the Path Sect in the Katun Realm.

At the Path Sect...

James had been cultivating for a very long time. As 5 million years passed in the outside world, a long time had passed in the Time Formation. During this long period of time, he had been comprehending the Five Great Paths and Karma Path. Though his body remained static, he exuded an overwhelming aura.

Leaves began to swirl in the air. As they hovered before James, he suddenly opened his eyes, and his pupils revealed the various Paths there were in existence.

"I did it."

He took a deep breath.

The bizarre phenomenon in his eyes disappeared.

"My Five Great Paths and the Karma Path have crossed into the Ninth Heaven Grand Emperor Rank. Now, all of my Paths have reached the Ninth Heaven Grand Emperor Rank."

He slowly stood up and dispersed his aura. Then, he descended from the sky and landed steadily on the ground. Hands to the back, he left the area the Sacred Blossom was located and returned to the Path Sect. Immediately, he tried sensing the time.

"Five million years to be exact... It's about time for me to head to the new universe. With my current strength, I sure hope I won't be the weakest one around there," he murmured.

Though he was at the Ninth Heaven Grand Emperor Rank, he had cultivated many Paths. In addition to his various treasures, he was a force to be reckoned with. However, he knew that the other universes would be sending some of the most terrifying prodigies who were at the Quasi Ancestral God Rank. Originally, he planned to spend some time comprehending the Infinity Steles. Now, apparently, he was out of time. He had to head to Mount Heavenly Path at once and inquire Hadad about the Omniscience Path.

Just as he left the Path Sect and was about to tear open the void, a ripple appeared in the distance. Then, a fissure materialized, from which a woman wearing a black dress walked out.

The woman was about 180 centimeters tall and had a slender figure. Her appearance was glamorous. She had long black hair and a curvaceous figure.

James froze. Then, he burst into a smile. Hurriedly, he rushed toward the woman and asked in excitement, "Why are you here, Thea?"

Thea glanced at him. Upon sensing that he was only at the Ninth Heaven Grand Emperor Rank, she was disappointed. She thought that James would have crossed into the Quasi Ancestral God Rank after such a long time of cultivation. She never thought he would only be in the Ninth Heaven Grand Emperor Rank.

She said, "It's about time. You're only in the Ninth Heaven Grand Emperor Rank. Have you forgotten what you said back then? You said you won't head to the new universe if you aren't in the Quasi Ancestral God Rank."

"Uhm..."

James scratched his head awkwardly.

"Are you still going?" Thea looked at him and asked.

"O-Of course." James smiled, "Don't underestimate my rank. I have cultivated many Paths. Besides, strength is not determined by rank alone."

Thea knew she would not be able to persuade James. So, she only came here to give him the Demon-Slayer Sword.

"I know that you're ambitious. As you are invincible in the Twelfth Universe, you need stronger opponents to challenge yourself. novellebook.com You want to keep making breakthroughs after breakthroughs. As such, you are determined to head to the new universe. I'm not here to stop you. Rather, I have something to give you."

Hearing this, James asked, "What thing?"

A black light flickered before Thea. Then, a black sword appeared.

"The Malevolent Sword?"

Upon seeing the sword, James exclaimed, "Why do you have the Malevolent Sword?"

“The Malevolent Sword?” Thea was confused.

James stared at the sword and murmured, “No, this isn’t the Malevolent Sword. It’s only a look-alike. The Malevolent Sword is a weapon in the Apocalypse Era. This weapon, on the other hand, contains incredible power.”

Thea had no idea what James was murmuring about. She explained, “The Demon-Slayer Sword originates from the Dark World. This is the sword of a Lord of the Dark World when the Twelfth Universe was only just created. However, upon being attacked by powerful figures from other universes, he lost his sword in the Twelfth Universe. In the end, the Grand Patriarch of the Callahans acquired the sword. This is a Chaotic Treasure.”

Then, she glanced at James and asked, “Have you heard of Chaotic Treasures?”

“Huh?” James nodded slightly and said, “A little, I suppose. When the universe was created, the treasures that were born out of Heaven and Earth were called Chaotic Treasures. Each Chaotic Treasure was formed by providence, and they could summon Macrocosm-level Powers. Of course, not every Chaotic Treasure possesses Macrocosm Power. Some are weaker in comparison. Take the Five Elements of Genesis, for instance. They need the fusion of five Chaotic Treasures in addition to a unique cultivation method to perform Macrocosm Power.”

Thea nodded slightly and said, “Indeed. The Demon-Slayer Sword is one such Chaotic Treasure. It possesses immense power. However, no one in the Twelfth Universe is able to control this sword. Since you have cultivated the Dark Path, you might stand a chance.”

After speaking, she casually waved her hand, and the Demon-Slayer Sword flew toward James.

James accepted the sword.

At that moment, immense Dark Power burst forth from within the sword and spread throughout James’ body. Even someone as powerful as James could feel his blood run cold. He hurriedly catalyzed Dark Power and injected them into the sword to soothe it.

Holding the Demon-Slayer Sword in his hand, he could sense the terrifying power of the sword. Looking at Thea with a mischievous grin on his face, he asked playfully, “Chaotic Treasures are treasures that are highly sought after even by Macrocosm Ancestral Gods, yet you are handing such a precious thing to me just like that. Have you fallen in love with me?”

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3619-Hadad sighed and said, “This is a special rank and battle state. To my understanding, only a cultivator at the peak of the Ninth Heaven Grand Emperor Rank can reach such a rank. Once you cross into the Quasi Ancestral God Rank, you will miss the Omniscience Path.”

James listened intently.

Hadad continued, “This is a Path Rank that embodies the Path. You aren’t guaranteed to reach this rank just because you have comprehended the Path. Rather, you need luck on your side. If you are fortunate, you will be able to reach the Path Rank by comprehending the Path. Otherwise, you won’t be able to cross into the rank no matter how long you remain in the Ninth Heaven Grand Emperor Rank.”

Hearing this, James asked, “Are there any requirements to cross into the rank?”

After some contemplation, Hadad said, “Requirements, huh? I suppose there are certain requirements you need to fulfill regarding yourself.”

James asked, “What kind of requirements?”

Hadad said, "What I say may not be true. That's because I don't have the Omniscience Path. As the ruler of the universe, I'm able to sense everything on Heaven and Earth. As such, I'm able to sense the prerequisites for cultivating the Omniscience Path."

"Mhm." James nodded.

Hadad explained, "First of all, your body must have reached the pinnacle of the Ninth Heaven Grand Emperor Rank to cross into the Omniscience Path. Secondly, your state of mind. Every cultivator who obtained the Omniscience Path is already at peace with him or herself. After fulfilling all the criteria, you will have obtained the right to cross into the Omniscience Path. Next will be comprehending the Path. All the Paths you have cultivated must have reached their pinnacle."

Hadad briefly explained the prerequisites for crossing into the Omniscience Path. However, this was everything he could sense and was not necessarily the entire truth.

James fell into deep thought.

Hadad's explanation was not too far away from his understanding of the Omniscience Path.

"When will I depart to the new universe?" James asked.

Hadad waved slightly and said, "The prodigies of other universes have yet to appear. We still have time.novelebook.com In the meantime, you should try and cross into the Omniscience Path. Since antiquity, no one has been able to say for sure what the Omniscience Path is. Perhaps this is only one of many Paths that have existed. Cultivation has always been based on systems. As such, the cultivation system has always been under the control of chaos and disorder. Perhaps the Omniscience Path will bring about a different manifestation of the Path."

"Though there are many living beings in the Twelfth Universe, only a select few have been able to reach the Omniscience Path. Furthermore, there are none who can venture far in the Omniscience Path. Even within all twelve universes, no living being is able to venture far in the Omniscience Path. To my understanding, you will reach a bottleneck once you reach a certain step. However, the Omniscience Path will bring about enormous benefits. Gutierre has only recently crossed into the Omniscience Path, which didn't increase his strength drastically. Once you truly reach the Omniscience Path, your power will be greatly increased."

"I will give you 10,000 more years, James. In the meantime, whether or not you cross into the Omniscience Path will depend on your providence."

Hadad said.

"Mhm."

James nodded and said, "Can you give me a list of the names who have crossed into the Omniscience Path in the Twelfth Universe?"

Hadad said, "You'll have to ask the Heavenly Path, I'm afraid. Since Radomir is in closed-door meditation, you should do your own research. Since you have mastered the cultivation method of looking into the Heavenly Path, you should be able to find out who in the universe has crossed into the Omniscience Path."

Saying that, Hadad disappeared without a trace.

James did not linger for long and turned to leave before heading to Mount Teva. Upon discovering the identity of those who crossed into the Omniscience Path, he would venture forth and search for their whereabouts. It would be difficult to comprehend the Omniscience Path within 10,000 years. So, he needed to find those people and discuss the Path with them.

"Greetings, Deputy Leader."

"Your Highness..."

As James and Melinda arrived at Mount Teva, the disciples of Mount Teva greeted them respectfully. James paid no heed to them and went straight to the back of the mountain. Then, as he sat before the cliff, he casually waved his hand, and a fissure appeared in the void before him. A bunch of jumbled characters appeared in the fissure. This was the Elysian Script, the core of controlling the universe.

James used the Heavenly Path to search through the universe. Soon, he knew who were the ones who had cultivated the Omniscience Path. Just as Nurlan Yakim had mentioned, there was only a handful who had accomplished such a feat. Under the perception of the Heavenly Path, he discovered there were a total of nine individuals who had cultivated the Omniscience Path. The strongest was a Terra Ancestral God, whereas the weakest was a Ninth Heaven Grand Emperor. Not only that, he had sensed the whereabouts of these individuals.

"Who should I first pay a visit to?" James murmured.

After some contemplation, he decided to look for the strongest. The strongest of all was not a human, novelebook.com but a member of the Dragon Race. The main camp of the Dragon Race was not located in the Human Realm but in a place called the Dragon Realm. Though the Dragon Realm was not one of the Seven Realms, it was still a huge world.

As his mind stirred, the characters that represented the Heavenly Path disappeared from his view.

“How did it go, James?” Melinda asked.

“Mhm.” James nodded and said, “Through the calculations of the Law of Heaven, I have learned that there are a total of nine individuals who have crossed into the Omniscience Path. The strongest among them is a Terra Ancestral God, who is also a powerful figure of the Dragon Race. I plan to pay him a visit.”

“Alright, let me accompany you,” Melinda said.

James did not want her to follow him along. However, since he had joined Mount Heavenly Path, and Melinda was the princess of Mount Heavenly Path, he would feel bad if he turned her down.

He nodded slightly and said, “Sure. Let’s get moving.”

James stood up and descended the mountain, while Melinda followed close behind. He used the Space Path to forcibly tear open the void and left the Human Realm.

Meanwhile, at the Callahans in the Human Realm...

Thea was sitting in a lotus position in the restricted area of the Callahans. Before her stood an elderly man who was dressed in a green robe. Wearing a grim expression, he said, “Do you wish to reconsider this, Thea?”

Thea nodded slightly and said, “No. My Cultivation Heart has been interrupted, and I’m no longer fit for cultivation. All this while, I have been pursuing the pinnacle of cultivation. But now, I can’t reach the peak of the Caelum Ancestral Rank and am now only at the late stage of the Caelum Ancestral God Rank. With my current Cultivation Heart, I can never cross into the Macrocosm Ancestral God Rank. I must reincarnate. If James truly is the fated one, he will appear no matter where I end up.”

“I am ready.”

The Callahans’ Grand Patriarch nodded and said, “Alright, allow me to cast a protective shield on you.”

Thea nodded. Then, as she catalyzed a cultivation method, her body began to rotate. Then, a black hole appeared above her head, and a mysterious power materialized from within. Thea used immense strength to abandon her physical body for reincarnation.
