The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3627-The arrival of Mount Heavenly Path's princess here must surely not be a coincidence. Perhaps they came here for Dragon Island or the Chaotic Treasure on the island. Even though Hadad was the ruler of the universe, there was a race that was free from his administration. That was the Dragon Race. As the Dragon Race had a long history, not to mention that they possessed an incredible treasure that belonged to the Ancestral Dragon, Hadad did not dare act recklessly. Otherwise, disciples of Mount Heavenly Path would have occupied Dragon Island long ago.

Though he was filled with consternation inside, he forced a smile, "James, you came here just to meet Laurentinus Llawelyn?"

"Mhm." James nodded and said, "Laurentinus has cultivated the Omniscience Path. Hence, I'm here to seek his advice."

The Patriarch said, "Laurentinus is an elderly member of the Dragon Race who is always in closed-door meditation. I'm afraid he won't be meeting you anytime soon. novelebook.com How about you stay here on Dragon Island in the meantime? When Laurentinus leaves his closed-door meditation, I will inform you of his appearance."

Hearing this, James furrowed his eyebrows and asked, "How long do I have to wait?"

The Patriarch shook his head and said, "I'm not sure. Perhaps three to five Epochs, maybe even longer."

James took a deep breath. He could not wait that long. He had to cultivate the Omniscience Path within 10,000 years.

He clasped his fists and said, "Could you bring me to Laurentinus right this instant? I don't have much time."

"I..."

The Patriarch sighed and said, "Laurentinus has an odd temper. If you interrupt him recklessly, the consequences will be disastrous."

James said, "I will bear all the responsibilities."

The Patriarch fell into deep thought before nodding and saying, "In that case, I will bring you to Laurentinus."

The Patriarch stood up and left the main hall. Then, he beckoned and said, "Follow me."

"Mhm." James nodded.

Then, he followed close behind the Patriarch and left the main hall.

Dragon Island was a huge island that consisted of many other tiny islands. Meanwhile, Laurentinus was in closed-door meditation on a random island on Dragon Island. nove.lebook.com Soon, the Patriarch brought James to the island. The island was mediocre in size, and there was a spiritual mountain on the island, which was enveloped in a thin white mist.

As James approached the place, he could sense an immense Primordial Energy. He immediately knew there were many ley lines beneath the island.

The Patriarch clasped his fists and said, "Grand Patriarch, James Caden of Mount Heavenly Path is here to demand an audience with you."

The Patriarch's voice boomed.

Meanwhile, James and Melinda stood by the side.

At that moment, the wind surged as an illusory head appeared in mid-air. Glancing downward, he spoke in an authoritative voice, "What is the matter?"

His voice was so deafening that James' eardrums were numb.

"What terrifying strength..."

James was stunned.

As expected of a powerful figure at the peak of the Terra Ancestral God Rank.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3628-Laurentinus was absolutely domineering. An illusory head appeared in the sky and glanced downward. His voice was so deafening that even the earth shook.

James collected himself and clasped his fist, saying, "I'm James Caden. I heard that you have cultivated the Omniscience Path. Hence, I'm here to seek your advice."

He explained himself.

"Get lost!"

Laurentinus cursed. At the same time, a shapeless power came from his illusory mouth and swept through the air, striking James in the process. James was immediately sent flying by the great force, and he only managed to land steadily after rolling a few turns on the sand.

James never thought Laurentinus would be such a troublesome person to deal with. Even though he had proclaimed himself to be from Mount Heavenly Path, Laurentinus did not even bat an eyelid before sending him flying.

James looked at the illusory head and said, "Sir, I humbly seek your guidance."

"I have no plans of admitting disciples. Seeing that you're from Mount Heavenly Path, leave while you still can. Otherwise, don't blame me for what happens next."

His voice boomed.

"Hahaha!" James burst into a peal of laughter. "I'm afraid you're mistaken. I'm not here to become anyone's disciple. I'm here to discuss the Path with you.novelebook.com At your strength, you're not qualified to be my master."

"Hahaha!"

A burst of laughter boomed.

Then, the illusory head disappeared. A figure surreptitiously appeared behind James. He was a middle-aged man who was dressed in a black robe and had a long black beard.

"Quite arrogant, aren't you?"

Laurentinus looked at James.

"Discussing the Path with me? You, a Ninth Heaven Grand Emperor? Since you say I have no right to be your master, tell me who your master is."

James had no master. However, there were many powerful figures who offered him guidance.

He shook his head slightly and said, "I have no master. However, many powerful figures have offered me their guidance. The Ancestral Sword Master taught me the Sword Path, the Ancestral Talisman Master taught me Curse Magic, the Five Ancestral Masters of Heaven and Earth refined my physical body with the Five Elements of Genesis, Radomir Theophanes of Mount Heavenly Path taught me how to control the Heavenly Path, and Thea Callahan is my loved one."

James looked at Laurentinus and uttered word by word, "What makes you think you are worthy of being my master?"

Hearing this, Laurentinus was dumbfounded. He turned around and looked at the Patriarch before asking puzzledly, "Has there been another prodigy in the universe while I'm in the midst of my closed-door meditation?"

The Patriarch walked toward them and said, "Indeed, he's a once-in-a-lifetime genius. He defeated the number-one ranked person on the Martial Ranking as a Third Heaven Grand Emperor. Not only that, he has cultivated many Paths. Though the exact number is unknown, the number of Paths he has cultivated has long surpassed the limitations of Heaven and Earth. Most importantly, he has comprehended the Five Great Paths."

Though the Dragon Race lived in seclusion, they knew what was going on in the universe.

James' matter was no secret. Since James also had the dragon bone of the Ancestral Dragon inside him, the Dragon Race thoroughly investigated him.

Shocked, Laurentinus looked at James. He never thought this young man before him would have such a history. He was intrigued by him.

Looking at James, he said smilingly, "You defeated the number-one ranked person on the Martial Ranking as a Third Heaven Grand Emperor? I don't believe you. How about this?nov,elebook.com I will suppress my rank and fight against you. If you win, I will believe your claims."

"Suppress your rank?"

James looked at him and smiled, "I don't wish to bully you."

"Arrogant, aren't you?"

Laurentinus roared and charged toward James. As he struck with his palm, powerful palm force swept toward James.

James remained where he stood, static. The powerful palm force could not deal any damage to him.

Just as Laurentinus was about to strike him, he suddenly raised his palm and met Laurentinus' attack.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3629-Boom!

Their palms collided, and two powerful forces interacted with each other. Laurentinus staggered backward a little. Steading himself, he said with a smile, "Not bad, young lad! Again!"

"Grand Patriarch."

The Patriarch hurriedly said, "If we continue the fight, Dragon Island will be destroyed."

"Oh, yeah."

Laurentinus stopped in time. Dispersing his aura, he looked at James and said, "We will fight in the arena."

Then, he soared to the sky and flew into the distance.

James knew that he would not be able to discuss the Path with Laurentinus without a fight. So, he followed Laurentinus.

Laurentinus landed on an arena on Dragon Island. The arena was even bigger than an island, and there were powerful Boundary Formations in the surroundings. novelebook.com This Formation Boundary was set up by many powerful figures of the Dragon Race and could only be destroyed by Caelum Ancestral Gods.

Laurentinus looked at James who descended from the sky and said smilingly, "I will keep my word, so I'll only be using the power of a Ninth Heaven Grand Emperor. By the way, I forgot to tell you that I have cultivated five Paths."

"Haha..." James snickered.

He was not afraid of a cultivator with nine Paths, let alone just five. With a hand to his back, he beckoned, "Make your move."

Knowing that James possessed immense power, Laurentinus did not hold back. After suppressing his rank to the Ninth Heaven Grand Emperor Rank, his body flashed, and he appeared before James. Immediately, his fists were already slammed into James' body. James' chest was instantly dented. However, at that moment, powerful energy burst forth from within James' body, and he sprung back up like a spring, knocking Laurentinus away.

"How powerful..."

Laurentinus was stunned.

Before he could even react, James was already on his heels. Seeing this, Laurentinus counterattacked, and their fists collided. Immediately, Laurentinus was sent flying, and his body slammed into the Boundary Formation before collapsing to the ground. Meanwhile, James simply remained where he stood.

Laurentinus crawled up from his ground and yelled, "Stop! You win!"

Though he had used all his strength, he could not even scratch James. If he continued the battle, he would merely be humiliating himself.

James clasped his fists and said, "Apologies, Sir."

Laurentinus waved his hand slightly and said, "Not bad, young lad. Indeed, I'm not worthy of being your master. You were saying that you wish to cultivate the Omniscience Path?"

"Yes."

James nodded and said, "Through the Heavenly Path's calculations, I learned that you are the strongest among all living beings who have comprehended the Omniscience Path. That's why I came here to Dragon Island."

"You made the right choice, kid!"

Laurentinus smiled proudly and said, "No one's better than me when it comes to the Omniscience Path. Come, let us find a nice and serene spot for our conversation."

Laurentinus wrapped his arm around James. A stranger would mistake them for being good friends.

"Melinda, stay here on Dragon Island," James said. Then, he turned to leave alongside Laurentinus.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3630-Laurentinus brought James to the island where he cultivated. Though he was an uncouth brute, the scenery on the island was picturesque.

In a manor on the island...

"Come on, don't be shy!"

Laurentinus took out a bottle of fine wine and poured James' glass full.

James came here for official business. So, he only took a small sip before cutting straight to the chase, saying, "I came here to Dragon Island to learn the Omniscience Path, Sir."

Laurentinus waved his hand slightly and said, "Just call me by my name."

Saying that, his expression turned grim as he looked at James and asked, "You wish to comprehend the Omniscience Path?"

"Mhm." James nodded.

Laurentinus, however, scratched his head and said, "I'm a bit lost when it comes to the Omniscience Path. Even now, I have no idea how I even managed to learn the Omniscience Path in the first place. I only remember learning this rank magically and out of nowhere when I was in a closed-door meditation."

Hearing this, James asked, "Were you at the Ninth Heaven Grand Emperor Rank when you obtained the Omniscience Path?"

"Yes."

Laurentinus nodded and said, "I was at the pinnacle of the Ninth Heaven Grand Emperor Rank and only a step away from reaching the Quasi Ancestral God Rank."

James asked, "How far have you comprehended the Omniscience Path?"

After some contemplation, Laurentinus said, "I'm not exactly sure. However, if we are basing it on steps, I should be at the third stage."

"Can you tell me more?"

"Sure, of course."

Laurentinus nodded.

Then, he said, "I remember when I first comprehended the Omniscience Path, I realized the uniqueness of this rank. My aura will become bizarre, novelebook.comlike a powerful magnetic field. However, this magnetic field has no effect on the opponent, and my strength did not increase. The only benefit is that my mind was instantly cleared.

"Then, the second stage.

"In the second stage of the Omniscience Path, my strength increased. However, it's not my power that has increased. Rather, it's my energy, perception, Soul Power, and many others.

“Next, the third stage.

“This stage is mysterious. Once I reach this stage, my body will undergo a transformation. Don’t underestimate me just because I’m only at the peak of the Terra Ancestral God Rank. When I perform the third stage of the Omniscience Path, even a Caelum Ancestral God may not stand a chance against me.”

Laurentinus was confident in his strength. If he had not been living in seclusion on Dragon Island, he would be one of the most powerful figures in the universe. Though he might be weaker than the Ancestral Talisman Master, the Ancestral Sword Master, the Five Ancestral Masters of Heaven and Earth, and many others, he was not too much weaker.

Laurentinus explained his comprehension of the Omniscience Path. However, he had no idea how he managed to obtain this rank. He only managed to reach this rank by chance. If he reincarnated, he might not be able to reach the Omniscience Path once more.

Over the next period of time, James stayed on Dragon Island. Every day, he would discuss the Path with Laurentinus. Meanwhile, Laurentinus would keep performing the Omniscience Path so that James could have a better understanding.

James stayed there for 300 years. Though 300 years had passed, he still had no idea about the Omniscience Path. Knowing that he would not learn more by staying here, he bid Laurentinus farewell.

“Thank you for your guidance all this while, Laurentinus. I have to leave and search for the others who have cultivated the Omniscience Path to learn from their experience.”

Seeing that James was determined to leave, Laurentinus did not stop him. He said, “Farewell, my friend. If you encounter any problems at all, feel free to seek my help. I will help you to the best of my ability.”

“Thank you.”

Then, James turned to leave.

He went looking for Melinda and left Dragon Island alongside her. Then, they began searching for the next living being who had cultivated the Omniscience Path.

There were only a total of nine living beings in the Twelfth Universe who cultivated the Omniscience Path. Apart from Gutierre, Nurlan, and Laurentinus, there were only six remaining. James planned to pay them all a visit.
