The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3631-In the blink of an eye, three thousand years had passed.

During those three thousand years, James had traveled the world and searched for the rest of the six living beings to learn about the Omniscience Path.

Nonetheless, these living beings entered the Omniscience Path by chance. They could not explain how they did so. Thus, they only showed James the Omniscience Path and asked him to comprehend it himself.

Three thousand years later, James returned to Mount Heavenly Path.

In the back of Mount Teva, Mount Heavenly Path, James sat on a rock.

After asking the nine living beings who had comprehended the Omniscience Path, James did not have any progress on the Omniscience Path. He only knew that he needed to comprehend the Omniscience Path in order to enter it.

When comprehending the path, he could enter the Omniscience Path easily if he could comprehend it instantly.

Otherwise, even if he cultivated for thousands of months, he would not be able to enter the Omniscience Path.

Combining with Hadad's narrative, James roughly knew how to enter the Omniscience Path.

Sitting on a rock in the back of Mount Teva, he used the power of heaven and earth to train his body. He was comprehending the Path and perfecting his Path. He wanted to improve his Paths until the extreme.

At the same time, he was also improving his Soul Power.

He emptied his mind so that his heart could be calm.

There were too many concerns in his mind.

Thea, the future Winnie, and the future world...

At this moment, he got rid of these questions temporarily.

There was nothing in his mind. His mental state was as calm as the surface of the water. There were not any fluctuations or ripples.

His body and soul had reached the extreme of the Grand Emperor Rank's Ninth Heaven.

His Path had reached the extreme. He sat in this place for five thousand years straight.

For five thousand years, he did not move his body as if he were a rock. No living being's aura emerged from his body.

At this time, his mind, spirit, soul, and consciousness, all assimilated into heaven and earth.novelebook.comHe was like heaven and earth. He could sense everything in this area.

Even his breath seemed to be in harmony with heaven and earth.

Time was passing.

However, James forgot about the time and his existence.

His aura became uncanny all of a sudden. It was at this moment that James suddenly woke up.

When he woke up, he felt that he had completely assimilated into heaven and earth. He was also able to sense that his aura had grown strange.

This was the Omniscience Path Gutierre showed.

"It's a success."

James felt happy.

"I didn't expect to enter the Omniscience Path so randomly. It's such a strange realm."

James closed his eyes.

He had assimilated into heaven and earth. Under his senses, he could feel everything in Mount Heavenly Path clearly. He could sense the living beings in Mount Heavenly Path. However, the living beings under his senses were not living beings but several mysterious texts.

Under his senses, the living beings in the Heavenly Path appeared in the form of Paths.

"Is this the Omniscience Path? What a strange realm."

James could not help but sigh. The realm was too beautiful. Everything in the world could be displayed with Heaven's Law.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3632-Unknowningly, James entered the Omniscience Path.

This realm was magical, and his aura became intriguing. His body had completely become one with heaven and earth.

Aside from that, his ability did not have much improvement.

This was similar to the result of his inquiry. Those who had just comprehended the Omniscience Path were all in this state. The only difference was that under his senses, everything could appear with the law of Paths.

Mountains, land, rivers, all of these could become Paths and the Law of Heaven sigils.

Even the living beings on Heavenly Path were under James' senses. He could also turn them into Paths and mysterious caption rules. These rules were changing endlessly.

At this moment, James knew that if he could understand the change of rules of these living beings, he would know the life of each living being and the life's experience of the living. In fact, James would be able to predict the living being's death.

Nonetheless, James also knew that there was always a way out.

Even if the death was destined, there would be a chance of survival.

It depended on the person whether or not he could grab the chance.

"What a mystical state," mumbled James.

"Everything in heaven and earth is turning into rules. Why didn't the others who comprehended the Omniscience Path feel this?"

James was confused. He did not think much of it and dispersed the Omniscience Path.

After that, everything in heaven and earth returned to normal.

Then, James tried to enter the state of the Omniscience Path again.

Once he comprehended it, it was easy to enter it. Almost instantly, James entered the state of the Omniscience Path.

Several tries later, he confirmed that this would be the outcome and stopped. Sitting on the rock at the back mountain, he fell into deep thought.

Presently, he had just comprehended the state of the Omniscience Path. According to Laurentinus' understanding, there were several stages of the Omniscience Path state.novelebook.com James needed to comprehend it until at least the third stage to increase his capability.

However, James did not have the time to comprehend it.

This was because he sensed it had already been almost ten thousand years. If nothing out of the ordinary happened, he would go to a new universe.

Stopping his cultivation, he stood up and moved around, mumbling, "My current cultivation rank is the Grand Emperor Rank's Ninth Heaven. I wonder how much of a difference my cultivation rank will be compared to the powerhouses of the new Universe I'm going to."

In the twelfth universe, James was invincible in the Grand Emperor Rank's Ninth Heaven. In the entire twelfth universe, no one could defeat him in this cultivation rank. In fact, he could kill several Ancestral Gods in an instant.

Nevertheless, he did not know the ability of other universes' powerhouses.

Slowly, he descended Mount Teva.

He went to the spiritual mountain Winnie was cultivating on.

When Winnie saw James, she smiled brightly and asked, "Uncle James, what brings you here?"

They were on Mount Heavenly Path where there were many powerhouses. Thus, she was careful not to address James as her father.

James smiled and responded, "I'm leaving soon, so I'm here to say goodbye."

"You're leaving?"

Winnie was taken aback. Confused, she asked, "Where to?"

Winnie was not a Caelum Ancestral God, and her current cultivation rank was low. She had no idea about the birth of a new universe. Besides, about the birth of the new universe, it was still a secret in the twelfth universe. It did not leak out, so Winnie did not know about it.

Since James was facing his daughter, he did not hide it.

“A new universe has been born in the Chaos. With the appearance of a new universe, there will be a new creation and opportunity. The twelve universes will send living beings below the Ancestral God Rank to the new universe to seize a fortune. Hadad is sending me to the new universe.”

Winnie listened attentively. As a daughter, she could not control her father.

With a serious expression, she asked, “Below the Ancestral God Rank? What’s your current cultivation rank?”

James answered, “My cultivation rank isn’t high. It’s only at the Grand Emperor Rank’s Ninth Heaven. I haven’t even stepped into the Quasi Ancestral God Rank.”

“Doesn’t that mean you’re going to die?” Winnie sternly said, “If the powerhouses of all twelve universes are gathered together, it will definitely be terrifying. Since your current cultivation rank is quite low, it’s better not to go.”

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3633-James waved his hand and said, “I know my limits.”

As he spoke, he scanned and sensed his surroundings. Making sure no one had their eyes on this area, he whispered, “I came to this era to look for your mother, and I’ve already found her. However, it’ll take some time to get your mother’s acknowledgment.”

“You may roughly know about the future and the ending of this era. No matter what happens, don’t participate in this era’s battle,” reminded James.

“Got it.”

Winnie nodded and responded, “I will remember your words.”

James knew the ending of the future Winnie.

During the chaos, Winnie did not fight. Instead, she chose to seal, which was why she managed to avoid the chaotic world.

Since they were on Mount Heavenly Path, James did not continue further on this topic. He began talking to Winnie about other unimportant matters.

After chatting for a long time, James sensed Melinda’s aura.

In a moment, Melinda appeared.

“Have you finished your closed-door meditation?”

Walking over with a smile, she clung to James’ arm.

James did not shrug her away. Instead, he only nodded lightly.

On the other hand, Winnie glanced at Melinda and said, “I have things to do, so I’ll take my leave now.”

Then, she turned around and left.

“Why did you come to Winnie again? Do you fancy her?” Melinda teased.

James felt awkward. How did her mind go there?

With an awkward laugh, James said, “No way. I knew Winnie long ago. On Mount Heavenly Path, I’m only acquainted with her. Since I’m going to a new universe soon, I came to bid farewell.”

Melinda did not think much of it.

She said, “You promised me you would propose marriage to me when you enter the Ancestral God Rank. Now that you’re going to a new universe, it’s unknown how long it’ll take. novelebook.com However, based on your potential, if you can return from the new universe, you can enter the Ancestral God Rank. I’ll be waiting for you on Mount Heavenly Path.”

James moved on to another topic instead of responding to Melinda. He said, “Let’s go and find Hadad.”

“Alright.” Melinda nodded slightly.

The two left and went to Mount Hadad.

Soon, they arrived at Hadad Palace.

The Lord of the Universe, Hadad, sat in the middle of the main hall, resting his chin on his hand. He was looking ahead, deep in thought.

“Father,” called out Melinda in the main hall.

It was only then that Hadad came back to his senses and nodded before saying, “You’re here.”

Then, he looked at James and asked, “How’s the comprehension of the Omniscience Path going?”

James had indeed comprehended the Omniscience Path. Nonetheless, his Omniscience Path was different from others.

He asked, "Uncle Hadad, what cultivation rank must one reach to turn everything in the world into rules?"

James asked the question on his mind.

Hadad was taken aback by the question.

"Turn everything into rules?" He stared at James, shocked.

"Yeah." James nodded.

Pondering for a moment, Hadad responded, "I'm not sure about this as I've never heard such a thing before. Turning everything in the world into rules? Living beings are living beings. They have lives and unique souls. How could they be turned into rules?"

"I'm just asking," spoke James.

Since even Hadad had no idea about this, what James comprehended must be extraordinary. James did not tell Hadad about what he comprehended.

Thus, Hadad did not overthink this matter and asked, "It's about time. Are you ready?"

James answered, "I'm ready. I can go at any time."

"Alright," spoke Hadad.

After saying that, he disappeared from his seat in the main hall and appeared before James. Pulling James' arm, he said, "Let's go."

James could feel a strong power dragging him. Then, his body disappeared from the main hall and this universe.

When they appeared again, they were already in a special passage.

The passage was not big. It was only ten meters high and wide. They were surrounded by mysterious light walls that had mysterious inscriptions. Even though James had reached the Grand Emperor Rank's Ninth Heaven, he could not understand the inscriptions.

"Where are we?" asked James.

Hadad explained, "We're in the Chaos passage. This passage connects the other universes.

"These passages were developed by some powerhouses, and there are a few special places in the passages.

"This kind of place only has a tiny small space. They aren't in any universe's jurisdiction. These small places appeared in the Chaos after the passages were developed. They are known as the Forsaken Land.

"Our universe is connected to the Eleventh Universe. This passage was forcefully opened by the powerhouse from the Eleventh Universe.

"As for the other universes, they don't have any passages connected. To go to another universe, they need to go through the Chaos."

While speaking, Hadad brought James and broke open the Chaos passage. In the next moment, they appeared in an unknown area.

The area was gray and gloomy. Here, there was no distinction between upper and lower places.

Anywhere was a lower place.

"This is the Chaos," said Hadad.

James felt pressure from a strong power. The power was violent. With his current ability, he could not withstand it at all.

Thankfully, it was Hadad who brought him here. Otherwise, he would have been shattered by the power.

"We're in the Chaos," Hadad explained, "The Chaos is boundless, at least for now. Any universe's powerhouse could not find the border of the Chaos. novelebook.com In this boundless Chaos, twelve universes are born. There are thirteen now, including the one that had just been born.

"Only an Ancestral God Rank powerhouse could resist the pressure of the Chaos.

"And in the Chaos, there are several mystical treasures. These treasures are known as the Chaotic Treasures.

“The Chaotic Treasures can’t be asked for. Even if one looks for them in the Chaos for thousands of Epochs, it’ll be hard to even find one. However, with the birth of the new universe, there must be a new Chaotic Treasure.”

Now, James had a rough understanding of the Chaos.

Bringing James along, Hadad went around the Chaos.

A long time seemed to have passed, but at the same time, it only felt like a moment. A light appeared in James’ sight. As the distance decreased, the light grew larger. In the end, a vast star void appeared in his sight.

Upon reaching the border of the Thirteenth Universe, Hadad stopped advancing. Pointing to the vastness ahead, he said, “It has only been a few months since the new universe was born. The path and rules of this universe aren’t complete. The space isn’t solid either. The powerhouses below the Ancestral God Rank can’t destroy this universe.”

“So, the Lords of the twelve universes had a discussion and decided to send living beings below the Ancestral God Rank to the new universe.”

“I understand.” James nodded and asked, “Is there anything I need to take notice of in the new universe?”

Hadad reminded, “There are a ton of things you need to take notice of. Aside from our universe, the other universes have sent a large number of powerhouses to obtain the treasure.

“It can be said that those who can go to the new universe aren’t docile.”

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3635-“However, not every powerhouse is violent. Perhaps there are weaker living beings who will come to the new universe. After all, opportunities can’t be obtained through strength. Sometimes, it needs a certain amount of luck.”

“Besides, with the birth of the new universe, new living beings will also be born in the new universe. This batch of primitive living beings will have different cultivation ranks — high and low. Some will be Ancestral Gods at birth, while some may be Mortals.”

“The powerhouses of the twelve universes will restrain the birth of Ancestral Gods in the new universe, not allowing them to obtain fortune. Even then, you need to be careful.”

After listening to all of this, James nodded.

“Go.”

Hadad waved his hand and said, “Whether or not you can obtain a fortune in the universe and get opportunities will depend on your luck and ability. I won’t stay here for long. I’ll return to the Twelfth Universe. After some time, I’ll come and bring you back.”

Then, Hadad disappeared.

Meanwhile, James furrowed his brows.

Hadad sent James to the new universe but chose to go back instead of watching the situation of the new universe.

What was Hadad trying to do? It seemed that Hadad did not want James to rise in the new universe. Did he send James here to die?

James took a deep breath.

Then, he stopped thinking about it. There were many secrets on his body. Thus, he did not want Hadad to watch his every move.

He also knew that the Lords of the other universes and Macrocosm Ancestral Gods would keep watch on the situation in the dark. They would see every movement of their universe’s powerhouses, seeing which universe’s powerhouse obtained the fortune.

Seeing the vast stars ahead of him, James began moving forward right away and went through the universe barrier. Then he appeared in the new universe.

He stood in the vast void without moving.

The universe barrier behind him kept shrinking, and in the next moment, a large area and more stars appeared behind him.

He knew that the universe was still expanding. The size of the universe would increase at all times. When it reached a certain level, it would slow down.

Once James appeared in the new universe, he sensed the Heavenly Path of the new universe. He wanted to use the Heavenly Path’s operation rules to figure out where the treasures are located, novelebook.com and also where there were opportunities and fortunes.

Nonetheless, the Twelfth Universe's method of controlling the Heavenly Path was useless in the new universe.

His idea fell through.

He sensed the Path of this world and realized that it was the same as the Twelfth Universe's Path, which meant he could use the Paths he cultivated in the Twelfth Universe.

It was only then that he breathed a sigh of relief.

"Now, where should I go?" muttered James.

The powerhouses of the other universes should have arrived in this universe. Even if they hadn't arrived, they would arrive soon. Now, James did not know where to go.

After thinking for a while, he decided to sense this universe first.

Whichever world had the three planes of existence—Mortal, Sage, and Divinity—he would go to that world.

It was because the major worlds were the planets where there would be the birth of the three planes of existence. Only such worlds might have Chaotic Treasures. As for the other worlds, the probability of the birth of the Chaotic Treasures was low.

With his current ability, it was not hard to sense the major worlds in this universe.

Soon, he sensed one.

In the current universe, there was only one world that had the three planes of existence.

Without any hesitation, he used the Space Path and left this place.

When he appeared again, he was outside this major world.

This was a huge planet. The entire planet was red. Looking at it from afar, it looked like a ball of flame in the vast void.

Upon appearing outside the red planet, James was excited.

"New universe, here I come. New universe, here I come. Powerhouses of the other universes, here I come," James cheered.

Then, he entered the new world.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3636-The world was divided into three planes of existence.

Mortals, Celestials, and Gods.

Upon reaching a certain cultivation rank, one could advance to a higher plane of existence.

James directly appeared in the Divine Dimension of this world. As soon as he appeared, he sensed pure Primordial Energy. This power of heaven and earth was strong. It was not something the places of the Twelfth Universe could compare.

“What a strong power.”

James could not help but be shocked.

The energy of heaven and earth in this place was too strong. If he cultivated here, he could get twice the result without using all his effort.

Then, he sensed the Path in heaven and earth. The Path in heaven and earth was complete. He could feel the different Path Seals clearly.

The new world was an excellent place to comprehend Paths. Comprehending Paths here was much easier than in the Twelfth Universe.

However, James had already comprehended the Paths until the extreme.

Now, he no longer needed to comprehend Paths and absorb the energy of heaven and earth. He needed to improve his mental state. When his mental state could follow the power of his Paths, it would improve.

Only if he entered the Ancestral God Realm could he continue to comprehend Paths and absorb the energy of heaven and earth.

James scanned his surroundings.

He appeared in a valley, and there were countless plants in the valley. James had never seen any of these plants, but each plant exuded pure Primordial Energy.

Besides, some plants had flowers and fruits. The fruits of these flowers contained a magical power and were shining.

If the plants in this place were in the Apocalypse Age of the Twelfth Universe, many powerhouses would fight for them.

Nonetheless, the plants were useless to James right now.

He came to the new universe to seek the Chaotic Treasures.

When a new universe was born, the number of Chaotic Treasures that appeared could be counted on two hands. As there were too many powerhouses from the twelve universes, to obtain the treasures, someone needed a certain amount of opportunities, luck, and ability.

Currently, the only things James wanted were several true Divine herbs of heaven and earth.

James ignored the surrounding plants and left this valley.

“Welcome, everyone.”

At this time, a voice sounded from the sky of this world.

“I’m the Lord of the First Universe. You may call me the Omnipotent Lord.”

A voice sounded from the sky.

Raising his head, James wanted to find out which part of the sky was the sound coming from. However, the sound did not have a definite location. Thus, he could not figure out where the sound came from. He did not know where the person was either.

“I’ll set a few rules,” continued the voice.

“No matter which universe you are from, you’ve come to this universe for opportunities, fortunes, and Chaotic Treasures. You may have come to this universe to obtain the luck of this universe and enter the Macrocosm Ancestral God Rank.

“Firstly, powerhouses above the Ancestral God Rank are prohibited from joining the battle and obtaining fortunes by hiding in the new universe behind the younger generation. If discovered, you will become the public enemy of all twelve universes. You will not be forgiven.

“Secondly, all grudges in the new universe can’t implicate the corresponding universe. If one dies in the battle to obtain treasures in the new universe, the powerhouses of the twelve universes must not use this as an excuse to attack the younger generation. Those who go against the rule will become the public enemy of all twelve universes.

“Thirdly, during the process of the battle to obtain treasures in the new universe, you may use any tactics, including the Chaotic Treasures brought from your universe.

“Fourthly, as long as you’re a living being below the Quasi Ancestral God Rank, you can break through at any time. Whether or not you can enter a higher cultivation rank before all treasures in the new universe have been discovered depends on your fortune.”

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3637-In the new universe, outside the Chaos, many powerhouses appeared.

These powerhouses came from the twelve universes. However, the Lord of the Twelfth Universe, Hadad, had left. The rest were powerhouses from the other eleven universes.

After the Lord of the First Universe, the Omnipotent Lord, spoke up, he looked at the other powerhouses and smiled. “Everyone, let’s start the verification now. Go and sense if there are any Ancestral God Rank powerhouses among the living beings who entered the new universe. If there is any, kill them right away.”

At once, a powerhouse stepped forward and sensed the new universe.

Under his senses, he discovered some powerhouses’ hidden auras. They had suppressed their cultivation rank and entered the universe.

Without saying anything, this powerhouse swept his Zen toward the Ancestral Gods he sensed and killed them no matter which universes they were from.

Of course, he only sensed the ones from the outside world.

He did not kill the primitive living beings of this universe.

Then, the other powerhouses also started sensing the rest.

After all powerhouses of the eleven universes were done and made sure no Ancestral God Rank powerhouses entered, they began chatting with each other.

“I wonder which universe will get the treasures.”

“Haha. Of course, the First Universe will get them. The First Universe is the first universe to be born and has the most powerhouses. The disciples are also the strongest.”

“Not necessarily.”

“What’s going on with the Twelfth Universe? They only sent a living being to the new universe. Are they giving up on the fortunes and opportunities of the new universe?”

“Although Hadad isn’t powerful, he knows himself well. He knew that the Twelfth Universe was the last universe to be born, and the other universes had taken most of the Chaotic Treasures of the Twelfth Universe.novelebook.com Thus, the Twelfth Universe does not have many Chaotic Treasures. No matter how many living beings they send, they will die.”

“That’s true. The Twelfth Universe is born the last and has the most unstable Heavenly Path. This leads to the Twelfth Universe being the weakest although they’re in the same cultivation rank.”

The powerhouses from the eleven universes began discussing.

They were all taking guesses. Perhaps the First Universe would get the most treasures again.

As for the Twelfth Universe, it was looked down upon.

The Twelfth Universe only sent a living being.

What could a living being do?

Upon appearing in the new world, James heard the voice and learned about some things. He agreed with the points raised by the Omnipotent Lord as the points benefited every living being.

In the dark, the powerhouses from the eleven universes were watching. So, James was not worried that the powerhouses from the other universes would play tricks.

Whether or not James could obtain the fortunes depended on his strength and luck.

At this moment, great pride rose in his heart.

He had cultivated more than ten Paths and Path Seals.

The Five Great Paths, Karma Path, and Dark Path were extremely special.

He believed that he could rise in the new universe and become a prodigy of the Twelfth Universe. Leaving the new universe, he could definitely enter the Ancestral God Rank. With his Paths, once he entered the Ancestral God Rank, he would become invincible.

Entering the Ancestral God Rank and killing the Caelum Ancestral Gods would be easy.

James walked forward and left this area. Then, he used his Divine Sense to scan and sense everything in this world.

However, under his senses, no Chaotic Treasures existed in this world. He could not help but frown and say, "It's impossible. How could there not be any Chaotic Treasures? This is the only world that has all three planes of existence in this universe. If there are Chaotic Treasures, they will be in the Divine Dimension of this world. So, why isn't there any?"

"Could it be that the treasures have been taken by the aboriginal living beings of this world?"

Confused, James left this area quickly and rushed to a crowded place.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3638-This world was known as the Fire Realm.

It was not called the Fire Realm because the planet was a fireball. Instead, it was due to the planet being fiery red when viewed from the outside. Thus, gaining the name Fire Realm.

For now, the Fire Realm was the only world with three planes of existence in the Thirteenth Universe. Naturally, it attracted many powerhouses from the eleven universes.

The martial world was at any place people were at. In the martial world, there would be fights.

The universes did not contact each other much. Only a few powerhouses in the Caelum Ancestral God Rank had the ability to pass through the Chaos and enter other universes.

Nonetheless, the living beings of each universe were in different universes.

Now that all powerhouses of the twelve universes gathered on one planet, there would, of course, be fights.

In the Fire Realm, the Chaotic Treasures had not appeared. Perhaps it had appeared, but no one could find it.

On the spiritual mountain in the Fire Realm, there were countless Primordial Pulses, and the entire area exuded pure Primordial Energy.

At this moment, living beings from every universe gathered in this area. At a glance, there was a large crowd.

On top of the mountain, more than ten thousand people gathered.

“Haha.”

A loud laugh sounded.

“Everyone, the Chaos hasn’t appeared yet. Since we have nothing to do, why don’t we have duels? Let’s see which universe’s powerhouse is stronger.”

The person speaking was a man. He looked young, around twenty years old. He wore a big saffron robe, and his face was chubby. He appeared funny.

The chubby man scanned everyone present with a strange expression. He seemed to be looking for a powerhouse from another universe to duel.

At this time, James had just arrived at the foot of this spiritual mountain.

On the spiritual mountain, there were numerous living beings, and each of their aura was powerful. When James walked toward the crowd, many gazes landed on him.

“The Grand Emperor Rank’s Ninth Heaven?”

“Why did a Grand Emperor Rank’s Ninth Heaven cultivator come to the Fire Realm? Shouldn’t a cultivator of this rank look for fortunes in the smaller worlds of this universe? Why did he come to the Fire Realm?”

Many living beings stared at James.

James stopped walking and scanned the surrounding living beings.

These living beings were in groups of three to five. As they gathered together, they were discussing something.

“Hey, which universe are you from?”

At this moment, a voice came.

Then, a handsome man walked over to James with a playful smile. He appeared to be around twenty years old and wore a white robe.

Standing before James, he smiled, “Do you know what place is this?”

James slightly shook his head and said, “I’ve just arrived. I don’t know this place.”

“This is a spiritual mountain.” The man continued, “Some powerhouses have a treasure that can predict where the Chaotic Treasures will appear. Moments later, a Chaotic Treasure will show up here. That’s why many living beings gathered here.”

“I see,” responded James dully.

Although he did not appear excited, he was actually shocked.

He only rushed over to the place where there were many living beings. He did not expect a Chaotic Treasure to appear here. Besides, the other universes’ powerhouses had treasures that could detect the Chaotic Treasures.

“Your cultivation rank is too low. You won’t be able to survive here. Why don’t you follow me? That way, I can protect you. When you left your universe, you must have received a few treasures. Give them all to me to honor me. You won’t use them anyway,” said the man wearing a white robe.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3639-The man targetted James because he knew the latter’s cultivation rank was low.

He also knew that those who could come here had something they could depend on. Thus, he guessed James had treasures.

James glanced at him.

He did not expect to face a robbery the moment he arrived, and it was carried out in broad daylight.

“I’m talking to you.”

When James did not respond, the man wearing a white robe roared.

His roar was like thunder.

There were many living beings in this area, but these living beings were watching the scene unfold from a distance with mocking expressions.

On the other hand, James was calm as he said, “I have many treasures, but I’m afraid you don’t have what it takes to get them.”

“How arrogant. I’ll show you if I have what it takes.”

At once, the face of the man wearing a white robe darkened. Raising his hands like claws, he jumped and grabbed James' head.

This action contained a strong power.

James immediately felt how strong the power was. Even an average Ancestral God in the Twelfth Universe might not have such strength even if he used all his power.

Meanwhile, living beings from the other universe could exude such power just by raising their hands. Besides that, James also sensed that the person's cultivation rank had not reached the peak of the Quasi Ancestral God Rank. It was only in the Quasi Ancestral God Rank's Theosophical Rank, almost reaching the peak.

Nonetheless, James did not fear him.

At this moment, a faint halo appeared on the surface of his body. The halo formed a shield and blocked the attack of the man in a white robe.

When the attack of the man wearing a white robe landed on the faint halo, he felt a terrifying defensive power. This defensive power instantly blew him away.

"Huh?"

The man in a white robe stumbled back a hundred meters before stabilizing himself. He was taken aback.

"You're quite strong. I've underestimated you," he spoke viciously.
novelebook.com Then, a frightening aura oozed from his body.

James glanced at him and felt that his aura had grown stronger. Upon sensing that, he frowned slightly.

He did not want to cause trouble as it was his first time coming to a new universe.

He knew there was a gap between his current ability and the true prodigies. Besides, he did not want to use his trump card so early.

Before he could find out the strength of the other universes' powerhouses, it was best that he did not fight.

However, he was now being targeted by the others. If he did not fight back, he would be a coward.

When James saw the man in a white robe catching his breath, his expression went from serious to calm.

"I gave you a chance for survival. Since you aren't leaving, I won't hold back." The face of the man wearing a white robe darkened.

"Haha."

James dully laughed and said, "You're just targeting me because of my low cultivation rank. There are so many powerhouses on the mountain, and they must have many treasures. Why don't you take theirs?"

"So what if I'm targeting you because you're weak?"

The man in a white robe did not refute. Instead, he provoked James publicly.

"No matter which universe you come from or what your background is, you're dead," He sneered.

James asked indifferently, "Which universe are you from?"

"Listen up. I'm from the Third Universe. My teacher is a Macrocosm God from the Third Universe. He's known as Holy Master Qamar."

"The Third Universe?" Calmly, James responded, "The Lord of the First Universe said it beforehand that any grudges in the new universe won't involve one's background. If one gets killed in the new universe, he can only blame himself for being weak. You may die now."

In James' opinion, this man who had provoked him was already a dead person.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3640-The man with a white robe who provoked James and wanted to take James' treasures had a powerful background.

He came from the Third Universe.

The Third Universe had many Macrocosm Gods, Holy Master Qamar being one of them. The man was Holy Master Qamar's Inner Disciple, and in the Third Universe, he had always been arrogant because his teacher was a Macrocosm God.

His name was Pierre Barker.

Pierre had no idea which universe James was from. However, he knew that no matter which universe a living being was from, the living being would receive treasures that could save his life from the older generation.

When Pierre noticed that James' cultivation rank was low, he decided to provoke James.

He did not expect James to be strong. He realized that James was not the easy target he seemed to be.

Pierre knew that he could not defeat James if he did not use all his strength.

At this moment, his aura increased to the extreme. James could sense five kinds of power

In the Twelfth Universe, if one could comprehend five Paths, one was considered a super prodigy. Such a prodigy was wanted by everyone.

On the top of the mountain, thousands of people had gathered.

Those who could be on the top of the mountain were the core of each universe.

A chubby man was fanning the flames. He wanted the universe's powerhouses to duel, but before the battle on the top of the mountain could begin, a terrifying aura exuded from the foot of the mountain.

"Stanley, your fellow disciple caused trouble again."

A powerhouse from the Third Universe glanced at a man wearing a white robe and said with a smile, "We aren't in the Third Universe. We're in the new universe. Didn't you advise your fellow disciple to be careful? Weak people can't come to the new universe. Don't look down on people."

Stanley was a disciple of Holy Master Qamar, and Pierre was his fellow disciple.

In the Third Universe, Stanley was a legendary character.

Looking at Pierre's opponent, he said, "Why is he using five Paths against a mere Grand Emperor Rank's Ninth Heaven cultivator?novelebook.com What an embarrassment to the Third Universe."

Meanwhile, the powerhouses from the other universes were all enjoying the show.

Everyone who could show up on the top of the mountain was strong. No one was certain they could defeat their opponents. It was because everyone had signature skills.

At the same time, they were watching the foot of the mountain.

They were seeing the panting Pierre.

“He has comprehended five Paths, and his cultivation base is in the Quasi Ancestral God’s Theosophical Rank. He’s quite weak. How can he be so arrogant when he’s so weak? Such a person won’t last long in the new universe.”

“His opponent is just in the Grand Emperor Rank’s Ninth Heaven. He should be able to crush him, right?”

Many powerhouses expressed their thoughts.

At the foot of the mountain, with a calm expression, James looked at Pierre who was panting. From the aura Pierre exuded, James knew Pierre was not his match. He did not need to use his trump card to defeat him.

In fact, James did not need to use all his power to kill Pierre.

“Go to hell!” shouted Pierre.

His roar sounded like thunder.

Even though they were in the Fire Realm, it had only been several months since this universe was born. Thus, the space was not very stable. The roar of a Quasi Ancestral God Rank powerhouse was enough to destroy the space.

The roar caused the space around James to crack.

The surrounding living beings watching the battle stepped back and gave way to an area. Then, they continued watching the battle from a distance.

The cracks in the surrounding space did not affect James.

He stood in the damaged space as his black robe swayed. His expression was calm as if he wasn’t afraid at all.

At once, Pierre launched an attack. The attack was a combination of the power of the five Paths.

With so many living beings watching, he needed to get rid of James as quickly as possible.
