

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3641

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3641-Pierre's punch contained devastating strength that surpassed an Ancestral God. Even an Ancestral God with two or three Paths would find it difficult to resist the blow and could end up either severely wounded or dead.

James raised his hand at the last second, and an arcane power emerged to resist Pierre's fist.

Pierre's power immediately dissipated after being nullified.

"Huh?" Pierre's expression changed to one of shock.

Before he could figure out what had happened, James had already begun to counter his attacks.

James raised his hand, summoning black mist that formed mysterious inscriptions.

The mysterious inscriptions gave off an eerie feeling.

James spoke decisively, "Die."

As soon as his words left his lips, incredible power burst out from the black inscriptions.

The black inscriptions were a fusion of Curse Inscriptions and Death Power. The inscriptions James had summoned contained the essence of death itself.

The force encased Pierre and ate away his body.

Pierre panicked and tried everything he could to neutralize the force.

However, he was helpless against the combined forces of Curse Inscriptions and Death Power. He could only helplessly watch as his body and soul were destroyed.

Pierre turned toward a faraway mountain and screamed frantically, "Stanley, save me!"

Stanley disappeared from the mountaintop and immediately flew toward the battlefield.

James sensed the powerful force charging at him.

He knew that a dangerous opponent was coming his way.

James was wary of the unknown opponent. He quickly drew upon his strength and flew into the sky to confront the incoming attack.

Boom!!!

Their palms slammed into each other.

The tremendous aftershock shook the surrounding space, and a black hole immediately formed in the void.novelebook.com The black hole continued to enlarge and threatened to swallow up the Fire Realm.

Fortunately, a newly formed universe's Heavenly Path is compelled to protect every realm within it.

As the black hole enlarged, the Heavenly Path intercepted the black hole and patched the broken space.

James felt a terrifying force course into his body, and he was blasted away. His Blood Energy roiled violently and he spat out a mouthful of blood. James tried to steady himself in the sky, trying to offset the force pushing him away. However, the space beneath him split apart each time he took a step.

Stanley was also impacted by the force of their collision and had to stumble backward a good amount before he could finally balance himself.

Pierre, on the other hand, was already annihilated. He did not have the strength to resist the combined strength of Curse Inscriptions and Death Power. Everyone watched as he died pitifully.

Stanley charged into the battlefield in an attempt to save Pierre but failed. He floated in the sky with a dour expression. Glaring at James, he spoke furiously, "You're a despicable man. You could've shown him some mercy."

James replied calmly. "He wanted to kill me. Why should I have held back?"

Meanwhile, prodigies from the Eleventh Universe on top of a distant mountain were shocked by James' abilities.

"T-Those were Curse Inscriptions."

"When did the Lord of our universe gain a disciple like him?"

"Those weren't regular Curse Inscriptions. He integrated Death Power into them."

"How interesting... There's more to him than meets the eye. He's only a Ninth Heaven Grand Emperor, yet he killed a Quasi Ancestral God that mastered Five Paths."

Many powerful cultivators were impressed by James.

James had displayed strength beyond their imagination. It was hard to believe that a human that had not even reached the Quasi Ancestral God Rank could wield such terrifying strength.

Recommended Novels

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3642

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3642-Initially, James aimed to avoid fighting as it would expose his strength and boons to countless powerhouses in the new universe. He wanted to keep a low profile before he could figure out the strength of the other universe's prodigies.

However, Pierre attempted to snatch his treasures and tried to kill him. Therefore, James disposed of Pierre ruthlessly.

Ultimately, Stanley also got involved in their conflict.

Stanley was a mighty opponent. A simple and offhanded attack required James to use all his strength to deflect it. Despite that, the aftershock still caused his Blood Energy to churn and result in him vomiting blood.

James stared at Stanley and secretly mustered his energy. He planned to take Stanley by surprise and kill him with a single blow if the other party decided to move against him.

James was confident he could take Stanley down with his Chaotic Treasures.

Stanley's face was stony. The fact that he had been knocked away by James was humiliating enough. If he insisted on taking on a Ninth Heaven Grand Emperor, his reputation would suffer if word got out.

He declared in a rage. "My junior may have been foolish but you still killed him mercilessly. As his senior, I can't overlook this matter. You must abolish your cultivation base and leave the new universe to make up for your actions."

"Ha," James sneered and said, "You're funny. He should've considered the consequences before he tried to kill me. He got what he deserved. Also, I'm afraid you're not qualified to order me to abolish my cultivation base and leave the new universe."

James showed no fear toward Stanley.

"I've already given you a chance to live. Since you insist on dying, don't blame me for granting your wish."

Stanley wanted to resolve this matter peacefully and not by force, giving James a chance to escape alive. However, James did not value the opportunity and would be forced to regret it later.

The other universes' powerhouses would stand by and watch even if he tried to kill James now.

With a thought, Stanley's aura skyrocketed. James immediately sensed the crushing force heading for him.

James used his Divine Sense and discovered nine powers within Stanley's body, one of them being one of the Five Great Paths—the Time Path.

After sensing Stanley's aura, James' expression became bitter.

"He's from the Third Universe, which was formed much earlier than ours. Their space is also much more stable than the Twelfth Universe. Moreover, he has already cultivated nine Paths, he defied the limit allowed by heaven and earth. His strength was definitely top-tier. I wonder if he has any Chaotic Treasures with him?"

James was slightly worried. He never expected to get in conflict with other universes' prodigies as soon as he came to the new universe.

However, there was no point worrying now.

James shouted, "Bring it on!"

At that moment, his aura immediately grew stronger.

James unleashed the Power of the Five Great Paths, Ying and Yang Path, Elemental Path, Curse Path, Dark Path, Karma Path, and Sword Path. To prevent exposing his main Path, James fused all sixteen of his Paths' Power.

As a result, those present could not sense how many Paths he had cultivated.

The Power of the Paths flowed through his body, boosting his aura tremendously.

Even since James had reached the Grand Emperor Rank's Ninth Heaven, it was the first time unleashing all his means together.

The powerhouses watching from distant mountaintops were puzzled by his actions.

"There's something about this young man."

"His Power seems very chaotic, and it's hard to sense how many Paths he has mastered."

"I can sense his Curse Power similar to that of the Eleventh Universe's Lord. Moreover, he also has the Power of the Sword Path as well as the Ying and Yang Path.

"If I'm not mistaken, I can also sense the Life and Death Path among the Five Great Paths."

Recommended Novels

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3643

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3643-"I can sense the Power of Yin and Yang from him."

"I entered the Dark World before and fought a few evil spirits there. Like those evil spirits, he seems to have the Power of the Dark Path."

"Why do I sense Elemental Power from him?"

Many powerhouses discussed James' puzzling aura.

After expressing their opinions, everyone was shocked at their findings.

"That's impossible. How can he have mastered so many Paths? There must be something wrong. That kid might have cast some kind of Supernatural Power or Secret Art that is misleading our senses."

"I agree. Every universe's Heavenly Path only allows one to cultivate nine Paths. Even the First Universe that preceded the others has never had anyone able surpass the limit. No one can cultivate ten Paths."

The prodigies continued to debate among themselves.

"Interesting."

"This kid isn't someone to be trifled with. Stanley might even lose to him."

"I highly doubt it. Stanley has practiced nine Paths and even mastered the Time Path. Besides, he's already at the pinnacle of the Quasi Ancestral God Rank. He can't lose to a mere Ninth Heaven Grand Emperor."

Tens of thousands of powerhouses were watching the fight.

Although there were many spectators, no one really knew which universe James hailed from. However, they were very interested to see how strong a prodigy from the Third Universe was.

In the past years, there was not much contact between the different universes. Thus, they were unaware of each other's strengths. novelebook.com All they knew was that the longer a universe had existed, the more stable the Heavenly Path there. As a result, cultivators from different universes but the same cultivation rank would have different strengths.

At the base of the mountain, Stanley had activated his nine Paths, and his aura sharpened. At that moment, he resembled a War God.

Using his Time Path, he stopped James' time.

Stanley intended to quickly eliminate James. Thus, he immediately utilized Time Power to stop James in his tracks.

James' immediately detected Stanley's Time Power and used his own Time Power to negate the attack. However, there was a disparity between their strengths.

Stanley's comprehension of the Time Path was superior to James.

Unable to completely stop Stanley's Time Power, James' flow and perception of time had slowed.

Meanwhile, Stanley's sense of time was unaffected.

Stanley dashed in front of James and swung his fist.

He punched a hole through James' chest. At the same time, an insidious force crept through the wound into his body and wreaked havoc on his physical body.

"Come on! Get off me!!!"

James used all his strength to forcefully break free from Stanley's Time Power, allowing his sense of time to return to normal. He quickly backed into the distance and activated his Life Power to heal his injuries. The gaping hole on his chest began to recover rapidly as everyone watched on.

"That's Life Power."

"Indeed. He used the Life Path's Power to heal his wounds."

"That's a very powerful Path. Whoever mastered the Life Path is practically immortal and can keep healing themselves regardless of how severe the injuries are."

The powerhouses spectating the battle from the mountaintop eyed James enviously.

The Life Path was one of the Five Great Paths. Every cultivator's dream was to master even one of the Five Great Paths.

After James treated his injuries, he thought to himself, 'This guy's very strong.'

Meanwhile, Stanley gritted his teeth in frustration. He had thought one move would be sufficient to kill James.

However, James survived his attack.

Stanley threw in everything he had. He merged the powers of his nine Paths in his palm to form a huge ball of energy. At the same moment, he sealed off James' surrounding space.

James attempted to use the Space Path to escape but was unsuccessful.

Recommended Novels

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3644

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3644-Stanley floated in the air as an energy ball gradually formed in front of him.

The energy ball was created by the fusion of his nine Path Powers. It was like a massive sun hovering in the sky and exuded a frightening aura.

A powerful magnetic field formed around the energy ball which caused the surrounding space to become unstable. The nearby Paths grew increasingly unstable.

There was nowhere for James to escape, so he had no choice but to try and defend against Stanley's attack. James raised his hand and fused his 16 Path Powers to form a huge energy ball of his own as well.

The energy ball rushed forward to intercept Stanley's attack.

Boom!

The two energy balls exploded against each other in mid-air.

Everything in the area seemed to freeze in place as soon as the two forces collided. The two forces began to fuse, novelebook.com trying to devour and overpower the other. The whole situation lasted for several seconds.

Shortly after, James' energy ball began to fall apart.

Stanley's energy ball overwhelmed James' energy ball and continued hurtling at him.

When he saw this, James immediately realized he was weaker than Stanley.

Swoosh!

The energy ball continued to plummet from the sky with intense force. Soon, it was only inches above James' head.

Although the surrounding space had shattered, a powerful force sealed the space around James. As such, he was immobilized and completely unable to escape.

"Damn it! Why is he so strong."

James' face went pale, and beads of sweat trickled down his forehead.

At that moment, James felt the death close in on him. He no longer bothered to conceal his strength. He summoned his Elemental Path Seals of Genesis. They immediately exploded with Elemental Power and merged to form a massive Elemental Wheel. The Elemental Wheel stopped the huge energy ball.

Boom!

The energy ball crashed into the Elemental Wheel. An intense shock wave spread out into the surroundings. James' Elemental Wheel also shattered upon impact, and turned back into Elemental Path Seals of Genesis, submerging back into his body.

The force from the collision of the two immense forces dispelled Stanley's seal on James. James was free to move again when the Elemental Path Seals of Genesis returned to his body.

After he could move again, he immediately vanished from sight.

As soon as he left the area, the energy ball descended and destroyed the space.

Fortunately, the Heavenly Path protected the area and prevented the destruction from spreading too far. As a result, the spiritual mountain was not destroyed.

In the distance, James gasped for breath.

His opponent from the Third Universe was too strong.

He used the Elemental Path Seals of Genesis to form an Elemental Wheel made from Macrocosm Power. However, Stanley's energy ball shattered it with ease.

As expected from a top prodigy of the Third Universe. Stanley was capable of overcoming Macrocosm Power.

James knew it was because his cultivation rank was too low. Had they been on the same rank, Stanley would not have stood a chance.

Recommended Novels

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3645

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3645-In the distant mountaintops, everyone began to discuss what they had just witnessed.

“Those were Elemental Path Seals of Genesis! He’s definitely a force to be reckoned with. He fused the Five Elements of Genesis with his Elemental Path Seals to form Elemental Path Seals of Genesis. The five elements work in tandem with each other to form a new, mysterious power.”

“Indeed. If not for his low cultivation rank, the power created by their fusion would have been enough to kill Stanley.”

“Which universe is that man from?”

“I haven’t seen him in my universe before.”

“In my universe, the Five Elements of Genesis were all taken by different powerhouses.”

...

Many of the spectators were surprised by James’ strength.

However, they were unaware that the Elemental Path Seals of Genesis that underwent Elemental Inversion could produce Macrocosm Power. Since their ranks were still far from that of a Macrocosm Ancestral God, they could not sense the Macrocosm Power.

However, the Macrocosm Gods beyond the new universe could clearly sense the Macrocosm Power coming from James.

The Omnipotent Lord made a satisfied expression. “That kid is pretty impressive. He has great potential. I thought the Twelfth Universe had sent off a sacrificial lamb. I wasn’t expecting him to be a prodigy with great potential. If he reaches the peak of the Quasi Ancestral God Rank, he’d become a powerhouse that surpasses the other universe’s prodigies.”

Another Macrocosm Ancestral God nodded and said, “Indeed. He’s exceptionally talented. He combined the Five Elements of Genesis into his Elemental Path Seals through a special cultivation method to create Macrocosm Power. His tactic has inspired me. When I return to my universe, I’ll gather the Five Elements of Genesis and might also be able to create a new Macrocosm Power to improve my strength.”

“Let’s see how things play out. This time, prodigies from all over have gathered in the new universe. Whatever happens, it’s going to be an interesting development.”

“It won’t be long before a new Macrocosm Ancestral God rises.”

The Macrocosm Ancestral Gods from the different universes observed the events in the new universe from behind the scenes.

All of them were pleasantly surprised with James’ performance.

They were not expecting the Twelfth Universe which was the weakest among the others, to harbor such a savant with unbridled potential. If guided correctly, he would surely become a Macrocosm Ancestral God.

What’s more, he would not have to await an opportunity or obtain great fortune. As long as he could raise his cultivation rank, novelebook.com he would surely become a Macrocosm Ancestral God.

Meanwhile, James sat wearily atop a spiritual mountain in the Fire Realm.

Even though he successfully escaped the battle, he was exhausted as Stanley was a tough opponent.

He used his Elemental Path Seals of Genesis and Elemental Wheel but still failed to divert Stanley’s attack. At that moment, James learned how terrifying the other universe’s powerhouses were. Moreover, Stanley was not even equipped with a Chaotic Treasure.

James would be obliterated instantly If Stanley were to wield a Chaotic Treasure.

Even if he were to use all the skills and treasures he had at his disposal, he would not stand a chance of victory.

Meanwhile, Stanley found it hard to breathe, as if a mountain were pressing down on his chest. He was equally shocked by his opponent’s strength.

Despite giving it all he had, he was unable to kill a Ninth Heaven Grand Emperor. If this made its way back to the Third Universe, he would be considered a laughing stock.

Stanley stared at James and said slowly, “You’re impressive. I’d like to see how much longer you’ll last against me.”

“Hey, you...”

At that moment, a sluggish voice came from the summit of a spiritual mountain in the distance.

“You’re quite the b*stard, aren’t you? If it’s a fight you’re looking for, I’ll take you on.”

Shortly after the voice declared confidently, a chubby cultivator wearing a baggy robe came over.

The chubby cultivator hovered in the air, looked at Stanley, and said lightly, “You’re at the peak of the Quasi Ancestral God Rank. Aren’t you ashamed of picking on someone at a far lower rank than yours?”

“Are you trying to meddle with my affairs, fat*ss?” Stanley glowered at the chubby cultivator.

“Correct. I’m going to end this farce.”

“State your name, where you’re from, and who’s your teacher,” asked Stanley.

Stanley was afraid that the chubby cultivator was actually an impressive man. Not a single Chaotic Treasure had appeared in the new universe yet, and he felt it was unnecessary to offend a powerful cultivator over his squabble with James.

The chubby cultivator replied slowly. “I was born in the Twelfth Universe and was travelling around other universes with my Grandmaster. I’ve been to every universe. Remember my name. It’s Henrik Declan. It’d also do you well to remember my Grandmaster’s name, Yukia Dearnaley.”

Recommended Novels

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3646

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3646-Henrik hovered in mid-air and stared back at Stanley.

Stanley was from the Third Universe, which was relatively advanced with a stable Heavenly Path. Moreover, his mentor was a Macrocosm Ancestral God.

However, Henrik was not intimidated.

Meanwhile, James was dumbfounded by Henrik’s sudden appearance.

‘Henrik?! Why is Henrik here? The person who taught my teacher? Does that mean his teacher is one of Yukia’s disciples?’ thought James.

Once again, he learned more about Yukia.

“Hey, Bro! Fancy meeting you here.”

Henrik turned around and looked at James who had called out in delight. He stepped back slightly and said, "Hey, I'm only interfering because I didn't like how he's bullying someone weaker than him. Who're you calling your Bro? Don't suddenly act like we're friends. You're not qualified to be a brother of mine."

"..."

James was stunned.

'What's going on? Henrik doesn't seem to recognize me.'

After processing what happened, James snapped back to reality and asked, "A-Are you from the future?"

"Future?! What the hell is that? I don't know what you're talking about." Henrik lightly shook his head.

His answer told James that the current Henrik was not from the future.

It was no wonder Henrik was really friendly with him during their first encounter in the future. They had already previously met in the Primeval Age. Thus, the future Henrik had already experienced everything that was taking place currently in the Primeval Age.

Following that logic, everything was already predetermined and would not change in the future. Otherwise, future Henrik's experiences would be different, and that would violate the universe's rules.

"I must've mistook you for someone else." James addressed him politely, "Nice to meet you. My name is James Caden. novelebook.com I'm also from the Twelfth Universe."

Henrik nodded and said, "I know."

He was already aware that James was from the Twelfth Universe.

He knew the Twelfth Universe had only sent one person to the Thirteenth Universe, and that person was James Caden.

However, he had no idea about James' background. He was simply ordered to head to the new universe and meet up with James.

James still was intrigued by everything.

When they first met, Henrik knew about future events, including Brielle becoming the first person to reach the Emperor Rank in the Apocalypse Age. Back then, James was skeptical and even suspected that Henrik was from the far future.

In spite of that, he encountered Henrik in the Primeval Age. Thus, James surmised that Henrik was not from the future but instead, someone who had lived for a very long time.

James' questions about how a low-ranked cultivator became the Demon Realm's Lord were answered. Even if it were an order from his teacher, the powerhouses of the Demon Realm would never accept him.

Meanwhile, Stanley stared on angrily.

Another cultivator had shown up out of the blue and he was a mysterious person that claimed to have traveled through many universes.

Stanley was slightly afraid of him.

After a while, he straightened himself and said coldly, "I don't care. I'm going to kill him."

Henrik glared at him and said, "You'll have to get past me first."

A horrifying burst of energy erupted from Henrik.

Henrik's energy consisted of nine kinds of powers. His aura was not inferior to Stanley's. In fact, Henrik seemed stronger than Stanley.

Stanley immediately lunged at him.

"Stand back."

Henrik shouted at James, then stepped forward to deflect Stanley's attack.

James hurriedly stepped away.

Boom!

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3647

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3647-Their palms slammed into each other, and the two forces mixed with each other causing a black hole to form in the void.

Fortunately, the Heavenly Path kept the force in check and prevented the black hole from enlarging.

Both Henrik and Stanley brought their full strength to bear against each other.

Stanley was blasted away by the force and coughed out blood. Meanwhile, Henrik stood firmly in place.

After they traded blows, their difference in strength was evident. Henrik was slightly stronger than Stanley.

Stanley's face darkened and was terrifyingly vicious. He glared at Henrik and said, "You're strong. I'll drop the issue for now. However, I'll remember what happened here and will make sure to avenge Pierre in the future."

Henrik said calmly, "I'll take you on anytime."

Many prodigies watched the battle as it unfolded.

"That chubby guy seems quite formidable. Stanley is from the Third Universe, and the Heavenly Path there is very stable. He's probably one of the strongest cultivators here. Despite that, Henrik's blow staggered him."

"That fat cultivator must be on par with the prodigies of the First Universe."

"I agree. Even without a Chaotic Treasure, his strength could be ranked among the top in this new universe. I wonder if he has a Chaotic Treasure."

Many people talked amongst themselves about the fight.

They were shocked by Henrik's strength.

Stanley conceded out of fear of Henrik. Thus, the battle ended abruptly.

Henrik walked over to James, looked at him, and asked, "Are you alright?"

James shook his head and said, "I'm fine."

Henrik praised him, "You're rather impressive. Even though you're a Ninth Heaven Grand Emperor, you managed to withstand his attack."

James smiled faintly in response.

"Let's head up the mountain to wait," said Henrik.

James followed behind him, flying toward a distant spiritual mountain.

Many powerhouses gathered on the mountaintop. All of them exuded strength and were just as strong as Stanley.

Henrik found a boulder and sat down.

The others knew that messing with Henrik would be problematic, so they all kept their distance from him.

James looked at Henrik and asked, "Do you know Yukia?"

Henrik looked at him, nodded, and replied, "I traveled around other universes with her."

Intrigued by his answer, James sat down and asked Henrik to elaborate. "Can you tell me more about her? Who exactly is she, and where does she hail from?"

Henrik's expression became solemn. He looked around them, stood up, and said, "Follow me."

After speaking, he left the spiritual mountain.

James followed behind him.

Soon, they arrived at a desolate forest.

Henrik leaned on a big tree, looked at James, and asked. "Are you also familiar with my Grandmaster?"

James lightly shook his head. "I don't know her personally, but I've heard of her before."

"Is that so?" Henrik looked at James doubtfully and spoke, "She's a very mysterious person, and almost nobody in the Twelfth Universe knows about her. Even the current Lord of the Twelfth Universe is oblivious about her existence, so where did you hear about her from?"

James did not bother explaining since the entire matter was too complicated.

Seeing James remain silent, Henrik said, "I'm not sure of her origins. I don't even know if she truly hails from the Twelfth Universe. I only know that my Grandmaster is actually a clone. Her main body is seemingly looking for something."

"A clone?"

James was shocked.

He knew Yukia was a very powerful person. Yet, he learned from Henrik that she was merely a clone. It was hard to imagine how strong her true body was.

Recommended Novels

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3648

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3648-Henrik conducted himself extremely respectfully as he spoke of Yukia.

"My Grandmaster's strength is unrivaled. Although I've only ever seen her clone, I know that she can best the Twelfth Universe's Lord. If she had the slightest inclination, she could easily get rid of Hadad.

"However, she can't be bothered with him because she has a bigger plan."

Hearing this, James asked. "What's her plan?"

Henrik shook his head and said, "I don't know."

"What does Yukia look like? Do you have a portrait of her? Could you show it to me?"

"I..." Henrik hesitated.

He had indeed seen Yukia before. However, her appearance was supposed to be a secret, and she had warned him never to reveal it to others.

"I'm sorry. She warned me not to reveal her appearance to others."

"Alright." James refrained from prying further.

After the brief conversation, James could tell Yukia was a very mysterious person.

He suspected she did not come from the Twelfth Universe and was possibly from another universe.

James also had no idea what Yukai's plans were. He fell into silent thought.

Recalling past events, Yulia had gone to the Silent City of Death prior to this.

The Silent City of Death was a city in the Twelfth Universe that was prominent during the reign of the Holy Master of Nothingness. novelebook.com When the Dark Strife broke out, many powerful people entered the Silent City of Death to fight back against the Dark World's army.

However, these powerhouses were almost completely eliminated.

After that, the Silent City of Death became a damned place and remained outside Mount Nothingness.

Yukia had also been to the Dark World prior and left behind a palace for Emperor Jabari.

She had appeared during the Primordial Age to secretly mentor Emperor Jabari and make him a powerful cultivator.

James briefly understood Emperor Jabari's past. When he finally became stronger, Yukia disappeared. After that, Emperor Jabari spent his whole life looking for her. Ultimately, he was killed by the Heavenly Path as he attempted to make a breakthrough.

Fortunately, he had a backup plan and planted a fragment of his soul in the Celestial Abode.

Then, James obtained the Celestial Abode left behind by Emperor Jabari.

Within the Celestial Abode was Sophie, the daughter of a War God from the Ancient Heavenly Court Age.

When he was still very weak, Sophie helped him a lot.

After some time, Sophie left, and Emperor Jabari's soul fragment appeared to continue helping him grow stronger.

Together, they entered the Dark World by chance. Emperor Jabari obtained some information from Yukia and seemed to have learned a lot of things. Moreover, James also obtained a Guqin left by Yukia.

Eventually, Emperor Jabari used the Blossoming technique and severely injured a Heaven's Adjudicator. Then, he entered the Dark World as a soul, saying he wanted to follow in Yukia's footsteps.

Although all these events occurred in different ages, they were inextricably linked.

All these events seemed destined to happen.

"What are you thinking about?" Henrik's voice came from beside him. James snapped out of his thoughts, shook his head lightly, and said, "It's nothing."

He looked at Henrik and asked, "Have you always known who I was since a long time ago?"

Henrik shook his head and said, "I wouldn't say I've known for long. My master and I were originally searching for Chaotic Treasures within the Chaos. However, the new universe suddenly came into being. Master brought me here and told me to meet up with you. Moreover, she also said that you're the hope for our future. You'll be the shining light that will illuminate the dark future."

"..."

James was dumbfounded by his words.

'What does this all mean?' thought James.

Recommended Novels

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3649

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3649-Was Henrik's master the one that briefly became the Demon Realm's Lord during the Primordial Age after diverting the Demon Realm's attack on the Human Realm and caused its subsequent fall?

James was even more confused.

However, he quickly put his thoughts away.

He was sure the truth would come to light sooner or later.

"Is there anything else you'd like to ask?" Henrik eyed James curiously.

James shook his head and replied. "Nope."

"In that case, let's head back."

Henrik turned around and headed toward the distant spiritual mountain.

James followed behind him and asked. "Will a Chaotic Treasure appear on this spiritual mountain?"

Henrik, who was ahead, shook his head and said, "I'm not sure. However, everyone is speculating it will. It's also rumored that a powerhouse from the Fourth Universe obtained an extraordinary treasure capable of predicting where new Chaotic Treasures will turn up in the new universe. Somehow word got out, and news of it spread. As a result, countless prodigies have gathered here."

"I see," James replied lightly and fell silent.

The two soon returned to the spiritual mountain.

Tens of thousands of prodigies from different universes were gathered on the mountaintop, waiting for the first Chaotic Treasure of the Thirteenth Universe to appear.

James and Henrik's departure from the spiritual mountain attracted a lot of attention. When they returned, many eyes were glued on them.

Henrik ignored the curious gazes and walked over to an empty area. He calmly sat down on a boulder, looked at a few powerhouses away from them, and said, "It seems the Chaotic Treasure won't appear anytime soon. How about we spar for a bit? I'll wager a Quasi Chaotic Treasure, and whoever defeats me can have it."

Henrik seemed enthusiastic to fight against the other universe's powerhouses and was even willing to offer a Quasi Chaotic Treasure as the reward.

Quasi Chaotic Treasures were stronger than Ancestral God Weapons but were not strong enough to be considered a proper Chaotic Treasure.

Specifically, Chaotic Treasures were born in the Chaos and would appear with the birth of a new universe.

On the other hand, Quasi Chaotic Treasures were made by powerful cultivators.

Although they were inferior to Chaotic Treasures, Quasi Chaotic Treasures were still remarkable weapons. Even Macrocosm Ancestral Gods from other universes might not possess a Quasi Chaotic Treasure.

Henrik's words immediately caused commotion.

A powerhouse stepped forward and asked, "Are you serious?"

Henrik grinned and said, "Of course. I'm a man of my word."

After speaking, he casually waved his hand. A white light emerged from his palm, and a shield appeared in sight.

The shield was not that big and about one meter in length and width. There were also magical inscriptions engraved on the shield's surface.

"A Macrocosm Ancestral God with four Macrocosm Powers personally crafted this shield with some rare materials from the Chaos. It's a genuine Quasi Chaotic Treasure with very strong defenses. If a cultivator at the peak of the Caelum Ancestral God Rank were to use this shield, he could resist a full-strength attack from a Macrocosm Ancestral God with one Macrocosm Power."

After speaking, Henrik turned to James.

"If this kid were to obtain the shield, he could easily resist everyone here."

James laughed at his words.

'Henrik sure knows how to joke around.'

The Five Elements of Genesis were Chaotic Treasures. Although they were of the lowest grade, they could still form Macrocosm Power when combined.

Previously, James used it against Stanley and was barely able to block his attack.

Following this logic, it would be almost impossible to deflect Stanley's attack if he were to wield Henrik's shield.

Henrik seemed to have read through James' thoughts. He glared at him and said, "What do you know? Even though your Elemental Path Seals of Genesis is a powerful asset, it's a Supernatural Power meant for attacking. It's not a defensive technique."

Recommended Novels

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3650

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3650-Henrik knew about James' Elemental Path Seals of Genesis. He knew that they were meant for offence not defense.

James pursed his lips disapprovingly.

'Who says the Elemental Path Seals of Genesis are purely offensive? I can use them to perform Elemental Inversion and convert my body into an Elemental Body,' thought James.

However, James did not say anything to refute Henrik. He was curious to see what Henrik was trying to achieve.

Henrik held up the Quasi Chaotic Treasure, looked at the other universe's prodigies, and said, "It's an opportunity you don't want to miss out on. To obtain Chaotic Treasures, you'll have to wield powerful treasures of your own to compete for them.

"You'd definitely want this shield in your arsenal when the time to fight for a Chaotic Treasure comes."

Henrik looked at everyone with a smug smile.

"Are you serious, fat*ss? Whoever can defeat you is free to take the Quasi Chaotic Treasure?"

Some were sceptical about Henrik's words.

Why would someone be stupid enough to offer up a Quasi Chaotic Treasure so just to spar with others?

Henrik replied earnestly. "Of course. In turn, I'd like you to wager powerful Emphyrean herbs."

A powerhouse among the crowd responded. "What kind of Empyrean herbs are you looking for?"

Henrik said, "You're all prodigies from different universes and should have all sorts of Empyrean herbs.

"These herbs are also classified by grades. I don't care for normal ones and will only accept Empyrean herbs above the Ancestral God Rank, novelebook.com also known as Ancestral Herbs. Of course, if anyone has Macrocosm Herbs, that'd be even better."

Henrik's voice was carried through the entire area.

Hearing this, many powerhouses began to ponder deeply.

Although Empyrean herbs were rare, they were worth far less than a Quasi Chaotic Treasure.

A Macrocosm Herb was barely as valuable as a Quasi Chaotic Treasure.

Ancestral Herbs and Macrocosm Herbs were formed by the forces of heaven and earth and could only be found in certain magical places.

However, Quasi Chaotic Treasures were crafted from countless rare materials. It was not something an ordinary Macrocosm Ancestral God could create.

A powerhouse immediately stepped forward and said, "Alright. I accept your terms."

He took out a small purple tree with a purple fruit about the size of a fist. It let off a spectacular purple light and seemed quite remarkable.

"This is an Ancestral God Rank plant. Everything growing on it has remarkable properties. Even a single leaf can bring the dead back to life. Its fruit is even more extraordinary."

Henrik's eyes immediately lit up.

James looked at Henrik in confusion and asked, "That may be a rare plant but, it's still far inferior to a Quasi Chaotic Treasure. You're trading at a disadvantage."

"Tsk, Just shut up." Henrik looked at James, unwilling to explain.

Then, he said, "In an effort to be fair, let's pass our wagers to this kid."

He pointed at James.

"Sure."

The challenger immediately agreed and tossed the purple tree over to James.

James caught it with a puzzled expression.

At that moment, Henrik also handed over the shield to James.

Then, Henrik flew to the open field before them. A powerful aura immediately flared from his body, and he said, "Make your move."

His opponent refused to be outdone and also instantly appeared on the battlefield.

The challenger that bet that mysterious, little tree was a man that looked to be in his 30s. He wore a gray robe, had a square face with thick eyebrows and big eyes. He looked extremely unruly.

He came from the Tenth Universe and had an impressive background.

In the Tenth Universe, there were three Macrocosm Ancestral Gods. He happened to be the disciple of one of these Macrocosm Ancestral Gods.

Recommended Novels