The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3651-The challenger was convinced of his own strength.

However, he did not possess a Chaotic Treasure. Now that someone was offering up a Quasi Chaotic Treasure simply for sparring, he jumped at the opportunity. If he could obtain the Quasi Chaotic Treasure, his strength would hike significantly.

Therefore, he was willing to take Henrik on.

Even if he were defeated, he would only lose an Emyrean herb.

On the battlefield, the two expressed their powerful auras.

Shortly after, the battle began.

The surrounding areas were demolished instantly. Fortunately, the area had the protection of the Heavenly Path and the damage was minimized. However, a small area was still destroyed.

The challenger from the Tenth Universe was very capable, and forced Henrik to rely on defensive and evasive manoeuvres. Henrik was continuously wounded and on the brink of defeat. Just when it seemed he was about to be incapacitated, he suddenly bombarded his opponent with consecutive attacks, turning the tides in a mere moment.

After defeating him, Henrik lay down on the ground and gasped for breath.

“My turn.”

At that moment, another powerhouse stepped out. He threw an Ancestral Herb to James and immediately lunged at Henrik, novelebook.com who was resting on the ground.

Startled, Henrik shouted, “Hey! Don’t you have any dignity? I’m already injured. You should at least let me rest before attacking...”

Before Henrik could finish speaking, a terrifying force swept toward him.

Henrik rolled on the ground and dodged the attack. The battle was very one-sided and left Henrik at a disadvantage. However, Henrik managed to dodge every attack.

The fight lasted for a long time. Ultimately, Henrik finally found an opening and severely injured his opponent and weakened him.

Henrik won two battles in a row and obtained two Ancestral Herbs.

He dragged his injured body over to James, and said with a grin, "Give them to me."

James obediently handed the Ancestral Herbs to Henrik.

"Hey, Fatty. I'd also like a go."

The new challenger was also very generous with his offer. He immediately took out an Ancestral Herb and prepared to battle immediately.

Henrik growled in irritation, "Can't you see I'm injured? Aren't you going to give me a small breather? If this is how it's going to play out, then I'll continue fighting regardless of how injured I am. Whoever kills me will walk away with this Quasi Chaotic Treasure."

Henrik went all out. The battles continued unceasingly on the spiritual mountain. He defeated powerhouse after powerhouse. Many powerhouses were willing to offer up Ancestral Herbs to obtain his Quasi Chaotic Treasure.

Henrik sustained grievous wounds but continued to defeat his opponents.

After fighting for a long time, he had defeated more than 30 people. Injuries and cuts littered his body. His robe was shredded, and his skin had been sliced open by several powerful weapons. Even his bones were exposed and damaged.

"He's already exhausted. The Quasi Chaotic Treasure will be mine."

At that moment, another person leaped in to take advantage of Henrik's fatigue.

After a long fight, yet another challenger fell.

"How is this fat man so tenacious? He's still alive despite his severe wounds."

"He's probably on his last breath. Let me give it a go."

The more injured Henrik got, the more powerful cultivators stepped forward to challenge him.

However, all of them were defeated.

James was already holding hundreds of Ancestral Herbs in his hands by this point.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3652-Tens of thousands of people gathered atop the spiritual mountain.

After hearing that a battle had broken out on the mountaintop, some powerhouses at the mountain foot also ascended the mountain to watch the matches.

In that moment, the mountain was crowded with people.

Henrik lay down on the ground weakly, and his aura was weak. He seemed exhausted and extremely vulnerable.

However, he had already been in the same state for a long time.

For a while, no one dared to challenge him.

“I’ll take you on.”

One powerhouse refused to give up.

He took out an Ancestral Herb, handed it to James, and walked toward the battlefield. He looked at the weary Henrik and asked, novelebook.com “Can you still fight? If you don’t want to die, surrender your Quasi Chaotic Treasure to me.”

Henrik used the last of his strength to get off the ground. He looked at his opponent while panting and goaded him. “Cut the crap. I’m not dead yet. You’ll have to kill me before you can take my Quasi Chaotic Treasure.”

“Alright. As you wish.”

The challenger leaped forward, appearing before Henrik instantly and thrusting his palm at him.

Henrik was immediately sent flying and crashed into the ground.

“Hmph. You think too highly of yourself.”

The challenger presumed he had killed Henrik. He walked over to James, stretched his hand, and said, “Hand it over.”

James was at a loss. Henrik’s aura seemed feeble, and he was also critically injured.

‘He surely died from that attack, right?’ thought James.

However, James had seen Henrik turn the tide in perilous situations. He firmly believed that Henrik was not dead.

Swoosh!

At that moment, a huge gust blew toward him.

Before the challenger could react, Henrik appeared behind him and dealt a fatal blow. Some force pierced through his body and instantly formed a gaping wound.

The challenger was blasted away and crashed into the ground. Blood gushed out of his mouth.

Henrik did not show any mercy. His attack shattered all of the challenger's Path Seals.

After defeating his opponent, Henrik fell to the ground, having seemingly exhausted all his strength.

No one else dared to challenge him.

"That fat guy really knows how to put on a show."

"He used a Quasi Chaotic Treasure as bait to obtain so many Ancestral Herbs."

"His offer was too enticing. Letting go of an Ancestral Herb is worth the chance to obtain a Quasi Chaotic Treasure."

Everyone discussed the outcome in hushed tones.

At this point, everyone had figured out that Henrik was just faking his exhaustion.

He was trying to bait them into attacking him.

Henrik got up with difficulty and sat on the ground. Looking at the people in the distance, he weakly said, "Is there anyone else who'd like to challenge me? If not, I'll declare the end of this challenge."

No one responded to him. Seeing that no one was falling for his ruse, Henrik produced another weapon.

It was a sharp, black spear that glowed with a black light and emitted a mysterious energy.

"This is another Quasi Chaotic Treasure. It's remarkably powerful and indestructible. I'll add this to my wager. Whoever beats me can take the spear and shield. These two treasures will be enough to obtain any boons that will appear here."

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3653-Henrik offered up another treasure because there were no more challengers.

Everyone was immediately interested in the two Quasi Chaotic Treasures.

Even prodigies from the First Universe and Second Universe could not help but be tempted by the prize.

Those that were interested had no Chaotic Treasures of their own.

There were many Macrocosm Ancestral Gods throughout the twelve universes that possessed Chaotic Treasures. To ensure their disciples obtained more boons in the new universe, they handed them their Chaotic Treasures.

As such, a few prodigies in the new universe had Chaotic Treasures with them.

Even a Macrocosm Ancestral God would be tempted by two Quasi Chaotic Treasures, let alone Quasi Ancestral Gods. Moreover, Henrik appeared to be significantly weakened and drained of energy.

Another prodigy was unwilling to let this chance slip. He took out an Ancestral Herb and a new round of battles ensued.

The battles against Henrik raged on unceasingly atop the mountain.

Whenever Henrik was on the brink of death, he would suddenly turn the tide and deal a lethal blow to cripple his opponents.

James could not help but laugh in amusement after seeing countless opponents lose to Henrik.

At the same time, he gained a better understanding of Henrik's strength. Without a Chaotic Treasure, Henrik's combat strength would be ranked among the top ten in the Thirteenth Universe.

The fights went on for several months.

After a few months, everyone around them finally understood what was happening.

Even though Henrik seemed like he was on the brink of death, they were no longer fooled by his facade.

Quasi Chaotic Treasures were tempting, but they lacked the strength to take them from Henrik.

Meanwhile, the other conceited powerhouses did not bother partaking in Henrik's game. Quasi Chaotic Treasures were not worthy of their involvement.novelebook.com Their goals were the Chaotic Treasures, the new universe's luck, and the opportunity to become a Macrocosm Ancestral God.

"This is getting boring."

Henrik grinned and got off the ground. As soon as he returned to his feet, his weariness disappeared instantly.

Just a few seconds ago, he appeared to be close to dying, but was perfectly fine in the next moment. The crowd also witnessed his injuries heal rapidly.

"I knew it."

"He's a dishonest cultivator. He deceived so many of us."

"Damn that fat b*stard."

Many of the prodigies resented Henrik.

Henrik walked over to James with a bright smile and asked, "How many Ancestral Herbs did I win?"

James used his Divine Sense to inspect the items and replied. "A little over one thousand and one hundred herbs."

Henrik had gathered over 1,100 Ancestral Herbs, meaning that he defeated 1,100 powerhouses in total.

However, they were not fighting to the death. Thus, the challengers all held back in some way or another.

"Is that all you've got?"

Henrik was dissatisfied with the results. He said, "I guess this'll have to do for now. I'll try to get more in the future."

He stretched out his hand and said, "Give them to me."

With a thought, James summoned the Ancestral Herbs he stored within the Celestial Abode.

Henrik took them from him and kept them away.

James also returned the Quasi Chaotic Treasures to Henrik. Curious, he asked, "What do you need so many Ancestral Herbs for?"

Henrik looked at James in silence. After a while, he said, "Before we came to the new universe, my master told me that my Grandmaster had left behind a pouch that he had to open in the new universe."

"A pouch? What's inside?" asked James.

Henrik shook his head and said, "I'm not sure, but Master told me to gather as many Ancestral Herbs and Macrocosm Herbs as I could here. However, I've no idea what they are for."

Since Henrik was clueless, James did not inquire further.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3654-During the Apocalypse Age, James was completely clueless about what Henrik was trying to accomplish.

Now, he learned that everything was seemingly arranged in advance by Yukia.

Yukia had appeared in the Holy Master of Nothingness' era.

'Where exactly is she now?' wondered James.

"Henrik, where is Yukia now? Where did she leave the pouch? Does she have some kind of amazing Supernatural Power? How did she know about the Thirteenth Universe's creation in advance?"

"You shouldn't doubt my Grandmaster's capabilities."

James became increasingly curious about Yukia's real identity. However, Henrik knew just about as much as him. As such, James had no choice but to slowly investigate her.

"By the way, when will the Chaotic Treasure appear?" asked James.

James knew he was not able to compete for the first Chaotic Treasure as his strength was insufficient.

However, it was not like he came to the Thirteenth Universe to obtain a Chaotic Treasure anyway.novelebook.com His main purpose for coming here was to assess how much stronger other universes' powerhouses were and how different his strength was from those in the same cultivation rank.

Henrik shook his head and said, "I don't know. However, the powerhouses with a certain treasure that can sense Chaotic Treasures have said it'll appear within the next ten thousand years."

"Ten thousand years?"

James sighed. Then, he said, "I'll have to leave first."

Taken aback, Henrik asked, "Leave? Where are you going?"

James said, "My current cultivation rank is too low. I'm only a Ninth Heaven Grand Emperor. I haven't even stepped into the Quasi Ancestral God Rank yet. Even if the Chaotic Treasures appear, I won't have the strength to fight over it. I'll train in this new universe and strive to reach a higher cultivation rank."

Henrik said calmly, "If you don't have the strength to get a Chaotic Treasure, then don't. Just stay with me. My master gave me the order to protect you. With me by your side, you're practically untouchable here."

James shook his head lightly and said, "Thank you, but it's not like your protection can last forever."

Henrik nodded and said, "Since you insist on leaving, go ahead. Just be careful."

"Despite my low cultivation rank, I'm not an easy target." smirked James.

Henrik nodded and said, "True. Even a genius with nine Path Seals like Stanely couldn't kill you. Even though your cultivation rank is low, you should be able to survive as long as you don't offend someone powerful. Go on. I'll also use this chance to cultivate in seclusion to cross into the Ancestral God Rank before the Chaotic Treasure appears. If I can't manage that, it will be hard to fight against all these powerhouses."

Henrik planned to meditate in seclusion in the area. In fact, some other powerhouses had the same idea and had already begun to do just that. Their cultivation rank was already at the peak of the Quasi Ancestral God Rank, and they were close to becoming Ancestral Gods.

The requirement for entering the new Thirteenth Universe was for one to be below the Ancestral God Rank. However, the First Universe's Lord said they could attempt to increase their cultivation rank in the new universe.

Therefore, many powerhouses were trying to raise their ranks before the first Chaotic Treasure appeared. If they could become Ancestral Gods, their strength would also improve significantly and allow them to obtain more boons.

James glanced around. He realized many people had already set up Time Formations to cultivate, seeking to become Ancestral Gods before the first Chaotic Treasure appeared.

His expression immediately became serious. These Quasi Ancestral Gods were already terrifyingly strong. If they were to become Ancestral Gods, they would be extremely powerful.

James knew he had to pick up the pace. He had to raise his cultivation ranks faster than the others. Otherwise, it would be almost impossible for him to seize any boons in the new universe once the difference in strengths became more evident.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3655-After bidding farewell to Henrik, James left the spiritual mountain.

Henrik watched as James walked into the distance. His smile vanished and was replaced with a solemn expression. He sighed and said, "Everything has already been decided, and no one can change it. I hope you can create a different Path."

James left the Thirteenth Universe's Fire Realm, unaware that many powerhouses had secretly followed him.

During his battle against Stanely, he summoned the Five Elements of Genesis and displayed a wonderful Supernatural Power to resist Stanely's attack. It was the only reason he was able to resist Stanley's onslaught.

These powerhouses knew that the Five Elements of Genesis were Chaotic Treasures. Instead of staying on the spiritual mountain to wait for the first Chaotic Treasure to appear, they reasoned that it would be easier to steal James' Chaotic Treasures instead.

If James were killed, his Elemental Path Seals of Genesis would be shattered, and the Five Elements of Genesis would be released from his possession.
novelebook.com Then, they could grab them from him and improve their strength, giving them a chance to fight off other powerhouses.

However, they were all fearful of Henrik, who James seemed to be on friendly terms with.

Therefore, they tailed him in secret and planned to attack James after they left the Fire Realm.

James set up a Time Formation around himself to lengthen his cultivation period.

He had already reached the Grand Emperor Rank's Ninth Heaven and was only one step away from becoming a Quasi Ancestral God. The Quasi Ancestral God Rank was an exceptional rank that focused on improving one's mental fortitude. The Path Seal's Power would also increase as one's mental fortitude improves.

The first stage of the Quasi Ancestral God Rank was the Illuminated Rank.

What was the significance of the Illuminated Rank? No one was ever quite able to define it.

Throughout the ages, there have been countless books that spoke of the Quasi Ancestral Rank. However, each book had a different definition. The Quasi Ancestral God Rank was something one had to comprehend on their own, and it could not be taught with words.

James left the Fire Realm and wandered around the new universe, traveling through newly formed planets.

He sensed the Great Path of heaven and earth to improve his mental fortitude and cultivation rank.

There were many primitive beings on the planets, with varying cultivation ranks. The highest was at the Ancestral God Rank, and the lowest were mortals that did not cultivate.

James continued to venture into the depths of the new universe.

He eventually came to a stop and looked into the distance. There were countless stars as far as he could see.

Suddenly, James sensed a threatening aura.

He immediately broke the Time Formation around him, abruptly turned, and glared at the starry void.

Shortly after, a man in a black robe appeared.

The man seemed quite menacing.

James looked at him warily and asked, "Sir, I haven't offended you. Why do you have hostile intentions?"

"Haha..."

The black-robed man smiled eerily and said, "You have only yourself to blame for displaying the Five Elements of Genesis in the Fire Realm. I've set my eyes on your Chaotic Treasure. I'll spare you if you obediently destroy your Path Seals and hand the Five Elements of Genesis to me."

Many powerhouses still lurked in the dark. Seeing that the black-robed man already took action, some continued to stay hidden, planning to find an opportunity to ambush James.

James' face darkened at his words.
