The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3656-The black-robed man was imposing.

James sensed that he was a Quasi Ancestral God at the peak of the Path Integration Rank and had eight Path Seals. The man was very close to becoming an Ancestral God.

Someone who had cultivated eight Path Seals definitely would not be an easy opponent.

A powerhouse like him could rule an entire era in the Twelfth Universe.

James had a solemn expression.

Stanley had eight Path Seals as well. This black-robed man was only slightly weaker than Stanley.

James was unsure which universe his enemy was from. The longer his universe existed for, the stronger he would be compared to similarly ranked cultivators.

Even with all his trump cards, James would not stand a chance if the black-robed man came from anything predating the Fifth Universe.

With a solemn expression, James asked, "Who are you? Which universe did you come from?"

The man smiled menacingly and said, "Listen carefully, Brat. My name is Lahm Malcolm, and I'm from the Eleventh Universe."

Hearing his reply, James heaved a sigh of relief.

The Eleventh Universe was created just before the Twelfth Universe. There should not be a huge difference in strength between similarly skilled cultivators.

Although he felt slightly relieved, James was still unnerved. His opponent was still a powerhouse that had cultivated eight Path Seals and was at the peak of the Quasi Ancestral God Rank.

"Hand it over."

Lahm stretched out his hand, and a powerful aura erupted from his body. The aura immediately formed a terrifying magnetic field. James was caught up in the magnetic field and felt a crushing pressure on his body.

James was forced to use all his Path Seals' Power to resist. He could withstand the pressure after he unleashed his Path Seals' Power. In this situation, it was impossible for him to purposefully destroy his Elemental Path Seals to release the Five Elements of Genesis.

James snorted coldly and said, "Why are you so confident you'll defeat me?"

Lahm shouted, "Die, Brat!"

Then, he immediately launched an attack. Countless inscriptions emerged with a flick of his palm and gathered to form a devastating palm attack.

The illusory palm descended from the sky with terrifying force.

"Bring it on!"

James unleashed all his strength. His Path Seals' Power merged to form a formidable force. The force shot out from James' palm and soared into the sky like a dragon to counter the palm attack.

"Boom!"

There was an explosion in the void.

The illusory palm overwhelmed James, and continued to descend toward him.

"He's so strong!"

James was startled. Although he cultivated 16 Path Seals, there was a significant gap between their cultivation ranks, and there was a large disparity in their strength.

He immediately dodged the attack.

Boom!

The huge palm slammed into the uninhabited planet beneath them and shattered it into countless fragments.

James knew that he was so much weaker than his opponent. He had to resort to his secret skills to defeat the black-robed man.

James appeared in the distance and looked at Lahm, who glared menacingly at him. He smiled and said lightly, "Since you've got a death wish, let me grant it for you."

At that moment, James activated the Space Path's Power and sealed the surrounding space.

Worried that Lahm could easily break his Space Path's Power, he immediately cast Curse Magic to strengthen the seal.

Then, he manifested a black longsword in his hand.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3657-The sword's blade was slightly curved with mysterious inscriptions carved onto it.

It was the Demon-Slayer Sword, a genuine Chaotic Treasure. Thea had given it to him. James could feel the Demon-Slayer Sword's Power, and wielding it made him feel invincible.

He charged at Lahm with the Demon-Slayer Sword.

Lahm had been sealed in a space by James' skills.

However, he effortlessly broke free.

The moment he broke free from the trap, James had already appeared in front of him with the Demon-Slayer Sword, using the Supreme Sword Path to attack him.

It seemed like an ordinary move but contained all the Five Great Sword Realms, including Sword Move, Sword Shadow, Sword Heart, Sword Intent, and Singularity. Moreover, he was wielding the Demon-Slayer Sword, a Chaotic Treasure. All these allowed him to unleash destructive strength.

Before Lahm could react, the Demon-Slayer Sword was already inches away from him.

He sensed a dreadful Sword Intent, and his body began decaying.

As soon as his body began to disintegrate, the Demon-Slayer Sword struck him.

The power of a Chaotic Treasure coursed through him and destroyed Lahm instantly. Before he could even utter a gasp, he already ceased to exist.

A Chaotic Treasure's power was terrifying and could even eliminate a Quasi Ancestral God who had cultivated eight Paths with ease.

The powerhouses watching in hiding gasped upon seeing Lahm's demise.

"What a vicious man!"

“He has another Chaotic Treasure. Forget it. We won’t stand a chance against him.”

The powerhouses that were planning to ambush James gave up on their plans.

Although the prospect of obtaining James’ Chaotic Treasures was tempting, they had to be able to fight him for them.

Meanwhile, the Macrocosm Ancestral Gods of different universes were watching everything happening in the new universe.

At that moment, a beautiful woman with a curvaceous figure looked at the man beside her and asked, novelebook.com “When did you recruit a disciple like him?”

The man was Kallinikos, the Macrocosm Ancestral God that ruled the Ninth Universe. He was also the person that successfully cultivated multiple Macrocosm Powers using his Sword Path.

The woman that asked the question was his wife, Yekaterina Larkspur, the Lord of the Tenth Universe.

Kallinikos scratched his chin and gave her a knowing smile. “He’s not my disciple. He probably learned his swordsmanship from a human I taught in the Twelfth Universe.”

Yekaterina nodded and remarked. “He’s already mastered the Five Great Sword Realms. He’s got a lot of potential and might even comprehend the Sixth Swordsmanship.”

Kallinikos said, “Let’s see how it goes. If he shows more potential, I’ll bring him to the Ninth Universe after the Thirteenth Universe’s boons are claimed. Then, I’ll personally guide him. However, the sword he wields is malevolent. It emits terrifying Dark Power and might’ve been the weapon of a powerhouse from the Dark World.”

Yekaterina’s expression also darkened. She said, “If he can control a Chaotic Treasure from the Dark World, it means he has practiced the Dark Path. It’s miraculous that a living being from the Illuminated World can practice the Dark Path.”

James had no idea his every move was being watched.

However, he was not bothered since those paying attention to him were Macrocosm Ancestral Gods. He believed Macrocosm Ancestral Gods would not try to steal his Chaotic Treasures.

After James killed the black-robed man, he restrained his energy and put away the Demon-Slayer Sword.

Then, he used the Space Path and disappeared from the starry space.

The next moment, he appeared somewhere else in the universe.

As soon as he appeared, he happened upon the creation of a planet.

Countless Paths gathered in the void and formed into matter, gradually constituting the planet. As he watched the planet form, James seemed to have an epiphany.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3658-James appeared somewhere in the depths of the starry universe and watched as the planet formed before him.

He activated the Omniscience Path, and everything around him was reduced to the laws that formed it. Then, he activated his Time Path, and time wound backward until before the planet's formation. A Path Sigil formed before his eyes, rapidly absorbing the Paths within the starry universe.

After it absorbed the Paths, the Path Sigil evolved into mysterious and complex inscriptions. Eventually, it became a series of complete inscriptions that shifted constantly.

James witnessed the birth of a new world.

Afterward, he entered the Omniscience Path and watched a Path Sigil transform into complete laws and sequences.

James murmured, "Is this what Yukia meant when she said one becomes two, two becomes three, and eventually, the three will evolve into a myriad of things? However, she also mentioned nothing lies at the end of cultivation..."

At that moment, he seemed to attain an epiphany. However, he could not make sense of it, no matter how hard he tried. He stood before the planet. He could sense the mountains, the rivers, the land, and living beings coming into existence on the planet.

Initially, its inhabitants were feeble and had no cultivation base. However, as the planet gradually matured, a few powerful cultivators began to appear on the planet. Among them were creatures at the Ancestral God Rank.

James marveled at the occurrence. "Amazing."

From nothingness sprung forth a planet with living beings on it.

He watched as everything unfolded.

Right there, James appeared to grasp the essence of cultivation. He began to comprehend the truth behind a world's existence.

James knew that this was but a scratch on the surface, but everything else was too complicated for him to understand for now.

He murmured, "Nothing lies at the end of cultivation?"

James then witnessed the planet's destruction and its final fate.

Many years later, the planet would collapse and return to the form of Paths in the universe. The creatures born on it would fight bitterly for survival. Eventually, everything will become Paths once more and disappear into nothingness.

"Huff!"

After a long time, James took a deep breath.

He snapped out of his trance and looked at the planet before him.

The planet had formed but was still uninhabited.

Everything he had seen just now was a premonition of what would happen after he witnessed the planet's formation. It was a prediction made from the Paths that formed the planet.

He saw the future of the creatures that would come into being and their ultimate fate. No matter what they experienced in life, everything would eventually return to nothingness.

At that moment, James felt confused about the future.

Would he also return to nothingness after going through so much?

"Huff." James sighed softly.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3659-James cleared his mind and got ready to depart.

As soon as he turned around, he was shocked to find out his mental fortitude had improved, and his cultivation rank had reached the Quasi Ancestral God's Illuminated Rank.

“What is the significance of the Illuminated Rank?” James fell into a daze. He murmured, “Does one have to understand the essence of the world and Paths to enter the Illuminated Rank?”

His mental fortitude had reached the Illuminated Rank. The Quasi Ancestral Rank was mystical. Theoretically, every living being had a different perception and understanding of the Illuminated Rank.

James examined his body’s condition. After his mental fortitude had improved, he found that his Path Seals had also evolved and strengthened.

James offhandedly unleashed one of his Path Seal’s Power. Immense power emerged from his Path Seal and flowed through his body, making him feel dauntless.

“I can feel the power surge through my body.” James clenched his fists and smiled confidently after sensing the strength he possessed.

He never expected to cross into the Quasi Ancestral God Rank so effortlessly. Now, he was much stronger than before.

Previously, he had to use his Elemental Path Seals of Genesis to form an Elemental Wheel against Stanely’s attack but barely managed to withstand the impact. novelebook.com However, facing Stanley in his current condition would be a piece of cake.

Back then, he was a Ninth Heaven Grand Emperor. Now, he was a Quasi Ancestral God.

Although he was only at the Illuminated Rank, he was finally at the same cultivation rank as the other geniuses.

Now, he had the strength to fight the other powerhouses at the peak of the Quasi Ancestral God Rank.

“Haha! This is great!” James laughed out loud.

“I’ve really benefitted a ton from this planet.” James looked at the planet ahead of him.

He moved away and disappeared from the sea of stars. The next moment, he was on the newly formed planet. The planet was not a major planet since it did not have three dimensions. However, it was still relatively big.

James used his Divine Senses to scrutinize the planet. He immediately found a beautiful landscape with a spectacular environment. In the next moment, he immediately appeared on top of a spiritual mountain in the area.

He waved his hand, and a powerful force emerged from his palm. The force attracted Paths on the planet, and a few inscriptions gathered together to form a heavy-duty protective formation around the mountain.

James also summoned a few Path Sigils over to him. The Path Sigils immediately began transforming, and a few buildings appeared on the spiritual mountain. James had learned how to do this after watching the planet's formation.

Although James could not create a world with his powers, he could easily construct a few buildings out of thin air.

He could also create some simple life forms.

James looked at the buildings he had created and smiled with satisfaction. Then, he muttered, "With the knowledge I've been collecting, I'll be able to build a world of my own or even an entire universe sooner or later."

Even a Macrocosm Ancestral God would be aghast if they overheard his desire to create a universe. However, this was something James had already decided upon.

He did not think much of it and walked toward a building. He sat in the palace hall in a lotus position and began to cultivate.

This time, he intended to comprehend the Omniscience Path.

James entered the Omniscience Path, and his aura became abnormal.

He found that his Omniscience Path had also reached the Second Stage, which Laurentinus had mentioned.

In the First Stage, one's aura would change and could form a magnetic field, but one's strength would remain unchanged.

The Second Stage was different.

After entering the Omniscience Path's Second Stage, one's magnetic field would be considerably strengthened and capable of crushing an enemy with one's aura. Moreover, one's energy, awareness, and physical constitution would improve significantly.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3660-In the past, James stumbled upon the Omniscience Path.

Now that he found himself on the Omniscience Path again, he discovered his cultivation rank had also improved and his physical strength had also grown significantly. However, his Path Seals' Power remained unchanged.

James murmured to himself. "I must've crossed over while watching that planet's formation."

At the same time, he was slightly puzzled. His mental fortitude improved during his previous epiphany and in turn, increased his Path Seals' Power. However, this time he had a breakthrough in the Omniscience Path, yet only his physical strength improved. Why did his Path Seals not grow any stronger?

If he understood correctly, the Omniscience Path had various cultivation branches. However, one could only cultivate the Omniscience Path to the Third Stage in the Twelfth Universe. Past the Third Stage, it was almost impossible to continue to make new breakthroughs.

James had no idea why this was so. He did not dwell on it for now. After he entered the Omniscience Path, he began another round of cultivation. novelebook.com Everything around him, including the plants, soil, and boulders, took the form of laws. The laws and rules of the soil and boulders were much simpler and easier to understand. However, the laws of the plants were much more profound and evolved constantly.

Outside the spiritual mountain were some weak organisms. James could sense that the laws that formed these life forms were also relatively advanced and everchanging.

James murmured, "The changes in the laws of living beings probably correspond to the changes in the Heavenly Path. Everything is under the Heavenly Path's control."

Unfortunately, James was not in the Twelfth Universe. Otherwise, he could use the Heavenly Path to study changes in the laws of living beings there, which would help him better grasp cultivation and the universe.

James silently cultivated. He watched as the laws around him changed and tried to spot the similarities in the changes.

Time passed silently.

In the blink of an eye, 10,000 years had passed.

The Fire Realm's Chaotic Treasure had also appeared. The Chaotic Treasure took the form of a powerful, golden rod that could extend and shrink at its owner's will.

As soon as the golden rod appeared, many powerhouses immediately began to compete for it. The powerhouses who held back previously also participated in the brawl to seize the Chaotic Treasure. Intense battles broke out around the Fire Realm, and every powerhouse utilized their Supernatural Powers, displaying extremely devastating strength.

The battle royale over the Chaotic Treasure lasted for 3,000 years. The Fire Realm was almost completely destroyed by the battles that took place. Fortunately, the Heavenly Path was defending it and forcefully kept it intact. Otherwise, the Fire Realm would have become a wasteland a long while ago.

Many powerhouses made a name for themselves in the past 3,000 years by showcasing their battle prowess.

The Macrocosm Ancestral Gods watching from beyond the universe created a new ranking tier based on their performance. The ranking was called the Soaring Dragon Ranking. The Soaring Dragon Ranking allowed powerhouses from other major universes to have a brief glimpse of the strength of the powerhouses in the new universe.

About half of the Soaring Dragon Ranking's top 100 cultivators came from the First Universe. The Second Universe occupied the other quarter and the rest were populated by powerhouses from other universes. However, powerhouses from the Ninth Universe and later did not make it into the Soaring Dragon Ranking.

After 3,000 years of fighting, the golden rod was claimed by a powerhouse from the First Universe. He was fifth on the Soaring Dragon Ranking. His rank rose to the third spot after he obtained the Chaotic Treasure.

Henrik also demonstrated terrifying strength during the fights.

Although he did not obtain the Chaotic Treasure, he was eighth on the Soaring Dragon Ranking.
