

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3671

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3671-“Haha! Bring it on! Do you think I’m afraid?!”

James laughed out loud.

After a brief fight with Sadryn, James had a general understanding of the strength of the powerhouses that were on the Soaring Dragon Ranking. He was not impressed by their strength.

James held the Demon-Slayer Sword and slashed the air a few times, unleashing powerful Dark Sword Energy.

A fierce fight broke out in the area.

James fought the dozen or so powerhouses on the Soaring Dragon Ranking with the Demon-Slayer Sword.

The last fight over the first Chaotic Treasure lasted for three thousand years. However, no one had simultaneously taken on a dozen opponents while maintaining the upper hand.

However, James was doing exactly that.

The Demon-Slayer Sword had potent power. Coupled with James’ skilled swordsmanship, he could unleash tremendous strength.

The dozen or so powerhouses had to use their full strength against James.

Although they unleashed terrifying attacks, James repelled them with One for All. Their attacks were ineffective against him. Regardless of what kind of potent Supernatural Powers they used, James dispelled them effortlessly.

After fighting for a while, he remained unscathed.

Meanwhile, all of his opponents were injured.

James had only used a portion of his strength.

He had not used the Infinity Steles, Time Capsule, Elemental Inversion, and the fusion of the Five Great Paths in battle yet. novelebook.com James was confident he could defeat the powerhouses from all the universes with them.

James looked like a Demon Lord, holding onto the Demon-Slayer Sword. The dozen or so powerhouse stood no chance against his attacks.

Henrik, who was watching from afar, was surprised by James' strength.

"James is really terrifying. He managed to improve so much in just one hundred thousand years."

Stanley, who had previously gotten into conflict with James, went pale as he watched the fight.

Not too long ago, he could easily crush James. However, now, James had surpassed him and reached a height he admired.

Stanley knew James could take his life with ease.

He could tell that James would defeat the powerhouses attacking him very soon. When that time came, James might come for his life.

Stanley could not be bothered with fighting for the Chaotic Treasure anymore. It was more critical for him to run for his life now. He had to find a place to cultivate in hiding. He planned to stay in seclusion until he became an Ancestral God.

The other powerhouses watching the battle knew it was impossible to defeat James unless they were Ancestral Gods.

To defeat James, they had to become Ancestral Gods.

A few powerhouses that came to seize the Chaotic Treasure gave up. They turned around and quickly left to find a place to cultivate in seclusion. They planned to become Ancestral Gods before they came out to fight for the Chaotic Treasure.

Slowly, more and more powerhouses left.

Those still fighting James realized only a few people remained in the area.

"James, we'll meet again! I'm sure we'll fight soon."

After one powerhouse disengaged from the battle, the others also followed suit.

As the battle continued, Sardyn was the only one left against James.

Sardyn was furious. He had a Chaotic Treasure but could not defeat James.

James could dispel the power from the Elemental Fan. Sardyn knew he would die if he continued to fight. For now, he had no choice but to escape and cultivate to become an Ancestral God.

He had to become an Ancestral God to stand a chance against James.

After Sardyn made a decision, he gave up on the fight.

Sardyn shouted, "I'll remember this, James. In the future, I'll be sure to kill you."

Immediately afterward, he waved the Elemental Fan, and powerful Elemental Power morphed out, sweeping toward James.

Sardyn seized the opportunity and quickly escaped, disappearing from James' sight.

James watched as his opponent left and murmured, "That was boring. I didn't even get to use my full strength before they ran away."

Recommended Novels

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3672

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3672-After watching the battle, the powerhouses that came for the Chaotic Treasure also gave up.

James' combat strength was terrifying. It would be tough for them to snatch the Chaotic Treasure with James protecting it.

James looked at the shattered space around him.

Numerous planets had been destroyed during the fight, and many living beings died tragically.

James murmured, "These people were innocent. The fight over the Chaotic Treasure had brought disaster upon them."

Immediately afterward, he summoned a few mysterious inscriptions that kept transforming. As they rapidly changed, the destroyed planets began to restore.

The living beings on the planets were also resurrected.

James could withstand the Karma he would attract from restoring a small area and a few living beings because he practiced the Karma Path.

However, restoring many planets and huge numbers of living beings would attract terrifying Karma. Even though he was strong, it would still be hard to bear. A significant amount of Karma instantly surrounded James.

James' body began to crack under the destructive Karma Power.

His Path Seals also showed signs of being engulfed by the Karma Power.

“Horrifying.”

James took a deep breath and immediately sat in a lotus position. He activated his Karma cultivation method to absorb and dissolve the Karma Power he attracted from his actions.

In the distance, the few powerhouses that remained in the area trembled in fear.

“That’s terrifying.”

“He restored the surrounding space almost instantly. Could he have taken control of this universe’s Heavenly Path?”

“That’s impossible. If he already took control of the new universe’s Heavenly Path, novelebook.comit would mean he was the lord of the new universe and could become a Macrocosm Ancestral God.”

Discussions filled the space as the powerhouses watched James from afar.

Henrik could tell James was in trouble and could not react to an attack. Thus, he went over to James and watched his surroundings to prevent anyone from launching a sneak attack on him.

Swoosh!

At that moment, a figure descended from afar.

The man wore a beige robe and looked about thirty years old. He was very tall and quite handsome. He floated mid-air and looked at James, who was dispelling the Karma Power, from a distance.

“It’s the person ranked first on the Soaring Dragon Ranking!”

“He came as well.”

“He’s the disciple of the First Universe’s Lord. He was taught by the Omnipotent Lord himself. He also broke the limit of the Heavenly Path and cultivated ten Paths.”

“Yermolai Devereux is a terrifying powerhouse. I heard that he’s already an Ancestral God.”

As soon as Yermolai appeared, the powerhouses that were still around immediately exclaimed.

Yermolai was an absolutely terrifying person.

He had made a name for himself during the battle over the first Chaotic Treasure that spanned three thousand years.

He ranked number one on the Soaring Dragon Ranking, which affirmed his strength.

Seeing Yermolai approaching, Henrik frowned. He looked at James, who was still trying to get rid of the Karma he attracted, and began to worry for James' safety.

Yermolai was already an Ancestral God.

Moreover, he had broken the Heavenly Path's limit and cultivated ten Paths. He was undoubtedly here for the Chaotic Treasure.

After slightly frowning, Henrik walked over to Yermolai with a smile and said, "Hey there. Aren't you Yermolai, the person who ranked first on the Soaring Dragon Ranking? Did you also come for the Chaotic Treasure?"

Yermolai looked at Henrik, nodded lightly, and said, "Yeah. I came for the Chaotic Treasure."

Then, he looked in James' direction and said, "I really didn't expect James, who was so weak back in the Fire Realm, to have become so strong in just a hundred thousand years. I'm intrigued. Even if not for the Chaotic Treasure, I'd like to fight him."

Henrik cursed in his heart, 'You want to fight? You're already an Ancestral God at a much higher cultivation rank than James. Would you dare to fight him if you were at the same rank?'

Although Henrik was dissatisfied, he kept a smile on his face as he muttered in his heart.

Recommended Novels

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3673

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3673-"That kid has been infected with Karma, and he's trying to get rid of it now. You're not possibly thinking about fighting him while he's distracted, right?"

Yermolai replied calmly, "So many Macrocosm Ancestral Gods are watching from the outside. I would embarrass my master if I were to do that."

Henrik was relieved by his words.

James could fight a dozen or so powerhouses on the Soaring Dragon Ranking. He would stand a chance against Yermolai.

Yermolai knew many Macrocosm Ancestral Gods were watching them.

Therefore, he would have to seize the Chaotic Treasure fair and square. He had no intention of fighting a distracted opponent.

James was expelling and suppressing the Karma Power he attracted. At the same time, he was also paying attention to his surroundings.

He knew another powerhouse had appeared nearby.

The powerhouse was ranked first on the Soaring Dragon Ranking and was already an Ancestral God. He was the first to reach the Ancestral God Rank in the new universe, excluding primitive living beings.

Among the primitive living beings, a few were born Ancestral Gods.

However, they were Ancestral Gods with only one kind of Path.

Ancestral Gods like them were relatively weak, and the prodigies from the other universes could easily kill them.

To quickly suppress the Karma Power, James immediately set up a Time Formation.

A hundred years passed in the blink of an eye.

James finally dispersed the Time Formation.

“He’s out of seclusion.”

“James is terrifying. He even managed to suppress Karma Power.”

The other powerhouses were excited upon seeing James because they were expecting a fight.

It was a battle against the first spot on the Soaring Dragon Ranking.

If James defeated Yermolai, he would take over the spot as the first on the Soaring Dragon Ranking.

In the past, no one would believe a human from the Twelfth Universe would stand a chance fighting a powerhouse from the First Universe.

However, they witnessed James take on a dozen or so powerhouses and knew of James’ strength.

Seeing James disperse the Time Formation, Yermolai looked at him and shouted, novelebook.com“James, you won’t be able to protect the Chaotic Treasure. Even if you can for now, you won’t be able to protect it when the others become Ancestral Gods.”

James parted his lips and said, “Chaotic Treasures are spiritual and can choose their own masters. The Chaotic Treasure formed in this area has already chosen its owner. Why do you guys have to insist on taking it?”

Yermolai gestured for James to attack and said, “I’d like to experience your strength.”

James looked at Yermolai and smiled faintly.

He was also curious about how strong a prodigy at the Ancestral God Rank was.

James knew Yermolai was a formidable opponent. Thus, he did not hold back. He summoned all sixteen of his Path Seals’ Power, which stacked on each other. At that moment, his aura skyrocketed.

“How many Path Seals have you cultivated, James?”

Yermolai could not figure out how many Path Seals James had and asked out of curiosity.

James replied mischievously, “Have a guess.”

“You...” Yermolai cursed.

He took a deep breath and forced himself to calm down. Then, he said, “Every universe’s Heavenly Path only permits one to have nine Path Seals. Nine is the maximum number of the Heavenly Path. Moreover, every universe can only have nine Macrocosm Ancestral Gods.

“With the help of my master, I’ve gone through countless obstacles to break through the limit of the Heavenly Path and cultivate a tenth Path Seal.”

“Oh?”

James looked at Yermolai with interest. He never expected the prodigy from the First Universe before him to have broken through the limit of the Heavenly Path and cultivated ten Path Seals.

“That’s interesting.”

James smiled faintly and said, “I’ve nothing to tell you. Bring it on.”

However, Yermolai was not in a hurry to fight.

Compared to the Chaotic Treasure, Yermolai was more interested in how James cultivated so many Path Seals.

Although he could not precisely sense how many Path Seals James had, he suspected James had surpassed nine Path Seals and had more than a dozen.

Recommended Novels

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3674

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3674-Yermolai stared at James, trying to see through him.

When they were in the Fire Realm, he could sense many different powers from James' aura. However, James' various powers were stacked over each other, making it hard to judge how many Paths James had cultivated.

Yermolai could not sense it clearly. Neither could the powerhouses in the distance.

After James stepped into the Quasi Ancestral Rank's Theosophical Rank, a subtle connection formed between his Path Seals. His sixteen powers were stacked on each other and were hard to detect.

James was intrigued by Yermolai, an Ancestral God who had cultivated ten Path Seals.

He wanted to test out the strength of a powerhouse from the First Universe that had cultivated ten Path Seals.

James looked at Yermolai and said, "You're Yermolai from the First Universe, right? I'm assuming you've come for the Chaotic Treasure here. Your master is the Omnipotent Lord, and you're ranked first on the Soaring Dragon Ranking. You must also have a Chaotic Treasure. If you lose, you might also lose your Chaotic Treasure."

When the Twelfth Universe was formed, the other universes' powerhouses seized the Chaotic Treasures on it.

As a result, the overall strength of the Twelfth Universe struggled to improve.

The Twelfth Universe had to go through reformation and desperately needed to obtain Chaotic Treasures.

At that moment, James had a clear goal.

He had to seize more Chaotic Treasures. Thus, he had to seize the Chaotic Treasures from the other universes' powerhouses.

Previously, he was unsure how many Macrocosm Ancestral Gods could exist in the universe.

However, Yermolai had given him the answer. Nine was the Heavenly Path's maximum number. novelebook.com Therefore, only nine Macrocosm Ancestral Gods could exist in one universe. The Macrocosm Ancestral Gods from the First Universe must also have had a few Chaotic Treasures.

These Macrocosm Ancestral Gods must also have given their Chaotic Treasures to their disciples to venture into the new universe.

The earlier universes had existed for a very long time. Thus, it could be assumed they already had nine Macrocosm Ancestral Gods.

These Macrocosm Ancestral Gods must have had Chaotic Treasures.

As a result, many of their disciples in the new universe also possessed Chaotic Treasures.

Even if a few Macrocosm Ancestral Gods did not hand their disciples a Chaotic Treasure, James predicted there were at least ten Chaotic Treasures in the new universe.

If he could seize them and bring them back to the Twelfth Universe, it would greatly improve its strength.

Yermolai looked at James with a faint smile and said, "You'll have to beat me first."

Yermolai failed to get James to teach him how to cultivate more Path Seals. Thus, he did not insist on asking anymore. He mobilized his strength, and his aura immediately increased tremendously.

He did not give James any time to prepare. Before James could react, he launched an attack.

Terrifying power swept toward James.

The force swarmed toward James like a massive wave. James felt like he was caught up in a tsunami and kept swaying with the force.

He was wounded instantly.

James immediately urged all his strength.

Previously, he could resist the attack of a Chaotic Treasure. However, he was struggling against Yermolai's attack.

“He’s terrifyingly strong.”

James was surprised.

He immediately realized the disparity in strength between a Quasi Ancestral God and an Ancestral God.

If Sadryn was an Ancestral God, the Elemental Fan would have produced even more explosive strength.

Chaotic Treasures could only be used to their full potential in the hands of an Ancestral God. The higher one’s cultivation rank, the stronger one’s Chaotic Treasure.

James’ body was injured, and he did not dare to act carelessly. He quickly urged all his strength and improved his aura to resist the attack. His energy charged at the tide-like force and withstood it.

However, Yermolai had already appeared in front of him and threw a punch at him.

Recommended Novels

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3675

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3675-Yermolai’s attack looked relatively simple and was not fancy. However, it contained extreme comprehension of cultivation. James felt as if his vision blurred, and suddenly a blow had already struck him.

The force blasted a hole through his body, and he immediately began to bleed.

James was also knocked away.

As he was blasted through the void, his surroundings also collapsed.

Yermolai stood in place and watched James being knocked into the distance. He said calmly, “You’re indeed powerful. It’s no wonder a dozen or so powerhouses at the peak of the Quasi Ancestral God Rank couldn’t do anything to you. However, I’m already an Ancestral God. Your strength is far inferior to mine.”

Yermolai slowly walked toward James.

“I’ll give you two options, James.

“You either hand over the primitive living being that obtained the Chaotic Treasure or tell me your cultivation method to achieve more than nine Path Seals.”

Yermolai’s voice resounded.

James was blasted quite a distance before he could stand firmly.

He looked down at his body and saw the bloody wound on his chest. Then, he wiped the blood dripping from his lips.

Immediately afterward, he urged the Life Paths' Power and instantly healed his injury.

"An Ancestral God sure is strong. Moreover, he has cultivated ten Path Seals."

James grinned, and his aura began to change drastically.

James' body began to glow, and a faint halo appeared around him. His black hair also became white.

However, it was the white light reflecting from his hair that caused the illusion of him having white hair.

James had entered the Omniscience Path.

His aura increased again and leaked out to form a terrifying magnetic field. His physical strength also improved significantly.

Then, James entered the Omniscience Path's Second Stage.

"The Omniscience Path?"

Yermolai was slightly stunned. Then, he laughed and said, "I never expected you to have comprehended the Omniscience Path. novelebook.com However, there is no end to the Omniscience Path. It's a Path that can't be perfected. From my understanding, at most, one can only reach the Omniscience Path's Third Stage."

Then, he reminded James, "You're a rare prodigy, James. You're definitely one that can become the best of the best in any universe. So why do you practice such crooked Paths? Wouldn't it be better for you to cultivate normal Paths?"

From Yermolai's perspective, the Omniscience Path was crooked.

James' energy and aura improved significantly.

He stood in the air and radiated a potent aura, making him seem like a god.

Seeing that James did not reply, Yermolai said, "From your aura, I can tell you've entered the Second Stage. Even if you enter the Third Stage and go through a transformation, so what? The Third Stage is the limit, and you can't go further than that. It'll be a waste of time to practice the Omniscience Path. You're better off devoting yourself to other Paths and improving your strength. By doing so, you'll definitely become a Macrocosm Ancestral God in the future."

"Cut the crap. Let's continue the fight."

James beckoned him.

"As you wish," said Yermolai.

After speaking, Yermolai immediately appeared in front of James.

His movements were extremely fast, and James could not even react in time. Before he could sense the fluctuations in the space, Yermolai was already in front of him.

As soon as Yermolai appeared, he unleashed potent power that formed a wall to crush James.

James was immediately sent flying again.

He had entered the Omniscience Path, which increased his energy and awareness. Yet, he still could not react in time.

An Ancestral God from the First Universe that had cultivated ten Paths was terrifying.

Recommended Novels