The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3680-The two gave it their all but were stuck at a standstill.

The Demon-Slayer Sword pressed against the Staff of Destruction but failed to push Yermolai away.

While in a stalemate, magical inscriptions appeared from the crystal on the Staff of Destruction. Powerful force emerged from the inscriptions, and the Staff of Destruction let out a dazzling glow.

James was immediately blown away by the mysterious force.

His arm went numb from the shock, and he almost lost his grip on the Demon-Slayer Sword.

“That’s a very powerful Chaotic Treasure.”

James was startled.

While James was still marveling at the Staff of Destruction’s strength, Yermolai launched another attack.

The Staff of Destruction glowed brightly, and the light rays gathered to form a terrifying spatial cage to trap James.

The light rays kept shrinking around James.

James held onto the Demon-Slayer Sword and kept slashing at the light rays.

The intense battle between the two continued in the Chaos.

James and Yermolai were on even ground.

However, James was unwilling to lose.

He still had a few more trump cards.

While the two were in a struggle over the upper hand, James unleashed the Infinity Steles.

The 108 Infinity Steles revolved around him. He commanded them to fuse and form the Boundless Stele.

The Boundless Stele came crashing down with terrifying strength.

Yermolai flickered and dodged the attack.

James launched another attack at Yermolai. novelebook.com He appeared before Yermolai with a flash and thrust the Demon-Slayer Sword forward. At the same time, a black Sword Energy materialized.

Yermolai reacted swiftly and waved the Staff of Destruction. Substantial power emerged from the staff and blocked the black Sword Energy.

Boom!

Their forces caused an explosion in the Chaos.

James was also knocked away by the explosion's force.

"Curse Magic, Confinement!"

"Space Power, Seal!"

"Time Power, Freeze!"

...

James cast several Supernatural Powers consecutively.

Curse Inscriptions materialized and confined Yermolai within a fixed area.

Space Power also emerged and sealed the space.

Although they were within the Chaos, the Space Path was still effective.

Time Power also burst out and froze the time in the area.

Yermolai was instantly immobilized in place.

James quickly flashed in front of Yermolai and slashed the Demon-Slayer Sword at him.

Unfortunately, Yermolai was an Ancestral God with a Chaotic Treasure. Thus, James' confinement and sealing techniques were ineffective against him. As soon as James cast the Supernatural Powers, he had already waved the Staff of Destruction to neutralize them.

However, James had already sprung into action and slashed the Demon-Slayer Sword at him.

The Dark Wellspring in his body constantly poured power into the Demon-Slayer Sword and formed Sword Energies. The Sword Energies pierced Yermolai's body.

The Dark Power instantly corroded Yermolai's body, and injuries formed throughout his body.

When James' sword struck him, Yermolai quickly swung the Staff of Destruction at James.

James quickly dodged the blow.

Yermolai also seized the chance to back away.

While he was retreating, the Boundless Stele came down from above him.

He urged the Staff of Destruction's power to resist the Boundless Stele.

James found an opening and quickly summoned the Time Capsule. He charged at Yermolai rapidly and thrust it through Yermolai's body.

Yermolai was already injured by the Demon-Slayer Sword. Now, he sustained another blow from the Time Capsule.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3681-Yermolai sustained severe injuries in just a short moment. His Path Seals were cracked and could not support him to continue fighting James much longer.

He held up the Staff of Destruction, resisting the Boundless Stele.

James knew defeating an Ancestral God with a Chaotic Treasure would not be easy.

Although Yermolai suffered severe trauma, he still had the strength to fight.

"Karma Power."

James' Karma Power swept over and surrounded Yermolai.

Yermolai was injured by the Karma Power, and his injuries worsened.

However, he dispelled the Karma Power almost instantly.

James frowned. Then, he cast his ultimate move.

“Grand Destruction.”

The sixteen Path Seals in his body united and formed a new power. The power caused the surrounding space in the Chaos to tremble and distort, making it seem as if it was about to collapse.

When James stepped into the Theosophical Rank, he had comprehended a new Supernatural Power—Grand Desutrcition.

It was a Supernatural Power that fused the power of his sixteen Path Seals.

He could produce Macrocosm Power by fusing his Yin and Yang Power, Elemental Power, or Five Great Path Powers.

The power that he formed by fusing sixteen powers surpassed Macrocosm Power.

Yermolai’s body could not withstand James’ destructive power and began disintegrating. At that moment, he knew he was getting close to death.

Terrified, Yermolai no longer wanted to fight.

He wanted to escape but was still trying to resist the Boundless Stele with the Staff of Destruction. If he put away the Staff of Destruction now, the Boundless Stele would crush him.

Yermolai chose to abandon the Staff of Destruction. His body flickered and disappeared from the Chaos.

Boom!

As soon as he disappeared, the area where he previously stood exploded.

The explosion caused a terrifying power to spread out, and a slight crack formed in the Chaos.

James was relieved after defeating Yermolai.

“He’s terrifyingly strong. With my current strength, I had to use all my trump cards to defeat him.novelebook.com If he hadn’t escaped fast enough, he would’ve died.”

James put away the Infinity Steles and Time Capsule. Then, he floated toward the Staff of Destruction and stored it in the Celestial Abode without any hesitation.

The Macrocosm Ancestral Gods witnessed the entire battle.

Seeing Yermolai flee after discarding the Staff of Destruction, all of them had sarcastic expressions.

The smile on the Omnipotent Lord's face disappeared and was replaced by a grim expression.

A murderous intent rose in his heart.

However, he forcefully suppressed his anger. There were many Macrocosm Ancestral Gods with him. If he were to attack James, the others would definitely besiege him. Although he was powerful, he could not take them on if they were to join forces.

Meanwhile, James was completely unaware he had offended the First Universe's Lord.

After he defeated Yermolai, he left the Chaos and returned to the new universe.

Many powerhouses were waiting in the new universe for the battle to end. They could not enter the Chaos to watch the fight with their current strength.

Henrik also waited anxiously in the new universe.

Just as he was getting even more worried, James returned.

He quickly rushed over to James.

"James! How did it go? Are you alright?"

James dissipated his energy, smiled faintly, and said, "What could've happened..."

Before he could finish speaking, he spat out a mouthful of blood.

Although he won the fight, Yermolai was a tough opponent. He was severely injured and needed some time to recuperate.

"Here."

Henrik took out a Marcocosm Herb, handed it to James, and said, "Stop talking. Here, eat this and treat your wounds."

"Alright."

James did not say much. He immediately swallowed the Macrocosm Herb and sat in a lotus position to heal his wounds.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3682-The other universes' powerhouses were gathered around the area.

They were puzzled to see James return.

"Who won?"

"Only James returned. Yermolai is nowhere to be seen. Does that mean James won?"

The powerhouses discussed with each other.

At that moment, a voice resounded throughout the universe.

"James has defeated Yermolai and successfully climbed to the number one spot of the Soaring Dragon Ranking."

A Macrocosm Ancestral God outside the new universe announced the battle's outcome.

The powerhouses in the new universe were immediately shocked by the news.

"Huh? James defeated Yermolai?"

"Yermolai is an Ancestral God with ten Path Seals. Moreover, he's from the First Universe. Did James really defeat him?"

"Is this a joke? How could James from the Twelfth Universe be so strong?"

The prodigies of different universes were stunned by the news.

On the other hand, James felt the Macrocosm Herb's Power permeating through his body. The Macrocosm Herb was very miraculous. novelebook.com Although he was severely injured, he could quickly recover. He was completely healed shortly after consuming the Macrocosm Herb.

James stood up and stretched out his muscles.

Standing beside him, Henrik gave him a thumbs up and said, "Amazing. You're really incredible, James. You defeated an Ancestral God from the First Universe who has cultivated ten Path Seals. It's hard to believe you were so weak one hundred thousand years ago. Now, you're the first on the Soaring Dragon Ranking. From now onward, you're my big brother! Please take good care of me!"

"Thanks for the Macrocosm Herb."

James smiled in response.

He was proud to have defeated Yermolai.

‘What’s so special about the First Universe? Even though I’m from the Twelfth Universe, I still defeated him,’ thought James.

After his victory against Yermolai, James was basically invincible in the new universe. His next plan was to find opportunities and great boons. At the same time, he had to speed up his cultivation and strive to reach the peak of the Quasi Ancestral God Rank. It would be best if he could become an Ancestral God.

After becoming an Ancestral God, his strength would be boosted significantly.

James looked at the shattered stars around him.

Stars were matters without life. Thus, they were not protected by the Heavenly Path.

With a thought, he cast a mysterious power and restored the surrounding area.

Immediately afterward, he released the living beings he had transported into the Celestial Abode.

Many living beings gathered on a spiritual mountain in Mount Snow Sect.

Quanesha, who had obtained the second Chaotic Treasure, was also among them.

Since they were inside the Celestial Abode, they were clueless about what had happened outside. Neither did they have any idea what kind of battle James had fought to protect them.

James looked at them and said, “You’re safe now. From now onward, no one will come to trouble you guys.”

Despite his reassuring words, Mount Snow Sect’s Grand Patriarch had a solemn expression.

Although he was an Ancestral God, he was not very strong.

He looked at James pleadingly and said, “Thank you for saving Mount Snow Sect, Sir. However, the Chaotic Treasure is still with us. As long as it stays with our sect, powerful people will keep coming to attack us. With our strength, we’re not capable of protecting it.”

While speaking, he turned to Quanesha.

Then, he looked at James and asked pleadingly, "Could you please take Quanesha with you and bring her back when our universe is safe again?"

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3683-Quanesha immediately understood her Grand Patriarch's intentions.

She knelt to the ground, kowtowed, and said, "Please accept me as your disciple, Sir."

James was startled.

'What's this out of the blue?' thought James.

He looked at Quanesha kneeling on the ground and said, "I'm from another universe. I came here to obtain the boons and treasure that will appear here. After everything is seized, I'll be leaving. How can I accept you as my disciple?"

Quanesha said, "Without your protection, Mount Snow Sect will become a target to many powerhouses. If you don't accept me and bring me with you, Mount Snow Sect will definitely be destroyed."

"This..."

James was troubled.

Standing aside, Henrik said, "It's not easy for her either. Why don't you just accept her?"

After speaking, Henrik supported her up from the ground and said, "You should get up first. I'll decide on his behalf. novelebook.com However, you should know your duties as a disciple. You'll have to warm his bed at night..."

James rolled his eyes, swung his leg at Henrik, and reprimanded, "Don't spout nonsense."

Henrik dodged the kick in time.

James looked at Quanesha and said, "If that's the case, I'll let you come with me. You can enter the Celestial Abode for now. It's very safe in there. I'll let you out when I'm about to leave this universe."

James knew that the other powerhouses would return to this place to try and snatch the Chaotic Treasure from Quanesha after he left.

"Thank you, Sir."

Quanesha beamed a bright and charming smile.

James did not say much. He quickly teleported her into the Celestial Abode and bid farewell to the people of Mount Snow Sect. Then, he left the planet with Henrik.

The two traveled quickly through the universe.

Henrik asked, "Where are you going next, James?"

James did not have a destination in mind. After giving it a brief thought, he said, "Let's just wander around and go wherever an opportunity or good boon appears."

Henrik looked at James and said, "I noticed your aura seems to have changed."

James nodded and said, "Yeah. I don't know what happened. After that fight with Yermolai, I discovered I somehow have a slight connection with this universe."

After James saved the living beings of the new universe, he formed a mysterious connection with the universe.

James had no idea why it happened.

Henrik thought for a while and said, "Everyone that came to this universe is after the Chaotic Treasures and boons. They all fought intensely and took many lives of those born in this universe.

"However, you did the exact opposite of them. You must've gained the acknowledgment of this universe.

"Although universes don't have consciousness, each of them has a Heavenly Path. The Heavenly Path's Laws control everything in their respective universe. Perhaps your actions were recognized by the Heavenly Path. If this continues, you might become the Thirteenth Universe's Lord."

James gently shook his head and said, "I'm not interested in becoming the Thirteenth Universe's Lord. I'm from another universe. If I were to become the lord of this universe, I'd be taking away the opportunity that supposedly belonged to the living beings of this universe. I'll also attract very powerful Karma to myself.

"I'm already struggling to manage the Karma from the Twelfth Universe. If I attract more Karma from this universe, I might get into trouble."

James was puzzled.

Supposedly, Melinda knew about the new universe.

However, she never mentioned the Thirteenth Universe when they met in the Apocalypse Age.

James found it strange.

‘Could it be the Thirteenth Universe is destined to perish?’ thought James.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3684-James dismissed the complicated thoughts.

He planned to think about it when it was the right time.

The new universe was full of treasures and great opportunities. The most crucial task now was to seize these boons.

He had gained great enlightenment after coming to the new universe.

Coincidentally, he stumbled upon the formation of a planet and gained a clear understanding of the nature of Paths. Now, he could use the Law of Heaven to do as he pleased. He could even create life.

The two traveled through the universe, stopping at some planets to find treasures.

Apart from the Chaotic Treasures, there were many other treasures in the new universe, including valuable herbs and rare materials to refine powerful weapons.

However, many of these treasures had already been looted by others. James and Henrik had no luck in finding them.

Three thousand years had passed since James’ battle against Yermolai.

During these three thousand years, James and Henrik had been traveling together.

While searching for great boons, James also occasionally stopped to cultivate. James wanted to reach the peak of the Quasi Ancestral God Rank as soon as possible. However, improving one’s mental fortitude was a slow process.

After three thousand years, James’ mental fortitude had yet to make much progress.

James was a Quasi Ancestral God at the Theosophical Rank, but his physical strength was relatively weak.novelebook.com His physical strength could not keep up with his cultivation rank. Therefore, James spent a lot of effort improving his physical strength.

He set up a powerful formation on his body's surface, which constantly applied pressure to his body.

The formation placed a thousand times the surrounding pressure on his body. While his body was being pressured, he constantly absorbed the energy from his surroundings to improve his physical body.

James sat in a lotus position on a star and cultivated wholeheartedly.

The star was full of rare ores, which could be refined into valuable materials that could craft Imperial Weapons.

Meanwhile, Henrik focused on collecting these rare materials. However, there were too many of them, and Henrik lost interest after a while. He walked over to James and sat down beside him.

"Why hasn't the third Chaotic Treasure appeared yet?"

Henrik was troubled.

Without the appearance of a Chaotic Treasure, the powerhouses would not gather to fight. He was bored since there were no battles taking place.

James stopped cultivating, looked at Henrik, and asked, "Right now, most of the prodigies are in seclusion, rushing to improve their cultivation rank. Everyone's trying to become Ancestral Gods as soon as possible. Only by doing so can they reduce their difference in strength. What about you? Are you already an Ancestral God?"

Henrik smiled triumphantly and said, "Of course. The Ancestral God Rank is nothing to me. I became an Ancestral God a long time ago. However, I didn't want to reveal it."

James was relieved by his words.

With his current strength and Henrik's strength as an Ancestral God, he was no longer afraid of the other powerhouses, even if they were to become Ancestral Gods.

James began looking forward to the emergence of a new Chaotic Treasure.

He was confident in seizing it.

James did not say anything more. He remained sitting in a lotus position and entered the Omniscience Path to gain a deeper understanding of it to enter the Third Stage.

After entering the Third Stage, he would go through a transformation, and his strength would improve significantly.

“The Omniscience Path?”

Henrik turned to James with a solemn expression.

James looked at him and asked, “What’s wrong?”

“Back when I was traveling the various universes with my Grandmaster, I heard her mention the Omniscience Path.”

Henrik’s expression became solemn, making it seem like the Omniscience Path was evil.
