The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3699-James smiled and said, "I guess I'm also selfish. I absorbed one-tenth of the providence here. One-tenth of the providence of a universe is terrifying. Since my providence is so great now, I suppose Chaotic Treasures will be knocking on my door."

"But of course." Henrik said, "One-tenth of a universe's providence will certainly lead Chaotic Treasures to your doorstep."

"Alright now, since there's nothing else here, we should leave."

The providence here was dispersed. However, this was a Land of Providence. As long as there were living beings in this universe, new providence would be created. However, without the restrictions of the Formation, the newly-created providence would return to the universe.

As James turned to leave alongside Henrik, Quanesha Samara followed close behind.

After leaving the universe, they appeared in space.

Henrik asked, "Where are we heading next?"

Quanesha looked at James. All this while, she had been inside the Celestial Abode. She wanted to travel the world with James and train as well.

James shook his head. He did not have a destination in mind yet. The universe was only recently created. Though it was expanding rapidly, cultivation holy sites and Chaotic Treasures had yet to come into being.

Henrik looked at Quanesha and asked, "What about her? Should we make her follow along? Her rank is low at the moment. Meanwhile, the enemies you'll encounter in the future are powerful figures. Wouldn't she be in danger?"

James looked at Quanesha and fell into deep thought. Since Quanesha was able to obtain a Chaotic Treasure, this meant that she had good providence. After absorbing one-tenth of the universe's providence, she could be considered one of the most fortunate individuals in the universe. She possessed immense potential.

James looked at her and contemplated.

"The Formation outside the Land of Providence is a Heavenly Path Formation, a Formation formed by the Law of Heaven," James said.

"Huh?"

Stunned, Henrik asked, "How can this be?"

James said, "I'm sure that was a Heavenly Path Formation. If I'm not mistaken, a powerful figure must have silently controlled the Heavenly Path of this universe. He set up the Heavenly Path Formation to prevent other living beings from obtaining the providence."

Hearing this, Henrik's expression turned grim as he said, "Doesn't that mean that you've crossed a powerful Macrocosm Ancestral God?"

James said, "Now that it's come to this, we can only take one step at a time."

He looked at Quanesha and said, "After comprehending the Law of Heaven for some time, I now roughly know the changes in the operating rules. Now, I will impart the knowledge I have about the Heavenly Path to you."

"What? To me?"

Quanesha was stunned.

"Mhm."

James nodded and said, "As long as you control the Heavenly Path and understand the rules of the Law of Heaven, you can extrapolate anything from the traces of the Heavenly Path. This will be enormously beneficial to you. I do not wish for the treasures of this universe to be seized by powerful figures of other universes. Even if the Chaotic Treasures were seized, I don't want them to take away others' opportunity to cross into the Macrocosm Ancestral God Rank. The opportunities of the Thirteenth Universe should remain in the Thirteenth Universe."

James wanted to guide Quanesha into becoming a Macrocosm Ancestral God.

"Not bad."

Hearing this, Henrik praised James, saying, "What a great idea, James. Master Yukia once said that even if one seizes what is not theirs, albeit only temporarily, one shall pay a heavy price in the form of Karma."

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3700-All living beings wished to cross into the Macrocosm Ancestral God Rank, including James. However, as a living being of the Twelfth Universe, he would return to his home universe and ascend there. The Lord of Nothingness perished while executing his plan. Now, his plan had been passed on to James. For the Twelfth Universe's peace and prosperity, James was determined to execute the plan. Since Quanesha now saw him as her master, he should do his best to offer her guidance.

He looked at Henrik and said, "I plan to find a quiet place and offer her guidance. That way, I can leave her in the Thirteenth Universe without having to worry about her."

Henrik nodded and said, "In that case, I'll be taking my leave for now. I plan to wander about the universe."

James reminded, "Watch your safety."

Henrik laughed. "Don't underestimate me, James. I'm an Ancestral God, after all. In this universe, I'm not afraid of anyone as long as it's a fair fight."

"I'm glad to hear that." James nodded slightly.

Henrik did not linger for long and turned to leave. James, meanwhile, brought Quanesha back to the Land of Providence.

Though the providence there was dispersed, a constant stream of providence was being produced. However, the vast majority of cultivators could not care less about such an insignificant amount of providence and turned to leave upon their arrival. Only a handful of weaker ones remained, waiting for new providence to appear. Upon James' arrival, they froze and consciously made way for him.

James sat on a rock on the peak of a spiritual mountain in the Land of Providence, while Quanesha stood before him. Quanesha's figure was curvy and flawless, and her appearance was glamorous. Such a stunning beauty stood before James and awaited his instructions.

James looked at her and said, "As you have absorbed one-tenth of this universe's providence, you now possess enormous potential. You should be able to cultivate nine Path Seals. No matter what you have cultivated in the past, I will be teaching you the cultivation method of the Five Great Paths."

The Five Great Paths were mysterious. In the Twelfth Universe, there were living beings who cultivated the Five Great Paths. Yet, none of them reached the Ancestral God Rank.

"The Five Great Paths?"

Quanesha was stunned. As a cultivator at the Divine Rank, she had heard of the Five Great Paths.

"Mhm."

James nodded and said, "Whether or not you can cultivate the Ousia of the Five Great Paths will depend on you."

"Thank you, Master."

Quanesha was full of gratitude.

James waved his hand slightly.

As he casually waved, a Time Formation appeared. Inside the Time Formation, he began to teach Quanesha the cultivation method of the Five Great Paths. He had comprehended this cultivation method when he was spectating the blossoming of the Sacred Blossom. It was mysterious and profound, and no one had been able to understand the inscription. However, through James' patient guidance, Quanesha slowly understood the rule inscriptions of the Five Great Paths. Then, she began to cultivate.

While she cultivated, James also entered a closed-door meditation. He wanted to ascend to greater heights and reach the Quasi Ancestral God's Path Integration Rank.

The Path Integration Rank was the final rank of the Quasi Ancestral God Rank. This rank was mysterious and unique. Path Integration meant that each living being had its own understanding of the rank. Regardless, they would merge various Paths into their Path Seals. However, doing so would first require one to have a Cultivation Heart. Once one possessed a Cultivation Heart, they would be able to sense the various Paths and merge Zen with them. That way, he would be able to absorb the various Paths and merge them with his Path Seal.

Though this seemed simple on paper, it was in fact extremely difficult.

James sat in a lotus position on the ground, unmoving.

In the meantime, Quanesha concentrated wholeheartedly on her closed-door meditation as she tried to comprehend the cultivation method of the Five Great Paths. James' explanation was thorough and detailed, and she slowly comprehended the cultivation path.

After a very long time, she gradually cultivated her own Ousia.
