

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3701

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3701-As she had absorbed one-tenth of the universe's providence, she could cultivate many Ousias.

Time passed.

James' state of mind became increasingly stronger. His Zen gradually merged with Heaven and Earth, and all beings of the universe were under his perception. Everything in the universe contained various Paths. A tree is a Path, and a rock is also a Path.

As his state of mind unknowingly increased, James merged the Paths and absorbed the power of various Paths into his Path Seals to increase his strength. His aura gradually grew. Unbeknownst to him, he had merged the various Paths with his Path Seal, and the power of the Path Seals increased. So, he was able to cross into the final rank of the Quasi Ancestral God Rank.

He slowly opened his eyes and dispersed his aura. Then, he looked at Quanesha who was sitting in a lotus position on the ground. He noticed that she had already cultivated the Ousia of the Five Great Paths.

James nodded in satisfaction.

"Master."

Upon sensing James had stopped his cultivation, Quanesha stopped as well and stood up, her face was wearing an overjoyed expression.

"I have cultivated the Ousia of the Five Great Paths," she said with a bright smile.

James nodded slightly and said, "Not bad, the Five Great Paths are profound and can be merged further to produce a brand-new power. I believe that you'll have to comprehend this by yourself. I believe in your potential. Next, I will teach you some rules of the Heavenly Path.

Many living beings could read the Elysian Inscription. However, comprehending and mastering the Heavenly Path were no ordinary feats. Meanwhile, James had already mastered the Elysian Script of this universe and could even change the fate of certain living beings. He could even use this script to perform Heavenly Path Power to kill his enemies. That meant that if he continued cultivating, he would become the controller of this universe's Heavenly Path and the new Lord of the universe.

"Please teach me, Master."

Quanesha was extremely respectful toward James.

James casually waved his hand and materialized a simple inscription that was linear in shape. Though simple on the outside, it was in fact ever-changing. James began to explain the meaning of each change. Then, he touched Quanesha's forehead, and an inscription entered her mind. The inscription sigil was ever-changing and mysterious. Every change would form a brand-new inscription, which represented different meanings.

"The Heavenly Path Script is profound. You won't be able to comprehend them at your current rank. I will only teach you the basics of the most fundamental changes. After understanding these changes, you will be able to understand more as your rank grows. You will be able to perform more complicated Heavenly Path Scripts and extrapolate complete ones."

James' voice reverberated in Quanesha's mind as she silently memorized everything. Then, she knelt on the ground and said with gratitude, "Thank you, Master."

James waved slightly and said, "Let's part ways here."

"Huh?"

Panicking, Quanesha hurriedly said, "Are you abandoning me, Master?"

James said, "I came from another universe, so I'm destined to leave. You have to be independent. But, I have to caution you not to use the Chaotic Treasure before you are strong enough. It's best to conceal it for now."

Quanesha nodded grimly, "Thank you for the reminder, Master. When will we meet again?"

"Meet again, huh?" James' eyes turned cloudy. Then, he shook his head and said, "We will leave everything to fate."

Recommended Novels

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3702

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3702-James had no idea whether he could meet Quanesha ever again. Once the providence and treasures of this universe were completely divided, he would leave. He was not from this age. He came from the future in search of Thea. Now, coincidentally, he arrived at the new universe. With the cultivation methods and treasures he already possessed, he could reach the Macrocosm Ancestral God Rank anytime he wanted. He only came here because the Lord of the Twelfth Universe ordered him to. Besides, he wanted to compete against the prodigies of the other universes. Over the period of time, he had fought against a few prodigies. However, they were simply ordinary people who were not worth his attention.

James dispersed the Formation and looked at Quanesha, saying, "Leave this place and stay far away. Find a place to conceal yourself and cultivate. Only reappear when the powerful figures of this universe have already left."

"Goodbye, Master."

Quanesha waved James goodbye with a wistful look on her face. She did not say much and only said a single word of farewell.

James scanned his surroundings. As this was a Land of Providence, this place still attracted many living beings despite him already dispersed the providence. James paid no heed to them and sensed the time. Then, he realized that 100,000 years had passed. This was a very long time.

"A hundred thousand years have passed. I wonder what sort of Chaotic Treasures have appeared in the meantime," James murmured as he walked down the mountain.

The moment he arrived at the foot of the mountain, a cultivator walked toward him. He was about thirty years of age. He appeared before James and greeted him respectfully, "James."

"Mhm?"

James looked at him and asked, "What's wrong?"

"You have finally exited closed-door meditation."

The cultivator said, "The living beings of the First Universe ordered you to head to the Juda Realm at once."

Puzzled, James asked, "What for?"

The cultivator explained, "About fifty thousand years ago, some powerful figures of the First Universe banded together and captured your good friend, Henrik Declan, and brought him to the Juda Realm. They threatened to kill him unless you head to the Juda Realm..."

Before the cultivator could finish his sentence, a murderous intent surged forward in James' body.

"Is this from fifty thousand years ago?"

James' expression was grim.

The murderous intent emanating from James' body made the cultivator stagger backward. Fearful, he stammered, "Y-Yes... Fifty thousand years ago..."

James took a deep breath and forcibly calmed himself down. After suppressing the murderous rage inside him, he looked at the cultivator and asked, "Who were the ones involved?"

The cultivator shook his head and said, "I'm not sure. I only know that the leader is Yermolai Devereux. I also remember Yaiza Journee being involved. There are about ten of them, and each of them is a genius of the First Universe. As such, they have all crossed into the Terra Ancestral God Rank. Yaiza, on the other hand, has reached the peak of the Terra Ancestral God Rank and is only a step away from reaching the Caelum Ancestral God Rank."

"Got it. Thanks."

Then, James turned to leave.

Henrik was captured 50,000 years ago. Now that 50,000 years had passed, James wondered if he was safe and sound.

Recommended Novels

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3703

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3703-He never thought that the First Universe would band together just to get rid of him. Their actions, however, were within expectation. After all, James had defeated Yermolai and seized his Chaotic Treasure. There was no way Yermolai would simply give up. Meanwhile, knowing that he had no chance of defeating James alone, Yermolai banded together with the geniuses of the First Universe.

"Damn it!"

James' expression was grim.

"If anything happens to Henrik, I'll annihilate all the living beings of the First Universe!"

With a murderous rage, James headed to the Juda Realm.

The Juda Realm was a huge world in the universe and had three planes of existence. It was created about 50,000 years ago. Upon its creation, it was immediately occupied by the powerful figures of the First Universe. Domineering and assertive, the First Universe prohibited any living being from other universes from entering. Those who insisted would be struck dead on the spot.

News of James exiting his closed-door meditation caused a commotion because news of what happened 50,000 years ago had long spread throughout the universe. Every living being of the universe knew that the powerful figures of the First Universe had banded together and captured James' friend to force his hand. There were rumors that the First Universe decided not to go after James because they were afraid of him. They wanted to choose their own battlefield, hence the Juda Realm.

"James is on his way."

"He's on his way to the Juda Realm upon learning that his friend Henrik was captured."

"Let's get the popcorn ready."

"The dynamics that have remained static for tens of thousands of years are about to be broken."

Upon hearing of the news, many powerful figures hurriedly rushed over to the Juda Realm. That was because they knew there would be a consequential battle there.

Though James had no idea where the Juda Realm was, he could easily sense a world with three planes of existence at his rank. Soon, he arrived outside the Juda Realm.

The Juda Realm was a world with three planes of existence. It was huge and spacious.

James appeared outside the Juda Realm and watched the Divine Dimension of the Juda Realm. Under his watchful gaze, he realized that the Juda Realm's Divine Dimension was full of Superformations. Once he entered the formations, he would be trapped. He also saw Henrik lying at the peak of a mountain on a spiritual mountain. His life was hanging by a thread. Moreover, there were a few figures sitting in a lotus position and in a closed-door meditation. Their auras were strong, and they were all at the Terra Ancestral God Rank. One of them was even at the peak of the Terra Ancestral God Rank and only a step away from becoming a Caelum Ancestral God.

Upon sensing their cultivation bases, James furrowed his eyebrows. If this was a one versus one, he was not afraid of anyone. Now, however, there was a group of individuals who were ready to gang up on him. Even though he had reached the peak of the Quasi Ancestral God Rank, he was worried. Regardless, he knew he had no choice but to save Henrik.

As James appeared, many living beings also appeared in the surroundings of the Juda Realm.

"You have to be careful, James. For you, they have prepared for many years and set up many Superformations inside. The moment you enter, the chances of you leaving is unknown."

"Indeed, Thoth Digby, the number-five individual on the Soaring Dragon Ranking, is the one who set up the Formations. He cultivates the unique Formation Path. I heard that he has engraved many Killing Formations in his body and possesses immense power."

Many living beings cautioned James.

James looked at them and said, "Thank you for the advice. However, my friend is in the Juda Realm, and his life is hanging by a thread. If I don't go, he will be in danger. No matter the perils, I have no choice but to enter," James said with firm determination.

Then, he strode forward and entered the Juda Realm.

Recommended Novels

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3704

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3704-Under the crowd's watchful gaze, James slowly entered the Juda Realm. The moment he entered the Juda Realm's Divine Dimension, he could sense an overwhelming pressure. The pressure struck him with great force, and even though his physical strength was at the Ancestral God Rank, he could nonetheless feel a searing pain all over his body.

"They are prepared." Wearing a grim expression, James murmured, "They set up this Superformation using the world as the core. The pressure here is even greater than the one in the Chaos."

James' physical body managed to resist the Chaos' pressure, not because his physical body was strong. Rather, it was because his physical body had some sort of resistance against the spatial pressure in the Chaos. Meanwhile, the spatial pressure here was many times greater than the one in Chaos. Even an Ancestral God would lose his powers here.

The moment James entered the Juda Realm, Yermolai who was sitting in a lotus position at the peak of a spiritual mountain opened his eyes. A beam of light surged forth from his eye as he gazed into the distance. His expression was grim as he said coldly, "After waiting for 50,000 years, James is finally here."

He stood up. As he stood, the other living beings on the mountain stood up as well. There were nine of them in total, and each of them exuded a terrifying aura. All of them came from the First Universe and had cultivated at least nine Path Seals each. Yermolai had even cultivated ten. They were all legends of their generation in the First Universe.

They stood up at the same time and gazed into the distance.

"He's finally here. I have set up a Superformation with the world as a core. Since he's here, he won't be able to leave anymore," a man said.

He was about thirty years old and wore a bizarre-looking robe, on which there were mysterious characters and symbols. As they merged, a powerful formation was created. He was Thoth Digby, the number-five individual on the Soaring Dragon Ranking. His master was a Macrocosm Ancestral God of the First Universe, who was also the primogenitor of the Formation Path.

“Hahaha...” The stunningly beautiful Yaiza smiled and said, “James is dead meat for sure now.”

Yermolai looked at them and cautioned, “Do not let your guard down. James is not a pushover. He has cultivated many Paths, even more so than me. We have to proceed with caution. Remember, our priority is to kill him.”

“Hahaha! Don’t worry, Yermolai. By banding together, he stands no chance against us.”

The one who said this was a brute. Two meters in height, he had a muscular build. He was naked from the waist up, like a wild gorilla. He was Quasimodo London, a man who possessed tremendous strength and was ranked seven on the Soaring Dragon Ranking. His master was also a Macrocosm Ancestral God.

James arrived in the Juda Realm. Upon his arrival, he could sense a terrifying pressure of a formation. Though his physical strength could not resist the pressure, he managed to withstand the spatial pressure by slightly summoning the power inside his body. At that moment, he realized that the world had been sealed away the moment he entered the Juda Realm. He could not escape no matter what Paths he use.

He put those thoughts aside. Since he was here, there was nothing to be afraid of. Either he dies, or his enemies perish at his hand.

He strode forward and walked toward the powerful figures of the First Universe. Along the way, he realized that there was not a single living being in this world. Perhaps the powerful figures of the First Universe had chased them away in advance.

Soon, he arrived outside the spiritual mountain where his enemies were located.

Standing in mid-air, he gazed at his opponents. He also noticed Henrik who was lying on the ground unconscious. Henrik was covered in injuries all over his body. Upon seeing this, James was enraged.

“I have come. Free him!” he roared.

Recommended Novels

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3705

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3705-Henrik was unconscious for a very long time. At that moment, upon hearing a familiar voice, he regained consciousness and opened his eyes. Then, he saw the man standing in mid-air.

“James...”

His voice was feeble. Summoning all the strength he had, he crawled up from the ground and roared, “Why are you here, James? Leave, now! You will die here! Just leave me be!”

His voice boomed. Then, upon screaming that, he collapsed to the ground.

“Let him go,” James said once more.

Yermolai stepped forward and looked at James. His face darkened as he said, “I don’t want to kill you, James. However, you have demonstrated terrifying strength. Once you grow, you will become a threat to the First Universe. You threaten the status of the First Universe, and for that, you will have to die.”

“I’m the one you’re looking for, not Henrik. Since I’m here, let him go. Pick on someone your own size.”

James looked at the dying Henrik. He was concerned about his safety.

Henrik was a living being of the Twelfth Universe and his only companion here. Besides that, he would be his sworn brother in the future. Henrik must not die.

“Fine.”

Yermolai’s target was James and not Henrik. Since James was here, there was no point in keeping Henrik hostage. He walked toward Henrik and gave him a powerful kick. Henrik immediately flew out of this world and into space.

Many living beings who were gathered outside the Juda Realm caught him in time. At the same time, they took out some Holy Potions for him to consume.

Meanwhile, in the Juda Realm...

Seeing that Henrik had left the Juda Realm, there was nothing else for James to worry about. With Henrik’s strength, his injuries would rejuvenate as long as he was alive. He catalyzed the power of all sixteen Paths in his body and merged them. At that moment, his aura soared.

Swoosh!

A black light appeared.

The black light gathered to form a black sword that contained terrifying Dark Power. The Dark Power the sword radiated was so terrifying that it distorted even space. Then, he pointed the sword at his enemies.

Yermolai glanced at his allies, who all exuded a great aura. Nine terrifying auras permeated the air.

Sensing them, not only did James not feel fearful, but he was even more motivated to fight. He roared, "If I have to die here, this will also be your final resting place!"

The First Universe was determined to kill James. For that, they had prepared for tens of thousands of years. James also knew that this was a fight to the death. Thus, he would not hold back.

Recommended Novels