The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3706-“Come at me all at once.”

James’ ice-cold voice reverberated throughout the area.

“You won’t stand a chance fighting me one by one.”

James was not being arrogant. Indeed, if Yermolai and the rest fought him one by one, none of them would stand a chance against him. James’ physical strength had reached the Ancestral God Rank, and his own rank had reached the peak of the Quasi Ancestral God Rank. Not only that, he had comprehended the Omniscience Path’s Third Stage. Now, his strength had increased by leaps and bounds compared to his previous battle against Yermolai.

At that moment, Yermolai and the others were conversing in secret.

“Do not let your guard down.” Yermolai said, “This place has a formation that would make even an Ancestral God lose his battle prowess immediately. However, he doesn’t seem to be affected at all.”

“I’ll be the vanguard. Allow me to test his strength.”

They conversed secretly. At the same time, they formulated a battle plan. After a brief discussion, they decided to send someone to test James’ strength.

At that moment, a living being walked toward James. He was a man about forty years of age. Wearing black armor, his appearance was ordinary. Yet, he exuded a violent aura.

“I will be your opponent, James!”

The man in the armor walked toward James.

As James was not knowledgeable about living beings in the Twelfth Universe, he said coldly, “State your name.”

The man answered, “Meine Widogast.”

As he said that, he exuded a terrifying aura. Then, a sword and a shield appeared in his hand. James could sense the terrifying power of the sword, shield, and aura. They were Quasi Chaotic Treasures. Meine was one of the most powerful individuals in the First Universe who used supreme materials to create the Quasi Chaotic Treasures.

Meine’s body flashed, and he appeared before James and slashed, carrying destructive power. As he slashed, the earth shook. James simply remained where he stood. Just as the sword was about to strike James, James raised the Demon-Slayer Sword in his hands and defended.

Boom!

As the two swords collided, a loud explosion occurred, and the battle ripples tore open the void. However, this was a huge world. When the universe was created, worlds like this were protected by the Heavenly Path. Though cracks appeared in the void, they instantly healed.

The two powers collided.

Meine was sent flying, and terrifying power swept through his body. Unable to withstand the power, cracks began to appear on his body. As his mind stirred, powerful energy circulated throughout his body, and the injuries on his body instantly healed.

“What terrifying power...”

Meine’s expression was grim.

He had reached the middle stage of the Terra Ancestral God Rank, and he possessed a bunch of Quasi Chaotic Treasures. Yet, he was unable to defend himself against James’ attack, which completely overwhelmed him.

At that moment, Yermolai and the others were observing the battle. They wanted to learn more about James’ strength through this battle.

“That’s all you’ve got?”

James grunted.

Then, his body flashed, and he appeared before Meine in an instant and slashed.

The sword was the Supreme Sword Path which contained the Five Great Sword Realms. When he slashed, terrifying Sword Energy materialized. As the Sword Energy surged forward, an unparalleled Sword Intent and the remnants of a Sword Energy that carried James’ murderous intent appeared. Though ordinary on the outside, the Sword Path was all-encompassing.

Meine was stunned.

He wanted to dissolve this move. However, all he could see were swords coming from all directions. Surrounded by countless swords, he had nowhere to run.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3707-Since he could not escape, he had no choice but to fight James head-on. Raising the shield in his hand, he tried to resist. A Sword Energy struck his shield.

Boom!

The surrounding space immediately exploded, and Meine was sent flying by the terrifying force. Though the Five Great Sword Realms were terrifying, Meine managed to withstand the attack. Even though James was near-invincible by cultivating sixteen Paths and reaching the peak of the Quasi Ancestral God Rank, Meine was someone who had cultivated nine Paths. Plus, as a middle-staged Terra Ancestral God Rank, he was not a pushover.

Through the fight, the living beings of the First Universe had seen through James' strength. Though he was strong, he was only slightly stronger than Meine who was a middle-staged Terra Ancestral God. He was probably about as strong as Yaiza who was at the peak of the Terra Ancestral God Rank.

However, Yermolai said, "I fought against James before. He's not as simple as things may seem. He has comprehended many powers. In the beginning, I have no idea what those powers are. However, after my defeat, my master contacted me and informed me that he was using Macrocosm Powers. James has many Macrocosm Powers."

Due to this, Yermolai did not dare let his guard down. So, he set up a Superformation to lure James here. To destroy James, he had prepared for tens of thousands of years.

Yaiza nodded slightly and said, "Meine is no pushover either. He has many tricks up his sleeves as well. Let's see how far he can push James."

They did not act recklessly and simply watched from afar.

After staggering backward, Meine felt a chill down his spine. He was a Terra Ancestral God, whereas James had not even reached the Ancestral God Rank yet. There was a disparity in rank between them, but James' strength was several times greater than his. No wonder Yermolai was acting so cautiously.

After the initial exchange of blows, James' pressure was alleviated. In the beginning, he was fearful of his opponent who was a rank higher than him. However, after exchanging a few blows, he understood that this was simply what a Terra Ancestral God was capable of. In that case, he should seize this opportunity and annihilate one of his opponents. This would make the coming battle much easier.

Upon thinking about this, he silently catalyzed the Five Great Paths, Yin and Yang Inversion, and Elemental Inversion. Though the three Macrocosm Powers materialized, he did not show them.

As there was spatial pressure here, his speed was constrained. Besides, this place had long been sealed. He had no idea what his opponents did to seal off space. At his current strength, he could not break the seal.

“Again!” Meine roared and charged toward James once more.

James began to receive his attack. Yet, he was purposely lowering Meine’s guard. Sensing that James was no longer as strong as before, Meine launched a fierce counterattack. His cultivation methods appeared one by one, knocking James backward.

Delighted, Meine summoned his full power and pierced at James. His speed was extraordinary, and he appeared before James almost instantly.

“That’s all you’ve got?”

Meine smirked.

At that moment, sensing something was amiss, he hurriedly pulled back. However, he was imprisoned by a powerful force. Before he could react, James’ Demon-Slayer Sword had already struck him.

The Quasi Chaotic Treasure on him had impressive defensive capabilities. Meanwhile, James’ sword was also a Chaotic Treasure that came from the Dark Power.

As James struck, he used the power of three Macrocosm Powers. Imbuing the powers within the Demon-Slayer Sword, he slashed.

The armor on Meine instantly shattered.

“Watch out!” Yermolai yelled in the distance.

However, it was too late.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3708-No one expected James to launch a sudden assault. By the time Yermolai and the others reacted, James’ sword had already struck Meine. Terrifying Dark Power in combination with three Macrocosm Powers shattered the Quasi Chaotic Treasure on Meine and crushed him. Even though Meine’s physical strength had reached the Ancestral God Rank, he could not endure the overwhelming pressure, and his body exploded in an instant. As the terrifying power destroyed his physical body, even his soul was completely obliterated.

In an instant, Meine was turned to ashes.

Outside the universe, Henrik whose life was hanging by a thread, breathed a sigh of relief upon seeing this. Meanwhile, the other living beings were completely dumbfounded.

“That is Meine Widogast of the First Universe, a true Terra Ancestral God. He turned to ashes just like that.”

“James is too powerful. It’s hard to believe that he’s a living being of the Twelfth Universe.”

Many were stunned.

In the Juda Realm...

As Meine died, the other eight individuals all wore grim expressions.

Yarmolai immediately ordered, “Don’t give him any breathing room. Activate the Formation.”

As he gave his order, Thoth Digby who was in charge of the Formation appeared in the air and raised his hands as mysterious inscriptions appeared in his palm. Then, the inscriptions entered Heaven and Earth.

At that moment, the Superformation with the Juda Realm as the core was activated. As the Formation activated, the Juda Realm’s spatial pressure increased so drastically that even a huge world such as the Juda Realm could not resist the spatial pressure. If not for the Heavenly Path’s protection, this space would have collapsed.

James’ pressure increased. Though there was pressure previously, James was able to withstand the pressure. Now, the pressure was so overwhelming that he was forced to catalyze the power of all sixteen Paths. His face turned pale, and green veins bulged on his face.

Yermolai stepped forward and looked at James coldly. “You have to die, James.”

James glared at him and said coldly, “Cut the cr*p. Show me everything you’ve got.”

Boom!

At that moment, the Formation changed once more, and the space in James' surroundings exploded. As the space exploded, terrifying power crashed toward James. Unable to resist the pressure any longer, James plummeted from the sky like a stringless kite and crashed heavily to the ground. Then, he simply lay there motionless.

Upon seeing this, Henrik's face turned pale once more, and he silently prayed for James, "You have to hang in there, James!"

After being crushed by the Formation, James crashed to the ground, and a deep hole appeared. At that moment, everyone attacked, sending waves of powerful attacks in James' direction.

Rumble!

As the earth trembled, cracks began to appear on the ground. Then, they began to rejuvenate.

The eight powerful individuals bombarded James' area relentlessly.

Upon seeing this, the living beings outside the Juda Realm were fearful for James.

"How treacherous!"

"Not only are they ganging up on James, they even set up a Superformation."

"Even if James dies, he dies an honorable death."

"His name will be known throughout the universe for years to come."

Many felt sorry for James.

Just as they thought James was about to be destroyed, a black light slowly rose to the sky from the pile of rubble below. Then, a pagoda appeared.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3709-The pagoda soared to the sky.

Then, everyone realized that this pagoda was formed by mysterious monuments. Each monument had some sort of special connection with each other, and they formed a powerful defense. Meanwhile, there was a man covered in blood in the pagoda.

The man was James. Faced against such a terrifying Killing Formation, James gradually lost ground and was close to being defeated. In the nick of time, he used the Infinity Steles, which formed a powerful Formation. In the Formation formed by the Infinity Steles, James managed to block the attacks of the powerful figures of the First Universe and the Superformation. His aura soared, and his terrifying killing intent permeated the world. As his killing intent swept through the universe, even the void was distorted.

Yermolai and the others took a deep breath.

Unbelievable. James was alive.

“Looks like this will be a fight to the death.” Yermolai looked at the others.

The powerful figures of the First Universe nodded at the same time and summoned their full strength before charging at James from all directions.

At that moment, James summoned all his strength. The power of all sixteen Paths gathered, in combination with the Macrocosm Powers of Elemental Inversion, Yin and Yang Transformation, and the Five Great Paths. As the power of sixteen Paths combined with three Macrocosm Powers, James’ aura rose drastically.

However, since James was still inside the Superformation, he was not safe despite the protection of the pagoda formed by the Infinity Steles. At that moment, he entered the Omniscience Path, and his aura soared to the Omniscience Path’s Third Stage. Holding the Demon-Slayer Sword in his hand, the Dark Wellspring’s power inside his body entered the sword, rendering the Chaotic Treasure of the Dark World more terrifying. Now that James had summoned his full strength, he could annihilate even a Caelum Ancestral God with nine Path Seals.

“That guy...”

Sensing James’ overwhelming power, Thoth took a deep breath and catalyzed the Formation once more. The pressure of Heaven and Earth increased, and countless spatial turbulences appeared in the sky. The power caused by the turbulences attacked James relentlessly.

There was a black pagoda in James’ surroundings, which formed a Formation and deflected all incoming attacks.

Rumble!

The space in the pagoda’s surroundings exploded. The scenery was so horrifying that even the living beings outside the Juda Realm could feel a chill down their spines.

“Die!”

James' expression was horrifying. As he roared, he charged toward a man. As a Terra Ancestral God, the man was not a pushover. Not only that, he possessed a Chaotic Treasure in the form of a sword that contained terrifying power.

"Die!"

The man roared and slashed with his sword, causing a shapeless power to materialize. As the power was shapeless, even the Formation created by the Infinity Steles could not defend against this attack. As the power struck James, James suffered no external injuries. However, he could feel his vitality being sapped away.

Many outside the Juda Realm were dumbfounded.

"T-The Life-Sapper Sword!"

"That's one of the most terrifying Chaotic Treasures in the First Universe. The sword is able to deplete a living being's vitality. Once struck, your vitality will decrease until you die."

"Makara Jodocus, the supergenius of the First Universe has comprehended such a terrifying Supernatural Power."

"Makara keeps a low profile. Though he's not on the Soaring Dragon Ranking, he has demonstrated terrifying strength."

They exclaimed.

Meanwhile, after being struck by the Life-Sapper Sword, James' vitality was being sapped away. Though he tried to stop the process, he could not no matter how hard he tried. In just a short period of time, he had turned into a middle-aged man from a young man with great vitality.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3710-The Life-Sapper Sword was terrifying. This sword was able to sap away the lifespan of any living being. Besides, as the attacks were shapeless, not even James' Infinity Steles could defend against this attack. In just an instant, James had turned into a middle-aged man from a young man. If this continued, he would soon grow old. By then, he would lose all his vitality and be killed. James tried to expel this shapeless power. However, the power was bizarre. Though he summoned his full strength, he could not remove the power. At that moment, he could only concentrate wholeheartedly on catalyzing the Life Path to inject a constant stream of vitality into his body.

After Makara struck James, he hurriedly dodged. Then, Quasimodo London, a brute with superhuman strength, appeared. His weapon was a hammer. This violent-looking hammer was also a Chaotic Treasure. As he appeared behind James, he struck him with great force. As the hammer struck James' Formation, cracks immediately appeared on the pagoda.

Then, he hurriedly dodged as well.

"Damn it!"

James' expression darkened.

Being trapped inside the Superformation, he had to withstand the overwhelming pressure at all times. Besides, as his enemies were powerful figures who possessed Chaotic Treasures, even someone as powerful as him could not fight against so many opponents at a time. Now, he had to break the Formation to emerge victorious. Only by breaking free of the Formation would he stand a chance against them.

"Break!" James roared.

The power of the sixteen Path Seals inside his body merged together and formed a terrifying power. As his mind stirred, the power materialized and caused the void to explode. This was the Grand Destruction. The Grand Destruction's power surpassed even that of a Macrocosm Power. Through the obliteration of the Grand Destruction, the void in the Juda Realm exploded, and cracks began to appear. If not for the protection of the Heavenly Path, the Juda Realm would already have disappeared. However, the Grand Destruction did not completely obliterate the Superformation. To annihilate James once and for all, Yermolai and the others had begun making preparations tens of thousands of years ago. The Formations they set up were some of the most terrifying for they knew that James had mastered many Macrocosm Powers. So, they had to set up a Formation that was indestructible even for James.

At that moment, Yaiza appeared behind James. Her Chaotic Treasure was an umbrella. The umbrella was unique. As it opened, a terrifying power shredded through the air and attacked James' Formation. Though the formation was formidable, it could not withstand the constant attack by his enemies for much longer.

"Damn it!" James cursed.

"Blossoming!"

At that moment, the Five Great Paths and the Karma Path inside his body materialized to form a petal. Then, they formed a complete Sacred Blossom with countless petals, and each petal contained a different Path.

The Sacred Blossom's Blossoming was a sight to behold, yet it possessed destructive power. Sensing the terrifying power, Yaiza tried to dodge. However, as the Sacred Blossom bloomed above her head, it was too late.

Instinctively, she raised the Chaotic Treasure in her hands.

Boom!

At that moment, the Sacred Blossom exploded. As the explosion was too destructive, the Chaotic Treasure in Yaiza's hands was close to shattering. As a cultivator at the peak of the Terra Ancestral God Rank, even Yaiza could not withstand the powerful blow and spurted out a mouthful of blood. As the blood stained her white dress, she hurriedly retreated to the rear.

Boom!

At that moment, James was attacked once more. The formation formed by the Infinity Steles shattered and was scattered into the surroundings. As James' mind stirred, the Infinity Steles gathered once more to form the black pagoda. The pagoda appeared in the sky, and an immense power materialized from within, forcibly pulling one of the powerful figures in. Trapped inside the Boundless Pagoda, the figure was immediately contaminated by the pagoda's power. Though he tried to break free from the Boundless Pagoda, the pagoda was a Chaotic Treasure. He could not break free no matter how hard he tried. His physical body slowly and gradually disintegrated into nothingness, and his soul was obliterated. James managed to get rid of another enemy by using the Boundless Pagoda.

Now, only seven remained on the battlefield.

After James' Infinity Steles' Formation shattered, Troth catalyzed the Formation once more, and mysterious power emerged from within Heaven and Earth before striking James. This power was terrifying and not any weaker than a powerful blow of a Chaotic Treasure in the hands of a Terra Ancestral God.

As James' vitality was being sapped away continuously, he catalyzed the Life Path to sustain himself. As a terrifying power struck him once more, his physical body and soul suffered massive injuries. Besides, as the power spread throughout his body, even the Path Seals inside his body were showing signs of disintegration.

This battle was his hardest one yet. If this was a one vs one, he would not be afraid of anyone. However, he was now being ganged up on by a group of powerful figures who possessed Chaotic Treasures.

Despite being injured, the powerful figures of the First Universe did not show any mercy. Holding the hammer in his hand, Quasimodo tried to crush James.

“Get lost!”

Holding the Demon-Slayer Sword, a terrifying Sword Energy materialized from within. This Sword Energy contained three Macrocosm Powers.

Quasimodo’s hammer struck the Sword Energy. Though he was a brute with superhuman strength, not to mention that his hammer was also a Chaotic Treasure, he could not resist the Sword Energy imbued with three Macrocosm Powers. As the hammer was knocked away, he hurriedly dodged. Even so, the Sword Energy scratched the surface of his skin, and blood trickled down his wounds.

At that moment, countless mysterious inscriptions of Heaven and Earth gathered to form a sword. Charging toward James, the sword appeared behind its target and pierced through James’ body. Immediately, blood gushed out from his wound. Meanwhile, as the shapeless Sword Energy contained terrifying destructive power, the power exploded inside James’ body, and his Path Seals were damaged almost instantly.

A fierce battle continued in the Juda Realm. The remaining seven who each possessed a Chaotic Treasure did not fight James head-on but opted to ambush him from behind whenever the opportunity presents itself. Once James tried to launch a counterattack, they would hurriedly dodge.

Even though James was powerful, he was in a wretched state after being ganged up on, and the injuries on his body were aggravated.

The Sacred Blossom blossomed once more in the sky.

Under the attack of the Sacred Blossom, even Yermolai, who tried to defend himself by using a Chaotic Treasure, was injured. Even though James was battered and bruised, the powerful figures of the First Universe were not having things much easier either. Two had been annihilated, and the remaining seven had suffered injuries.

As the living beings outside the Juda Realm watched the battle, they could not help but feel a chill down their spines.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3712-The battle was too ferocious, and everyone was stunned by James' true power. They knew that the powerful figures of the First Universe had banded together and set up a Superformation in the Juda Realm to get rid of James. This Formation was set up with the Juda Realm as the core, and Troth Digby, the legendary Formation Master had spent tens of thousands of years setting the Formation up. Even an Ancestral God would lose his battle prowess upon entering the Formation. However, James was not an Ancestral God. Regardless, he managed to stand his ground against nine opponents and even annihilated two in the process. The two who were killed only had Quasi Chaotic Treasures, whereas the remaining seven each have their own Chaotic Treasures. Besides that, they possessed immense power, and they had yet to use their full strength.

In the Juda Realm...

The world had turned into a pile of rubble.

Standing in mid-air, James held the Demon-Slayer Sword in his hand, and there was a pagoda formed by the Infinity Steles in his surroundings. A powerful aura surged forth from within his body.

At that moment, his injuries were grave, and his vitality was constantly seeping away. So, he could only use the Life Path to sustain himself. The Path Seals inside his body had also shown signs of damage. Meanwhile, in his surroundings, there were seven powerful figures. All of them exuded a terrifying aura and surrounded James.

Quasimodo held a hammer in his hand and was naked from the waist up. He had a muscular build and possessed incredible strength. As he waved the hammer in his hand, the hammer's power distorted even space.

Yaiza held a mysterious umbrella in her hand that could summon all sorts of mysterious powers when opened.

Yermolai was holding a chain in his hand. On both ends of the chain were two iron balls, on which there were sharp blades. Once James was struck by the chain, he would be gravely injured.

Troth concealed himself in the void and silently catalyzed the formation to apply greater pressure on James.

Makara held the Life-Sapper Sword in his hand and stood in the distance. A powerful force materialized from his sword, which was able to sap away the vitality of any living being. Once struck, the target would swiftly age until he was dead.

Meanwhile, there was also a human covered in flames in James' surroundings. The man radiated a fiery glow, and even his hair was red. As flames materialized from within his body, they exuded a terrifying power, and even the void was burned into nothingness. He held a fiery red broadsword in his hand. He was an individual from the First Universe who cultivated nine Path Seals. However, most frighteningly, he cultivated the Flame Path because he coincidentally refined a mysterious flame in the First Universe in the midst of cultivation. This flame could burn anything in the world. His name was Trajan Lucretius.

The final individual was a ferocious-looking man who held a golden rod in his hand. His name was Shiloh Quidel, and he was the one who obtained the first Chaotic Treasure in the new universe.

All seven of them were powerful figures. However, all of them wore grim expressions on their faces. That was because James was able to perform such terrifying strength despite being trapped in the formation. Without the formation's suppression, James' power would be even more overwhelming.

Silently, Troth catalyzed the formation once more.

Clouds immediately appeared above James, and there was lightning flashing through the clouds. Then, lightning bolts struck James, each of them possessing a power that could annihilate even Ancestral Gods.

James lifted his head and grunted. He could not care less about the attacks. After all, he had the protection of the formation formed by the Infinity Steles, and the power of the enemy's formation was insufficient to destroy him.
