The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3731-“That’s weird. Why is my realm gone?”

James did not understand this.

A new power appeared in his body, but his realm was gone. He had no idea which realm he was in, but he could sense that the new power in his body was extremely strong.

If he were to face the First Universe’s Nine Powerhouses, even if he were to be in a Killing Formation, he could kill all of them easily.

“Right.”

At this moment, James realized something.

“The Omniscience Path.”

He recalled a special realm.

The Path Seals he cultivated had disappeared.

The Path Energy had disappeared completely and became a new power. On the other hand, he embarked on another cultivation path, the Omniscience Path.

The Omniscience Path only had three stages. Upon reaching the third stage, all potential and power in the body would be drained.

However, James had consumed countless Macrocosm Elixirs. With the power of these elixirs and the new power, he entered the fourth stage of the Omniscience Path and unlocked his body’s new potential.

He began to sense his body and could feel that his body was unique. His physical power had become much stronger than before.

When he entered the state of the Omniscience Path, the aura in his body burst and broke the coffin. His grave immediately cracked open, and he came out of his grave.

James took a deep breath and reduced his aura.

He saw many Chaotic Treasures in the coffin and kept them. Then, he sat in front of the ruined grave.

James walked on a new cultivation path, which no one had ever walked. Now, everything was unfamiliar to him.

Even though the other cultivation path had been abandoned, there was power in his body and a new one at that. This power was a fusion of all his powers.

Nonetheless, he could not tell which realm he was in.

If this cultivation path was useless, there would not be Path Energy in his body.

For a moment, James was confused. He did not know what state he was in.

Even after thinking for a while, he had no idea.

"Forget it. As long as I can resurrect, it's fine. I don't know how long I've been buried here or where I am."

James did not continue to ponder on this. As the situation had already changed, he could only advance and see where he would go.

He tried to sense heaven and earth.

His Divine Sense spread quickly.

Shortly after, he knew where he was, how long he had been buried, and the history of the Twelfth Universe.

He did not know what happened to him. He had only used a little power but had learned all of this.

"I've returned to the Twelfth Universe and been buried for over ten Epochs. During this time, something shocking happened to the Twelfth Universe.

"History is still going according to the known trajectory," James mumbled.

"Since history has turned out this way, I can't change it.

"I came to this era to look for Thea. I wonder how's Thea doing after more than ten Epochs have passed."

Standing up, James stretched his back. The moment he moved, cracking sounds sounded from his body. It was the sound of his body's movements.

"This body is indeed strong. I wonder if I have a chance of winning against the Macrocosm Ancestral God Rank powerhouses."

James knew he was powerful, but he had no idea how strong he was as he had not fought against any Macrocosm Ancestral God Rank powerhouses.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3732-For James to learn about what had happened in this era, he only needed to think about it.

Turning around, he glanced at his grave and waved his hands, destroying his grave without leaving behind a trace. Since he was already dead in this era, he should let everything be in its place.

Then, he sensed heaven and earth.

James realized that, due to being buried, the Heavenly Path was very sensitive toward everything that happened. Thus, he could make the Path Sigils in heaven and earth appear. He understood these things because traces of them were left behind in heaven and earth.

He turned to leave and left for the Callahan Residence in the Divine Dimension.

For more than ten Epochs, he had not been here. There were a few changes to the environment.

On the spiritual mountain where the Callahan Residence was located, there was a Superformation, and in the formation were many strong bodyguards of the Callahans.

James was aware that all Caelum Ancestral Gods of the universe had united to form a Universal Alliance to fight against Radomir, who headed the Mount Heavenly Path. This was the conquest he learned about in future history.

It was just that the powerhouses above the Ancestral God Rank in this era were all dead, causing much information to be lost. When the information was passed on to the next generation, the next generation did not understand much about the Primeval Age.

James did not want to care about these matters.

Presently, he only wanted to look for Thea.

The formation of the Callahan Residence was powerful. It could resist an Ancestral God Rank powerhouse. Nevertheless, this formation was a mere display to James. Without alerting any members of the Callahans, he sneaked into the Callahan Residence.

After entering the Callahan Residence, he sensed everything in the residence to find Thea's aura. However, he could not sense Thea's existence in the large Callahan Residence.

"Is Thea not in the Callahan Residence?"

James furrowed his brows. He managed to sense Lana's presence. Then, he appeared in the seclusion sanctuary Lana was at.

Lana was injured, and she was currently focusing on recuperating.

"Lana," called out James when he arrived.

Lana, who was recuperating, woke up at once and stood up. When she saw the man before her, she thought she was hallucinating and kept rubbing her eyes.

"J-James?"

She found it hard to believe who she was seeing.

Even though James' death was a secret and not many people knew about it, the Callahans were a major family. They knew about James' journey to the new universe and death in the new universe.

"Is it really you? You're alive?" Lana was shocked.

"It's a long story. I came to find Thea. Where's Thea?" James asked.

"Thea?"

Lana fell into deep thought. After a while, she answered, "Ever since Thea brought the Demon-Slayer Sword the family had guarded for many years to find you and gave it to you, she never showed up again. From then on, the Grand Patriarch came out of his seclusion sanctuary and took control of the family. I don't know where did Bria go. You should ask the Grand Patriarch."

"Alright."

James nodded slightly.

He noticed that Lana was severely injured, and her injuries were from the Heavenly Path. It was obvious she fought with Heaven's Adjudicators and was injured by them.

As he raised his hand, a mysterious power emerged from his palm before landing on Lana's body like sunlight. Then, the injuries in her body healed miraculously at that moment.

“Huh?”

Once again, Lana was shocked. Her injuries were because of the Heavenly Path, yet they healed so easily.

What realm had James reached?

“Lana, please don’t tell anyone about my appearance, alright?” James requested.

“I will keep it a secret,” responded Lana.

Without saying anything else, James disappeared as if he had never appeared before.

Meanwhile, Lana took a long time to recover from the shock.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3733-“Now, I’m also a Caelum Ancestral God. Although I’m in the early stage of the rank, it is the Caelum Ancestral God Rank, after all. Yet, I can’t tell what’s in James’ mind.”

Taking a deep breath, Lana did not ponder on this any further. After leaving Lana, James appeared before the Grand Patriarch of the Callahans.

In a sanctuary in the Callahan Residence, the Grand Patriarch of the Callahans was sitting with his legs crossed.

When James appeared, he stood before the Grand Patriarch.

As if the Grand Patriarch had sensed something, he opened his eyes at once and stood up from the ground, looking at the uninvited guest before him. He had never seen James before, so he had no idea who the latter was.

Staring at James warily, the Grand Patriarch asked, “Who are you? Why did you barge into the sanctuary of my family’s residence?”

Without explaining anything, James asked, “Where’s Thea?”

“Thea?” The Grand Patriarch of the Callahans stared at James.

Ever since Thea reincarnated, only one person looked for her before, and that person was Herschel of Mount Heavenly Path. However, ever since the master of Mount Heavenly Path changed, and Herschel seemed to have been held in captivity, he stopped coming.

Now, another person was seeking Thea. At this moment, the Grand Patriarch seemed to have guessed James' identity.

"Are you James?"

James nodded.

Upon seeing that, the Grand Patriarch of the Callahans could not help but stumble backward.

From what he knew, James was already dead. The latter died during the battle in the new universe, and in the new universe, whoever got killed by the Eleventh Universe's Nine Terra Ancestral Gods and Paths would be taken to the Twelfth Universe and be buried in the Mortal Dimension.

So, why was James still alive? The Grand Patriarch had so many questions.

"I'm looking for Thea," spoke James again.

Taking a deep breath, the Grand Patriarch of the Callahans said, "You're late. After Thea gave you the Demon-Slayer Sword, she reincarnated."

"What?"

At once, James took a few steps forward. As he walked, he exuded a powerful aura enough to shake the Grand Patriarch of the Callahans, who was at the peak of the Caelum Ancestral God Rank.

The Grand Patriarch of the Callahans stepped back and stared at James, full of alertness.

"Reincarnation... Why?!" James roared.

"James, calm down," the Grand Patriarch of the Callahans said, "Thea already knew that her mental state was a mess and that she couldn't reach the peak. As the path she cultivated was special, her cultivation rank couldn't rank up when her mind was in chaos. In order to reach the peak, she reincarnated."

"I put in so much effort to come to this era, yet this is the outcome I get. Even if she's reincarnated, I want to reverse the time and bring her back."

James was determined.

The void of this area began distorting. Then, the time of this area reversed continuously, and soon it reached the moment where Thea was about to reincarnate. James saw Thea's body disintegrating.

He could not help but shout, "Thea, what are you doing?"

Thea was carrying out her reincarnation.

At this moment, a voice sounded in her mind before the shadow in her mind turned around, and a familiar yet unfamiliar face appeared.

"James, is it really you?" Thea was taken aback.

James seemed to be standing far in the future, but he also appeared to be standing before Thea.

"I worked so hard to come to this era from the future just to find you, yet you want to reincarnate. Where should I find you after you reincarnate?"

Thea felt helpless.

"James, I don't know what happened between us, but I have to reincarnate today. It doesn't matter which era you came from. If we're fated, I will reincarnate to your era. We'll meet again then."

Nonetheless, James could no longer care less. He came to this era to find Thea, but Thea was going to reincarnate.

Even if he needed to pay the price, he had to prevent Thea from doing so.

"I won't let you reincarnate."

After saying that, James wanted to use all his power to forcefully bring Thea from the past ten Epochs to the present time.

When he was about to do so, a strong Karma Power emerged and stopped him. Meanwhile, his body disappeared from that Epoch quickly and appeared in the present time again.

Looking at James, the Grand Patriarch felt helpless as he said, "James, why are you doing this? Thea has already reincarnated. No matter how strong your Supernatural Power is, you can't reverse everything."

James felt upset. He did so much, yet there were no results.

"Oh, right," Thinking of something, the Grand Patriarch of the Callahans said, "After Thea reincarnated, a part of her spirit was left behind. However, not long ago, the Five Ancestral Masters came here and took Thea's spirit."

Upon hearing that, James was taken aback before asking, "Thea left behind a part of her spirit, but the Five Ancestral Masters took her spirit?"

"That's right."

"When did this happen?"

"Around thirty thousand years ago."

Hearing that, James did not hesitate at all, and his body disappeared before the Grand Patriarch of the Callahans.

The Grand Patriarch of the Callahans looked in the direction James disappeared, and his face darkened.

"James certainly came from the future, but what happened in the future? What relationship did Thea and James share in the future, letting James pass through the River of Time to come to this era and find Thea?"

The Grand Patriarch of the Callahans had a stern expression.

At this moment, in a gazebo at the foot of Mount Element, the base camp of the Five Ancestral Masters, the Five Ancestral Masters were playing chess.

"The tide is over."

"The powerhouses of all parties in the alliance have suffered heavy losses, and now we are the only ones left. It will not take long before Radomir makes a move and wipe out all Caelum Ancestral Gods in this universe."

"We worked so hard to create the Elemental Inversion. Now, we need to spread the Element Inversion. In the future, James can definitely get the Elemental Inversion. It's a pity that James came to this era after obtaining the Elemental Inversion and died in this era."

"Could it be that there isn't any future?"

"We have prepared Ancestral God Rank Elixirs for the future. If James managed to come to this era, the catastrophe of humans had been resolved in the future. It's only the catastrophe. Radomir can't be killed."

As the Five Ancestral Masters played chess and discussed the matter, their expressions were full of worry.

Swish!

All of a sudden, a shadow appeared.

“Where’s Thea?” It was James who rushed over.

After learning that Thea’s spirit was taken by the Five Ancestral Masters, James hurried over to Mount Element.

Upon seeing the appearance of James, the Five Ancestral Masters stood up and were surprised.

“James, it’s you.”

The Five Ancestral Masters stared at James. No one expected James’ appearance.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3735-“It’s a long story. Thea has already become a part of the Ancestral God Rank Elixir.”

Upon hearing that, James stumbled several steps backward.

“I’m late. Again.” James sighed.

“James, we have divined the future. You’re connected to the future and solved the future catastrophe. The Ancestral God Rank is prepared for you. Only if Thea’s soul is in the Ancestral God Rank Elixir can the future you consume the elixir.”

“As for Thea, she has already reincarnated. She should appear in the future. Go back to wherever you came from.”

“Stop participating in this era’s affairs. The ending of this era is determined.”

“In the future, I hope you can break the Elysian Seal and remove the restriction of heaven and earth.”

The Five Ancestral Masters spoke up.

James already knew everything in this era. He also knew that the current Heavenly Path had been altered.

In the eyes of the powerhouses in the era, the Heavenly Path changed because Radomir feared that more powerhouses would rise. He forbade any living being to enter the Quasi Ancestral God Rank.

Nevertheless, James knew that Radomir did so because he wanted to create a dazzling world.

Due to the Elysian Seal, living beings could not enter the Quasi Ancestral God Rank.

On the other hand, the universe would continue birthing providence. To become an unrivaled powerhouse, one needed providence. Now, with the Elysian Seal, no one could enter the Quasi Ancestral God Rank. This would cause the providence of this universe to grow and accumulate endlessly.

Many Epochs later, the fate of the Twelfth Universe would become frightening.

By then, once the seal opened and providence got released, any living being in the universe would be tainted with strong providence. In this way, a batch of dominating powerhouses could be created.

In fact, many powerhouses had comprehended the Macrocosm Power and entered the Macrocosm Ancestral God Rank.

Everything Radomir did, although this era would be destroyed and cause the Ancient Heavenly Court Age and the Primordial Age not to have any powerhouses above the Quasi Ancestral God Rank, the Twelfth Universe would definitely rise again and become a truly dazzling world.

Looking at the Five Ancestral Masters, James said, "Since the ending of this era has already been determined, and since failure is certain, stop holding on and disperse your providence. Let the providence return to the universe. Go and reincarnate, all of you. Hopefully, we can meet again in the endless future."

"Haha." The Ancestral God Gold laughed out loud. "We plan on doing that."

"Radomir is too strong. We aren't his match at all. We have been having a discussion. After setting up a plan to resolve future catastrophes, we will disperse our cultivation base and reincarnate."

Hearing that, James was rest assured.

He did not want to see the older generation who had shown kindness to him die this way. He did not want to see the older generation, who had done so much for the Twelfth Universe, die in this era.

“See you again in the endless future.”

James waved his hand as a goodbye.

He came to this era for nothing. Even though his trip here was wasted, he still had some achievements. He learned about many things, and he had grown stronger.

Now, his only worry was Winnie. However, he, from the future, knew her ending.

During the strife, Winnie chose to be imprisoned. She sealed herself in a palace until Melinda exited the Reincarnation Pool and until the Fourth Tribulation appeared. Only then would Melinda call out Winnie.

The mission of James’ trip to this era had ended. It was time to return.

In the endless future, he still had many relatives and friends waiting for him.

Winnie was still waiting for him to save her.

There was a possibility that Thea had reincarnated to the future. He still needed to look for Thea.

After leaving Mount Element, he activated the Time Capsule and entered the River of Time. Flowing along the River of Time, he began his way back.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3736-Using the Time Capsule, James entered the River of Time.

He continued down the river. When he walked up the River of Time, his body could not resist the pressure for a long time.

Now, his body was a lot stronger than when he came. This time, he did not feel any discomfort.

In the River of Time, he could sense the corresponding era.

Presently, he was only thinking about Thea. He did not want to see the other eras. He only wanted to return to the future and look for Thea.

Soon, the Apocalypse Age arrived.

Everything in the Apocalypse Age was within his senses. After sensing the time frame, he left the River of Time and returned to the Twelfth Universe.

The time he returned to was one Epoch later after he left.

In this Epoch, many things happened in the Twelfth Universe.

Jacopo was in charge of the Human Realm and became the Lord of the Human Race. The Human Realm formed an alliance with the Demon Realm and the Fiend Realm, controlling the universe. Then, the Human Race, Fiend Race, and Demon Race fell apart and began a fight.

After that, the Elysian Seal was opened.

It was only then that the three races stopped the battle.

Following the opening of the Elysian Seal and the end of the fight between the three races, the Twelfth Universe began its most potent era. This era was a dazzling era. Even the Lords of the other Universes sensed the changes in the Twelfth Universe.

The Elysian Seal in the Twelfth Universe sealed the ages and accumulated enough providence. This providence was terrifying, so the Lords of the other Universes targeted it. They sent numerous prodigies to the Twelfth Universe and planned to absorb the providence accumulated by the Twelfth Universe and rise in the Twelfth Universe.

Several Caelum Ancestral Gods from the Primeval Age also reincarnated to this era.

In history, some powerhouses predicted that the Apocalypse Age would be a dazzling era and chose to hibernate. They planned to wake up in this era.

The Twelfth Universe had been suppressed for many Epochs, and finally, the era Radomir anticipated arrived. However, Radomir did not expect the Twelfth Universe to garner the attention of the other universes. The Lords of the other Universes sent many prodigies to the Twelfth Universe for training.

The Twelfth Universe in this Epoch birthed many excellent prodigies.

At the beginning of the Ancient Heavenly Court Age, the Primordial Age, and the Apocalypse Age, cultivators only cultivated one Path Seal, and only a few managed to cultivate two Path Seals. Now, with the blessing of providence, living beings became stronger, and they could cultivate more Path Seals.

Cultivating three to four Path Seals was average, but cultivating five to six Path Seals could be considered a prodigy.

Meanwhile, the true prodigy pursued the extreme and wanted nine Path Seals.

Besides, the Elysian Seal of the Twelfth Universe had sealed countless Epochs. It stabilized the Heavenly Path of the Twelfth Universe. The level of stability exceeded the combination of the First Universe and the new universe.

Everything was made with the sacrifices of the many powerhouses during the Primeval Age.

Although Radomir died in the Primeval Age, commencing the start of the Ancient Heavenly Court Age and the end of the Primordial Age, this dazzling era was established.

James returned to one Epoch later after the time when he went to Primeval Age.

He appeared in the Human Realm of the Twelfth Universe.

Once he appeared in the Human Realm, he sensed the mystic of the current universe. He could sense that the seal to the Heavenly Path had opened, and he could feel the dense providence contained in heaven and earth. Any living being could be touched by providence.

If one could be tainted by providence, one could become strong.

After becoming a powerhouse, the possibility of entering the Macrocosm Ancestral God Rank would increase.

“I’m finally back.”

James walked on the soil of the Human Realm and found the environment before his eyes to be unfamiliar. It was completely different from when he left.

“It has been an Epoch since I left. I didn’t expect the Twelfth Universe to have such huge changes in one Epoch. I wonder how my relatives and friends are doing.”

At this moment, James kind of missed his friends.

He missed Henry.

He missed the Blithe King, both of his grandfathers, and his uncle.

He even missed Quincy.

His memories of the past emerged in his mind one by one.

Even though it had been a long time since these matters happened, he felt as if they had just happened yesterday.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3737-"I wonder if Wurmstead in the Mortal Dimension is still around after such a long time has passed," mumbled James. Then, he went to the Mortal Dimension.

Wurmstead still existed. However, he did not sense the familiar aura in Wurmstead.

The current Wurmstead was very different from the Wurmstead he knew.

James did not stay for long, as he had guessed that the people in the former Wurmstead had perhaps become Gods and had gone to the Divine Dimension.

With the beginning of the Apocalypse Age, the earthlings entered the cultivation era. Everyone would cultivate and become a cultivator. Naturally, they could live for eternity. He believed that his friends did not die and had merely ascended.

James did not care about this for now. Right now, he needed to save Winnie.

In the blink of an eye, his body disappeared and appeared in the place where Winnie was locked.

In front of a black palace, James looked at the building before him. He saw that inscriptions were circulating the palace. These inscriptions were the Elysian Inscriptions.

Winnie broke the Heavenly Oath she made. Thus, she was imprisoned and could not leave this place forever.

Standing before the palace, James waved his hands, and a magical power emerged in his palms. The power entered the black palace, and the Elysian Inscriptions circulating the surface of the palace, gradually disappeared.

James pushed open the entrance door of the palace. When he was about to enter, a beautiful figure walked out.

Upon seeing James, Winnie was stunned.

"Papa?"

"Winnie." James smiled. "I'm back."

“Papa, you’re back. Where did you return from? Did you not go to the Primeval Age?”

Winnie was shocked. In her memory, her father appeared in the Primeval Age and died there. Ever since she left the broken seal, she knew James would go to the Primeval Age and die in that era.

Nonetheless, she did not stop him. She thought it was James’ destiny and could not stop or change it.

James smiled. “I’ve just returned from the Primeval Age. The moment I came back, I came to save you.”

“Huh?”

Winnie was taken aback as she asked, “Didn’t you die in the First Universe from the siege of the First Universe’s prodigies? Melinda, Henrik, and I personally buried you.”

James explained, “It’s a long story. I was indeed dead, but more than ten Epochs after I was buried, I came back alive. When I woke up, Radomir had killed Hadad. The Caelum Ancestral Gods of the Twelfth Universe had formed the Universal Alliance and had retreated in defeat. The Primeval Age came to an end. After Thea reincarnated, I no longer needed to stay in the Primeval Age, so I rushed back.”

“Have you entered the Macrocosm Ancestral God Rank?”

Winnie was astonished. She was imprisoned by the Elysian Seal.

Even a Caelum Ancestral God could not break the Elysian Seal. Only a Macrocosm Ancestral God had the ability.

“How do I say this?”

James hesitated for a moment before saying, “I don’t know which cultivation rank I’m in right now, but I know that I’ve entered the Fourth Stage of the Omniscience Stage. As for my cultivation rank, I can’t sense it. I only know that I was at the peak of the Quasi Ancestral God Rank when I died. I was only a step away from the Ancestral God Rank. However, when I was resurrected, I couldn’t sense my cultivation rank.”

Winnie was shocked once again. She did not expect her father to be alive and return from the Primeval Age.

“Papa.” Winnie hugged James.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3738-Winnie was overjoyed.

No one knew what she had gone through.

She went to the Primeval Age and experienced many things there. She even watched the destruction of the Primeval Age. To not interfere with anything in the Primeval Age, she chose to seal herself.

Winnie sealed herself for several eras. During this time, she spent most of her time sleeping. She spent the dull eras in a deep sleep.

Occasionally, she woke up and observed the outside world.

Upon seeing James, who should have been dead in the battle during the Primeval Age, alive, she was so happy that she cried.

James comforted Winnie and said, “From now on, you’re free. The Heavenly Path can no longer constrain you.”

Winnie stopped sobbing.

“What about Mother? Have you found her?”

She sealed herself during the turmoil in the Primeval Age. Under Radomir’s pressure, she sealed herself.

Even if she went to the Primeval Age and found out that her mother was there, she did not meet Thea in the Primeval Age.

James responded, “Thea has reincarnated.”

He explained the situation of Thea’s reincarnation.

“If Thea reincarnated, she shouldn’t walk out of the Reincarnation Pond. Instead, she should’ve reincarnated into another person. As for whether or not her name is still Thea after reincarnation, it’s unknown. I need to find out.”

“Alright.” Winnie nodded.

Looking at James, she asked, “Are you going to find Mother now?”

"Of course." James nodded and said, "With my current ability, it isn't hard for me to find out Thea's reincarnated body. If Thea has actually reincarnated to this era, and as long as Thea exists in this era, I can find out her whereabouts."

James was confident in this.

After all, during the Primeval Age, he understood the Heavenly Path and could use the rules of the Heavenly Path to deduce everything. As long as Thea appeared in this era before, the Heavenly Path would leave her traces behind.

"That's great," said Winnie. Then, her expression changed as she said, "It's just that I've been imprisoned for a long time. Now that I'm free, I don't know where I should go."

James smiled. "Didn't Melinda walk out of the Reincarnation Pond? She has memories of the Primeval Age. In your memory, she may be your best friend. Go and look for Melinda."

"What about you?" Winnie glanced at James.

"Ever since you died in the battle, Melinda has been sad for a long time. She finally walked out of her sadness after so long. She has deep feelings for you."

James smiled bitterly.

"I won't meet her for the time being. We'll talk about this again after I find Thea."

Winnie did not pursue further.

Swish!

At this moment, a shadow appeared out of nowhere. It was a handsome and extraordinary man in a white robe. James sensed him the moment he appeared.

James turned around and pushed his palm out. The man in a white robe did the same.

Both of their palms touched each other. It did not cause any fluctuation of power.

The man in a white robe stepped backward, and during that time, the void under his legs showed signs of cracking, but it had not fully cracked open.

"Ah!"

The man in a white robe was stunned.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3739-On the other hand, James calmly looked at the man in a white robe, who had just appeared, and said, "Long time no see."

Radomir heard the familiar yet unfamiliar voice and stared at James.

"James, it's you."

As the Lord of this universe, he knew everything. He began planning during the Primeval Age. That was how he managed to create the current Twelfth Universe.

He met James in the Primeval Age, but James died during that time.

He knew James resolved the Four Calamities of Earth and the Four Calamities of the Human Race. He also knew that James in the Primeval Age was from this era. Thus, James was destined to die in the Primeval Age.

No matter how extraordinary James was, Radomir did not care.

However, James appeared now. In fact, James was stronger than him, so how could he not be shocked?

"Didn't you die in battle during the Primeval Age? You were besieged to death by the nine powerhouses of the First Universe in the new universe. So, how are you still alive?"

Radomir had a shocked expression.

James smiled. "This is a long story. I don't know why I'm alive either, but I am still alive."

"Your ability... Have you entered the Macrocosm Ancestral God Rank?" Radomir asked, confused.

It should not be possible. He was a Macrocosm Ancestral God Rank powerhouse and was in charge of the Heavenly Path, so how could he be unaware of a powerhouse in the Twelfth Universe entering the Macrocosm Ancestral God Rank?

James shook his head and said, "I can't sense which cultivation rank I'm in."

Radomir tried to sense James' cultivation rank.

Nevertheless, he could not sense it either.

He inquired, "What happened?"

James responded, "I don't know. I only know that my cultivation rank was at the peak of the Quasi Ancestral God Rank, one step away from the Ancestral God Rank, when I died in battle. After I revived, I couldn't sense my cultivation rank. It's as if I've gone to a path different from the cultivation path.

"Besides, I have coincidentally entered the Fourth Stage of the Omniscience Path.

"Everything was due to the battle in the new universe.

"That battle shattered all of my Path Seals and caused countless powers to wreak havoc in my body. In addition to that, I consumed a Macrocosm Core and countless Macrocosm-Ranked elixirs. In the end, these powers completely blended with the power of the Dark Wellspring and birthed a new power."

James did not hide anything from Radomir.

To the common people, Radomir was evil. In order to stabilize his status, he wiped out an entire era and altered the Heavenly Path, causing many living beings of numerous eras to be unable to enter the Quasi Ancestral God Rank.

Nonetheless, James went to the Primeval Age before, so he understood Radomir.

If Radomir did not do all of this, James would do it instead.

Thus, James trusted Radomir.

After listening to James, Radomir was confused as he mumbled, "This is strange. What power can the power of countless Path, the Macrocosm Core, the Macrocosm-Ranked elixirs, and the power of the Dark Wellspring form?"

Even Radomir, a Macrocosm Ancestral God, could not understand all this.

Nevertheless, he did not ponder on it.

Patting James on the shoulder, Radomir smiled. "I knew you had a bright future. You're stronger than me now, which means that no matter which cultivation rank you're currently in, you can defeat a First Stage Macrocosm Ancestral God."

Radomir was excited.

"The Twelfth Universe has been wasted for several eras. Now, the most dazzling era has come. Even other universes have their eyes on the current Twelfth Universe and sent prodigies here for training.

"I believe that several Epochs later, the Twelfth Universe can rise completely and birth several Macrocosm Ancestral Gods. Then, the Twelfth Universe will become strong and no longer fear the other universes. Even the wish of the Holy Master of Nothingness can be fulfilled, making the Dark World peaceful.

“James, let’s work together and glorify the Twelfth Universe.”

However, James shook his head and responded, “Let’s discuss this next time. I need to find Thea first. Without Thea, I don’t have the motivation to do anything.”

“What kind of mindset is that?” Radomir reprimanded, “Is it worth giving up the world for a woman? As one of the top powerhouses, you can get any woman.”

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3740-“You don’t understand. I went to the Primeval Age from this era to find Thea. Now that she has reincarnated, I need to find her reincarnated body.”

James shook his head. He did not agree with Radomir’s point of view.

Radomir took a deep breath. He did not say anything else and left.

He knew that he needed to give James time to find Thea. So, he decided to cooperate with James.

“Papa.” Standing to the side, Winnie had been silent. After Radomir left, she finally spoke up, “I didn’t expect you to be stronger than a Macrocosm Ancestral God.”

James responded, “Both of us did not use our full strength. If we actually duel, I may not be his match.”

James knew that Radomir was only probing and that he did not use his full strength. The same went for him. He only used a part of his power. If they truly fought each other, he might not defeat a Macrocosm Ancestral God.

However, it could be seen that he was stronger than before.

“I’m going to go now,” said Winnie.

“Go ahead.” James waved his hand.

Winnie turned to leave right away.

As for James, he activated the Heavenly Path and began to use the rules of the Heavenly Path to trace Thea. Unfortunately, Thea currently did not exist in the rules of the Heavenly Path. There were not any traces left behind by Thea.

James frowned.

“What’s going on? Did Thea not reincarnate to this era?”

James was perplexed. He was not certain that Thea reincarnated in this era.

When Thea was about to reincarnate, she only said they would meet again if they were fated.

“This is giving me a headache. Thea, where should I find you?”

James was troubled.

Thea’s soul did not exist in the current universe, which meant her reincarnated body was not here. So, where should he look for Thea?

Or had Thea not reincarnated yet? Had the time not come?

Sitting on the peak of a mountain, James began his extrapolation.

As he raised his hands, sigils emerged in his palm. The sigils quickly gathered together and formed an Extrapolation Formation. The formation moved and changed continuously. There were countless changes every second.

After a while, James dispersed the Extrapolation Formation.

“Unable to extrapolate the result?”

James was confused.

“I’ve divined thousands of Epochs, but there’s no trace of Thea. What’s going on? Did Thea not reincarnate? Where did she go?”

James sat at the mountain peak and did not move for a long time. As he could not find any trace of Thea, he appeared to have lost all of his spirit. He did not appear to be himself at all.

James pondered. If he could not divine, there were only two results.

Firstly, Thea did not reincarnate at all, and she was not in the Twelfth Universe but in another universe.

Secondly, Thea had indeed reincarnated. However, as there were many connections between him and Thea, his Extrapolate Formation could not divine Thea's whereabouts.

It was similar to him being able to divine other people's life but could not do the same for his own life. Thea was too involved in James' life, and thus James could not divine her whereabouts.

No matter which outcome it was, James could not accept it.

If Thea was not in the Twelfth Universe, which universe was she in? There were so many universes. Where should James look for her?

If he could not divine, where should he find Thea when the Twelfth Universe was huge?

Even though his current ability had reached the level of finding out everything in heaven and earth in the blink of an eye, he could not find out about Thea. So, he could not find her.
