The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3761-Nico yelled harshly, "Did you really think the Heavenly Court is that powerless?"

As he spoke, he raised his hand to summon an illusory palm and sent it at the Sixth Universe challenger. The man from the Sixth Universe intended to flee, but it was already too late. The surrounding area was sealed off, and the palm struck him. Then, a powerful formation appeared and confined him.

Nico met James in the Boundless Realm. Back then, Nico was a Grand Emperor, and was highly accomplished. After more than an Epoch, he had grown much more proficient. He was already an Ancestral God who had cultivated countless Paths.

Now, he was considered a powerhouse of the Heavenly Court. Although he was not a peerless powerhouse, his strength was not something to be taken lightly.

Nico let out a cold snort, "Take him away."

A few Heavenly Court's soldiers appeared and carried off the man from the Sixth Universe to the Heavenly Court.

Henry appeared in front of Maxine and smiled brightly. He asked, "Are you alright?"

Maxine glanced at Henry and grumbled, "The Twelfth Universe isn't exactly the most stable at the moment. What if the Heavenly Court offends other powerhouses from the other universes by getting involved in this matter?"

Henry said calmly, "If we offend them, so be it. It's not a big deal. If it were anyone else's matter, I would've ignored it. However, you were involved. James isn't here right now. How could I explain myself if something happened to you before he returns?"

"James..."

Maxine fell into a daze, and a figure appeared in her mind.

She had not heard James' name for a very long time. She did not know where James was.

"Huff." She sighed and dismissed her thoughts.

"Why were you fighting that man from the Sixth Universe?" asked Henry.

Maxine said, "No particular reason. He was attracted to me and wanted to marry me. I turned him down, so he wanted to show off his strength to convince me. I wasn't even using my full strength in that fight. Otherwise, I would've killed him in mere minutes."

Maxine was incredibly confident. However, a senior had reminded her not to use the power of her tenth Path. He sensed there would be great consequences after sensing her tenth Path's Power.

"Alright. I'll head back to the Heavenly Court first. In accordance with the Heavenly Court's rules, I'll expel him from the Twelfth Universe. The next time he enters the Twelfth Universe, he'll be killed with no mercy."

Henry spoke briefly, then turned to leave.

Maxine did not linger. After Henry left, she also quickly departed.

Seeing James' friends leave the area, Henrik asked James, "What's wrong? Don't you want to reunite with them?"

James shook his head lightly and said, "As long as they're fine, I'm okay with not meeting them. This isn't a good time. We'll reunite when the time is right."

"Then where are you going next?" asked Henrik.

James said, "The Cadens' base is in Mount Bane. I'd like to go visit their residence."

James missed his family. Although the relationship between him and his father was strained, they were still family. He missed his mother, Xandra, the most. James had not seen her for such a long time.

Previously, Xandra was corrupted with Demonic Energy. He brought her to Yaraka to expel her Demonic Energy. Later, she was sent to a mysterious place to cultivate. Now that the Four Calamities were over, his mother should have returned to their family after so many years.

Moreover, he also wanted to see his daughter, Xandra, and his son, Jacopo.

James did not reveal himself and reunite with her. He felt it was not the right time yet.

Although the Twelfth Universe seemed peaceful, a storm was brewing beneath the surface. As a powerhouse from the Twelfth Universe, James felt responsible for protecting its denizens.

"Let's go."

James walked toward Mount Bane.

Mount Bane was vast. After the Elysian Seal was lifted, many new areas surfaced. Even more spiritual mountains emerged and were occupied by various sects and families.

However, many areas of Mount Bane remained public areas. Anyone was free to enter the public areas.

James headed straight to the Cadens' residence.

He did not enter but used his Divine Sense to survey their base from a spiritual mountain outside the area. He quickly caught up on the Caden family's current situation and identified the Cadens in the vicinity.

Maxine also returned to the Cadens' residence. She was their most esteemed member and was given an independent yard. After returning to the Cadens' residence, she headed straight to her own accommodation.

James sensed many familiar people within the Cadens' residence. His daughter, Xainte, was among those there. However, he could not sense Jacopo and figured he was most likely in the Heavenly Court.

James stood outside of the Cadens' residence.

After learning that his family was safe, he was satisfied just silently watching them from afar.

He noticed his mother, Xandra, was not with the Cadens either and he had no idea where she was right now. He turned and left after loitering outside the Cadens' residence for a while. Next, he headed toward the Lafleurs, his grandfather's family.

James walked through Mount Bane and looked for his relatives and friends.

Meanwhile, the living being that fought Maxine was brought back to the Heavenly Court, which was located high up in the sky. A seal was placed on his body, preventing him from using his power. He was made to kneel in the Heavenly Court's main hall.

Many powerhouses from the Heavenly Court were present in the main hall. Several of them were also acquainted with James.

Silvester, Helvius, Yuina, Jules, and some other powerhouses of the Boundless Realm's Elixir Pavilion had become pillars of the Heavenly Court. Among the powerhouses was James' disciple, Monica.

Monica had an Elemental Holy Body. James also taught her the Supernatural Power, Elemental Inversion. Since the Elysian Seal was lifted, she honed her Path and eventually became a powerhouse with nine Paths.

She always had great potential and was a rare prodigy. She also had many breakthroughs in this era and successfully became an Ancestral God. An Ancestral God with nine Paths was terrifying. She was one of the most powerful cultivators of the Heavenly Court.

Sophie was also inside the Heavenly Court's main hall. In the past, Sophie lived within Emperor Jabari's Celestial Abode and provided James with a lot of help as he cultivated. When James was still weak, she played a massive part in helping him survive in the cruel world of cultivators. Without Sophie, James would never have become the person he was today.

Xandros, the former Human Realm's Lord, was also present. He was reincarnated but became a powerhouse again after restarting his cultivating journey.

Jacopo wore a golden robe and sat in the highest seat of the council.

"Your Majesty."

Henry stepped forward and reported, "This man was captured for using force in the Human Realm. Please punish him as you see fit."

Although Henry was injured, the wounds were mostly superficial.

Jacopo looked at the incapacitated man kneeling on the ground and asked coldly, "According to our current law, what's the punishment for an outsider who uses their powers within the Human Realm?"

A high-ranking official of the Heavenly Court immediately stepped forward and replied, "Your Majesty, he should be beheaded."

Hearing this, the man kneeling on the ground immediately panicked.

"I am from the Sixth Universe. My master is a Caelum Ancestral God. Let me go this instant! Or else, my master will destroy the Heavenly Court."

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3763-Although the man was unnerved, he still felt superior to the Twelfth Universe's humans and began to threaten Jacopo.

"Shut the f*ck up."

Henry raised his foot and kicked the man to the floor, causing him to roll over a couple of times.

"It doesn't matter which universe you're from. Once you've stepped foot into the Twelfth Universe's Human Realm, you follow our rules."

Henry was a hot-head. Regardless of how many years had passed, his temper never got better.

Jacopo frowned. As the Lord of the Heavenly Court, he was well aware how strong other universes were. The Twelfth Universe was currently far too weak to compete with them.

After taking everything into consideration, Jacopo said, "Since you're from the Sitch Universe, I won't sentence you to death. However, you must still be punished for your crimes. You shall receive three thousand lightning strikes and will be expelled from the Twelfth Universe."

Hearing Jacopo's orders, a few guards immediately entered the hall and dragged the man out of Cumulus Palace. He was brought outside the South Heaven Gate where bolts of lightning arced through the sky and repeatedly struck his body.

The man shrieked in pain.

"My fellow cultivators, isn't this a little too much?"

The oppressive voice boomed throughout the Heavenly Court like lightning. A few weaker members of the Heavenly Court were severely injured by the soundwave and fell to the ground as they coughed up blood.

Jacopo's brows furrowed, and his expression turned dark.

A gorgeous woman wearing a beautiful dress walked into the main hall. She was James' disciple, Monica. She said, "Your Majesty, someone powerful is approaching us. I'm afraid there's no one in the Heavenly Court that can take him on."

As soon as she said this, a middle-aged man appeared outside the South Heaven Gate.

The middle-aged man wore a black robe. He had long eyebrows and a very sharp chin. His appearance was rather unusual. As soon as he appeared, he unleashed a powerful force that killed the person delivering the lightning punishment. Then, he lifted the seal on the man from the Sixth Universe.

"Master!"

When the punished man was released from the seal, he immediately rushed to his savior. He was covered in wounds and looked ragged.

"Master, you must avenge me."

The middle-aged man was a Caelum Ancestral God from the Sixth Universe. Those that could cross into the Caelum Ancestral Rank were not easy opponents. He was an extremely powerful prodigy that had cultivated multiple Paths.

His name was Taldor Hernandez and he was a Seven-Power Caelum Ancestral God. Seeing his disciple in shambles from the lightning punishment, Taldor's blood boiled. He replied, "As your master, I'll definitely avenge you."

Taldor slowly walked toward the South Heaven Gate. As he approached, the Heavenly Court Army rushed toward the South Heaven Gate. The fully-armed soldiers stared at Taldor warily.

A general commanded, "Don't let him through!"

As soon as he delivered his order, the soldiers charged at the middle-aged man with their weapons. Taldor remained calm as he summoned a long sword. He violently swung his sword, and a bright Sword Energy flew out, instantly killing the soldiers rushing toward him.

The Heavenly Court Army was no match against a Seven-Power Caelum Ancestral God.

Jacopo's face grew grim as he watched the battle unfold outside the South Heaven Gate from inside of Cumulus Palace.

"Your Majesty, let's try to settle this peacefully."

Connor, one of the Four Heavenly Lords, persuaded. "He's a Caelum Ancestral God and has incredible strength. He's practically invincible here. No one from the Heavenly Court can fight him."

"Settle it peacefully?" Another of the Four Heavenly Lords, Walganus, also known as Hilarius, stepped forward and said, "Countless powerhouses from other universes have come to the Twelfth Universe recently. If we compromise today, then the Human Race will eventually be tormented by them. We must take this Caelum Ancestral God down at all costs."

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3765-After the Elysian Seal was lifted, Jacopo went into seclusion for a while to perfect his Path.

He was extremely powerful.

However, no one in the Heavenly Court knew his cultivation rank.

Yohadric grabbed Jacopo's shoulders and tried to pull him off the seat. No matter how much strength he exerted, Jacopo did not even budge an inch.

Jacopo gently moved his shoulder. A powerful force manifested and knocked Yohadric away. Yohadric was blasted away, slammed into the ground, and spat out a mouthful of blood.

Jacopo tidied his messed up sleeve, looked at Taldor in the main hall, and said coldly, "I don't care what universe you're from, but you're currently in the Twelfth Universe. Even if you're a Caleum Ancestral God, we still have a Macrocosm Ancestral God with us. Turn back, this is our final warning."

As the Human Race's Lord, Jacopo could enjoy the luck the Twelfth Universe was blessed with. Thus, he had access to a lot of information.

During the Primeval Age, the Human Race tried to go against the Heavenly Path.

After the Elysian Seal was lifted, he learned that the person behind the Heavenly Path was a Macrocosm Ancestral God who was also their Universe Lord. This person was an existence that surpassed everything in the universe.

"I see you aren't as weak as you seem."

Taldor stared at Jacopo. He could sense the terrifying power hidden within Jacopo's body, and he also learned that Jacopo, too, was a Caleum Ancestral God. He could not identify how many Paths Jacopo had cultivated. Despite that, he was confident he could best Jacopo.

"I'll take you on."

After speaking, a dreadful aura erupted from his body.

Jacopo also slowly stood up.

"Your Majesty! You're of nobility. How could we let you participate in combat?!"

At that moment, an airy voice came from outside the hall.

"If you want to fight His Majesty, you must get through me first!"

Taldor turned toward the voice.

Two women walked into the main hall.

"Melinda!"

“She’s finally here! Everything’s fine now.”

“She was already an Ancestral God before the Elysian Seal was lifted and it’s already been over an Epoch. She must’ve grown even stronger since then.”

Seeing the approaching woman, many powerhouses of the Heavenly Court were relieved. They were all familiar with Melinda. However, they did not recognize the woman accompanying Melinda.

“Winnie?”

Sophie was taken aback after identifying the woman following behind Melinda. She knew about Winnie. When James fought the Heaven’s Adjudicators, Winnie showed up at the final stretch and joined him in battle. Ultimately, she destroyed humanity’s enemies and played a crucial part in ending the Forth Calamity. However, that was the last time she was seen.

Sophie never expected Winnie to reappear after more than an Epoch.

Yaraka also looked at Winnie in shock. Then, she quickly walked over and asked. “Is that really you, Winnie?”

Jacopo was also stunned. He knew he had another sister but he had never met her before. With hesitant words, he asked. “Are you really my sister, Winnie?”

Winnie looked at Jacopo and beamed sweetly. She replied, “I wasn’t expecting you to have become Lord of the Heavenly Court and the Human Race. If our parents knew about this, they would’ve definitely been proud of you.”

“Are you guys done chatting?”

Taldor roared furiously, “It doesn’t matter who I must fight. I’ll destroy the Heavenly Court today!”

“Arrogant.”

Winnie’s face darkened. She flicked her wrist, and law fragments appeared, forming into a scythe. At that moment, she looked like a domineering empress.

“Wh-What?”

Taldor was startled after sensing her aura.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3766-A Special Scythe of Judgment was formed in Winnie, which brought her back to the Primeval Age. After travelling back in time, Winnie was made into the Macrocosm Ancestral God, Hadad's, disciple.

Had Hadad not been overthrown and the Primeval Age not been destroyed, Winnie would have become the leader of Heaven's Adjudicators. She would have become one of the most influential people in the universe.

However, Hadad was killed. After she became an Ancestral God, Radomir requested that she continue being one of Heaven's Adjudicators. However, she turned him down and chose to seal herself away. She sealed herself in a palace and instead of cultivating, she fell into a deep slumber.

During the Apocalypse Age, she broke her seal and used her Scythe of Judgement to kill the last of the Heaven's Adjudicators. Due to her actions, she was punished by the Heavenly Path. After being sealed away by the Heavenly Path, she began to cultivate in seclusion. Even when the Elysian Seal was lifted, she wholeheartedly immersed herself in improving her cultivation base.

Winnie was particularly talented. With the Special Scythe of Judgement, her cultivation rank had risen to the peak of the Caelum Ancestral God Rank. Moreover, she had surpassed the Heavenly Path's limit and cultivated ten Paths. She was a Ten-Path Caelum Ancestral God with a Scythe of Judgement and was practically invincible as long as she did not face off against a Macrocosm Ancestral God.

Taldor immediately sensed a terrifying power emanating from Winnie after she brought out the Scythe of Judgement. He was terrified by her unspeakable strength.

He thought to himself, 'This girl is insane. If I create a fuss here, I might actually end up dead today. I should leave as soon as possible. I wasn't expecting such a potent cultivator to exist in the Twelfth Universe.'

Taldor decided to flee.

"Apologies for our indiscretions."

He clasped his fist, pulled Yohadric away, and left Cumulus Palace.

Winnie casually waved her hand, and Walganus, who was pinned to the wall by Taldor's Sword Energy was freed. He slid down to the ground, landed firmly, and glanced at the wound on his chest.

He turned his pale face toward Winnie and Melida, clasped his fists, and said, "Thanks for the help."

Winnie gently raised her hand in response.

Jacopo walked down from the highest seat, stood in front of Winnie, and intently scrutinized her up and down.

"Are you my eldest sister, Winnie?"

Winnie nodded with a smile and replied, "Yes. I'm Winnie."

Jacopo was delighted to finally meet his sister. He turned to the powerhouses in the hall and said, "Alright, everyone's dismissed."

The powerhouses left the main hall.

"You're back, Winnie!" Henry also walked over to her.

Winnie looked at Henry, smiled, and said, "Uncle Henry."

Henry was overwhelmed with emotions. He said, "I never expected you to become so strong. If James could see you, he'd surely be happy. I wonder how he is doing in the Primeval Age."

As he spoke, he cast a glance at Winnie and Melinda. Henry was fully aware of the information surrounding these two. Melinda was a human from the Primeval Age and reincarnated using the Reincarnation Pond.

"Ms. Melinda, you reincarnated from the Primeval Age and still have your memories after coming out of the Reincarnation Pond, right? What did James go through in the Primeval Age? Did he manage to find Thea?"

Henry had tried to inquire about these things before. However, Melinda always refused to answer him. Hearing Henry's questions about James again, Melinda's expression became solemn, and a touch of sadness flashed across her pretty face.

Sensing that something was wrong, Jacopo asked, "What's the matter?"

Melinda sighed.

"It's been over an Epoch since James went to the Primeval Age. That's about five billion years already. I don't want to hide the truth from everyone anymore. The truth is that James died in a battle during the Primeval Age."

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3767-Melinda did not want to reminisce about the past.

“Huh?” Jacopo exclaimed in shock

Henry also inquired, “What do you mean he died in battle?”

Melinda no longer hid the truth from them and spoke about what took place in the Primeval Age in detail. Everyone in the main hall was immediately overcome with grief.

Melinda sighed and said sadly, “It’s been a long time since it happened, and I still don’t want to believe he is dead. When I emerged from the Reincarnation Pond, I wanted to prevent him from returning to the Primeval Age. However, the Primeval Age’s chronology was already set in stone. If I were to stop him from traveling to the past, the River of Time would collapse, and everything would cease to exist. I can’t bear the consequences of doing such a thing.”

Melinda remembered James’ promise to marry her when he became an Ancestral God and kept it in her heart this whole time. However, James went to the Thirteenth Universe and returned a cold corpse.

Winnie knew that James was still alive but had not shown up yet. Despite that, she silently stood aside and held her tongue.

“James.”

Henry looked at the glowing sky outside the hall with a sorrowful expression. Meanwhile, Jacopo was crestfallen. His father had always been his motivation. After learning of James’ death, he seemed to lose his spiritual support.

However, Sophie did not believe James was dead. She asked, “Are you sure he’s dead?”

Melinda nodded lightly and said, “I’m sure of it. He died before Radomir’s rebellion. Winnie, Henrik, and I personally buried him.”

“Can you tell me what my father experienced in the Primeval Age?” asked Jacopo.

Melinda dug up her distant memories. After a while, she said slowly, “I first met him in the Katun Realm. Back then, a Scared Blossom was in full bloom. I went there to see it.

“He knew my name the first time we met. He also knew Winnie was in Mount Heavenly Path. I was baffled by this behavior and only realized after I was reincarnated. He already knew me but from the Apocalypse Age.

“When he first traveled to the Primeval Age, he was really weak compared to the others in that era.

“He offended my brother because of Thea. My brother hunted him down for ten thousand years. He kept improving his strength during those ten thousand years and became a well-known powerhouse.

“Eventually, a new universe formed.

“James was sent to the new universe on behalf of the Twelfth Universe. He fought fierce battles against the other universes’ prodigies there.

“I heard from Henrik that James entered a Killing Formation and fought nine Terra Ancestral Gods from the First Universe.

“His opponents were Terra Ancestral Gods that had cultivated nine Paths and wielded Chaotic Treasures. In that battle, James killed a few of them and seriously injured the rest, crippling them. However, he exhausted all his strength and died.”

Melinda parted her lips and spoke wistfully of the past. These historical events were not recorded. Therefore, almost no one in the Twelfth Universe knew about this period of history. However, these events were remembered by the other universes.

In their historical records, James was the most terrifying prodigy to have ever existed in the Twelfth Universe. If given the time to grow, he would have surpassed even a Nine-Power Macrocosm Ancestral God and entered an unprecedented rank.

Unfortunately, he died very young. Hearing Melinda’s stories, everyone related to James in the hall fell silent. They never expected James to endure so many hardships in the Primeval Age.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3768-The First Universe was the first to ever form in the Chaos. They existed for a long time and were supposed to have met to their end. However, the First Universe’s powerhouses merged the Thirteenth Universe with the First Universe, extending its lifespan, and enhancing their Heavenly Path’s law.

At that moment, a man was seated in the highest seat inside a certain hall in the First Universe. He wore a plain robe and did not exude a particularly strong aura, which made him seem like an ordinary human.

Swoosh!

A light flickered before him and formed into a man.

After appearing in the hall, the man immediately spat out a mouthful of blood and fell to the ground. The man sitting in the hall snapped out of his thoughts. He looked at the person that appeared in the hall in surprise and asked, "What's wrong? Did something happen?"

The man that appeared in the hall was none other than Yermolai, whom James injured in the Twelfth Universe. Yermolai's face was pale. He withstood the pain from his injuries and stood up from the ground.

"Master, I was injured in the Chaos outside the Twelfth Universe."

The person sitting in the highest seat was the First Universe's Lord, also known as the Omnipotent Lord. The Omnipotent Lord asked doubtfully, "Who dares to injure you? Is there a Macrocosm Ancestral God in the Twelfth Universe that doesn't know your name? Even if they don't know you, did you not tell them I'm your Master?"

Yermolai said truthfully, "I did. If I hadn't, I might've died in the Chaos outside the Twelfth Universe."

"What exactly happened?" asked the Omnipotent Lord.

Yermolai explained everything in detail.

"Back when I set up a trap to kill James in the Thirteenth Universe, he had a companion named Henrik. I met this man in the Twelfth Universe. He had already reached the peak of the Caleum Ancestral God Rank and even cultivated ten Paths.

"I wanted to kill Henrik in the Chaos. When I was about to finish him off, a mysterious powerhouse appeared and defeated me in one blow."

The Omnipotent Lord asked, "What's his name?"

Yermolai replied, "He claimed to be called Forty-nine."

"Forty-nine?"

Puzzled, the Omnipotent Lord murmured, "When did a Macrocosm Ancestral God called Forty-nine exist in the Twelfth Universe?"

After a while, he asked, "Did he mention which universe he was from?"

Yermolai shook his head and said, "No. He only warned me not to cause trouble in the Twelfth Universe. Otherwise, he would kill me without any mercy."

The Omnipotent Lord lightly waved his hand and said, "Alright. I got it. You're dismissed. Go treat your wounds."

“Forty-nine from the Twelfth Universe? Interesting. I never expected someone from the Twelfth Universe to silently become a Macrocosm Ancestral God. It seems the Twelfth Universe’s Lord made the right decision. He suppressed the Heavenly Path and allowed their universe’s luck to accumulate.” The Omnipotent Lord mumbled to himself. Then, he got up and headed toward a special place in the Twelfth Universe.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3769-A man and woman walked side-by-side on the winding path around a manor on a spiritual mountain.

The man was the Omnipotent Lord. The woman was beautiful and had a slender figure. She wore a white dress and radiated an indomitable aura.

“What do you think about the current situation, Mirabelle?” asked the Omnipotent Lord.

The woman stopped and asked, “Are you referring to the Dark World or the Twelfth Universe?”

The Omnipotent Lord replied, “Both. Tell me your thoughts.”

Mirabelle thought briefly and said, “Then, I’ll give you my opinion on the Dark World first. Every once in a while, strife will break out in the Dark World and affect the Illuminated World. Usually, these squabbles wouldn’t stir up too much chaos. However, the Dark Strife happened right after the Eighth Universe formed.

“Most of the Dark World’s Lords died during the Dark Strife, and the rest were injured. The Dark World suffered huge losses back then.”

The Omnipotent Lord sighed and said, “Yeah. That battle was horrific. I could feel its aftermath even from the Illuminated World. It’s already been so long since, so the Dark World should’ve already recovered by now.”

Mirabelle nodded lightly and said, “I heard that a lot of abnormal events are happening in the Dark World recently. A Lord had risen there. He killed many other Lords and conquered a lot of territories. He is terrifyingly strong, and there’s rumors he is an Eighth Stage Lord. It won’t be long before he becomes a Ninth Stage Lord.”

“Is that so?”

The Omnipotent Lord was startled. It had been a while since he kept up with the Dark World’s affairs. He was unaware that a new Eighth Stage Lord had risen in the Dark World.

Mirabelle said, "The Dark World has always been hostile toward the Illuminated World. As such, my subordinates aren't able to acquire more information. They could only glean the barest of details. Apparently, the new Lord is a woman and is somehow related to the Twelfth Universe. However, we couldn't find out what connection she had with them."

"The Twelfth Universe again?" frowned the Omnipotent Lord.

Mirabelle glanced at him and asked, "What's wrong?"

The Omnipotent Lord said, "Yermolai went to the Twelfth Universe but was injured by a mysterious Macrocosm Ancestral God named Forty-nine."

Surprised, Mirabelle said, "Yermolai has cultivated ten Paths and is a Ten-Power Macrocosm Ancestral God. His strength should be on par with a Macrocosm Ancestral God with two Macrocosm Powers. Is there a Two-Power Macrocosm Ancestral God in the Twelfth Universe?"

The Omnipotent Lord shook his head, unsure of the answer.

"The Dark World is in constant turmoil, and the Twelfth Universe has already developed into a prosperous universe. I have the feeling a Nine-Power Macrocosm Ancestral God will be born in the Twelfth Universe if they are allowed to continue to grow. Merging the Twelfth Universe with ours would become incredibly tough. If a Nine-Power Macrocosm Ancestral God were to object to our idea, the situation would grow more complicated."

Mirabelle asked, "Then what are you planning?"

The Omnipotent Lord said, "I plan to reform the Twelfth Universe soon. First, I'll destroy the Macrocosm Ancestral Gods that opposed the universe's unification in the past. If I can't kill them, I'll have to find a way to force them to agree with it."

"An ultimate Heavenly Path can only be born after the twelve universes are merged together. Only then can one surpass the Macrocosm Ancestral God Rank and enter a higher cultivation rank."

The Omnipotent Lord had raised the proposal to merge the twelve universes several times but it was always met with rejection.

Mirabelle frowned and said, "Many powerhouses among the twelve universes are against the idea. Will it be possible for you to kill them all? That's going to cause a huge commotion. If these universes band together, we might be unable to repel them."

The Omnipotent Lord said, "That's why we need to be quick. We must strike and take control over their universes before they can react."

“I’ll leave the decision to you.” Mirabelle did not object to his suggestion.

“Since you’ve given me your approval, I’ll quickly summon the First Universe’s Macrocosm Ancestral Gods and formulate a plan to unite all the twelve universes.”

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3770-A Thirteenth Universe formed in the Chaos. However, it was forcibly absorbed into the First Universe.

Every universe had absolute laws. Theoretically, only nine Macrocosm Ancestral Gods could be born in one universe.

As the oldest universe to exist, the First Universe had already reached the maximum capacity of Macrocosm Ancestral Gods that could exist in their universe. However, they merged the Thirteenth Universe with theirs, and more powerhouses broke into the Macrocosm Ancestral God Rank.”

The Omnipotent Lord had repeatedly proposed for all twelve universes to be merged. However, his proposal had been rejected over and over. This time, he was determined to merge the twelve universes to form a Supreme Universe. Once he formed a Super Universe, the limits placed on their universes would be broken.

A meeting was being held in the First Universe’s Ancestral Holy Site.

The Ancestral Holy Site was the First Universe’s core region and the Omnipotent Lord’s residence.

Inside a large hall within the Ancestral Holy Site, the Omnipotent Lord sat in the highest seat, and the First Universe’s Macrocosm Ancestral Gods stood below him. The First Universe had 13 Macrocosm Ancestral Gods, but Yermolai was absent from the meeting.

Two women were in the hall, one of which was Mirabelle, whom the Omnipotent Lord had recently visited. The other woman was dainty and charming. She radiated a very ethereal aura and looked like a blooming flower that attracted everyone’s attraction.

Her name was Quanesha Samara.

She was born in the Thirteenth Universe. During the Primeval Age, she obtained a Chaotic Treasure and obtained a portion of the Thirteenth Universe’s blessings. After that, she became James’ disciple and studied the Five Great Paths.

When the Thirteenth Universe was merged into the First Universe, she improved rapidly and became a Macrocosm Ancestral God.

The Omnipotent Lord sat in the highest seat, looked at the twelve Macrocosm Ancestral Gods below him, and said, "The reason I've summoned everyone today is to discuss the merging of the twelve universes."

Hearing this, Quanesha's brows furrowed. She knew the Omnipotent Lord's plan to merge the twelve universes. Throughout the First Universe's history, he had raised the idea a few times and even summoned the other universes' Macrocosm Ancestral Gods to the First Universe to discuss the matter. However, he never succeeded in persuading them.

The Omnipotent Lord said, "The Dark World has always been a massive threat to the Illuminated World. Conflict happens very frequently in the Dark World, and they have also launched a number of attacks on the twelve universes in the past.

"I just learned that a powerful Lord has risen in the Dark World. She is rumored to be very strong. At this rate, she will become a Nine-Stage Lord very soon. She will pose a great threat to our universe. I suggest merging the twelve universes to eliminate this possible threat by becoming a Supreme Universe. We'll be able to form a Super Heavenly Path and break through the restrictions from our respective universes."

The Omnipotent Lord looked at the Macrocosm Ancestral Gods in the hall and asked. "What do you guys think?"

"I support whatever decision you make, My Lord."

"You make the call, My Lord. If you need us for anything, just let us know."

"We should've merged the universes a long time ago. However, the other universes' Macrocosm Ancestral Gods were against the idea. I suggest getting rid of whoever opposes this plan. Although it will greatly affect the twelve universes' strength, more powerhouses will appear after we create a Supreme Universe. It wouldn't be hard for more Macrocosm Ancestral Gods to rise."

The First Universes' Macrocosm Ancestral Gods began to express their opinions.

To ensure their plan was executed flawlessly, the Omnipotent Lord summoned his universe's Macrocosm Ancestral Gods to formulate a detailed plan.

After deliberating for a long time, the First Universe decided to send their powerhouses to the other universes all at once to persuade their respective Macrocosm Ancestral Gods and Universe Lords.

They also prepared a backup plan. If they could not persuade them to agree to the union, they would secretly kill those that opposed the idea.
