The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3781-Mirabelle looked at the Omnipotent Lord and asked, "Oh? What's the matter?"

The Omnipotent Lord sat down and said, "I just received news that Santino from the Sixth Universe headed to the Twelfth Universe but was killed in the Chaos outside of the Twelfth Universe. According to reliable sources, the person that killed Santino is called Forty-nine and is most likely from the Twelfth Universe."

Mirabelle exclaimed, "He was killed?"

It was hard for her to believe Santino, a Three-Power Macrocosm Ancestral God, was killed by someone from the Twelfth Universe.

The Omnipotent Lord replied solemnly, "Yeah. The Twelfth Universe has always been the weakest, so we never paid them much attention. I didn't expect a powerhouse to be born in the Twelfth Universe. According to those who witnessed the battle, Forty-nine killed Santino without using a Chaotic Treasure. Thus, it can be assumed his strength is at least equivalent to a Five-Power Macrocosm Ancestral God."

The Omnipotent Lord had roughly evaluated James' strength.

He estimated James' strength to be similar to that of a Five-Power Macrocosm Ancestral God.

Mirabelle looked at the Omnipotent Lord and asked, "What should we do now?"

The Omnipotent Lord replied, "We must be cautious with such a powerhouse. How about you head to the Twelfth Universe and discuss the merging of the twelve universes with him? If he refuses, kill him. However, if he agrees, invite him to the First Universe to discuss the matter."

Mirabelle nodded and said, "Alright."

The Omnipotent Lord said, "Only two or three universes haven't agreed to merge with us. I'll take care of it. Meanwhile, you help me take care of the Twelfth Universe. I'll wait for your good news. We can't delay this matter, so you should depart immediately."

"Okay."

Mirabelle stood up and left without any hesitation.

James was unaware that other universes were in turmoil.

The Ninth Universe and Tenth Universe were against merging universes.

Kallinikos and Yekaterina knew that the Omnipotent Lord would become the ruler of the newly merged universe and be in total control.

When that happened, it would be impossible for them to prevent the Omnipotent Lord from doing whatever he wanted.

Thus, they rejected the proposal to merge.

However, turmoil began to break out in their universe after they turned down the proposal. Their Macrocosm Ancestral Gods were attacked. Although they survived, many of them sustained severe injuries. Meanwhile, a few of their Ancestral Gods were killed.

Kallinikos and Yekaterina had a tough time dealing with these matters.

The two immediately headed to meet the other Universe Lords to discuss countermeasures.

Unfortunately, the other universes had already agreed to merge with the First Universe.

After careful consideration, the two also agreed to it.

Otherwise, the other universes would merge and become increasingly stronger. It would be disastrous for the Ninth and Tenth Universe if they were to take action against them.

All major universes agreed to merge and would visit the First Universe to discuss the plan.

Only the Twelfth Universe remained undecided.

Mirabelle, a peerless powerhouse of the First Universe, appeared in the Twelfth Universe.

She floated in the starry sky of the Twelfth Universe and scanned the place. After sensing the stability of the Twelfth Universe's Heavenly Path, she was slightly surprised and murmured, "The Twelfth Universe's Lord's strength is mediocre, but he had a great strategy. After suppressing the Heavenly Path for a long time, he created a prosperous era for the Twelfth Universe."

Mirabelle murmured, "Where are you, Forty-nine?"

Since she could not detect his whereabouts, she planned to release her energy for him to find her.

Mirabelle stood in the starry space and exuded the energy of a Macrocosm Ancestral God, allowing it to spread throughout the universe.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3782-Mirabelle was a core figure of the First Universe.

She was born in the same period as the Omnipotent Lord, and her strength was terrifying. In the First Universe, only the Omnipotent Lord was slightly stronger than her.

However, she could only sense one Macrocosm Ancestral God in the Twelfth Universe. The person she was sensing was the Twelfth Universe's Lord, Radomir. Forty-nine, on the other hand, was nowhere to be found.

She was very puzzled.

Her only choice was to release her energy for Forty-nine to take notice of her. She believed Forty-nine would definitely show up as long as she spread her energy.

Radomir was alerted as soon as she released her aura throughout the universe.

However, he did not show up.

Although he was the Twelfth Universe's Lord, there was an even more powerful person than him in the Twelfth Universe.

While James was focused on cultivating to find a new path, he suddenly sensed a powerful force sweeping through the air. He immediately stopped cultivating and looked into the distance. His gaze traveled through the universe's space, and he spotted a mysterious woman in the depths of the universe.

He immediately disappeared and appeared in the depths of the universe.

A beautiful, sexy woman stood in the silent space.

James silently appeared and stared at Mirabelle.

Mirabelle's gaze was also fixated on him. She tried to see through him but could not sense James' cultivation rank despite being a peerless powerhouse.

James looked at Mirabelle and asked calmly, "Who are you? What matters do you have in the Twelfth Universe?"

After failing to see through James' cultivation rank, Mirabelle immediately knew the person in front of her was Forty-nine, the mysterious person that killed Santino.

Mirabelle had fair skin and delicate features. She beamed with a beautiful smile and asked, "You must be Forty-nine, right? My name is Mirabelle. I'm from the First Universe."

Her voice was pleasant and very refreshing.

James immediately went on guard after hearing she was from the First Universe.

However, Mirabelle smiled and said, "You don't have to be so nervous. I have no malicious intentions. If I wanted to fight you, I would've attacked as soon as you showed up. Why would I waste time chatting with you?"

Despite her words, James remained alert.

He watched Mirabelle's every move and asked, "The Twelfth Universe doesn't have much contact with the First Universe. So, what brings you to the Twelfth Universe?"

"Naturally, it's something important."

James immediately knew Mirabelle came to discuss the merging of the universes.

He asked calmly, "Let's hear about it."

Mirabelle did not hide anything and said truthfully, "I'm here to talk about merging the twelve universes. The other universes have already agreed to it. If you agree, the twelve universes will merge to form a Super Universe and Super Heavenly Path. As a result, our Heavenly Path's restrictions will be broken."

Mirabelle began to lay out the benefits of merging their universes.

She also talked about the Dark World and its threat against the twelve universes.

Mirabelle was very good with her words, and even James was slightly convinced by her words.

However, James did not completely believe her.

"It won't be impossible for us to agree. However, how will the management distribution be after we merge into a new universe?"

Mirabelle casually waved her hand, and an invitation emerged and flew toward James.

"Naturally, we will have a conference to discuss these things. Here's an invitation to the First Universe to the conference. If you have any questions, you can bring them up during the conference."

James looked at the invitation in his hand.

The time and venue of the conference were listed on the invitation.

The conference would take place ten thousand years later.

Seeing the invitation, James knew the First Universe had already planned everything as they had arranged the conference time in advance. Since he received an invitation, the other universes must have also agreed to merge.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3783-James put away the invitation and said, "Alright. I'll definitely come to the First Universe to attend the conference in ten thousand years."

Mirabelle walked toward James with a bright smile. However, James slowly backed away from her.

The woman before him was terrifyingly strong. Although she looked beautiful and harmless, like a goddess, the aura emanating from her made him wary.

"You don't have to be so nervous. I've never visited the Twelfth Universe before. Now that I'm here, how about you show me around the Twelfth Universe?"

Mirabelle showed no intentions of leaving anytime soon.

She wanted to stay to learn more about Forty-nine and how he reached such a high cultivation rank while staying under the First Universe's radar.

James was full of mysteries.

However, James turned her down, saying, "I still have some other business to attend to right now. I don't have the time to accompany you on a stroll. You can check out the place yourself if you're interested in the Twelfth Universe. I won't accompany you."

After speaking, James turned around to leave.

Mirabelle appeared in front of him in a flash and blocked his path.

She reprimanded him, "You're so cruel."

Although she was complaining, she spoke very coquettishly.

"I just want to have a look around the Twelfth Universe. I don't know anyone here. If you don't show me around, I must release my energy to find my way. What if I lose control of my energy? It might shatter a few worlds in the Twelfth Universe, don't you think?"

"You're trying to threaten me?" James' face darkened.

Mirabelle said smilingly, "Of course not. Can't you see that it's just an excuse? I'm more interested in you."

Every word and move she made was full of temptation.

As soon as they met, she had been seducing James.

James also sensed a unique Path from her. Mirabelle was using the Seduction Path. Ordinary cultivators would never be able to withstand her Seductive Power and would have fallen for her.

However, James cultivated an exceptional power that surpassed all other kinds of power. He easily resisted the Seduction Power coming from Mirabelle.

James quietly looked at Mirabelle. After thinking for a while, he formulated a plan.

He asked, "What do you want to know?"

Mirabelle smiled and said, "I'd like to know who you are and the Paths you cultivate. Also, why can't I sense your cultivation rank? When I use my Divine Sense, I can only feel emptiness from you. It seems like you don't even exist."

James knew Mirabelle would ask these questions.

Instead of answering, he asked, "You're a powerhouse from the First Universe. Do you remember back when there were only eight universes? Before the ninth universe, a Dark Strife broke out in the Dark World."

Mirabelle's smile immediately froze upon hearing his word.

As a powerhouse of the First Universe, she was well aware of these events.

Back then, she could sense the energy fluctuation in the Dark World from the First Universe.

She looked at James and asked, "What about it?"

James said slowly, "During that Dark Strife, a powerhouse severely injured three hundred Ninth Stage Lords of the Dark World."

Mirabelle knew about the Dark Strife but was not clear on the details. After all, the Illuminated World and Dark World were in conflict. Thus, they did not know much about the Dark World.

Hearing James' words, her expression became increasingly solemn.

'Three hundred Ninth Stage Lords? Did the Dark World have so many powerful creatures in the past?' thought Mirabelle.

She returned to her senses and stared at James.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3784-After hearing James mention the Dark Strife, Mirabelle was slightly confused.

However, she suddenly caught on that James was trying to hint he had something to do with it.

James asked casually, "Have you heard of Yukia?"

He had two purposes. One, he wanted to learn more about Yukia. He knew Yukia was definitely not from the Twelfth Universe. Thus, she had to be from another universe.

From the timeline, she was most likely from a universe before the ninth.

Mirabelle was from the First Universe. If Yukia had been to the other universes, Mirabelle should know about her.

Secondly, he was trying to confuse the First Universe.

"Yukia?"

Mirabelle briefly searched her memories. Then, she shook her head and said, "I've never heard of her before."

James explained, "During the Dark Strife, Yukia inflicted severe injuries on three hundred Ninth Stage Lords."

Mirabelle stared at James and asked, "Who is she?"

James smiled lightly and replied, "She's my master."

He tried to bluff her.

In fact, it was not really a lie. Although he had never seen Yukia before, he walked the exact journey Yukia had planned for him. It was not his abilities that allowed him to cultivate sixteen Paths. Instead, Yukia paved the way for him, and he simply followed her arrangements.

Mirabelle had a solemn expression.

She was from the First Universe and was well-informed. However, she never heard of Yukia before.

‘What kind of strength does this woman have to injure three hundred Ninth Stage Lords? Also, are there really so many powerhouses in the Dark World? It seems we’ll have to reevaluate the Dark World’s strength,’ thought Mirabelle.

Mirabelle planned to investigate the Dark World after returning to the First Universe. She wanted to send people to infiltrate the depths of the Dark World and learn more about the Dark World. She also wanted to verify whether a powerhouse really injured three hundred Ninth Stage Lords during the Dark Strife.

‘If he’s telling the truth, then Yukia must’ve reached a terrifying height in cultivation.

‘Could she have already surpassed the Macrocosm Ancestral God Rank and entered an unknown rank?’ thought Mirabelle.

James was satisfied upon seeing Mirabelle’s solemn expression. She was indeed frightened by his words, and he had successfully laid the groundwork for him to negotiate in the coming conference.

When the time came, he could try to win more benefits for the Twelfth Universe.

“Is there anything else you’d like to ask?” asked James.

Mirabelle returned to her senses and asked, “I’d also like to know the Path you practice.”

James beamed with a bright smile and asked, “Have you heard of the Omniscience Path?”

Mirabelle nodded and said, “Yeah. But it’s a dead end after reaching the Third Stage.”

James smiled faintly and immediately entered the Omniscience Path’s Fourth Stage.

“What?”

Mirabelle was surprised as she sensed James’ aura change after he entered the Omniscience Path’s Fourth Stage.

James said smilingly, "The Omniscience Path is known to be a dead end at the Third Stage. Since ancient times, no one has ever surpassed the Third Stage. However, what I'm showing you is the Omniscience Path's Fourth Stage.

"I practice the Omniscience Path and have already reached the Eighth Stage. I suppose my strength should be equivalent to a Nine-Power Macrocosm Ancestral God. After I reach the Ninth Stage, I will go beyond the Macrocosm Ancestral God Rank and enter an unprecedented rank."

James calmly lied through his teeth to the point he almost believed his lies.
