

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3785

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3785-Mirabelle believed James' lies. After all, he indeed demonstrated terrifying strength.

It was impossible for an ordinary person to have easily killed a Three-Power Macrocosm Ancestral God that wielded a Chaotic Treasure.

Moreover, James had entered the Omniscience Path's Fourth Stage, which surpassed her knowledge of the Omniscience Path.

"I wasn't expecting you to have cultivated the Omniscience Path. Many people have tried cultivating the Omniscience Path, but no one has ever gone beyond the Third Stage. How did you do it?"

Mirabelle stared at James curiously, hoping to be enlightened.

"If you have nothing else to do here, please leave. I'll be sure to attend the conference in the First Universe's Ancestral Holy Site in ten thousand years."

James chased her away from the Twelfth Universe.

"Then, I'll see you in the First Universe."

Mirabelle did not say anything more.

She already had the answers to her questions. Thus, she did not need to continue staying in the Twelfth Universe.

James watched as Mirabelle disappeared. After she was gone, he smiled faintly.

His physical condition was very convenient. He could easily bluff others since no one could sense his cultivation rank. Soon, the news about his strength would spread throughout the twelve universes.

When he traveled to the other universes, their Macrocosm Ancestral Gods would have to think twice about trying to fight him.

Even the Omnipotent Lord would be cautious about taking action against him.

James had bought himself some time.

Perhaps he could really reach the Omniscience Path's Eighth or Ninth Stage soon. He might even surpass a Nine-Power Macrocosm Ancestral God and enter an unprecedented rank.

The future was full of uncertainty.

As soon as Mirabelle left, Radomir appeared in front of James. He clasped his hands and asked, "Who was it, Sir?"

James looked at him and replied, "It was a powerhouse from the First Universe. She came to hand me an invitation to attend a conference about the merging of the universes that will take place in the First Universe in ten thousand years."

"Did you agree to the merging proposal?" asked Radomir.

"Of course I did. Why wouldn't I? There's no harm in merging our universes. After the twelve universes merge, our Heavenly Path will strengthen, and the restrictions will be broken. When that happens, maybe we can cultivate more than nine Paths."

James had no objections to merging universes since there were many benefits.

Moreover, his cultivation had come to a dead end. He hoped to find a new breakthrough after the twelve universes merged.

Radomir said solemnly, "A new Heavenly Path that will allow us to break through the limits? It might allow one to even go beyond a Nine-Power Macrocosm Ancestral God. What if the Omnipotent Lord steps into this new rank after we merge with them? If that were to happen, who could stand against him?"

"The Omnipotent Lord is an ambitious man. No one really knows his ultimate goal of doing all this."

James thought awhile and said, "Everything has pros and cons. Your concerns won't be a problem in the future. If he can make a breakthrough, I'm sure the other universes' Macrocosm Ancestral Gods will also improve. Whoever becomes the first to enter an unprecedented rank will depend on their individual potential and fate.

“As for who can seize the position as the lord of the new universe will also depend on strength. The Omnipotent Lord might not necessarily be capable of securing the position as the new universe’s lord after the merging all of our universes.”

Radomir was relieved by James’ words.

“I’m at ease with you helping me. Regardless of whether the universes merge, I’m relying on you to protect the Twelfth Universe and our people.”

“Alright. You should head back first.”

James waved his hand and said, “Continue looking over the Twelfth Universe. After I’ve made some arrangements, I’ll depart to the First Universe to attend the conference.”

“Alright.”

Radomir did not stay any longer. He clasped his hands and disappeared from James’ sight.

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3786

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3786-James had received Mirabelle’s invitation from the First Universe. He still had ten thousand years before the conference. That was plenty of time.

James returned to his seclusion sanctuary in the Human Realm’s Divine Dimension.

Initially, he planned to meet his family and friends before leaving for the First Universe. However, he decided not to see them yet after some deliberation. To them, he was already a dead man.

It was better they did not reunite since he would have to leave them again. It would only make them miss him even more.

Thus, James headed to meet up with Henrik instead.

Besides Radomir, Henrik was the second strongest person in the Twelfth Universe. James wanted to ask for him to look over the Twelfth Universe and maintain peace while he was gone.

Meanwhile, Mirabelle was also on her way back to the First Universe.

Although the Chaos was boundless, a powerhouse like Mirabelle could break through the time restriction when advancing at full speed.

She returned to the First Universe in no time.

Mirabelle headed to a beautiful place in the First Universe. However, she was lost in her thoughts and seemed worried.

The Omnipotent Lord sensed that Mirabelle had returned and immediately came to see her.

“How was your trip to the Twelfth Universe? Did it go well?”

Mirabelle snapped out of her thoughts. She looked at the Omnipotent Lord, pointed at a chair beside her, and said, “You should have a seat first.”

The Omnipotent Lord sat down.

Mirabelle took a deep breath and said, “Everything went smoothly. Forty-nine did not turn down our proposal and was in favor of merging the twelve universes. He accepted the invitation and promised to attend the conference. However...”

Her expression became solemn.

The Omnipotent Lord asked, “However?”

Mirabelle asked, “How much do you know about the Dark Strife in the Dark World that happened back then?”

The Omnipotent Lord shook his head lightly and said, “I don’t know much. I only know that many powerhouses participated in that fight. These powerhouses were powerful and were mostly Ninth Stage Lords.”

Mirabelle asked, “Then, do you know anything about the Dark World’s strength?”

The Omnipotent Lord looked at her and asked, “What’s wrong with you? Why do you seem like a different person after returning from the Twelfth Universe?”

Mirabelle said solemnly, “We might’ve underestimated the Dark World’s strength. After I went to the Twelfth Universe, I learned a bit about the Dark Strife. Back then, a powerhouse fought and injured three hundred Ninth Stage Lords!”

“Three hundred Ninth Stage Lords?”

Surprised, the Omnipotent Lord asked, “Are there so many powerful beings in the Dark World?”

As the First Universe’s Lord, he knew about the Dark World’s existence.

The Dark World was huge, and its size directly corresponded to the sum of all universes’ areas combined.

If a new universe were to be born, the area of the Dark World would also become larger.

The Omnipotent Lord had also been to the Dark World before and had a little bit of understanding of the place. He knew the deepest parts of the Dark World were full of powerhouses.

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3787

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3787-However, the Omnipotent Lord was unsure how many powerhouses were hidden in the depths of the Dark World.

The Omnipotent Lord asked, “How do you know these things?”

Mirabelle replied, “When I met Forty-nine at the Twelfth Universe, he told me about these events. The powerhouse that injured three hundred Ninth Stage Lords is called Yukia. He didn’t tell me what her cultivation rank was. However, she must be an existence that has already surpassed a Nine-Power Macrocosm Ancestral God.”

“Haha!” The Omnipotent Lord laughed.

“You’re an Eighth-Power Macrocosm Ancestral God, Mirabelle. Did you really just believe whatever he said? It’s impossible to go beyond a Nine-Power Macrocosm Ancestral God. I became a Nine-Power Macrocosm Ancestral God a long time ago. Truthfully, a Nine-Power Macrocosm Ancestral God is the limit. It's impossible to go beyond that. Unless we merge our universes, one can't possibly surpass a Nine-Power Macrocism Ancestral God. However, it's just a speculation of mine and isn't necessarily true."

Mirabelle asked, "Then, from your understanding, does the Omniscience Path end at the Third Stage?"

The Omnipotent Lord replied, "Yeah. It's basically a dead end at the Third Stage. It's a Path that can't be perfected."

Mirabelle said, "But Forty-nine cultivates in the Omniscience Path. I witnessed him enter the Fourth Stage. He claimed to have already reached the Eighth Stage and has the strength equivalent to a Nine-Power Macrocism Ancestral God."

"The Omniscience Path's Fourth Stage?" The Omnipotent Lord was shocked.

"Are you kidding me, Mirabelle? Did you sense it wrong?"

Mirabelle looked at him and said, "How can my senses be wrong?"

The Omnipotent Lord fell into silence.

Mirabelle said, "Perhaps somewhere in the twelve universes or even in the Dark World, people have surpassed the strength of Nine-Power Macrocism Ancestral Gods a long time ago. A mysterious powerhouse may be hiding within the Dark World.

"Maybe our understanding of the twelve universes isn't all there is to it, and there are other secrets hidden within the Chaos."

Mirabelle was greatly shaken by James' words.

She had opened up to the possibility of there being more mysteries in the twelve universes and the Dark World.

Mirabelle looked at the Omnipotent Lord and said, "It's hard to believe Forty-nine's words. However, he did enter the Omniscience Path's Fourth Stage before my eyes. Moreover, he defeated Santino with ease. I plan to send people into the depths of the Dark World to investigate the Dark Strife that happened in the past. If Forty-nine is telling the truth, there must be records about the incident in ancient books inside the Dark World.

“Also, you should send some people to inquire about Yukia throughout the twelve universes and see if we can find any clues about her.”

“Alright.” The Omnipotent Lord nodded solemnly.

There might be some secrets that they had not discovered yet if Forty-nine was being honest with Mirabelle.

The Omnipotent Lord looked at Mirabelle and asked, “Does Forty-nine really have the strength of a Nine-Power Macrocosm Ancestral God?”

Mirabelle shook her head.

“I can’t say for sure. I couldn’t sense his cultivation base. I couldn’t sense anything from him. It was like he didn’t even exist, even though he was standing right before me. I didn’t try to test his strength. Otherwise, it would’ve aroused his hostility toward me. If he opposes the merging of the universes and unites with the other universes, it would be a bigger problem for us.”

The Omnipotent Lord fell into thought.

Mirabelle said, “His strength isn’t very important. What’s crucial is his attitude toward the merging of the universes. It’s good that he isn’t against it. Also, try not to offend him. He said his master was Yukia. We might get on her bad side if we stir up conflict with him. If Yukia could easily injure three hundred Ninth Stage Lords, she could destroy all twelve universes.”

The Omnipotent Lord briefly gave it a thought and said, “We haven’t confirmed whether Yukia even exists. You should send people to inquire about it first. If possible, it’s best you personally head to the depths of the Dark World to investigate.”

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3788

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3788-James was oblivious that his words had convinced Mirabelle and the Omnipotent Lord.

To verify James’ words, Mirabelle personally headed into the Dark World to investigate these matters.

On the other hand, the Omnipotent Lord ordered his confidant to travel to the other universes to inquire about Yukia.

Meanwhile, James had already gone to the Demon Realm to meet with Henrik.

“Haha!”

After learning that James had bluffed a powerhouse of the First Universe, Henrik laughed and said, “I just found out that you’re better at lying than my master. You’re really good at it. The First Universe will surely be wary of you now.”

James said, “I devised such a plan because I’m worried the negotiation during the conference won’t go well and the First Universe will try to use force against the other universes.”

Henrik nodded and said, “It’s a good strategy. The First Universe will most likely try to investigate and verify your words. Everything you said about the Dark World is true, so there will definitely be records about my Grandmaster there. However, I’m unsure if other universes have any records about her.”

“I’m going to leave the Twelfth Universe very soon. I’m relying on you to protect the Twelfth Universe while I’m gone. As one of the Twelfth Universes’ powerhouses, you must help maintain the peace. I will try to delay the merging of the universes as much as possible so that the Twelfth Universe has enough time to grow stronger.”

Henrik vowed confidently, “Rest assured, James. You can leave the Twelfth Universe to me.

“By the way!” Henrik asked, “Who will you bring to the First Universe?”

James shook his head and said, “I’ll be going alone. After all, I’m going there to attend negotiations. If the negotiation fails, a battle might break out.”

Henrik reminded him, “Alright. Do be careful.”

James replied smilingly, “Don’t worry. With my current strength, only a handful of people can suppress me. Even if I can’t overpower them, I’ll be able to escape.”

James was fully confident in his own strength.

Henrik felt relieved by his words.

“I’m already prepared to leave. I hope you’ll become a Macrocosm Ancestral God with Macrocosm Power when I return,” said James.

Henrik replied, “I’ll work hard!”

“Alright.”

James did not say anything more.

After briefly meeting Henrik, James left the Twelfth Universe and entered the Chaos.

Then, he began to sense the Chaos’ environment. He immediately located the other universes and could sense the strength of their Heavenly Path. From their Heavenly Path’s strength, James could distinguish the universes apart.

After James located the First Universe, he began advancing through the Chaos.

James could travel at breakneck speeds.

The faster he traveled, the slower time passed. If he could reach extreme speed, he could even surpass time and cause time to stop.

James traveled through the chaos for a long time, and at least a million years passed.

However, his perception of time and reality was different. In fact, less than a day had passed.

After traveling through the Chaos for a million years, James appeared near the First Universe.

The First Universe was right ahead of him. James saw a gray area ahead of him with countless sparkling spots. He advanced and appeared outside the First Universe’s border instantly.

The sparkling spots enlarged and turned into clusters of nebulae.

Each nebula contained countless galaxies.

Inside each nebula was hundreds of millions of galaxies.

Each galaxy was massive and countless times bigger than the Twelfth Universe's Milky Way.

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3789

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3789-However, these nebulae were just a small portion of the First Universe.

In the First Universe, there were many more other nebulae.

"I've finally arrived at the First Universe.

"The First Universe's lifespan was supposed to have ended long ago. However, they fused the Thirteenth Universe into theirs and forcefully extended their lifespan. Otherwise, they would've already ceased to exist."

Standing outside the First Universe's border, James recalled some things about the Thirteenth Universe.

He stepped through the border and entered the First Universe.

James immediately unleashed his Divine Sense, which spread throughout the universe. He quickly learned that the First Universe was huge. After they merged with the Thirteenth Universe, their area became twice the size of the Twelfth Universe.

The First Universe's Heavenly Path was also very stable and strong.

James murmured, "As expected from the First Universe."

Suddenly, a few people surrounded him.

They were the Macrocosm Ancestral Gods of the First Universe. As soon as James released his Divine Sense, they sensed his presence.

The Macrocosm Ancestral Gods looked at him warily.

"What's the meaning of this?"

James asked them calmly, "I only just arrived at the First Universe, but you're going to deny me entry? Am I not welcomed? If that's the case, I'll just head back home, and we can forget discussions about the merging of universes.

“Of course not.”

A Macrocosm Ancestral God stepped forward and said smilingly, “If you don’t mind me asking, which universe are you from?”

“I’m Forty-nine from the Twelfth Universe.”

The Macrocosm Ancestral Gods were startled and slightly backed away from him.

Forty-nine from the Twelfth Universe had gone viral in every universe.

Every universe knew that Santino, a Three-Power Macrocosm Ancestral God, was killed by Forty-nine outside the Chaos of the Twelfth Universe.

“Welcome to the First Universe, Forty-nine.”

“I’ve heard a lot about you, Forty-nine.”

“We’ll take our leave first.”

After learning the visitor’s name, the Macrocosm Ancestral Gods politely welcomed him and quickly left.

Forty-nine had killed a Macrocosm Ancestral God.

There was a limit on how many Macrocosm Ancestral Gods could exist in all twelve universes. Every Macrocosm Ancestral God had endured many hardships to finally reach their rank.

Under normal circumstances, the Macrocosm Ancestral Gods of different universes would refrain from killing each other as it would cause conflict between their universes. There would be terrifying consequences if two universes were to go to war.

However, Forty-nine blatantly killed a Macrocosm Ancestral God from the Sixth Universe. He was evidently not afraid of the Sixth Universe or going to war with the Sixth Universe.

James smiled faintly after watching the Macrocosm Ancestral Gods disappear. Then, he advanced to the next nebula.

James slowly wandered through the First Universe and detected a familiar world.

It was a major planet of the Thirteenth Universe. In the past, he had cultivated there and saved many lives. James felt connected to the place.

Moreover, he accepted a disciple from this planet before.

He taught her the Five Great Paths and a few simple laws.

James murmured, “The Thirteenth Universe has already ceased to exist and has now merged with the First Universe. I wonder what happened to that disciple of mine. Did she grow stronger?”

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3790

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3790-Many large galaxies existed within the nebula, and there were at least a hundred billion inhabited planets. The planets were massive, and there were at least a trillion living beings on each of these planets.

There was a planet within this nebula that had Three Dimensions—Mortal, Sage, and Divine.

The planet used to be called the Silent Realm but was later renamed the Cassa Realm.

James stepped forward in the nebula and immediately entered a galaxy, appearing outside the Cassa Realm. Standing outside the Cassa Realm, James suddenly felt tiny, as if he was just a tiny particle.

The planet was from the Thirteenth Universe. When he entered the Thirteenth Universe in the past, he witnessed the birth of the Silent Realm by coincidence. Back then, the planet had only one dimension.

Now, it had already evolved into a major realm with three dimensions.

James did not know how it evolved into a major realm.

He stood outside the Cassa Realm puzzledly.

“After witnessing the formation of this planet, I entered a mysterious state and gained insight into the ending of this planet. It was supposed to have transformed back into laws and returned into dust in the universe. How did it evolve into a major realm?”

James fell into thought, trying to recall the planet’s formation.

The formation of the planet began with some laws that kept evolving. Ultimately, they became sequences and formed the planet.

The planet consisted of countless laws that transformed endlessly. During the process of these transformations, living beings were born. In the end, all life forms died, and the planet perished.

James closed his eyes.

At that moment, the time around him regressed rapidly to when the planet was just formed. Slowly, the place returned to nothingness. Only a few law fragments could be seen around him.

The law fragments gradually gathered, and a planet was born.

The planet developed rapidly and grew stronger. However, it began to deteriorate and perished in the end.

Everything was predestined to happen.

After the planet was destroyed, James reversed into a different time point. At this certain time point, an abnormal change happened.

After sensing the change, James immediately understood.

James murmured, “Although it was destined to perish, changes could still happen. The ending will also change once something different happens at a certain time.”

The ending of the planet changed because a powerful person appeared and rewrote its destiny.

James entered the Cassa Realm in a flash.

He entered the Cassa Realm’s Divine Dimension.

James walked through some natural scenery and came to the the Mount Snow Sect, where he had once cultivated before.

So many years had passed, and the the Mount Snow Sect had evolved from a small sect to a powerful sect. The the Mount Snow Sect occupied a vast area, and the power of heaven and earth was incredibly abundant.

It was an excellent place to cultivate.

He looked at the Mount Snow Sect and spotted the spiritual mountain he had cultivated on in the past.

The place looked the same and as if nothing had changed.

James immediately felt a sense of familiarity upon arriving at the Mount Snow Sect.

He passed through the Mount Snow Sect's protective formation and appeared on the spiritual mountain where he had cultivated in seclusion in the past.

James could even sense some of his energy left in the area.

He ascended the mountain and looked at the spot he once cultivated at.

James reminisced about everything that happened when he first came to this place. A long time had passed, and he was no longer that cultivator struggling to reach the Ancestral God Rank.

Now, he was already an existence that surpassed everyone else.

The spiritual mountain was the Mount Snow Sect's restricted area.