The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3821-As his mind stirred, he performed Elemental Inversion. The Five Great Paths in combination with Elemental Inversion formed an even more mysterious rule. This rule made the soldiers stronger, and they were able to barely resist the attacks of the surrounding Macrocosm Ancestral Gods.

“Hahaha! Eat this, Forty-nine!”

At that moment, laughter boomed.

James turned around and saw that it was Kallinikos, the Lord of the Ninth Universe, who was laughing.

Kallinikos was a few cities away from him. However, a soldier had appeared in the city he was in. Holding a sword in his hand and exuding an unparalleled aura, the soldier charged forward. In an instant, he was already in the next city and destroyed it in a second. Then, he proceeded to walk toward the next city.

Seeing this, James felt a chill down his spine. He watched the soldier closely.

At that moment, he had entered the Fourth Stage of the Omniscience Path. His aura surged, which then transformed into mysterious inscriptions. Then, these inscriptions transformed into soldiers and appeared outside his city. Upon entering the Omniscience Path, he was now able to transform everything of Heaven and Earth into rules. Under his perception, even the soldier materialized from Kallinikos became a rule.

James realized that these rules contained a terrifying Sword Path. He could sense many Paths among the Sword Path, which were absorbed by Kallinikos into the Sword Path. Not only that, James could sense a Four-Power Macrocosm Power. This must be Kallinikos' most powerful attack. A Four-Power Macrocosm Power Sword Path was extremely terrifying. Some weaker Macrocosm Ancestral Gods along the way could not even put up a fight and were expelled from the Chessboard of Heaven and Earth easily.

Seeing that Kallinikos' Four-Power Macrocosm Power Sword Path was charging toward him, James did not have any time to analyze the situation or comprehend the rule inscriptions of this soldier. If he was given sufficient time, he would surely be able to perform a similar Sword Path. However, he was out of time. At that moment, the soldier was only a city away from him. He had no choice but to deflect the attack. Otherwise, the city he was in would be destroyed, and he would be disqualified on the spot.

A Four-Power Macrocosm Power? He furrowed his eyebrows. Then, his mind stirred. He performed the Five Great Paths, forming a One-Power Macrocosm Power. He also summoned Elemental Inversion and performed a One-Power Macrocosm Power. Then, as he performed Blossoming, another One-Power Macrocosm Power was catalyzed. As these Macrocosm Powers merged, they transformed into mysterious inscriptions that merged and formed a soldier.

James was worried that he would not be able to resist Kallinikos' attack with the soldier alone. So, he summoned the Dark Path and strengthened the soldier.

At that moment, Kallinikos' soldier arrived outside James' city and clashed with James'.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3822-The two soldiers clashed. Though their Four-Power Macrocosm Power was the same, James had imbued his soldier with Dark Power. As such, his soldier's strength was stronger than the soldier materialized from Kallinikos' Sword Path. Kallinikos' soldier was knocked back.

"Wow."

Kallinikos could not help but exclaim. He only wanted to test James' strength. He did not expect that James' soldier would be able to deflect his attack and even knock his soldier away.

Though Kallinikos did not use his full strength, he was only a mere Five-Power Macrocosm Ancestral God. So, he hurriedly summoned his soldier back to his own city.

The brief battle made James better understand the rules of the Chessboard of Heaven and Earth. There, Paths could be transformed into soldiers. Besides, even if they were destroyed, one would not suffer any injuries.

Upon seeing James easily deflect Kallinikos' attacks, the other Macrocosm Ancestral Gods in the surroundings immediately knew just how powerful James was. So, no one dared approach him.

Though the Chessboard was meant for discussing Paths, the fact that the Macrocosm Ancestral Gods of all twelve universes were present meant that this was a competition. The last one standing would emerge victorious as the Lord of the newly consolidated universe.

After James launched his attack, no one dared provoke him for they knew that they would not stand a chance against him. They also knew they would not be able to remain too long on the chessboard and did not wish to miss this opportunity. So, they seized the chance to attack the other Macrocosm Ancestral Gods by sensing the opponents' Paths and testing their strength.

However, at that moment, an armor-clad soldier charged toward James' city. As James glanced at the soldier, he immediately saw through him. The soldier was made out of a combination of Curse Inscriptions, in which he could sense a Four-Power Macrocosm Power.

The one who attacked James was Tomislav Santana. Seeing that Kallinikos' soldier was knocked away by James, he was curious to see what Paths had Forty-nine cultivated.

He catalyzed the Curse Path and charged toward James, who also performed his own Path and clashed against Tomislav. The moment they crossed fists, they immediately sensed the other's strength and Tomislav's soldier was immediately knocked back.

"How strong..."

Tomislav could not help but exclaim, "This is not a Macrocosm Power created through the evolution of a singular Path. Rather, it's a Macrocosm Power created by the evolution of many different Paths."

Tomislav immediately sensed James' Path.

Meanwhile, James was also sensing Tomislav's Curse Path in earnest. He had also cultivated the Curse Path. However, he did not use the Curse Path to cultivate Macrocosm Power.

At that moment, Tomislav's Path had been dissolved into the most fundamental Curse Script, which was ever-changing and increasingly profound. In the end, it transformed into the Path that Tomislav currently used.

In the beginning, James could still comprehend them. However, when the Curse Script transformed into a Macrocosm Power, he was beginning to lose comprehension. If he could not even comprehend a One-Power Macrocosm Power, there was no way he was going to comprehend the others.

He could not comprehend them because he had limited time. However, he had witnessed the Curse Inscription that was created by Macrocosm Power. With time, he would be able to completely comprehend them and use the Curse Path to perform a Four-Power Macrocosm Power.

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3823

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3823-At the same time, the Sword Path was the same.

James had already witnessed the Sword Path Inscription of the Sword Path's Four-Power Macrocosm Power. Theoretically speaking, he can then use these inscriptions to cultivate the Four-Power Macrocosm Power as long as both time and fate were on his side.

Now that Heaven and Earth have stipulated that the limits are the Nine-Power Macrocosm Power, he would not be able to execute the Macrocosm Power even if the Macrocosm Power he comprehended reached the Nine-Power.

"This is an opportunity," After witnessing the Sword Path and the Curse Path's Four-Power Macrocosm Power, James felt that this journey was worth it. Even if he exposed his capacities and was unable to become the Macrocosm Ancestral God of the new universe, he would have at least witnessed the Paths of other Macrocosm Ancestral Gods.

There was no other option but to continuously learn, comprehend and specialize. He could only create his own path by learning everything there is to know in the universe.

James summoned many Paths, causing soldiers to materialize. The Great Destruction formed by the merging of sixteen paths also created a soldier whose aura was very intense and frightening. This power exceeded the Macrocosm Power, yet was not stronger than James' own power.

James guessed that the soldiers who materialized from the Great Destruction must also have the Four-Power Macrocosm Power—the Five Great Paths, Karma Path, the Path of Yin and Yang, the Elemental Path, the Sword Path, the Dark Path, the Curse Path...

All of these Paths were completely at work at this moment, materializing into one powerful soldier, and another, and another. These soldiers formed an army that began to attack the city in front of them. Some of these cities were already destroyed and were taken by other Macrocosm Ancestral Gods.

James' army appeared, starting to attack other Macrocosm Ancestral Gods' Paths. While they attacked, they were also observing the Paths of other Gods to comprehend them. Then, they merged their own comprehension into their Paths, forming a powerful army once again.

No enemy was a match for James. All of the cities he had set foot in became his. Very quickly, there were no longer any Macrocosm Ancestral Gods who were below the Four-Power Macrocosm Power around him. Those who still remained on the Chessboard of Heaven and Earth were powerful figures who had attained ranks higher than the Four-Power Macrocosm Power. As for the Caelum Ancestral Gods in the marginal areas, they were ousted at the beginning of the battle.

The Chessboard of Heaven and Earth was divided into a number of areas. Each area was owned by a powerful Macrocosm Ancestral God. Below them, innumerable living beings were staring at the Chessboard and the powerful figures on it. They were stupefied upon seeing the armies materialized by these powerful figures.

The middle area of the Chessboard was occupied by the Omnipotent Lord, Mirabelle Joandra, Longinus Klopas, and the Third Universe's Yuval Yonaguska.

The Omnipotent Lord was a Nine-Power Macrocosm Ancestral God and had comprehended all Paths to their very limits. The soldiers materialized by each Path were extremely strong, especially their general.

As for Mirabelle, Longinus, and Yuval who were Eight-Power Macrocosm Ancestral Gods, their powers were merely a tad below the Omnipotent Lord.

The Omnipotent Lord was at the very center of the Chessboard, surrounded by Mirabelle, Longinus, and Yuval who occupied three bearings around him.

“Hahaha!” The Omnipotent Lord was not worried at all even as he saw his city being surrounded from three sides. He roared, “I’ll fight you when I feel like having a battle with other Macrocosm Ancestral Gods.”

As he spoke, the troops outside his city started moving somewhere far away and began to attack the Macrocosm Ancestral God who was still on the Chessboard.

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3824

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3824-In actuality, this was a contest between powers, except that a fight like this would not result in destruction in the outer worlds.

The Omnipotent Lord took no heed of Mirabelle, Longinus, and Yuval. He charged toward a Seven-Power Macrocosm Ancestral God. This caused the Seven-Power Macrocosm Ancestral God to focus completely on his defense. He knew that he was not a match for the Omnipotent Lord. But since he had never fought the Lord before, and thus was not familiar with the Lord’s Paths, he wanted to use this opportunity to comprehend them.

Two armies battled against each other on the Chessboard of Heaven and Earth. The situation was extremely intense. Other Macrocosm Ancestral Gods were observing the battle, including James.

James had already reached the Omniscience Path, so all living beings under the heavens could be materialized in his eyes. He could break down all the soldiers materialized by the Omnipotent Lord into the simplest and most basic inscription. Subsequently, these inscriptions evolved continuously and became more and more complicated as he deduced the Lord’s Paths.

He merged almost all of these Paths into the Annihilation Path, leaving out the unique ones that were not cultivated by the Omnipotent Lord—the Karma Path, the Dark Path, and the Reincarnation Path. Time, Space, Life, and Death were all encapsulated within the Annihilation Path.

The Omnipotent Lord's annihilation was very deadly.

James had already comprehended how the Lord merged so many Paths, but he had yet to deduce how he cultivated the Macrocosm Power.

This was a turning point. James then closed his eyes and focused on comprehending it. His Divine Sense observed that two armies were battling each other outside the city. The Seven-Power Macrocosm Ancestral God was no match for the Omnipotent Lord although he himself was very powerful, causing the battle to continue for three years.

Three years later, the Seven-Power Macrocosm Ancestral God was defeated. He lost the city, which was now occupied by the Omnipotent Lord.

At this point in time, other Macrocosm Ancestral Gods were launching their attacks on the Omnipotent Lord, gathering around his city. These Ancestral Gods seemed to have reached a consensus. They did not fight each other but collectively attacked the Lord instead. This was because all of them wanted to see for themselves how strong was the Omnipotent Lord of the Twelfth Universe and what exactly were his Paths like.

Finally, James sensed some unnatural changes in the annihilation of the Omnipotent Lord. These changes were what caused the Annihilation Path to be materialized into the Macrocosm Power.

"I see," James had it all figured out. The rest was easy, so James continuously performed his deductions and calculations.

The battle was still ongoing. The Omnipotent Lord was under siege by many Macrocosm Ancestral Gods. But all of them could not even reach the threshold to be considered the Lord's worthy opponents. Their armies were destroyed very quickly.

One man did not partake in the battle, however--James. He was silently cultivating and comprehending the many kinds of Paths as he watched the battle among Macrocosm Ancestral Gods. He realized that Macrocosm Power was capable of being cultivated by all Paths, as long as they were cultivated to their limits. Furthermore, these Powers could be continuously transformed into the Nine-Power Macrocosm Power.

Yet, these were mere abstractions. Doing so in reality was a herculean task, to say the very least.

On the Chessboard of Heaven and Earth, five figures remained.

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3825

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3825-The five figures were the Omnipotent Lord, Mirabelle, Longinus, Yuval, and James.

Surrounding the Lord's three directions were the three Eight-Power Macrocosm Ancestral Gods, whereas the area in front of him was empty. Many cities away stood James.

"James, why haven't you attacked?" The Omnipotent Lord's voice reverberated across the Chessboard of Heaven and Earth as he stared at James.

James was still in a state of comprehension. The battle had helped James immensely in terms of his comprehension. This had nothing to do with the Chaos Path, but he knew that he had to continue on this journey of learning and comprehension. He could only create the Chaos Path when nothing was left to learn.

The Omnipotent Lord's roar interrupted James' state. He stood up slowly from his lotus position and looked at the army materialized by the Omnipotent Lord, which was charging toward him.

His expression turned rather serious. He materialized the Path of the Omnipotent Lord, yet could only arrive at the Three-Power Macrocosm Power. In other words, he had already mastered the Annihilation Path and reached the Three-Power Macrocosm Power for this Path.

All Paths were linked to each other.

He comprehended all Paths to their limits, so any Path he deployed would be able to materialize Macrocosm Power.

The army approached him.

He summoned the army outside his city. As they were dispatched, he imposed his understanding of the Path onto the army, elevating their aura. Each soldier now owned a type of Macrocosm Power, with some of them having multiple Powers. Although their individual capacities were not strong, they had numbers on their side. The thousands of Paths materialized into tens and thousands of soldiers, each of their aura reaching the level of a Macrocosm Ancestral God.

“H-How can this be?”

The Omnipotent Lord was utterly stupefied when he sensed that each soldier possessed Macrocosm Power and that Macrocosm Power was cultivated from each Path.

The other three powerful figures on the Chessboard also felt their blood run cold. Back at the Ancestral Holy Site, the jaws of the powerful figures who were watching the battle dropped.

Very quickly, the two armies met. Their encounter resulted in merciless killings. The soldiers created by the Omnipotent Lord were continuously eradicated until all that was left was a general, who was materialized from the Nine-Power Macrocosm Power.

The general was immensely frightening. He held a long black sword, which could potentially slash apart James' Path.

Seeing this, James' eyebrows frowned slightly.

“He's quite something.” He summoned all of the Paths together, merging them with his own power. This allowed his own power and aura to escalate exponentially.

Swoosh! A flash of light materialized from his body into a soldier. The appearance of this soldier brought with him an enigmatic power, which caused the entire Chessboard to quiver.

Mirabelle exclaimed in shock, “So, this is the Chaos Path?”

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3826

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3826-What James deployed was his own power. His current power was a result of breaking and merging sixteen Path Seals, buttressed by a Macrocosm Core.

The merging of these Paths exceeded Macrocosm Power, but could still not be considered Chaos Power.

Now that James had some understanding of the many Paths and merged them into his own Path, he created a powerful soldier. The soldier emanated an energy that made spectators' blood run cold and caused the entire Chessboard of Heaven and Earth to vibrate.

Mirabelle knew that James had cultivated the Chaos Path, but now that she saw a soldier materialized by James' own power on the Chessboard, she was immediately stupefied. Indeed, the Chaos Path exceeded everything in the universe and was insanely frightening.

The other powerful figures only frowned their eyebrows. They had no idea that James had cultivated the Chaos Path. Heck, they did not even know what the Chaos Path was. They could only sense how uncanny James' Path was.

"What Path is this?" The Omnipotent Lord's expression looked rather serious.

He sensed an energy that was foreign to him in James' Path. This Path felt illusory but also all-encompassing at the same time. It was as if this was the result of tens and thousands of Paths merging together. Although he could not sense any Macrocosm Power in his Path, the energy of the Path made a chill run down his spine.

Perhaps James' power had already exceeded that of the Macrocosm Power. This power was beyond the sum of innumerable Macrocosm Powers.

The soldier materialized by the Omnipotent Lord rapidly charged towards the city that James was at, appearing just outside the city.

The soldier that James materialized appeared as well. He was the same as James, emanating frightening powers.

At this moment, James' soldier moved. He took one step and appeared in front of the Lord's soldier. These two forces came to grips with one another. It was a match between the Annihilation Path and the Chaos Path.

The battle was frightening, emanating hair-raising energies.

Thump! The two soldiers attacked one another.

The Lord's soldier's physical body broke down immediately. In a very short amount of time, the soldier shattered into fragments of the Law of Heaven, disappearing from the Chessboard. On the contrary, James' soldier remained unharmed.

"W-What?"

"He isn't even a match for him!"

"One move and he fragmented the Path of the Omnipotent Lord?"

"What the Omnipotent Lord had cultivated was the Annihilation Path with the Nine-Power Macrocosm Power. Yet, it was destroyed in one blow."

"What Path has James cultivated exactly?"

All the figures left on the Chessboard were surprised. The powerful figures at the Ancient Holy Site were shocked as well. James' Path was too frightening.

"I-impossible." The Omnipotent Lord faltered clumsily as if he could not accept what just unfolded. He had cultivated the Annihilation Path and the Nine-Power Macrocosm Power, thus he ought to have no worthy opponent.

Nevertheless, his Path was easily disintegrated. How was he to make of this?

As for James, he kept a calm expression. In terms of his comprehension of the Path, he was undeniably above the Omnipotent Lord, but he might not be a match for the Lord when it came to one's true power.

However, the Chessboard of Heaven and Earth was precisely a site to compete in terms of one's comprehension of the Path, instead of fighting one another.

James' Path surpassed everything in existence. Plus, he made notable comprehensions on the Chessboard, which allowed him to also merge it into his own Path, fully defeating the Omnipotent Lord.

Even so, he had managed to comprehend something. He merged what he comprehended into his own power, elevating it to a level much higher than before.

He was now much stronger compared to before.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3827-Even if James' power was weaker than that of the Omnipotent Lord, there would not be a drastic difference between the two.

"W-What Path is this?" The Omnipotent Lord glared at James intensely. His expression was filled with disbelief. He wanted to know what exactly was the Path that James used. This Path destroyed his Annihilation Path, which was created by Nine-Power Macrocosm Power.

James looked calmly at the exasperated Omnipotent Lord and grinned slightly. He did not answer this question but rather summoned the soldier who embodied his own power to advance continuously. It did not take long for the soldier to appear where the Lord was located.

With a raise of the soldier's hand, all sorts of inscriptions of Heaven's Laws materialized, attacking the city where the Lord was at. The city was destroyed in a brief moment, ousting the Omnipotent Lord from the Chessboard.

There were only four people left—Mirabelle, Longinus, Yuval, and James. The remaining three only looked at James with horror. They didn't expect James to easily defeat the Omnipotent Lord. While the Chessboard of Heaven and Earth was not designated for a match in terms of power, but merely in terms of one's level of Path comprehension, this meant that James' understanding of the Path far exceeded that of the Omnipotent Lord.

Mirabelle smiled widely, saying, "If the Omnipotent Lord's comprehension of the Path is not even James' match, then what's there to say about us? I surrender."

Yuval, the Lord of the Third Universe, stayed on the Chessboard.

"W-W-What Path have you cultivated exactly?"

Yuval did not leave abruptly. He stared at James, for he had never seen a Path quite like James' although he was well-versed with all of the existing Paths.

James said nothing. He ordered the soldier to materialize from his Path to charge toward Yuval's city. This city was surrounded by armies that materialized from Yuval's Path, so their aura was very powerful, especially the general. The general materialized from Eight-Power Macrocosm Power, so his aura was so intense that he resembled a god of war.

Yet, with a wave of James' soldier's hand, uncountable inscriptions of Heaven's Laws appeared, destroying Yuval's tens and thousands of soldiers in the blink of an eye.

At this moment, Yuval closed his eyes, attempting to comprehend James' Path. He could sense all Paths, including the Karma Path and the Five Great Paths in James' Path. It was all-encompassing, a result of a special combination of all Paths.

At the very end, Yuval's Path was shattered, causing him to be expelled from the Chessboard.

James was the only one left standing. He stood on the Chessboard, gazing down below at the audience, made up of living beings of the Twelfth Universe. All of them were powerful figures, with the weakest of them being Caelum Ancestral Gods.

Invincible energy emanated from James, who was now the most powerful figure of the Twelfth Universe and earned the admiration of the Twelfth Universe's powerful figures.

James felt conflicted. He has never thought that he would become the strongest of them all in the Twelfth Universe, let alone become the legend who was unassailable and indestructible, yet he felt alone and helpless inside.

'Thea, where are you?' Thinking of Thea, feelings of despair surfaced in his heart.

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3828

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3828-Beneath the Chessboard of Heaven and Earth, the Omnipotent Lord had a grim look on his face. He knew that James' was powerful, yet he was unable to accurately gauge James' true power. So, he was wary of trying James out recklessly.

It was his idea to use the Chessboard of Heaven and Earth to test James' power. He had not expected his own defeat, because he thought that the worst scenario was to reach a draw with James.

However, the reality was that he lost completely to James.

He worked hard to create a conference of all twelve universes precisely to become the Lord of all these universes combined. This would allow him to absorb sufficient providence and ascend to a higher rank.

Now that James had appeared, however, it would be extremely difficult for him to become the Lord of the new universe. Every powerful figure would want to get their hands on a tempting position such as this.

The followers of the Omnipotent Lord also looked gloomy. They followed the Lord because they believed that following a man whose power topped everyone in the twelve universes would be beneficial for them. However, James' appearance proved that the Lord was not all-powerful.

"What now?" "Should we support the Omnipotent Lord?" The belief in these Macrocosm Ancestral Gods started to shatter.

James descended from the sky and landed at Mount Ancestre.

He scanned through the crowd, causing the Macrocosm Ancestral Gods to take a few steps back.

His gaze stopped at the Omnipotent Lord. With a calm expression, he asked, "Now that the competition is over, should we discuss the matter of merging universes?"

The Omnipotent Lord hesitated. Is there a need to merge the twelve universes anymore? Even if the universes were merged, it would be a herculean task for him to become the Lord of the new universe. However, if the universes were not merged, then he would never have the possibility of ascending to a higher rank, and would never have the chance to defeat James. So, in all cases, merging the universes was a must.

Thinking about this, the grim look of his disappeared. He grinned widely and looked at all the Macrocosm Ancestral Gods, saying, "Welcome to all those who have come from afar. Please enter the main hall."

Under the welcoming of the Omnipotent Lord, the many Macrocosm Ancestral Gods and the Caelum Ancestral Gods walked into Mount Ancestre's main hall.

The Omnipotent Lord sat on his throne. The Macrocosm Ancestral Gods and some of the Caelum Ancestral Gods sat at their respective places, while those who did not have a seat had to stand.

Scanning through the crowd, he said, "Does anyone have thoughts or suggestions on merging the universes? If there is, please raise it now. We can discuss and solve the matter together."

Immediately, a Macrocosm Ancestral God stood up and asked, "Omnipotent Lord, after the twelve universes are merged, how do we delineate the areas? What should we do with the current twelve Lords of the universes? And who will become the Lord of the new universe?"

These were questions that concerned all Macrocosm Ancestral Gods.

The Omnipotent Lord said, "I think that we can first follow the current separations and divide the new universe into twelve areas. Each universe will have one administrator, and the administrators will be the current Lords of the twelve universes. This will ensure harmony and peace after the twelve universes are merged. As for the Lord of the new universe, this should be up for an election. I just think that the Lord of the new universe must be someone that everyone holds in high reverence. He must not only be powerful but also an experienced administrator."

His voice echoed across the main hall.

According to the Lord's words prior to this, whoever was the strongest had the legitimacy to become the Lord of the new universe.

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3829

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3829-However, he could no longer say so now because of James. If there really was a competition for the position, he would not win.

"How about we discuss this after merging the universes?" The Omnipotent Lord asked the opinion of all the Macrocosm Ancestral Gods. The thing he desired currently was first and foremost, the merging of the universes, because the newly formed universe would surely be his. This was so because he had the most supporters, not only in the First Universe but also in others.

“In my view, we should first discuss who will become the Lord of the new Universe.” The Lord of the Ninth Universe, Kallinikos Yoav stood up and said, “We should discuss now and only merge the universes after everyone has agreed. Otherwise, casually merging the universes together may result in wars. Once the universes are merged, opinions may clash as to who should become the Lord of the new Universe.”

“Yes, I agree.”

“Let’s discuss the matter first.”

A rather large number of Macrocosm Ancestral Gods said the same.

“I support James to take up the position.” The Lord of the Second Universe, Longinus, stood up immediately. Looking at all the Macrocosm Ancestral Gods around him, he said, “Everyone saw the results back at the Chessboard of Heaven and Earth. James defeated everyone, and his comprehension of the Path is unparalleled among the twelve universes. There’s no denying his capability. His Path is also very mysterious. Once James becomes the Lord of the new universe, he will surely share with us his own Path.”

Saying this, Longinus looked toward James with a wide smile, asking, “Am I right, James? Once you become the Lord of the Universe, surely you’ll share with us your Path?”

James’ eyebrows frowned. Longinus said he wanted to support him, but this was actually a trap. Share with them his Path? How? He himself did not understand his own Path and how to cultivate it.

The eyes of many Macrocosm Ancestral Gods were on James.

James felt embarrassed to refuse and said, “Of course. If I become the Lord of the new universe, I’ll participate in discussions about cultivations and Paths. As such, we can all improve.”

“If so, I support James.”

“Me too.”

“I hope he’s a man of promises.”

At that point, more than half of the Macrocosm Ancestral Gods present pledged their support to James.

After seeing these turns of allegiances by these Macrocosm Ancestral Gods, the Omnipotent Lord’s expression turned extremely somber. The Lord of the Six Universe saw this and immediately stood up, saying, “What’s so great about James? I think the Omnipotent Lord is the most qualified one.”

“Exactly. The Omnipotent Lord has always been the Lord of the First Universe and has occupied this position for the longest time. He has the most experience in managing the universe, and his own power is immensely strong.”

“I support the Omnipotent Lord.”

Those who were lobbied by the Omnipotent Lord long ago expressed their allegiance to him.

In the main hall, the twelve most powerful figures of the universe shared their opinions. James and the Omnipotent Lord have almost the same number of supporters among the Macrocosm Ancestral Gods, yet some Lords of the Universes have yet to make up their minds.

Nevertheless, just as the twelve universes were busy discussing important matters, a crack appeared in the space outside the Ancestral Holy Site, followed by black mists from which emanated frightening Dark Powers.

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3830

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3830-In the void outside Mount Ancestre, a crack appeared. The crack continuously expanded. Within a split second, a cloud of black mists appeared. The black mists contained frightening Dark Power that spread across the Ancestral Holy Site and engulfed it.

At this moment, the Macrocosm Ancestral Gods and Caelum Ancestral Gods in the main hall of Mount Ancestre realized that something was not quite right. They stood up and went outside the main hall, only to see the black mists heading towards them from afar.

“Dark Power?”

“Wh-What?”

“The armies of the Dark World have invaded us. Are they here to destroy the most powerful figures of the twelve universes because they knew that all of them would be gathered here in the First Universe?”

A number of Macrocosm Ancestral Gods exclaimed.

The Omnipotent Lord took the lead and looked in the direction of the black mists. They appeared outside the Ancestral Holy Site before disappearing. Then, innumerable living beings of the Dark World showed up in the sky. All of them emanated a scary aura, rendering the Heavenly Paths of the First Universe in chaos.

At the forefront of the Dark Army was a woman. The girl wore a black dress and looked very pretty. She looked very elegant and refined. Yet underneath that slender figure was extremely unnerving Dark Power.

“I-It’s her?” James froze when he saw the woman. In his mind, someone familiar appeared.

Sienna Callahan.

The Twelfth Universe. The Primeval Age. The Seven Callahan Sisters. A genius whose capabilities were just a notch beneath Thea Callahan.

In his memory, he remembered that he refused to marry Sienna after he brought her back from Mount Heavenly Path. Sienna left later, only to never be seen again.

Now that Sienna was before him, he was shocked. Sienna’s own aura was very powerful. Behind her were many powerful figures. The number of these powerful figures rivaled the total of the twelve universes.

“What’s going on?” James was appalled. Mirabelle fell into a trance of shock for quite a bit upon seeing Sienna. When she woke up from her train of thought, she quickly walked towards James and said softly, “James, she’s one of the new powerful Lords from the Dark World. Rumors have it that her power is at the Eight-Power Macrocosm Power. Even if I deploy all my power against her, I would not be her match.”

James nodded gently. He still did not know what Sienna was up to, so he dared not act recklessly. This was the First Universe, the territory of the Omnipotent Lord. He took a quick glance at the Omnipotent Lord.

The Omnipotent Lord stood up, appearing in front. He looked at Sienna and the Dark Army behind her, interrogating her coldly, "Sienna, what is the meaning of this? Are you trying to initiate a war against the twelve universes during our conference?"

Although the Dark World was very powerful and would incite the Dark Strife from time to time, the First Universe has never had its taste of the Strife since he rose to power.

He was fearless of the Dark World.

"Hmph," Sienna said coldly, "So what if I am? But I'm here not for that purpose. Rather, I'm here for vengeance."

Sienna's voice echoed across the hall. Hearing this, the Macrocosm Ancestral Gods looked at each other. Vengeance? What vengeance? Who angered Sienna? All of them were confused.

So was the Omnipotent Lord, who then proceeded to ask, "What do you mean?"

"Omnipotent Lord, do you remember the Thirteenth Universe?"

Her voice was loud but cold, filled with murderous intent.

More questions appeared in the head of the Omnipotent Lord. What happened in the Thirteenth Universe? He looked at Sienna, asking, "What about the Thirteenth Universe?"

Sienna answered him, saying, "When the Thirteenth Universe was created, many geniuses from different universes went there to acquire providence. Do you remember a certain James Caden?"
