The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3859-“I see.”

“It seems we’ve been working towards the wrong Paths.”

“There’s no such thing as right or wrong. Although the journey is different, the endpoint is the same. James simply created a more efficient way to cultivate.”

The Macrocosm Ancestral Gods spoke among each other. Attending James’ lecture had benefited them enormously and was better than spending countless Epochs cultivating in seclusion.

Ancestral Gods also gained a lot from the lecture. They had learned about the fundamental changes of Paths. As long as they could grasp the theory, they could easily nurture any Path into Macrocosm Power.

A charming and sexy woman near the central region of the dojo said, “Master, please explain the Chaos Path to us.”

The woman that spoke was Mirabelle from the First Universe. James’ lecture had given her a lot of new insights. She was an Eighth Power Macrocosm God and could easily understand his teachings. However, she wanted to learn more about Chaos Power. The same was true for the other Macrocosm Ancestral Gods. The thing they wanted to learn about the most was the Chaos Path.

James was the only person that had cultivated the Chaos Path.

“Chaos Path?”

James was thrown off. Until now, he still had not figured out what exactly the Chaos Path was. He had only comprehended the various Paths of heaven and earth and how to develop them into Macrocosm Powers. Then, he could integrate them into his Paths to enhance them further.

James closed his eyes and thought for a while.

“There is a prerequisite before you can practice the Chaos Path. First, one must master the Karma Path, the Five Great Paths, and the Dark Path. Then, you’ll have to shatter these Path Seals to allow their powers to converge. Lastly, you’ll also need a Macrocosm Core.

“A Macrocosm Core is the embryonic form of a universe. It contains the most primitive law fragments of that universe.

“You would need these Path Seals’ power and the Macrocosm Core’s power to merge together. That’s the first step of cultivating the Chaos Path.

“To enhance your Chaos Path’s power, you’ll have to constantly comprehend other various Paths and evolve them to their highest potential.”

James began to explain about the Chaos Path. He did not conceal any information. After sorting out his explanation, he told them about the process. His Chaos Power had indeed come about from this method. He speculated the Chaos Path was the fusion of the various Paths. After mastering every Path, one could discover the Chaos Path. However, it was impossible to master every Path due to the constraints of heaven and earth.

Even if one was proficient in almost every Path, it was impossible to cultivate the needed Path Seals because of the aforementioned constraints.

James fell into thought, ‘How was the universe born? Why does the Heavenly Path exist? Why were there restrictions imposed? Did some powerhouse create the Heavenly Path to curb a universe’s inhabitants?’

The stronger James got, the more he learned about the universes, and through this, he suspected that there was an extremely mysterious and powerful being behind all these machinations.

James was already powerful and stood at the pinnacle of the twelve universes. However, these things still remained a mystery to him.

After other Macrocosm Ancestral Gods heard the method to cultivate Chaos Path, they shook their heads in resignation and gave up the intent to cultivate it.

It was impossible for them to successfully cultivate in the Chaos Path.

There was almost no one that could cultivate all Five Great Paths. Moreover, not much was known about Karma Power. Since times of old, cultivating the Karma Path was a matter unheard of. Additionally, how was it possible for beings of the Illuminated World to cultivate the Dark Path?

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3860-However, he was unsure whether his knowledge was accurate, as it was a Path that no one had ever cultivated. Everything he knew was based on Yukia's theories. He simply was explaining what he understood from that.

His lecture did not last very long. James demonstrated the nature of Paths and how to evolve them into Macrocosm Powers. Even a Macrocosm Ancestral God would take a long time to acquire this knowledge on their own.

"I'll end my lecture here," James stood up slowly and said, "Whether you can comprehend my teachings depends on your abilities and fate. You may cultivate here or return to your own sects and families."

After James spoke, he vanished from sight.

Although James had already left, his lecture's attendees did not leave immediately. Many sat in lotus positions in their seats, closed their eyes, and began to contemplate James' words wholeheartedly.

They began to deduce and develop simple inscriptions to perfect their Paths.

300 years have passed since James' lecture.

In the past 300 years, many living beings that attended James' lecture had left the hall. Those that left were those who had not fully understood his teachings. On the other hand, those who were inspired were hesitant to leave.

James had left behind the Path he evolved during the lecture. The Path contained Third Rank Macrocosm Powers. Those that stayed behind examined the Path to research it further.

Meanwhile, James sat in front of the Heavenly Court's South Heaven Gate. He looked down at the clouds beneath him and saw the beautiful scenery of the Human Realm's Divine Dimension.

"A penny for your thoughts?"

A voice came from behind him.

Immediately afterward, a glamorous woman in a black dress walked over and sat down beside James. She also peered into the distance.

James sighed and said, "I'm reflecting on my life. I've accomplished a lot in my path to cultivation. A long time has passed, and everything feels so surreal. I constantly feel like everything is a dream and will vanish once I wake up."

"Why are you thinking about such nonsense?"

Sienna reprimanded him. "Don't dwell on such things. Since you have nothing else planned for now, let's go to the Dark World. Don't you want to learn more about Yukia? She has been to the Dark World before and must've left some clues behind. Not to mention..."

"The Dark World is far superior to the twelve universes. You may already be considered invincible here, but there are countless other powerhouses in the Dark World. You'll be able to meet stronger opponents there.

"Most importantly, the Dark World's Heavenly Path is much more stable. The twelve universes' Heavenly Path can't even hold a candle to it. Even if a Macrocosm Ancestral God can destroy an entire universe in the Illuminated World, they can't cause substantial damage in the Dark World."

James was immediately intrigued by the topic.

He stood up, stretched his muscles, and murmured, "You're right. I don't have anything else to do in the Twelfth Universe now. It's about time I head to the Dark World to investigate Yukia. At the same time, I'd also like to try to find Jabari."

In the past, James and Jabari headed to the Dark World and entered the palace left behind Yukia.

Jabari had learned a lot from the records kept in the palace. After that, he fought against Heaven's Adjudicator. Then, he decided to enter the Dark World to chase after Yukia.

James was sure Jabari had discovered something. He knew he could understand Yukia better if he found Jabari.

Sienna stood up and asked, "When do you want to go to the Dark World?"

James said, "I've settled everything I've needed to do, so we can leave right away."
