The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3871-Jabari, an ambitious man?

James knew Jabari very well, and Jabari did not fit that description. His strength was one of the best in the Primordial Age. He could have easily dominated and taken control of the Twelfth Universe back then, but he chose not to. Instead, he wandered around the ruins of the Twelfth Universe in search of hints of Yukia's whereabouts.

How could a person like him conspire for the mere position of the head of the Xaadsan family?

"Are you telling the absolute truth?" James glared at Laethis.

Laethis immediately nodded and replied, "I did not utter a single lie."

James asked, "Then, where did he go after fleeing with Xulia as a hostage?"

Laethis said, "Jabari was besieged by many of our family's powerhouses and was injured. However, since he was holding our young lady hostage, none of us dared to act recklessly. We had no choice but to let him leave. We tried following his traces, but he escaped into the Ecclesiastical Restricted Zone. Our family members did not dare to follow him deep into the place and turned around. We've had people guarding the exit of the Ecclesiastical Restricted Zone all these years, but they've yet to come out."

"The Ecclesiastical Restricted Zone?" James frowned lightly.

He had just learned about the Nine Heavens and Ten Earths in the Dark World. However, he was unfamiliar with the Ecclesiastical Restricted Zone.

Yet, he was sure that a place worthy of being a restricted area in the Dark World was definitely not simple.

James asked, "What kind of place is the Ecclesiastical Restricted Zone?"

"..."

His question took Laethis aback. He looked at James with a suspicious look. "D-Do you not know about the Ecclesiastical Restricted Zone, Sir?"

“Cut the cr*p, and answer whatever I ask you.” James’ face darkened, and his voice was grim.

Laethis dared not hide anything from him and answered truthfully, “The Ecclesiastical Restricted Zone is an ancient region that has been restricted in the Dark World. Any place that is named a restricted area is terrifying. They have power that surpasses a Ninth Stage Lord. Ordinary places are not even qualified as restricted areas.”

“Power that surpasses a Ninth Stage Lord?”

James was surprised.

In the Illuminated World’s twelve universes, a Ninth Power Macrocosm Ancestral God was the limit permitted by the Heavenly Path.

Were the living beings in the Dark World capable of surpassing a Ninth Stage Lord?

“Tell me about the Ecclesiastical Restricted Zone,” said James.

“Alright.” Laethis answered honestly, “The Ecclesiastical Restricted Zone is situated at the junction of the Boundless Welkin and the Triple Star Welkin. However, there aren’t any records about when it came into existence. I only know that it’s been there since ancient times.

“Rumor has it that a being surpassing a Ninth Stage Lord had fallen in the Ecclesiastical Restricted Zone. An existence like that is called an Acmean in the Dark World.

“An Acmean had fallen inside the Ecclesiastical Restricted Zone. Despite that, his remaining aura was still extremely terrifying. Even a Ninth Stage Lord wouldn’t dare travel deep into the area.

“There are also rumors that another Acmean is hiding in the Ecclesiastical Restricted Zone. There are countless formations in there. It’s a dead end once you enter it. Since ancient times, many people have attempted to venture the place, but no one has returned alive.”

After speaking, he asked tentatively, “Sir, what exactly is your relationship with Jabari? If you’re friends with him, I advise you not to look for them. The Ecclesiastical Restricted Zone isn’t any ordinary place.

“If you’re an enemy of his, rest assured that he most likely died after entering the Ecclesiastical Restricted Zone.”

James listened attentively in silence.

After Laethis finished speaking, James stood up and said, “I’ll go verify these things you’ve told me today. I will venture into the Ecclesiastical Restricted Zone. If I find out that you’ve lied to me, I’ll destroy your family.”

James left a few words before disappearing.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3872-James traveled to the Xaadsans’ base in the Boundless Holy Site and acquired a few clues about Jabari’s whereabouts. He learned that Jabari had entered the Ecclesiastical Restricted Zone.

Although the Xaadsan family’s words could not be fully trusted, James believed that Jabari had entered the Ecclesiastical Restricted Zone and was sure he would find Jabari there.

Laethis also warned him of the dangers of the Ecclesiastical Restricted Zone, and James learned that those who had surpassed a Ninth Stage Lord were called Acmeans.

Afterward, he left the Xaadsans’ base. He did not plan to immediately venture into the Ecclesiastical Restricted Zone because it would be dangerous, not to mention that Acmeans were also involved. James planned to return to the Malevolent Land in the Ten Earths to ask Sienna about it first.

After all, Sienna was an Eighth Stage Lord that controlled the Malevolent Lord. Even though she had never been to the Ecclesiastical Restricted Zone, she must have heard about the place.

James appeared outside Mount Malevolent Moon.

There was a protective formation outside the mountain. James did not force his way through.

The moment he reached the mountain gate, Sienna was already there to see him. She wore a long, black dress and looked extremely glamorous. Her pretty face was full of joy as she quickly approached him.

“How did it go? Did you find out where Jabari is?”

James nodded lightly and said, “Yeah. I searched all of the Ten Earths but found no traces of him. After I went to the Boundless Welkin, I sensed his aura in the Xaadsans’ base. I went there and inquired about Jabari, and they told me some things about him...”

James briefly explained what had happened.

Sienna exclaimed, “The Ecclesiastical Restricted Zone?”

James looked at her. Judging from the change in her expression, it was evident she had heard about the place before. He inquired, “What kind of place is the Ecclesiastical Restricted Zone?”

Sienna explained, “It’s rare for places to be named restricted areas or zones. Most of these restricted areas are related to ancient legends.”

“Ancient legends?” James was slightly surprised.

Sienna nodded and said, “Mhm. It’s the legend of Acmeans.”

Hearing the mention of Acmeans again, James asked, “I also heard from the Xaadsans that Acmeans are existences that surpass Ninth Stage Lords. Do such powerhouses really exist in the Dark World?”

A Ninth Stage Lord was equivalent to a Nine-Power Macrocosm Ancestral God.

The Omnipotent Lord was the only Nine-Power Macrocosm Ancestral God in the Illuminated World’s twelve universes. Nobody had surpassed a Nine-Power Macrocosm Ancestral God in the twelve universes.

The twelve universes were massive but only had one Nine-Power Macrocosm Ancestral God. Thus, having an Acmean was an even rarer thing.

Sienna shook her head and said, “I don’t know. I’ve been in the Dark World for a very long time but have only heard about the legend of Acmeans. It might only be a legend without any basis. I can’t say for sure if they truly exist.”

“Then, tell me more about the Ecclesiastical Restricted Zone.”

Sienna nodded and said, “The Ecclesiastical Restricted Zone is located at the junction of the Boundless Welkin and the Triple Star Welkin. It’s a very old place that has existed for a long time, but there aren’t any records of just how long.

“I’m not sure what the Ecclesiastical Restricted Zone is like. It’s a restricted area; even Dark Lords refrain from stepping in there. It’s even more impossible for Ancestral Gods to venture into these places.

“But, I’ve heard about rumors that an Acmean had fallen in the Ecclesiastical Restricted Zone. There are also rumors that an Acmean lives there in seclusion.”

Sienna shared some of her knowledge.

Everything she said was very similar to what Laethis had told him.

In conclusion, the Ecclesiastical Restricted Zone was a dangerous place that even powerful Dark Lords avoided.

“I plan to venture into the Ecclesiastical Restricted Zone sometime soon,” said James.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3873-Sienna immediately dissuaded him, “You shouldn’t act recklessly, James. You’ve just come to the Dark World and don’t understand the horror of the restricted areas. Let me explain. In the past, many went to these restricted zones. They all got contaminated with the power of these places and became terrifyingly strong, turning the Dark World upside down.

“The Dark Strife that Yukia participated in seems to also be related to a certain restricted area.”

“Oh, is that so? Could you tell me more?” asked James.

Sienna shook his head and said, "It's a taboo topic in the Dark World. Not many are aware of it. I've only heard a few rumors and don't really know much. We can only wait for Xerxes' return."

Speaking of Xerxes, James' curiosity was piqued.

"What kind of existence is Xerxes?"

Sienna explained, "I don't know much about his background either. I only know that he's from a powerful family. His family's ancestor had participated in the Dark Strife and knew some inside stories."

While speaking, Sienna's expression became solemn.

"The power distribution of the Nine Heavens and Ten Earths is very clear, and I know almost every prominent figure. However, these people are only the forces on the surface. There are still some unknown forces in the Dark World. Some of these forces are hidden in the restricted areas. In short, you must be careful in the Dark World and refrain from doing anything reckless."

James did not say much in response.

He was very interested in the Dark World. He wanted to discover how many powerhouses were hidden in the depths of the Dark World and whether Acmeans really existed.

Yukia fought against 300 Ninth Stage Lords, so her cultivation rank must have surpassed that of a Ninth-Stage Lord. She must have already become an Acmean.

Apart from Yukia, were there any more Acmeans in the Dark World?

James became very interested in these things.

His desire to become stronger was ignited. He wanted to become even more powerful so he could fight against Acmeans.

Xerxes had not returned yet. James was unsure whether Xerxes had found any information in his family's ancient books. He temporarily stayed on Mount Malevolent Moon, waiting for Xerxes to return.

James started to cultivate on Mount Malevolent Moon. He attempted to study the differences and similarities between the Dark and Illuminated Worlds.

He cultivated for 3000 years.

James sat in a lotus position within a bamboo groove on a spiritual mountain on Mount Malevolent Moon and exuded a powerful aura.

Suddenly, a figure appeared before him.

It was Sienna. As soon as she showed up, she shouted frantically, “James! Something bad has happened!”

James stopped cultivating, stood up, and asked, “What’s the matter? What happened?”

Sienna said solemnly, “Xerxes just contacted me and said something happened to his family!”

James asked, “What happened?”

Sienna said, “I didn’t know Xerxes very well in the past. I didn’t even know where he was from. I received his message just now and learned he’s from the Nine Heavens’ Hate Welkin. His family used to be very powerful in the Hate Welkin. However, their family became very low-profile after the Dark Strife and was gradually forgotten.

“He just told me that he found clues from his family’s ancestral books. In fact, he found his ancestors’ notes. However, it attracted the attack of mysterious forces. His family was almost wiped out. He went through a lot to escape and is currently being hunted down. He needs our help!”

Sienna’s expression was solemn. She knew Xerxes was an Eighth Stage Lord. Within the Nine Heavens and Ten Earths, only a handful of people could injure Xerxes and force him to escape a fight.

James was startled. Xerxes had just returned to his family to investigate but was being hunted down after finding some clues about the Dark Strife.

Moreover, Xerxes was a powerhouse, so his opponent had to be terrifying if even he was injured and forced to flee.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3874-After hearing Sienna's words, James had a strong intuition that a conspiracy was quietly unfolding, or in other words, there had been an invisible force controlling everything all along.

There had always been a mysterious force hiding in the dark, and Yukia was their greatest nemesis.

At his current strength, James' intuitions were very accurate, and there could not be any mistakes.

James felt he was close to the truth and was only one step away.

He would unravel the truth very soon.

"Where is Xerxes?" asked James.

Sienna replied, "When he contacted me, he was close to leaving the Hate Welkin. However, I don't know where he is now. I tried contacting him again but couldn't get through to him."

"Let's go find him immediately."

The two quickly left Mount Malevolent Moon and rushed to the Hate Welkin.

Somewhere in the Hate Welkin, a crack appeared in the sky.

A man and woman emerged quietly from the crack.

They were in a primitive mountain range. There were towering, old trees that intertwined, extending high into the sky and covering it. The surrounding area was catastrophic, and it was evident a fierce battle had taken place.

The two were none other than Sienna and James, who had rushed over. Sienna looked below her and said, "Xerxes must've contacted me from this area. I can sense a lingering trace of his aura here, but I can't locate him. He must have gone into hiding."

Her expression grew increasingly solemn.

"I know that Xerxes is powerful. If he was pushed into such desperation, his opponent must be really strong. They're probably not just a Ninth Stage Lord.

There could've been multiple Ninth Stage Lords or even the legendary existences, Acmeans. If that's the case, the Dark Strife back then must be far beyond what our current strength can handle.”

James scanned his surroundings, trying to judge where Xerxes had fled by the aura he left behind.

While doing so, he said, “Let's not discuss this for now. We need to find Xerxes as soon as possible to ask him what happened.”

James sensed Xerxes' aura in the area.

He casually waved his hand and grabbed a trace of the aura.

James used the aura to locate Xerxes' location. However, a magical force immediately shattered the Extrapolation Formation that appeared.

Seeing the broken Extrapolation Formation, James' expression became increasingly solemn.

“It seems you're right. Xerxes' opponent is terrifyingly strong. I'm not able to locate him.”

After speaking, James casually waved his hand, and potent Time Power emerged.

James unleashed his Time Path's Power. Although the Time Path was suppressed in the Dark World, he could still use it to a certain limit. His Time Power permeated the area, and time in the area began to regress.

However, a magical force emerged and disintegrated James' Time Path's Power. The time immediately returned to normal. James suffered a backlash, and he stumbled a few steps backward.

“What's wrong?” Sienna immediately went to support him.

James slightly waved his hand and said, “It's nothing. There's a potent force left in this area that's protecting the time here. It's preventing me from regressing time to when Xerxes was in this area.

“Then, what should we do?” Sienna looked at James helplessly.

She was an Eighth Stage Lord and had cultivated the Dark Path. She became one by absorbing Dark Matter. She hardly understood the various Paths of the Illuminated World.

“Don’t panic.” James slightly waved his hand.

“As long as Xerxes has been here, I can track his whereabouts. I’m really curious to find out what kind of powerhouse appeared here. The energy left in this area is enough to disrupt my Path Power.”

James’ face became solemn.

Afterward, he used his Chaos Path’s Power.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3875-James shouted, “Reversion of day and night, regression of time! Break!”

His Chaos Power manifested and caused the surroundings to become distorted. Even the Dark Heavenly Path was affected by his power.

At that moment, a powerful force intervened with the time, causing everything to regress.

Or in other words, James broke through the time’s limit, forcefully traveled through the Dark World’s River of Time, and returned to the past with Sienna.

James and Sienna returned to the moment when Xerxes had appeared.

Swoosh!

The void ahead of them split open, and a figure plummeted through it. The person fell into the mountain range and destroyed the surroundings.

The person was none other than Xerxes.

At that moment, Xerxes no longer had the mighty aura of a Ninth Stage Lord. His hair was messy, his body was covered in blood, and his aura was very weak. It was evident he had suffered severe injuries.

After Xerxes fell into the area, a few unknown creatures also appeared.

The creatures had illusory figures and did not look like they truly existed. Their figures constantly spasmed and were ever-changing. James could not identify what kind of beings they were.

After appearing in the area, they immediately attacked Xerxes.

Xerxes leaped from the ground, unleashing his power to withstand their attacks.

Boom!

An explosion broke out in the space and destroyed the surroundings.

Xerxes seized the chance to escape and quickly disappeared.

The series of events happened in an instant.

Before James could even react, Xerxes had already disappeared.

The strange creatures were about to chase after Xerxes. However, James quickly made a move.

He appeared before them in a flash, raised his hand, and unleashed his Chaos Power.

James' Chaos Power transformed into a sharp sword. He grabbed onto the sword and slashed at the opponents.

The creatures left out bizarre sounds. Immediately afterward, magical power emerged and parried James' sword.

Their forces collided, causing a huge explosion.

The weird creatures immediately disappeared. Meanwhile, James took a few steps after being pushed away by the force. At the same time, a magical power forced them back to when they had just arrived in the area.

James exclaimed, "They're so strong."

Sienna asked, "What kind of monsters were they, James? Why are they so terrifying?"

"I have no idea." James shook his head lightly.

James could not recognize the creatures chasing after Xerxes. However, he paid attention to the direction in which Xerxes had fled. Moreover, he had already driven away the creatures chasing after Xerxes, so they probably stopped their hunt for now.

“Let’s go.” James stretched out his hand and held Sienna’s. Then, they disappeared from the area in a flash.

James traveled in the direction in which Xerxes fled.

They left the Nine Heavens and Ten Earths, appearing in an unknown region.

“James, we can’t go any further.”

Sienna immediately reminded him, “We’re going too deep into the Dark World. We’re about to enter the Unknown Region. No one knows how big it is, and no one dares venture there either. Even the more brazen individuals know they wouldn’t have the strength to survive. The Dark Power’s oppression in there is too powerful, and even a Ninth Stage Lord isn’t capable of withstanding it.”

“But Xerxes went in there.”

James looked ahead into the darkness. The area was shrouded by black mist and looked exactly like the periphery of the Dark World.

However, the dark mist felt even more eerie and sinister. It was not Dark Power but an unknown force that even a Dark Lord feared.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3876-“Unknown Region?” James was slightly taken aback.

“What kind of place is that?”

Sienna explained, “The Dark World is huge. There are the Nine Heavens and Ten Earths. The outermost part of the Dark World is connected to the twelve universes.

“The so-called unknown region is unexplored. There are no living beings in there. It’s somewhat equivalent to the Chaos Space outside the twelve universes, but not exactly the same.

“The twelve universes were formed in the Chaos and exist within it.

“The Dark World’s Unknown Region is different. It’s located in the deepest parts of the Dark World. It’s rumored a passage exists within these areas. However, nothing is known about where it leads to.”

Even though Sienna had been in the Dark World for a long time, she was unfamiliar with the Unknown Region.

James was surprised. The more he learned, the more terrifying the Dark World became.

“Xerxes entered the Unknown Region. I have to find him no matter how dangerous it is. He’s a very crucial piece for me to learn more about Yukia. He holds the clues to solving the puzzles. I have to find him.”

James turned to Sienna and said solemnly, “Since the Unknown Region is so dangerous and anything can happen, you should stay back. I’ll go there myself and quickly check out the situation. Xerxes is already injured, so he mustn’t have gone far. I’m sure I’ll be able to find him rather quickly. I’ll return as soon as I find him.”

“What do you take me for?” Sienna asked. “Do I seem like the type of person to be afraid of danger? Besides, Xerxes is my friend. I’m coming with you. I’m curious about what’s hidden in the Dark World’s Unknown Region as well.”

“Alright.” James nodded.

Sienna was not weak. She was an Eighth Stage Lord, and James was not worried she would become a burden.

The two advanced into the darkness without any hesitation.

The area looked similar to the periphery of the Dark World. It was shrouded in boundless black mist, which contained corrosive powers. Even Dark Beings would be harmed by the power.

In addition, there was an unknown power within the darkness. It was capable of blocking one’s Divine Sense and vision. Even a powerhouse like James had a limited field of sight within the dark mist.

James kept moving forward, following the traces of Xerxes’ aura.

Time seemed nonexistent in the darkness. Although James was a powerhouse, he lost his perception of time there as well. They seemed to have been walking through the darkness for a short while but also an eternity.

“Are you able to sense Xerxes’ aura?”

A feathery voice resounded in the darkness.

James parted his lips and said, “Yeah. Although it’s weak, I can still sense traces of his aura. However, he seems to be in danger. I think those strange creatures might have caught up to him.”

After speaking, James grabbed Sienna’s hand and disappeared from the area. The next moment, they appeared hundreds of millions of kilometers away.

The Unknown Region was vast and seemed as boundless as the Chaos. James and Sienna traveled for a long time but still had not reached the end.

It was rumored the Unknown Region was perilous, but they did not encounter any dangers. Moreover, James did not feel any pressure. It was likely that his incredibly high cultivation rank rendered the force in the area ineffective against him.

However, he gradually felt an oppressive force on his body as he traveled deeper through the black mist.

However, the pressure was nothing serious to him.

Boom!

After an unknown time had passed, James finally heard the sound of fighting.

The battle was fierce, and the surroundings trembled. Even cracks began to form in the dark voids.
