The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3877-ames accelerated his speed and leaped through the void. The deeper he went, the more terrifying the repercussions of the battle.

Soon, James arrived at the battlefield.

The area was destroyed, and the void was shattered.

Xerxes was being besieged by some unknown creatures. His aura was frail, and it seemed he was already exhausted.

“Xerxes!” Sienna shouted and immediately rushed into the battlefield.

At the same time, she unleashed a powerful force to block the opponent’s attacks.

James also dashed in front of the unknown creatures. He released his Chaos Power and emitted a powerful aura. At that moment, he looked like a War God.

Swoosh!

A black light emerged and manifested into a long, black sword.

James held the Demon-Slayer Sword and slashed with it. A dazzling Sword Energy burst out and pierced through the void to attack the creatures before him.

These unknown creatures had already fought James before and knew his strength. However, they had to kill Xerxes to prevent him from exposing their secrets.

James’ mighty strength could destroy a world with just a single blow. The Unknown Region began to tremble the moment he launched his attack.

The strange creatures began to flutter like a cloud of mist. They constantly changed shapes, and it was hard to judge whether it was a group of creatures or a single creature.

The mists transformed into the shape of a sword and blocked James’ attack.

Boom!

The two forces collided and instantly destroyed their surroundings.

A terrifying shock wave swept across, knocking James backward. His Blood Energy churned, and his arms felt numb, almost causing him to lose his grip on the Demon-Slayer Sword.

The sword formed by the strange creatures was split open.

It disintegrated and turned into some black mist. These mists gathered in the distance and formed the shape of a human.

The figure looked very blurry and seemed as if it would dissipate anytime. It stared at James and tried to identify his origin.

James held the Demon-Slayer Sword and asked coldly, "What the hell are you?"

A hoarse voice resounded. "It's none of your business. Leave this instance, and I'll pretend you never showed up. Otherwise, you'll get into trouble, and bad things will befall you."

"You think I'm scared?"

James' face darkened. He rushed over with the Demon-Slayer Sword. His body appeared before the figure in a flash. Then, he raised his hand and slashed at the opponent. The Chaos Power in his body traveled through the Demon-Slayer Sword and burst out in the form of Sword Energy.

The Sword Energy darted toward the dark figure.

The dark figure snorted coldly. A palm attack emerged and blocked James' attack.

Boom! Boom! Boom!

Constant explosions broke out in the sky.

James' Sword Energy struck the illusory palm continuously. The dark figure was ultimately destroyed and faded into the surrounding black mist.

James could not sense the strange creature's aura anymore. He frowned and carefully observed his surroundings.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3878-James could recognize the unknown creatures' aura after just a brief fight with them. Theoretically, he should be able to trace their aura.

However, James had utterly lost track of his opponent.

He sensed his surroundings but could not feel the presence of the unknown creatures.

Since he was in the Unknown Region, the extent to which he could extend his senses was limited.

"What kind of creatures are they? Why are they so strange?" James frowned.

After failing to detect the unknown creatures, James quickly rushed to Xerxes' side.

Xerxes was sitting in a lotus position. His hair was disheveled, his face was pale, and there were blood stains around his lips. He was circulating his energy to heal his wounds. Meanwhile, Sienna stood by the side, protecting him.

When James appeared, Sienna asked, "Are you alright?"

James nodded lightly and said, "I'm fine."

Sienna asked, "What about those evil creatures?"

James shook his head and said, "I don't know. After exchanging a few moves with them, I can tell I'm slightly stronger. However, the creature I fought just now was bizarre. It integrated into the dark mist, and I couldn't detect its whereabouts. I'm sure it's lurking nearby, so watch out for sneak attacks."

Hearing this, Sienna immediately raised her guard.

James squatted down, looked at Xerxes who was in a lotus position on the ground, and asked, "How are you?"

Xerxes said weakly, "I'm lucky you two came in time. Otherwise, I might've died here."

James asked, "What exactly is going on? Why are these creatures after you? What exactly are they?"

Xerxes shook his head slightly and said, "I've no idea where they came from."

"Huff." He took a deep breath.

"After you asked about the Dark Strife, I returned to my family to inquire about it. In some of my family's ancient books, I found notes left by our ancestors and learned about why the Dark Strife broke out."

"Oh?" James was immediately intrigued.

"Enlighten me. How did the Dark Strife break out, and why did Yukia fight against three hundred Ninth Stage Lords?"

Xerxes' expression became solemn. If he had not reached the Lord Rank's Eighth Stage when he returned to look through his family's ancient books, he would not have been able to unlock the seal on his ancestor's note.

"Cut to the chase." James was eager to find out the truth.

Xerxes glanced at James, nodded lightly, and said, "The cause of the Dark Strife is the Acme Path."

"The Acme Path?" James was startled.

Xerxes nodded and said, "Yeah. It's a hidden passage in the Dark World's Unknown Region. It's called the Acme Path. It's rumored that anyone who crosses this passage can go beyond the Lord Rank's Ninth Stage and reach the Acme Rank.

Hearing this, James was puzzled.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3879-"How did it cause the Dark Strife to break out? Why did Yukia fight with the three hundred Ninth Stage Lords?"

Xerxes said, "The Acme Path is a myth and has never been verified. It's said to be hidden within the Unknown Region. No one really knows where it is. Back then, someone spread the news that the Acme Path has opened.

"The Dark World has existed for many years. Throughout these long years, many powerhouses have risen. Those three hundred Ninth Stage Lords were born in the Dark World during these years.

"The Lord Rank's Ninth Stage is the ultimate rank in cultivation. After hearing of the Acme Path and a new cultivation rank, many powerhouses naturally wanted to cross into the Acme Path and enter the Acme Rank.

"However, the Acme Path was merely a conspiracy.

"The mastermind spread rumors about the Acme Path to lure out the hidden Ninth Stage Lords in the Dark World to wipe them out."

Hearing this, James became even more confused.

Could it be that Yukia was the so-called mastermind behind the scene? Was she trying to wipe out the Dark World's Lords?

From everything known, the theory was highly possible since Yukia was a creature from the Illuminated World. The Dark World had always been an opposing force to the Illuminated World. She might have wanted to kill them to ensure the safety of the twelve universes.

James asked, "Could Yukia have wanted to wipe out these Ninth Stage Lords?"

"No." Xerxes shook his head.

James was puzzled. "No?"

Xerxes said, "Although the Acme Path is just a myth to us, it really appeared back then. It's unknown who released the news, but it's said another unknown world is at the end of the Acme Path.

"The power in that world is rumored to be very potent. Only by coming in contact with the power in that world can one surpass the Lord Rank's Ninth Stage and reach the Acme Rank. However, there's a seal at the end of the Acme Path. Once it's open, the power of that unknown world will leak out and destroy the Dark World.

"To Ninth Stage Lords, they had lived through and experienced many things. Their only pursuit left in life was to reach a higher cultivation rank and see a bigger world. These three hundred Ninth Stage Lords wanted to lift the seal at the end of the Acme Path to come in contact with the power of the unknown world so they could enter a higher rank.

"To reach their goals, they would stop at nothing.

"Even my ancestor was the same.

"However, someone prevented them from doing so. And that person was none other than the person you've mentioned, Yukia. She did not want the seal at the end of the Acme Path to be lifted. That was why a huge war broke out. Only the participants in the fight know the truth. No other beings in the Dark World are aware of it.

Hearing this, James had a lot of questions.

"Since the end of the Acme Path is sealed, who was the one that set up the seal? Who released the news? Who was trying to wipe out these Dark Lords? If getting in contact with the power of this unknown world would allow one to reach the Acme Rank, then what do you mean the mastermind's goal was to wipe out these Dark Lords?"

Xerxes explained, "The seal really does exist. However, it's uncertain whether a higher and broader world exists beyond the seal.

"No one knows who released these rumors.

"Meanwhile, Yukia is the one that claimed the mastermind's goal was to wipe out the Ninth Stage Lords.

"It's recorded in the notes left behind by my family's ancestor that Yukia said the so-called Acme Path was a conspiracy. Once it opened, one would be contaminated with unknown power. Not only would one be unable to reach the Acme Rank, but it might also lead to death. Moreover, it would bring devastating consequences to the Dark World and Illuminated World.

“Of course, these three hundred Ninth Stage Lords did not believe her and thought Yukia was just worried they would surpass the Lord Rank’s Ninth Stage and hence was trying to deceive them by saying it was a conspiracy. That was why the battle broke out.

“Ultimately, the three hundred Ninth Stage Lords were severely injured. Even Yukia sustained injuries during the fight. However, an unknown force appeared and wiped out the three hundred Ninth Stage Lords and Yukia along with them.”

“Majority of the Ninth Stage Lords of the Dark World perished. Only a few survived because they did not insist on entering the Acme Path.”

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3880-Xerxes shared the secrets he discovered.

After hearing this, James fell into deep thought. After a while, he asked, “It shouldn’t be possible for the three hundred Dark Lords and Yukia to have been killed, right?”

How could Yukia have died?

The Dark Strife happened before the Ninth Universe was formed. However, Yukia appeared in the Twelfth Universe, and Henrik accompanied her on her travels to other universes.

However, Henrik had never seen her face before. If Yukia had died, who was the person that appeared in the Twelfth Universe?

Moreover, how would Xerxes’ ancestor have left behind notes if all three hundred of them were wiped out?

James asked, “Is the information you obtained reliable?”

Xerxes shook his head and said, “I can’t be sure. It’s the information I found in the notes left behind by my ancestor. Unfortunately, the notes were incomplete and very confusing. Everything I’ve told you is what I’ve learned after sorting them out.

“It’s recorded in the notes that the Acme Path appeared, and almost all Dark Lords came out of hiding and entered the Unknown Region, trying to cross into the Acme Path to reach the Acme Rank.

“I didn’t find anything about the person who released the news from the notes. The last piece of information is that Yukia appeared, claimed everything to be a conspiracy, and tried to prevent these Lords from entering the Acme Path to open the seal. As a result, a massive battle broke out.

“After everyone in the battle was injured, a mysterious force appeared. By then, these Dark Lords immediately realized it was indeed a conspiracy. They might not have died if they were not injured beforehand.”

James asked, “How are your injuries? Are they serious? We should try to leave this place first before making further plans.”

Suddenly, a chilly breeze blew toward them. Even a powerhouse like James felt cold from the wind.

James stood up, gripped the Demon-Slayer Sword, and scanned his surroundings.

Sienna also sensed the unusual aura and quickly looked around her warily.

James looked at Sienna and said, “Those strange creatures are lurking in the darkness. Xerxes read the notes left by his ancestor and attracted their attention. Now that we’ve also learned of this information, they won’t be letting us go easily and will try to kill us here.”

A powerful aura emerged from Sienna’s body, and she said, “Then we’ll destroy them.”

James said, “Xerxes is already injured and has lost his combat strength. He’s not in the condition to fight right now. You should leave with him. Go back to the Malevolent Land. Meanwhile, I’ll stay to figure out what these strange creatures are.”

James planned to stay and fight with the unknown opponent.

Sienna looked at James, nodded slightly, and said, “Alright. Please be careful.”

After speaking, Sienna walked toward Xerxes.

Xerxes stood up, looked at James, and reminded him, “Be careful. These creatures’ strengths are on par with mine, but they have extraordinary power. They also don’t seem to have an aura and are very unpredictable. I was injured a few times because I was careless.”

Xerxes fought against these strange creatures a few times and knew their strength. He knew his unknown opponents were on par with him. However, these creatures had no aura, and it was tough to predict their movements, thus making it hard to defend against them.

“Go on,” said James.

James waved his hand, and his powerful force emerged and tore open a spatial rift.

Although Sienna had the strength to leave, James was still worried and opened a passage for them to leave safely. At the same time, he could try sensing their whereabouts.

Sienna grabbed Xerxes with one hand and rushed into the spatial passage without hesitation. The rift immediately merged after they entered it. James also set up a sigil to prevent their enemies from chasing after their auras.

After Sienna and Xerxes were gone, James closely scanned his surroundings.

The surrounding black mist fluttered, and he could sense the mysterious creatures hiding within it. However, he was unable to detect their precise whereabouts.

James shouted coldly, “Show yourself.”
