The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3881-James' growl was like grumbling thunder. It was deafening, and the whole area trembled.

He watched his surroundings, constantly turning to look at different areas while on high alert.

At that moment, a figure silently appeared behind him. By the time James sensed his presence, it was too late. A sharp blade pierced through his body.

When his body was pierced, he quickly moved and slashed at the figure behind him. The figure was shattered again.

The opponent had left behind a trail of black mist, and James promptly seized the opportunity and grabbed a handful of it.

He looked at the black mist in his hand, which seemed alive and was constantly struggling to break free. James snorted coldly, raised his hand, and sealed the black mist.

James scrutinized the black mist and found it had a similar aura to the mist around him.

Unfortunately, he was unable to find any clues about its origin. However, James knew he could turn it into law sequences in the Illuminated World. Then, he could figure out what it was.

James could no longer sense the unknown creatures around him, so he threw the black mist into the Celestial Abode.

He scanned his surroundings again. However, the creatures seemed to have recognized James' strength and escaped into hiding.

James kept sensing and scanning his surroundings but could not find them, nor did they show themselves again.

Although James' body was pierced, his injuries were not fatal. At his current strength, he was almost immortal. It was hard for others to obliterate him.

James sat in a lotus position and waited for a while. However, the creature never reappeared. He did not wait any longer and put away his Demon-Slayer Sword.

Then, he stood up and left the area.

James stepped forward, and a crack appeared in the void ahead.

He walked through the crack and disappeared into the darkness.

After he left, the area returned to silence.

Shortly after, a few hoarse voices began to chatter.

“He had powerful force.”

“Indeed. It’s very close to becoming Chaos Power.”

“That’s very unusual. We must report this to Master. Otherwise, it would cause a huge problem, and Master would lose control over this area.”

It sounded like two voices were conversing with each other. However, they could not be seen in the darkness.

James was oblivious to their conversation. At that moment, he had already returned to the Malevolent Land.

After James returned, he headed to see Xerxes.

Xerxes was recuperating in his room.

Outside Xerxes’ room, Sienna spotted James, who had returned and said joyfully, “You’re alright! Thank goodness.”

“How is Xerxes?” asked James.

Sienna said, “After we returned, he has been trying to heal his wounds. I was worried, so I stood on guard outside his room. With Xerxes’ strength, he should recover very soon.”

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3882-James wanted to see Xerxes and ask him more questions.

However, he did not rush it since Xerxes was still recuperating. He sat down on a rock in the courtyard outside Xerxes' room.

Sienna walked over and joined him. "What do you think about this matter?"

James' expression was unusually solemn.

He had fought against unknown creatures. Although he was stronger than them, they were very bizarre. They did not have distinctive auras and would be difficult opponents in a fierce fight.

James took out the black mist he had caught when his opponent tried to return into mist form.

Sienna asked, "What is this?"

James looked at the sealed black mist in his palm and said slowly, "I caught this when fighting with the creature in the Unknown Region. I struck him, and it returned into a black mist, so I quickly grabbed some of it. Unfortunately, I'm unable to study it in the Dark World. After I return to the Illuminated World, I'll be able to find out what it is."

James wanted to return to the Illuminated World immediately. However, he had already found clues about Jabari's whereabouts. After he inquired more information from Xerxes, he would head into the Ecclesiastical Restricted Zone to find Jabari.

Jabari had learned some information from the messages Yukia left behind. James was confident he would know more after finding Jabari.

Sienna sighed and said, "If Xerxes' information is true, then we know too little about the twelve universes and Dark World."

James also sighed and said, "Yeah. There seems to be a veil covering the truth. Only by uncovering this veil will I finally be able to get to the truth."

The two chatted, discussing Xerxes' words, the unknown creatures, and the restricted areas in the Dark World.

Since there were no existences that surpassed the Lord Rank's Ninth Stage, why were there so many restricted areas in the Dark World?"

Perhaps the Acme Path was not sealed, and things were the other way around. It was possible that the unknown world on the other side was sealed, and some Acmeans had been trapped in these restricted areas, unable to leave.

James made many speculations. However, he could not get to the bottom of them.

Xerxes was an Eighth Stage Lord, so he quickly recovered from his injuries.

He walked out of his room and spotted James and Sienna nearby. Then, he approached them.

The two sensed that Xerxes had left his room and immediately stood up.

Sienna asked, "Are you okay?"

Xerxes nodded lightly and said, "I'm alright."

James asked, "What do you think about this matter?"

Xerxes immediately replied solemnly, "My family has always lived in peace. However, mysterious creatures appeared after I found and unsealed my ancestor's notes. They attacked me by surprise, and I got injured since I didn't have my guard up."

After speaking, Xerxes glanced at James.

"I have the same doubts. If my ancestor died, who left behind these notes? And why was there a seal on his notes? I have a feeling these notes were not left by my ancestor.

"According to our family's records, our ancestor never came out after entering the depths of the Unknown Region. It's impossible for him to have left behind these notes."

Xerxes expressed his opinion.

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3883

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3883-“I was immediately ambushed after unsealing his notes. It just seems too strange.”

Xerxes had a few doubts.

Who left these notes and set up the seal on them? Why was he attacked and hunted down after he opened the seal?

James also had the same questions. He changed the subject and asked, “Then, what kind of existence do you think are those creatures that attacked you? Where are they from?”

Xerxes shook his head slightly, not knowing the answers either.

After briefly considering it, he said, “There are two possibilities. One is that they’re part of the force that released the news of the Acme Path in the past. Second is that these creatures are from these restricted areas. The Dark World’s restricted areas are full of mysteries.”

James nodded, agreeing with Xerxes’ words.

Sienna asked, “Then, what should we do now?”

James thought for a while and said, “We don’t understand anything yet, so it’s hard to make any moves. All we can do now is wait. Those creatures trying to kill Xerxes didn’t want him to reveal this information.

“One thing for sure is they will definitely take action. We’ll just have to wait for them to make a move. As soon as they act, we’ll discover some clues.

“However, we can’t wait idly for them. During this period, we have to improve our strength. The hidden enemy seems to be very powerful. With our current strength, we might not stand a chance.”

After speaking, James stood up.

“You two stay in the Malevolent Land and don’t go anywhere. Wait patiently here. Meanwhile, I’ll head into the Ecclesiastical Restricted Zone to find Jabari. Yukia had appeared in the Twelfth Universe and recruited Jabari as her disciple.

“Yukia had secretly arranged for these things to happen. There must be a reason she recruited Jabari as his disciple. He might be playing a crucial part in her plans. I have to find him now.”

Startled, Xerxes asked, “The Ecclesiastical Restricted Zone? Y-You’re going to the Ecclesiastical Restricted Zone?”

James nodded. “Yeah.”

Xerxes reminded him, “Although I’ve never been to the Ecclesiastical Restricted Zone, I know how scary that place is. You should really rethink your decision. Restricted regions in the Dark World aren’t as simple as you think. There are many mysteries in these areas. Every restricted zone is full of dangers. There is no return after entering these places.”

James said with determination, “I know the Ecclesiastical Restricted Zone is a dangerous place, but I must go.”

Jabari was in the Ecclesiastical Restricted Zone, so how could he not go?

Moreover, more than half an Epoch had passed since Jabari entered the Ecclesiastical Restricted Zone. James was a bit worried about Jabari’s safety.

Xerxes did not persuade him anymore and reminded him, “Be careful.”

Sienna also reminded him, “Do be careful in the Ecclesiastical Restricted Zone. If you find yourself in danger, escape immediately, and we can devise a plan afterward.

“I understand. I know my limits.” James nodded.

“I shouldn’t delay any further. I’ll depart first.”

After James bid them farewell, he left Mount Malevolent Moon. He disappeared from sight and quickly rushed toward the Ecclesiastical Restricted Zone.

Xerxes looked in the direction James left and murmured, “I hope he returns safely.”

“He will.” Sienna looked into the distance. She had great confidence in James.

“James has overcome many hardships and difficulties. This time, I’m sure he’ll be fine as well.”

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3884-James left the Malevolent Land and rushed toward the area nearest to the Ecclesiastical Restricted Zone.

The Ecclesiastical Restricted Zone was located at the junction of the Boundless Welkin and the Triple Star Welkin.

He arrived in a strange place. It was located in a vast mountain range. No creature dared to come close to this mountain range, as the strange power in the area would contaminate them.

None of those infected with this power had good endings.

Some survived but eventually became corrupted. There were also some cases where some people were contaminated by the Ecclesiastical Restricted Zone’s power, and their power was slowly drained. Ultimately, they turned into mortals without any power and died.

There were too many rumors and mysteries about the Ecclesiastical Restricted Zone.

The Ecclesiastical Restricted Zone was located in an extensive mountain range. Even powerhouses’ Divine Senses could not penetrate it. Therefore, no one knew its exact terrain. When viewed from a bird-eye view, the Ecclesiastical Restricted Zone was shrouded by a powerful force, and it was impossible to see the area.

The power in the area was very lethal to any kind of living beings.

James went to a city close to the Ecclesiastical Restricted Zone.

The Triple Star Welkin was one of the Dark World’s Nine Heavens, and it was a powerful region.

There were many powerhouses in the Triple Star Welkin, including many Dark Lords. The ruler was also a Ninth Stage Lord.

Lord Samsong was among the few Ninth Stage Lords still known to be alive in the Dark World.

The Malignant Star City was on the border of Triple Star Welkin and was close to the Ecclesiastical Restricted Zone.

The Ecclesiastical Restricted Zone was dangerous, and even powerful Lords avoided it. However, the Dark Power near the Ecclesiastical Restricted Zone was abundant and full of Dark Matter. As a result, many valuable treasures formed in the area.

Even rare Macrocosm Herbs and materials that could be used to refine Quasi Chaotic Treasures were available.

As a result, some areas around the Ecclesiastical Restricted Zone had become treasure-hunting areas for many bold adventurers.

James did not know anything about the Ecclesiastical Restricted Zone. He wanted to prepare himself, so he entered the Malignant Star City. Since the city was close to the Ecclesiastical Restricted Zone, they would have a lot of information about the place.

The Malignant Star City had many spiritual mountains, which were the bases of some powerful families and sects. The streets were bustling in the city.

James appeared in the city and began to inquire about the Ecclesiastical Restricted Zone. However, he only obtained inaccurate information or information he already knew.

In conclusion, the Ecclesiastical Restricted Zone was a very mysterious place. Even treasure hunters only dared to linger outside of it and did not dare to get too close.

The creatures that had entered the Ecclesiastical Restricted Zone had never returned alive.

Inside a tavern of the Malignant Star City, James wore a black robe and sat at a table by the window, quietly drinking his wine.

“Have you heard that Lord Samsong has been recruiting powerhouses recently? I heard he’s planning to enter the Ecclesiastical Restricted Zone.”

“I also heard about the rumors. As long as you’re selected, you’ll be rewarded a Chaotic Treasure regardless of the mission’s outcome.”

While drinking, James heard some creatures talking in the tavern.

He had been in the Malignant Star City for a while. During this time, he had collected some information and knew about the Triple Star Welkin’s ruler, Lord Samsong.

Chaotic Treasures were scarce treasures born in the Chaos.

In the Dark World, Chaotic Treasures could also be born. However, they were not formed in the Nine Heavens and Ten Earths.

Instead, they were formed in the deepest parts of the Unknown Region. The Dark World had many powerful Lords, but not all of them had a Chaotic Treasure.

A Chaotic Treasure could significantly improve one’s strength, and even a Dark Lord would be intrigued by a Chaotic Treasure.

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3885

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3885-After Lord Samsong released the news, it attracted the attention of many Dark Lords.

“Lord Samsong wants to venture into the Ecclesiastical Restricted Zone. It’s a great opportunity to enter the deepest parts of the Ecclesiastical Restricted Zone and obtain some boons.”

“Even if there isn’t any reward, it’ll be a good chance to venture into the place if we’re selected.”

Many powerful beings discussed the matter.

“However, there’s a requirement to sign up. Lord Samsong is only recruiting powerhouses at the Lord Rank’s Fifth Stage and above.”

“Why is Lord Samsong going into the Ecclesiastical Restricted Zone?”

“Perhaps Lord Samsong has learned some secrets about the Ecclesiastical Restricted Zone. Or maybe there’s something he wants in there?”

“Lord Samsong is already a mighty powerhouse. There aren’t any treasures that can catch his attention. If there’s any, it has to be a way to enter the Acme Rank. Could there really be a way to enter the Acme Rank in the Ecclesiastical Restricted Zone?”

“I don’t know.”

James listened carefully to the conversation of the tavern’s customers.

Ultimately, he learned that Lord Samong had arrived in the Malignant Star City and was recruiting powerhouses to form a formidable team to venture into the Ecclesiastical Restricted Zone.

After learning of Lord Samsong’s current whereabouts, James picked up his wine glass, gulped everything down, and left the tavern.

James appeared on the street outside, identified the direction, and walked toward Mount Bajuergh, which he learned to be Lord Samsong’s current location.

Mount Bajuergh was a mighty spiritual mountain in Malignant Star City.

Eight powerhouses lived on the spiritual mountain, all of which were Fifth Stage Lords. Together, they were known as Mount Bajuergh’s Eight Lords.

Lord Samsong was temporarily staying on Mount Bajuergh.

Soon, James appeared outside Mount Bajuergh.

Many powerhouses were gathered outside Mount Bajuergh. They had heard about Lord Samsong recruiting powerhouses to enter the Ecclesiastical Restricted Zone.

Some were interested in entering the Ecclesiastical Restricted Zone.

The Ecclesiastical Restricted Zone was a very legendary existence and was taboo to them. Many were interested in venturing into the place but were not courageous enough. Since a Ninth Stage Lord was leading the team, they thought it would be an excellent opportunity for them.

A beautiful woman stood at the mountain foot.

She wore a black dress and had long silver hair. She was gorgeous and had a very sexy figure.

The woman was one of Mount Bajuergh's Eight Lords. She was a powerful Fifth Stage Lord.

She was ordered to lead the recruitment process.

Although many powerhouses were gathered, none stepped forward to sign up. After James appeared, he slowly approached the beautiful woman.

The woman looked at James and said with a bright smile, "Are you here to sign up?"

James nodded lightly and said, "I heard Lord Samsong is here to recruit powerhouses. I've been interested in venturing into the Ecclesiastical Restricted Zone for a long time and specifically came to join."

The woman's name was Quenby Jerneja, and she was ranked last among Mount Bajuergh's Eight Lords. She scanned James up and down, trying to find out his rank. However, she was unable to see through James.

She concluded he was a powerhouse since she could not see through James.

"Alright. Come with me. I'll bring you to see Lord Samsong."

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3886

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3886-Quenby Jerneja was one of Mount Bajuergh's Eight Lords.

She had been waiting at the foot of Mount Bajuergh for a while, and several people had already signed up. However, most of them were mediocre. They would not even be able to withstand the force outside the Ecclesiastical Restricted Zone, let alone enter the depths of it.

As soon as James appeared, Quenby knew he was a powerful man.

Mount Bajuergh was a mountain range consisting of eight mountains.

Many living beings had gathered in a palace hall atop one of these mountains.

A man in his fifties sat in the highest seat. He wore a white robe that had three black stars embroidered onto it. It was none other than Lord Samsong, the ruler of the Triple Star Welkin. He commanded many forces.

He had long, black hair and thick, long eyebrows, which made him look a bit unusual. His face was round, and he emitted a very domineering aura.

Some other people were standing in the hall below him.

Apart from the other seven Mount Bajuergh's Lords, there were another five people. All of them were at least Fifth Stage Lords, some even beyond that.

The group of powerhouses could be regarded as the top powerhouses of the Triple Star Welkin. Together, this group would be strong enough to conquer any of the Ten Earths.

Lord Samsong sat at the highest seat and looked at the dozens of Lords below him. He said calmly, "The Ecclesiastical Restricted Zone is very dangerous, and I can't promise everyone will return safely. Please carefully rethink your decisions and only join me if you're certain."

"Haha!" A burst of laughter broke out in the hall.

"I've long wanted to go to the Ecclesiastical Restricted Zone, but I've never had the chance. Now that you're leading the team, we'll be able to reach the depths of the Ecclesiastical Restricted Zone to learn more about the place. Perhaps we might even find some magical treasures."

The person that spoke was a rowdy-looking man about three to four meters tall. He also had a very muscular body.

The burly man was the second in charge of Mount Bajuergh's Eight Lords, Bram Jenkins, also known as Lord Bram.

"With Lord Samsong, I'm sure everything will go smoothly."

"Even if you don't offer us Chaotic Treasures, I'm still willing to venture into the Ecclesiastical Restricted Zone."

The Lords in the hall expressed their opinions.

Lord Samsong nodded slightly and said, "Alright. Since I'm leading the team, I won't leave anyone behind, no matter what dangers we encounter. We enter as a team and leave as a team."

At that moment, Quenby brought James into the hall.

Quenby said, "Lord Samsong, I recruited another person!"

James entered the hall, looked around, and found more than a dozen Lords. These Lords were relatively strong and were at least at the Lord Rank's Fifth Stage.

In the Illuminated World, they were on par with Macrocosm Ancestral Gods.

Everyone in the hall was capable of dominating the lower-ranked universes.

Ultimately, his gaze landed on Lord Samsong in the highest seat.

Lord Samsong also looked at James. However, he could not see through James' cultivation rank and was slightly surprised. He stood up, clasped his fists, and asked doubtfully, "Who might you be, Sir?"

"Forty-nine," James replied very calmly.

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3887

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3887-Even though Lord Samsong was a Ninth Stage Lord, he remained calm. Instead of a peerless powerhouse, his demeanor felt more like an ordinary person at that moment.

"Forty-nine?" Lord Samsong was taken aback.

Lord Samsong knew almost every powerhouse in the Nine Heavens and Ten Earths. However, Forty-nine was an unfamiliar name.

He could not sense James' cultivation rank, so he knew James was a terrifying powerhouse.

Lord Samsong concluded that James was most likely a Ninth Stage Lord, or at the very least, a Seventh Stage Lord. He must have cultivated an exceptional Supernatural Power, preventing others from sensing his cultivation rank.

Regardless of what the truth was, it was evident that James was a peerless powerhouse.

All the Lords present fixed their eyes on James. None of them could sense James' cultivation rank, but they detected a magical power in James' body.

Lord Samsong pointed to an empty seat beside him and said, "Have a seat."

James nodded, walked over, and sat down.

Lord Samsong looked at the other Lords in the hall and said, "We should have enough numbers. I'll brief everyone on why I want to venture into the Ecclesiastical Restricted Zone."

James' curiosity was piqued.

From his understanding, Lord Samsong was a Ninth Stage Lord. He was almost invincible in the Nine Heavens and Ten Earths of the Dark World. Why did he want to enter the Ecclesiastical Restricted Zone?

Lord Samsong had a serious expression.

Everyone looked at him, waiting for him to speak.

After a while, Lord Samsong slowly took a deep breath and said, "The Ecclesiastical Restricted Zone is a very ancient place. It's not known how long it has existed. There are many rumors about the place, but none of them can be verified.

"I don't know much about the Ecclesiastical Restricted Zone either. However, I sensed strange fluctuations inside the Ecclesiastical Restricted Zone while cultivating some time ago. Although they were very weak fluctuations that were hard to sense, I was able to detect them.

"I immediately unleashed my Divine Sense around the Ecclesiastical Restricted Zone to investigate the fluctuations.

“In the past, my Divine Sense could never penetrate the Ecclesiastical Restricted Zone. For some reason, I was able to reach the Ecclesiastical Restricted Zone this time, and I sensed the Light of Acme inside that area.”

James was intrigued and asked, “What is the Light of Acme?”

The others were also curious.

Although they were powerful Lords, they had never heard of the Light of Acme before.

Lord Samsong explained, “The Light of Acme is an ancient legend. Most people are unaware of it. Not even powerful Lords have heard of it before. I know about it because I’ve read some records from an ancient book.

“After an Acmean dies, their Acme Power would leak out to form a mysterious light ray. However, the death of just one Acmean isn’t enough to form a Light of Acme. At least ten or more Acmeans would have to die to form a Light of Acme.”

Hearing this, James was slightly surprised.

“Aren’t Acmeans just myths? Are they real? Have Acmeans really fallen into the Ecclesiastical Restricted Zone?” asked James.

Lord Samsong shook his head and said, “I can’t be certain either.”

James inquired again, “What’s the use of this Light of Acme? And how can you be sure it’s the Light of Acme?”

Lord Samsong looked at James and explained, “Because I’ve read about it in ancient records. The Light of Acme has many benefits. It’s formed after Acmeans die and consists of magical power. If obtained, one might be able to learn more about Acme Power and find a way to enter the Acme Rank.

“Moreover, the Light of Acme might also be related to the Omniscience Path.”

“Oh?”

Hearing this, James became increasingly interested. He looked at Lord Samsong and said, “Please enlighten me.”

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3888

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3888-James was immediately interested when Lord Samsong mentioned the Omniscience Path.

He had cultivated the Omniscience Path and reached the Fourth Stage, which was unprecedented. However, he had difficulties entering the Fifth Stage.

Lord Samsong explained, "I don't know much about it since I've only read brief records in an ancient book. I'm not even sure if it's real.

"The Omniscience Path is said to be a dead end at the Third Stage. Since ancient times, no one has been able to go beyond and reach the Fourth Stage.

"The ancient book I read claimed the Omniscience Path was incomplete because Acme Power was lost. It's rumored that Acme Power could unlock living beings' potential, allowing them to break their limits and improve their physical strength."

Lord Samsong shared the information he had acquired.

The Ecclesiastical Restricted Zone was dangerous, and he did not want to hide anything from the others. Therefore, he honestly told them everything he knew.

James immediately thought, 'If his words are true, and the Light of Acme really exists in the Ecclesiastical Restricted Zone, I can borrow the strength of the Light of Acme to enter a higher stage in the Omniscience Path.'

His interest in the Ecclesiastical Restricted Zone grew even stronger.

Lord Samsong said, "The Ecclesiastical Restricted Zone is periculuous, and the Light of Acme is also very terrifying. Even a powerful Lord could be killed by the power of the Light of Acme. After entering the Ecclesiastical Restricted Zone, please do not act rashly. Listen to my orders. Understood?"

"Alright."

"I'll follow your every command."

"Don't worry, Lord Samsong. I won't move about without permission."

The Lords replied to him one after another.

Lord Samsong said, "Alright. It's going to be a journey full of danger. Everyone's dismissed. Go ahead and prepare for the trip. Do prepare as many life-saving herbs and treasures as possible. We'll meet at Mount Bajuergh and depart for the Ecclesiastical Restricted Zone in three years."

"Alright." Everyone nodded in agreement.

James did not have much to prepare, so he temporarily stayed on Mount Bajuergh and waited for time to pass.

Time passed by silently.

Three years later, dozens of Lords led by Lord Samsong appeared in the main hall of Mount Bajuergh.

Lord Samsong said, "Let's go."

Immediately afterward, he leaped into the sky and quickly advanced. The other Lords promptly followed suit.

The group left the city almost instantly and headed toward the Ecclesiastical Restricted Zone.

After they left the city, they entered a mountain range.

The mountain range stretched for a few billion kilometers. In light years, the mountain range's diameter was about 300 light years.

After passing through the mountain range, they arrived at the Ecclesiastical Restricted Zone.

The Lords that were heading toward the Ecclesiastical Restricted Zone were very powerful. To them, traveling through the Dark World's Nine Heavens and Ten Earths was very easy, let alone a mountain that spanned 300 light years.

Lord Samsong stopped and looked ahead.

"The Ecclesiastical Restricted Zone is right ahead of us."

There was another vast mountain range ahead of them. From a distance, it looked very majestic. The area contained very mysterious power and was shrouded in white mist.

Only the outermost mountains could be seen. The mysterious fog blocked the mountains inside, making it impossible to see the terrain inside. Not even their Divine Senses could penetrate the area.

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3889

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3889-James carefully observed and sensed his surroundings. Unfortunately, he could not detect Jabari.

However, he was not in a rush.

He entered the Ecclesiastical Restricted Zone from the Triple Star Welkin. Meanwhile, Jabari entered from the Boundless Welkin. Since they entered from different directions, James had already expected that he would not be able to sense Jabari's aura immediately.

As long as Jabari was still alive, James was confident he would detect him after entering the Ecclesiastical Restricted Zone. After he sensed Jabari's whereabouts, it would be easy for him to bring him out.

James looked ahead of him.

His Divine Sense could not pass through the white mist nor detect the terrain inside the Ecclesiastical Restricted Zone.

Apart from the strong Dark Power, there was nothing abnormal yet.

Lord Samsong reminded them, "Be careful."

After speaking, he descended from the sky and landed on the ground. It was important not to enter the Ecclesiastical Restricted Zone recklessly. Therefore, he wanted to advance carefully.

The other Lords also descended from the sky and appeared behind him.

Shortly after, they began to advance.

James walked behind the group.

They crossed mountain after mountain. The deeper they traveled, the stronger the Dark Power and Dark Matter. The pressure on their bodies also grew more substantial.

The pressure was enough to tear apart an Ancestral God. However, these Lords traveled through it as if it were nothing.

The primordial mountains had old trees, and their roots entangled on the ground. Their leaves also covered the sun. Some of the towering trees emitted powerful Dark Matter from their trunks. Dark Matter was crucial for Dark Beings' cultivation.

"There's an abundance of Dark Matter."

A few of the Lord marveled.

Swoosh!

Suddenly, a purple light burst out ahead of them.

Everyone looked toward the light and saw a small, purple tree. The tree had a purple fruit that emitted magical power.

"That's a Macrocosm Fruit."

One of the Lords instantly flashed toward the small tree, uprooted it, and stored it in his storage without hesitation.

However, when he uprooted the small tree, a black light emerged from the ground and swept toward him.

Fortunately, the Lord could block the attack easily.

Macrocosm Herbs would form a protective mechanism where it was born.

Their protective mechanism would not necessarily be a living being. Instead, some had forces formed along with the Macrocosm Herbs to protect them.

Seeing this, Lord Samsong's face darkened. He looked at the man that stored away the tree and reminded coldly, "The Ecclesiastical Restricted Zone is very dangerous! You better not act rashly without my permission again. I'll let you go this time. If there's a next time, I won't let you off easily."

“Understood!”

The man did not dare to refute him.

Lord Samsong turned around, looked at the other Lords behind him, and reminded, “I’m warning everyone, if someone’s action put us all in danger, don’t blame me for being ruthless.”

The Lords immediately expressed their willingness to cooperate.

Meanwhile, James remained silent.

Macrocosm Herbs and Fruits were rare and powerful. However, they would not be able to improve his strength.

His goal for coming to the Ecclesiastical Restricted Zone was to find Jabari.

Now that he had learned about the Light of Acme, he was highly intrigued and would be glad to also obtain it while searching for Jabari.

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3890

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3890-The group slowly advanced under Lord Samsong’s leadership.

They had already arrived at the Ecclesiastical Restricted Zone’s periphery, and the pressure was enough to destroy a Caelum Ancestral God’s body and soul, but those who could participate in the trip were all powerful Lords.

There were many Macrocosm Herbs and Fruits in the area.

Swoosh!

After walking for a while, a long spear emitting powerful energy shot out from the ground and darted into the depths of the Ecclesiastical Restricted Zone.

Someone from the ground shouted, “It’s a Chaotic Treasure!”

Many of the Lords were tempted by the Chaotic Treasure’s appearance and wanted to chase after it. However, they remembered Lord Samsong’s warning and did not dare to act rashly. They could only idly watch as the Chaotic Treasure disappeared from sight.

On the other hand, Lord Samsong was unmoved and did not pursue it. At his cultivation rank, a Chaotic Treasure did not benefit him. Throughout the long years, he had already obtained countless Chaotic Treasures.

James was not interested in Chaotic Treasures. However, he did not want to just watch it slip away.

He stood in place and raised his hand. An illusory palm appeared and flew after the Chaotic Treasure at rapid speed. The palm grabbed the Chaotic Treasure and forcibly pulled it back to James.

It was a long spear about two meters long. The spear's shaft was black, and at the top was a blade that emitted black light. Mysterious power could be seen flowing through the weapon.

The Chaotic Treasure was most likely left behind by a Lord after his death, as there were still traces of the previous owner's consciousness. After James grabbed the spear, power materialized from it and tried to repel him.

However, James unleashed his Chaos Power and suppressed the Chaotic Treasure. At the same time, he wiped away the Dark Power contained in the Chaotic Treasure.

James looked at the spear and murmured, "The Twelfth Universe is short of Chaotic Treasures. I should use this opportunity to find a few more and bring them back to improve the overall strength of the Twelfth Universe."

Afterward, James casually put away the Chaotic Treasure into the Celestial Abode.

Apart from Lord Samsong, all the other Lords looked at him enviously.

Lord Samsong cast a glance at him and continued walking forward without saying anything.

Soon, they arrived at the area shrouded in white mist.

The area was already the central region of the Ecclesiastical Restricted Zone.

Lord Samsong reminded the group again, "Follow behind me very carefully, and don't make any careless moves."

The group slowly walked through the white mist. No plants could be seen around them, only barren mountains.

The ground was full of potholes. Skeletal remains could be seen around them. In addition, there were broken weapons and treasures that still contained magical power.

The power they emitted showed that these treasures were at least Quasi Chaotic Treasures while intact.

James looked at them and felt it was a waste.

The treasures were damaged, and some did not even have any power left. However, they were made with rare materials. As long as he brought them back and spent a little effort refining them, he could at least make Quasi Chaotic Treasures.

James picked everything up and put them into the Celestial Abode.

Lord Samsong said, "There are many skeletal remains here. That means everyone that came here before us encountered danger in this area."

Suddenly, an abnormal fluctuation happened in the white mist. A mysterious Dark Matter emerged and contaminated everyone, instantly corrupting their bodies.
