The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3911-The Chaos Power in his body began to transform into terrifying Murderous Energy at that moment. Overwhelming Murderous Energy surged forth, and James seemed to be the reincarnation of the devil at that point.

Swoosh!

He punched the air, and terrifying Murderous Energy permeated the air. In an instant, the earth shook, and a terrifying battle ripple shredded through the air.

Cultivating the Fists of Wrath was easy. After cultivating the Fists of Wrath, James reappeared on the battlefield and easily defeated two shadows and obtained two cultivation methods. These two cultivation methods were unbelievably precious. In the outside world, they would be sought after by all Ancestral Gods. Here, on the other hand, one would be able to obtain them simply by defeating a few shadows.

After obtaining two cultivation methods, James began cultivating once more. Before long, he had cultivated them successfully. At the same time, he used the three cultivation methods in combination with his own strength and easily shattered the spatial barrier of the first story before arriving at the second story.

The second story's environment was similar to the first, with the only difference being that the living being there was greater in strength. The first story was full of living beings in the Mystical Ancestral God Rank. There were even some who had yet to cross into the Ancestral God Rank. The second story, on the other hand, was different. Most of them were at the Terra Ancestral God Rank.

After asking around, James learned that passing through the second floor required him to comprehend six Supernatural Powers.

James barged into the unknown island.

The first story... The second story... The third story...

James ventured forth. Soon, he arrived at the fourteenth story.

He would receive some mysterious cultivation methods on every floor and comprehend them easily. After cultivating them, his understanding of the cultivation methods in the Dark World grew increasingly profound. He seemed to have found the similarities between the Dark World and the Illuminated World. However, he felt as if he was missing out on something. Just a little more and he would understand the whole truth.

On the fourteenth story...

When James arrived, he could sense a familiar presence.

“Jabari!”

James’ heart trembled. Images of Jabari perishing on the battlefield resurfaced in his mind. To defeat the more powerful Heaven’s Adjudicators, Jabari performed Blossoming, the Forbidden Art he created. However, as his comprehension was limited, he could not perform a complete Blossoming. As such, he could only sacrifice himself and use his own life to replenish the Karma Path and the Five Great Paths. In the end, he managed to deal an effective blow against a Heaven’s Adjudicator. So many years had passed, and he had finally found Jabari in the Dark World.

Upon sensing Jabari’s presence, he immediately headed in his direction.

In a pavilion in the northern mountains on the fourteenth floor, Jabari was sitting in a lotus position on the ground while exuding a powerful aura. Meanwhile, beside him was a glamorous-looking woman who was dressed in a white dress and exuded a charismatic aura.

Swoosh!

James suddenly appeared out of nowhere.

“Who’s there?”

Stunned, the woman raised her arm and struck James. Her attack contained Five-Power Macrocosm Power and was incredibly terrifying.

James raised his arm and easily deflected the attack.

At that moment, Jabari who was in the midst of cultivating stood up. Just as he was about to lend the woman a helping hand, he immediately froze upon seeing James and exclaimed, “James?”

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3912-Jabari was stunned the moment he laid his eyes on James.

“I-Is that really you?”

Jabari stammered.

James looked at him. Jabari was wearing a white robe. His appearance was as handsome-looking as always, and he exuded a charismatic aura. Upon seeing Jabari, tears brimmed in James’ eyes.

Many years had passed in the blink of an eye. When he was searching around for the Ancestral God Rank Elixir’s whereabouts in the Boundless Realm, he was still an insignificant nobody. It was Jabari who offered him guidance and a helping hand time and again. Even when Jabari perished, he was still weak. He could never forget the scene when Jabari performed Blossoming and sacrificed himself to complete the Sacred Blossom and gravely injured the Heaven’s Adjudicator.

“Jabari... Master...” James said.

Jabari was a master to James. Even though James’ rank had far surpassed Jabari, he would still be a nobody if not for Jabari. Not only was Jabari his master, but he was also his friend.

“I never thought I’d see you again in the Dark World. Are you dead?” Jabari stepped forward and patted James’ chest.

The muscles on James’ face twitched.

Dead?

He laughed awkwardly.

“Who is this, Jabari?’ The glamorous woman asked.

She was a Fifth Stage Lord. Though she used her full strength, James managed to deflect her attack easily. Deep down, she was stunned. James' power was simply too terrifying.

Jabari smiled and explained, "He's James Caden, a good friend of mine in the outside world. He's a terrifying prodigy who possesses incredible providence."

Hearing this, the woman glanced at James.

Jabari pointed to a meadow and said, "Let's have a seat."

James sat in a lotus position on the ground.

"James, allow me to introduce to you Xulia Xaadsan, my partner."

Jabari introduced.

James froze. In his memory, Jabari had been searching for Yukia Dearnaley his whole life. Yukia was the most important person to him.

However, he was only slightly stunned. After all, Jabari had entered the Dark World for many long years. It was only normal that he would meet someone who was a perfect match for him.

He also knew about Xulia. After all, he had been to the Xaadsans and learned some pieces of information.

"James, what happened in the outside world? How did you die?" Jabari asked.

James smiled and said, "I'm not dead yet. How would I die? I came here to the Dark World as a living being of the Illuminated World."

Hearing this, Jabari was stunned.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3913-There were some differences between the living beings of the Dark World and the Illuminated World. The moment a living being of the Illuminated World stepped into the Dark World, his presence would immediately be detected. This meant that the living beings of the Illuminated World would have a tough time moving around in the Dark World.

“What happened?” Jabari asked puzzledly.

James fell into deep contemplation. After some time, he said, “Back then, you sacrificed yourself and performed Blossoming the Forbidden Art...”

James began to narrate the past events — from Jabari’s death, the Fourth Calamity on Earth, Thea becoming the Ancestral God Rank Elixir, resolving the crisis of the Fourth Calamity, using the Time Capsule to return to the Primeval Age in search of Thea, the creation of the Thirteenth Universe, his death in the Thirteenth Universe, his cultivation of Chaos, his return to this age, his journey to the First Universe, his encounter with Sienna Callahan, and him teaching the Path in the Twelfth Universe before finally arriving at the Dark World. James narrated all the events that happened in the past.

“I came here to the Dark World with two objectives in mind. One, I came here in search of Yukia Dearnaley to learn more about this world. Two, I came here searching for you. I detected your presence in the Nine Heavens and Ten Earths in the Dark World. Then, I found your aura in the Xaadsans. There, I learned that you had escaped to the Ecclesiastical Restricted Zone, hence my appearance.”

James narrated the events that occurred at the Xaadsans.

“Nonsense!” Xulia berated James.

James knew that events did not transpire as people say. He knew that Jabari had no interest in gaining power. So why would he be involved in so many conspiracies just to be the Patriarch of the Xaadsans?

Jabari said, “That’s not true. Xulia and I met as we trained together. We overcame many obstacles together. In the end, she brought me to the Xaadsans where I stayed for some time. The Xaadsans are a huge family. As such, they have many internal conflicts. Though Xulia’s father is the Patriarch, many people are disgruntled. My appearance instilled a sense of urgency and danger in them. If they allow me to grow further, Xulia’s bloodline will be able to have complete control of the Xaadsans. So, they concocted a plot to frame me and Xulia. As I was poisoned, I was no match for them. So, I could only escape alongside Xulia.”

Jabari briefly explained the chain of events that occurred.

“Mhm.” James nodded slightly and said, “We just have to annihilate them once we leave the Ecclesiastical Restricted Zone.”

James said nonchalantly for he could not care less about the Xaadsans.

“By the way...” James looked at Jabari and said, “We entered a palace together when we were in the Dark World back then. The palace was left behind by Yukia, and you used a Guqin to decipher the message she left behind. What exactly did she leave behind? Why did you tell me that you intend to follow Yukia’s footsteps in the Dark World when you died?”

James came searching for Jabari because he wanted to learn more about Yukia.

Hearing this, Jabari’s expression turned grim as he glanced at James. He already knew about these things long ago. However, as James was still weak back then, he did not wish to shoulder him with an unnecessary burden. That was why he chose to keep this a secret from him.

Now, James was already a powerful individual.

Ever since Jabari entered the Dark World, the providence he encountered was bountiful, and his strength increased drastically. Though he only entered the Dark World for about an Epoch, he was already a Sixth Stage Lord. Even so, he could not see through James’ cultivation base.

James had told him about his cultivation of Chaos, his journey to the First Universe, and his preaching of the Path in the Twelfth Universe. Yet, he did not tell him anything about his mastery of cultivation.

“James, what’s your cultivation base at the moment?” Jabari asked.

James answered truthfully, “I’m no longer in any rank. My strength should be equivalent to a Nine-Power Macrocosm Ancestral God or a Ninth Stage Lord. Perhaps I have surpassed even that.”

Jabari took a deep breath. Even Xulia beside him was stunned by James’ rank.

He said, “At your rank, you certainly have the right to learn of this information. I shall now tell you the whole truth. However, you need to brace yourself.

What I'm about to tell you will completely change your understanding of this world."

"Mhm, I understand."

James was desperate to know what had Yukia left behind. Not only that, but he was also curious to know what had happened before the Illuminated World was created and the events that occurred in the Dark World."

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3914-James looked at Jabari.

Jabari arranged his thoughts and said, "This is a long story. So let us begin from the very beginning."

"Mhm." James nodded.

Even Xulia was staring at Jabari. Though she had known Jabari for a very long time now, she did not know that Jabari had been keeping such a secret from her.

"We will begin with the Greater Realms."

"The Greater Realms?" James froze.

"Yes." Jabari said, "The so-called Greater Realms refer to the world outside the Dark World. A long time ago, the Dark World was not the Dark World as we know of today. Rather, it is but one of many worlds in the Greater Realms. Legend has it that there's an Acme Path in the depths of an unknown region in the Dark World. That is not fiction. That path leads to the Greater Realms. However, many events occurred that led to the closure of the path. This caused the Dark World to be isolated from the Greater Realms, and thus a separate space was born."

"Hold on." James interrupted Jabari and asked, "Since the Dark World was once a part of the Greater Realms, what are the twelve universes in the outside world? Why is there hostility between them and the Dark World? Besides, what is the Chaos outside the twelve universes?"

Jabari explained, "Let's first talk about the Chaos. The Chaos is but one of many desolated regions in the Greater Realms. The only reason why the Chaos is boundless is that the power of a mere Macrocosm Ancestral God is insufficient to truly traverse the Chaos. Meanwhile, the depths of the Dark World are connected to the Chaos. Hence, the unknown region of the Dark World is also known as the Chaos.”

Hearing this, James roughly understood. He remained silent and waited for Jabari to continue.

Jabari continued, “The Greater Realms exist within the Chaos. However, the Dark World is but one of many worlds in the Greater Realms. As the Chaos is too vast, not to mention there are certain limitations in place, only by attaining the Acme Rank can one break the limitations of the Chaos and head to the other worlds in the Greater Realms.”

The answer certainly exceeded James’ expectations.

Jabari continued, “Acmeans once existed in the most primordial of times in the Dark World. However, a war broke out, and the Greater Realms attacked the Dark World, annihilating all Acmeans in the process and severing the cultivation path of the Omniscience Path. They even sealed off the pathway connecting the Dark World to the Greater Realms, thereby leading to the Dark World’s isolation. In the message left behind by Yukia, the Dark World was once called the Primordial Realm and was one of the core worlds of the Greater Realms.”

Hearing this, James asked, “How did the war break out? Why did the Greater Realms attack the Dark World?”

Jabari explained, “Simple, really. That’s because different races are in different camps. The Primordial Realm is primarily inhabited by the Human Race. Meanwhile, the Human Race’s potential is too huge and frightening. The Human Race breeds like rabbits. The Human Race of the Primordial Realm even made occasional intrusions into the Greater Realms. Sensing the imminent danger, a war between races erupted. I don’t know much about the specifics of the war but I know that the Human Race of the Primordial Realm was completely eradicated. To prevent the re-emergence of the Human Race, the powerful individuals of the other races performed a Grand Supernatural Power and severed the potential of the Human Race, thus rendering the Omniscience Path a dead end. However, a human survived.”

James immediately guessed it and said, “Yukia?”

“That’s right.” Jabari nodded and said, “She survived.”

“At the same time when the powerful individuals of the Primordial Realm were destroyed, evil energy began to invade. They contaminated the Primordial Realm and even the souls of all living beings. After they contaminated the Heavenly Path of the Primordial Realm, the Dark World was formed.”

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3915-“In the beginning, the living beings of the Primordial Realm were almost completely unable to cultivate anymore. It was Yukia who created a brand-new cultivation system. Besides, Yukia sowed forty-nine Universe Seeds in the Chaos so that the human race would once have a new environment. The Universe Seeds transformed into brand-new universes. As the power of Heaven and Earth of this universe was free from contamination, a new environment was created for the Human Race and even the living beings of other races in the Primordial Realm.”

James furrowed his eyebrows and asked, “This means that the current Dark World has been contaminated by foreign malevolent energy. Does this contamination have any effect on the living beings in the Dark World? I didn’t notice anything amiss, nor did I see any evidence that the malevolent energy have any effect on the living beings of the Dark World.”

Jabari explained, “That’s because the living beings of the Primordial Realm have gotten used to the power. That’s why there isn’t any effect on them. The living beings in the outside world are the ones who aren’t contaminated. As such, these beings will be corroded upon arriving at the Dark World. In the end, his physical body will be corroded, and even the remnants of his soul will become an evil spirit. Although the power of the current Dark World has no effect on the living beings here, the effects will begin to manifest once one reaches the pinnacle of the Ninth Stage Lord Rank. One will become insane and lose all consciousness.”

Hearing this, James remembered the humongous beast he encountered on the ancient battlefield. Perhaps it was the power of the Dark World that caused it to go insane.

“What is the truth Yukia has been seeking all along?” James asked.

Yukia left behind many messages stating that she intended to pursue the truth.

Jabari explained, “Yukia is the last powerful individual of the Primordial Realm’s Human Race. Faced with an utterly destroyed homeland, she was filled with despair and helplessness. All this while, she remained in the shadows and guided the development of the Primordial Realm. The truth that she seeks is simple. She wishes to lead the Human Race and the Primordial Realm and return to the Greater Realms.

“Cultivation is divided into fifty. After discarding the other forty-nine, the myriad of beings transformed into three, before dividing into two and arriving at one. In Yukia’s message, ‘Cultivation is divided into fifty’ refers to the fifty powerful individuals of the Primordial Realm in the past. However, forty-nine of them perished on the battlefield and were transformed into forty-nine Universe Seeds. They then became the Path, which could transform into various objects. Among the fifty powerful individuals, only Yukia remained, hence her name.”

Hearing this, James was dumbfounded. So there was a meaning to this.

“What about ‘the myriad of beings transformed into three, before dividing into two and arriving at one’? What’s the meaning of this phrase?” James asked.

Jabari said, “The forty-nine Universe Seeds were created after the death of the forty-nine powerful individuals of the Primordial Realm. Yukia planted them in the Chaos, through which forty-nine universes would be born. However, that is not Yukia’s objective. Her plan is to use the forty-nine Universe Seeds to form a world that is not beneath the Primordial Realm in strength. The Primordial Realm is no longer suitable for human habitation. Its power had been contaminated and could no longer produce any Acmeans. So, a new environment is needed. Only when all forty-nine universes are created and merged into one can a brand-new world be born. Such a world can create powerful individuals beyond the Nine-Power Macrocosm Ancestral God Rank. This is the only way to break the seal of the Dark World and expel the malevolent energy here.”

Hearing this, James’ mouth was agape. Jabari’s words indeed exceeded his wildest imagination.

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3916

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3916-After learning about this, everything was suddenly clear now. Since the Dark World was contaminated and the Greater Realms had annihilated all powerful figures of the Primordial Realm, the possibility exists that there were spies among them. Once these spies spotted beings that could threaten the Greater Realms, these beings would be annihilated. This explained the war back then. News of the Acme Path's reopening must have spread from the spies to ensure the complete destruction of any potential threat. Upon hearing whispers of this conspiracy, Yulia stepped forward and stopped these beings. Doubtful of Yulia's intentions, they fought against her and were eradicated in the end.

However, James believed that Yulia was alive. Otherwise, she would not have been able to guide him from the shadows.

"Where is Yulia at the moment?" James asked.

Jabari shook his head and said, "I don't know. When I learned about this, I have been steadfast in searching for her. She's too helpless and lonely in this world. Only she survived in the entire Primordial World. I want to become stronger as soon as possible and help her out."

Xulia, on the other hand, was stunned upon hearing this. She never thought that the Dark World would have such a history, nor did she anticipate learning the history of the outside world.

"What's Yulia's real name then?" James asked.

"Just Yulia Dearnaley. Because she was the only one who remained."

Jabari glanced at James.

"You can't tell me her name?" James looked at him.

After some contemplation, he said, "Based on what I know, Yulia's real name is Thea."

"What?!"

James stood up all of a sudden.

Jabari immediately said, "Calm down and listen to me."

James sat back down.

Jabari said, “Actually, Yukia was merely a thread of a soul that escaped from the war against the Greater Realms. After reincarnating, the soul transformed into Thea.

“That’s right, Yukia Dearnaley is actually Thea Callahan. However, this Thea is not the one who transformed into an Ancestral God Rank Elixir. The Thea that you know is a thread of a soul of the Thea of the Twelfth Universe. Meanwhile, the Thea of the Primeval Age is the reincarnation of the Yukia Dearnaley.”

Hearing this, James was stunned. However, he understood Jabari’s words. This meant that Yukia had perished when the Greater Realms attacked the Primordial Realm, and she became Thea when her soul reincarnated. This Thea was formed by the reincarnation of Yukia Dearnaley and was the one who sowed the Universe Seeds and wandered every corner of the Dark World. However, this Thea also had an avatar that reincarnated in the Twelfth Universe in the Primeval Age, whom James encountered when he traveled back in time. A thread of this Thea’s soul transformed into an Ancestral God Rank Elixir. After the elixir was shattered, the remnants of the soul were reincarnated once more and became the Thea Callahan of the modern age, the one who saved James from the fire.

James had no idea where the true Thea, also known as Yukia Dearnaley, was at the moment.

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3917

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3917-The Thea who was an avatar of Yukia reincarnated once more to a time where even James did not know. Perhaps this avatar did not reincarnate but rather returned to Yukia’s original self.

“Just who exactly is my wife?” James was at a loss.

Was the Thea transformed into an Ancestral God Rank Elixir his wife or the one who existed in the Primeval Age’s Twelfth Universe? The Ancestral God Rank Elixir was the remnant of the Thea who existed in the Primeval Age’s Twelfth Universe. Meanwhile, the Thea who existed in the Primeval Age’s Twelfth Universe was the remnant of Yukia Dearnaley’s soul. Yukia, on the other hand, was the reincarnation of a powerful individual of the Primordial Realm.

James was dumbfounded. So this was the truth all along.

Jabari was feeling awkward as well. Ever since learning about this, he still found this to accept. He never thought that Yukia, the woman whom he was infatuated with, would be Thea's past life. Fortunately, he encountered Xulia in the Dark World. However, even though he encountered Xulia, he was still respectful toward Yukia. Yukia was his motivation and a figure whom he greatly respected.

James sat in the pavilion and fell into deep thought. He was now at a loss. He thought he would be able to find his wife if he found Thea's reincarnation. However, the Thea whom he met was an avatar of Yukia. Must he find Yukia in order to find his wife?

"James!" Jabari cried out.

It interrupted James' thoughts. Dejected, he said, "Ever since Thea died after transforming into an Ancestral God Rank Elixir, I learned that her original self came from the Primeval Age's Twelfth Universe. Though I found her in the Primeval Age, she has reincarnated once more. She said that we would meet again one day if fate so desires. Now that I know that the real Thea is but an avatar of Yukia, I find this hard to accept."

"Don't overthink things." Jabari consoled him, "Everything the avatar feels will be felt by the true self as well. The avatar's experience is also the original self's experience. Everything that happened between you and Thea, no matter the one in the Primeval Age or the one who transformed into an Ancestral God Rank Elixir, Yukia would have experienced them. Since the Thea of the Primeval Age's Twelfth Universe and the one who transformed into an Ancestral God Rank Elixir acknowledge you, this means that Yukia acknowledges you as well. This means that Yukia is your real wife."

Hearing this, James immediately got over it. He stood up and said with firm determination, "Thea has been too helpless and lonely. She has sacrificed too much so that she can guide the Human Race forward. I must grow stronger as soon as possible to help her out."

Upon knowing the whole truth and Thea's true identity, James was immediately motivated. Since Thea's objective was to accelerate the creation of the forty-nine universes, he had to leave the Dark World as soon as possible and head to the outside world to find the remaining Universe Seeds in the Chaos and stimulate the creation of the other universes. Then, he would merge these universes into one and form a world that was not beneath the Primordial Realm. Upon doing this, he believed that Yukia, Thea's true self, would appear.

Jabari stood up and gave his assurance, "I was an ordinary man. Without my master, I'm a nobody. Let us work hard and fulfill her wish."

James nodded. Then, he stroked his chin and said, pensively, "I'm curious though, who was the one who was offering me guidance from the shadows? Was it Yukia or one of her reincarnations?"

Jabari said, "Who cares? You only need to know that your wife Thea is the one who is making the arrangements."

James glanced at Jabari and said with a smile, "Doesn't that mean our relationship is all messed up? Yukia's your master, and she also just happens to be my wife. You, on the other hand, are my master."

Jabari said awkwardly, "Who cares? From today onwards, you will be a brother to me."

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3918

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3918-Upon learning the truth, James was now motivated.

Jabari, on the other hand, knew everything long ago. Back then when he was in the Dark World's palace, he used the Guqin left behind by Yukia and learned about these matters. That was why he asked James to take the Guqin away. Since this belonged to James' wife, the item should technically belong to James. Meanwhile, James' Celestial Abode was given to him by Yukia. After revealing the whole truth, Jabari breathed a sigh of relief as well. These secrets had been buried deep inside him for a very long time. He was waiting for James to emerge as a force to be reckoned with so that he could tell him everything. Based on his calculations, he planned to head to the Twelfth Universe to search for James after the Dark World had become stronger. However, something unexpected happened, and he was forced to enter the Ecclesiastical Restricted Zone and was imprisoned on this island.

James scanned his surroundings and asked, "Jabari, how much do you know about this island?"

James had reached the fourteenth story. On every floor, he tried using his own power to break the spatial barriers but to no avail. Each floor required the comprehension of brand-new cultivation methods, Supernatural Powers, and secret arts to break through the spatial barrier and arrive at the next floor.

Jabari shook his head slightly and said, "I don't understand much either. However, based on my hypothesis, that was during the age of the Primordial Realm. It was left behind by a powerful individual to ensure his bloodline's survival."

Xulia nodded and said, "That's right. Based on our speculation, perhaps only one would have the right to inherit the powerful individual's inheritance."

James, however, spoke, "Actually, I have no interest in the inheritance of any powerful individual. Under Thea's guidance, I have walked down a brand-new cultivation path. What I need now is not the inheritance of a powerful individual. Rather, I should continue down the path, whose foundation had been extrapolated by Thea."

Jabari said, "To create, one must first learn. Only by understanding can one create."

"Indeed." James smiled. "In that case, let us work together and learn the myriad of Supernatural Powers. We will reach the eighteenth floor together. Let's see what the inheritance left behind by the powerful individual is."

"Alright."

Jabari nodded.

Then, James headed to the ancient battlefield in the center of the mountain and began annihilating the shadows.

The shadows in each space possessed varying degrees of strength. In the beginning, the shadows were weak. However, upon arriving at the fourteenth story, the shadow's strength had reached the Fourth to Fifth Stage Lord Rank. Even for Xulia, it would be difficult for her to defeat these shadows. However, as a Sixth Stage Lord, Jabari could defeat them with ease.

James went to defeat the shadows, whereas Jabari continued his closed-door meditation. As James' strength was formidable, he could defeat the shadows easily. Each time he defeated a shadow, the shadows would drop something—whether they were cultivation methods, Supernatural Powers, or some ancient Forbidden Arts.

James kept annihilating the shadows and obtained many Supernatural Powers.

He did not interrupt Jabari but instead chose a pavilion devoid of living beings and cultivated there. As the Supernatural Powers in the fourteenth story were profound, even James needed to spend some time to understand and comprehend them.

He remained at the fourteenth story for approximately fifty million years. At last, he comprehended many cultivation methods and gained the power to destroy the spatial barrier.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3919-His body flashed, and he appeared before Jabari.

“Jabari.” He said.

Jabari immediately stood up and looked at James, saying smilingly, “James, how’s the comprehension going?”

James said, “I’m close. I have gained the right to break the fourteenth story’s spatial barrier. What about you?”

Jabari said, “I’m almost there. There are still some parts that I haven’t comprehended yet.”

“Why don’t you follow me? I will take you out of here.” James said.

“Nevermind.” Jabari shook his head and said, “These cultivation methods are very profound, considering they were left behind since the Primordial Realm’s age. This will be very beneficial to me. The more I comprehend, the stronger I will be. I firmly believe that I will reach the Ninth Stage Lord as long as I enter the eighteenth floor.”

“You should leave, James. The outside world needs you. The Dark World is full of malevolent beings from the Greater Realms. They are watching the words and actions of the Dark World and even the Illuminated World from the shadows. I speculate that Master keeps reincarnating because her strength has not yet returned to its pinnacle. As such, she fears these malevolent spirits for she would die once discovered. By reincarnating constantly, she would prevent her true self from being discovered. Even if she's annihilated, her avatars still live on. That way, hope will not be extinguished. When you return to the outside world, be careful of the malevolent beings from the Greater Realms that linger in the Dark World," Jabari warned.

James, however, furrowed his eyebrows and said, "I have already been exposed. In fact, I have fought against some of these malevolent beings."

Hearing this, Jabari's expression turned grim as he warned once more, "You have to be on your guard. Based on what you said, perhaps Master purposely exposed you so that you would tie down the forces of these malevolent beings from the Greater Realms in the Dark World. That way, she would have time to set up her defenses."

James nodded and said, "In any case, I will be careful. I won't linger here for long. I will head to the next story and leave this place as soon as possible. I wait for you outside. Then, we will fight shoulder to shoulder, back to back."

"Alright," Jabari replied.

Then, James' body flashed, and he appeared in the sky and catalyzed the cultivation methods, Supernatural Powers, and secret arts he comprehended in the fourteenth story in combination with his power to forcibly break the spatial barrier.

In the next instant, he was already on the fifteenth floor. The higher up he went, the fewer living beings there were. There were only a few hundred living beings here. Though their numbers were few, their strength was formidable, and they were at least at the Lord Rank's Fifth Stage.

"Finally, another one."

"It's been so long. There's finally another guy here on the fifteenth floor."

"Indeed... Thousands of Epochs have passed since another living being appeared."

"I'm bored to death. Finally, some entertainment."

The moment James appeared, he could sense many gazes fixed on him. He even sensed the presence of battle intent.

He furrowed his eyebrows.

Swish!

A light flickered, and a man appeared before him. Wearing a mischievous grin on his face, he asked, "What's your name, kid? Where do you come from?"

The person's strength was strong, and he exuded a powerful aura. He cracked his knuckles, seemingly on the verge of resorting to violence.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3920-The moment James appeared on the fifteenth floor, a powerful individual appeared before him and asked for his name. The person exuded a fighting aura. Apparently, he was up to no good. Under James' sensation, he sensed that this person was at the Lord Rank's Sixth Stage.

After scrutinizing the man from head to toe, James asked coldly, "Can I help you?"

"I'm asking you a question, kid!" The man had a fiery temper. As he took a step forward, he was already before James. As he grabbed him by the collar, he tried to lift him up and tossed him to the ground.

Many living beings gathered in the surroundings. They were looking forward to watching the show. They had been trapped here for a very long time now. For many Epochs now, not a single living being had arrived at the fifteenth floor. As such, they had fought against each other countless times and knew each other inside out. Now that a new guy was here, they could finally watch something new.

The man's hand touched James. However, at that moment, James mysteriously disappeared. The man froze. At that moment, as if sensing something, he turned around abruptly. However, it was at that moment James raised his arm and struck the man.

Their palms collided.

Boom!

A terrifying battle ripple shredded through the air.

The man was immediately sent flying and crashed heavily into the ancient battlefield straight ahead. Dust swirled in the air.

This was the fifteenth space, whose space was formidable and terrifying. Even the exchange of blows between two Sixth Stage Lords would not cause any serious destruction. Even if certain places were destroyed, the space possessed an immense power that could heal the shattered space in an instant.

The man collapsed to the ground and spurted a mouthful of blood.

Meanwhile, James simply remained in mid-air. As he scanned his surroundings, he said coldly, "Come at me all at once."

Though James' voice was calm, it was arrogant.

The living beings all looked at one another. None dared make the first move for James demonstrated a power so immense that they were utterly shocked.

James paid no heed to them. Instead, his body flashed, and he appeared on the battlefield below. The moment he appeared, shadows materialized on the ancient battlefield. He performed a Grand Supernatural Power. As he raised his hand, the shadows at the forefront were immediately pulled toward him. As he swung his arm, terrifying power burst forth and annihilated thousands of shadows in an instant. This scene made the spectators' blood run cold.

"H-How strong..."

"He annihilated thousands of shadows in a single strike. How terrifying..."

Everyone was stunned.

James, however, paid no heed to them. After annihilating the shadows, mysterious cultivation methods and Supernatural Powers dropped on the ground. As James casually waved his arm, he collected these powers, appeared in a pavilion nearby, and began his closed-door meditation.

As James was immersed in his cultivation, the other living beings gathered.

“He’s unbelievable.”

“Reaching the sixteenth floor is too difficult. I wonder if he can make it.”

They gathered and discussed.

James chose to ignore them. He comprehended the cultivation methods and Supernatural Powers non-stop.”

In the blink of an eye, 100 million years passed. James had been cultivating on the fifteenth floor for a whole 100 million years. Over the past 100 million years, he had comprehended many cultivation methods and was ready to break through the sixteenth floor.
