The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3936-After James entered the main hall, the door to the main hall closed.

The main hall was vast and empty.

Ahead of James was a seat.

Scanning his surroundings, James did not find anything special about the main hall.

At this moment, a faint shadow appeared on the seat in the main hall. The shadow gradually materialized. In the end, it became a burly man.

The man was taller than an average human. He was nearly three meters tall. He wore a grey robe, and his aura was strong. Even James could sense an invisible pressure from him.

James stared at the man who had just shown himself.

James knew that the shadow was formed by Zen and that the person had died during the Primordial Realm Era.

“You’ve finally come,” the burly man spoke in a loud voice.

Looking at him, James knew that he was Master Mateo, the true master of the Ecclesiastical Restricted Zone during the Primordial Realm Era. He might be one of the fifty powerhouses in the Primordial Realm.

James greeted the man before him respectfully, “Greetings,

Master Mateo. I’m James.”

Master Mateo waved his hand. Then, he sighed, saying, “Save the formalities. I thought no human would appear before my consciousness disappears. I didn’t expect a human to come to this place right before my consciousness disappeared. You managed to open up your potential and reach the Sixth Stage Omniscience Path even after the vitality and potential have been cut off. You’re excellent. You qualify to inherit Mount Ecclesiastical.”

Facing a peerless powerhouse of the Primordial Realm Era, James dared not disrespect him.

Besides, James had many questions he wanted to ask.

Although the person before him was only the person's consciousness, the person was from the Primordial Realm Era. He had experienced the battle of the Primordial Realm Era. Perhaps he knew some pieces of information about Yukia and Thea.

"May I ask you a few questions?" James asked.

"Go ahead." Master Thea looked at James.

James asked, "In the Primordial Realm Era, among the powerhouses of the Human Race, was there a person called Thea Callahan?"

He wanted to know about the matters concerning Yukia, who was Thea.

Everything he currently knew was informed by Jabari. Jabari told him the information about Yukia staying in a palace in the Dark World and that Yukia was Thea.

However, James did not know if the information was accurate.

When Master Mateo heard James ask about Thea, he nodded slightly and responded, "The Thea you mentioned did exist. She had a high prestige among the Human Race of the Primordial Realm and was known as Madam Thea. She was one of the top powerhouses among the Human Race."

Phew!

Upon receiving a confirmation from Master Mateo, James took a deep breath.

It really was Thea. Yukia was Thea. She was his wife.

Why did this thought not cross his mind? His wife was a peerless powerhouse during the Primordial Realm Era and was known as Madam Thea. How much credit did she make for the Human Race to get this title?

"Is there anything else you want to ask?" Master Mateo questioned.

Looking at him, James asked, "I want to find out about the affairs regarding the Primordial Realm. It's regarding the details of the battle between races."

Upon hearing that, Master Mateo fell into deep thought, and he appeared sad.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3937-The battle between races was cruel.

Master Mateo did not want to recall the details of it.

However, it was a disgrace to the Human Race, and the Human Race should not forget about it. They needed to remember it.

"The Primordial Realm was one of the Greater Realms. At the same time, it was the most dazzling realm among the Greater Realms. The reproduction of the Human Race was too strong. The size of the Human Race also expanded in the Greater Realms. The Human Race even invaded other races and married other races. This caused the bloodline of the other races to be impure.

"If it continued, the Human Race would become the true master of the Greater Realms one day.

"Nonetheless, this was something several races did not want to see.

"Thus, the Ten Great Races formed an alliance and held a secret meeting. In the meeting, the Ten Great Races reached a consensus, which was to take action against the Human Race.

"The Ten Great Races allied with other races and began suppressing the Human Race. They declared war on the Human Race.

"In the end, the powerhouses of the Primordial Realm's Human Race joined the battle, and the Primordial Realm became the main battlefield. During the battle, all powerhouses of the Human Race fought in the battle, but the enemy was too strong. So, all powerhouses of the Human Race died and failed to achieve victory.

"At the end of the battle, the powerhouses of the Human Race were wiped out, and the Ten Great Races used Forbidden Art to seal the Primordial Realm. They also cut off the potential and vitality of the Primordial Realm's living beings, causing the living beings in the Primordial Realm unable to become a true powerhouse. In this way, the Human Race would not be a threat to the other races.

"The fifty powerhouses of the Human Race knew they would lose the battle, so they made a plan beforehand. After they died in battle, they would turn into Universe Seeds.

"Madam Thea of the Human Race, whom you mentioned, used an underhand attempt and escaped the battlefield alive. She scattered the Universe Seeds in the Chaos outside the Primordial Realm to create a realm as strong as the Primordial Realm and let the Human Race have a foothold."

Master Mateo spoke up.

Thea managed to stay alive because it was the strategy of the Human Race's powerhouses.

The powerhouses knew the Human Race would lose, so they made a backup plan.

James listened to Master Mateo attentively. Upon hearing that, he could not help but sigh.

The world was too cruel. One needed to hold absolute power to be safe.

Looking at Master Mateo, James said, "I know Thea. After the cultivation path of humans was cut off, she made a new cultivation system. She discovered a new Macrocosm Power. However, there was an end to this path. After reaching the Ninth-Power Macrocosm Ancestral God Rank, one could no longer cultivate."

"Thea also triangulated an unknown path, which was the Chaos Path. She used me as an experiment. Now, I have comprehended the beginning of the Chaos Path, but I don't know how to continue this path. Could you give me some tips?"

Hearing James' words, Master Mateo responded, "The Chaos Path is indeed a supreme path. Even in the Greater Realms, it's considered to be the best. From what I know, a powerful race in the Greater Realms mastered the supreme Chaos Path. That race was one of the Ten Great Races that wiped out the Human Race. Besides, they started the war between races that destroyed the Human Race.

“Perhaps Madam Thea saw this race’s attacks during the battle and learned about the power of this race. Then, she began to extrapolate it. No one expected her to succeed. Your current power is considered strong in that race.”

After hearing that, James was slightly taken aback.

He thought the Chaos Path was an unknown path and that no one had cultivated it. He thought it was a path created and extrapolated by Thea.

He did not expect it to be a path mastered by a powerful race in the Greater Realms.

“What race is it?” James asked.

“The Doom Race,” answered Master Mateo. He then continued, “This race is abnormally scary. If you meet them in the Greater Realms in the future, you have to be careful. Also, the cultivation system of the Human Race is the Omniscience Path. It cultivates the physical body and opens the blood veins.

“Currently, I don’t know why Madam Thea extrapolated the Chaos Path, but I have to remind you not to forget the fundamentals. The cultivation path that is most suitable for humans is the Omniscience Path.”

“Got it.” James nodded and said, “I will remember it. I will continue cultivating it.”

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3938-James had a rough understanding of the details of the battle in the Primordial Realm.

He also learned due to the powerhouses of the Human Race during the Primordial Realm Era’s sacrifice, the twelve universes of the outside world were born.

“Now that the Human Race has a successor, I can rest in peace.”

Master Mateo looked at James and reminded, “The Primordial Realm has been contaminated by an evil power. It’s no longer suitable for cultivation. Even if you managed to cultivate, you wouldn’t be able to enter the Acme Rank. You need to create a new realm. To do so, you have to work hard. In the Primordial Realm, there are spies from other races. So, you have to watch out. Before the realm rise, you can’t be exposed. Once the spies spread the information, the powerhouses of other races will come again. It will be a catastrophe for you.”

“I understand.” James nodded.

However, he had already exposed himself. The power he showed was not strong, though, so the powerhouses of other races should not notice it.

“Sigh...”

Master Mateo looked into the distance, and his gaze seemed to have passed the Ecclesiastical Restricted Zone. It felt as if the entire Primordial Realm was under his watch, and he could sense the current situation of the Primordial Realm. He looked sad.

“It was such a beautiful realm, but it turned out this way. What a mess. I hope the new realm can be born successfully.”

As he spoke, he stared at James.

Then, he waved his hand and a light appeared on his fingertip. The light entered James’ mind.

At this moment, James could control the entire Ecclesiastical Restricted Zone. Everything in the Ecclesiastical Restricted Zone was under his senses.

“Young man, the future of the Human Race is in your hands now. I have accomplished my mission...”

Master Mateo’s voice grew softer, and in the end, it disappeared. As the voice disappeared, his figure also disappeared. Nothing was left behind.

James knew that Master Mateo was completely gone.

He walked out of the main hall. Many people were waiting outside.

Upon seeing James walk out the door, the bird immediately flew over to him and asked, "How was it? Did you inherit the Ecclesiastical Restricted Zone? What treasures are there?"

James nodded and answered, "I've inherited the Ecclesiastical Restricted Zone, and the entire zone is under my control now."

Since James had become the master of the Ecclesiastical Restricted Zone, he could release the powerhouses trapped in this space if he wanted to. However, he did not plan on releasing them.

After all, the powerhouses trapped were true prodigies.

Master Mateo had arranged for his subordinates to catch them. The aim was to create powerhouses.

James knew that there would be chaos in the Dark World soon. Even the universes of the outside realm would be in chaos. So, now was not the time to release those powerhouses.

Under his senses, he could sense that there were many Macrocosm-Rank elixirs in the Ecclesiastical Restricted Zone. If he wanted to, he could pluck the elixirs easily.

Nonetheless, he did not want to pluck them now. Master Mateo also left his inheritance here, but James did not plan on learning it.

James wanted to walk his own path. He wanted to walk on the Chaos Path. Only if his Chaos Path reached the extreme could he fight with the Ten Great Races of the Greater Realm and make sure that the status of the future Human Race was invincible.

"Hurry up and take me to the treasure," nagged the bird.

After James learned about some secrets, his heart felt heavy. Glancing at the bird, he softly said, 'The Ecclesiastical Restricted Zone was a battlefield during the Primordial Realm Era. There aren't any treasures here. It's time to leave.'

Stepping forward, he left the island.

Everyone else followed behind him.

Soon, they left the Ecclesiastical Restricted Zone.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3939-Outside the Ecclesiastical Restricted Zone, James stared at the zone ahead and felt sad.

Jabari asked, "What are you going to do next?"

James responded, "My purpose for coming to the Dark World this time has been achieved. I want to leave the Dark World as soon as possible and go to the time of the outside world. I want to enter the Chaos and find the rest of the Universe Seeds to urge the birth of the universe. Lastly, I will consolidate all universes and birth a realm as strong as the Primordial Realm."

"I'm going with you," said Jabari.

After glancing at Jabari, James looked at Xulia, who was next to Jabari, and said, "You should bring her back to the Xaadsans. Let's talk about this after the affairs of the Xaadsans have been dealt with."

"Got it." Jabari's face darkened as he said coldly, "It's time to deal with these grudges."

Hearing that, Xulia could not help but tug Jabari's arm.

Jabari's expression returned to normal, and he said, 'Til head to the Xaadsan Residence then. After the matters of the Xaadsan have been dealt with, I will leave the Dark World and wait for you in the Twelfth Universe of the outside world."

"Alright."

James nodded.

Jabari did not stay any longer. He pulled Xulia and they left together.

Looking at the three powerhouses, Yahveh, Jehudi, and Yehosheva, James asked, "What are your plans?"

Yahveh touched his beard and answered, "After being trapped for so long, I want to travel the universes of the outside world. When I'm done, I will look for you, and we'll do great things together."

Jehudi also spoke up, "Although I've been trapped for a long time, I don't know the history of the Primordial Realm. Nevertheless, I know that the Primordial Realm has an unknown history. Since the Human Race has powerful enemies, I will follow you and sort out the problems for the Human Race. I will leave with Yahveh and look for you in the future."

"Sure." James nodded.

Yahveh and Jehudi were both Ninth-Power Macrocosm Ancestral Gods. With their help, James could save a lot of trouble.

Then, James' gaze landed on Yehosheva as he asked, "What about you?"

Yehosheva thought for a while before saying, "I will stay in the Dark World for a while. When I'm tired, I'll look for you." Right after saying that, she left.

"Little bird, what about you?" James asked.

Hearing that made the bird upset. It said, "I have a name. My name is Morangorin Yombeen."

"Alright." James asked, "Morangorin, what are you planning on doing next?"

Morangorin was strong. Among them, Morangorin was the strongest. James hoped that it would help him.

"I haven't found a way to enter the Acme Rank. I can't stop now, so I won't follow you. When I enter the Acme Rank, I will look for you. Until next time. I hope you will be further in the Omniscience Path when we meet again."

While speaking, Morangorin flew away.

In the blink of an eye, Morangorin disappeared from James' sight.

The other people did not stay any longer either. They bade farewell to James one after another.

Soon, only James was left at the place.

James stood outside the Ecclesiastical Restricted Zone. He was the master of the Ecclesiastical Restricted Zone now, and the entire Ecclesiastical Restricted Zone was under his watch. He saw Lord Samsong, who was trapped, and a few other lords of the Ecclesiastical Restricted Zone, who were with Lord Samsong.

James also saw the crazy monster.

“It has reached the extreme of the Ninth Stage of the Lord Rank and gone mad. How do I save this monster? If it could be sober, it would definitely be a powerful existence,” mumbled James.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3940-On the battlefield of the Ecclesiastical Restricted Zone, there was a monster.

The monster was a cow. As for what kind of cow it was, James had no idea.

The ability of the monster was extremely frightening. It had reached the extreme of Ninth Stage Lord Rank. Even Morangorin feared it. Morangorin could only run away from it.

James found many secrets from the Ecclesiastical Restricted Zone. He had many things to do next. He needed a strong helper. If he could sober up the cow, it would be a great help to him.

He pondered for a moment.

He was thinking of a way to help the cow recover.

When he had an idea, he entered the Ecclesiastical Restricted Zone again.

Since he had become the master of the Ecclesiastical Restricted Zone, the entire Ecclesiastical Restricted Zone was under his control. Any danger in the Ecclesiastical Restricted Zone was not a danger to him.

With ease, he arrived at the ancient battlefield.

On the battlefield, the large Divine Cow was raging and letting out tremendous bellows continuously. Its voice contained a terrifying power. Even the space was shaking.

The Divine Cow was huge. It was like a mountain going around the battlefield. Wherever it passed, the ground cracked and dust filled the sky.

When James faced this Divine Cow in the past, even though he would not get killed, he could only run away.

He entered the island to gain opportunities and providence. Since his ability had improved, he no longer feared the mad cow.

Standing on the battlefield, he stared at the mad Divine Cow bellowing endlessly.

After staring at it for a while, he stepped forward. In one step, he arrived before the Divine Cow.

Once he appeared, the Divine Cow rushed over to him. Raising its leg, the Divine Cow was about to step on James.

James stood in mid-air, and he did not move. When the Divine Cow was about to step on him, he moved all of a sudden. He raised his hand and blocked the terrifying stomp.

He had reached the Sixth Stage of the Omniscience Path. Even his body had reached the Ninth-Power Macrocosm Ancestral God Rank.

When the Divine Cow's hoof reached James' arm, the force was extremely strong, even for James. His body was crushed. When he was about to sink into the ground below, he activated the Chaos Power.

The Chaos Power and his physical power resisted the Divine Cow's attack. He exerted strength and pushed the hoof.

The Divine Cow's large body immediately overturned. When its body landed on the ground, there was a strong gust of wind.

Boom!

The moment the Divine Cow fell onto the ground, the ground cracked, and a bottomless abyss appeared.

"Moo..."

The Divine Cow was furious. With a jump, it appeared in the sky, and a violent power emerged from his body. The power headed toward James.

The power was too terrifying. Even a Ninth Stage Lord could not handle it. If one was hit by the attack, they would suffer injuries.

James immediately entered the Sixth Stage Omniscience Path, and his aura grew stronger. His physical power was also fully activated.

When he faced the Divine Cow's frightening attack, he was calm. He raised his arms and took the hit of this terrifying power. At the same time, his body flashed and he appeared above the Divine Cow's head. When he raised his hands, mysterious sigils emerged in his palms.

The sigils landed on the ground endlessly.

James kept changing positions and attacking. As he crossed his hands, the sigils emerged continuously.

The sigils landed around the Divine Cow, forming a scary formation. The formation forcefully trapped the Divine Cow.

"Moo!"

The Divine Cow kept letting out roars and struggling to break free.
