

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3941

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3941-However, the Sigil Formation James cast was profound and well fortified. Although the Divine Cow possessed the mighty strength of a Ninth Stage Lord, he could not break free.

The Divine Cow was furious and struggled wildly in a bid to escape. A powerful burst of energy erupted from his body. The formation that James had set up began to fall apart.

“Such power! This guy isn’t going down without a fight,” James grunted. He kept backing away and continued strengthening the formation. One layer multiplied into 10,000 layers in a mere moment.

James had instantly set up a Sigil Formation with 10,000 layers. Although the Divine Cow was powerful, he could not escape the ten-thousand-layered Sigil Formation.

James hovered outside the formation, paying close attention to the Divine Cow. He released some of his Zen into the formation and used it to thoroughly scrutinize the Divine Cow. Shortly after, information about the Divine Cow appeared in his mind. James could sense strange energy inside the Divine Cow that seemingly controlled him. The unusual power affected the Divine Cow’s Cranial Nerves and corrupted his mind. As long as they could expel the bizarre power from its body, the Divine Cow would return to normal.

James pursed his lips. The power made him uneasy as it could corrupt a monster at the Lord Rank’s Ninth Stage that was about to cross over into the Acme Rank. James knew he had to proceed carefully. Otherwise, he might suffer grave consequences if the strange power affected him.

After a moment of pause, James raised his hand, and a powerful force formed in his palm. The force bypassed the ten-thousand-layered Sigil Formation and went into the Divine Cow’s body.

James attempted to eliminate the bizarre power ailing the Divine Cow. Suddenly, the malicious power inside the Divine Cow gathered into a beam of light and shot at James, trying to drive him away.

The beam of light instantly pierced through all 10,000 layers of the formation. Fortunately, James managed to dodge in time.

Boom!

The force tore through the air, causing a bottomless black hole to form in the distance.

The Divine Cow was freed from James' trap after the beam of light pierced through the formation. After witnessing James' overwhelming strength, the Divine Cow lost his will to fight and quickly turned tail.

James hurriedly chased after him and set up another Sigil Formation. The Divine Cow's efforts to escape were useless, and he was trapped once more. After the earlier experience, James became even more cautious. This time, he slowly prodded at the insidious power in the Divine Cow's body.

The power seemed to have a consciousness of its own.

Since it failed to take James by surprise previously, it likewise became more cautious and stayed hidden within the Divine Cow's body.

"What a weird power," James frowned.

James immediately used his Chaos Power, sending it into the Divine Cow's body. The moment Chaos Power entered the Divine Cow's body, it caused an immediate reaction. The Divine Cow roared and rampaged but could not escape the Sigil Formation.

The power lurking within the Divine Cow's body had nowhere to escape and lashed out in retaliation. James resisted the power and finally lured it away from the Divine Cow's body. He struck decisively soon as the power left the Divine Cow. He urged all his strength, and used the power of a Chaotic Treasure along with his Chaos Power to destroy the mysterious force.

The force vanished immediately. After successfully getting rid of the strange power, James took a sigh in relief. The Divine Cow shrank rapidly and instantly returned to the size of an ordinary cow. He looked at James with gratitude in his eyes, then fell to the ground.

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3942

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3942-The Divine Cow was exhausted.

In the past, he was the Ecclesiastical Restricted Zone's mountain guardian, who had very high cultivation attainments and was on the cusp of reaching the Acme Rank. He was lucky enough to survive the battle during the Primordial Realm Era.

However, he was overtaken by a strange power, and his mind was corrupted. Now that the power was removed from his body, he had come back to his senses. He was both physically and mentally exhausted. As the dust settled, he fell to the ground to rest, not even wanting to move a muscle.

James dispersed the Sigil Formation and walked toward the cow. His opponent had shown great strength at the beginning of the fight, but his aura and vitality were feeble now. James walked over and a gentle light glowed from his palm. The light contained Life Power.

Life Power submerged into the cow's body and quickly rejuvenated him, restoring his energy fully. He stood up from the ground, looked at James, and said, 'Thank you, Master.'

The Divine Cow was the Ecclesiastical Restricted Zone's mountain guardian and could sense that James had become the Ecclesiastical Restricted Zone's new owner. Naturally, the Ecclesiastical Restricted Zone's owner was also his master. Waving his hand to ease the formal air,

James asked, "What's your name?"

The Divine Cow replied. "My name is Quiomars Boswell, Master."

James nodded lightly. "Okay. What race do you belong to?"

"I'm a cowfolk and belong to a mutant race. We're called the Blue-Eyed Demonic Cows.

James asked a few basic questions. Quiomars was very cooperative and answered earnestly. He was also familiar with the battle that took place in the Primordial Realm.

Meanwhile, James only had a general understanding of the events there. Using Quiomars, he filled the gaps in his knowledge and learned about many things such as the Greater Realms' Ten Great Races.

Quiomars gave James all the answers he could.

“Come with me. In the past, the Human Race’s ancestors fought against the Ten Great Races to protect the Primordial Realm. All of them died in that battle.

Fortunately, they had a backup plan. Now, it’s time we take our revenge.”

James looked at the ancient battlefield, full of skeletal remains of humanity’s ancestors along with their opponents. His heart burned with the desire to slaughter. To him, bloodshed could only be paid in kind.

Now, it was time to facilitate the formation of the remaining universes. He wanted to create a place to rival the Primordial Realm. By doing so, the Human Race would build up their strength more quickly and grow strong enough to fight the Ten Great Races.

“Alright.” Quimoars nodded. Then, James hopped on Quimoars’ back and left the Ecclesiastical Restricted Zone.

After leaving the Ecclesiastical Restricted Zone, Quimoars asked. “Where to, Master?”

“Let’s go to the Malevolent Land,” said James.

James wanted to meet up with Sienna. He had already achieved his goal of coming to the Dark World, so he wanted to discuss some important things with her before bidding her farewell.

“Alright, Master.”

The Malevolent Land was one of the Dark World’s Ten Earths. They were one of the most powerful regions in the Ten Earths. However, they were relatively weak compared to the Nine Heavens region since the Nine Heavens had Ninth Stage Lords ruling over them.

At that moment, a black cloud appeared outside Mount Malevolent Moon. Thousands of troops stormed in among the clouds. Shortly after, Mount Malevolent Moon had been surrounded.

The Malevolent Land had always been a chaotic place. Sienna and Xerxes joined forces to quell the turmoil and eliminate a few major powerhouses. Then, they became the new rulers of the Malevolent Land.

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3943

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3943-Sienna and Xerxes were well aware of the Dark World's rules and knew that they had to offer tributes to the Nine Heavens to secure their reign over the Malevolent Land. Thus, they sent many treasures and resources to the Nine Heavens to sustain the Malevolent Land's stability. Unfortunately, several forces in the Nine Heavens refused to grant them the peace they desired.

Sienna sat in the highest seat in the main hall of Mount Malevolent Moon, wearing a black dress. Her face was solemn. Meanwhile, Xerxes stood beside her like a bodyguard.

"It's best to surrender, Lord Sienna."

"I agree. Thaine Machula is too powerful. He's a Ninth Stage Lord, with many followers in the same stage. Moreover, he also has a considerable amount of Lords at his command. How would we resist him?"

"I suggest we give in to their demands. There's no shame in surrendering in the Dark World. If we submit to Thaine, we'll be inducted into his forces and it'll benefit our development in the Dark World."

The Lords in the hall began expressing their opinion and the majority of them tried to persuade Sienna to surrender.

Sienna's lips drew tight at their remarks. She and Xerxes had gone through many hurdles to conquer the Malevolent Land. How could they relinquish it to another so easily?

Sienna looked at Xerxes beside her and asked. "What do you think, Xerxes? If you decide to fight, I'll protect Mount Malevolent Moon and our territory with my life."

Xerxes also wore a grim expression. Thaine's forces were far too strong, and Malevolent Land's strength was not enough to resist them. However, Thaine was a tyrant and Xerxes was reluctant to surrender the territory to him.

He looked at Sienna and declared. "Thaine has crossed the line with his cruelty. He's a despicable person. I'd rather die in battle than surrender to him. If I have to die, I'll go down protecting Mount Malevolent Moon."

"Alright. I understand your rationale." Sienna nodded.

Sienna stood up, looked at the Lords in the hall, and said, "This battle will determine Mount Malevolent Moon's fate. Unfortunately, we have almost no chance of winning against our opponents. If anyone wishes to leave, I won't fault you for it. Those that choose to stay, we shall defend this place to our last breath."

Sienna's voice resounded in the hall. Everyone in the hall exchanged glances with each other after her speech. They would be charging into the deaths if they chose to oppose Thaine. Ultimately, they cherished their lives more.

"It's not that I'm unwilling to go down with Mount Malevolent Moon. Thaine is just too powerful. I'm sorry, Lord Sienna and Lord Xerxes."

At that moment, a Fifth Stage Lord stepped forward and chose not to fight.

"Count me out as well."

"Me too."

After the first person gave in, many followed suit. In just a short moment, ninety percent of the Lords in the hall chose to avoid battle. Only a few staunch followers of Sienna and Xerxes decided to stay behind.

Many Lords left Mount Malevolent Moon, leaving only a dozen Lords remaining in the hall.

"Good."

Sienna looked at the remaining people and said, "It won't be easy for them to take over Mount Malevolent Moon. Even if we're going to die, we must make Thaine suffer."

Xerxes also stood up, and a powerful and spirited aura erupted from his body. Then, he summoned a Chaotic Treasure.

"Everyone, hear my command! Attack!!!"

“Attack!!!”

Loud chants came from Mount Malevolent Moon, shattering the void above the area. The protective formation around Mount Malevolent Moon dispersed, and tens of thousands of soldiers from the Dark Army charged forward to fight their enemies.

At that moment, a middle-aged man in black armor approached from the enemy’s army. He pointed his sword at Mount Malevolent Moon and shouted, “Sienna, Xerxes, surrender to me, and I’ll promise not to hurt anyone!”

Thaine’s threat cut through the air.

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3944

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3944-In fact, Thaine was not his real name.

After he became a Ninth Stage Lord and conquered Diabolic Welkin, one of the Nine Heavens, he changed his name to Thaine and was referred to as Lord Thaine.

Thaine wore black battle armor and held a spear. He had imposingly strong energy emitting from his body. Standing before the army, he looked like a menacing demon.

At that moment, Sienna and Xerxes had already rushed out of Mount Malevolent Moon with their humble troops. These were long-time followers of theirs who helped conquer the Malevolent Land together.

Xerxes looked at Thaine and his army behind him in the distance. He snorted indignantly, then roared, “You b*stard, Thaine. If you want to conquer Mount Malevolent Moon, you’ll have to do it over my dead body!”

Xerxes’ body unleashed an impressive aura. Despite knowing he was no match for Thaine, he was fearless. Thaine might have been a Ninth Stage Lord, but that did not mean Xerxes was a simple pushover. With Sienna, even if they could not protect Mount Malevolent Moon, they could still severely wound Thaine. As a result, Thaine would be weakened enough that other Lords in the Nine Heavens could take action against him.

“Cut the crap! Charge!!!” Sienna shouted.

At that moment, Sienna was not as glamorously dressed as usual. Instead, she radiated with the brutal aura of a War God. She immediately summoned a dazzling long sword and dashed toward her opponents.

“Kill them!!!”

“Charge!”

Their chants resounded throughout the sky. Sienna rushed out, followed by Mount Malevolent Moon’s army.

Thaine also commanded his army. “Kill them, but leave one survivor.”

A bloody battle immediately broke out in the Malevolent Land.

The Dark World was a turbulent place, and the Dark Lords were not on friendly terms with each other. Therefore, wars were very frequent there.

Meanwhile, James had left the Ecclesiastical Restricted Zone riding on Quiomars’ back, quickly advancing toward the Malevolent Land.

Quiomars was a creature at the peak of the Lord Rank’s Ninth Stage. He was only one step away from entering the Acme Rank. He could be considered the strongest in all the Dark World’s Nine Heavens and Ten Earths. Even in the Illuminated World, Quiomars would be ranked among the strongest cultivators. Naturally this excluded Yukia and Thea, who had been hiding in the dark, as well as James.

James’ current strength had not reached the Acme Rank. Although he could not easily overpower Quiomars, he could still defeat him.

Quiomars moved through space at a rapid clip.

Soon, they arrived in the Malevolent Land and began traveling toward the central region, Mount Malevolent Moon. Before they arrived, James sensed a devastating fight taking place in Mount Malevolent Moon.

Startled, James said, “Something has happened. We need to speed up.”

Quiomars sped up his gallop. A spatial rift appeared ahead of them, and they disappeared through it. The next moment, the two appeared outside Mount Malevolent Moon.

Outside Mount Malevolent Moon, a fierce battle raged on. Thaine was determined to destroy the forces of Mount Malevolent Moon. Sienna and Xerxes were leading their troops against their countless enemies. Mount Malevolent Moon's powerhouses were surrounded on all sides, and each soldier took on a few opponents simultaneously.

Sienna and Xerxes, on the other hand, were stuck in troublesome situations. Xerxes faced off against four Eighth Stage Lords. Meanwhile, Sienna confronted Thaine, who was at a much higher cultivation rank than her. Even though her opponent was Thaine, she was still able to hold her own.

However, there were many powerhouses under Thaine's command. Several powerhouses worked together with Thaine to get rid of Sienna. Sienna held a long sword that radiated with a powerful aura. Her Sword Energy devastated thousands of kilometres, destroying the surroundings.

Thaine's spear was equally terrifying and easily destroyed Sienna's Sword Energy.

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3945

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3945-The Eighth Stage Lord raised his dagger and thrust it at Sienna's back. A black-light burst out from the dagger and pierced through Sienna's body.

Sienna's energy began to leak out after she was stabbed, and she failed to block Thaine's attack. Her body was sent flying as Thaine's spear struck her. At that point, the battle had already been determined.

Thaine hovered in the sky and looked down condescendingly.

"Kill them all. Don't let anyone get away."

Thaine looked like the reaper, announcing the fate of Mount Malevolent Moon's troops.

Sienna was struck by a sneak attack and then impaled by Thaine's spear. Her body was riddled with holes. She plummeted from the sky and fell to the ruined ground below.

At her cultivation rank, it was not easy to kill her. No one on the battlefield could stop her if she tried to escape.

However, she refused to leave. The morale of her troops would be destroyed if she abandoned them.

If they were going to die, she wanted to die alongside them.

Swoosh!

A brilliant light shot out from the ruins.

Sienna held her long sword. Her hair was a mess, her skin was ashy and she looked battle-weary. She looked at her army being overpowered, and her heart panged in agony.

Thaine held his spear and slowly approached Sienna. With a gloomy expression, he said, "You're too arrogant, Sienna. The Malevolent Land has always been a chaotic place. No Lord has ever dared to try to unify it. However, you've managed to succeed. Even if I hadn't been the one to attack you, the other Lords from the Nine Heavens would have done the same."

Thaine declared arrogantly and loud enough for everyone to hear.

"I'll send you on your way."

A black light emerged from his spear, and the terrifying force hurtled toward Sienna.

Sienna's face was pale. In her current condition, it was impossible for her to block Thaine's deadly blow. Despite that, she refused to escape.

She closed her eyes, awaiting her death.

"Sorry, James. I can't leave behind my men that have chosen to stay loyal to me."

Before her death, Sienna thought of James. He had gone to the Ecclesiastical Restricted Zone but had not returned after several Epochs.

At the last second, a man riding a cow appeared on the battlefield and rushed in front of Sienna. Before James could act, the cow instantly blocked Thaine's lethal blow.

Sienna closed her eyes in anticipation but realized the blow had never landed on her. She slowly opened her eyes and saw the man riding a cow before her.

"James?"

Sienna's pretty face immediately lit up with joy.

James leaped off the cow and stood in front of Sienna.

In the distance, Thaine said coldly, "Who are you? How dare you interfere with my business? This has nothing to do with you, so leave immediately. Otherwise, don't expect any mercy from me."

However, James did not pay him any attention.

He approached Sienna and saw her disheveled hair and wounded body.

James raised his hand, and wonderful Life Power emerged from his palm. The power submerged into Sienna's body and her injuries quickly recovered.

James asked gently. "Are you okay?"

"I'm fine." Sienna shook her head lightly. She looked at the besieged Xerxes and said pleadingly, "Please help Xerxes."

James glanced at the battlefield and understood the state of things. He quickly commanded. "Quiomars, kill them all. Don't let anyone escape."

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3946

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3946-James did not know the reason for the battle but could see that enemy troops had appeared in Mount Malevolent Moon. Mount Malevolent Moon was Sienna's territory and her base.

Since they had already fought their way to Mount Malevolent Moon, James was not going to show mercy to her enemies.

“Ha. What a bold statement.”

Thaine’s face was grim. He was Diabolic Welkin’s ruler and was on good terms with a few Lords in the Nine Heavens. No one in the Dark World dared to say anything about killing him.

When Quiomars heard James’ order, he roared in assent. His voice reverberated in the sky and shattered the void.

The clashing armies below them were stunned and immediately fell back to their respective Lords.

Sienna immediately ordered, “Withdraw! Retreat to Mount Malevolent Moon.” After receiving her orders, Mount Malevolent Moon’s troops quickly withdrew.

At that moment, Quiomars acted. His body glowed, and he immediately grew bigger. In just a short moment, he became a behemoth emitting a primal aura from his body. Quiomars raised his massive hoof and brought it down.

Before his hoof landed on the ground, a powerful force spread and destroyed the surroundings. Thaine’s army could not withstand the aftershock, and many of his soldiers were wiped out. Not a shred of them was left behind.

In a short moment, tens of thousands of his men had died. Thaine’s brows furrowed.

“What a terrifying creature. When did a creature like him exist in the Dark World?”

Thaine was shaken. He knew almost all the powerhouses in the Dark World but did not know the origin of the vicious Divine Cow before him.

James scanned the battlefield. The injured Xerxes was still being besieged by powerhouses. He was heavily wounded and would die if he continued to fight.

After his initial attack, Quiomars looked at Thaine in the distance and the thousands of men below him. He opened his huge mouth and breathed out, causing a tempestuous wind to sweep forward.

The gust swept the land with devastating force.

Thaine's army was annihilated almost instantly as the strong wind swept forward. A few weaker Lords died instantly. Only Thaine and a few powerhouses escaped the brutal attack.

Thaine fled to a distance, and his face darkened.

"Lord Thaine, run!"

"Where did this monster come from? Why is he so fearsome?"

"We need to retreat, Lord Thaine!"

Thaine's subordinates pleaded with him.

"Retreat?"

Thaine's face betrayed a look of hesitation.

The news of him leading an army to the Malevolent Land had already spread throughout the Dark World. If he were to escape now, he would lose his foothold in the Dark World.

As Thaine idled, Quiomars launched another attack. Sensing Quiomars' terrifying aura, even a Ninth Stage Lord like Thaine lost the courage to fight.

Thaine immediately issued an order, "Retreat!"

Following his order, a few of his subordinates hastily disengaged. Even those who besieged Xerxes withdrew.

Quiomars quickly chased after them, wanting to kill them over Mount Malevolent Moon.

However, James ordered, 'That's enough. You can stop chasing after them. Come back.'

James was still unaware of what had happened for Mount Malevolent Moon to be raided. He planned to take action after being filled in on the details.

Inside Mount Malevolent Moon, Sienna's subordinates were dumbfounded after witnessing Quiomars' attacks.

"What the hell?"

“What kind of creature is this? He’s strong and managed to overthrow tens of thousands of Thaine’s soldiers.”

“How does Lord Sienna know such a powerful creature?”

“Thaine is a Ninth Stage Lord. How strong is that creature that could frighten Thaine into retreating?”

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3948

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3948-It had been several Epochs since James left Mount Malevolent Moon to enter the Ecclesiastical Restricted Zone. A few Epochs might have seemed like a long time but were short for a mighty Lord like Sienna.

She was curious about whether James had been in the Ecclesiastical Restricted Zone during the last couple of Epochs.

“Yeah.” James nodded lightly.

James did not hide the truth from Sienna and Xerxes since they seemed trustworthy to him.

He had absolute trust in Sienna. Meanwhile, Xerxes had also been her friend for many years and had gone through hell and high water with her. Moreover, he returned to his family to search for their ancient books but was hunted down by mysterious forces because of James.

“I found Jabari in the Ecclesiastical Restricted Zone and I also met the Ecclesiastical Restricted Zone’s previous owner. He was a human powerhouse from the Primordial Realm Era...”

James opened his mouth and recounted his experiences in the Ecclesiastical Restricted Zone. He divulged every last detail, including the fact that he became the Ecclesiastical Restricted Zone’s new owner.

“The Divine Cow outside is the guardian beast of the Ecclesiastical Restricted Zone. He’s very powerful and is at the peak of the Lord Rank’s Ninth Stage. He’s very close to reaching the Acme Rank.”

Sienna and Xerxes listened with serious expressions. They never expected so many things to have happened in the distant past of the Dark World, nor did they expect to find out that the Dark World was polluted.

However, Sienna was most shocked by the fact that Yukia was Thea.

She was stunned in disbelief and asked doubtfully, "S-So you're saying my sister, Brianna, is a reincarnation of one of Yukia's clones?"

'Yeah.'" James nodded.

"This is all the information left behind by Yukia. She likely left them behind for me to find. Unfortunately, there was an error in her timing. I was too weak to understand her message, but fortunately, Jabari was able to decipher it. He relayed it to me. Moreover, Master Mateo told me that Thea is the Human Race's matron."

"Huff!" Sienna took a deep breath.

After hearing the news, Sienna's heart weighed heavily.

James had a deep affection for Thea. After learning of her impressive background, how would she ever be able to compete with Thea for James' affection?

She dismissed her jumbled thoughts and asked, "What are you planning to do next?"

"I came to discuss that with you," said James.

Sienna nodded and said, "Let me know whatever you have in mind. I'll do my best to assist you."

James thought for a while and said, "From what I know, the Ten Great Races had left Watchers in the Primordial Realm, now known as the Dark World, to monitor its inhabitants. Their duties were to eliminate creatures that acquired great strength. In the past, these Watchers were responsible for spreading the news about the Acme Path. I currently have two plans."

Hearing this, Sienna asked. "What are they?"

James replied. "The first option is to unite the Dark World's Nine Heavens and Ten Earths, forcing the Watchers to reveal themselves. After that, we'll destroy them."

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3949

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3949-Xerxes asked, "What's the second plan?"<sup>1</sup>

James said, "The second plan will be enacted once the Dark World is united. We'll need to find the remaining Universe Seeds and enkindle them. Then, we must merge them to form a world that's as powerful as the Primordial Realm was during its prime."

As he explained, James' expression gradually turned grim.

"I still don't know how strong the Watchers hiding in the Dark World are and if they have already reached the Acme Rank. If we act rashly, our plans may fail, and our previous efforts will be for naught."

"Then how do you plan to carry them out?" asked Sienna.

These matters were complex and were not simply a conflict between forces. It would affect every inhabitant of the Dark World and the twelve universes. If anything unexpected were to happen, Yukia's efforts throughout this whole time would have been wasted.

James said, "I don't know where Thea is right now. If she was with us, everything would be so much easier. I don't know the exact details of her plan, so I don't want to act rashly and attract our enemy's attention. Suppose the Watchers discover our plans and report the information to the Ten Great Races, they would swiftly dispatch powerhouses and easily obliterate us."

James' lips were drawn taut. He had formulated two plans which could be carried out concurrently. However, he was also worried about interfering with Thea's initial plans. He was worried about arousing the enemy's suspicion, so he hesitated to take action.

Sienna asked, "Should we take action or not?"

James rubbed his temples frustratedly. Although he had learned some things about the Primordial Realm Era, there were still many details he was unsure of.

What exactly were Thea's plans?

Also, how many Watchers lurked in the Dark World, monitoring the situation?

An idea suddenly formed in James' mind and he exclaimed excitedly, "How about this? The Watchers hidden in the Dark World were searching for Thea this whole time and she didn't reveal herself because she wasn't fully recovered. This was why she was afraid to show herself. If so, what if we created a fake Thea to draw the Watchers out of hiding?"

"Once these Watchers expose themselves, we'll be able to follow them and capture them in one fell swoop."

After hearing James' plan, Sienna nodded lightly and said, "This is the best we can do considering all we know at the moment. How will we fight these Watchers with our strength, though?"

James considered the question for a moment and said, "Perhaps these Watchers aren't very strong."

Xerxes glanced at James and asked, "Oh? Why do you say so?"

James said, "These Watchers spread rumors about the Acme Path to lure three hundred Ninth Stage Lords to the Dark World's Unknown Region. This led to the Dark Strife. They only took out everyone after both sides had sustained severe injuries. They wouldn't have gone through all that effort if they were truly strong enough."

Sienna balked at James' explanation.

"Seriously, James?! We're talking about three hundred Ninth Stage Lords here. Even if they were wounded, it's terrifying that these Watchers could take out all three hundred of them. There aren't even thirty Ninth Stage Lords left in the Dark World, let alone three hundred Ninth Stage Lords."

"Personally, I don't think they're strong. Just look at Quiomars. His cultivation rank is at the peak of the Lord Rank's Ninth Stage. Yet, a Ninth Stage Lord isn't able to scratch him. I think he's capable of taking on and killing a few dozen Ninth Stage Lords," countered James.

James explained his reasoning. Xerses felt that James' words were reasonable. However, Quiomars' strength alone would not be able to eliminate all the Watchers.

To James, the Watchers were not strong. However, these Watchers threatened the Dark World's and Illuminated World's inhabitants. They were powerhouses capable of destroying the Dark World."

Sienna said, "I think we need a more conservative approach.

The Watchers don't seem strong, but that's only if they go against you. I admit you're powerful now, but can you really fight every single Water? Before we understand how to deal with them, it's best not to act recklessly."

Sienna expressed her opinion.

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3950

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3950-James could not decide things on his own since his actions would greatly impact many lives. One wrong decision could lead to disaster.

Sienna gave James some alternative suggestions. Xerxes also shared Sienna's reasoning. Since there were many uncertain variables now, they could not act recklessly as their enemies lurked in the dark.

"Okay." James nodded, agreeing with their suggestions. In their current situation, it was best they proceeded with caution.

James said, 'The Watchers already know who I am. When Xerxes was being pursued, we went to rescue him, and I fought against some unknown creatures. If I'm not mistaken, these unknown opponents were the Watchers the Greater Realms had left in the Dark World.

'Their job is mainly to monitor the Dark World's activity. The Dark World has been sealed, and entering the Acme Rank is impossible. Those who try to force their way into the rank will find their souls corrupted. Despite this, there were a few exceptions who became Acmeans. To prevent more of these exceptions from rising, they would stop at nothing to eliminate any potential threats.

“Since I’ve already exposed myself, I use my presence to draw their attention.

“Meanwhile, you two will act covertly.”

James briefly went through his plan. He wanted to lure out the Watchers and fight them to learn more about them. On the other hand, Sienna and Xerxes would secretly move to unify the Dark World. At the same time, Jabari and the others would travel the Chaos to find the remaining Universe Seeds, stimulate their growth, and merge the resultant universes.

After hearing James’ plan, Sienna was troubled. “You overestimate me and Xerxes, James. Conquering the Malevolent Land was already hard enough. Unifying the Dark World is impossible.”

“Before I play my part, I’ll assist you two. I’ve encountered quite a few powerhouses in the Ecclesiastical Restricted Zone. I’ll try to recruit them,” said James.

James had indeed met many powerhouses in the Ecclesiastical Restricted Zone. In addition to the mountain guardian of the Ecclesiastical Restricted Zone, Quiomars, James also met a mysterious bird, which was likely the ancestor of the Gorger, Feb. He was also very powerful and must have been at the peak of the Lord Rank’s Ninth Stage. The mysterious bird was probably on par with Quiomars since he claimed to be able to overpower Quiomars if he wanted to.

Besides those two, there was also Yehosheva. Yehosheva had lived for a very long time. When she was trapped in the Ecclesiastical Restricted Zone, the battle in the Primordial Realm had just ended, and the land was still unsullied.

Yehosheva was in the Lord Rank’s Ninth Stage for a long time and mastered countless signature skills. By the time James had almost finished with his previous period of cultivation, Yehosheva was also working hard to cultivate. Even if she had not reached the peak of the Lord Rank’s Ninth Stage, she was definitely much more capable than average Ninth Stage Lords.

In the current Dark World, there were not many Ninth Stage Lords. If the mysterious bird and Yehosheva assisted Sienna, unifying the Dark World would not be difficult.

Sienna said, "Alright. We should be fine with your help."

James and Sienna proceeded to discuss the details of their plan. After they concluded everything, James left. He wanted to return to the Ecclesiastical Restricted Zone because another Ninth Stage Lord, Lord Samsong, was trapped there. Initially, James had no intention to help him. However, he needed all the reinforcements he could gather right now.