

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3951

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3951-James wanted to recruit more powerhouses to assist Sienna and increase their chances of success.

Riding on Quiomars, James returned to the Ecclesiastical Restricted Zone.

In the past, Mateo had set up a powerful formation to trap an Acmean in a dangerous battlefield within the Ecclesiastical Restricted Zone. The formation was cracked during the fight against the Acmean, and its strength had drastically weakened over time. Although it was damaged and weakened, the formation was still capable of trapping and killing a powerful Acmean. After Lord Samsong stumbled into the formation, he was unable to easily escape it.

James appeared in the central region of the Ecclesiastical Restricted Zone, which was an island. He stood on the top of a spiritual mountain and looked at the shattered formation in the distance. He saw Lord Samsong resisting the formation's remaining strength. What's more, an Acmean's soul was lingering within the formation.

Even though he was dead, he still possessed terrifying strength. Although his body and soul were destroyed, his anguish remained and formed a lingering soul. What James had previously encountered in the Sky City were also lingering souls.

These lingering souls were the remaining anguish of the Acmean that had died in the Ecclesiastical Restricted Zone. Master Mateo had specifically built the Sky City to trap these lingering souls. With the passage of time, the strength of these lingering souls would also weaken.

Gradually, they would completely vanish.

However, these lingering souls took a long time to disappear. Although they had existed since the Primordial Realm Era, they were as strong as Ninth Stage Lords.

Meanwhile, the lingering souls in the shattered formation were not very strong, as the formation constantly drained their power. The lingering souls in the formation only had the strength equivalent to that of a Ninth Stage Lord.

As he resisted the remaining power of the formation, Lord Samsong also had to fight off the lingering souls. He was already ragged and severely injured but continued to sustain more damage.

Despite his severe injuries, he was a Ninth Stage Lord and would not die so easily. It would not be a problem for him to survive in the shattered formation for another few thousand or tens of thousands of Epochs. In time, he would eventually break the formation and escape.

Quiomars said, "Master, Lord Samsong is proud and arrogant. He won't readily cooperate with you, and it'll be hard for you to win him over. Would you like me to intentionally endanger him further?"

"Alright. Sounds like a good idea." James agreed.

James knew it would be difficult to recruit a Ninth Stage

Lord. In the Dark World's current predicament, Ninth Stage Lords had basically reached the pinnacle of cultivation.

They were existences that stood above all others, so they would not readily submit to another.

Quiomars left quickly and appeared inside the formation in the next moment. As soon as he entered the formation, he took the form of a middle-aged man wearing a black robe. His appearance was unremarkable and almost unattractive.

Quiomars headed over to Lord Samsong's location. In just a short moment, he appeared before Lord Samsong and attacked him. Lord Samsong was already in a tight spot and could not react in time to Quiomars' attack. He sustained another severe injury and his situation became critical.

After Quiomars abruptly attacked Lord Samsong, he disappeared silently.

"Who are you?!" Lord Samsong was enraged. His messy hair whipped around as he quickly turned, looking for his assailant.

"Come on! Show yourself! Only weaklings hide themselves! If you have the guts, come fight me fair and square!"

Lord Samsong was frantic from the unending torture caused by the formation. His blood boiled with anger.

Suddenly, a figure flashed before his eyes. He quickly backed away but was struck again. Quiomars had punched a hole in his chest this time, forming a gaping wound.

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3952

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3952-Quiomars' attacks were too fast.

Moreover, Lord Samsong had endured constant torture in the formation, throwing him off mentally. As a result, he could not detect Quiomars. Thus, he had no idea who or what was sneaking up on him.

After sustaining such a grievous injury, he could feel his life force slowly seeping away. He used whatever strength he had to stay awake, but it took a massive toll on him. For now, he could still hang on. However, despite being a Ninth Stage Lord, he would eventually die in the formation if he could not escape his predicament.

After Quiomars struck, the lingering souls in the formation emerged. They turned into black mist and surrounded Lord Samsong. Their sinister power began to corrode Lord Samsong's body and soul. Already critically injured, Lord Samsong could not continue to endure even more damage.

He sensed his soul slowly fading away.

Lord Samsong cursed. "Damn it!!!"

Summoning his remaining power, he blasted away the lingering souls. Just this one move consumed a lot of his strength. He sprawled out on the ground and panted heavily. He had to leave as soon as possible, or else he would really die in this place.

However, the cracked formation still stood in his way.

Although it was damaged, it was still powerful, and capable of preventing his escape.

After repelling the lingering souls, Quiomars reappeared beside him. The Divine Cow showed no mercy and unleashed terrifying power. Even though Lord Samsong was a Ninth Stage Lord, he could not deflect the attack and his injuries multiplied. He wanted to fight back but could not locate his enemy.

“Argh!!!” Lord Samsong let out an infuriated growl. However, his torment did not end. Quiomars continuously gave him more deep wounds.

James had been watching everything from afar. He saw that Lord Samsong was at his limit. Even if Quiomars retreated, Lord Samsong would die from the attacks of the lingering souls. Right then, he teleported into the damaged formation.

The lingering souls had been secretly looking for an opening to attack. After ensuring Lord Samsong’s weariness, they gathered their strength to deal a fatal blow.

This was the moment they had been waiting for.

Swoosh!!!

The lingering souls coalesced into a sharp blade and rushed viciously at the exhausted Lord Samsong. Lord Samsong sensed the danger and wanted to defend himself. However, he did not have much strength left to fight back. He closed his eyes in despair, knowing his end had come. He regretted his decision to come to the Ecclesiastical Restricted Zone.

James appeared at the last second, and blocked the lingering souls’ deadly attack. After the lingering souls’ attacks were deflected, they hurriedly retreated into the dark and watched cautiously.

Meanwhile, Lord Samsong still had his eyes closed while awaiting his death. However, the final blow never came.

Gradually, he opened his eyes and saw a familiar figure.

“Forty-nine?” Lord Samsong was shocked to see James before him. Previously, James did not disclose his real name and went by his fake identity, Forty-nine. Thus, Lord Samsong knew James as Forty-nine.

James looked at the feeble Samsong, and said calmly, “You don’t look well. If I hadn’t shown up, you would’ve died.”

Samsong quickly grasped at his life-saving straw. He said frantically, “Forty-nine, get me out of here! I’ll give you everything I have. You can have Triple Star Welkin and all the treasures I’ve accumulated over the years!”

He did not want to die just yet. With his cultivation base and attainments, it was easy for him to regain his former glory. Even if he were to give away all he had, he could definitely make a comeback.

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3953

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3953-As long as James could help him escape, Lord Samsong was willing to give him anything. James taunted him. “Do you remember taking away the Light of Acme and leaving me to face the powerful beast alone? I went through hell to kill that beast.”

Lord Samsong hurriedly explained himself, “You’ve got it all wrong! I actually wanted to go back to save you, but I got trapped in a dangerous place and couldn’t escape. If I could leave, I would’ve definitely gone back and helped you kill that beast.”

James did not believe a word from Lord Samsong’s mouth. He spoke nonchalantly, “I’m giving you two options.”

“What are they?” Lord Samsong looked at James.

James said, “I’ll leave you to fend for yourself. In your current state, there’s no way you can escape this place.”

Lord Samsong hurriedly asked, “What’s the second option?”

James replied, “Submit to me and obey my orders. If you betray me, don’t expect a single shred of mercy.”

“I…” Lord Samsong hesitated conflictingly. He was a Ninth Stage Lord, and the ruler of Triple Star Welkin which was one of the Dark World’s Nine Heavens. Having to submit to another was a fate worse than death.

As he weighed his options, James turned around and left the area.

As soon as James had disappeared, Quiomars reapproached as a ferocious monster and charged toward Lord Samsong. Terrified, Lord Samsong shouted hysterically, “Don’t go, Forty-nine! Don’t leave me! I’ll follow your orders! I’ll submit!”

James smirked, turned around, and walked forward. He instantly appeared before Lord Samsong and faked an attack against Quiomars, who was disguised as a monster. Quiomars followed his cues and pretended to be blasted away.

James looked at Lord Samsong, sitting weakly on the ground, and said, “I’m warning you, if you dare to disobey me, it won’t end well for you.”

After speaking, James raised his hand, and mysterious sigils materialized. The sigils sank into Samsong’s body.

A mighty Lord like Samsong immediately knew what the sigils were for. James now had control over his soul and would be immediately notified if Samsong harbored thoughts of betrayal. In that event, James could set off the sigil, and blow Samsong to bits instantly.

Samsong was terrified as he realized the consequences. However, there was no backing out at this point. He had no choice but to comply with James.

Samsong immediately pledged his loyalty, “I won’t betray you.”

James raised his hand, and a dazzling light emerged from his palm. A large amount of Life Power poured out and was absorbed into Samsong’s body. His injuries were healed instantly, and he regained his strength shortly after.

Samsong stood up, stretched his muscles, and asked, “Master, this is a very strange place. Are you sure you can leave safely?”

James gently waved his hand and said, “You don’t need to address me as Master. My name is James. You can just call me by name.”

Samsong replied, “Alright, Lord James.”

At that moment, Quiomars approached after returning to his original form. James hopped up and sat on Quiomars’ back.

Quiomars quickly galloped.

James said, "Just follow me, and you'll get out of this formation safely."

Samsong glanced around him and shuddered after seeing the lingering souls in the distance. He quickly followed behind James.

James rode on Quiomars' back, raised his hand, and a beam of light burst forth from his fingers to bombard the lingering souls in the distance.

"Agh..."

Despairing screams resounded in the air. The lingering souls trapped in the formations were obliterated. Samsong was terrified after seeing James' strength.

'How strong is Lord James?' thought Samsong.

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3954

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3954-Samsong was shocked by how James effortlessly obliterated the lingering souls. He obediently followed behind James. What surprised him more was that the terrifying formation had instantly lost all its power.

He followed James out of the Ecclesiastical Restricted Zone and emerged completely unscathed.

After they left, Samsong looked at James in shock and asked him, "W-Who exactly are you?"

Samsong was Triple Star Welkin's ruler and was familiar with almost every powerhouse in the Dark World. However, he had never seen James before. The strength that James displayed was terrifying and even he could not help but be taken aback by it.

James replied briskly, "You'll find out in due time."

Since James did not elaborate, Samsong was not willing to press further. He changed the subject and asked respectfully, "Where are we going next, Lord James?"

"We're heading to the Malevolent Land," James replied, then patted Quiomars and said, "Let's go."

Quiomars leaped into the sky and galloped toward the Malevolent Land. Samsong followed them closely. Soon, they arrived at their destination.

In the main hall of Mount Malevolent Moon, Sienna was startled when she saw James return with Lord Samsong in tow. Xerxes was equally surprised and inadvertently stood up.

James parted his lips and said, "This is Lord Samsong, the ruler of Triple Star Welkin. He'll be staying on Mount Malevolent Moon and will report to you. I'll find more people to assist you as quickly as I can."

"Alright." Sienna nodded excitedly.

Sienna never expected James to convince Lord Samsong to comply with him. Unifying the Dark World would be much easier if James could recruit more Lords from the Nine Heavens.

However, James prioritized recruiting the mythical little bird. Everything would go smoothly if that creature was willing to help them.

James looked at Sienna and said, "I'll head back to the Illuminated World. Don't do anything reckless and await my orders."

Sienna nodded and said, "I understand. I'll be careful."

"Goodbye."

James did not stay any longer and quickly left with Quiomars.

James departed from the Dark World and returned to the Illuminated World.

His main goal of coming to the Dark World was to learn more about Yukia and find Jabari. He accomplished both his objectives. Moreover, he learned that Yukia was Thea.

He had already done what he set out to do.

James returned to the Illuminated World and felt refreshed as he breathed in its pure, clean air.

He murmured relaxedly, "An unpolluted world really does have better air."

Suddenly, he sensed something unusual.

“What’s going on? Why do I sense such intense Heavenly Path Power?”

James noticed a Heavenly Path emitting overwhelming energy and immediately unleashed his Divine Sense. He made a delighted face a few seconds after.

“They’ve merged already? I can’t believe it! The merging was a success!”

Although he was puzzled, James laughed ecstatically. He had only left the Twelfth Universe for a few Epochs, which was not a significant amount of time. Yet, in this time, the universes successfully merged together, and a Super Heavenly Path formed.

James had intended to merge the twelve universes eventually, but someone had done it without him knowing.

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3955

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3955-James also wanted to find the remaining Universe Seeds in the Chaos, induce their formation and fuse together more of these universes.

“Who could have done this?”

James could not figure out who had facilitated the fusion of the twelve universes during his absence. There was only one person he could think of that was capable of merging the twelve universes-the former Lord of the First Universe, the Omnipotent Lord. Apart from him, no one else in the twelve universes had the authority to summon the twelve universes’ powerhouses and carry out the merging of the twelve universes.

Although James had his suspicions, he was not completely sure it was the Omnipotent Lord. He would have to look for answers to his question. James quickly located the region that used to be part of the Twelfth Universe. He took a step forward and swiftly traversed the void. The next moment, he had already arrived at his destination.

James entered the region that used to be the Human Race’s Divine Dimension in the Twelfth Universe. Fortunately, the Heavenly Court was still around and survived the fusion.

In the Heavenly Court's main hall, a man was seated in the highest seat holding a red book.

Jacopo kneeled below him. Behind him were the other powerhouses from the Heavenly Court who were likewise on their knees. The man in the highest seat opened the book and said, "This is an order for the Lord of the Twelfth District's Human Race, Jacopo Caden.

"From today onward, you've been stripped of your position as the Lord of the Twelfth District's Human Race."

Jacopo immediately stood up in protest. "W-Why am I being stripped of my position?"

"Hah." the man in the highest seat snorted disdainfully. "Your job is to follow orders, Jacopo. You don't have the right to ask all these questions. If you have any objections to His Holiness' decree, you may go to the Ancestral Holy Site and speak to His Holiness in person."

After speaking, the man casually tossed the book aside and vanished from the hall. Jacopo picked up the red book and looked at it solemnly. He never expected to lose his position after the universes merged together.

"What should we do?"

"What exactly can we do? If we hand over the position of Lord of the Human Race, it might cause a lot of trouble."

"It's unfortunate that James isn't here right now. Otherwise, the Omnipotent Lord would never have flaunted his power like this."

Many of the Human Race's powerhouses grumbled in dissatisfaction. However, there was nothing they could do about the Omnipotent Lord. He was far too powerful.

Swoosh!

Suddenly, a bright light shone in the hall and gathered to form the figure of a person.

When they realised who it was, the people in the hall were surprised. Immediately afterward, they exclaimed happily.

“You’re back, James!”

“Dad!”

“Mr. Caden!”

The Human Race’s powerhouses swarmed him with greetings. James looked at them and nodded lightly in response before asking, “What’s going on? I’ve only been gone for a few Epochs, and I came back to find the twelve universes already fused together.”

Jacopo was relieved to see James’ return. However, that feeling quickly disappeared after remembering the Omnipotent Lord’s might.

Although James was a peak Nine Power Macrocosm Ancestral God, the Omnipotent Lord had already surpassed that rank and reached the Acme Rank.

“A lot of things happened, Dad.” Jacopo sighed.

“There’s no rush. I want to hear every last detail.”

“Okay.” Jacopo nodded. He took a deep breath and explained, “It hasn’t been long since the universes were combined together. It’s only been less than a million years since the event. The person that facilitated the merging of the twelve universes was the First Universe’s former Lord, the Omnipotent Lord.”

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3956

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3956-This confirmed James’ earlier suspicions about the Lord of the First Universe being the one who united all the universes. Now that man was known as the Omnipotent Lord of the First District.

Jacopo continued to explain, ‘The Omnipotent Lord led the fusion of the universes. After the merge, he divided the new universe into twelve districts according to the territory previously encompassed by each universe.

“Each district has a District Leader who manages the area. Meanwhile, the Omnipotent Lord became the Lord of this new universe and oversees all twelve districts.

“Initially, many Universe Lords opposed the Omnipotent Lord’s suggestion to merge the universes. However, he dealt with them ruthlessly and those who opposed him were brutally eliminated. After several Macrocosm Ancestral Gods died at his hands, no one else dared to go against him.”

Jacopo explained how the new universe came to be.

“In that case, who is the Twelfth District’s Leader?”

Jacopo said, “It’s someone sent from the First Universe. He has never shown himself in the First Universe before. This person is imposing, and it’s rumored he is a Nine-Power Macrocosm Ancestral God.”

“A Nine-Power Macrocosm Ancestral God?” James frowned.

‘Among the twelve universes, the Omnipotent Lord is supposed to be the only other Nine-Power Macrocosm Ancestral God. How did another Nine-Power Macrocosm Ancestral God arise after I was gone for only a few Epochs?’ wondered James.

His intuition told him that there was more to this than met the eye.

Jacopo looked at James worriedly and asked, “What should we do now, Dad? The Heavenly Court is our last haven. The Omnipotent Lord promised to only send a District Leader to govern our district and said that he wouldn’t interfere with other matters. Despite that, they’re currently trying to take over the Heavenly Court.”

James fell into thought.

After briefly contemplating, James suggested, “Since the Omnipotent Lord wants the position, then just give it to him for now.”

“For real?” Jacopo was slightly taken aback by his answer. The other powerhouses were also startled. It was unlike James to make such a decision.

His strength allowed him to ignore potential repercussions from the Omnipotent Lord and allowed him to stand his ground.

James looked at everyone and said, "I have another plan in mind. Start evacuating the Heavenly Court, and find somewhere quiet to lay low for now. The situation in the new universe and the Dark World is about to get turbulent.

Everyone must devote themselves to cultivating. In the coming battles, even a Macrocosm Ancestral God would find it hard to survive."

Everyone was shocked by James' remark.

Jacopo asked, "What's going on, Dad?"

James looked at the people in the hall and said, "You're all dismissed."

Then, he turned to Jacopo. "Come with me."

The two headed to the Cadens' residence on Mount Bane. James sat in the highest seat of the main hall, and many of his family members gathered below him, including Jacopo, Xainte, and Winnie. A few of James' close acquaintances, like Melinda and Sophie, were also present along with his grandfather and uncle.

Everyone present knew James in some form or another.

"What exactly is going on, Dad?" asked Jacopo.

James looked at everyone in the hall. All of them were close to him or on good terms with him and were trustworthy.

He explained, "I went to the Dark World some time ago to learn more about Yukia and to look for Jabari."

Excited, Sophie asked, "Did you find him?"

Sophie and Jabari were close. If not for Jabari, Sophie would not have woken up from her slumber. Moreover, he had given her a lot of help.

James nodded lightly and said, "Yeah. Jabari is doing well in the Dark World. He has spent his time wisely and is already a Ninth Stage Lord, which is equivalent to a Nine-Power Macrocosm Ancestral God in our world."

Xainte asked, "What about Yukia? Did you learn anything new about her?"

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3957

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3957-James said, "Yukia is Thea.1

The crowded hall fell silent.

Jacopo, Xainte, and Winnie blurted out in unison, "Yukia's our mom?"

James rubbed his forehead and said, "How can I explain this? Basically, the Dark World used to be known as the Primordial Realm. However, it was only one part of the Greater Realms. During the Primordial Realm Era, the Human Race had countless powerhouses. Yukia, who you currently know as Thea, was the Human Race's matron during that time..."

James began to recount the things he had learned about the Primordial Realm Era.

"During the great war between the various races, all the powerful humans perished. Only Thea had escaped by utilizing a potent Supernatural Power, Golden Shell, and survived. Later, she disguised herself as Yukia and hid herself in the Dark World.

'The other races knew that Thea had survived, so they left behind Watchers to monitor the Dark World and find her.

"Worried that she'd be found and killed, Thea made a clone of herself. Something happened to the clone, and it was eventually reincarnated as the Thea we know from the Callahan family in the Twelfth Universe.

"Afterward, a portion of her soul was used to make the Ancestral God Rank Elixir. When the Ancestral God Rank Elixir was broken into several parts, her soul was reborn once more, and she became your mother."

James explained everything he knew in detail.

Everyone present was shocked after learning all this new information. They never expected Thea to have such a grand backstory. They were also startled to learn that the Dark World was originally the Primordial Realm that became sullied.

It was hard to believe that the Greater Realms had left behind powerhouses and Watchers to monitor the Dark World.

James' words put everyone on edge. It was no wonder he said that Macrocosm Ancestral Gods would not be able to survive if war broke out in the future.

"What are your plans, Dad?" asked Jacopo.

James rubbed his chin and said, "We're in quite the predicament. Initially, I planned to return to our universe to see how things were going and find a way to attract the Watchers out from hiding.

"I didn't expect the Omnipotent Lord to merge the universes in my absence. I don't know if the Omnipotent Lord knows about other Universe Seeds in the Chaos."

James began to think. The Omnipotent Lord's actions had derailed his original plans. After a long while, James said, "You guys can stay in the Caden residence on Mount Bane for now. Don't leave, and cultivate as best you can. I'll go to the First District to meet with the Omnipotent Lord."

James planned to visit the Omnipotent Lord. Jacopo had brought up his monstrous strength, which surpassed a Nine- Power Macrocosm Ancestral God, and the fact that the Omnipotent Lord had reached the Acme Rank.

James doubted the veracity of the claim. As far as he knew, reaching the Acme Rank in the Dark World was impossible. However, the other universes were carefully created by Yukia. She wanted to create a world as strong as the Primordial Realm during its prime. As such, it was possible to reach the Acme Rank in their universes.

James intended to visit the First District and investigate more about the Omnipotent Lord's strength.

"Alright." Jacopo nodded.

Xainte reminded him, "Be careful, Dad. The Omnipotent Lord is different now than he was a few Epochs ago. After you left, he also left for some time. When he returned, he was already a terrifying powerhouse."

James replied, "I know."

After that, he immediately stood up, bid everyone farewell, and left the Cadens' residence.

A big, black cow was waiting outside the gate of the Caden residence.

James jumped onto the cow, patted his back, and said, "Head to the First District."

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3958

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3958-In the past, every universe occupied a vast amount of space. Now that they had been merged, the resultant universe spanned a far larger area.

It was impossible for an ordinary cultivator to travel through even just one district. However, it was not a problem for James. He could ignore the existence of time and traverse through districts effortlessly. James' traveling speed had already surpassed the limits of time. He could reach the First District quickly. Although it seemed like an instant to him, a long time had actually elapsed.

A man riding a cow quickly traveled through the First District and soon arrived near the Ancestral Holy Site. The Omnipotent Lord had already become the Lord of the new universe, and his residence, the Ancestral Holy Site, overflowed with the new universe's luck.

The Ancestral Holy Site was heavily guarded by numerous powerhouses. As soon as James approached the Ancestral Holy Site, he sensed several powerful auras indicating the strength of at least a Nine-Power Macrocosm Ancestral God.

James' brows furrowed.

"What's going on? How are there so many powerful auras in the Ancestral Holy Site?" He was sure something was out of the ordinary.

In the past, the Omnipotent Lord was the only Nine-Power Macrocosm Ancestral God in all the twelve universes.

Besides him, there were two other Eighth-Power Macrocosm Ancestral Gods.

After only several Epochs, so many Nine-Power Macrocosm Ancestral Gods had appeared out of the blue. Something was definitely amiss.

Quiomars raised his head and suggested, “Should we break in, Master? Even if they have many Nine-Power Macrocosm Ancestral Gods, I can destroy the place with the stomp of a hoof.”

James waved his hand and said, ‘That’s not necessary. We don’t have any dispute with them so there’s no need to wreck the place. I simply came to try and figure out the exact situation. Let’s go inside.’

“Alright.”

After replying to James, Quiomars proceeded closer to the Ancestral Holy Site. In an instant, they reached the Ancestral Holy Site’s mountain gate.

A vast mountain range stood ahead of them. In front of the mountain gate was a towering stone tablet with several words carved on it that said, Ancestral Holy Site.

‘Who’s there?!’ A voice boomed at James.

‘The Ancestral Holy Site is a restricted area! How dare you trespass here?’

‘Take the intruder down!’

Following the loud shouts, many armed guards with spears appeared and surrounded James. The guards had very powerful auras and were cultivators that had reached the Macrocosm Ancestral God Rank. Although they did not obtain high attainments, they were still potent Macrocosm Ancestral Gods.

James took a deep breath.

In the past, it was tough for even a single person to reach the Macrocosm Ancestral God rank. Now, the Ancestral Holy Site had Macrocosm Ancestral Gods as guards.

The guards were about to attack James. Suddenly, James unleashed a dominating aura and startled them.

‘Who are you?’ The captain of the guards looked at James radiating immense energy.

James withdrew his aura and said lightly, "I'm James Caden from the Twelfth District. Hurry and let the Omnipotent Lord know that I've come to see him."

"Wait here."

Although the captain of the guards had never heard of James before, he sensed James' powerful aura and knew that he had met someone he should not cross. Afraid of offending James, he quickly headed inside the Ancestral Holy Site to report James' visit.

Meanwhile, the Omnipotent Lord was seated in the highest seat of the main hall in the Mount Ancestre. A few Macrocosm Ancestral Gods stood below him. Among them were also some Nine-Power Macrocosm Ancestral God.

"My Lord, as you wished, we've sent numerous powerhouses to search for the remaining Universe Seeds in the Chaos. However, the Chaos is too vast, and finding them will not be easy."

A Nine-Power Macrocosm Ancestral God notified the Omnipotent Lord.

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3959

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3959-The Omnipotent Lord sat lazily in the highest seat and responded languidly, "Find them as soon as possible. We must acquire all the remaining Universe Seeds in an Epoch and induce their formation."

"Understood." The Macrocosm Ancestral Gods in the hall nodded.

Suddenly, a guard walked into the hall, knelt on one knee, and said, "Reporting, Sir! My Lord, a human has appeared outside. He claims to be James Caden and wishes to see you."

"James?"

The Omnipotent Lord's nonchalant expression immediately changed. He composed himself, and straightened up before smiling. "After staying in the Dark World for a few Epochs, he's finally back."

After he spoke, the Omnipotent Lord stood up and stretched his muscles.

“I lost to you last time and it’s haunted me ever since. Let’s see how much your cultivation has improved after these few Epochs.”

The Omnipotent Lord ordered, “Let him in.”

“Understood.”

The guard immediately got up and left the main hall.

After waiting outside the Ancestral Holy Site’s mountain gate for a while, the captain of the guards returned and gestured for James to enter. James rode on the big, black cow and slowly entered the Ancestral Holy Site. After crossing several mountains, they arrived at Mount Ancestre, which was the Ancestral Holy Site’s main region.

Standing at the foot of the mountain, James raised his head and looked at the massive mountain ahead of him. James parted his lips and instructed Quiomars, “Wait for me at the mountain foot, Quiomars.”

After speaking, James leaped into the air and flew toward the mountaintop. He arrived atop the mountain almost instantly.

In front of him was a grand and majestic palace. The palace gates were wide open, and many powerhouses could be seen inside. James strode into the hall holding his hands behind him. After entering the hall, James surveyed the area and noticed a dozen or so humans.

All of them were relatively strong, and the weakest among them was an Eight-Power Macrocosm Ancestral God.

James thought to himself puzzledly, ‘How did the Omnipotent Lord gather so many powerhouses in just mere Epochs?’

Ultimately, James fixated his gaze on the Omnipotent Lord in the highest seat of the hall. He tried to discern the Omnipotent Lord’s cultivation rank and discovered that his aura was incredibly strong.

The Omnipotent Lord’s aura had already surpassed a Nine- Power Macrocosm Ancestral God. However, he had not reached the Acme Rank yet. James was sure of this because he had encountered a real Acmean before.

Although Master Mateo only left behind a trace of his Zen, it had the aura of an Acmean.

Therefore, James knew the Omnipotent Lord was not an Acmean yet. Despite that, his aura was very close to the Acme Rank. He was likely at the peak of the Macrocosm Ancestral God Rank and had strength similar to Quiomars.

After learning of the Omnipotent Lord's strength, James was silently relieved. As long as the Omnipotent Lord was not an Acmean, James was confident he could handle the situation.

While James' was sensing the Omnipotent Lord's cultivation rank, the other party was also doing the same. However, the Omnipotent Lord could not detect James' cultivation rank, and his brows furrowed as a result.

James glanced around the main hall and said candidly, "Hah, I didn't expect the twelve universes to merge while I was gone for the past few Epochs. It also seems like many powerhouses have risen up in the Ancestral Holy Site."

The Omnipotent Lord sat in the highest seat and looked down at James condescendingly.

"I didn't expect you to return from the Dark World alive, James. Very few can survive after traveling to the depths of the Dark World."

James chuckled and asked, "I'm curious how you managed to get so many Eight and Nine-Power Macrocosm Ancestral Gods to rise in the Ancestral Holy Site in just a few Epochs."

The Omnipotent Lord answered tersely, "That's none of your business."

He feared James in the past but was no longer afraid now. The Omnipotent Lord was confident in his strength, which was almost at the Acme Rank, and he also had the support of all the powerhouses in the hall.

Even though he could not sense James' cultivation rank, it did not scare him.

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3960

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3960-The Omnipotent Lord sneered, stood up, and looked down at James. He pointed at James and said, "I'll give you two choices, James. You can either submit to me or die."

James did not take the Omnipotent Lord's threats seriously. He calmly looked at the Omnipotent Lord and responded, "Submit to you? I might consider it, if you can make it worth my while."

The Omnipotent Lord was taken aback. He did not expect James to comply so easily and was prepared for James to challenge him in a fight to the death over the position of the new universe's Lord."

For a while, the Omnipotent Lord remained silent.

After a few seconds, he sorted out his thoughts and grinned. "Of course, I'll make it worth your while. In the new universe, those with strength will be given authority. If you can defeat my subordinate, I'll give you the position of the Deputy Universe Lord."

The Omnipotent Lord called out, "Briscoe."

"Yes, My Lord."

Immediately, a man stepped forward. It was a middle-aged man about 1.8 meter tall. He wore a white robe and seemed quite refined. Despite his elegant look, he radiated an imposing aura.

The Omnipotent Lord looked at James and said, "This is the current Deputy Universe Lord, Briscoe Haldor. He's been assisting me in managing the new universe. Also, for your information, he is a Nine-Power Macrocosm Ancestral God who's almost at the peak of his rank."

The Omnipotent Lord had two reasons for summoning Briscoe. Firstly, he wanted to test James' true strength. Secondly, he wanted to see if James was really willing to comply with his orders.

As long as James sincerely submitted to him, he planned to give James a prestigious status regardless of the battle's outcome. Although he would not be conveyed the highest ranks, he would still be extremely influential in the new universe.

"As the Universe Lord, I should show you some mercy. I'll give you some time to prepare for the fight. The fight can begin when you're ready."

The Omnipotent Lord declared in an authoritative tone.

James began to ponder deeply. He was still unsure how the First District could raise so many powerhouses in mere Epochs. He felt he would not get the answers he wanted even if he defeated Briscoe and the Omnipotent Lord.

His only option to discover the truth would be to stick close to the Omnipotent Lord for now. James suspected it had something to do with the Dark World's Watchers. He had exposed himself in the Dark World, so the Watchers must have investigated him. With a bit of digging, they probably learned about him and the situation beyond the Dark World.

As such, they took control over the Omnipotent Lord. Perhaps they did not really take control over him but provided him with some support. As a result, the Omnipotent Lord achieved great strength and was on the cusp of becoming an Acmean.

If his assumptions were true, he could find clues about the Watchers while observing the Omnipotent Lord. Then, he could wipe them out with this knowledge.

In case he was wrong, and the Omnipotent Lord truly had improved his strength and raised many powerhouses using his own means, then he would be a very valuable ally and worth siding with.

James concluded that it was necessary for him to fight Briscoe. Moreover, he would have to ensure everyone knew about it to attract the Watchers' attention. By doing so, he could get the Watchers to reveal themselves.

James briefly took stock of his strength. When he fought against the Watchers in the Dark World, he only displayed strength around the middle stage of a Nine-Power Macrocosm Ancestral God.

On the other hand, Briscoe's cultivation rank was in the final stage of a Nine-Power Macrocosm Ancestral God. James planned to lose the fight and leave unhappily. The Omnipotent Lord would definitely try to recruit him despite the outcome.

After a brief thought, James said, "Alright. Since you think so highly of me, I won't disappoint you. We can have the battle in a thousand years' time."