The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3961-A thousand years was a long time for mortals, but for a powerhouse like James, it would pass in the blink of an eye.

“Alright. I agree to your terms.”

The Omnipotent Lord clapped his hands and laughed out loud. “Haha. Don’t disappoint me, James. I hope you can defeat Briscoe and become the Deputy Universe Lord. Then, we can join forces and vanquish the Dark World together.”

James’ frowned at the Omnipotent Lord’s words. He suspected that the Omnipotent Lord’s current strength and legion of powerhouses were all acquired through the Watchers. However, he oblivious to the Dark World’s circumstances and was still trying to conquer it.

Did the Watchers help him while keeping him in the dark?

James did not dwell on the question for too long and asked, “Where will the battle be held?”

The Omnipotent gave it some consideration and said, “After I merged the twelve universes to form a Super Universe, the space in the new universe has become very stable.

However, I’m sure a battle between two Nine-Power Macrocosm Ancestral Gods will be very destructive and lay waste to the surroundings. How about we hold it in the Chaos when the time comes?”

“Alright.” James nodded.

Then, he turned around and left the main hall. After James departed, he descended to the foot of Mount Ancestre. He hopped back onto the big black cow, patted his back, and said, “Let’s head to Mount Nine-Saints.”.

Mount Nine-Saints was Mirabelle’s cultivation sanctuary. Mirabelle became James’ disciple to learn how to cultivate the Chaos Path. James had no recent intel on the Omnipotent Lord, so he wanted to ask Mirabelle since she had been living in the First District this whole time.

Meanwhile, Briscoe waited until James had left Mount Ancestre's main hall before finally revealing his thoughts.

"My Lord, we can't trust James. Why bother recruiting him? It's best just to dispose of him."

The Omnipotent Lord dismissed Briscoe's concerns and said, "I've got a plan."

"Alright."

Hearing the Omnipotent Lord's assurance, Briscoe dropped the matter.

The Omnipotent Lord urged his men, "Hurry up and find the Macrocosm Cores formed by Universe Seeds. We need to stimulate their formation and merge them to create a major world."

"Yes, My Lord."

"Alright, everyone's dismissed." The Omnipotent Lord sent them away. The Macrocosm Ancestral Gods in the main hall dispersed.

James, on the other hand, was making his way toward Mount Nine-Saints riding atop Quiomars.

"Quiomars, you'll have to restrain yourself in the First District. Don't expose your strength so readily. The situation is getting much more complicated, and I'm worried the Watchers are already on the move," James reminded Quiomars.

Quiomars thought about his words. "Master, these Watchers have lurked in hiding ever since. So why are they suddenly taking action?"

James thought to himself. After a while, he replied, "These Watchers haven't really hidden themselves. In the past, they showed up and killed the three hundred Dark Lords. They took action because the Dark Lords' collective strength had threatened them. I'm guessing..."

Pausing for a moment, he then continued, "I think it's the same this time since I displayed my Chaos Power. Since these Watchers are from the Greater Realms, they should be familiar with the Doom Race's Chaos Power. They must have considered me a threat and are acting accordingly."

Quiomars asked, "If that's the case, they could've just attacked you directly. Why would they need to go use such convoluted methods to kill you?"

James murmured troubledly, "Perhaps their target isn't me. They might have discovered my relationship with Thea and are trying to use me to get to her."

"I see."

Quimoars stopped asking questions.

James broke the silence, saying, "I don't know the exact details. I'll have to figure things out as we go. In short, we'll have to be very careful since Watchers could be following us."

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3962-Quimoars carried James to Mount Nine-Saints. When he arrived, he released his Divine Sense. Although there was a formation outside Mount Nine-Saints, his Divine Sense could bypass it and scan the surroundings. He located Mirabelle cultivating in the mountain.

"Wait for me outside the mountain, Quimoars."

After James instructed Quimoars to wait for him, he vanished the next instant. He passed through Mount Nine-Saints' protective formation silently and appeared where Mirabelle was cultivating.

Behind Mount Nine-Saint's main mountain was another mountain with a conducive environment and abundant Spiritual Energy. In the area was a waterfall that splashed around in the river underneath.

An attractive woman sat on a rock by the river bank beneath the waterfall, emitting a dominating aura from her body.

Swoosh!

Light descended from the sky and took the form of a man. Mirabelle immediately sensed James' presence and stopped cultivating. She stood up from the rock and was surprised to see him.

After a few seconds, she greeted him joyfully, "It's you, Master!"

“Yeah.” James nodded lightly.

‘You’re finally back,’ Mirabelle said with a hint of guilt lingering in her voice.

Sensing her unusual expression, James was compelled to ask, “What’s wrong?”

Mirabelle said, “I tried to stop the Omnipotent Lord from merging the twelve universes. However, many Macrocosm Ancestral Gods were killed when they refused to agree with him. The Omnipotent Lord is far too strong, and I didn’t have the strength to stop him.”

James calmed her down.

‘You don’t have to blame yourself. I’m here to ask about the merging of the twelve universes and understand how the Omnipotent Lord’s strength increased tremendously. In addition, I would also like to know why so many powerful Macrocosm Ancestral Gods exist now.’

Mirabelle softly shook her head and said, “I don’t really know either.”

Unfortunately, she did not know anything.

“I only know that the Omnipotent Lord had been cultivating in seclusion after you left for the Dark World. I saw him a few times initially. However, he suddenly disappeared one day. I’ve attempted many times to meet with him but never got to. After he returned, his strength had already improved significantly.

“A few Epochs after he reappeared, many Nine-Power

Macrocosm Ancestral Gods continuously cropped up in the Ancestral Holy Site. There were about twenty of them. Then, he merged the twelve universes and sent powerhouses to manage the different districts of the new universe.”

Mirabelle shared everything she knew.

James frowned. “Do you know where he disappeared to?”

Mirabelle shook her head and said, “No, unfortunately.”

“Alright.” James nodded lightly.

“What are you going to do next, Master? Do you plan to be the new universe’s Lord?” Mirabelle looked at James. She trusted him wholly.

James gently waved his hand and said, “Why would I do that? I’ve already planned to comply with the Omnipotent Lord. After a thousand years, I’ll fight one of his subordinates, Briscoe Haldor. He promised to let me be the Deputy Universe Lord if I could defeat Briscoe.”

“Huh?” Mirabelle was dumbfounded. She never expected James to defer to the Omnipotent Lord and was speechless. James did not fully trust Mirabelle, so he did not tell her the true extent of his plans.

He sensed that Mirabelle was still an Eight-Power Macrocosm Ancestral God. However, she was very close to becoming a Nine-Power Macrocosm Ancestral God. She would definitely cross over with a little more time.

‘You should continue cultivating diligently. I’ll take my leave first.’ After James bid farewell, he disappeared.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3963-Mirabelle exclaimed, “Master?!”. However, James was long gone. After he left Mount Nine-Saints, he headed to Omnipotent City which was outside the Ancestral Holy Site. Omnipotent City was a main city of the First District and the new universe’s capital. Many Macrocosm Ancestral Gods lived there.

Previously, James held a lecture on Mount Bane, where he taught how to cultivate Macrocosm Powers. Many Ancestral Gods were inspired by his teachings and went into seclusion.

Now that the twelve universes had fused, the new universe had a Super Heavenly Path, and the limits of heaven and earth were also lifted.

In the current new universe, there was no longer a limit to the number of Macrocosm Ancestral Gods that could exist in a given place. As long as one had the potential, becoming a Macrocosm Ancestral God was now possible.

It had only been a million years since the new universe's formation, but many people became Macrocosm Ancestral Gods because of the knowledge James had shared during his lecture. Although the majority of them were One-Power Macrocosm Ancestral Gods, it was still a great sign.

With a few more Epochs, their new universe would definitely be full of powerhouses. Perhaps, it would even be comparable to the Greater Realms.

James rode the big, black cow into Omnipotent City and chose a place to wait out the 1,000 years.

The Omnipotent Lord had become the new universe's Lord, but he was not held in high esteem. On the other hand, James was highly regarded among everyone. He had taught others how to cultivate Macrocosm Powers, and many powerhouses deeply respected him.

James' fight with Briscoe was an excellent opportunity for the Omnipotent Lord to secure his position. He wanted to show the universe that even a formidable powerhouse like James had to bow to him. He immediately instructed his subordinates to spread the news after the battle's date was finalized.

In just a few hundred years, news of the upcoming battle had spread to every district in the universe. After hearing of it, Macrocosm Ancestral Gods from every district rushed to the First District to observe the battle.

To them, James was their ultimate goal. Although the Omnipotent Lord's strength had increased significantly since his last battle with James, and he had many powerhouses around him, they all considered James superior to him.

Many Macrocosm Ancestral Gods had risen in the new universe during the past 1,000,000 years. There were at least 8,000,000 of them, or maybe even 10,000,000. However, the majority were only the One-Power Macrocosm Ancestral Gods.

Those that were Macrocosm Ancestral Gods before the merging of the twelve universes had grown even stronger since then.

Apart from the Macrocosm Ancestral Gods, a few Caelum Ancestral Gods also showed up in Omnipotent City and awaited the battle in anticipation.

Time passed day by day.

A thousand years passed in the blink of an eye. There were only three days before the day of the battle.

James sat inside an independent manor in Omnipotent City, leisurely enjoying his tea. A haggard man with tanned skin and horns on his head stood beside him.

Quiomars had taken on a human form and was wearing a black robe.

“Master, there’s only a few more days until your fight,” said Quiomars.

James nodded, looked at him, and asked, “Yeah. Did you find anything unusual in the Ancestral Holy Site?”

Quiomars said, “I did notice some strange activities. I’ve been monitoring the movements of many powerhouses from the Ancestral Holy Site and noticed a few of them frequently entering the Chaos. It seems that they’re looking for something there.”

Startled, James asked, “Could they be looking for Chaotic Treasures?”

Quiomars shook her head. “It doesn’t seem like they’re looking for Chaotic Treasures. I think the Omnipotent Lord already knows about Universe Seeds. He probably sent his subordinates to find the remaining Universe Seeds in the Chaos and plans to form them into Macrocosm Cores to create more universes.”

“Is that so?” James had a solemn expression as he gently rapped his fingers on the table. Suddenly, he stood up and said, “It doesn’t matter what he’s up to. I’ll be able to investigate further after becoming the Deputy Universe Lord.”

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3964

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3964-Since the Omnipotent Lord already knew about Universe Seeds, he most likely had already come in contact with the Watchers. Another possibility was that Thea had reappeared, and briefed the Omnipotent Lord about everything. James was still unable to determine which was most likely the case.

“Stay here, Quiomars. I’ll go fight Briscoe in the Chaos.”

After leaving a few words, James disappeared.

The Omnipotent Lord had already spread the news of the imminent battle far and wide a thousand years ago. Now that it was the long awaited moment, many Macrocosm Ancestral Gods and Caelum Ancestral Gods had gathered in the Chaos where the battle would take place.

The pressure in the Chaos was oppressive. It was impossible to withstand the pressure unless one had reached the Caelum Ancestral God Rank.

The battlefield was already full of spectators when James showed up.

“He’s here! James has arrived!”

“A few Epochs ago, he gave a lecture on Mount Bane in the Twelfth District and enlightened many people. He’s the reason why our universe has so many Macrocosm Ancestral Gods today.”

“I heard he traveled to the depths of the Dark World.”

“Yeah. It’s already been a few Epochs since then. I wonder what his cultivation rank is now.”

Countless discussions took place as soon as James’ appeared. The spectators also deliberately made way for him.

James strode into the battlefield with his hands behind his back. Many people were standing on the battlefield, and in front of all of them was the Omnipotent Lord.

The Omnipotent Lord wore a golden robe, and exuded a domineering aura. Standing beside him was James’ opponent, Briscoe, who was also a peak Nine-Power Macrocosm Ancestral God.

When James neared the Omnipotent Lord, he stopped and looked at the people ahead of him.

The Omnipotent Lord had a satisfied smirk on his face. He was worried James would not appear and was pleased to see things going according to plan.

Since James showed up for the fight, it meant that he was sincere about submitting to him and becoming the Deputy Universe Lord.

The Omnipotent Lord asked, “Are you ready, James?”

James nodded and said, “Yeah. I’ve been ready a long time ago.”

The Omnipotent Lord said, ‘This isn’t a duel to the death, so avoid trying to kill each other. Either party can choose to surrender at any point in the fight. The outcome doesn’t really matter. Both of you are top powerhouses and my valuable men.

“James, as long as you win, you’ll become the Deputy Universe Lord. It’s okay even if you lose. You’ll still be compensated with another position.”

The Omnipotent Lord’s voice carried far, and the tens of thousands of spectators heard him clearly.

James nodded lightly, not saying much in response.

After the Omnipotent Lord finished speaking, he withdrew from the battlefield. The Omnipotent Lord’s subordinates also scattered, leaving only James and Briscoe in the battlefield.

The Chaos was huge, and even a Nine-Power Macrocosm Ancestral God would have difficulties finding its border.

Thus, it was not possible for them to destroy the space around them while fighting in the Chaos.

Briscoe wore a black robe and crossed his hands behind him. He looked at James with a calm and confident expression. He knew James’ capabilities but was not afraid and confident in his strength.

Briscoe stretched out his hand and taunted James, “I’ll let you make the first move. Otherwise, you wouldn’t even have a chance.”

Briscoe spoke arrogantly. Although his opponent was James, who was well known throughout the new universe, he was fearless. He was confident he could defeat James.

James, on the other hand, remained calm.

Many powerhouses had gathered in the distance.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3965-Many people from the Twelfth District had come to spectate the fight. Even James's children, Jacopo, Xainte, and Winnie, had come to watch him fight. James' good friend, Henrik, was also present.

Everyone's eyes were fixed on the battlefield.

Xainte asked worriedly, "Dad will definitely win, right?"

Winnie held her hand tightly and said, "Don't worry. I'm sure everything will be fine. You need to trust Dad."

On the battlefield, neither James nor Briscoe moved a muscle. The two simply glared at each other for an entire day.

"Since you refuse to make a move, then I'll take the initiative."

Briscoe could not hold back anymore, and his face darkened. He suddenly called on his energy, and a powerful aura erupted from his body.

He unleashed his nine Macrocosm Powers, which were all at peak strength.

Briscoe went all out, unleashing all of his nine Macrocosm Powers. His long black hair whipped everywhere, and terrifying energy erupted from him.

His energy caused the space around him to become unstable, and cracks began to form. James stared at the rampaging Briscoe.

"Something feels strange."

James sensed something unusual and stared intently at Briscoe. He discovered there were indeed nine Macrocosm Powers in Briscoe's body. However, he realized that they were not genuine. Instead, his Macrocosm Powers were formed by some kind of unknown power.

Simply put, it was an imitation of Macrocosm Powers replicated using a mysterious power.

James had learned countless Supernatural Powers while in the Ecclesiastical Restricted Zone and was very familiar with the various Paths of the universes. He could easily identify the Path that one used to form Macrocosm Powers.

However, Briscoe's Macrocosm Powers were not cultivated through his own efforts. Instead, he obtained it through some other means.

James' brows drew together.

'What kind of power is this? It's capable of mimicking Macrocosm Power. How terrifying,' thought James.

James had one guess in mind-it was a power from the Greater Realms. Supposing his suspicion was correct, then the Omnipotent Lord definitely had external help, most likely from the Watchers.

"Huff!"

James took a deep breath after considering the possibilities. It would be troublesome if his fears were correct.

'What on earth are the Watchers trying to do? Are they really trying to draw out Thea?' thought James.

After Briscoe unleashed his power, he roared. "Make your move, James."

His voice was like deafening thunder, ripping through the Chaos and damaging their surroundings. The spectators in the distance were also stunned.

A few weaker spectators did not dare to stay close to the battlefield and retreated close to the universe's border. In case something went awry, they could quickly return. Since a Super Heavenly Path protected the universe, it could resist the power in the Chaos.

When Briscoe taunted him with his powers, James had already deduced several possibilities as to where it had come from. He concluded Briscoe did not obtain them through his own cultivation. Instead, Briscoe's powers simply mimicked actual Macrocosm Power.

James no longer held back. He unleashed his nine Macrocosm Powers and enhanced them to the Ninth Rank.

His aura grew steadily stronger.

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3966

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3966-James was proficient in the various Paths of heaven and earth. Thus, he could deduce every Path's Macrocosm Power and managed to integrate all his cultivation knowledge into the Chaos Path. However, he wanted to refrain from using his Chaos Path.

He would definitely win the fight if he used his Chaos Power. Even though Briscoe had nine Macrocosm Powers, James could still easily kill him.

"Here we go! They're about to begin the fight!"

"A fight between two Nine-Power Macrocosm Ancestral Gods! It's the first one since the beginning of time!"

"I can finally witness the true strength of Nine-Power Macrocosm Ancestral Gods."

After Briscoe and James unleashed their intense auras, the spectators watching from a distance were immediately excited.

Briscoe looked at James and shouted, "Where's your weapon? You won't stand a chance against me unarmed."

"Ha!" James chuckled.

James immediately summoned the Demon-Slayer Sword. He held onto the weapon and scrutinized it. The sword was black and had mysterious inscriptions engraved on the blade.

The sword's tip was slightly curved, and a black glow coated the blade.

James held the Demon-Slayer Sword and thought about Thea. He recalled the moment she gifted him the sword.

Back when James was in the Primordial Age, he wanted to search for her after returning from the Thirteenth Universe. Unfortunately, he died back then.

After he was mysteriously resurrected, he learned that Thea had already been reincarnated.

‘Where exactly are you, Thea?’ James thought to himself.

While James was distracted by his thoughts, Briscoe seized the opportunity to attack.

Briscoe summoned a dazzling, golden sword and rushed toward James. He immediately appeared above James and slashed at him. Thousands of Sword Lights burst out from the golden sword, each as strong as Ninth-Rank Macrocosm Power and were capable of killing an early-stage Nine- Power Macrocosm Ancestral God.

The Sword Lights flew through the Chaos, causing cracks throughout the void. The damage continued to expand and eventually formed black holes.

A peak Nine-Power Macrocosm Ancestral God had power devastating enough to cause mass destruction with just a single attack.

The spectators in the distance were startled at the sight.

“Is this the true strength of a Nine-Power Macrocosm Ancestral God?”

“He has such terrifying power. It makes me scared even though I’m watching from afar. If I were close to the battlefield, the smallest amount of his Sword Energy would kill me instantly.”

The Macrocosm Ancestral Gods were shocked by Briscoe’s Nine-Rank Macrocosm Power.

The Omnipotent Lord was also spectating the battle. With Briscoe bringing all his strength to bear, even the Omnipotent Lord would struggle to withstand his attacks.

In the past, James gave a lecture on Mount Bane and helped improve other cultivators’ strengths. The Omnipotent Lord was curious to see how strong he himself was.

Although he lost to James on the Chessboard of Heaven and Earth, he never had a real duel with James and was unsure of James’ true strength.

Therefore, he looked forward to uncovering James' strength through this battle.

Briscoe fought viciously and unleashed thousands of terrifying Sword Lights. His Sword Lights formed a net and rained down on James.

James' physical strength alone was capable of resisting the damage of the Sword Lights. However, he wanted to put on an act. He planned to hide his real strength and find a way to get closer to the Omnipotent Lord to learn more about the Watchers.

James raised the Demon-Slayer Sword and unleashed Sword Intent. His Sword Intent spread out like ripples and destroyed the Sword Lights closing in on him.

'You've got some skill.'

Briscoe shouted at him, then launched another attack.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3967-Briscoe attacked with lightning speed. Before James could even react, he had already appeared in front of James.

James raised the Demon-Slayer Sword to block his attack.

Boom!

Two Chaotic Treasures clashed, and a deafening sound exploded.

James feigned being knocked away by the force, and faked spitting out a mouthful of blood. In a proper fight, Briscoe would not be capable of causing him internal injuries with just one attack.

Briscoe quickly seized the opportunity to pressure James with more attacks. James defended against the onslaught and was constantly pushed away.

Briscoe fought ruthlessly and seemed like he wanted to kill James.

James knew he had revealed his Chaos Power in the Dark World before, and would have to do it again in this battle. He pretended to falter before Briscoe's might and suddenly unleashed his Chaos Power. At that moment, he immediately turned the tide and gained the upper hand against Briscoe.

Unable to withstand the Chaos Power, Briscoe was forced backward.

The two fought intensely in the Chaos. Briscoe used all his strength and his resources, whereas James fought halfheartedly. James could easily defeat Briscoe, but he had other plans.

Briscoe was forced into a corner. He had no choice but to use his ultimate move.

Briscoe's power suddenly returned to its original form and restrained James' power. Naturally, James had only demonstrated a portion of his Chaos Power's strength.

After Briscoe revealed the true form of his powers, James backed away.

"I surrender."

James felt that he had done enough to convince everyone watching and immediately forfeited the match. Briscoe stopped attacking and released his murderous intent.

James put away the Demon-Slayer Sword, wiped the blood from his lips, and looked at Briscoe in mock amazement. "Incredible. You're too powerful for me. It's been a long time since I've had such a wonderful fight. Unfortunately, we'd end up fighting to the death if this continued. I admit my defeat."

After speaking, James turned to the Omnipotent Lord in the distance and said, "I've lost, Omnipotent Lord. I'm not qualified to become the Deputy Universe Lord. I'll take my leave now."

James walked away after bidding farewell.

The Omnipotent Lord stopped him, "Wait."

He took a step forward, appearing before James. The Omnipotent Lord looked at James approvingly and praised him, "You're quite impressive, James. I'm very satisfied with your performance in this battle. Although I can't make you the Deputy Universe Lord, the Ancestral Holy Site lacks a Protector. If you're willing, you can take on that position. You'd only be beneath the Universe Lord and Deputy Universe Lord."

"Uhm..." James rubbed his chin, pretending to consider the offer.

The Omnipotent Lord said, "It's the highest position I can offer you. The Ancestral Holy Site is where our universe's luck gathers. If you cultivate there, it'll be greatly beneficial. With your potential, I'm sure you'll surpass the Macrocosm Ancestral God Rank and enter the Acme Rank soon."

James cast a glance at the Omnipotent Lord. Knowledge of the Acme Rank is only known to powerhouses in the Dark World. Beings from the Illuminated World were oblivious to the rank's existence. However, the Omnipotent Lord clearly was aware of it.

Everything pointed to the likelihood that the Omnipotent Lord got help from the Watchers in the Dark World.

"If that's the case, I'm more than happy to accept the offer."

James did not turn him down.

"Haha! Good! Very good!"

The Omnipotent Lord patted James' shoulder and laughed out loud.

"Once I step into the Acme Rank, and find the remaining Universe Seeds, I'll stimulate the formation of these universes, and merge them into a Super Universe. Then, we'll join forces to bring down the Dark World."

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3968-The Omnipotent Lord had great ambitions. He was not satisfied with just being the new universe's Lord. His ultimate goal was to conquer the Dark World as well.

James faked a surprised look, asking, "Universe Seeds? What are those?"

Seeing James' puzzled expression, the Omnipotent Lord chuckled lightly. "Let's head to the Ancestral Holy Site. I'll walk you through everything."

The Omnipotent Lord smiled and left the Chaos. James smiled back and followed after him.

“Is that it?”

“James admitted defeat?”

“Has he deferred to the Omnipotent Lord?”

The Macrocosm Ancestral Gods that came to spectate the fight were astonished. No one thought James would willingly bow to the Omnipotent Lord. However, James did not care about their opinions and followed the Omnipotent Lord to the Ancestral Holy Site.

In the Ancestral Holy Site’s main hall, the Omnipotent Lord sat in the highest seat, and James stood below him.

“Get our Protector a seat!”

At the Omnipotent Lord’s order, a few beautiful women carried a chair into the main hall and placed it in front of James.

James sat down, looked at the Omnipotent Lord in the highest seat, and asked, “My Lord, you mentioned Universe Seeds before. What exactly are they?”

Although James already knew these things, he pretended to not know what the Omnipotent Lord was talking about.

The Omnipotent Lord smiled and said, “In the past, I only knew that Macrocosm Cores were formed in Chaos. Back then, I tried so hard to find a Macrocosm Core. When I finally found one, I embedded it on a Chaotic Treasure, but you swallowed it.”

James listened carefully.

“It wasn’t until a while ago that I found out Macrocosm Cores are formed from Universe Seeds.”

“What? Universe Seeds?” James had a confused look.

The Omnipotent Lord replied mirthfully, “Actually, the Dark World used to be a powerful world known as the Primordial Realm.”

Hearing his words, James was slightly surprised. He thought the Omnipotent Lord was unaware of the Dark World's history and expected him to be unaware of the truth.

James silently listened to him without responding.

The Omnipotent Lord said, "There were many powerhouses during the Primordial Realm Era. Unfortunately, a huge battle broke out, and these powerhouses died. After their death, they became Universe Seeds and scattered around the Chaos. Eventually, they would transform into Macrocosm Cores and form universes."

As he spoke, the Omnipotent Lord became increasingly excited.

"Our Heavenly Path is already this formidable after merging thirteen universes. If we find all forty-nine Universe Seeds, form their respective universes, and merge them with our current universe, can you imagine how powerful our Heavenly Path would become?"

The Omnipotent Lord could not fathom the extent of power this would result in.

James had been listening attentively.

It seemed like the Omnipotent Lord only had a surface-level understanding of everything, but was not familiar with the details. He was unaware the Universe Seeds were scattered in the Chaos by Yukia.

James frowned and asked, "Such things aren't even spoken of in the Dark World. Even Ninth Stage Lords aren't aware of this information, so how did you find out?"

"You don't need to ask too many questions. As long as you earnestly follow me, I promise that you'll have a bright future." The Omnipotent Lord was careful not to explain too much.

James stopped prying further. For now, he was sure that someone had helped the Omnipotent Lord and these people were most likely the Watchers. Alternatively, it was probably someone from the Greater Realms.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3969-James asked, "What do I need to do now?"

Since James had been assigned to the Ancestral Holy Site, he planned to comply with Omnipotent Lords' wishes for now.

If the Watchers were assisting the Omnipotent Lord, they would definitely find out that James had become one of his lackeys. James knew they would definitely warn the Omnipotent Lord about his relationship with Yukia.

The Omnipotent Lord said, "You don't need to do anything for now. Just cultivate as you usually do. Now that we have a Super Heavenly Path, you can surpass Macrocosm Ancestral God Rank and reach greater heights."

James asked, "Do you mean the Acme Rank?"

"Haha! What's the Acme Rank?" The Omnipotent Lord laughed and said, "Acme Rank... huh? What a fitting name."

James smiled and suggested, "Aren't you afraid I'll reach that rank before you? I might kill and overthrow you."

"Haha," the Omnipotent Lord laughed in response. "You're too inexperienced, James. The world we know is far more complicated than you think. Our universe doesn't even compare to the Primordial Realm during its prime. They had dozens of powerhouses beyond the Macrocosm Ancestral God Rank. Despite that, they were still wiped out."

James feigned surprise and asked, "Are you saying you got assistance from the powerhouse that destroyed the Primordial Realm?"

"Of course." the Omnipotent Lord puffed out his chest.

With this mysterious powerhouse backing him, he was not afraid of the possibility that James would step into the Acme Rank.

James considered all the details carefully. "Based on what you claimed, this mysterious powerhouse wiped out many of the Primordial Realm's elite powerhouses. Aren't you afraid that he could easily dispose of you?"

The Omnipotent Lord raised his hand and said, "You don't need to worry about these things, James. There are still many things you have yet to understand. When you're strong enough, you'll find out the truth."

"Alright."

James fell silent.

'Til take my leave first." James got up and left the Ancestral Holy Site's main hall.

He was successfully appointed to the Ancestral Holy Site and secured a high position. As such, he was permitted to choose his own spiritual mountain. James selected a spiritual mountain with a good environment and temporarily settled down there.

After recruiting James, the Omnipotent Lord was in a good mood. It did not matter whether James was sincere, as long as he did not cause any trouble.

The Omnipotent Lord hummed happily as he walked toward one of the Ancestral Holy Site's restricted areas. The restricted area had a multi-layered formation set up, and no one was permitted to enter the area. The aforementioned formation would obliterate any trespassers.

The Omnipotent Lord arrived at the restricted area, stood outside the formation, and shouted respectfully, "I'm here to see you, Master."

A gruff voice came from inside the formation.

"Come in."

Immediately afterward, a gap opened up in the formation. The Omnipotent Lord walked through it and arrived at a stone wall that had mysterious words engraved on it. The words lit up, and a stone door rolled open.

The Omnipotent Lord entered the cave behind the door and arrived at a stone chamber. Inside was a figure seated in a lotus position. The figure was blurry with indiscernible features.

The Omnipotent Lord entered the stone chamber and kneeled before the figure. Then, he said pleadingly, "Master, I've already merged the twelve universes as per your orders. I've also sent my subordinates to the Chaos to look for the remaining Universe Seeds. Please grant me the supreme cultivation method. I'd like to enter the Acme Rank as soon as possible."

Surprised, the blurry figure interrogated him, "Acme Rank? I never told you that the rank above the Macrocosm Ancestral God Rank is the Acme Rank. How do you know about it?"

The Omnipotent Lord was taken aback.

Was the Acme Rank not just a name that James came up with to describe a rank that surpassed the Macrocosm Ancestral God Rank? Was there really a rank beyond the Macrocosm Ancestral God Rank during the Primordial Realm Era called the Acme Rank?

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3970-The Omnipotent Lord did not know about the Acme Rank and only knew that there was a rank above the Macrocosm Ancestral God Rank. When James mentioned the Acme Rank, he thought James had simply come up with the name. He liked the name, so he also adopted it. He never expected the Acme Rank to be an actual rank.

After slightly being taken aback, the Omnipotent Lord caught himself. "After learning more about the Dark World from you, I visited the Dark World myself. I asked a few Lords for ancient records and found one that mentioned it."

The Omnipotent Lord was not a fool, so he did not expose James. However, he knew that James was an enigmatic person who had an agenda.

The blurry figure asked harshly, "What else do you know?"

The Omnipotent Lord said, "Other than the Acme Rank's existence, I don't know anything else. I've already done what you told me to, Master. Where's the supreme cultivation method you promised me that will help me enter the Acme Rank?"

The Omnipotent Lord was aware that the person before him was someone terrifyingly powerful. He gave a few simple pointers to some of the Ancestral Holy Site's prodigies and helped them to cultivate a mysterious power. The power could imitate a Nine-Rank Macrocosm Power, giving one the strength equivalent to a Nine-Power Macrocosm

Ancestral God.

However, that person did not teach the Omnipotent Lord himself how to cultivate this mysterious power. He claimed that the Omnipotent Lord had a solid foundation and would easily surpass the Macrocosm Ancestral God Rank with the supreme cultivation method. Thus, he did not need to cultivate the mysterious power as it was dangerous to humans.

The blurry figure's hoarse voice replied, 'There's no need to rush. You need to find the Universe Seeds as soon as possible, grow them, and fuse them with the current universe. You are to form a world that can measure up to the Primordial Realm in its glory days. After you succeed, I'll pass you the supreme cultivation method to help you reach the Acme Rank.'

"...But, Master, I'll be able to serve you better when I reach the Acme Rank."

The Omnipotent Lord tried to insist.

The blurry figure said, "Your current strength is already unmatched in this universe. Even in the Dark World, no Lord would be able to win against you in a one-on-one battle.

You're plenty strong for now."

"Master..."

The Omnipotent Lord attempted to persuade him again.

The blurry figure yelled at him, "Silence! Leave at once!"

Then, he waved his hand, and a powerful force rushed forward. The force struck the Omnipotent Lord and sent him flying. Although he was close to reaching the Acme Rank, he was unable to withstand the attack.

The Omnipotent Lord was blasted out of the formation and stumbled backward for another few hundred meters before he could finally stand firmly. He looked at the formation ahead of him with a frown, and his expression gradually grew dark.

After a while, he departed after having cleared his thoughts.

The area fell silent once more.

James had chosen a spiritual mountain of the Ancestral Holy Site to use as his cultivation site. He also changed its name to Mount Thea.

He stayed in Mount Thea for a while. However, he did not concentrate on cultivating since he had reached his highest point at the moment. He had mastered all Paths and could only work toward the Acme Rank. However, he was unsure of how he could become an Acmean.

As for the Omniscience Path, James had already entered the Sixth Stage. His physical body was comparable to a Nine -Power Macrocosm Ancestral God. If he were to enter the Omniscience Path's Seventh Stage, his physical strength would emulate the Acme Rank.

A thousand years passed in the blink of an eye.
