

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3981

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3981-Morangorin fled speedily, and James almost lost track of him. However, James persisted and caught up to him in the depths of the Unknown Region.

James grabbed Morangorin's wings, slapped his head, and reprimanded him, 'You think you can run?'

Morangorin said with dissatisfaction, "Who's running? Do you think I would run? What kind of joke is that? I'm simply training a bit. What if I encounter danger in the future and can't run fast enough? Go on. Tell me what you need from me."

James went straight to the point, saying. "There's an Ursa from the Primordial Realm Era hiding in the outside universe. He's a ticking bomb, and I need to eliminate him. You need to help me."

"I won't be able to."

Morangorin immediately refused to help.

"Are you kidding, brat? An Ursa that existed since the Primordial Realm Era is definitely an Acmean. How do you expect me to help you? I don't want to die, so forget about it. I absolutely won't be able to help you. I'll give you some fruits."

After speaking, Morangorin took out three fruits and threw them to James.

"Alright, we're even."

Then, Morangorin tried to escape.

However, James grabbed his wings again.

Morangorin struggled to break free and shouted, "Let me go, you brat!!!"

"You should understand how serious this is, Morangorin. After my preliminary investigation, this powerhouse of the Ursa Race has been injured and hasn't recovered to his peak. It's the perfect chance to get rid of him. If he recovers, it'll be very hard to kill him."

James tried to persuade him, explaining the seriousness of the matter.

Morangorin finally stopped trying to break free.

He raised his little claw and touched his chin.

"What you're saying makes sense. How can we let other people dictate our worlds? Alright, I'll help you. Go ahead and tell me how I can help."

James was relieved by his words.

Then, he said, "Just the two of us won't be enough. We need to find a few more people to help to ensure we succeed.."

"Who?" asked Morangorin.

James looked at him and asked, 'You've lived a very long time, so you must know many powerhouses. Help me find some reliable and trustworthy powerhouses. We'll work together to kill this Ursa."

Hearing this, Morangorin rolled his eyes.

"Who can I look for? I've offended almost every powerful Lord in the Dark World."

James knew he could not count on Morangorin to find help.

He would have to look for Yehosheva.

James felt he, Morangorin, Yehosheva, Quiomars, Yahveh, and Jehudi should be enough to kill the Ursa's powerhouse.

He unleashed his Divine Sense to look for Yehosheva.

After locating Yehosheva, James said, "Let's go see Yehosheva. Afterward, we'll go meet Jabari."

"Alright." Marangorin agreed.

The two left the depths of the Dark World's Unknown Region to look for Yehosheva.

After meeting with Yehosheva, James explained everything.

Yehosheva agreed to help without any hesitation.

Afterward, James headed to see Jabari.

Since it was a major threat to the outside universe, Jabari agreed instantly as well.

Jabari also brought Xulia with him. Xulia was a Ninth Stage Lord who was also very powerful.

During the trip to the Dark World, James found several powerhouses to help him. Now, he could return to the outside universe and look for Yahveh and Jehudi.

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3982

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3982-James went to the Dark World and found a few people to help him.

The mysterious bird, Morangorin, was a peak Nine-Power Macrocosm Ancestral God close to reaching the Acme Rank.

In addition, he sought the help of Yehosheva, a powerhouse at the late stage of the Lord Rank's Ninth Stage, as well as Jabari and Xulia, both Ninth Stage Lords.

His team was very powerful.

However, their opponent was an Acmean. Even though he was injured and not at his prime, it would be tough to kill him.

They would have to be well prepared to kill him.

James requested them to hide their aura and disguise themselves. Then, he brought them into the Ancestral Holy Site.

Although the Ancestral Holy Site was the Omnipotent Lord's territory, Mount Thea was his residence, and he had already set up a formation around the area.

Inside the main hall of Mount Thea, Jabari asked, "What do you plan to do next, James?"

James casually waved his hand, and live footage appeared before them.

The footage was of the stone chamber, which was where the Ursa was hiding in seclusion.

A blurry shadow-like figure could be seen inside the stone chamber. The figure kept fluttering and constantly changed in appearance.

James said, "This is the Ursa powerhouse I mentioned. He has existed since the Primordial Realm Era. For some reason, he stayed back in the Dark World. He had only just come to the outer universe recently."

Everyone present observed the Ursa in the footage.

It was just footage, and they were unable to sense his aura. However, the person was a powerhouse that had existed since the Primordial Realm Era and was definitely a terrifying powerhouse.

James said, "I plan to lure him to the Chaos, set a powerful formation, and kill him."

"There are Watchers in the Dark World. It's unknown whether these Watchers have come to this universe and if they know about this Ursa. No matter what, we must quietly eliminate him without alarming anyone."

James stated his opinion.

After they had a general plan, it would be easier to lay out their detailed plan later.

Hearing this, Morangorin asked, "Then how will we lure him to the Chaos? He even set up a formation in the Ancestral Holy Site. It's evident he's not planning to leave. Moreover, he sought the Omnipotent Lord and helped his subordinates become stronger. Why is he trying to find the remaining Universe Seeds, stimulate their formation, and merge them?

What's his ultimate goal?"

Morangorin expressed his doubts.

James said, "According to my speculation, he wants to create a world on par with the Primordial Realm. Then, he can absorb the Genesis of the universe and recover his strength."

Morangorin asked again, "What if he is helping the powerhouses of the Primordial Realm Era? What if he was abandoned in the Dark World because he betrayed the Ten Great Races? What if we kill one of our greatest helpers?"

Morangorin brought up a very crucial question.

James frowned.

Morangorin's suggestion was also possible.

After a brief thought, he said, "We'll have to figure out the truth first."

Morangorin rolled his eyes and said, "How are we going to? Almost all of the Primordial Realm Era's powerhouses have perished. Only Yukia survived, but she never showed herself. Who are we going to ask?"

James said, "We'll have to take things slow. There's no need to rush for now. Aren't I already monitoring the Ursa? I'm sure I'll figure it out after some time."

Hearing this, Morangorin fell silent and lay down lazily on the table.

Meanwhile, James continued to discuss with the other people.

They started deliberating how to form a formation in the Chaos and how they could lure the Ursa to the Chaos.

Jabari said, "He's already injured and is eager to recover his strength. As long as something that can help him recover in the Chaos appears, he will definitely head out to the Chaos."

The others nodded in agreement.

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3983

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3983-James said, "But we're still unsure how exactly he got injured and what he needs to restore his strength."

Yehosheva replied, "You don't need to worry about these things for now. We can figure them out slowly. It's more important you find Yahveh and Jehudi. Every extra powerhouse we can recruit will increase our chances of winning."

"Alright." James nodded.

After a brief discussion, James left.

It was very easy for him to find two Macrocosm Ancestral Gods in the universe with his current strength.

He quickly found Yahveh and Jehudi without much effort.

So far, James had gathered the candidates he had in mind.

These people were the strongest people he was acquainted with. Since they were all from the Ecclesiastical Restricted Zone, they were all trustworthy.

James temporarily arranged for them to live within Mount Thea.

Meanwhile, he monitored the Ursa and waited for an opportunity.

Unfortunately, the Omnipotent Lord never saw the Ursa during this period.

Thus, the Ursa silently stayed inside the formation. After monitoring him for a while, James did not get any helpful information.

One thousand years passed in the blink of an eye.

During this time, James constantly monitored the Ursa, who stayed inside the formation.

One thousand years later, the Omnipotent Lord suddenly headed into the formation to meet the Ursa one particular day.

The Omnipotent Lord greeted him respectfully, "Master."

The figure's hoarse voice resounded, saying, "Go on."

The Omnipotent Lord reported, "I've already found eight Universe Seeds. With my current cultivation rank, I cannot stimulate them to evolve into Macrocosm Cores to become new universes. Are you going to teach me the technique to do so?"

The Omnipotent Lord looked at the fluttering figure in front of him.

"You don't have to worry about that. For now, you can focus on finding the Universe Seeds. Naturally, I have someone that will stimulate the formation of these universes."

The Ursa lightly waved his hand and said, "Alright, you're dismissed. Don't disturb me in seclusion."

"Are you injured, Master?" The Omnipotent Lord asked tentatively.

Suddenly, a terrifying aura filled the stone chamber. The Omnipotent Lord was enveloped by the force and lifted from the ground.

At that moment, the Omnipotent Lord felt discomfort. His body and soul showed signs of perishing.

"So what if I'm injured? I can still kill you very easily."

The deep and hoarse voice resounded.

The Omnipotent Lord said frantically, "O-Of course."

The Ursa let go of the Omnipotent Lord and said, "I'm warning you not to pry too much. I can easily make you the Universe Lord, but I can also kill and replace you."

The Ursa threatened the Omnipotent Lord.

"I understand, Master."

The Omnipotent Lord did not dare to even refute him.

Some time ago, Mila shared some information with him. Ever since, he had been wondering about the Ursa's true identity and his goal.

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3984

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3984-The Omnipotent Lord had gained a deeper insight into some things from Mila.

He was slightly puzzled about how she knew of these things when he was totally clueless.

Although he tried to inquire about the source of her information, she refused to say much about it.

Despite that, he had absolute trust in her.

After learning these things from Mila, he visited the Ursa powerhouse to test him. Judging by his reaction, the Omnipotent Lord knew that the Ursa was indeed injured. He was hiding within the formation to recuperate.

This made the Omnipotent Lord even more puzzled.

If he wanted to recuperate, doing so in a place in the Chaos would be better. Why would he come to the universe, give him pointers in cultivation, and even teach his subordinates a mysterious cultivation method?

All kinds of doubts flooded his mind.

However, there was nothing he could do to the powerful Ursa.

Even though the Ursa was injured, he could easily kill the Omnipotent Lord.

Thus, the Omnipotent Lord did not dare to disobey him.

The Omnipotent Lord asked cautiously, "Master, do you need anything to help speed up recovery? I'll help you find it. I'm the Universe Lord, so I can get anything for you, even if it's from the Dark World. I can help you find it."

The Omnipotent Lord spoke very respectfully.

At that moment, he did not have the demeanor of a mighty Universe Lord. Instead, he was just like a pet trying to please his master.

"You don't have to worry about me. Just do what I tell you to."

The Ursa waved his hand, and a powerful force knocked the Omnipotent Lord out of the stone chamber.

Outside the formation, the Omnipotent Lord's expression became solemn.

He looked at the formation ahead of him and clenched his fists.

Then, he turned around and left the restricted area.

As soon as the Omnipotent Lord turned around, his face darkened.

"Just you wait, old b*stard. When I step into the Acme Rank, it'll be the death of you."

The Omnipotent Lord had ruled the First Universe for a very long time and was now the new universe's Lord.

Thus, it hurt his pride to follow another person's command.

However, he was not strong enough to kill the Ursa yet.

The Omnipotent Lord thought, 'He wants me to find the Universe Seeds? I don't think he has pure intentions. He probably wants to stimulate the formation of these universes and gain something. His main priority is probably to recover from his injuries and restore his strength. Could he be trying to form a Superuniverse to absorb its Genesis to recover his strength?'

The Omnipotent Lord was a powerful man and immediately caught on to crucial information.

After thinking of the possibility, he knew he could not let the Ursa accomplish his motives. The Omnipotent Lord wanted to destroy the Ursa before the Superuniverse was created.

Meanwhile, James and his group of powerhouses were gathered on Mount Thea.

They had witnessed everything that had happened in the stone chamber.

After watching everything, James looked at his comrades and asked, "What do you guys think?"

Morangorin shook his head lightly and said, "I've nothing to say."

Jabari said, 'This means the Ursa is definitely injured.

Judging by how he easily subdued the Omnipotent Lord, he is still relatively strong despite not being in his prime. He is probably still able to severely injure or even kill a peak Nine- Power Macrocosm Ancestral God."

James had already expected so much from the Ursa.

He knew the Ursa was incredibly powerful. Therefore, he gathered many powerhouses to help him.

Quiomars said, "It's important for us to find something else that could help recover his strength, apart from a Superuniverse's Genesis."

Morangorin suddenly interjected, saying, "I think we'll have to find out how he was injured and who injured him."

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3985

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3985-Morangorin looked at Quiomars and asked, "You used to be a mountain guardian in the Ecclesiastical Restricted Zone. You should be familiar with the battle that took place in the Primordial Realm Era. Do you not know about him?"

Quiomars shook her head and said, "I only remained in the Ecclesiastical Restricted Zone back then and am unaware of the battle outside. This Ursa had never been to the Ecclesiastical Restricted Zone, so I don't know anything about him or how he got injured."

James lightly waved his hand and said, "There's no need to rush. We can figure out these things slowly. Didn't the Omnipotent Lord say he only found a few Universe Seeds? It will be hard to find all of them, and it will take a lot of time. We have more than enough time to figure things out."

"Alright. I'm going to sleep. Just come get me when it's time for action."

Morangorin flapped his wings and flew away.

The others stayed back to continue the discussion.

James said, "Since the Omnipotent Lord is already aware of the situation. I can go see him and try to get close to the Ursa. I might be able to acquire more information."

Everyone agreed with James' plan.

After a brief discussion, they decided that James would see the Omnipotent Lord and try to get near the Ursa.

"Everyone's dismissed. Go ahead and rest on Mount Thea. Meanwhile, I'll go meet the Omnipotent Lord."

After leaving a few words, James left to look for the Omnipotent Lord.

James left Mount Thea and headed to Mount Ancestre.

There were many guards on Mount Ancestre. However, James was the Ancestral Holy Site's Protector. Apart from a few restricted areas, he was given permission to freely enter most places.

James arrived at the Omnipotent Lord's residence, a manor on Mount Ancestre.

James pushed the door open without even knocking and walked into the manor.

As soon as he entered the house, he saw the Omnipotent Lord in a lounge.

James strode over to him.

The Omnipotent Lord looked at him and asked lightly, "What brings you here?"

James walked over, sat down opposite him, and said smilingly, "My Lord, I've already joined the Ancestral Holy Site for a while but haven't had anything to all this while. You need to delegate me some tasks to do."

The Omnipotent Lord stared at James. Then, he asked, "Do you still have Crucifier? It's capable of treating any kind of injury, right?"

James was originally from the Twelfth Universe, and the Omnipotent Lord knew about his background.

“Yeah. Is there something wrong?” asked James.

The Omnipotent Lord thought for a while and said, “I know a very powerful man. However, he is injured. I’ll bring you to him, and you can try to see if you can heal him. However...”

After a brief pause, the Omnipotent Lord said, “Even if his injuries are treatable, don’t heal him. Pretend you can do nothing about it. I just need you to find out how bad his injuries are.”

James’ goal of seeing the Omnipotent Lord was to get close to the Ursa. The Omnipotent Lord provided him with the perfect chance.

James pretended to be confused and asked, “Who is it?”

The Omnipotent Lord said coldly, “You don’t need to ask so many questions. When you meet him, you better restrain yourself and don’t run your mouth unnecessarily, alright?”

“Okay.” James nodded.

“Follow me.”

The Omnipotent Lord stood up and headed toward the formation within the restricted area.

Along the way, the Omnipotent Lord repeatedly warned James of things he had to pay attention to while meeting the Ursa.

James nodded obediently.

Soon, they arrived at the formation. The Omnipotent Lord stood in front and shouted, “Master, I’ve brought a powerhouse to see you. He has a Chaotic Treasure capable of healing any kind of injury. I brought him to see your injuries.”

The Omnipotent Lord’s voice resounded.

“Didn’t I tell you not to ever leak my location to another person? Since he knows where I am, he has to die.”

A cold voice came from the depths of the formation.

Immediately afterward, a powerful force blew toward them.

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3986

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3986-The Omnipotent Lord brought James to check on the Ursa's injuries. However, he had no intentions of really healing the Ursa.

Instead, the Omnipotent Lord wanted to understand his injuries and come up with a plan to kill him.

Unexpectedly, the Ursa was immediately enraged after the Omnipotent Lord came to the formation and explained that he wanted to check on his injuries.

A terrifying force emerged from the formation and attacked James.

The Ursa wanted to kill James.

The Omnipotent Lord's expression changed instantly in the face of the terrifying attack. He wanted to help James block the attack but was powerless.

James' face immediately became solemn. During this crucial period, many thoughts flashed across his mind. Ultimately, he decided to block the attack.

He raised his hand, urged all his strength, and confronted the Ursa's attack.

Faced with an Acmean, James did not dare to be careless. He used his Chaos Power.

Boom!!!

The two powerful forces clashed in the Ancestral Holy Site, causing a terrifying shock wave to spread out.

Fortunately, the Ancestral Holy Site was the new universe's core region. Thus, it was protected by the Heavenly Path. As soon as the shock wave began spreading out, the Heavenly Path neutralized it.

The Heavenly Path prevented the power from spreading to the Ancestral Holy Site and destroying it.

James, on the other hand, stumbled a few steps backward.

His expression looked terrible.

At that moment, his Blood Energy churned violently. Unable to suppress it, blood seeped through his lips.

'He's so powerful,' thought James.

James was shocked.

He had already urged his Chaos Power. He managed to withstand the Ursa's power but was still injured.

Although he did not use the Omniscience Path, it was evident the Ursa Race was very powerful.

"Chaos Power?"

A surprised voice came from within the depths of the formation.

Immediately afterward, a crack appeared in the formation. A strong suction came from within and pulled James into the stone chamber.

Seeing this, the Omnipotent Lord also entered the formation.

James appeared inside the stone chamber in front of the Ursa.

Through the dark mist, James noticed a pair of eyes staring directly at him, seemingly trying to analyze his strength.

"You're a human. How do you have the Doom Race's Chaos Power?"

The Ursa's hoarse voice resounded.

Before James made a move, he had already considered the outcome of it and came up with an answer to this question.

"Although I'm a human, my master is a powerhouse of one of the Ten Great Races, the Doom Race."

"Impossible."

The Ursa immediately retorted, saying, “How can a mere human cultivate Chaos Power?”

“Haha,” James laughed and said, “Nothing is impossible. I’m standing right in front of you, am I not? Did you not witness me using Chaos Power yourself?”

The Ursa fell silent. After a while, and asked, “What’s the name of your master?”

James parted his lips and said, “After the battle during the Primordial Realm Era, the Ten Great Races sealed off the Primordial Realm. My Master was ordered to stay in the Primordial Realm to monitor the Human Race. Master noticed my great potential and taught me how to cultivate Chaos Power. Although I’m a human, my loyalty isn’t to the Human Race. In fact, I stand with the Greater Realms. I dream of following my Master back to the Doom Race one day.”

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3987

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3987-James began bluffing. To get closer to the Ursa and acquire more information, James wanted to get him to drop his guard.

The Omnipotent Lord stood aside with a slight frown.

He knew a bit of James’ background. James’ master was Yukia, so when did it become a powerhouse from the Doom Race?

Although aware that James was lying, the Omnipotent Lord did not expose him.

Whatever James was doing, their goal was the same. They were both trying to find out more about the Ursa.

The Ursa knew about the Watchers in the Dark World.

However, he had never been in contact with them before and was clueless about which race the Watchers were from.

Since James had shown the Doom Race’s Chaos Power, he was convinced by James’ words.

Apart from the Doom Race, no other race could cultivate Chaos Power. For him to have cultivated Chaos Power, he most definitely had the guidance of a powerhouse from the Dooms.

“You, leave.”

The Ursa casually waved his hand, and a powerful force knocked the Omnipotent Lord out of the stone chamber.

Only James and the Ursa were left together.

The blurry figure in front of James gradually became clearer. Soon, a strange-looking creature appeared before James.

The creature looked like a human but had a head bigger and rounder than an average human's.

He was about eight meters tall and much bigger.

Moreover, he had four arms and a tail on his back.

James looked at the Ursa that had revealed his true form. He knew the Ursa was convinced by his words.

He clasped his fist and said, “I heard from the Omnipotent Lord that you’ve been injured, Sir. Coincidentally, I have a Chaotic Treasure that can heal any kind of injury. The Omnipotent Lord brought me here to examine you.”

The Ursa gently waved his hand.

“No one is capable of healing my injuries.”

James did not give up and tried to persuade him, “Please do let me try, Sir. I’m also very proficient in medicine, and I can cure all kinds of injuries.”

“It’s futile.”

The Ursa sighed and said, “If I could be cured, I would’ve recovered long ago.”

James asked, “Then what can I do to help cure your injuries? What kind of medicinal materials or treasures do you need? I’ll find them for you. Even if I have to search the Dark World or the Chaos, I'll definitely get it for you."

James vowed to help cure the Ursa.

He wanted to give the impression that he was really standing with the Greater Realm's living beings.

The Ursa said, "I'm severely injured and need the Genesis of a Superuniverse to heal."

Hearing this, James' heart became worried.

It was exactly as he predicted. James asked, "What else? It'll be tough to create a Superuniverse. Although the Omnipotent Lord is already looking for the remaining Universe Seeds, he has only found a few. It's going to take a very long time. Is there really no other way for you to recover?"

"Not really, but..."

James asked joyfully, "What is it?"

The Ursa said, "The Eternal Realm's supreme treasure, the Eternal Light. Unfortunately, the Eternal Realm has been sealed away. Unless the Ten Great Races jointly break the seal, it's impossible for anyone to enter the Eternal Realm."

"Sir, I'll find a way to enter the Eternal Realm and bring you the Eternal Light."

The Ursa chuckled and said, "Ha. You're very naive, young man. What kind of place do you think the Eternal Realm is? It'll be hard to leave this universe with your strength. Even if you manage to leave and reach the Eternal Realm, you're not even qualified to enter the Eternal Clan."

After speaking, the Ursa gently waved his hand and said, "I appreciate the kindness. You're dismissed. Relay to your master that it won't be necessary for him to interfere with my affairs. I won't hold back against anyone if my treatment is delayed."

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3988

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3988-James was slightly taken aback.

Supposedly, the Ten Great Races were supposed to be comrades.

James had already stated his master was from the Doom Race.

On the other hand, the creature in front of him was from the Ursa Race.

Although they were different races, they were supposed to be on the same team. Theoretically, a powerhouse from the Doom Race would definitely try to help the Ursa recover.

However, the Ursa was warning the Doom Race not to interfere. More importantly, there seemed to be a hint of hostility in histone.

“Why do you say such things, Sir? If my Master knows you’re injured, he will try to help you. What do you mean by it’s not necessary for him to interfere? I was planning to notify my master and have him help you recover. After you get your injuries treated, we can return to the Greater Realms together.”

“Hmph.” The Ursa snorted coldly.

“There are many things you don’t understand. As a human, you wouldn’t understand anyway. The relationships in the Greater Realms are far more complicated than you can imagine. Although we united to take down the Human Race, a powerhouse from the Doom Race wouldn’t try to save me after learning about my existence. He would most likely try to get rid of me. If I returned to the Greater Realms, I would become a threat to the other races.”

Hearing this, James had a clearer picture of the Greater Realms.

Even though the Ten Great Races joined forces to destroy the Human Race, they were not in harmony with each other.

Neither of the races would want the powerhouse of another race to survive.

The Ursa asked, “What’s the name of your master?”

James shook his head slightly and said, ‘I’m unaware of his name. He is a very mysterious person. I can never see his appearance clearly whenever he comes to see me. To be honest, I don’t even know my Master’s real gender. He never revealed anything to me and only guided me in cultivating Chaos Power.”

The Ursa asked, "Why did he help you cultivate Chaos Power?"

James had already prepared answers to these questions.

He replied without hesitation, "My Master said it's an experiment. He was trying to evolve his cultivation method so humans could cultivate Chaos Power. He aims to train some humans to serve as puppets to the Doom Race. Once the seal is open, he will bring these humans back to the Greater Realms and use them to make the Doom Race the strongest race."

James began lying through his teeth.

"Hmph. As expected from them."

The Ursa said, "I knew the Doom Race had an ulterior motive for proposing to eliminate the Human Race. It seems the Human Race had threatened their status in the Greater Realms, preventing them from unifying the Greater Realms.

"Young Man."

The Ursa looked at James and asked, "Are you willing to become my disciple and serve me?"

"This?"

James looked at him and said troubledly, "I'm afraid that's inappropriate. I'm already a disciple of the Dooms. If I become your disciple, I'll be a traitor to them. I'll become a sinner to all Ten Great Races."

James did not blatantly refuse, nor did he agree to it.

"What's so good about the Dooms?"

The Ursa retorted, "Although Chaos Power is strong, it's unsuitable for humans. Their power is only suited for them. You've cultivated Chaos Power but can't reach its greatest potential. The Ursas' power is different. Our powers are all-encompassing and can mimic any kind of power. It can even imitate the properties of Chaos Power."

“Please don’t force me, Sir. I promise not to reveal you to my master. However, I can’t become your disciple. I’ll do my best to help assist you. I will work with the Omnipotent Lord to find the remaining Universe Seeds. Then, we’ll stimulate them to grow into new universes and merge them to form a Superuniverse so you can recover as soon as possible.”

“Mhm.” Satisfied, the Ursa nodded.

He was pleased with James’ attitude. The only dissatisfaction was James’ unwillingness to become his disciple.

However, after thinking about it, James would not be trustworthy if he so easily betrayed the Doom Race.

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3989

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3989-James cautiously asked, “Respected elder, is there a way to unlock the seal of the Dark World, once known as Primordial Realm? I could clandestinely explore the Greater Realms and the Eternal Clan to see if I can manage to steal the Eternal Light.”

“It’s futile,” the Ursa replied, subtly shaking his head. ‘This seal was forged through the collaboration of the Ten Great Races’ Overworld Outsiders. It is not easily broken. If it could be removed, I would have left long ago. Why would I remain in this world?

“Oh,” James responded softly.

His worries significantly diminished upon hearing the news. The seal was impenetrable, so the living beings of the Dark World were unable to escape, and the Overworld Outsiders of Greater Realms could not come either.

In other words, his current enemies consisted only of the Ursas who were standing before him, along with the Watchers lurking in the shadows.

The identities of these Watchers and whether any of them were Acmean remained a mystery.

It would pose a problem if Acmeans were among them. Just one injured Acmean was already giving him a headache, and it would be even more terrifying if they were in their prime.

“Alright, you may go now if there’s nothing else,” the Ursa said, lowering his hand slightly. “I’ll come to you if there’s any matter.”

“Yes.” James nodded, then turned and walked away.

As James stepped out of the formation, it closed behind him.

Outside the formation, the Omnipotent Lord saw James walk out and immediately approached him, asking, “James, what’s the situation?”

James gazed at him and asked, “What situation?”

The Omnipotent Lord’s expression turned stern as he said, “Kid, do you think you can play dumb with me?”

James finally spoke up, saying, “I couldn’t gather much from him. He kept me at a distance and wouldn’t allow me to check his physical condition. All I know is that he’s an Ursa, one of the Ten Great Races from the Greater Realms, and he used to be an Acmean.”

“Is that all?” The Omnipotent Lord furrowed his brow.

“What else can I do?” James glanced at him and continued, “You’ve been following him for such a long time, and yet you don’t know much about his background. Today was my first encounter with him, so how much could I truly uncover? Perhaps he simply doesn’t trust me enough. I’ll have access to more information once he trusts me more.”

“Did he mention how he can regain his strength?” the Omnipotent Lord asked.

James replied, “There are two methods: first, absorbing a power source equal to that of the Primordial Realm.

Second, obtaining the Eternal Light from the Eternal Clan, one of the Ten Great Races from the Greater Realms. Both methods pose tremendous challenges.”

James turned around and walked away after finishing speaking. The Omnipotent Lord fell into contemplation.

After a while, he turned and gazed at the formation before him.

He then left after several seconds of gazing.

The Omnipotent Lord understood that James' approach may not have been well-intentioned. However, as he learned more, he couldn't help but wonder if he could use James to eliminate the Ursa.

Once the Ursa was out of the picture, he would have no rivals. He would reign supreme over the entire universe, including the Dark World.

James returned to Mount Thea.

Mount Thea was protected by a powerful formation, impervious to anyone and any divine consciousness.

James' encounter with the Ursa did not escape the watchful eyes of some of Mount Thea's Overworld Outsiders. This was made possible by the surveillance mark James had left within the stone chamber. They could constantly monitor the Ursa within the chamber, ensuring they did not miss a single moment.

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3990

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3990-Everyone in Mount Thea's main hall looked at James.

Jabari was the first to speak up, asking, "During your encounter with the Ursa, you could sense his aura at close range, right? Did you manage to gauge his strength?"

James nodded lightly and said, "Yeah. I actually withstood an attack from him. I urged all of my Chaos Power but was still injured. That's enough to show how strong he is. However, I didn't use the Omniscience Path. If I did, I might've been able to defend against the attack without sustaining any injuries. We'll proceed with our previous plan. We need to set up a formation to trap him in the Chaos, then it should be easy for us to kill him together."

After having the chance to analyze the Ursa's strength, James was confident.

The brief conversation was enough for him to conclude the Ursa was not on the side of the Human Race, nor was he helping Yukia.

He was injured during the battle in the Primordial Realm Era, and his passage back to the Greater Realms was sealed before he could leave.

Morangorin lay down on the table lazily and said, "Now we need to figure out how to lure him out of the Ancestral Holy Site."

After a brief thought, James said, "I've learned there are two ways for him to recover his strength. One is by absorbing a power source equal to that of the Primordial Realm's Genesis. The second is to obtain the Eternal Light from the Eternal Clan, one of the Ten Great Races from the Greater Realms.

"However, we won't be able to achieve either of these two options.

"Our only way is to set up a formation in the Chaos. Then, I'll use my power to teleport Mount Ancestre into the Chaos."

Hearing this, Jabari asked, "Are you confident?"

James nodded and said, "I can do that much."

With James' strength, it was possible to separate the First District and send it to the Chaos, let alone Mount Ancestre.

Yahveh said, "Since everything's decided, what are we waiting for? Let's start preparing for it."

James nodded and said, "Alright. I'll head to the Chaos to set up the formation. Everyone else can go to start preparing for the fight. Don't forget to get as many healing elixirs and treasures as possible. Our goal is to kill the Ursa without any casualties.

"I brought a lot of broken Chaotic Treasures back from the Ecclesiastical Restricted Zone last time. Although some had already lost their power, they were made with excellent materials. After I set up the formation, I'll find a place to refine these broken materials into Chaotic Treasures again."

Everyone nodded in approval.

After a brief discussion, everyone split up to search for Macrocosm Herbs to refine into elixirs.

Meanwhile, James left the Ancestral Holy Site and headed into the Chaos.

He traveled quickly into the Chaos and arrived at a location far from the universe.

Even if they were to engage in an intense battle, it would not affect the universe.

James looked around and decided on a location. Then, he began to think about what kind of formation to set up to trap the Ursa.

Although he could not set up a formation to kill the Ursa, he wanted to at least confine the Ursa inside for a while. Then, he could work with his team to kill the Ursa inside the formation.

James was proficient in all kinds of Paths, including the Formation Path. He was knowledgeable in Formation Inscriptions and could evolve them into Ninth Rank Macrocosm Power.

Thus, the formations he made were capable of killing a Nine- Power Macrocosm Ancestral God.

However, the Ursa was not a Macrocosm Ancestral God. Instead, he was an Acmean.

James fell into thought. After a while, he took a deep breath.

Then, he began to set up the formation.

James raised his hand, and mysterious inscriptions emerged from his palm. At first, they were just simple inscriptions. The inscriptions kept evolving, becoming increasingly complex and mysterious.