The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3991-In the blink of an eye, these inscriptions spread out before James like the countless stars in the vast universe. James waved his hand and dispersed the inscription sigils, which entered the surrounding Chaos Space.

A Formation was formed. This Formation was enough to trap a Nine-Power Macrocosm Ancestral God. Even a Nine- Power Macrocosm Ancestral God would not be able to break the Formation no matter how hard he tried unless he mastered the Formation Path and his comprehension of the Formation reached the Nine-Power Macrocosm Ancestral God Rank.

After setting up the first Formation, James continued setting up other Formations. Faced with an Acmean, he could not let his guard down.

He continued setting up Formations in the Chaos Space and merged them into one, forming a convoluted and intertwined Superformation.

He remained in the Chaos Space for 3 million years. During that period, he set up a terrifying Multilayered Formation with billions upon billions of layers. Even a Nine-Power Macrocosm Ancestral God would be instantly annihilated once trapped inside.

James stood before the Formation and tried sensing it. Sensing that no mistakes were made, he murmured, 'This is the Formation that I so carefully set up for the past three million years. Even a true Acmean would be trapped inside. It would be nigh impossible for him to leave, let alone survive the Formation's power."

Upon accomplishing his task, he left behind a coordinate sigil and turned to leave. Soon, he returned to the First Universe.

The moment he arrived outside the gates of the Ancestral Holy Site, the Omnipotent Lord appeared. He looked at James with a dark expression and asked, "Where have you been for the past three million years?"

James said, "I was trying to help you out by searching for the Universe Seeds in the Chaos. However, I couldn't find anything. By the way, how many Universe Seeds have we found?"

The Omnipotent Lord ignored James' question and asked, "Did you really look for the Universe Seeds?"

"Of course, what else would I be doing?"

"I'm warning you, James. You better behave. I will tear you to pieces if I find out you're up to no good."

The Omnipotent Lord snarled.

James smiled faintly.

He did not answer his question but instead said nonchalantly, "I'm bored out of my mind after spending millions of years in the Chaos. I'm heading back to Mount Thea for now."

Saying that, he turned to leave.

As the Omnipotent Lord watched James enter the Ancestral Holy Site, his face darkened. James was getting more and more mysterious. He speculated that James did not come to the Ancestral Holy Site to pledge his allegiance to him. Judging by how James received the blows of the Ursas' powerful individual 3 million years ago, he must have lost to Briscoe Haldor on purpose. After all, even he could not receive the powerful individual's blows. This meant that James' strength was beyond him. With such strength, how could he have lost to Briscoe?

"What is he up to?" The Omnipotent Lord's gaze was fixed on James' back as he pondered.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3992-The Omnipotent Lord thought he had James under his control. However, ever since James joined the Ancestral Holy Site and became a Protector, he grew increasingly mysterious. A notable event was when he blocked the attack of a powerful individual of the Ursa Race then mysteriously disappeared for millions of years. His behavior caused the Omnipotent Lord to be extra cautious of him.

He returned to Mount Ancestre's main hall.

"Shadow," he called out.

“My Lord.”

A shadow appeared out of nowhere and knelt on one knee.

“I want you to watch James closely. Report to me if he does anything unusual,” He ordered.

“Understood,” The shadow said before disappearing without a trace.

Shadow was the Omnipotent Lord’s confidant. His real name was unknown, and he cultivated the unique Hidden Path. Though his strength was ordinary, his hidden ability was terrifying. If he concealed his presence, not even a Nine- Power Macrocosm Ancestral God could sense him.

The Omnipotent Lord sent Shadow after James to figure out what James was up to.

James, however, could not care less about the Omnipotent

Lord’s opinion. After all, he no longer posed a threat to him. Even if every single powerful individual of the Ancestral Holy Site joined forces, he could defeat them with ease.

He returned to Mount Thea of the Ancestral Holy Site. He had personally set up Formations there that could prevent even Nine-Power Macrocosm Ancestral Gods from barging in.

Many people gathered in Mount Thea’s main hall. These were all powerful individuals whom James summoned to annihilate the Ursas. Over the past million years, they had found many Macrocosm-Ranked Elixirs and refined many Holy Potions. At that moment, they were all staring at an image in the main hall. In the image was the stone chamber in which the Ursas’ powerful individual was cultivating.

The moment James walked in, everyone stood up.

Jabari asked, “How did the preparation go, James?”

James nodded and said, “Everything’s in place. I spent three million years in the Chaos to set up a Superformation. Even a Nine-Power Macrocosm Ancestral God would be annihilated the moment he’s trapped inside.”

Jabari was confident in James' ability. He asked, "When do we launch the operation?"

"No need to rush things."

James waved slightly and said, "I obtained many broken Chaotic Treasures in the Ecclesiastical Restricted Zone the last time. So, I plan to refine them and create treasures that surpass even Chaotic Treasures."

"What?"

Everyone was stunned.

James said smilingly, "In my opinion, treasures that can resist the power of an Acmean are ones that surpass Chaotic Treasures. They should be called Acmean Treasures. Though I have never seen them, such treasures must exist in the Primordial Realm's age."

The bird perched on the table and said lazily, "Do as you wish. Remember to notify me when we're about to launch the operation. I'll contribute as well. After annihilating the Ursa and reorganizing the universe, I'll be the new Lord of the Universe once the Omnipotent Lord is ousted from his position."

James was not interested in becoming the Lord of the Universe. As long as the universe was in safe hands, he was fine with anyone heading it.

"Sure, of course," James said.

Then, he looked at the powerful individuals in the main hall and said, "I came back to remind you to be prepared. I might launch the operation anytime. Now, I will return to the Chaos and find a secluded spot to refine some powerful treasures."

They were at the Ancestral Holy Site, the core region of the universe. Refining extremely powerful treasures would bring about great fluctuations in the aura. Hence, it was not a suitable place to refine treasures.

James turned to leave Mount Thea and the Ancestral Holy Site after bidding them farewell. His body flickered, and he disappeared from his spot. At lightning speed, he went straight toward the Chaos outside the universe. Soon, he appeared in the boundless Chaos Space.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3993-He ventured far away from the universe and headed deep into the Chaos. Then, he sat in a lotus position in the void.

There were no directions or coordinates in the Chaos.

As James sat in the void, he contemplated what sort of treasure he should refine. There were many Chaotic Treasures in the Celestial Abode. Some of them were acquired in the Twelfth Universe, while the others were obtained in the Ecclesiastical Restricted Zone.

As his mind stirred, a few Chaotic Treasures appeared.

Among them was the Demon-Slayer Sword that hovered before him. The sword was black, and its tip was slightly bent. It radiated a black glimmer and exuded a mysterious power. The Demon-Slayer Sword originated in the Dark World and was obtained by the Callahans. In the end, Thea gave the sword to him. Though the sword was not a topnotch Chaotic Treasure, it was of momentous significance to James.

He did not want to give up the sword. Then, an idea flashed through his mind. He would first refine a Divine Sword.

Before him hovered 108 black steles. Each of them was mysterious and exuded immense power. They were the Infinity Steles, Chaotic Treasures that appeared during the creation of the Twelfth Universe.

As James' mind stirred, all 108 steles dissolved into black stones and gathered to form a pagoda. This was the Boundless Pagoda, which was powerful and capable of both offense and defense. This Chaotic Treasure was also significant to James as he would have perished without it. He did not wish to refine it as well. Apart from the Infinity Steles, he also had the Time Capsule. Though minute in size, the Time Capsule allowed one to traverse the River of Time.

As James contemplated, he made the decision to refine the Demon-Slayer Sword, Infinity Steles, and the Time Capsule and form a terrifying weapon.

He first stored the Infinity Steles and Time Capsule away.

Before him was the Demon-Slayer Sword.

As his mind stirred, more and more Chaotic Treasures appeared, some of them were broken ones. There were at least a hundred Chaotic Treasures that were unscathed before James, exuding different kinds of power. As the powers gathered, they exuded a chilling power.

As James stared at the Chaotic Treasures, his mind stirred. He raised his arm, and the power of various Paths materialized. Then, catalyzing the power of the various Paths, he gave a brand-new power to the Chaotic Treasures.

He wished to refine the Demon-Slayer Sword based on his cultivation of Chaos Power. That meant giving new life to the other Chaotic Treasures, merging those powers into the Demon-Slayer Sword, and creating a new Superweapon with Acme Power. He believed that the newly-created sword would be capable of slashing through the Chaos.

James did not take long. He began merging and refining the powers. He casually waved his hand, and the Chaos Power in his body erupted into flames. As the Demon-Slayer Sword burned in the flames, it slowly turned transparent and eventually transformed into a liquid. In the end, other Chaotic Treasures also entered the flames.

James refined them with great concentration. He was worried that he would waste too much time doing so, causing him to lose the opportunity to annihilate the Ursa Race's powerful individual. Hence, he set up a Time Formation around him and refined the objects.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3994-Chaotic Treasures were incredibly terrifying, so much so that even a Macrocosm Ancestral God could not destroy them. However, James' current rank greatly surpassed that of a Macrocosm Ancestral God. He had reached the pinnacle of the Nine-Power Macrocosm Ancestral God Rank and was close to reaching the Acme Rank.

He used his Chaos Power, transformed them into Chaos Fire, and dissolved the Chaotic Treasures. As the Chaotic Treasures dissolved, they turned into a liquid. This liquid contained such terrifying power that even a single drop of it would destroy the Chaos Space.

James controlled these powers and prevented them from escaping. Even so, the surrounding Chaos Space became illusory and distorted.

‘Merge!’

James’ mind stirred.

The liquid began to consolidate into one. Throughout the process, James imbued the power of various Paths into the liquid. Every power of the Path could perform a Nine-Power Macrocosm Power.

The Demon-Slayer Sword’s exterior slowly came into being. When it came into being, James continued to refine it.

Many Epochs passed in the Time Formation.

In the end, the sword was formed. The very moment the sword came into being, a terrifying power permeated the air and broke through James’ Formation, reaching the depths of the Chaos.

In the new universe, everyone could sense the terrifying power that came from the very depths of the Chaos.

“What power is this?”

“How terrifying.”

“Has something incredible came into being?”

As more and more Macrocosm Ancestral Gods sensed the terrifying power, the universe began to tremble, seemingly affected by the power’s influence. However, the trembling only lasted for a brief moment before the power disappeared without a trace.

In the depths of the Chaos, James stared at the DemonSlayer Sword and reached a hand out. Immediately, the sword flew toward him. Holding the sword in his hand, he could sense the power emanating from within the sword.

He was delighted.

“This is too powerful.”

He then catalyzed Chaos Power and tried to control the Demon-Slayer Sword's power to disperse its aura. Then, his body flashed, and he disappeared without a trace.

Soon, many Macrocosm Ancestral Gods appeared at the spot. The weakest ones among them were at the Six-Power Macrocosm Ancestral God Rank. They simply stared at the Chaos Space.

The Chaos Space here had completely collapsed. Black holes appeared one after another, and each of them was at least billions of light years in diameter. They were caused by the leakage of power brought about by the creation of the Demon-Slayer Sword.

"How terrifying..."

"What exactly could have caused such great destruction?"

"This is a Chaos Space where space is extremely stable. So, how could it be utterly destroyed?"

Many wore grim expressions.

Meanwhile, James only left upon sensing the imminent arrival of the Macrocosm Ancestral Gods. In a new place, he held the sword in his hand and murmured, "I guess calling you the Malevolent Sword makes me feel more at home."

The exterior of the Demon-Slayer Sword was identical to the Malevolent Sword. Though their strength differed, the Malevolent Sword was once Thea's sword. That Thea was his original wife.

After murmuring to himself, he stored the Malevolent Sword away. Now that he had obtained a powerful weapon, all he needed was a defensive treasure. Hence, he planned to refine the Infinity Steles.

As his mind stirred, the Infinity Steles appeared before him.
