The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3995-The 108 Infinity Steles materialized, and James set up a Time Formation in the Chaos Space and began refining them.

The Infinity Steles were powerful, and each of them possessed devastating power.

Now, James wanted to refine them once more by adding a mysterious material into each of them to increase their weight. That way, after the Infinity Steles dispersed and formed the Boundless Pagoda, they would be more terrifying.

In the main hall of Mount Ancestral's Ancestral Holy Site, the Omnipotent Lord was sitting on his throne. Below him was a shadow.

The shadow spoke in a hoarse voice, "My Lord, I have been following James all this while. As I was afraid of exposing myself, I kept a safe distance from him. I saw him heading to the Chaos' depths and refining a powerful weapon. The turbulence that came from the Chaos came from the Divine Weapon he was refining."

The shadow told the Omnipotent Lord everything he saw.

His tracking skills were unparalleled. As he had concealed his presence, not even James detected him.

Hearing this, the Omnipotent Lord's face turned grim. As a powerful individual at the pinnacle of the Nine-Power Macrocosm Ancestral God Rank, he could sense the power that came from the Chaos. The power made even his blood run cold. He was certain that the sword's power had reached the pinnacle of the Nine-Power Macrocosm Ancestral God Rank or even beyond that. This meant that a single sword was equivalent to him in strength. Since this sword was forged by James, just how powerful was the man himself?

"What is he up to?"

The Omnipotent Lord's expression was grim.

He could no longer see through James.

“Watch him closely. Report to me at once if he makes a move,” he ordered.

“Understood,” The shadow said and disappeared from the main hall.

The Omnipotent Lord stood up and turned to leave. He headed to his closed-door meditation sanctuary. He sat on the peak of Mount Ancestre and began absorbing the providence of the universe, hoping that the shapeless power would help him achieve a breakthrough. He had been trying hard ever since the new universe was born but could not break through the Nine-Power Macrocosm Ancestral God Rank.

He looked at the sky and murmured dejectedly, “What should I do to cross into the Acme Rank? Can I not cross into the Acme Rank until the Superuniverse is formed? Do I really have to wait for every single Universe Seed to be found?”

The Omnipotent Lord felt threatened by the Ursa Race’s powerful individual and James as he felt that his power was being challenged. He was desperate to cross into the Acme Rank, remove all obstacles, unite the universe and the Dark World, undo the seal, attack the Greater Realms, and become the sole ruler of all.

He was extremely ambitious and did not want anyone to be stronger than he was.

He calmed down and contemplated how best to cross into the Acme Rank and obtain unparalleled strength.

Years passed.

In the blink of an eye, tens of millions of years had passed.

These years later, James suddenly appeared in the Ancestral Holy Site. With his hands behind his back, he walked in with a confident smile and headed straight toward Mount Thea. He had spent many Epochs in the Time Formation forging the Malevolent Sword. However, only tens of millions of years had passed in the outside world. Not even a hundred million years had passed.

This time, he was fully prepared. He had the powerful Malevolent Sword, the Infinity Steles, and the Time Capsule in his possession. He could annihilate even the Ursa Race's powerful individual at their peak form.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3996-Tens of millions of years had passed since James left. Over the past millions of years, Quiomars Boswell, Morangorin Yombeen, Jabari, Xulia Xaadsan, Yehosheva Bernadette, Yahveh Zvonimir, Jehudi Driscoll, and many others had been waiting on Mount Thea. They had prepared all sorts of Holy Potions for emergencies so that even a wounded fighter on the verge of death could be saved in the shortest amount of time possible. They regulated their conditions on Mount Thea to the maximum in preparation for battle. At the same time, they watched the Ursa Race's powerful individual's every move.

Swoosh!

Suddenly, a light appeared.

James was here. There was only a single person in the main hall-Xulia. She was sitting in the main hall, observing the stone chamber of the Ursa Race's powerful individual through the illusory image.

The moment James appeared, she immediately stood up. "You're back, James."

"Mhm." James nodded slightly.

At that moment, others immediately appeared upon sensing his presence.

"You're finally back," Morangorin said before asking, "You were the cause of that turbulence that came from the Chaos, weren't you?"

The turbulence that came from the Chaos had deeply stunned the entire universe. Many of them hurriedly headed toward the Chaos but had no idea what had occurred. Only those who were present there knew that James was forging a Superweapon. Judging by the aura, it seemed that James had succeeded in forging a Divine Weapon that surpassed a Chaotic Treasure.

James was brimming with confidence as he said, "Of course. With so many Chaotic Treasures on me, there's no way I wouldn't be able to forge the weapon."

Hearing this, Quiomars asked in anticipation, "When will we act?"

James glanced at the illusory image before him. It was something he left behind that was tasked to watch the Ursa Race's powerful individual's every move and action.

He asked, "What's the situation?"

Jabari said, 'There have been no anomalies. While you were gone, the Omnipotent Lord would frequently visit the Ursa Race's powerful individual. I'm sure he was reporting the progress of his search of the Universe Seeds. He could also be asking about the Ursa Race's cultivation method.'

"The Universe Seeds?"

James furrowed his eyebrows.

"Now that tens of millions of years had passed, I wonder what things are like with the Universe Seeds."

Jabari said, 'We're very close. Till now, thirteen universes have been created. The Thirteenth Universe had long been absorbed by the First Universe, whereas the rest of the universes had merged into one. Thus, only thirty-six Universe Seeds remained. One of them had transformed into a Macrocosm Core before being acquired by the Omnipotent Lord and consumed by you.'

"Among the thirty-five Universe Seeds, thirty-four have been found. Now, only a single one remains."

Jabari reported what he learned.

Though he did not wander outside Mount Thea, he still had ways of obtaining information. Besides, the Omnipotent Lord would frequently visit the Ursa Race's powerful individual and report the situation to him.

Upon learning of this, James took a deep breath and said, "Fortunately, I refined my treasures in the Time Formation. Otherwise, I would have been late to the party. Time is of the essence. It's time to launch the operation."

Then, James casually waved his hand, and an immense power materialized in his palm. This power enveloped them and took them away. In the next instant, he was already in the Chaos Space inside the Formation he had set up.

He stood in the Chaos Space, his allies behind him. With a casual wave of his hand, immense power materialized, and a Superformation appeared in full view.

‘This is the Superformation I set up...’ James said.

At the same time, he talked about the plan he had formulated.

“Don’t fight the Ursa head-on. He’s too strong. Apart from Quiomars and Morangorin, you’ll all suffer injuries if you get hit. So, stay hidden in the Formation and attack him from the shadows by borrowing the Formation’s power.

“I will be the vanguard, whereas Quiomars and Morangorin will act as supports.”

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3997-To avoid any mishaps, James explained his plan in detail. Everyone present listened to him intently as the battle was of extreme importance. Their opponent was a powerful individual who had existed since the ages of the Primordial Realm and possessed many Supernatural Powers. Though he was injured and his strength had not returned to peak form, he was once an Acmean. Being an Acmean was a sign of strength and invincibility.

“Is that understood?” James looked at them.

“Yes, Sir!” They said in unison.

Even Morangorin took things much more seriously this time. As a light flashed through his body, he transformed into his human form.

James glanced at him. It was the first time seeing Morangorin in human form. He was a somewhat handsome- looking man. He wore a white robe that made him look like a divine being.

“Good,” James said. “I want you to first conceal yourselves in the Formation and comprehend the Formation’s power.”

James told them the details of the Formation, from the effects of every layer to the mastery of the Paths.

“Understood.” They nodded before entering the Formation.

James watched them enter the Formation, then took a deep breath before turning to leave. He needed to head back to the new universe’ Ancestral Holy Site and forcibly transport Mount Ancestre to the Chaos Space and into the Formation. Once Mount Ancestre was inside the Formation, the Ursa Race’s individual would be trapped. The moment James catalyzed his Formation, not even the Ursa could escape. Then, they would all attack him at once. Even if the Ursa was an Acmean, he would be annihilated in the Superformation.

James left the Formation. In the next instant, he was back at the Ancestral Holy Site.

Outside the Ancestral Holy Site, he gazed at the undulating mountains in the distance. Then, his gaze landed on Mount Ancestre. Mount Ancestre was where the Omnipotent Lord cultivated. Apart from him, it was also the cultivation site of many core disciples of the Ancestral Holy Site. James’ target was the Ursa in the restricted area behind the mountain. He did not want anyone else intervening.

After some contemplation, he entered the Ancestral Holy Site. Soon, he arrived at the foot of Mount Ancestre. He looked at the flight of stone stairs before him and walked straight ahead. Before he could arrive at the peak, the Omnipotent Lord appeared and stared at him approaching.

Soon, James arrived at the peak. Looking at the Omnipotent Lord who was waiting for him, he smiled and greeted him, “ My Lord.”

The Omnipotent Lord looked at James and said, “Surely you aren’t here to have a chat with me.”

He stared at James.

“Where have you been for the past millions of years? Was the terrifying aura that came from the depths of the Chaos your doing?”

Though the Omnipotent Lord had learned of this from Shadow, he still wanted James to answer him personally.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3998-The Omnipotent Lord knew that James was forging a Superweapon in the Chaos. This meant that James possessed a terrifying strength that threatened his position. Every night, he would toss and turn on his bed, unable to fall asleep. However, he still had no idea what James was up to. Upon sensing James' presence, he immediately appeared.

Faced with the Omnipotent Lord's questioning, James smiled faintly and said, 'There's something I need your help with.'

The Omnipotent Lord fixed his gaze on James. The smile on James' face froze as he whispered, 'This is not the place. Follow me.'

Saying that, he turned and headed straight toward Mount Thea, while the Omnipotent Lord followed close behind.

At the back of Mount Thea, James sat on a rock and gazed at the picturesque scenery of the Ancestral Holy Site. The Omnipotent Lord stood by the side and said, "Cut to the chase."

James said, "Actually, I joined the Ancestral Holy Site not because I wanted to be a Protector or a deputy leader of the universe."

"Huh?"

The Omnipotent Lord asked puzzledly, "Why, then?"

James looked at him and said, "I'm here to understand how you possess such immense power and the reason why you have a bunch of Nine-Power Macrocosm Ancestral Gods by your side."

"Have you understood the reason then?" The Omnipotent Lord's face darkened as he asked coldly.

James said, "Yes, I have. Long ago, in fact. You have the help of a member of the Ursa Race. He would impart to you and other powerful individuals of the Ancestral Holy Site some cultivation methods of the Ursa Race. Cultivating the Ursa Race's power allowed one to imitate any sort of power, and they mimicked a Nine-Power Macrocosm Power. That's how they could possess the strength of a Nine-Power Macrocosm Ancestral God."

The Omnipotent Lord clenched his fists and silently catalyzed his power. He was ready to go in for the kill.

James glanced at him and said coldly, 'The Ursa Race came from the Greater Realms, and they're one of the main culprits that annihilated the Primordial Realm. He's a menace to us all. The reason I'm here is to annihilate him."

"So, you forged a Superweapon in the Chaos just to annihilate him?" The Omnipotent Lord asked.

"Yes." James nodded.

The Omnipotent Lord said, "He can't die yet. If he dies, I won't be able to obtain the power to cross into the Acme Rank."

"He has to die," James said with firm determination. "He ordered you to find the Universe Seeds to catalyze the creation of a Superuniverse so that he could absorb the Genesis of the Superuniverse and heal his injuries. Now's the perfect time to get rid of him. When his injuries recover, no one else in this universe or the Dark World will stand a chance against him. By then, every living being will be under his rule."

"So what?" The Omnipotent Lord scoffed and said, "As long as I can cross into the Acme Rank, I can't care less. The world can self-destruct for all I care."

"Looks like I'll have to deal with you before getting to the Ursa Race."

James looked at the Omnipotent Lord.

He did not wish to make a move against the Omnipotent Lord for he was also a human. However, since the Omnipotent Lord was determined to stand in his way, he had no other choice.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 3999-A terrifying power surged forth from within his body and charged toward the Omnipotent Lord like a tsunami. Unable to withstand such an immense and sudden wave of power, the Omnipotent Lord unconsciously staggered backward.

Swoosh!

The Malevolent Sword appeared in James' hand, and he brandished the sword.

"I admit that you're strong. However, killing you is but a piece of cake to me. I came here not to compete for the position of the Lord of the Universe. I have no interest in power and authority. I only want to ensure the peace and stability of this world."

He pointed his sword at the Omnipotent Lord, and immense power materialized from within the sword. The sword's power combined with James' was simply too terrifying.

Even the Omnipotent Lord, who was infinitely close to reaching the Acme Rank, felt a chill down his spine. In a fight to the death, he would not stand a chance against James, However, James would also have to pay a heavy price.

After some deep contemplation, a smile crept up on his face as he said, "We are all humans, James. Why do we have to fight among ourselves? Let us store our weapons away and discuss matters in a civil manner."

James did not wish to fight the Omnipotent Lord as well, at least not when the member of the Ursa Race was still around. Hence, he stored his sword away.

The Omnipotent Lord said, "Indeed, I was being inconsiderate. The Ursa Race is a destabilizing factor. He should be annihilated. If there's anything I can do to help, please tell me."

James said coldly, "Your assistance won't be necessary. You only need to evacuate the disciples on Mount Ancestre. I have set up a Superformation in the depths of the Chaos. Shortly, I will perform a Grand Supernatural Power and surreptitiously transport Mount Ancestre to the Chaos and into my Formation."

The Omnipotent Lord glanced at him.

“So you’re well prepared.”

“Yes.” James answered him truthfully, “I went to great lengths to annihilate this foreign creature. Besides, he’s only one of many threats to this universe. There are many others in the Dark World. Perhaps some of them are true Acmeans. That’s where the true horrors lie.”

The Omnipotent Lord gave his assurance and said, “There’s nothing to worry about. Only one Universe Seed remains. The moment we find the last one, we can catalyze the creation of the universe and merge them into a Superuniverse. By then, I believe that I can certainly reach the Acme Rank. These threats will all disappear.”

The Omnipotent Lord was incredibly confident. To him, he could not cross into the Acme Rank because the Heavenly Path was not strong enough to allow him to do so.

“I promise you, James. I will return to Mount Ancestre at once and evacuate all the disciples.”

“Mhm.” James nodded slightly and said, “I don’t wish to harm the innocent either. I specifically went to Mount Ancestre to evacuate everyone there. I didn’t expect you to personally welcome me here.”

“Time is of the essence. I shall take my leave.”

The Omnipotent Lord did not linger for long and turned to leave.

James watched him leave,

After the Omnipotent Lord left, his smile froze. He knew that the Ursa Race had malicious intentions. However, to reach the Acme Rank, he could not care less. He had long been formulating a plan to deal with the member of the Ursa Race. Now that James intervened out of nowhere, there was a clash between their plans. However, after weighing the pros and cons, he chose to take James’ side. After all, James was a human, whereas the Ursa Race’s powerhouse was of a foreign race. Now, they would annihilate the foreign race and catalyze the creation of a Superuniverse.

However, he did not trust James completely. He already had an idea in mind. He would wait for them to duke it out before swooping in for the kill, thereby reaping all the benefits.

The moment he returned to Mount Ancestre, he immediately evacuated the disciples. At the same time, he summoned his subordinates to formulate a plan to reap the benefits.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4000-After the Omnipotent Lord left, James stared at Mount Ancestre. As Mount Ancestre did not have any Formation Restrictions, James could see everything clearly.

Upon returning to Mount Ancestre, the Omnipotent Lord immediately evacuated all disciples and summoned all subordinates to a hidden basement. As there was a Formation Restriction there, James' Divine Sense could not penetrate into the basement yet. By the time he penetrated the place, the Omnipotent Lord and his disciples had already left.

James furrowed his eyebrows. He knew that the Omnipotent Lord would not compromise so easily. However, he had no idea what they were discussing.

After the Omnipotent Lord evacuated everyone from Mount Ancestre, only the Ursa Race's powerful individual remained in the Formation at the back of the mountain.

The Omnipotent Lord appeared before James on Mount Thea.

"I have evacuated everyone, James. You may begin," The Omnipotent Lord said.

James glanced at him and nodded slightly, saying, "Mhm."

Saying that, he leaped into the air and appeared on the highest peak in the Ancestral Holy Site. He looked at Mount Ancestre before him. To ensure that Mount Ancestre was surreptitiously transported into the Chaos without the Ursa Race's powerful individual realizing it, he would have to make some preparations.

The Omnipotent Lord stood beside James. Upon seeing his grim expression, he asked, "Is something the matter?"

James shook his head slightly and said, "No, everything should be fine."

Saying that, he raised his hand, and some mysterious sigils appeared in his palm. These sigils flew toward Mount Ancestre surreptitiously and entered the void. As James waved his hand continuously, shapeless sigils materialized into being. These sigils did not exude any power or aura. Hence, not a single living being in the Ancestral Holy Site noticed them. Even the Omnipotent Lord who was beside James could not sense anything. He only saw a flickering of light escaping from James' palm before disappearing without a trace.

"What a terrifying move..."

The Omnipotent Lord was stunned.

He could not accomplish what James had done.

After James set up the sigils, these sigils formed a mysterious Formation.

"Rise!"

As James raised his arm, he yelled.

As his yell reverberated throughout the mountains, the sigils in Mount Ancestre's surroundings appeared. Then, the entire Mount Ancestre disappeared from the Ancestral Holy Site.

Many top-notch individuals of the universe were gathered there. When Mount Ancestre disappeared all of a sudden, everyone was stunned.

"What happened?"

"Why did Mount Ancestre disappear?"

"Where did it go?"

"I can't sense its presence."

Everyone was dumbfounded. Just what exactly was going on?

The Ursa Race's powerhouse was in a closed-door meditation, and he had set up a Superformation around him. To him, no living being would be able to barge in and interrupt him. Even if someone actually did, he was unafraid of anyone in this universe. When he was in a closed-door meditation, his perception of the outside world was extremely weak. Besides, James was strong. He managed to surreptitiously transport Mount Ancestre into the Chaos and Formation he had set up.

After James transported Mount Ancestre into the Formation, he disappeared and reappeared in the Chaos. Immediately, the other powerful individuals appeared.

“James,” They said at the same time.

“Mhm.”

James nodded and looked at a mountain in the Formation, saying, “I have transported Mount Ancestre into the Formation. The Ursa Race’s powerful figure is still in a closed-door meditation and has yet to realize this.”

Morangorin, who had transformed into his human form, said excitedly, “I’ve never fought against an individual at the Acme Rank before. I wonder how strong he is.”

Jabari asked, “Do we launch the operation?” “Yes.”
