

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4000

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4000-After the Omnipotent Lord left, James stared at Mount Ancestre. As Mount Ancestre did not have any Formation Restrictions, James could see everything clearly.

Upon returning to Mount Ancestre, the Omnipotent Lord immediately evacuated all disciples and summoned all subordinates to a hidden basement. As there was a Formation Restriction there, James' Divine Sense could not penetrate into the basement yet. By the time he penetrated the place, the Omnipotent Lord and his disciples had already left.

James furrowed his eyebrows. He knew that the Omnipotent Lord would not compromise so easily. However, he had no idea what they were discussing.

After the Omnipotent Lord evacuated everyone from Mount Ancestre, only the Ursa Race's powerful individual remained in the Formation at the back of the mountain.

The Omnipotent Lord appeared before James on Mount Thea.

"I have evacuated everyone, James. You may begin," The Omnipotent Lord said.

James glanced at him and nodded slightly, saying, "Mhm."

Saying that, he leaped into the air and appeared on the highest peak in the Ancestral Holy Site. He looked at Mount Ancestre before him. To ensure that Mount Ancestre was surreptitiously transported into the Chaos without the Ursa Race's powerful individual realizing it, he would have to make some preparations.

The Omnipotent Lord stood beside James. Upon seeing his grim expression, he asked, "Is something the matter?"

James shook his head slightly and said, "No, everything should be fine."

Saying that, he raised his hand, and some mysterious sigils appeared in his palm. These sigils flew toward Mount Ancestre surreptitiously and entered the void. As James waved his hand continuously, shapeless sigils materialized into being. These sigils did not exude any power or aura. Hence, not a single living being in the Ancestral Holy Site noticed them. Even the Omnipotent Lord who was beside James could not sense anything. He only saw a flickering of light escaping from James' palm before disappearing without a trace.

"What a terrifying move..."

The Omnipotent Lord was stunned.

He could not accomplish what James had done.

After James set up the sigils, these sigils formed a mysterious Formation.

"Rise!"

As James raised his arm, he yelled.

As his yell reverberated throughout the mountains, the sigils in Mount Ancestre's surroundings appeared. Then, the entire Mount Ancestre disappeared from the Ancestral Holy Site.

Many top-notch individuals of the universe were gathered there. When Mount Ancestre disappeared all of a sudden, everyone was stunned.

"What happened?"

"Why did Mount Ancestre disappear?"

"Where did it go?"

"I can't sense its presence."

Everyone was dumbfounded. Just what exactly was going on?

The Ursa Race's powerhouse was in a closed-door meditation, and he had set up a Superformation around him. To him, no living being would be able to barge in and interrupt him. Even if someone actually did, he was unafraid of anyone in this universe. When he was in a closed-door meditation, his perception of the outside world was extremely weak. Besides, James was strong. He managed to surreptitiously transport Mount Ancestre into the Chaos and Formation he had set up.

After James transported Mount Ancestre into the Formation, he disappeared and reappeared in the Chaos. Immediately, the other powerful individuals appeared.

“James,” They said at the same time.

“Mhm.”

James nodded and looked at a mountain in the Formation, saying, “I have transported Mount Ancestre into the Formation. The Ursa Race’s powerful figure is still in a closed-door meditation and has yet to realize this.”

Morangorin, who had transformed into his human form, said excitedly, “I’ve never fought against an individual at the Acme Rank before. I wonder how strong he is.”

Jabari asked, “Do we launch the operation?” “Yes.”

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4002

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4002-James ambushed the Ursa. As he had catalyzed the Omniscience Path, his physical strength’s power was extremely terrifying. Even a Nine-Power Macrocosm Ancestral God would suffer a heavy blow. Besides, as James combined his physical strength with Chaos Power, the power was even more incredible. The attack made the Ursa suffer a devastating blow.

The attack pierced through the Ursa’s physical body.

Besides, as James activated the power of various Paths, all of them poured into the Ursa’s body. The Ursa had been injured prior to this.

At that moment, the powerful individuals concealed within the Formation made their move. As they were strong, the power they exuded was even more terrifying when they borrowed the Formation’s power. In an instant, the Ursa suffered thousands of devastating blows. His body was covered in injuries, and there was a hole in his chest. Not only that, two of his arms were twisted, and his tail had snapped in half. He was bleeding all over his body.

“Damn it!” His hair was disheveled as he cursed. “Die!” he roared.

There was unrivaled fury in his roar as an immense power surged forth from within him. This power surpassed even that of a Nine-Power Macrocosm Ancestral God and was so terrifying that even the formation James had set up began to tremble.

“Stabilize the formation!” James yelled.

Hearing this, the powerful individuals concealed in the Formation began using all their strength to stabilize the Formation.

Meanwhile, the Ursa’s aura continued to spread throughout the area. Unable to withstand the aura, the Chaos Space began to explode. As the aura leaked to the outside world, even the distant planets in the universe could sense the terrifying power.

In the universe, millions of living beings trembled in fear.

“Wh-What’s going on?”

“Why is there always such terrifying power coming from the Chaos?”

Some Ancestral Gods were stunned.

Meanwhile, some weaker living beings were shivering on the ground. They did not dare move a single muscle for they feared that their physical bodies would be torn apart and their souls extinguished. When an Acmean roared in fury, even Heaven and Earth would shiver.

The expressions of the powerful individuals in the formation turned grim. Though they were fully prepared, the Ursa’s aura was simply too frightening. Even if they were concealed in the Formation, they could feel a chill down their spine. Faced with such a powerful opponent, they could be annihilated in just a split second.

“Is this the Acmean Rank?”

Jabari’s expression was grim.

In the formation, the Ursa’s hair was disheveled, and he was covered in injuries all over his body. However, his aura was beyond overwhelming.

“Do you really think you can kill me, James? How naive.” The Ursa’s face darkened as he snarled.

“You will never understand the power of the Acme Rank as long as you remain in your rank. Your potential is limitless, and you could perhaps cross into the Acme Rank in the future. However, you seem to have a death wish.”

As the Ursa roared, he lunged toward James from afar and appeared before him in an instant.

At that moment, the formation was activated. Billions of formations were activated, causing a terrifying power to burst forth. Tens of thousands of Sword Energy appeared in the Formation, intertwining and interweaving with each other before forming a Sword Net in the Chaos Space. Each time a Sword Energy shredded through the air, it would strike the Ursa. However, his power was too strong.

Immense power materialized from within his body and formed a protective barrier that shielded him from the Sword Energies. Thus, he was not harmed by the Sword Energies that struck him.

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4003

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4003-Upon seeing this, James furrowed his eyebrows. This was a Formation he personally set up. A single wave of Sword Energy was enough to annihilate a Nine-Power Macrocosm Ancestral God. Faced with such an overwhelming opponent, James did not dare let his guard down. As his mind stirred, the Malevolent Sword appeared in his hand. As he held the Malevolent Sword in his hand, he sensed the sword's power, which gave him some assurance.

“You...!”

Upon sensing the Malevolent Sword's power, the Ursa's face darkened. The sword's power was too terrifying, and even he could feel a chill running down his spine. If he was at his peak form, he would not have been afraid. However, he was injured, and James was simply too unpredictable. This was a man who had cultivated Chaos Power and was at the Omniscience Path's Sixth Stage. Now that he had a Superweapon in his possession, the Ursa began having thoughts of fleeing.

“Do you have a death wish?”

The Ursa said coldly, “Even if you possess a Superweapon, cultivated Chaos Power, and have crossed into the Omniscience Path's Sixth Stage, you have yet to reach the Acme Rank. As such, you won't stand a chance against me. Even if there's a Superformation here, I will be able to annihilate all of you if I go all-out. Instead of a lose-lose scenario, let's have a seat and discuss things through."

The Ursa's voice boomed.

James pointed the Malevolent Sword at the Ursa and said with a blank expression on his face, "There's nothing for us to talk about. In the Primordial Realm's age, the Ten Great Races exterminated the Human Race and severed the potential and vitality of all humans. This grudge can't be resolved without some bloodshed."

How would James compromise at this point in time?

Quiomars and Matthias walked out of the Formation and surrounded the Ursa, holding powerful Chaotic Treasures in their hands. Their strength was formidable, and even though they had not crossed into the Acme Rank, they were very close. As they exuded an overwhelming aura, they glared at the Ursa.

Matthias stretched and said, "Back then, my race's Grand Patriarch perished at the hands of the Ten Great Races.

Today, I will settle the score."

Quiomars said coldly as well, "When the Ten Great Races invaded the Primordial Realm, the Tendo Sect was completely wiped out. As a member of the Ten Great Races, you will not be forgiven."

"Hahaha!"

The Ursa burst into a peal of laughter.

Seeing that the negotiations had broken down, he knew that he would have to fight to the death. However, despite knowing how grim the situation was, he was unafraid. Even if he had to die, he would drag a few others to hell alongside him.

"Come!" he roared.

His deafening roar immediately shattered a few of the formation's layers.

However, James had set up too many formations. The moment a layer of the formation was shattered, the formation's power would be immediately relocated to the destroyed area and recover the shattered parts.

James' expression was ice-cold as he held the Malevolent Sword in his hand. As his body flashed, he appeared before the Ursa in the blink of an eye.

A spear appeared in the Ursa's hand, and he thrust the weapon toward James when he appeared.

The spear and the Malevolent Sword collided, and two unparalleled powers exchanged blows.

James could feel a bizarre power spreading throughout his body through the Malevolent Sword. This power made the Blood Energy inside his body churn. Unable to suppress the Blood Energy in time, he spurted out a mouthful of blood. At the same time, he was knocked back by the force.

Even though the Ursa was injured, his power was greater than James'. After knocking James back, he charged toward James ferociously.

Swish!

A light materialized from the spear and flew toward James.

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4004

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4004-The light was glaring, illuminating the obscure Chaos Space. At the same time, it possessed a terrifying power that even a Nine-Power Macrocosm Ancestral God would be annihilated in the blink of an eye.

There were many powerful individuals hidden in the formation. They hurriedly catalyzed the formation and imbued their power into it. In an instant, countless inscriptions appeared before James, gathering to form a barrier.

The terrifying light struck the barrier.

However, the light's power was too terrifying, and the barrier was pierced through like butter. Even so, the light's power had been greatly diminished.

After exchanging blows with the Ursa, James now knew just how terrifying he was. The Ursa had been injured since the Primordial Realm's age and had not recovered since.

Despite being attacked by him and the formation, the Ursa's aura was still overwhelmingly strong.

'F*ck! He's strong!' James silently cursed.

Faced with such a terrifying attack, he raised the Malevolent Sword in his hand to deflect the attack.

The Malevolent Sword shielded his body.

Clank!

As the light struck the Malevolent Sword, a clear sound could be heard, and James was immediately sent flying. The Chaos Space behind him shattered, and Spatial Black Holes appeared one after another. In an instant, he was devoured by a Spatial Black Hole, but he immediately rushed out.

The moment he reappeared, the Ursa thrust his spear toward James' head, and James instinctively raised the Malevolent Sword to deflect the attack. Despite using his full strength, he was still comparatively weaker than the Ursa, and he slowly descended.

At that moment, Quiomars and Matthias appeared.

Matthias was holding a white bone sword in his hand. The sword seemed to be made out of the vertebrae of an animal. Though ordinary-looking, it contained terrifying power.

Holding the bone sword in his hand, he appeared behind the Ursa and attacked. Meanwhile, Quiomars transformed into his original state in the form of a humongous beast. As overwhelming spite surged from within him, he raised his feet and tried to crush the Ursa. Before his feet touched the ground, a terrifying pressure shredded through the air, forcing the Ursa back.

As the Ursa stumbled backward, he turned around suddenly and clashed against Matthias, who passively received the Ursa's blow. Matthias had yet to reach the Acme Rank, so there was a power disparity between them. He was knocked back in an instant, and the Blood Energy inside his body churned before he spurted out a mouthful of blood. His white robe was stained by the blood, and he was in a rather wretched state.

The ones hidden in the formation continued catalyzing it.

At that moment, the spatial pressure of the formation was activated. As this formation was personally set up by James, the spatial pressure was extremely terrifying. Even a Nine-Power Macrocosm Ancestral God would have his physical body crushed under overwhelming pressure.

The Ursa's physical body was not considered strong among his peers and was only at the Nine-Power Macrocosm Ancestral God Rank. At that moment, cracks began to appear on his injured body, and he had no choice but to summon his strength to resist the formation's pressure.

After the pressure appeared, all sorts of power materialized from the formation. Shapeless Sword Energies of all powers burst forth and struck the Ursa.

Lightning flashed in the void of the Chaos, each of them possessed terrifying power. Then, thousands of lightning bolts struck the Ursa.

The Ursa's aura was overwhelming, and an immense power appeared from within his body and formed a protective barrier that could shield him from harm. He was covered in injuries all over his body, and his vitality was constantly decreasing.

"Damn it!"

His face darkened.

"If I'm at my peak form, you pesky insects would have been annihilated in mere seconds."

The Ursa stared at James and scanned his surroundings before glancing at Quiomars and Matthias who were prepared to lunge toward him. He was enraged. As a Sect Elder of the Ursa Race, he enjoyed a privileged status even in the Greater Realms. Now, however, he was being pushed around by a bunch of living beings weaker than him.

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4005

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4005-He was utterly enraged.

“Break!”

He swung his spear. Terrifying power expanded throughout the void like a halo, dissolving everything in his path into nothingness. In a brief moment, he destroyed tens of thousands of layers of Formation.

However, James had set up too many Formations. Even if the Ursa could break tens of thousands of them in an instant, he could not destroy them all. Before the Ursa could completely destroy the Formation, James was confident that he could annihilate him. That was because he could sense the Ursa’s vitality seeping away and his power diminishing by the minute. The Ursa was nearing his end and would not last for long.

In the new universe, every living trembled in fear as they sensed the terrifying pressure coming from within the Chaos Space. Meanwhile, the Omnipotent Lord hurriedly made his way toward the source of the power alongside a group of top -notch fighters. Soon, he arrived outside the battlefield. As he witnessed the battle inside the Superformation, even he could feel his blood run cold. He saw James, who was in the Omniscience Path’s Sixth Stage, Quiomars in his original form, Matthias who was blood-stained, and even the powerful individuals concealed inside the Formation.

“Curse that James.,” the Omnipotent Lord growled.

He planned to swoop in for the win when James and the Ursa were weakened. However, he did not expect James to have so many subordinates by his side. Matthias and Quiomars especially were comparable to him, thus posing a threat to him.

‘You have to hang in there, Ursa. Even if you can’t James and the others, at least deplete their strength and weaken them.’ The Omnipotent Lord pleaded in his heart.

The fierce battle continued on the battlefield in the void of the Chaos.

James used everything at his disposal. 108 Infinity Steles materialized, and each of them slammed against the Ursa while carrying destructive power. However, these attacks were nothing to the Ursa, who forcibly deflected the attacks and attacked James repeatedly.

James had learned too many Supernatural Powers in the Ecclesiastical Restricted Zone. In the blink of an eye, he performed many extremely powerful moves. In addition to the Malevolent Sword in his hand, he received the Ursa's attack and exchanged blows with him. Meanwhile, Matthias and Quiomars kept creating trouble for the Ursa from the sidelines.

The Ursa gradually lost ground in the face of such relentless attacks. He was covered in blood all over his body, and some of his muscles had already disintegrated, thereby revealing his bones. His aura and physical strength had been substantially weakened, and he knew he would perish if he continued.

Upon being reminded that he would perish at the hands of a bunch of insignificant creatures, he was enraged.

"Hahaha!" The Ursa laughed menacingly.

"James, you pesky human! I underestimated you. Even if I must die, you will pay a heavy price as well. We will die together..."

An immense power suddenly appeared from the Ursa's body.

"This is bad." Sensing the imminent danger, James yelled, "Retreat!"

However, they were too late. The Ursa burned his Blood Essence and sacrificed what was left of his vitality. His strength reached the pinnacle and even surpassed his peak form.

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4006

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4006-The Ursa knew his strength would be wholly depleted if this continued. In such an irreversible circumstance, he chose the ultimate option-mutually assured destruction. He performed the Ursa Race's Forbidden Art, burned his Blood Essence and vitality, and sacrificed himself in exchange for his strength at peak form. At that moment, he was stronger than he was during his peak form, and his injuries instantly recovered. His aura was overwhelming. Like a war god standing in the Chaos Space, his face darkened as he said coldly, "Die, all of you!"

As he roared, he swung his spear, and wave after wave of Spear Light materialized.

At that moment, James' formation seemed to have lost its effects. The powerful individuals concealed in the formation were devoured by the power, and they spurted out a mouthful of blood at the same time. Then, they were sent flying out of the formation.

"Retreat!" James yelled.

The Ursa was too terrifying, and he possessed the strength to destroy the formation. As such, the Ninth Stage Lords who remained in the formation were in danger. Jabari, Xulia, Yehosheva, Yahveh, and Jehudi swiftly retreated from it and stayed far away from the battlefield. Then, they hurriedly healed themselves with the Holy Potions they had prepared in advance.

As James glanced at the Ursa, he knew he was merely grasping at straws. His state of invincibility would not last for long. Once his Blood Essence's power ran dry, he would be substantially weakened. By then, he would perish at his hands.

James personally catalyzed the formation to deal with the Ursa. As he had personally set up the formation, only he could fully summon the true power of the formation.

Countless inscription sigils appeared in the Ursa's surroundings surreptitiously, each containing a mysterious power. The Ursa was immediately trapped, and he could not move a muscle. At that moment, James' Malevolent Sword charged toward the Ursa at an extraordinary speed.

However, just as the Malevolent Sword was about to pierce through the Ursa's body, the Ursa broke free of the formation's seal and swung his sword, knocking back the Malevolent Sword.

The Malevolent was knocked out of the formation and arrived in the Chaos Space. Its residual power immediately destroyed the Chaos, and a black hole appeared, from which a turbulent power materialized.

At that moment, Quiomars arrived. He opened his mouth and spurted out an immense power that formed a tornado that charged toward the Ursa. The Ursa grunted coldly and charged toward the tornado, resisting the attack. In an instant, he appeared above Quiomars' humongous body and stabbed Quiomars' body, piercing through it.

Quiomars plummeted from the sky and shattered the Chaos Space beneath him.

Such was the strength of an Ursa in his peak form. Even under the overwhelming pressure of the formation, he could easily injure Quiomars who was at the peak of the Nine- Power Macrocosm Ancestral God Rank.

The Ursa did not give Quiomars any opportunity to escape and lunged toward him, hoping to annihilate him once and for all.

At that moment, a Sword Light appeared behind him.

The Ursa was unafraid. He ignored the Sword Light and continued to pursue Quiomars.

Matthias tried to lend Quiomars a helping hand. However, the Ursa paid no heed to him. Even as the Sword Light struck the Ursa, his aura had formed a shapeless protective barrier around him, shielding him from harm.

“Die!”

The Ursa’s eyes bulged, and his expression was solemn. The spear in his hand grew in size until it became a gigantic spear. The spear radiated a devastating power and charged toward Quiomars below, who was severely injured.

A blood-chilling power materialized from within the spear, and at that moment, Quiomars could feel death approaching.

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4007

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4007-James, on the other hand, summoned all his power to catalyze the formation, gathering them together to form a protective barrier. However, under the destruction of the spear, the barrier kept shattering.

As James’ mind stirred, the Infinity Steles dispersed to form the Boundless Pagoda, which immediately enveloped Quiomars. At that moment, he appeared before the spear and summoned all of his strength before imbuing them into the Malevolent Sword. Then, the Malevolent Sword clashed with the spear.

Even though James was at the Omniscience Path's Sixth Stage, not to mention that he possessed Chaos Power and a Superweapon, there was still a huge power disparity between him and the Ursa. The spear's power spread throughout his body through the Malevolent Sword. At that moment, cracks began to appear all over his body, and he was covered in blood. James was injured. Unable to withstand the power, he swiftly stored the Malevolent Sword in his hand away and performed a move before disappearing without a trace.

When he disappeared, the spear landed on the Boundless Pagoda.

Boom!

A deafening blast could be heard in the Chaos Space.

Upon being struck, the Boundless Pagoda began to tremble. Though Quiomars was protected by the Boundless Pagoda, the pagoda only managed to resist a large portion of the Ursa's power. There was some power that seeped in and dealt Quiomars a heavy blow. Quiomars was severely injured. He swiftly consumed a Holy Potion, transformed back into human form, and hurriedly stayed far away from the battlefield.

"Think you can get away?"

The Ursa was determined to perish alongside James and the others. Just as Quiomars tried to escape, he hurriedly gave chase. James, on the other hand, appeared in front of him, blocking his path. When he appeared, however, the Ursa's spear was already thrust. In an instant, he could feel a terrifying power shredding through the air. Faced with James' powerful attack, the Ursa easily received the attack and retaliated at the same time. The spear left his hand and pierced through James' shoulder. His speed was so extraordinary that even James who was in the Omniscience Path's Sixth Stage could not react in time. He only felt a searing pain coming from his shoulder. Then, his arm was slashed, and the Malevolent Sword fell from his hand.

In the meantime, Matthias appeared behind the Ursa and tried to ambush him. However, the Ursa's sensory skills were too advanced. He immediately sensed Matthias' presence and turned around immediately before thrusting his spear. Before Matthias could react, his chest was pierced through by the spear, and he was sent flying by a powerful force.

James used this opportunity and appeared in the distance to catalyze the Life Path. As vitality spread throughout his body, his severed limb grew back.

Then, as his mind stirred, the Malevolent Sword flew toward him. Holding the Malevolent Sword in his hand, his expression was grim. He never expected a fight to the death against the Ursa would be so terrifying. Even Matthias and Quiomars who were at the pinnacle of the Nine-Power Macrocosm Ancestral God Rank could not stand a chance against him.

“Don’t fight him head-on! Stall for time! He won’t last long in this state!” James spoke to Matthias and Quiomars through telepathy.

He changed his tactics and began stalling for time. He would borrow the formation’s power to weaken the Ursa’s speed and apply stronger spatial pressure on him. As the spatial pressure increased, the Ursa’s speed would decrease, thereby exposing his weakness. So, James watched him closely and looked for opportunities to ambush him.

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4008

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4008-Considering that the Ursa was too frightening, James changed his strategy. After avoiding fighting him head-on, they now had some breathing room. The three of them concealed themselves in the formation, which was personally set up by James. Even if the Ursa’s strength had temporarily returned to the pinnacle and even having surpassed that, he could only destroy tens of thousands of layers of formation at one time. Meanwhile, James would continuously strengthen the formation and create new ones from the shadows. So, even though the Ursa kept destroying the formation, the formation’s power did not diminish at all. In the meantime, Quiomars and Matthias would search for opportunities to attack the Ursa. Even if they could not harm him, they could still create trouble for him. Just like that, the battle arrived at a stalemate.

“Come out from your hiding spots and fight me head-on!” the Ursa roared furiously.

His deafening roar shattered the void of the Chaos. Now, he was extremely powerful. However, he could not demonstrate his strength for James and the others would not confront him head-on.

“Argh!” he roared in frustration.

He had never been so humiliated even in the Primordial Realm’s age. He was enraged. He knew he would die. Even if James removed the formation – even if he annihilated

James and the others, he would still die, for he had sacrificed his life.

At that moment, he could no longer care less. He planned to self-destruct, for the power brought about by the explosion would utterly destroy the formation and those concealed within.

“Die, all of you!”

His expression was horrifying to watch.

At that moment, his physical body began to burn. Following that, an immense power materialized from within his body. This power surpassed James’ expectations, and he immediately sensed the imminence of danger. He had a bad feeling about this.

“Retreat, now!” he ordered Quiomars and Matthias who were in the formation.

Upon sensing the imminent danger, the both of them hurriedly retreated from the formation. However, at that moment, they could sense that the Chaos Space had been sealed by immense power. Though they tried to break the seal, their power was insufficient to break the seal’s restrictions. James could also sense this.

“He wants us to die alongside him. Dammit!” James cursed.

Holding the Malevolent Sword in his hand, he summoned all his strength. Physical strength and Chaos Power entered the Malevolent Sword at a constant stream.

“Break!”

Immense power burst forth from within the Malevolent Sword, and a Sword Energy shredded through the air. The Sword Energy was radiant and contained extremely terrifying power. The Sword Energy struck the Seal Boundary.

Clank!

The Seal Boundary was like a piece of glass, and cracks began appearing on the seal. However, the boundary did not shatter and recovered in an instant.

“Hahaha!”

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4009

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4009-A burst of laughter came from the center of the formation. At that moment, the Ursa's body was in flames, and his expression was especially frightening when illuminated by the scorching flames. As his physical body burned, the power he exuded grew increasingly terrifying.

"What should we do?"

Quiomars' expression was grim as he said, "We have to think of something! He chose to sacrifice himself and self-destruct. The self-destruction of an Acmean will be extremely terrifying. If we can't break through the seal, we will die at his hands."

James did not know when the Ursa set up the Seal Boundary. Regardless, he did not possess the strength to break it.

"You have to live on."

James looked at Quiomars and Matthias. Then, a Boundless Pagoda appeared and enveloped them. With the protection of the Boundless Pagoda, James' body exuded an unrivaled power that enveloped the Boundless Pagoda, forming a protective barrier. James knew that the Boundless Pagoda possessed terrifying defensive capabilities after the refinement. However, the pagoda would still be insufficient to withstand the power that would be produced by the Ursa's self-destruction. Even with the protection of the Boundless Pagoda, Quiomars and Matthias would not survive. So, he used his own strength to form another protective layer.

"What are you up to, James?"

Matthias yelled, "We are leaving together. What the hell do you think you are doing?"

Quiomars panicked as well and cried out, "Quick, enter the Boundless Pagoda! Though the explosion will be terrifying, we have a chance to survive this. If you do this, you will surely die!"

The two struggled to get out of the Boundless Pagoda. However, as the pagoda was under James' control, they could not break free.

“Don’t worry, I know what I’m doing.”

James said, “Live on. Though we have gotten rid of a troublesome opponent today, there could still be other Watchers out there.”

Then, he gazed into the distance. The Ursa’s body was close to being burned completely, and the power he exuded had grown increasingly stronger, so much so that even the formation was affected. The formation began to show cracks before shattering into pieces. In an instant, tens of thousands of formations were destroyed. James looked at the Ursa who was nearing his end before turning around and glancing at Matthias and Quiomars who were in the Boundless Pagoda.

“What are you doing, James?!” Matthias yelled.

As James’ mind stirred, the Celestial Abode hovered before him before floating toward the Boundless Pagoda.

“There are many Chaotic Treasures inside the Celestial Abode. Take them, they are all yours now. Don’t worry, I won’t die. I’m going to search for Thea. I may not be able to return to this universe for the time being. Once I find her, I will try to find a way to return.”

James’ voice boomed.

Thea had reincarnated in the Primeval Age. He once tried extrapolating her whereabouts but to no avail. Based on his calculations, there was only one way to find her. He would have to return to the exact moment when Thea was reincarnated in the Primeval Age and follow in her footsteps.

Boom!

In the distance, the Ursa was close to being burned completely, and the power he exuded began to explode. The area he was in began to illuminate the void. Then, the void exploded, and a Spatial Black Hole appeared, which immediately spread to the location James was at.

James, meanwhile, entered the River of Time and went against the stream. The moment he disappeared, the region exploded, and everything disintegrated into nothingness. When the explosion entered the Seal Boundary, the Boundless Pagoda’s protective barrier James created with all his strength only lasted for a mere few seconds before shattering and disappearing. Meanwhile, the power continued to blast the Boundless Pagoda. Under the relentless bombardment, the Boundless Pagoda began to crack before vanishing completely.

Meanwhile, Matthias and Quiomars suffered a heavy blow. However, with James' protective barrier and the Boundless Pagoda resisting the first wave of the attack, the power had been significantly weakened. Even so, the power was extremely powerful regardless.

Matthias and Quiomars were immediately affected by the blast. Under the destruction of the power, their physical bodies began to be destroyed. As their physical bodies disintegrated, the Seal Boundary in the Chaos Space shattered, and their souls hurriedly made their escape. Though they paid a heavy price, they survived nonetheless.

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4010

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4010-In a faraway region in the Chaos Space, the Omnipotent Lord had been waiting alongside a group of powerful individuals of the Ancestral Holy Site. He planned to swoop in for the kill the moment James and the Ursa were weakened. However, he did not expect this battle to be this fierce. Even though he was far away from the Formation, he could still sense the blood-chilling power. If they had entered the battlefield, they would have been annihilated in an instant.

The Formation James had set up was shattered, and everything was in shambles outside the Formation. There were cracks in the void and even Spatial Black Holes all over the place.

"What should we do now, My Lord?"

A powerful Macrocosm Ancestral God of Mount Ancestre asked, "Now, the Ursa has self-destructed, and James has disappeared. The two remaining powerful individuals had lost their physical bodies, and only their souls remain.

Meanwhile, the others have already retreated."

The Omnipotent Lord had witnessed the entire battle.

"Spare none of them,"the Omnipotent Lord ordered.

Even though the Ursa was dead and James' whereabouts were unclear, the remaining people still posed a threat to him. He immediately gave the order to kill. As he ordered, the powerful individuals of the Ancestral Holy Site immediately charged toward Matthias and Quiomars who were in a soul state.

At that moment, Jabari, Yahveh, Jehudi, Yehosheva, and Xulia arrived in time and confronted them.

The Omnipotent Lord walked toward them.

Matthias who was in a soul state scanned his surroundings as his expression darkened, and he said coldly, "I never provoked you. Yet, here you are with your men trying to create trouble for us. You must have a death wish!"

Matthias exuded a terrifying aura. Even though he was now without a physical body, he was still far more powerful than any ordinary Nine-Power Macrocosm Ancestral Gods.

Besides, there were not many Nine-Power Macrocosm Ancestral Gods among the Omnipotent Lord's men. Most of them were Eight or Seven-Power Macrocosm Ancestral Gods.

Seeing that Jabari and the others were unscathed, the Omnipotent Lord immediately changed his mind. He stepped forward and smiled, saying, "This is a misunderstanding, my friends. I came here to assist James. However, as the enemy is too powerful, we didn't even dare approach him."

"Men, escort our heroes back to our universe!" the Omnipotent Lord ordered.

He knew that he would not be able to annihilate them with what few forces he had at the moment. After all, these were people who had fought against the Ursa.

Thus ended a fierce battle.

James left behind the Boundless Pagoda to protect Quiomars and Matthias. At the same time, he summoned all his strength to form a protective barrier. Only then did Quiomars and Matthias survive. However, they also lost their physical bodies. Without James' protective barrier and the Boundless Pagoda, they would have perished at the Ursa's hand. Meanwhile, James forcibly opened up the River of Time at the most pivotal moment and entered the place.

He wanted to search for Thea. However, the Ursa was too powerful, so the force of the explosion continued to pursue him despite his escape into the River of Time. As James had used up all of his strength to form the protective barrier, he did not have enough strength to resist the power.

James continued to traverse through the River of Time. Then, he turned around and saw that the power was still pursuing him.

“Dammit!” he cursed.

This power was only about ten years away from him. He could not stop. If he did, the power would catch up. If he was struck by the power in his current state, he may not be able to survive the attack.

He accelerated his speed and sensed time at the same time. Soon, he would reach the Twelfth Universes’ Primeval Age and the moment Thea reincarnated.

In the Twelfth Universes’ Primeval Age...