The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4013-James waved slightly and interrupted Thea.

He looked her in the eye and asked, "Let's put the issue of the future of humankind aside for now.

I only want to know one thing —am I only just a tool to you? Did you arrange everything, from your avatar transforming into an Ancestral God Rank Elixir and marrying me to every action I took in the past? Do you simply need a helping hand? To that end, did you sacrifice yourself by marrying me?" Thea remained silent.

She approached James and extended her gracious hand, grabbing him and looking at him with a loving expression.

"I only wish to tell you that, no matter the Thea in the Twelfth Universes' Primeval Age or the one who reincarnated into an Ancestral God Rank Elixir, they are all me.

Their souls share the same origin, and my sigil exists in the deepest parts of their souls.

Though they do not have my memory, their every decision is affected by me." "If my avatar marries you, that would mean I made the decision as well.

After all, they won't be able to make such a decision without my permission.

No matter me or my avatars, we are all your wives.

I love you, James.

I know that for a fact." Thea grabbed James' hand and said.

Hearing this, James felt a sense of warmth inside him.

He felt that everything he did was worth it.

"In that case, where has your avatar reincarnated? Since you are already here, what's the point of those avatars? Why don't we work together and annihilate the Watchers?" James asked.

Thea shook her head slightly and said, “The avatars exist to help me elude capture.

That way, even if I die, only my physical body would be gone.

My soul will continue to exist inside my avatars.

Meanwhile, I have remained hidden in this desolate part of the world for a very long time now.

However, I know about almost everything in the outside world.” Hearing this, James furrowed his eyebrows.

“Based on the timeline, I should be in the Twelfth Universe’s Primeval Age.

I, on the other hand, came from the future.

I came from a period of time when the universe has achieved consolidation and I have just fought against an Ursa.

Do you know about these events as well?” Thea nodded, “I know.

I have been silently watching you from the shadows.

You arrived at the Twelfth Universe’s Primeval Age by traversing the River of Time.

That’s why I appeared.

The time has come.” James was confused.

“What do you mean? By the way, since you can traverse through time as you please, do you know what happened after the Ursa self -destroyed? Will a Superuniverse be created in the future?” He asked a series of questions.

“There’s only the present and the past.

The future does not exist.” Thea looked at him and said something profound.

Hearing this, James looked at her in confusion and asked, “Why doesn’t the future exist?” Thea, however, remained silent.

She looked at him and said, “You will understand everything soon.

My avatar has reincarnated into the Greater Realms.

In the Primordial Realm's age, the Human Race predicted their defeat.

So, they prepared a pathway in advance." "This is the pathway I'm referring to." Thea pointed at the space before her.

"This pathway leads to the Greater Realms.

My avatar had to leave.

At the same time, I require your help." James looked at the space before him and asked, "What can I do to help?" Thea said, "I went to great lengths so that you could cultivate Chaos Power for this moment.

I want you to enter the Greater Realms, infiltrate the Doom Race—one of the Ten Great Races— and sow discord among the races.

The Human Race will only have breathing room when the Ten Great Races are experiencing internal strife and can only emerge as a force to be reckoned with when the Greater Realms are thrown into disorder." Hearing this, James furrowed his eyebrows.

"Even so, there are Watchers in the Dark World.

Even if the Ten Great Races do not appear in the Dark World, the Watchers' strength is sufficient to destroy your plans." Thea smiled.

"You underestimated me.

Indeed, I suffered injuries when I was in the Primordial Realm.

However, after remaining hidden here for so long, my injuries are close to recovering.

Feel free to wreak as much havoc in the Greater Realms.

Leave everything to me here.

When a new universe is created, that will be the end of the Watchers."

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4014-Thea's words were contradictory and made James confused.

The avatars exist to prevent Yukia from being discovered, for all will be lost, yet Thea was confident that she could annihilate the Watchers.

"What's your plan? What's my role in this?" James asked.

Thea explained, "I suffered severe injuries during the war in the Primordial Realm.

However, as my strength has recovered somewhat, I dare show up now.

Previously, hundreds of Lords were tricked.

They were strong, and I couldn't stand by and watch them head toward certain death.

That's why I stopped them.

However, they ignored my orders.

That's why I tried to subdue them by force.

Faced with 300 Ninth Stage Lords, I did not go all- out despite being in an advantageous position.

My objective is to stop them, after all.

As I held back during the fight, I suffered injuries.

Then, at that moment, the Watchers appeared, and I have no choice but to abandon the Lords and escaped.

However, the Watchers were relentless in their pursuits.

I was worried that something unexpected might happen.

That's why my avatars kept reincarnating.

"The Thea of the Twelfth Universe's Primeval Age has already experienced thousands of reincarnations.

In the meantime, my injuries slowly recuperated.

I did not show up because I was making preparations for the Human Race to rise again.

However, I can't do this alone.

I need a helping hand.

So, I extrapolated for providence.

That's when I learned that the key to victory would appear among the Human Race in the Twelfth Universe.

So, I went to the Twelfth Universe and began setting up my plans.

"I have been guiding you all this while.

Your cultivation of Chaos Power is also part of my plan.

When you have cultivated true Chaos Power, you will head to the Greater Realms through this pathway, infiltrate the Doom Race, and sow discord between the Dooms and the other races.

Once the Greater Realms are thrown into chaos, no race would pay any attention to whatever occurs in this sealed space.

I, on the other hand, will remain here and catalyze the creation of a Superuniverse.

Once a Superuniverse is created, the Watchers will certainly appear.

By then, my strength should have returned completely.

So, destroying the Watchers should not be too difficult a task for me." Thea told James about her plans, which she had been executing all this while.

Now that James had become strong, the planning phase was nearing its end.

Meanwhile, James only learned about this at this point in time.

Though the plan was simple, its execution would be difficult.

If they messed up at any spot, the whole plan would fail.

“In that case, why did your avatar reincarnate into the Greater Realms?” James asked.

Thea said smilingly, “How am I supposed to know what’s going on in the Greater Realms as long as I’m trapped here? How do I execute my plan? As I told you, my avatars have my soul sigil inside them.

So, I know everything my avatar learns or experiences.

When my avatar heads to the Greater Realms, I will know everything that’s going on there despite my being trapped here.

By comprehending the situation there, I can improve on my plan.

After you head to the Greater Realms, I will not act recklessly until I have received confirmation from you.” James smiled and scratched his nose, saying, “I see.

Then why do you know I will enter this space by chasing after your avatar?” “That’s because you love me.” Thea smiled.

“will your avatar have your memory after she heads to the Greater Realms?” James asked.

“Nope.” Thea shook her head and said, “Although my avatar does not have my memory, my soul sigil exists in the deepest parts of her soul.

So, I know everything she experiences.” “will she accept me if I found her?” “Yes.” Thea nodded and said, “The moment I sense your presence, I will control my avatar or even reveal some of my memories to her to assist you in your plans to wreak havoc in the Greater Realms.

Besides, once my avatar gains my memory, she will have my strength.” “In that case...” James stammered.

“Cut to the chase.” Thea glanced at him.

James asked, “If your avatar doesn’t merge with you in the future, doesn’t that mean I will have two wives?” Hearing this, Thea froze.

Then, she rolled her eyes.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4015-There's only me from the very beginning." "Hehe..." James grinned.

"Alright now, stop fooling around and head to the Greater Realms already.

The future of humankind depends on you.

If you fail, the Ten Great Races will annihilate the Human Race regardless even if I succeed." "But I don't wanna..."

We've only just met after being separated for a very long time." Displeased, James said, "We are not in a hurry anyway.

Why don't we leave this place and remain hidden somewhere else in the outside world?" "No, we need to get our priorities straight." Thea rebuffed him.

"In that case, we should at least spend some more time together.

Don't you miss me?" Then, James walked toward Thea and embraced her before giving her a kiss.

"Mhm...!" Before Thea could say anything, James kissed her.

James could not care less about what she was going to say.

As he kissed Thea, he gradually removed her clothing.

After some time, in the unknown space...

James was sitting in a lotus position in the void, whereas Thea who was disheveled was in his embrace.

"The Human Race's current living environment is horrible.

Once we have resolved everything, and the Human Race has secured its rightful place in the Greater Realms and has nothing else to worry about, we will find a place and live a peaceful and carefree life," Thea said.

This was what she desired deep down.

"By then, you will give birth to a ton of children.

If you give birth to a child once every thousand years, the world will be full of our children in a few thousand Epochs.” James teased her.

He had not been this joyful in a very long time now.

Ever since Thea transformed into an Ancestral God Rank Elixir, he had been searching for her.

Along the way, he encountered many obstacles, and he had transformed into a truly powerful figure now as compared to the past when he was just a weak and insignificant human being.

As he reminisced about the past, everything seemed surreal.

“Dream on,” Thea said bashfully.

“By the way, do you know about Winnie, Xainte, and Jacopo?” James asked, “Have you visited them?” Thea nodded slightly and said, “Though I never appeared in person, I have been watching them from the sidelines.

Winnie and Xainte have seen me before, but poor Jacopo...

I left when he was just an infant.

He has never seen my appearance.” Thea was feeling guilty.

The two embraced each other and conversed.

After some time, James stood up.

“Don’t worry, Darling.

Leave everything to me.

I will wreak havoc on the Greater Realms and accomplish my mission.” James smiled as he assured Thea.

Then, he turned around and walked toward the depths of the void.

He did not turn back.

Rather, he simply raised his hand and waved, “Await my good news, Darling.” His voice grew increasingly weaker before completely vanishing.

Then, he was gone.

Thea remained where she stood.

As she watched James' retreating figure, she murmured, "The Greater Realms is not an ordinary place, Darling.

You must return safely.

I will be waiting for you in the new world."

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4016

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4016-This pathway was not a pathway to reincarnation.

Rather, it was a secret passage leading to the Greater Realms left behind in the Primordial Realm's age.

Only a single person in this world knew about the passage's existence — Thea Callahan.

James thought that Thea had reincarnated back into the Twelfth Universe.

He did not expect him to be in the Greater Realms.

No wonder he could not find any trace of her.

After seeing Thea, James was in a good mood.

That was because no matter the reincarnated Thea or Yukia Dearnaley herself, they were all his wife, Thea Callahan.

As he traversed through the passage, he could feel time seeping away at an accelerated speed.

Though he entered the pathway in the Twelfth Universe's Primeval Age, he realized that as he progressed, time was changing.

Soon, he was back to the point in time where he fought against the Ursa.

Upon arriving at this time, the flow of time returned to normal.

He walked in the passage for a very long time.

Soon, a glimmer of light appeared before him.

Though the light was unusually small, it increasingly grew in size as James approached it.

In the end, a vast world presented itself.

James' body flashed, and he entered the world.

The moment he entered the world, the pathway disappeared.

James arrived before an undulating mountain range.

Immediately, he could sense the mysterious power of Heaven and Earth.

The power of Heaven and Earth was pure and carried an alluring fragrance.

His pores relaxed, and as he breathed in the pure air, he felt comfortable throughout his body.

“What a mysterious power of Heaven and Earth...

This power is incomparable to the Dark World or the new universe.” James was stunned.

He slightly catalyzed the cultivation methods inside his body and absorbed them.

He realized that not only was the power of Heaven and Earth here pure and mysterious, but it could also increase his Chaos Power and nourish his physical body.

“This is a world suitable for cultivation.

If I was born here, I would have reached the Omniscience Path's Seventh Stage long ago,” James exclaimed.

As expected of one of the worlds in the Greater Realms.

Now, he was curious about one thing —what world was this? The Greater Realms was a name for countless worlds merged into one.

In these worlds, there were countless races.

Some powerful ones were able to dominate the Greater Realms, for example, the Doom Race and the Ursa Race.

They were among the Ten Great Races in the Greater Realms.

He scanned his surroundings.

This was a pristine forest, where trees were so tall they touched the clouds.

Each of them was about tens of thousands in height, and their foliage blocked out the sun.

These ancient trees exuded a pure energy of Heaven and Power that was even more advanced than the Dark World or the new universe.

James did not know whether the energy here was suitable for the living beings here to cultivate.

However, this energy was certainly suitable for humans to cultivate.

James wanted to cultivate here.

Perhaps he would progress further into the Omniscience Path.

However, his priority was to understand this world and find out his distance from the world the Doom Race resided in.

Then, he would have to execute Thea's plan.

However, he also had one other thing to do, and that was to search for Thea who had reincarnated here.

Thea did not reincarnate here in her physical body but in her soul state.

After scanning his surroundings, James leaped into the air and tried to leave the area.

However, the moment he appeared in the sky, a mysterious Formation appeared.

Interweaving light beams appeared in the sky and formed a huge net that enveloped the space.

The moment his body came into contact with the light beams, cracks began to appear on his body.

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4017

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4017-“There’s a formation here?” Furrowing his eyebrows, he murmured, “Where am I?” After some contemplation, he leaped to the sky and arrived somewhere near the formation.

As he raised his hand, a powerful force shredded through the air and came into contact with the formation.

His power bounced back, and he hurriedly dodged.

The power landed on a mountain below him.

Boom! At that moment, the earth shook, and the mountain below was destroyed.

“What a powerful formation...” James was stunned.

At his rank, there should not be any formations that could trap him.

Now, however, he was trapped.

Even though he attacked the formation, the power bounced back.

Furrowing his eyebrows, James tried performing the Space Path.

However, he realized that the space here was sealed away by a mysterious force.

Even at his rank, he could not leave by performing the Space Path.

Next, he tried all sorts of ways but to no avail.

He summoned his full strength and bombarded the formation relentlessly.

However, the formation only experienced mild turbulence.

After the turbulence, a powerful force materialized from it and blocked James' attack.

After some time...

James sat on a rock at the peak of a mountain dejectedly and gazed into the distance, cursing silently, 'F*cking hell! Where the hell am I? What kind of formation is this? Why did someone even set up one here?' He was livid.

Of all places in the Greater Realms, he just had to appear inside a mysterious formation.

After getting some rest, he stood up once more.

He was determined to get to the bottom of this.

There must be something here, considering there was such a powerful formation here.

Perhaps this was the headquarters of a powerful sect, or maybe there was something powerful being sealed away here.

James began wandering about the mountains.

At the same time, at the peak of a spiritual mountain outside the formation...

Many humanoid creatures gathered in the main hall.

An elderly man wearing a purple robe was at the forefront.

He looked like a sage being.

Hundreds of powerful individuals were gathered in the main hall as well.

"There's a terrifying energy fluctuation coming from the restricted area at the back of the mountain.

This is extraordinary." "Perhaps that person has awakened from his slumber?" "We can't know for sure now." "Sect Leader, should we investigate the matter?" Many conversed.

In the lead, the elderly man waved his hand slightly and said, “ The Grand Patriarch has strict orders not to enter the restricted area under any circumstances.

The formation must not be undone as well, for anything could happen in the process.” “What should we do then? A bizarre power is coming from the restricted area when we are attacked by powerful foes from the outside.

We are truly in a bind.” Some Sect Elders said anxiously.

James, on the other hand, had no idea that he had accidentally arrived at the restricted area of a sect in the Greater Realms.

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4018

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4018-Some were strong, while others were weak.

Some stronger worlds were so powerful that not even the consolidation of the forty-nine Universe Seeds in James’ world could compare.

Some weaker ones were not equally as strong as the Twelfth Universe.

The world James arrived in the Greater Realms was considered a powerful one called the Cloud Realm.

The Cloud Realm was a powerful world in the Greater Realms and was dominated by the Cloud Race, one of the Ten Great Races.

This was also the Cloud Race’s headquarters.

Though the Cloud Race was among the Ten Great Races, they were also the weakest.

During the war in the Primordial Realm, though the Cloud Race only had a handful of Acmeans, all of them participated in the war.

As the Cloud Race’s Acmeans were comparatively weaker, almost all of them perished on the battlefield.

Only a single one survived.

Even so, he was gravely injured.

Even though many Epochs had passed, he had not yet recovered.

Upon losing the Acmeans, the Cloud Race also dropped out of the ranking and was replaced by some other race.

Meanwhile, James was currently inside the Cloud Race's restricted area.

There was a powerful formation here.

Even at full strength, James could not destroy the formation.

Meanwhile, as James had never interacted with the formations in the Greater Realms, nor did he comprehend the formation Inscriptions there, he could not leave this place in the near future.

At that moment, he was wandering about the Cloud Race's restricted area.

The place was vast, and the energy of Heaven and Earth here was abundant.

Upon traversing the mountains, James arrived at the outskirts where all sorts of mysterious Emyprean Herbs existed.

The level of the Emyprean Herbs here was extremely high.

Even the most ordinary ones were at least at the Ancestral God Rank.

Not only that, but these herbs were everywhere.

This deeply stunned James.

"Just how long has it been since anyone was here? Why are there so many herbs everywhere?" James simply plucked the herbs and consumed them.

That was because he had reached the Omniscience Path's Sixth Stage and was finding it difficult to reach the Seventh.

The required energy was too huge, and the Ancestral God Rank herbs possessed terrifying energy.

Though a single herb was nothing to James, the combined energy would be substantial.

James plucked the herbs and consumed them.

As the refined energy entered his limbs and blood, his bloodline power gradually increased.

However, he was far from reaching the Omniscience Path's Seventh Stage.

After traversing the area full of herbs, he arrived at a desolate area.

Before him were vast plains, and there was not even a single blade of grass to be seen.

Holes were everywhere, and there were even rocks that were corroded beyond recognition.

The moment James arrived at this place, he could feel a blood -chilling power.

"An Acmean?" James sensed the power of an Acmean.

As he gazed straight ahead, he activated his Divine Sense.

Under the perception of his Divine Sense, he realized there was a special cage in the middle of the plains.

Meanwhile, the mysterious power here was coming from inside the cage.

"What creature is inside the cage? Why is it trapped here?" he murmured.

Now, he had a rough idea of why the formation existed.

There was a cage in the middle of the plains, in which there was an Acmean.

"An Acmean..."

I wonder why he's trapped here?"

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4019

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4019-He knew just how terrifying an Acmean was.

To fight against even an injured Acmean, he had to summon his full strength just to be on equal footing.

Meanwhile, an Acmean would only become more terrifying after sacrificing himself.

Previously during the battle against the Ursa, he almost perished at his hands.

So, he was wondering whether he should approach the cage.

“Since I can’t break the formation for the time being, maybe I should head over there and have a look.

Perhaps I can work together with the Acmean and make our way out of here.”
An idea flashed through James’ mind.

With that idea in mind, he strode forward with caution.

Crack...

As he stepped on a rock on the ground, the rock shattered and turned into a pile of sand.

The rock had been softened by the corrosion of the mysterious power.

If not for James catalyzing his power to decrease his weight, he would have been knee-deep in the sand.

Soon, he arrived at the central region of the plains.

The cage was bizarre.

This was a black palace made out of mysterious inscriptions.

These inscriptions would circulate non-stop while exuding a mysterious power.

Besides, countless interweaving light beams in the surroundings exuded a bizarre power.

Even a Macrocosm Ancestral God would be instantly annihilated if he approached the light beams.

James arrived outside the cage.

Then, a deafening roar came from inside the cage.

The roar was both solemn and blood-chilling and seemed to carry excruciating pain.

Upon hearing this, even James was taken aback.

What sort of pain was the creature inside the cage experiencing to let loose such a scream of agony? He tried to approach the cage.

Immediately, a terrifying power swept toward him, and he hurriedly dodged in time.

The power transformed into illusory blades and charged into the distance before disappearing without a trace.

“What a terrifying power...

If I was struck by that power, I would have suffered grave injuries.” James took a deep breath.

This place was too eerie, and he did not wish to remain here for even a second more.

Though he was curious about what was inside the cage, he also knew that curiosity kills the cat.

As such, his priority should be to leave as soon as possible.

He turned to leave.

“Come back, kid.” A growl came.

Then, a strong suction force came from inside the cage and forcibly pulled James toward it.

“F*ck...” James cursed and hurriedly catalyzed all his strength to resist the force.

However, there was a huge power disparity between his strength and the suction force.

He immediately entered the Omniscience Path.

By combining the Chaos Power he possessed and the Omniscience Path, he was barely able to withstand the suction force.

His body stopped at the edge of the formation.

If he took just another step back, he would certainly come into contact with it and be injured by the force.

James resisted the force bitterly for about ten minutes before the suction force disappeared.

Only then did he breathe a sigh of relief.

He turned around and looked at the palace formed by inscriptions, asking coldly, "Who are you?"

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4020

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4020- James stared at the bizarre palace before him cautiously.

The formation was unique, and his Divine Sense could not penetrate it.

Thus, he could not sense what was inside.

"Are you a human or a Doom?" A hoarse voice came from inside the cage.

It seemed that the person inside had not spoken in ages.

James furrowed his eyebrows.

He came here to the Greater Realms to impersonate a Doom, infiltrate the Doom Race, and sow discord among the Ten Great Races to incite a conflict.

He did not know what was inside the cage.

After some contemplation, he said, "A Doom." "How did you get in?" The living being in the formation asked coldly.

James did not have the answer to this question.

"I don't know." James shrugged and said, "Will you believe me if I say I entered this formation by chance?" "Hmph!" The living being grunted coldly.

Then, an immense power came from inside the formation.

James was on high alert.

The moment he sensed the power, he hurriedly retreated.

However, the power seemed to be chasing him.

“Dammit!” James cursed and swiftly summoned his full strength.

The Omniscience Path and his Chaos Power merged to form a terrifying power that blocked the attack.

However, his body continued to stumble backward.

The power only disappeared when he retreated from the plains.

James dispersed his power and murmured while wearing a grim expression, “How powerful...

I couldn’t even stand against him with my full strength.

Besides, this is a living being who’s trapped inside a cage.

If I fight him head-on, I won’t stand a chance against him.” “Come here, kid.” The hoarse voice came from inside the formation.

Though James was fearful, he was curious to see what was inside.

So, he strode forward and soon arrived before the cage.

“Why did you attack me?” James asked.

“To test you.

I want to you if you’re a human or a Doom.” The living being inside answered him truthfully.

“Is that so?” James asked nonchalantly, “So what am I? A human or a Doom?” The living being inside did not respond, seemingly in the process of contemplation.

After some time, he said, “Based on your cultivation power, you are a Doom.

Chaos Power is unrivaled in this world.

Apart from the Dooms, no other race can cultivate that power.

Meanwhile, the Omniscience Path is the cultivation method of the Human Race.

The potential of the Human Race is also the greatest.

No matter the potential or amount of resources the other races have, they can only reach the Omniscience Path's Fourth Stage at most.

You, on the other hand, have reached the Sixth Stage.

Based on this fact, you are a human." Upon hearing this, James was puzzled.

He was curious about what was inside the cage.

"What race are you? Why are you trapped here?' James asked once more.

"I'm the one asking you questions, kid.

If you hadn't possessed two powers, you would have dropped dead the moment you stepped in." Hearing this, James' blood ran cold.

He was only alive because he possessed two powers.

So was the imprisoned creature inside a human or a Doom? James contemplated.
