The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4031- Even though James' Chaos Power was strong, it was not enough to kill the super powerhouses of the Cloud Race.

James used the Chaos Power only to numb the Cloud Race.

He wanted to make the powerhouses of the Cloud Race think he was Youri of the Cloud Race.

In this way, they would fear him and would not fight him.

When James used the Chaos Power, the expressions of the powerhouses of the Cloud Race in the main hall changed, and they slightly backed away.

It was only after James withdrew the Chaos Power did they let out a breath of relief.

James sighed helplessly.

Looking at Fitzroy, he said, "Fitzroy, you should know the current situation of the Cloud Race.

It isn't safe for the Cloud Race to keep the key.

Although most of the Human Race's powerhouses have been wiped out during the battle of the Primordial Realm, there are still several living beings of the Human Race in today's Greater Realms.

These living beings of the Human Race have gathered and formed a secret organization, specializing in killing the prodigy disciples of the Ten Great Races." James was not lying.

These matters were pieces of information he obtained when enquiring about Youri.

He found out that there were many living beings of the Human Race in the Greater Realms.

However, the Human Race had a low status in the Greater Realms.

Many of them were slaves.

Aside from being slaves, the Human Race of the Greater Realms had also formed a secret organization.

The organization was known as the Heaven-Eradicating Sect.

The Heaven-Eradicating Sect was formed by the Human Race.

Their aim was to kill the prodigies of the Greater Realms' Great Races.

The sect had informants throughout the entire Greater Realms.

Whenever a prodigy of a sect had set off for cultivation, they would know about it and set up ambushes beforehand.

In this way, they could kill the prodigies of the Great Races.

Ever since the Heaven-Eradicating Sect was established, they had killed many races' prodigies in the dark.

James spoke again, "Even though the Heaven-Eradicating Sect did not showcase their true power, those who entered the Human Race of the Greater Realms were powerhouses.

After wiping out the Primordial] Realm, the Ten Great Races allied and eliminated the Human Race of the Greater Realms.

Nevertheless, some powerhouses of the Human Race slipped through the net." "Can you guarantee that the Heaven-Eradicating Sect will appear in the Cloud Race and that the key will not be taken away?" "You should know the importance of this matter.

Handing over the key is for the Cloud Race's good." James began to deceive them.

He used the information he obtained to deceive the Cloud Race.

Upon hearing James' words, the Sect Leader of the Heaven – Eradicating Sect did not say a word.

He had a serious expression on his face.

After a while, he said, "Please give me some time.

We need to discuss this." James made a "go ahead" gesture.

"Send Mr.

Youri to rest," shouted Fitzroy.

All of a sudden, several stunning ladies entered and left the main hall with James, who was acting as Youri.

After he left, many powerhouses of the Cloud Race in the main hall expressed their anger.

"How evil." "He's taking advantage of us because the whereabouts of our Grand Patriarch are unknown.

I can't believe he wants our key." "Sect Leader, you can't hand over the key.

If you hand over the key, we will no longer have a trump card.

By then, the Ten Great Sects will not care about our lives." "That's right.

Please think it through." Many elders gave their advice.

Sitting at the main seat, Fitzroy seemed to have gotten older at this moment.

Seeing the elders in the main hall, he sighed helplessly.

"Now, we can't even win against the Bug Race, so how can we go against Youri?" After he said that, the elders present became silent.

Fitzroy thought for a moment before saying, "Based on our ability, we can't keep the key.

The key can be given away, but the Cloud Race can't be wiped out.

Now, in the Cloud Race, Yente has the biggest potential.

She hasn't entered the Acme Rank because she didn't have enough improvement.

If we give her some time, she can definitely enter the Acme Rank.” “According to my plan, after we give the key and let the Doom Race get rid of the Bug Race, I will seal the mountain and earn some time for Yente.

If she can enter the Acme Rank, our race will rise again.

It’s even possible for us to get back the name of the Ten Great Races.”

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4032

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4032-Now, they only lacked an Acmean to act as a commander.

Although there was an Acmean in the Cloud Race, he was injured in the Primordial Realm, and it had been a long time since he appeared.

The outside world had started spreading, saying that the injuries of the Cloud Race’s Grand Patriarch had worsened and that he was already dead.

Otherwise, he would not have been away for years.

Now, the Cloud Race only needed to buy time.

Yente truly was a terrifying prodigy.

Her development was quick, and her only flaw was that she did not have much time for improvement.

She could not reach the Acme Rank in a short time.

The Sect Leader of the Cloud Race, Fitzroy, expressed his thoughts.

“If Fitzroy entered the Acme Rank, in addition to our background, we can definitely rise again.

Since we currently don’t have an Acmean to act as a person in control, we can only compromise.” Looking at the many elders, he asked, “What do you think?” Hearing that, the elders fell into silence.

Fitzroy continued, “It’s regarding the life-or-death of the race.

Please speak your thoughts.

Let's combine everyone's opinions." At this moment, one elder stood forward and asked, "Isn't it risky to put the race's hope on Yente? What if something happens to her during cultivation? Doesn't that mean we will never rise?" Fitzroy answered, "I've considered this before.

However, Yente is currently the only one who can most likely enter the Acme Path.

When putting hope on her, we need to work hard too, and try to enter the Aceme Rank.

Once an Acme Rank powerhouse appears in our race, we will rise once again.

When the mountain is sealed off, try to look for the Grand Patriarch." "since you have made up your mind, let's do as you say then." "Up until now, this is indeed a more stable idea." The many elders expressed their thoughts.

James was brought to rest.

After resting for a while, the disciples of the Cloud Race found him and brought him to the main hall again.

In the main hall, the Sect Leader of the Cloud Race, Fitzroy, was smiling as he said, "Mr.

Youri, we have finished discussing.

As you said, the Cloud Race can't protect the key.

In the past, even the lowly Bug Race challenged us.

After discussing, we decided to hand over the key to you on the premise that you get rid of the Bug Race outside." Hearing that made James frown.

How should he get rid of the Bug Race? If he were the real Doom Race's elder, he would not fear a mere Bug Race.

However, he was a fake.

If the Bug Race did not want to retreat and was determined to take down the Cloud Race, he would be helpless.

Now, he could only bet that the Bug Race feared the Doom Race.

He immediately responded, saying, "Sure.

No problem.

Give me the key.

Right after you give me the key, I will eradicate the Bug Race army."
According to his thought, it did not matter whether or not the Bug Race would fear him.

He only wanted the key.

If he obtained the key and the Bug Race refused to listen to him, he could just run away.

Based on his ability, it was easy for him to escape.

"Alright." Fitzroy did not doubt him.

The power of the Doom Race was peerless.

The living beings of other races were not worthy of cultivating the power of the Doom Race.

No matter how strong one's potential was, one could not cultivate the Chaos Power of the Doom Race.

The Chaos Power was the representative of the Doom Race.

Since Fitzroy did not doubt James, the elders of the Cloud Race present also did not suspect him.

"Come with me." Fitzroy made a gesture.

Then, he left the main hall with James and walked toward the back of the mountain.

At the back of the mountain, there was an independent tower.

The tower was tall and surrounded by mysterious formations.

The power of the formations was strong.

When James was near the formations, he could feel a frightening power.

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4033

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4033-Fitzroy stood before the formation outside the tower.

Then, he raised his hand, and mysterious sigils emerged in his palms before entering the formations.

After that, the formations opened.

With a wave, a white sigil appeared in the tower.

These sigils materialized continuously.

In the end, they formed a token.

The shape of the token was strange, and the token exuded a terrifying power.

Looking at the token in his hand, Fitzroy stared at it for a while, full of reluctance.

Then, he turned around and gave the token to James, who was pretending to be Yuri.

Yuri, the key is now yours.” James took it and pretended to look at it He had never seen the key before, so he had no idea what the key which opened the formations looked like.

He could only sense how magical the key was and the strong power contained in it.

It should not be fake.

He lightly nodded and put it away.

“Now, the Bug Race army is right outside.

I'll leave this matter to you.

At the same time, you need to announce that the Cloud Race is under the Dooms' protection from now on," said Fitzroy.

"Of course." James lightly nodded and said, "The Cloud Race is too involved.

How can the Ten Great Races watch the Cloud Race die?" With those words, Fitzroy was rest assured.

As long as the Ten Great Races did not attack the Cloud Race and give the Cloud Race time, the Cloud Race could definitely rise again.

"Please go ahead." Respectfully, Fitzroy made a gesture.

Meanwhile, James turned around and looked out of the entrance.

Seeing the Bug Race army outside, he felt fear.

He hoped the Bug Race feared the Doom Race and the elder of the Doom Race.

If the Bug Race did not care about that and was persistent in taking down the Cloud Race, he would have no choice but to run away.

Taking steps forward, he walked toward the entrance.

Then, his body flashed and appeared in the sky outside the entrance of the Cloud Race.

He looked at the Bug Race army below him.

"Everyone, please listen to me," spoke James, his voice loud and clear.

"The Cloud Race was once one of the Ten Great Races of the Greater Realms.

You should know that many peerless Human Race powerhouses are in the restricted area of the Cloud Race's back mountain.

Nothing can happen to the Cloud Race.

So, please leave.” When the powerhouses of the Bug Race heard that, their expressions immediately darkened.

To take down the Cloud Race, they had dispatched their entire army and put in a lot of effort.

They also used a large amount of materials.

For this battle, the Bug Race had put in hard work.

If they could not take down the Cloud Race, they would suffer from heavy losses.

“Mr.

Youri,” a voice spoke loudly.

Then, a living being appeared mid-air.

He had a tail of a bug but had the upper body of a human.

Seeing James, who was acting as Youri, he swore, “I promise that I will only take down the Cloud Race and not touch the seals of the formations.

Once we take over the Cloud Race, we will do our best to protect the formations and ensure nothing goes wrong.” When James heard that, his expression darkened.

“Why don’t you understand my words?” His expression was dark as Chaos Power emerged in this body.

The Chaos Power was like a tide, engulfing the Bug Race.

The moment the power emerged, the expression of the Bug Race’s powerhouses changed.

Instantly, all of them knelt in mid-air.

Humbly, they said, “We dare not go against you.

Please give us a chance.

We will retreat immediately.” It was only after hearing that did James withdraw the Chaos Power.

He thought, ‘Chaos Power is really useful.’

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4034

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4034-As the elder of the Doom Race, Youri had high prestige in the Greater Realms.

Thus, the Bug Race dared not offend him.

Offending him was equivalent to offending the Dooms.

If the Dooms became angry, the Bug Race would be wiped out easily.

Nevertheless, James was able to succeed in acting as Youri because of the Chaos Power.

His Chaos Power was not weak.

It was powerful.

Even though he had not reached the Acme Rank, he had surpassed the Nine-Power Macrocosm Ancestral God Rank.

With such strong Chaos Power and his identity, no living being suspected him.

“Scram,” James’ expression darkened as he said coldly, “Withing ten Epochs, the Bug Race can’t appear in the Cloud Race’s territory.

After ten Epochs, you may do whatever you want.” “Yes.” The powerhouse of the Bug Race was terrified.

At once, he ordered, “Retreat.” With the order, the Bug Race army left.

Meanwhile, Fitzroy had a heavy expression.

Ten Epochs was too short.

Why did Youri say ten Epochs? Fitzroy could not understand, nor could the rest of the Cloud Race.

Although they could not understand James, they were safe for now.

Even though they only had ten Epochs, which was not long, it was enough for the Cloud Race to make arrangements.

Turning around, James looked at the powerhouses of the Cloud Race at the entrance far away.

He dully said, "The Bug Race army has retreated.

I will return to my race now.

Until we meet again." After that, he left.

Now that the key was with him, he needed to run as quickly as he could.

If his identity was exposed, not only would the key be gone, but he would also lose his life.

James quickly left the area the Cloud Race was in.

After leaving, he concealed his aura and scanned his surroundings.

When he realized there were not any living being following him, he changed his appearance and recovered his own appearance.

"I have one key now.

There are nine keys left," mumbled James.

He did not expect to obtain a key so quickly and easily.

He came to the Greater Realms to cause trouble in the Greater Realms by using his own identity after using his Chaos Power to enter the Doom Race and become a powerhouse of the Doom Race.

However, after learning about Soren's existence, he realized his current ability was not enough to cause trouble in the Greater Realms.

If he could let out Soren, he would no longer need to bother about everything.

Soren's ability was enough to make the Human Race rise in the Greater Realms.

Nevertheless, gathering ten keys was more difficult than causing trouble in the Greater Realms.

James decided to mess up the situation of the Greater Realms while thinking of ways to find the keys.

For now, he dared not go to the Doom Race.

Since the Cloud Race had lost its key, the news should spread quickly.

By then, other races would question the Doom Race.

If he went there, he might be exposed and find himself in a predicament.

James also had no idea where to look for Thea.

The Greater Realms were huge.

Even if he was very strong, his Divine Sense could only cover one of the Greater Realms.

He did not know where to go.

He could only look for an unoccupied spiritual mountain with enough Spiritual Energy and stay there temporarily.

The Empyrean Spiritual Energy of the Greater Realms was different from the world he was in.

As he had lived in the Dark World for some time, he was tainted by the power of the Dark World.

Thus, his power was impure.

Staying there, he used the power of heaven and earth of the Cloud Realm to clean his body and cultivate his physical power again.

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4035

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4035- After cultivating in seclusion for some time, James perfected his power.

Somewhere in the Cloud Realm, on the top of a mountain, James stood up, stretched his back, and loosened his muscles.

He could sense the physical power in his body.

Happiness could be seen on his face as he mumbled, "After baptizing, my physical power has become stronger." "Now, I need to think of a way to enter the Seventh Stage Omniscience Path.

If I reach the Seventh Stage with the addition of my Chaos Power, even if I can't be unrivaled in the Greater Realms, only a few people can defeat me." "In the Greater Realms, a few powerhouses of the Human Race were left behind.

These powerhouses of the Human Race formed the Heaven-Eradicating Sect.

My strength alone isn't enough in the Greater Realms.

I need to find the person in charge of the Heaven -Eradicating Sect and form an alliance with them.

In this way, I can do things easily in the Greater Realms." James was pondering about what he should do next.

After thinking for a while, he had a plan.

The plan was to look for the Heaven-Eradicating Sect.

He only needed to find a person from the sect to contact them.

However, many races were besieging the Heaven -Eradicating Sect in the Greater Realms.

Many powerhouses of the Heaven- Eradicating Sect were wanted targets.

Thus, the members of the Heaven -Eradicating Sect were cautious.

They would not trust any race's living beings.

Besides, they also hid in the dark.

They had never appeared in public before.

It was difficult for James to find the Heaven-Eradicating Sect.

If he could find the sect easily, the other races could find them too.

If so, the Heaven-Eradicating Sect would have long been wiped out.

They would not have survived until now.

After James had a plan, he left the spiritual mountain.

He began to walk around the Cloud Realm.

The Cloud Realm was one of the Greater Realms.

This realm was flourishing with numerous races.

The Cloud Race used to be the most powerful, but the Cloud Race was no longer the leader of the Cloud Realm.

James walked around several main cities of the Cloud Realm, enquiring about the Heaven-Eradicating Sect.

He had been searching in the Cloud Realm for thousands of years, but he could not find out any information about the Heaven- Eradicating Sect.

Since there was no information in the Cloud Realm, he left the Cloud Realm and headed to other realms.

He traveled these realms to enquire about the Heaven -Eradicating Sect.

While enquiring, James carried out his cultivation.

He was cultivating the Omniscience Path and the Chaos Power.

Even though he was near the Acme Rank, he could not reach it.

Time was passing.

Unknowingly, it had been thirty million years since James came to the Greater Realms.

During that time, he had traveled to numerous realms.

Thirty million years later, he came to a place named the Soul Realm.

The Soul Realm was one of the Ten Great Realms of the Greater Realms.

In this realm, there was a powerful race, the Soul Race.

The Soul Race was one of the Ten Great Races.

They were also one of the races that wiped out the Human Race.

The Soul Race's ability was not something the Cloud Race could compare.

According to the news spreading in the outside world right now, at least ten Acmeans were in the Soul Race.

In addition, those were the ones known to the world.

No one knew how many powerhouses hid in the dark.

When James came to Soul Realm, he hid his aura and soul.

Now, no one could tell he was human.

In the Hopeless City of the Soul Realm, a man in a black robe was walking on the road outside the city.

The man was James.

When James arrived at the entrance of the city, he saw a notice on the entrance, and several living beings gathered there.

"This is a warrant sent out by the Soul Race.

A while ago, a prodigy of the Soul Race went out for cultivation and was targeted by the Heaven -Eradicating Sect.

The Heaven-Eradicating Sect has killed him, angering the Soul Race." "Now, the Soul Race has sent out patrols to investigate.

If the Heaven -Eradicating Sect has been found, they will be killed all at once." At the entrance of the city, the living beings gathered and discussed.

Upon hearing their discussion, James became interested.

After millions of years, he finally obtained information about the Heaven -Eradicating Sect.

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4036

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4036-They were having a discussion.

James also learned about the situation.

It turned out that the Heaven -Eradicating Sect killed the prodigy of the Soul Race who went out for cultivation, which angered the Soul Race.

So, the Soul Race wanted to go after the people of the Heaven -Eradicating Sect who killed the prodigy.

James walked over to the entrance of the city.

Several notices were on the wall.

There was a portrait of someone.

The person in the portrait was a young man.

He looked rough with killing intent.

James found out that the person was Bruce Jensen.

Bruce was a living being of the Human Race.

He was one of the leaders of the Heaven-Eradicating Sect and was strong.

He had also reached the peak of the Ninth- Power Macrocosm Ancestral Rank, only a step away from the Acme Rank.

In countless years, he traveled in the dark and killed many prodigies of the great races.

Among the races, numerous young prodigies had been killed by him.

He was the main target of many great races.

On the notice, only Bruce was wanted.

The Soul Race had also promised to give a generous reward to whoever provided information once it was confirmed.

The notice board only had these pieces of information.

As for when and where did Bruce kill the prodigy of the Soul Race, it was not written on the notice.

Looking at the notice, James fell into deep thought.

It was a chance for him to reach the Heaven-Eradicating Sect.

However, he needed to know when and where Bruce killed the prodigy of the Soul Race.

If he searched around, he might get some hints, so he entered the city.

Hopeless City was lively.

The place was one of the powerful cities of the Soul Realm.

Most of the living beings in the city were a part of the Soul Race, but there were other races too.

In fact, there was also the Human Race.

However, the status of the Human Race in the Greater Realm was low, and they were not powerful.

Thus, they were oppressed.

The status of the Human Race in the Greater Realms was equivalent to a rat of the Earth's twenty-first century.

They could only hide in the dark.

In Hopeless City, James began to enquire.

He learned that Bruce had killed a core prodigy disciple of the Soul Race named Saturio Hadeucus.

He had a high status in the Soul Race and was a part of the Soul Race's royal family.

Saturio's grandfather was an elder of the Soul Race, a core elder at that.

He was powerful and an Acmean.

Even in the Greater Realms, he had a right to speak.

When Saturio's grandfather, Tobias Hedecus, learned that his grandson was killed by the Heaven-Eradicating Sect, he was instantly filled with rage.

He sent out many powerhouses of the Soul Race to kill the Heaven - Eradicating Sect within the Greater Realms.

For thousands of years, it was the first time a part of the Heaven- Eradicating Sect was eliminated.

Numerous disciples of the Heaven -Eradicating Sect were killed by the Soul Race.

James also found out that the Soul Race sent out invitations to other races to gather in the Soul Race and discuss a plan to completely wipe out the Heaven-Eradicating Sect.

The meeting would be held in three months.

It was almost time for the meeting.

Many races of the Greater Realms sent out their elders to the Soul Realm.

When James learned about all this, his expression became heavy.

If several races formed an alliance and sieged the Heaven- Eradicating Sect, the status of the Heaven -Eradicating Sect in the Greater Realms would no longer be stable.

James fell into deep thought.

'T can't let the races ally and fight against the Heaven -Eradicating Sect.

I have to ruin this plan.

Even if I can't ruin it, I have to know the details of the plan.' James was coming up with countermeasures.

With his current ability, he could not ruin the meeting brought up by the Soul Race.

The only thing he could do now was to get into the meeting and get an understanding of the plan.

Then, he could find the members of the Heaven-Eradicating Sect and let them prepare in advance.

However, how should he attend the meeting? James did not know what to do.

The only idea he thought of was to pretend to be a living being of the Doom Race.

Nevertheless, he dared not do that right now.

An elder of the Doom Race would definitely be at the meeting.

If he pretended to be someone of the Doom Race, he would be exposed.

“Sigh.

This is giving me a headache.”

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4037

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4037-He decided to have a short stay in the city.

He found an inn in the center of the city and settled down there.

At night, James sat on the bed with his legs crossed.

He was focusing on cultivating and comprehending.

At this moment, he sensed an unusual fluctuation of aura.

Immediately, he opened his eyes and saw a shadow flashing past the window.

The speed of the shadow was quick.

It disappeared in the blink of an eye.

James' body also disappeared from the spot as he quickly went after the shadow.

He went out of Hopeless City and entered an uneven mountain range.

The mountain range was vast.

After chasing the shadow for along time, he heard the sound of an intense battle.

Dozens of armed bodyguards were attacking a person wearing black clothing.

The person was wearing a black robe and had a black mask on his face.

James could sense the aura of his soul.

He was a part of the Human Race.

On the other hand, the dozens of bodyguards were from the Soul Race.

The black-clothed man wearing a black mask was strong.

He had reached the Seventh – Power Macrocosm Ancestral God Rank, but the bodyguards were also in the same cultivation rank.

When James was about to reach him and distinguish that the person exuded the aura of a human's soul, he sensed bodyguards coming.

From afar, thousands of bodyguards were rushing over.

All of them were powerful and had reached the Seventh- Power Macrocosm Ancestral God Rank.

“Take him down.

I want him alive!” A furious roar sounded.

The person who issued the order was an elder.

He wore a grey robe, his face full of anger.

James, hiding in the dark, instantly sensed his cultivation rank.

The elder was in the Quasi Acme Rank.

He had surpassed the Ninth -Power Macrocosm Ancestral God Rank.

With the appearance of the bodyguards, the human in black clothing immediately fell into a predicament and suffered injuries.

Meanwhile, James had a heavy expression on his face.

With his current ability, he was not a match for a Quasi Acmean.

However, he could not stand back and watch someone of the same race get taken away.

Perhaps the man was a living being of the Heaven-Eradicating Sect and entered Hopeless City to obtain information.

At this time, thousands of Soul Race's warriors sieged the man in black.

A formation appeared, and the man in black was immediately trapped in the formation.

His body was engulfed in brilliant light.

The light engulfed him tightly.

He tried his best to struggle but could not break free from the formation.

Upon facing the army of the Soul Race, he could only resist for a while.

Hiding in the dark, James took in a deep breath.

Then, the Malevolent Sword appeared in his hand.

With the Malevolent Sword in his hand, he activated the Chaos Power in the dark.

Swoosh! He waved his hand, and Sword Light emerged from the Malevolent Sword.

The Sword Light slashed toward the front, and wherever it passed, it instantly killed the bodyguards of the Soul Race.

At this moment, James arrived before the man in black and got rid of the seals on his body.

Pulling him, James turned and left.

The army chased after them.

“Get back here,” ordered the Quasi Acmean of the Soul Race immediately.

“City Lord, why aren’t we going after them?” a bodyguard asked, confused.

The Quasi Acmean stared in the direction James left with a heavy expression.

“It was the Chaos Power.

I didn’t expect the Doom Race to ally with the Human Race.

I need to report this to the Patriarch as soon as possible,” mumbled the Quasi Acmean before ordering, “Retreat.”

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4038

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4038-He did not know the person’s identity, but being in a place away from home and meeting someone from the Human Race in trouble, how could he not help the person? James quickly left.

After he was far away from the area and made sure no living beings were after them, he stopped.

On an empty spot in a mountain range, James put down the person in black clothing.

The person had suffered injuries, but they were not severe.

Vigilantly, he looked at James as a hoarse voice sounded from beneath the mask.

“Who are you? Why did you save me?” The Doom Race was one of the most powerful races in the Greater Realms.

The Chaos Power of the Doom Race was unique, and almost all powerhouses knew that.

Since James used the Chaos Power, the person in black clothing also knew he was from the Doom Race.

He was confused.

Why would a living being of the Doom Race save him? James also stared at the human wearing a black robe with a black mask and asked, "What about you? Who are you? Why did you go to Hopeless City? Why was the Soul Race pursuing you?" Regarding these, the person in black did not hide from James.

"We received news that the Soul Race sent out invitations and invited many races to gather at their territory.

They're planning to devise a plan to deal with the Human Race.

I went to Hopeless City to enquire about this, but I was caught." "Are you a part of the Heaven-Eradicating Sect?" James glanced at him.

The person in black nodded and answered, "Yes." Even if James was a living being of the Doom Race, he saved him.

Thus, he did not deny that he was from the Heaven -Eradicating Sect.

The person in black stared at James and wanted to see through the latter.

Unfortunately, he could not tell his cultivation rank and aura.

"Why did you save me?" he asked once again.

James responded dully, "Because I'm also from the Human Race." "No way." The person in black shook his head and said, "You used Chaos Power.

It's the unique power of the Doom Race.

So, how could a human exert it?" "Hah." James lightly smiled and said, "Why can't a human cultivate Chaos Power? I'll get straight to the point.

I'm looking for the senior authorities of the Heaven -Eradicating Sect.

Bring me there.

I have something to discuss." "Haha." This time, the person in black laughed.

“Why are you laughing?” James could not help but ask.

“Do you think I’m dumb?” The person in black looked at James and said, “Are you putting up an act with the Soul Race? The Soul Race goes after me, then you appear and save me, gaining my trust.

If I take you to meet the Leader, you will send out information.

By then, the Soul Race army will come to attack us.” James pinched his nose.

Since he used Chaos Power, it was hard to earn people’s trust.

He explained, “I’m from the Primordial Realm.

I’m a human from there, and I came to the Greater Realms to assist the human powerhouses of the Greater Realms.” “Kill me,” said the person in black directly.

He did not believe James.

James said he was from the Primordial Realm, but everyone knew that the Primordial Realm had been sealed off long ago.

It could only be opened by allying with the Ten Great Races.

No matter how powerful one was, one could not break the seal.

Since the person in black did not believe James, he did not know what to do.

Looking at the person in black, he asked, “What should I do for you to believe me?” “No matter what you do, I won’t believe you.

You can either kill me or let me go.” The person in black was from the Human Race.

The status of the Human Race in the Greater Realms was extremely low.

For countless years, they had been oppressed.

Thus, he did not bother about life and death.

“you can leave.” James waved his hand slightly.

No matter what he said, the person in black would not believe him.

It was because the Human Race of the Greater Realms was cautious.

If they trust other races easily, they would have been killed numerous times.

“Are you really letting me go?” The person in black was slightly taken aback.

“Yeah.

Did you think I would kill you? Before you leave, can you take off your mask and let me see your appearance? Also, what’s your name?” The person in black hesitated.

Then, he removed the mask.

A beautiful face appeared in James’ sight.

When he saw it, James was stunned.

He could not help but ask, “You’re a lady?”

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4039-Now, she spoke in her original voice, and it sounded pleasant.

“What’s your name?” James asked.

“Dahlia.” The lady told James her name directly.

“Tf there isn’t anything else, can I leave?” She looked at James and probed.

“Go ahead.” James slightly waved his hand.

Without any hesitation, Dahlia turned and left.

However, the moment she turned, James flicked his finger and an invisible sigil flew at her, secretly landing on her back.

Dahlia did not sense it.

After leaving James, she quickly left the area.

She was afraid of James following her, so she was careful.

She stayed alert of her surroundings and kept detouring.

She detoured for several days, and finally, she arrived at a place that lacked Empyrean Spiritual Energy.

There was a small village which had many villagers.

The villagers dressed plainly and did not exude any aura.

Based on their appearance, they looked like average farmers without any cultivation.

Dahlia arrived at the entrance of the village, and many people instantly appeared.

“Dahlia, how was it?” “Are you alright?” Many villagers asked with concern.

“Let’s talk about this in the village,” said Dahlia.

Dahlia entered the village with the villagers.

At the center of the village, there was a simple cottage.

In the cottage, an elderly was sitting.

The old man dressed plainly and was smoking tobacco.

“Greetings.” Dahlia walked over and greeted the old man respectfully.

“Mm_-hm.” The old man nodded slightly and pointed at the chair next to him, saying, “Please sit.” Dahlia sat down and said, “I entered Hopeless City and learned some pieces of information.

The Soul Race has indeed sent out invitations and invited many races to come to the Soul Race for a meeting.

In my opinion, once they finished discussing, they would attack us.

From now on, we need to be more careful.

Unless necessary, we should not make a move.” Dahlia told the old man everything she found out.

“Also, I was exposed and pursued by the Soul Race.

A living being of the Doom Race saved me and let me go,” mentioned Dahlia.

“What?” The man immediately stood up as his expression changed.

“We can’t stay here anymore.

Order the others to leave the Soul Realm.

Find an unknown realm and hide there temporarily,” ordered the elderly man.

“I’m afraid it’s too late.” At this moment, a voice came.

Then a shadow appeared.

It was James.

James had left a sigil on Dahlia.

With Dahlia’s cultivation base, she could not sense the sigil, so he followed it and came here.

“You, » At once, Dahlia stood up and pointed at James.

2 Everyone else in the cottage pulled out their weapons.

The elderly man was also about the attack James.

“Hold on.

What are you doing?” James waved his hands in time and said, “Please let me explain myself before attacking me, alright?” Everyone in the cottage stared at James.

At this time, the entire cottage was surrounded, and the village’s hidden formation was activated.

“Did you follow me here?” Dahlia’s face turned pale as she glared at James.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4040-All of them dressed like farmers, but at this moment, they all showed their weapons and exuded powerful auras.

Even the weakest person had reached the Fifth- Power Macrocosm Ancestral God Rank.

Looking at the pale Dahlia, James smiled and said, "If I didn't Follow you, how could I find this place?" "attack!" The elderly man immediately issued an order.

As soon as the man said that, everyone in the cottage attacked James.

"Wait..." James immediately screamed.

His shout was like thunder.

It shocked everyone in the cottage.

The people outside the cottage also dared not act recklessly.

James' aura was too powerful, making them terrified.

James activated his power and exuded his aura.

His aura stunned everyone in the cottage and the entire village.

James stared at the elderly man man.

The elderly man wore a grey robe with dust on it.

It appeared as though he was in the field moments ago.

"Are you the person in charge of this village?" James asked.

The man kept his gaze fixated on James as he answered, "Yes." James said, "I don't have any evil intentions.

Although I've cultivated the Chaos Power, I'm a human.

I'm from the Primordial Realm." "Nonsense." At once, the old man's face darkened.

“The Primordial Realm has long been sealed off.

No living beings of the Greater Realms can go to the Primordial Realm, and the living beings of the Primordial Realm can't come to the Greater Realms.”

“You're right,” James continued, “I don't know which era you were born in, but if you're a human from the Primordial Realm Era, you should have heard of Madam Thea.” “I have indeed heard of her.” The man nodded and said, “Madam Thea was highly respected in the Human Race.

In the era she existed, I was only a weak human.

I hadn't even entered the Sage Rank.

As I was too weak, I escaped death.” “Thea is my wife,” said James.

The man reprimanded, “I'm warning you.

Don't humiliate Madam Thea.

She died in battle during the Primordial Realm Era.

Please respect her.” Patiently, James explained, “She did not die.

She's alive.

Among the fifty Acmeans of the Human Race, only she survived.

Other Acmeans have turned into Universe Seeds, which Thea scattered in the Chaos, urging the birth of a new universe.

“As the Primordial Realm has been tainted by evil power, it's no longer suitable for humans to cultivate there.

Thus, they needed a new realm.” James told them everything about the new realm.

He even mentioned Thea's plan.

“The new world is about to be born.

It's time for the humans to counterattack.

I left a secret passage in the Primordial Realm Era to come to the Greater Realms.

The reason I came to the Greater Realms was to join the Doom Race and find a way to become a part of the senior authorities in the Doom Race.

I wanted to use my identity to wreak havoc in the Greater Realms so that the races of the Greater Realms could not deal with Thea of the Primordial Realm.” James told them everything.

However, no matter what he said, none of the humans present believed him.

The Primordial Realm was gone and sealed off.

That was the truth.

Thus, they did not believe everything James said.

Seeing that they still did not believe him, James activated the Omniscience Path and entered the Sixth Stage Omniscience Path.

His body exuded a white light, and his aura was powerful.

The aura formed a powerful field, scaring everyone in the cottage.

“The Sixth Stage of the Omniscience Path?” ; The elderly man was shocked as he said, “How can this be? The cultivation path of the Human Race has been cut off.

How is this possible?” 3 James responded, “Nothing is impossible.

To open the cultivation path and activate the vitality and potential again, Thea put in a lot of effort.”
