The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4072-James' swordsmanship was very powerful.

His Sword Path contained countless Sword Moves.

Swoosh!

A dazzling Sword Energy morphed out and shot toward Tobias.

Tobias calmly hovered in the air and sneered, "Hmph."

He raised his hand, and a strange pattern appeared from his palm.

A vortex appeared in the pattern's center, and the Sword Energy was swallowed.

James' Sword Energy disappeared instantly.

'That's pretty amazing.'

James quickly backed away.

However, several powerhouses sprung at him.

Many Chaotic Treasures swung in his direction, unleashing terrifying forces.

At that moment, James urged his Karma Power and activated One for All.

After he activated the Supernatural Power, his Karma Power became strange and instantly neutralized all the Quasi Acmeans' attacks.

Despite having several Quasi Acmeans as opponents, James was still unscathed.

Tobias, who watched from a distance, was surprised.

"I can't believe you even cultivated Karma Power."

Tobias was an Acmean and could instantly identify James' Karma Power.

"But, you haven't mastered it yet."

Tobias struck again. He took a step forward and appeared in front of James. Then, he thrust his palm at James.

A terrifying palm print containing destructive force thrust toward James' body.

James wanted to use One for All to dispel Tobias' attack, but it seemed like his Supernatural Power had lost its effect.

After failing to neutralize Tobias' power, the palm print landed on his body, sending him flying.

However, he was not injured.

James immediately understood that his Supernatural Power was not ineffective. In fact, it was because his opponent was too strong. Thus, One for All could only neutralize a portion of Tobias' power, and the remaining power struck him. Fortunately, he had reached the Omniscience Path's Seventh Stage, and the impact did not cause him fatal damage.

"Is that all you have?"

James' confidence skyrocketed. He held the Malevolent Sword, his aura potent.

This time, James took the initiative to attack.

Tobias' expression darkened. James' Supernatural Power was extraordinary as it could neutralize any sort of power. It would definitely become a threat to the Soul Race and the other races.

"He has to die."

Tobias issued an order, shouting coldly, "Activate the formation!"

With his command, the Hopeless City's protective formation was immediately activated.

James felt a strong spatial pressure crushing down on him. His chest felt uncomfortable, and his power showed signs of consolidating.

At the same time, his speed was drastically slowed.

After the formation was activated, James was struck about seven to eight times.

However, James' physical strength was at the Quasi Acme Rank, so even an Acmean would not cause him fatal damage. They could only cause internal injuries with trauma.

"Get lost!"

James's face darkened, and he slashed out the Malevolent Sword. Several Sword Energies materialized, forcing the Quasi Acmeans to retreat from him.

Meanwhile, Tobias summoned one of his weapons.

A strange scene appeared in the picture, and a terrifying suction force materialized from it.

James could feel his body being pulled into the picture. He resisted with all his strength and hurriedly retreated.

The picture's suction force and the spatial pressure from the formation caused James' movement speed to decrease significantly.

Suddenly, the formation unleashed various attacks.

A few lightning streaks appeared out of thin air and mercilessly shot at James.

The Soul Race had set up the large protective formation to be able to exhaust even a Quasi Acmean to death.

James' physical strength was at the Quasi Acme Rank, but he was struggling to resist the formation's attacks.

Shortly after the formation began attacking him, the lightning scorched his skin and slashed his flesh open.
