The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4076-It was normal for relatively small worlds to be born in the Chaos.

Despite being a turbulent area of the Chaos, small worlds would still form around the area. However, they would be swept away by the violent forces.

Even Nine-Power Macrocosm Ancestral Gods had to be careful in this area. Otherwise, one would easily be dragged away and sucked into these black holes.

However, the Heaven-Eradicating Sect had been rooted in this place for a long time. They were familiar with the environment and had already paved a safe passage to travel through the area.

Daegus led James and the other humans through the Chaos. Along the way, James saw many broken universes.

These universes had already withered long ago and no longer had Empyrean Spiritual Energy. Thus, they were dead silent.

After traveling for a long time, the harsh environment subsided and became more stable.

Finally, they entered a small universe.

The universe also had several planets but was on a smaller scale. James glanced around and roughly estimated it to be about the size of the Milky Way or maybe slightly bigger.

The group traveled through the small universe and appeared on a planet.

The planet's Empyrean Spiritual Energy was scarce compared to that of a major world like the Soul Realm.

However, it was much stronger than the universe where James had come from.

The planet was full of human buildings.

The majority of the living beings on the planet were humans.

Daegus introduced James to the planet, saying, "This is the Heaven-Eradicating Sect's headquarters, also the home to the Greater Realm's humans. At present, about one billion humans are living on this planet. Most of us are cultivators, but the overall cultivation base here is very low."

"I see." James nodded lightly.

Daegus led James to a spiritual mountain, which was located in the center of the planet. It was their capital and was called Mount Heaven.

James was brought to the main hall of one of the main peaks and given a seat for honorable guests.

Not long after he sat down, a middle-aged man walked into the main hall. He looked about forty years old and was dressed in a blue robe. He greeted everyone in the hall with a smile.

"Sect Leader." Daegus immediately stood up.

The others followed suit and greeted the man simultaneously, "Sect Leader."

The man gently waved his hand and said smilingly, "Don't be so formal. Everyone, take your seats."

James' gaze fixated on the man everyone was addressed as Sect Leader.

From his Divine Sense, he learned the Heaven-Eradicating Sect's Leader was also a Quasi Acmean, similar to what he had suspected before.

"Who's this young man?"

The man sat down in the highest seat of the council and looked at James warily.

Daegus immediately introduced James to him, "His name is James Caden. He's from the Primordial Realm and came to the Greater Realms to..."

He explained James' origin and James' purpose for coming to the Greater Realms in detail.

Hearing this, the Sect Leader was overjoyed. He stepped down from the highest seat and approached James.

James quickly stood up.

The Sect Leader held James' hand and said excitedly, "After waiting so long, someone from the Primordial Realm has finally come to us. The Human Race hopes to rise again if Madam Thea is still alive."

Daegus made another introduction, "James, this is our Sect Leader. His name is Dempsey Wojciech. He's known as Mr. Dempsey outside."
