The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4078-Dempsey had existed since the Primordial Realm Era. Back then, the Human Race was thriving and had many ancestral books.

Thus, Dempsey was equipped with a lot of knowledge.

For James to successfully mix into the Doom Race, he would have to hide his human aura, obtain a copy of the Doom Race's aura, and transplant it onto his soul aura.

James was also well-informed but had never heard of these miraculous herbs.

He asked, "Where can I find the Herb of Reclusion and Soulblue?"

Dempsey shook his head lightly and said, "I'm not sure. Although they're only Macrocosm Herbs, they're relatively rare. Perhaps only a few major families will grow them in their plantations."

Daegus, who was beside them, said, "How about I inform all our intelligence personnel throughout the Greater Realms to inquire about these two Emyrean herbs? If any of them can provide us with intel about it, we can devise a plan to obtain them."

James nodded lightly and said, "Alright. In our current circumstances, it's the best way to go."

"By the way, Mr. Dempsey, please look at Bruce."

Daegus immediately let out Bruce from his storage treasure.

Bruce lay down on the ground weakly and was unconscious.

Dempsey walked over, squatted down, and checked on Bruce's injuries.

His expression gradually became solemn.

After a while, he sighed.

Everyone in the hall immediately knew the results.

Dahlia was unwilling to give up yet and asked, "Is there really nothing you can do, Mr. Dempsey?"

Dempsey shook his head and said, "He exhausted almost all his bloodline power and Soul Power. There's only a little bit left lingering in his body. He's only alive because of his strong resolve to live. Unfortunately, there's nothing I can do to save him. Although he might be able to persist a little longer, he'll be a crippled man and will spend his remaining time in bed."

Bruce paid a hefty price to try and save his friends.

As a result, he was crippled.

James stood aside and did not say anything until Dempsey finished speaking. He stepped forward and said, "Let me examine him."

Everyone in the hall stared at James. They already learned of James' origin and strength. Although the human's cultivation path was suppressed, he could step into the Omniscience Path's Seventh Stage. He was definitely a very extraordinary person.

"James, please save him."

Dahlia looked at him pleadingly.

James was Bruce's only hope.

If even James could not save Bruce, then there was nothing else that could save him.

James nodded lightly in response.

James walked over, squatted down, and examined Bruce's injuries.

After the examination, he gained a better picture of his injuries. Bruce's vitality was feeble, and his bloodline power was extremely weak. He was even more vulnerable than a mortal.

His soul was also frail and was on the verge of dissipating.

At the same time, his body was covered in wounds, and his bones were inflicted with Heavenly Path Power.

He was already one foot in his grave.

Seeing James stop the examination, Dempsey asked, "How is it? Can you save him?"

James did not respond. He raised his hand and urged his Life Path's Power.

The majestic Life Power formed into a white light and poured down on Bruce.

However, James' Life Power had no effect on Bruce.

Bruce's body was already at its limits, and even the Life Path's Power could not save him.

Seeing this, James frowned.

Then, he summoned the Time Capsule.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4079-He separated the Time Capsule into Crucifier and Exalter.

James put away Exalter, leaving Crucifier hovering in the air.

Bruce's body floated into the air before James.

James placed Crucifier into several of Bruce's acupoints.

Then, he urged his strength to restore Bruce's vitality.

The process lasted for several days.

A few days later, James finally put away Crucifier.

Bruce's face regained its ruddiness, and he seemed to be in a better mental state. He struggled to get up and looked at James with gratitude. He said, "Thank you."

James waved his hand and said, "The Forbidden Art you've used is terrifying. I only managed to heal your internal injuries and temporarily sustain the vitality in your body. I couldn't completely heal you. You'll be able to live a few more Epochs if you don't use your energy. If you forcefully try to use your power, your body and soul won't be able to bear it, and you will die instantly."

"That's enough for me."

Bruce was thankful for the time he had left.

He was so close to death. If James did not help, he would not have survived. Even if he were to be able to last a little longer, he would be bedridden.

At least now he would be able to live normally.

James said encouragingly, "You might be able to recover if you find some rare Empyrean herbs to help your condition."

He was not saying words of comfort.

If the Space Race's Tree of Life were to bear fruits again, it would definitely improve Bruce's condition with its abundant power.

Dahlia immediately thought of the Fruit of Life and asked, "Can the Space Race's Fruit of Life cure him?"

James nodded, saying, "Even if it can't completely heal him, it will greatly benefit him."

Dahlia was overjoyed. She immediately said, "I'll head to the Space Race to ask them how long it takes for the Tree of Life to bear fruit."

James waved his hand lightly and said, "Go ahead."

Dahlia bid farewell to Dempsey and left hurriedly.

Dempsey looked at James and said, "You can stay here for now, James. If we obtain any news about the herbs, I'll inform you immediately, and we can think of a way to obtain them."

"Alright." James nodded.

For now, all he could do was wait.

James temporarily stayed on Mount Heaven, the headquarters of the Heaven-Eradicating Sect.

The Heaven-Eradicating Sect knew about James' deeds, and even Dempsey showed him great respect.

Dempsey arranged a spiritual mountain for him and allocated many maids to handle his daily needs.

However, James dispersed all of the beautiful maids.

He was already used to being alone and did not like being taken care of.

The spiritual mountain where James lived was close to Mount Heaven's main peak. It was called Mount Behemoth and was where the Emyrean Spiritual Energy was the most abundant.

At the back side of Mount Mehemoth was a waterfall.

James sat on a boulder before the waterfall and began planning for his next step.

He finally made it to the Heaven-Eradicating Sect's headquarters. Now as long as he could get the Herb of Reclusion and Soulblue, he could disguise himself as a Doom.

Then, he could infiltrate the Doods and start a conflict between the Doods and the other races.

Finally, he was able to get his main mission started.

Naturally, he needed the help of the Heaven-Eradicating Sect.

At the same time, he would need to be strong enough. He planned to enter the Doom Race, obtain their cultivation method, and continue improving his Chaos Power.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4080-His mission to cause chaos in the Greater Realms was going to be a long one.

It would take a long time to prepare for everything.

At the same time, it would be very risky. If the Heaven- Eradicating Sect helped him, many of them would be sacrificed.

However, the Heaven-Eradicating Sect's members were willing to take the risk.

Throughout the years, their strength disparity with the Ten Great Races had been vast. Many of their comrades had died, but they still continued to fight bravely against the other races.

James sat down and fell into thought, pondering about the future problems that would arise.

He had a lot of things to get done.

The most important one was to find Thea.

Only by finding Thea's reincarnation could he learn more about the universe he was from. Then, they could unite to avenge the Human Race and lead them to rise above the others in the Greater Realms.

James sat in a lotus position on the back mountain of Mount Behemoth for many years.

Thirty thousand years later, a beautiful woman suddenly approached him.

She wore a white dress and emitted a very glamorous aura.

"James."

Her pleasant voice resounded.

James was cultivating but was suddenly interrupted by her voice. He opened his eyes and looked at Dahlia. He jumped off the boulder, walked toward her, and asked, "What's wrong? Is there any news about the herbs?"

Dahlia nodded and said, "Yeah. Mr. Dempsey wanted me to inform you."

"Alright. Let's go." James nodded.

Then, the two left Mount Behemoth.

Many senior officials of the Heaven-Eradicating Sect gathered in the main peak's hall.

Dempsey sat in the highest seat, and sitting beside him was Daegus. There were also a few people James had seen before but were unfamiliar with.

"Mr. Dempsey."

James clasped his fists together and greeted him.

Dempsey immediately got up, walked down from his seat, and said, "Don't be so formal with me! From now onward, you're the Heaven-Eradicating Sect's Leader. The humans of the Greater Realm will obey your orders. I believe the Human Race will definitely usher in a bright future under your leadership."

James hurriedly waved his hand and said, "I'm not worthy of being the Sect Leader. I'm a man that only knows how to cultivate and fight. You should continue leading the Heaven- Eradicating Sect."

James did not want to be the Sect Leader.

He was going to leave to infiltrate the Doom Race.

Thus, he could not stay in the headquarters to manage the Heaven-Eradicating Sect.

"I'll have to mix into the Dooks. The Heaven-Eradicating Sect will need a leader during this time. When the time comes, it'll make cooperation much more efficient."

With James' refusal, Dempsey no longer insisted.

He sat back in the highest seat.

James sat in the corner of the main hall and asked, "Did you acquire information about the herbs?"

Dempsey nodded and said, "Yeah. According to our intelligence personnel, one of the Ten Great Races will have an auction soon. They will be putting the Herb of Reclusion on auction."

"How long more till the auction?" asked James.

Dempsey replied, "The Angel Race will hold a huge auction, so they announced it in advance. Countless powerful Chaotic Treasures and rare Empyrean herbs will be on auction. I heard there will also be Acmean Treasures. The auction will take place in about three million years from now."
