The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4101-He knew that the Space Race was now a weak race, so weak in fact their presence could not be felt in the Greater Realms. However, in the distant past, they were once the hegemony of the Greater Realms.

Leilani said, "The Space Race was once the hegemon of the Greater Realms. In those days, the Ten Great Races had not risen yet, so the Space Race could probably overwhelm the combined strength of the Ten Great Races."

Hearing this, James asked, confused, "Is the Desolate Grand Canyon related to the Space Race?"

Leilani nodded slightly and said, "According to the historical records in my race's ancient texts, the fall of the Space Race is deeply tied to the battle at the Desolate Grand Canyon. However, I don't know much about the specifics."

Not even the Angel Race, one of the Ten Great Races, knew much about the Desolate Grand Canyon. They only roughly knew that this was related to the Space Race.

James continued asking, "In that case, why do you think there are now anomalies in the Desolate Grand Canyon?"

Leilani analyzed, saying, "There are many possibilities. One, there is an elixir that surpasses all others inside the canyon. The anomalies were brought about by the elixir's appearance. Two, there is a Divine Weapon that surpasses the Acme Rank inside. Three, during the battle in the distant past, a powerful figure fell there. However, he did not perish. Instead, he concealed himself. Now, the time has come for him to appear."

Leilani offered her opinion on the matter.

"However, these are only my hypotheses. I don't really know much about the specifics. Now, the Stone Race has sent its powerful figures to investigate the matter. I believe the truth will soon reveal itself."

James said, "Even if they found out something, I don't think they will announce it."

Leilani smiled and said, "According to my intelligence, the Patriarchs of some powerful races have already arrived at the Stone Race. Even my father has headed there. Under the pressure of all the other races, they will surely announce their findings. The moment my father learns of the truth, he will relay the information to me immediately."

Hearing this, James fell into deep thought. Judging by the situation, many incredible treasures had appeared in the Desolate Grand Canyon. Perhaps an elixir that surpassed everything or a Divine Weapon that surpassed the Acme Rank, or maybe both. They would be extremely enticing to any living being—even James. If he could obtain the elixir, he would be able to cross into the Omniscience Path's Eighth Stage or even the Ninth. The Divine Weapon would be extremely beneficial to him as well. If he could obtain it, his strength would greatly increase.

At his current strength, even though he could not defeat an Acmean, it would be difficult for an Acmean to defeat him as well. If he could obtain a Divine Weapon that surpassed the Acme Rank, his strength would substantially increase. By then, perhaps he could even injure an Acmean.

"Let's head to the Stone Race and wait for news there."

Leilani's voice interrupted James' thoughts.

James collected himself and looked at her, asking smilingly, "Are you extending me an invitation?"

"You don't want to?" Leilani looked at James.

"Of course I want to." James hurriedly nodded. After all, it would be nigh impossible to obtain accurate information from the Stone Race. However, things would be different with Leilani by his side.

"Do we wait here or head to the Stone Race?" James asked.

Leilani said, "The latter, of course. My father has already headed there. I will meet up with him there."

"Alright."

James did not object to this.

Then, they left this galaxy that was so close to the Desolate Galaxy and headed to the core planet in the Stone Realm.

At the same time, while they were heading to the Stone Race's headquarters, many powerful figures of the Stone Race appeared on the outskirts in the depths of the Desolate Grand Canyon. At that moment, they had stepped into a Superformation, and they all perished at the same time.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4102-In the main hall of the Stone Race's headquarters on a spiritual mountain, an armor-clad warrior hurriedly entered and knelt on one knee, reporting, "Patriarch, our exploration team that entered the canyon has been totally wiped out."

A middle-aged man was sitting on the throne. He was wearing a yellow robe, and he looked about forty years of age. He hurriedly stood up and asked in panic, "How can this be? There are powerful figures at the peak of the Quasi Acme Rank in the exploration team. How can they be wiped out in an instant by a formation?"

"The information is true, Patriarch!"

Zusman Stewart, the Patriarch of the Stone Race, sat down and waved slightly, saying, "Alright now, I understand. You are dismissed."

The warrior stood up and left.

There were also many other living beings in the main hall. They were the Patriarchs of the various races that learned about the anomalies. All of them were true Acmeans.

Zusman looked at them and said, "There you have it. My exploration team has been annihilated in an instant by a formation."

As he said that, he stood up and ordered, "Undo the seal on the Desolate Galaxy. From today onward, no member of the Stone Race is allowed to approach the Desolate Grand Canyon."

Immediately, a powerful figure stepped forward and asked, "Patriarch Stewart, rumors about the Desolate Grand Canyon are everywhere in the outside world. However, these are only rumors. The Desolate Grand Canyon rests inside the Stone Realm, the territory of the Stone Race.

Surely you must have a clearer understanding of the canyon than us? What exactly is going on here? Please offer us an explanation.”

“Indeed. Please offer us an explanation.”

Many spoke up. They wanted to know about the details.

Zusman, however, furrowed his eyebrows and sighed, saying, “To be honest with you, my race knows little about the specific details of the Desolate Grand Canyon. I only know that it’s related to the Space Race. In the distant past, the Space Race dominated the universe and the Ten Great Races. However, the battle in the canyon brought about the Space Race’s downfall. They became an insignificant race. That’s probably everything I know about the situation.”

What Zusman said was general knowledge among the others. They knew that the Stone Race must know more about this. However, they chose to remain silent.

Zusman beckoned and said, “Feel free to venture into the Desolate Grand Canyon. However, I must remind you that my exploration team was annihilated in an instant. None survived. So in the event that you encounter any danger inside, don’t say I didn’t warn you.”

Then, he turned to leave the main hall.

The Patriarchs of the other races were hesitant. Their expressions were cloudy, and their mind was on the Desolate Grand Canyon.

At that moment, James and Leilani were heading toward the Stone Race’s headquarters. Soon, they arrived at a core city of the Stone Race.

Immediately, Leilani made her way toward a spiritual mountain in the city.

The spiritual mountain was huge and about a few dozen light-years in width. There was an abundance of Heaven and Earth energy there, not to mention that it was protected by a powerful formation.

Upon arriving at the spiritual mountain, Leilani explained, "This is a camp of the Angel Race in the Stone Realm. My father's inside. Let's go meet him."

"Mhm." James nodded slightly, i

Under Leilani's guidance, James entered the spiritual mountain.

There were many magnificent buildings on the peak of the mountain

In the main hall of one of the buildings, Leilani walked in alongside James. A middle-aged man was sitting on the throne. He was wearing a white robe and looked only about thirty years of age.

He seemed to be deep in contemplation.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4103-"Father."

Leilani greeted her father.

The man was Jethro Amani, the Patriarch of the Angel Race and a true Acmean. His mastery of the Acme Rank was considerably high.

"You're here." Jethro glanced at Leilani before looking at James.

James could feel a mysterious power entering his body and scrutinizing him. Though he had concealed his aura in advance, he could not be sure if he could elude the scrutiny of an Acmean. He did not act recklessly and simply allowed Jethro to see through him. In just a moment, the power that entered his body dispersed.

Jethro remained silent. Seeing this, James breathed a sigh of relief.

Leilani introduced James to her father, "Father, he's Forty-nine, someone with a powerful physical body."

Jethro nodded slightly.

"What's the situation now, Father?" Leilani asked.

Jethro furrowed his eyebrows and said, 'The exploration team that the Stone Race sent into the Desolate Grand Canyon was trapped in a Formation and annihilated. Now, the Stone Race has removed the seal on the Desolate Galaxy. As for the history of the Desolate Grand Canyon, the Stone Race stated that their historical records are the same as ours.'

Hearing this, Leilani furrowed her eyebrows and asked, "What should we do then? Do we send our men into the Desolate Grand Canyon?"

Jethro was lost in thought. To his understanding, there were individuals at the peak of the Quasi Acme Rank among the exploration team. Yet, they were instantly annihilated in the Formation. Now, the Stone Race had removed the seal on the Desolate Galaxy and allowed passage to anyone who wished to enter. They must have known the danger inside. If he sent his men into the Desolate Grand Canyon, they would certainly meet their doom.

After some contemplation, Jethro waved his hand slightly and said, "There's no need to rush things at the moment. The situation in the Desolate Grand Canyon isn't clear, and danger lurks in the shadows. Sending our men inside haphazardly would only mean sending them to certain death."

Leilani requested, "Father, may I enter the Desolate Grand Canyon and investigate the place?"

Jethro immediately turned down her request, saying, 'The Desolate Grand Canyon is extremely dangerous. I can't let you risk your life for this.'

Leilani promised, "I'll be careful, Father. I won't enter the Desolate Grand Canyon. I will only investigate the surrounding area."

After some contemplation, Jethro said, "Since you insist, I will allow you to go. Remember to proceed with caution."

"Understood, Father." Leilani nodded and said to James, "Let's go."

"Mhm." James nodded.

Just as when they were about to leave, Jethro stopped them, "You stay, Forty-nine."

Hearing this, James froze.

Jethro looked at Leilani and said, 'Wait outside the spiritual mountain, Leilani. I have something I wish to say to him.'

"Alright, then." Leilani then turned to leave.

In the main hall, only James and Jethro remained. James was puzzled.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4104-James looked at Jethro who was sitting on the throne.

Jethro returned the gaze.

Their gazes met.

James was not afraid at all despite facing the Angel Race's Patriarch who was a true Acmean. Even if he could not defeat him, he could simply flee.

Both Jethro and James remained silent. The atmosphere was awkward.

'You are Forty-nine, aren't you?'

After some time, Jethro spoke to break the awkward silence.

"Mhm." James nodded slightly and said, "I'm Forty-nine."

Jethro said, 'You may be able to fool the others, but not me.'

Hearing this, James was stunned. He murmured to himself, "Has he seen through me?"

Jethro stared at James and said, "I never thought that a member of the Human Race would be able to overcome all obstacles and reach the Omniscience Path's Seventh Stage even though the Omniscience Path has been severed."

Hearing this, James silently gathered his strength in preparation for his escape.

Upon seeing James' expression, Jethro said, "Calm down. I would have made my move from the very beginning if I wanted to take you down."

James breathed a sigh of relief. However, he did not let his guard down. He simply stared at Jethro and remained silent.

Jethro sighed and said, "It was not my race's intention to attack the Human Race. However, considering that all the other major races of the Greater Realms have attacked, we would be marginalized or even ostracized if we simply sat by the sidelines. We cannot afford this.

Besides, my race suffered enormous casualties during the war."

"What are you trying to say?" James asked coldly.

James disliked all the races among the Ten Great Races. If he was strong enough, he would destroy them mercilessly to avenge the Human Race.

"I wish to remind you that though your strength is formidable, you do not stand a chance against the combined might of every race out there. If you do not wish to meet your downfall just like the humans of the Heaven- Eradicating Sect, do your best to avoid attracting any attention. Don't do anything to provoke the other races."

Jethro warned. Then, he waved slightly and said, "You concealed your aura well. However, I once befriended a human in the past. As such, I know the secret cultivation methods of the Human Race. That's how I was able to sense your soul's Genesis Aura. You may leave now."

Hearing this, James breathed a sigh of relief. Then, he simply turned to leave the main hall.

After he left, Jethro's expression turned grim.

"Humans really are a bunch of freaks. Just like that, an individual at the Omniscience Path's Seventh Stage is born. If we allow him to develop further, he might be able to reach the Ninth Stage and become the second Soren Plamen."

Jethro contemplated.

There was a deep grudge between the Human and Angel Races. He was wondering if he should annihilate James before he emerged as a force to be reckoned with or maybe befriend him and resolve the deep-rooted grievances between the two races. After all, the potential of the Human Race was too great. If the Human Race and the Heaven-Eradicating Sect concealed themselves and focused on cultivating, a powerful individual would eventually emerge and break the hegemony of the Ten Great Races.

‘What a headache...’

Jethro rubbed his temples.

He could not make the decision whether to kill James or allow him to continue interacting with Leilani. The only thing he was worried about was that James and Leilani would develop a close bond. Considering that Leilani did not have her guard up, James might be able to manipulate her and eventually the Angel Race to do his bidding.

“I guess I will explain the situation to Leilani after the matter of the Desolate Grand Canyon is resolved.”

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4105-Jethro planned to put these thoughts aside for now and make a decision in the future. James was indeed strong. However, he was not yet in the position to threaten the Angel Race, let alone the Ten Great Races. As such, he would have no problem annihilating James.

James left the main hall and arrived outside the spiritual mountain.

Leilani was waiting for him.

The moment James appeared, she immediately walked to him and asked, “What did Father say to you?”

James glanced at her and grinned, “Nothing much. He said I was a talented genius that would only appear once in a century. He asked me whether I have a crush on you and wanted me to marry you.”

Hearing this, Leilani blushed. Then, she looked at him and chided him, “Yeah, right. Father would never say those things.”

“Feel free to ask him, then.”

James then strode straight ahead.

Leilani hesitated for a moment before catching up to him, asking, "Did he really say those things?"

"Of course."

"How did you reply then?"

"I turned down his request, of course. I'm used to being alone, so I don't want to have a partner, lest you become an obstacle to the path of greatness."

"Hmph!" Leilani grunted coldly and said, "Am I not beautiful or enticing enough for you? Or do you perhaps think I'm not worthy of you? Even if you accepted Father's offer, I won't allow for this."

Hearing this, James smiled faintly.

"Hey, say something."

"Actually, I turned down his offer because I believe I'm not worthy of you." James simply came up with an excuse before changing the subject and asked, "By the way, what do you plan to do next? Do you really intend to head to the Desolate Grand Canyon?"

"Of course," Leilani said, "There must be incredible providences in the Desolate Grand Canyon. I have been in the Quasi Acme Rank since forever now. Perhaps this is the perfect opportunity for me. So of course I'll go."

James walked in the front and said, "I want to go too. But before we go, you have to promise me that you would obey me. I don't want to have to save you when we encounter any danger."

Hearing this, Leilani gritted her teeth in frustration.

"Who's saving who now?"

She rebuffed him.

Just like that, James and Leilani bickered all the way to the Desolate Galaxy.

Though Leilani was a distinguished princess who was respected everywhere she went, James had obtained the Herb and Reclusion and had no need to curry favor with her anymore. So, he simply could not care less about her opinion. If it were not for the fact that he needed to learn more about the situation at the Desolate Grand Canyon, he would not even have traveled here alongside Leilanni.

Meanwhile, James' attitude irked Leilani. She felt he was a completely different person as compared to when he was on Mount Eden.

Soon, they arrived at the Desolate Galaxy. The Stone Race's guards had already retreated, and the seal on the Desolate Galaxy had been undone. News of the Stone Race's retreat had spread throughout the universe.

Though the powerful races had yet to send their Core Disciples here, there were already many powerful individuals gathered.

Upon James and Leilani's arrival, they saw many groups of people there. Most of them came here prepared, and they were strong individuals-at least at the Seven-Power Macrocosm Ancestral God Rank. Some of them were even at the Quasi Acme Rank.
