The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4131-James looked down. In the end, his gaze fell on a broken formation.

Entering the void, he walked down and appeared outside of the formation. He concentrated on it.

The training was deep. Although it was a broken formation, it had the power to destroy the world. Even if a Quasi Acmean got caught in it, its power would kill it instantly.

However, James had learned the Planet Desolation Formation Inscription. He had understood the most primitive form of it.

No matter how deep a formation was, it was deduced from the most primitive inscription. Now, he just needed some time to break the formation.

“How is it? Can you break the formation?”

As James looked at the formation, a voice came from behind. He did not need to look back to know that it was Wotan.

Wotan hastened and appeared before James. Standing side by side, he looked at the formation in front of him. Unfortunately, the formation was too deep for him to understand.

Looking at the formation before him, James smiled and said: “I can break the formation, but it is not clear whether or not it is the Palace of Compassion in training. By the way...”

James looked at Wotan and asked: “Who is the Master of the Compassionate Path?”

Confused, Wotan stared at James and asked, “Have you never heard of the Compassionate Path Master?”

James shook his head. Since he was not a living being from the Greater Realms, how could he know who the Master of the Compassionate Path was?

Wotan explained, "Actually, I don't know much about it either. I only know that such a power exists in history. The Master of the Compassionate Path existed long ago. He was a living being born before the Space Race ruled the Great Realms. After the space race dominated the Greater Realms, he disappeared. No one knows if he was dead or gone somewhere else."

Wotan only saw the record of the Master of the Compassionate Path in ancient scrolls, so he did not know the details.

James didn't ask any more.

Wotan asked again: "How much more time do you need to break the formation?"

Although Wotan was powerful, he did not know much about formations. He could break normal formations, but when he faced such a deep formation, he was hopeless.

"About ten years," James replied.

The ten years were the ten years of the outer kingdom.

If James wanted to break the formation, he needed to use the Time Formation and understand the changes in the formation's inscriptions.

"Ten years is not a long time. I will be waiting for your good news", said Wotan.

James didn't hesitate. Immediately, he launched a time formation around him. He then began to understand and analyze the formation principle in the Time Formation.

On the other hand, Wotan waited for James in the same place.

In the blink of an eye, eight years passed.

James dispersed the Time Formation.

According to James's initial estimate, he needed ten years. However, it only took him eight years to break through the formation.

Delighted, Wotan asked: "How is it? Did you break formation?"

James nodded slightly and replied: "The formation has been broken, but no one knows what is in it." If there are treasures and opportunities in the formation, how should we divide them?"

James did not hastily open the formation.

Wotan was not an average person, so James wasn't sure he could defeat Wotan.

Therefore, they needed to agree on the division of treasures and opportunities.

Wotan pondered for a moment before saying, "We still don't know if the Palace of Compassion is in formation, but if the Palace of Compassion appears, many powers will come. Only by working together can we obtain the treasures."

James knew it.

This is obvious. I don't have the ability to obtain the treasures alone. The thing is, how should we divide the treasures?"

'Why don't we discuss this after finding the Palace of Compassion?' Wotan looked at James, seeking the latter's opinion.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4132-James didn't mind siding with Wotan because he also wanted to ally with Wotan.

However, before allying, they needed to discuss how to divide up the treasures.

"Let's discuss how to divide the treasures first." Looking at Wotan, James said, "Not that I don't believe you, but it's better for both of us this way."

"What about dividing equally?" Thinking for a moment, Wotan said: "After the treasures appear, let us take what we need fairly."

James shook his head slightly and said, "No."

"Then what do you want?"

James replied, "I broke formation and I am confident that I can break any formation on Planet Desolation. So splitting evenly is unfair to me. I should take more and pick things first."

Wotan was certainly strong, but in James's eyes at this moment he was a mere fighter.

Hearing that, Wotan fell into deep thought. After weighing the pros and cons, he nodded and said, "Okay. I'm okay with this."

"Let's have a nice collaboration." James smiled.

"Hurry up and open the formation," Wotan said.

On the other hand, James smiled. "Why should I open the formation? If I were to open the formation, other living things could enter. I will enter the formation with you."

Pulling Wotan along, James walked towards the formation. Appearing before the formation, he waved his hands and a strange inscription sigil appeared on his palms. Stealth entered the formation.

A crack instantly appeared in the formation ahead of them. James pulled Wotan with him and entered the crevice.

The formation was huge, and there were many dangers inside.

However, James understood the principles of the formation. As they walked in formation, they did not encounter any danger.

Many living beings were watching this scene.

"Forty-nine is too powerful. It even managed to break through the formation on Planet Desolation."

"Now, Forty-nine is working together with Wotan. This is not good news for us."

"That's how it is. If they worked together, who in Planet Desolation could defeat them?"

In the outer realm, discussions raged.

Seeing this scene, the living beings were filled with concern.

Meanwhile, James and Wotan had entered the formation. After breaking through the formation, several ancient ruins came into view.

Before them were ruins, and in the ruins, collapsed buildings could be seen.

James used Zen to scan the area. In these ancient ruins, there was nothing. Even the Empyrean Spiritual Energy dried up.

Exchanging glances, the two said at the same time: "There is nothing."

James smiled and said, "If it's not here, let's go somewhere else. Let's look place by place. I'm sure we can find it."

"Mm-hmm." Wotan agreed.

So, James and Wotan chose to leave the place.

After leaving the formation, they did not stay for long. They rushed to the next area that Zen couldn't detect.

During this time, many powerhouses on Planet Desolation were searching for the Palace of Compassion. All of them wanted to obtain the inheritance left behind by the Master of the Compassionate Path. However, they did not understand the formations in Planet Desolation at all.

Even powerhouses that had great knowledge in formations did not understand them.

James was able to understand the formations because he could turn everything into rules. For him, everything in heaven and earth could be deduced in rules.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4133-In addition, Soren also taught James several difficult training inscriptions.

James and Wotan continuously traveled around Planet Desolation. They appeared in the ancient ruins one after another. Every time they appeared in an ancient ruin, James used some time to break the formation.

In the blink of an eye, they had searched dozens of ancient ruins and breaking through dozens of formations. However, there was nothing in the formations. There wasn't even a decent elixir, let alone the Palace of Compassion.

"There are many living things ahead."

At the top of a mountain, Wotan looked down and, under his senses, he felt a powerful formation in the depth of the mountain where many living things were gathered.

These living beings were powerhouses, including Princess Leilani from the Angel Race, Wynnstan from the Doom Race, and Sigmund from the Devil Race.

James had met them all before, but there were some he had never met. Although he had never seen them before, he knew that they were in the Quasi Acme range because their auras were powerful.

James touched his nose and said, "I am from the Human Race. I got the treasures last time, and they wanted to kill me. If I show myself now, I wonder if they will attack me?"

"It's hard to count." Standing next to James, Wotan replied, "I know that many races have a grudge against the Human Race. The potential of the Human Race is too great. Therefore, many races went to great lengths to wipe out the Human Race. That is why he sealed the Primordial Realm of the Human Race and cut off the cultivation path of the Human Race."

"You should know what the price was that the Ten Great Races had to pay when they cut off the cultivation path of the Human Race."

When James heard that, his face darkened and he clenched his fists.

"One day, the Human Race will rise up in the Greater Realms and take a place in the Greater Realms."

Wotan felt a strong sense of faith in James.

Wotan held no grudge against the Human Race, so he comforted her, "There's no need to rush. You have a lot of potential. If the path of cultivation hadn't been cut off, you would have been one of the top powers in the Greater Realms.” . Even so, you have reached the middle stage of the Seventh Stage of the Path of Omniscience. You’re already great.”

Speaking of this, Wotan thought of Joyful Omniscience.

“By the way, the Human Race has a powerful signature ability. It is Joyful Omniscience. It is no weaker than Planet Desolation’s final providence, Primal Mantra. As far as I know, Joyful Omniscience is in the hands of an incomparable powerhouse.” of Human Race”.

Hearing that, James looked at Wotan. Wotan really was well informed.

“Don’t look at me like that,” Wotan said, “it’s not a secret in the Greater Realms. Soren was terrifying back then. His ability was in the top ten in the Greater Realms and in the top three in the Chaos Sage Ranking. .”

‘The top three in the Chaos Sage Ranking?’

James was stunned.

The Chaos Gold rank had the highest authority in the Greater Realms. Whoever could break into the top three of the Chaos Sage Rank must be extremely powerful.

‘That’s how it is. He is in the top three. He is very strong. He is in the top three of the Chaos Sage Rank and is at the Ninth Stage of the Path of Omniscience. His body is immortal. No living thing in the Greater Realms can kill him. The living beings can only come up with a plan to trap him and seal him in a formation, trying to exhaust his soul using the formation.”

Wotan could not help sighing.

Then, he looked at James and said: “As you enter the Eighth Stage of the Path of Omniscience, go to the Cloud Race shrine at the back of the mountain, enter the formation, find Soren who is imprisoned in the shrine , and obtain Soren’s Joyful Omniscience, your skill will improve and the Human Race will rise in the Greater Realms.”

James did not respond to Wotan’s words.

When James came to the Greater Realms from his original world, he appeared in the formation where Soren was imprisoned.

However, Soren did not trust him.

It was because James cultivated the Chaos Power of the Doom Race.

Soren gave James a task, and it was to find the ten keys to open the formation and let him out. Soren would then give James the joyful omniscience.

James had already obtained the Cloud Race key. The other nine keys were held by the Nine Great Races. Obtaining them was extremely difficult.

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4134

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4134-Wotan mentioned Soren.

James's All-Knowing Path was powerful. If he could get joyful omniscience from Soren's hands, he would become stronger.

He wanted to obtain the Human Race's signature ability, Blithe Omniscience. After cultivating Omniscience Blithe, in addition to his Omniscient Path, his ability would improve.

Unfortunately, Soren was very cautious. It was hard to get Joyful Omniscience from him.

Appearing in this ridge, James and Wotan observed the living things deep within the ridge.

"Let's go. There's nothing to worry about." Wotan said: "If something happens, we can face it together. Now, the real battle of all against all has begun. The living beings of Planet Desolation will not be of the same opinion."

James wasn't afraid. He was only concerned that after consorting with Wotan for the sake of profit, Wotan would later betray him.

If Wotan was with James, James would not need to fear other powers.

At Wotan's words, James calmed down.

Wotan spoke first and went deep into the ridge. In a single step, he reached the depth of the mountain range. Although his body had not arrived, his voice was strong. “How lively. Since there are so many living beings here, the Palace of Compassion must be here.”

Because Wotan’s voice was loud, thousands of living beings turned to look in the direction from which the sound came. Then they saw Wotan walking into the void. Immediately, the expressions of the living beings darkened.

Then they saw James behind Wotan and his expressions changed completely.

“The rumor says that Wotan has allied himself with Forty-nine. It seems that the rumor is true.”

We don’t even have a chance. If they both worked together, who could fight them on Planet Desolation?”

Many living beings wanted to back down. If Wotan and James were to fight against them here, many living things would die.

On the other hand, Leilani, Wynnstand, and other powerhouses all had grave expressions.

Thousands of living beings had gathered in this place. Their gazes fell on Wotan and James. They were preparing and were on high alert in case Wotan and James decided to fight them.

However, James and Wotan did not attack them. The two of them were confident in their abilities, but they were not reckless. They wouldn’t start a battle when thousands of living beings were here.

Wotan whispered to James next to him: “If possible, don’t fight here. Try to get close to the formation and think of a way to break it. Then, enter the formation and get the inheritance.”

“Alright.” James nodded slightly.

The two of them stepped into the void and walked forward. Immediately, they appeared in the sky outside of the formation. Their bodies slowly descended from the sky and landed firmly on the ground.

Many living things surrounded them. When both of them landed on the ground, the surrounding living things immediately fell back and made a large empty space.

Between the two of them, one was in the top ten of Chaos Gold Rank, and one could withstand more than twenty attacks from a Quasi Acmean. Both of them were not people who could be provoked.

Scanning his surroundings, James walked towards the formation and appeared 10 meters before the formation. When he got closer to the formation, he could feel a strong fluctuation of power.

While he was there, he cast a time formation around him and began to focus on the formation. He began to understand the principle of formation. He broke down one of the formation inscriptions and converted it to the most primitive form before extrapolating the entire formation through the formation inscription changes.

James stayed in the same place without moving. Instantly, the living things around him began to argue.

“What are you doing?”

“Are you trying to break formation?”

“A mere Human Race like him has this ability? The formation is very deep. Many formation masters present cannot understand it, so how can he understand it?”

There were strong discussions.

When Leilani saw this scene, she couldn't help but frown. She was the first to find out about certain circumstances. Before James entered the Desolation Planet, she wanted to learn the formations of the Desolation Planet.

“Could it be that he really studied and understood the formations of the Desolation Planet and he can actually break through it?”

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4135

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4135-Leilani muttered to herself.

If James could break through the formation, following James would give him a higher chance of obtaining the Master of the Compassionate Path's inheritance.

The Acmean heritage was terrifying. Even if he was divided into many parts, he was comparable to all the foundations of a super race in the Greater Realms.

For a moment, Leilana's expression was serious. She was thinking of ways to ally with James. Looking around the place, she looked at the people around her and then at Wotan. After weighing the pros and cons, she walked towards Wotan and appeared before him.

Wotan looked at her with a calm expression as she nonchalantly asked, "Is there anything you need?"

Leila smiled. She was stunning with a great body and a popular lady in the Greater Realms.

However, Wotan was not interested in her.

"Wotan", Leilana called Wotan and asked him: "How did you ally with Forty-nine? What kind of agreement did you make?"

Wotan had nothing to hide from Leilana's question. He replied nonchalantly: "I helped him in the past, and he obtained the treasures. Now that new treasures have appeared, we naturally work together."

With a smile, Leilana asked, "Do you still need an ally?"

She looked beautiful when she smiled. She displayed two rows of white teeth and had slight dimples at the corners of her mouth. She seemed lovely and sweet.

"No. Also, you are not qualified."

Wotan did not care about Leilana's dignity. He rejected her immediately. Since she had already allied with James, if someone else joined, the treasure had to be divided into three parts. He wouldn't agree to this, and neither would James.

Standing nearby, Wynnstan, Sigmund, and other living beings saw this scene and frowned.

Sigmund whispered, "Is Leilana thinking of leaving us and joining Wotan and Forty-nine?"

Xhafer said, "It's normal. We're only working together temporarily. Now, Forty-nine can break formation. Of course, Leilana wouldn't want to be with us."

Sigmund looked at Wotan and Leilana and said quietly, "No matter what, the few of us have to work together to get to the end."

The other living beings also saw this scene and were arguing among themselves.

As for the opinions of other living beings, Wotan chose to ignore them all. He stood to the side, waiting for James to break formation.

During all this time, he had been following James, so he knew James' ability.

They had gone to so many ancient ruins, and all of those ruins had formations. However, neither formation was difficult for James. James broke them all, and the two entered the ancient ruins.

Although they did not obtain the treasures, they did find various elixirs left behind before ancient times.

Time was passing.

In the blink of an eye, thirteen years passed in the outer realm.

During the thirteen years, several excellent powerhouses in formations also tried to break through the formation. Unfortunately, it was too deep and they couldn't understand it.

Even if they could understand it a bit, they would not be able to reach the stage of breaking the formation.

Thirteen years later, James withdrew the time formation.

Once he withdrew the time formation, thousands of gazes fell on him.

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4136

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4136-Countless gazes fell on James. They were where the Compassion Palace formation was.

Although the formation masters gathered here were unable to break the formation, they did understand some situations within the formation.

A long time ago, a formation master found out about the circumstance of the formation and knew that it was where the Palace of Compassion was.

Wotan hurriedly walked over to James with a smile and asked, "There's no problem this time either, is there?"

James smiled and replied: "What problems can there be?"

When he said that, the emotions of many powerhouses fluctuated. Right now, everyone wanted to ally with James.

Leilani was also more eager than ever to ally herself with James. She couldn't resist walking over to James. With a seductive smile and sweet voice, she called out, "Forty-nine."

James looked at Leilani and said nonchalantly, "What's wrong?"

Initially, James had a good impression of Leilani because she helped him before. However, when his identity as a human was exposed and he obtained the treasures, Leilani fought him with the other powerhouses. He changed his impression of her.

"I treated you very well, didn't I?" Leilani spoke, she began to persuade James using his story, she knew that she could only obtain the Master of the Compassionate Path's treasures by following James, this was the only way she could walk and survive until the end.

Foolishly, James replied, "You treated me well in the past and helped me, but during the Five Colored Holy Water, you fought me with others."

Quasi Acmeans. If my physical power and the Path of Omniscience didn't improve, I would have died at your hands."

Leilani felt uncomfortable. Then she smiled and said, “No one is an enemy forever.”

James no longer wanted to bother Leilani.

“I understood something by understanding the formation. I’m going to go into closed-door mediation for a while and see if my cultivation rank can reach Quasi Acme rank.”

After James said that, his body flickered and he appeared on a distant mountain. Then, he sat cross-legged on a rock on top of the mountain and formed a time formation around him.

Meanwhile, Wotan was puzzled.

“Did you understand something but started the closed-door meditation without getting the treasures?”

Wotan frowned. The other living beings looked at James in the distance.

The current James was already terrifying. Now that he had understood something and started the closed-door mediation, once he had a breakthrough, he would become stronger. By then, it would be more difficult to deal with him.

“Since he is conducting a meditation behind closed doors, let’s kill him together now.”

“Sure. I’m in.”

The powerhouses that held a grudge against the Human Race began their discussion. Soon, they reached a consensus, and it was to take the opportunity to attack and kill James, killing this living being of the Human Race that was rising.

Wotan seemed to have seen through the thoughts of the living beings present. His body flashed and appeared on the mountain range, where James was, as a dazzling sword emerged from his hand.

Sword in hand, he took aim at the living beings in front of him and said coldly, “Everyone, please don’t act rashly. I’ll kill anyone who comes near.”

Seeing that, Leilani also flew to the distant mountain range and appeared before Wotan.

When she appeared, Wotan's sword was at her neck.

Immediately, she explained, "I'm on the same side as you. The one who attacks Forty-nine is my enemy."

Hearing that made Wotan doubt.

After weighing the pros and cons, he decided to remove the sword from him.

Even though he was confident in his ability, there were too many Quasi Acmeans here. If a battle broke out, he could escape unscathed, but since James was cultivating, he couldn't leave. He could only stand guard until he died.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4137-Since Leilani was on Wotan's side, she was a help.

Turning, Wotan looked back at James, who sat cross-legged with a scowl on his face. "Why must he start his meditation behind closed doors now?"

Wotan was not willing to protect James. However, James was the only one who could break the formation, and only James could bring Wotan into the formation. To obtain the inheritance of the Master of the Compassionate Path, Wotan could only protect James.

In the distance, many living beings gathered. They exchanged glances.

Although they had reached a consensus, with Wotan around, no one wanted to attack first.

Therefore, no one moved.

At the time formation, James sat cross-legged.

Various strange inscriptions appeared before him. These were the training inscriptions.

He learned some simple inscriptions outside of Planet Desolation. After entering the Desolation Planet, he broke many formations. The more formations he broke, the more deeply he understood the formation inscriptions of the Planet Desolation.

He had a better understanding of the Formation Path.

James cultivated the Power of Chaos, and the premise of cultivating Chaos was to cultivate the Higher Ways. The Formation Path was one of the Greater Paths.

Meanwhile, James' comprehension of the Greater Paths had only reached the Ninth Power Macrocosm Ancestral God Rank, which meant that he could only deduce any Path to the Ninth Power Macrocosm Power. He was unable to deduce any power greater than the Ninth Power Macrocosm Power.

However, he was different now.

His understanding of the Formation Path had increased. He felt that he could make a breakthrough and improve the Formation Path to the Quasi Acme Rank.

It would be easier to understand other Paths once he understood one.

If he could cultivate the Quasi Acme Rank Formation Path, his other Paths would be able to reach Quasi Acme Rank faster. By then, when he used the Chaos Power, the Chaos Power would be stronger.

Before James, many formation inscriptions appeared. They were continually deducing and changing. Soon, many inscriptions gathered around him.

The inscriptions moved endlessly. Countless changes were taking place in a brief moment.

James remained silent amidst the changes in formation enrollments.

On the other hand, his aura was also improving.

"Is he cultivating the Formation Path?"

"We cannot let it continue to be cultivated."

Many living beings spoke. They all wanted to kill James. Among them, Wynnstan's expression was the heaviest.

Wynnstan knew that James cultivated the Higher Ways. Once James' Formation Path reached Quasi Acme Rank, his other Paths would have made a breakthrough in a short amount of time. He was terrifying for a Human Race to cultivate the Higher Ways and enter the Acme Rank. By then, even Wotan might not be his match.

"Everyone, we can't wait any longer. Let's attack together."

Wynnstan got up first and a sword appeared in his hand.

The sword exuded a powerful sword intent.

He pointed the sword at Wotan on the distant ridge.

"Stroke!"

He moved the moment he roared.

Many living beings present also wanted to attack, but they did not rush it. Now, with Wynnstan in the lead, the living beings could not contain themselves and began their attacks.

Instantly, hundreds of powerhouses attacked at the same time. Wotan gripped his sword and a powerful aura erupted from his body.

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4138

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4138-James was doing a closed-door meditation on the formation of time.

Most of the living beings present had grudges against the Human Race, so they did not wish for James to rise up. If he got up, he would become a threat to them.

Under Wynnstan's leadership, many living things attacked simultaneously.

Hundreds of powerhouses attacked at the same time, and all kinds of magical treasures emerged. They were heading for the ridge where James was. His aura was monstrous.

Sword in hand, Wotan's expression was extremely grave.

"He is giving me so much trouble," cursed Wotan. Then, his body shimmered and appeared in the air. The simple sword in his hand also began to dazzle.

"Field of Swords!" Wotan roared.

The sword in his hand was continuously moving and countless sword energies were surging out. These sword energies were gathered. They immediately materialized, and the mountain peak was instantly engulfed in Sword Energies.

Boom! Boom! Boom!

All kinds of treasures landed and shattered the Sword Field.

Even though Sword Field was one of Wotan's signature skills, no matter how strong he was, he couldn't withstand the attack of hundreds of powerhouses. Immediately, the Sword Field was broken.

Wotan was unable to resist such a strong power and ended up facing a backlash. Power jolted the Blood Energy into his body. He couldn't suppress the surge of blood in his body and spat out blood.

When Leilani saw so many powerhouses attacking at the same time, she felt fear.

The Master of the Path of Compassion's heritage was attractive. However, heredity was not more important than life. If he continued to support Wotan and James, he would die here.

After a slight hesitation, she ran to Wotan and said: "Let me help you."

As she spoke, a sword emerged in his hand.

All Wotan needed to do now was, instead of fighting these powers, resist his attacks and protect James.

Once again, he displayed great power and formed a field, protecting the mountain range that James stood on.

As the sword emerged in Leilani's hand, she took advantage of Wotan's carelessness and stabbed him in the back, through his body. After stabbing him, she hit his back with the palm of her hand.

Although Wotan had a strong body, a wound appeared on his body after being stabbed. Leilani's strong power spread through Wotan's entire body through the wound, causing him to be severely injured instantly.

"How shameless!" Wotan roared in anger.

The moment he turned around, he thrust the dazzling sword towards Leilani.

Unfortunately, after Leilani succeeded in sneak attacking her, she immediately dodged it. Then Wotan's attack failed.

On the top of the mountain, in the formation of time, James was silent in the mysterious changes of the formation's inscriptions. He also sensed the intense battle going on outside.

He chose to carry out his meditation behind closed doors here because he wanted to see if Wotan would protect him with all his might from him when he was meditating.

Now, he had achieved his goal.

The formation inscriptions before him and the time formation around him instantly dissipated. Immediately, he stood up and entered the Seventh Stage Path of Omniscience. When his body glowed, he appeared before Wotan.

"Come on."

Pulling Wotan along, James opened the Space Path and his bodies disappeared instantly. In the next moment, they appeared before the broken formation.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4139-With a wave of his hands, various formation inscriptions sprang up in James's hands. The formation inscriptions entered the formation, and the formation cracked immediately. James led Wotan into the formation through the rift and disappeared from the sight of the countless living things.

Once James brought Wotan to the broken formation, the broken formation's crack disappeared.

Many powers rushed over. When they saw James and Wotan enter the formation, they were enraged.

"Damned."

"How despicable. Now that they have entered the formation, if they obtain the Master of the Compassionate Path's inheritance, their abilities will improve. If Forty-nine conducts closed-door meditation there and has a breakthrough, we will all die when he comes out. "

"Hurry up and think of a way."

'Who can break the formation?'

'There are so many training masters here. Not even a single one of them can break the formation?'

All living things exchanged glances.

Those who were excellent in formations shook their heads. The formations in this place were too deep. All the formations here were Ancient Magic Circles. Living beings could not understand the principle behind the formations.

The living beings outside the formation were anxious. They knew that if James and Wotan were not killed soon, they would die when they both got out.

In the broken formation, James appeared at the foot of a mountain after entering the broken formation.

Releasing Wotan, James asked, "Are you all right?"

There was still blood at the corners of Wotan's mouth. He shook his head and replied, "Of course. It's just a minor injury."

Leilani had launched a sneak attack at him and the sword pierced through his body. On top of that, Leilani had hit him with the palm of her hand. The injuries on his body were serious. However, in his cultivation range, as long as the soul still existed, any injury was a minor injury to him.

Sitting cross-legged on the ground, Wotan used his power to treat his wounds.

Looking at James standing next to him, Wotan asked helplessly, "Are you testing me? If I hadn't protected you, would you have entered the formation alone?"

Off to the side, James sat on a rock and nonchalantly replied, "Planet Desolation has been sealed by a formation. No living thing can leave the place. Only one person can leave this place alive. Even if people form a temporary alliance, there will be a battle in the end."

Wotan was silent. He then asked, "Didn't you understand the formations on Planet Desolation? If you can break these broken formations, can't you break the entire formation on Planet Desolation?"

James shook his head and replied: 'The formations in the ruins of Planet Desolation are broken formations, while the formation that surrounds Planet Desolation is a complete formation. It is a very deep and terrifying formation. Only an Acmean can break it. With my current cultivation base and Formation Path achievements, I can't break through the formation."

James was not confident of breaking the formation of Planet Desolation. However, he now alone had no confidence. He might have a chance to break through the formation as his understanding of Planet Desolation's formations increased.

However, he was still too early to talk about this.

The formation of the Planet Desolation was continuously shrinking. It could take millions of years to shrink to the central region of the Grand Desolate Canyon.

If James did not carry out the meditation behind closed doors, millions of years was a long time.

"Okay. Let's talk about this next time. If we fight one day, I won't hold back." Saying this, Wotan sat cross-legged to tend his wounds and spoke no further.

Meanwhile, James looked at Wotan.

James had been with Wotan for some time, but he knew nothing of the latter.

He only knew that Wotan was in the top ten of the Chaos Gold Rank. Other than that, he didn't know anything. He didn't even know what race Wotan was.

James felt that Wotan was full of mysteries.

After thinking for a moment, James asked Wotan, "By the way, you said that your great-grandfather owes someone from the previous generation of the Human Race a favor. Who is your great-grandfather? Who is the Human Race?" .

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4140-Wotan looked at James. He had nothing to say in response to James's question.

Since Wotan did not reply, James asked no more. He turned to look at the mountain range behind him.

The mountain range was quite large. It spanned several light-years. The mountain peak was in the sky. From a distance, some pieces of architecture could be seen on top of the mountain.

Furthermore, this place was different from the outer realm.

The Heaven and Earth energy of Planet Desolation had been depleted, but the energy here was thick. It was on par with some powerful holy sites in the Greater Realms.

Apart from that, James also saw that there was a plantation on the spirit mountain. Many rare empyrean herbs, including Ancestral rank elixirs, Macrocosm rank elixirs, and even various Acme rank rare elixirs, were in the plantation.

These elixirs were already a great fortune.

Looking at Wotan, who was still healing, James did not call out to him. Instead, he headed for the spirit mountain up ahead where the plantation was.

He stepped forward and came close to the plantation.

When he saw that, Wotan ignored the wounds on his body and stopped treating his wounds. He immediately got to his feet and followed James, appearing next to the latter.

The plantation ahead was huge. In the plantation, there were countless empyrean herbs. There were also several fruit trees.

Wotan only scanned the plantation once and knew that things here were useless to him. Even though there were rare empyrean herbs, they were useless to him since his cultivation rank was too high.

“They are all yours.” Magnanimously, Wotan said, “The things on the plantation are all yours. For the treasures of the Compassionate Path Master, I get to choose first.”

Foolishly, James replied, “You chose to give things up here. He has nothing to do with me.”

Then he walked towards the plantation. As he waved his hands, a strong power surged in his palms, and all the empyrean herbs from the plantation were stored in his storage.

Since he cultivated the Path of Omniscience, he needed a lot of empyrean herbs. No matter how many there were, he could keep them.

After taking all the empyrean herbs, he happily left the plantation.

Appearing before Wotan, James smiled and said: ‘The palace before us should be the Palace of Compassion. Come on and take a look.’

Wotan agreed.

The two of them advanced and appeared before the palace on top of the spirit mountain.

The palace was black. On the black entrance, the ancient words “Palace of Compassion” were carved.

“Phew!” Taking a deep breath, Wotan said: “We have finally reached the Palace of Compassion.”

Arriving at the palace entrance, James opened the door.

Creak!

The palace gate, which had not been opened for a long time, slowly opened.

James and Wotan entered the palace together.

The main hall was huge and empty. To one side, there was a door. James walked to the door and opened it, reaching the backyard of the main hall.

In the backyard there were many rooms. Each door of each room had carvings of ancient words. There was an elixir room and a cultivation room.

In the center of the backyard there was also a tower. On the tower gate, the ancient word carvings say: "Secret Library".

James and Wotan made their way to the library chamber. The two of them pushed open the door and entered simultaneously. Then they went to the top floor.

Soon, they appeared on the ninth floor of the library, which was the highest floor.

The space on the top floor was quite large. It was more than 3,000 square meters, but it was very empty. There was only a ball of white light in the center. 9

James and Wotan did not need to think to know that the light was left behind by the Master of the Compassionate Path. Since it was kept on the top floor of the library chamber, it must have been an amazing secret Supernatural Art.
