The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4231=With a snort, Xristodoulos thrust the sword.

Xristodoulos was quick.

In the blink of an eye, the sharp saber landed on James' chest, and a materialized Sword Energy emerged from the saber.

The Sword Energy landed on James first, followed by the saber.

Xristodoulos' cultivation base was at the peak of the Quasi Acme Rank.

If he exerted his full strength, he would be terrifying.

Nonetheless, James only stumbled a few steps backward from the blow.

His body quickly flew backward.

The ground under him immediately cracked.

The cracks spread like spider webs.

Countless cracks also appeared in the void around him.

James could resist Xristodoulos' attack with his own physical power because he had entered the Seventh Stage Omniscience Path middle-stage long ago.

His physical power was equivalent to the Quasi Acme Rank middle-stage.

However, after absorbing Flames, his body burnt and honed endlessly.

Even though he had not reached the Seventh Stage Omniscience Path late-stage, his physical power had reached the peak of the Quasi Acme Rank late-stage.

Now, his body was only one step away from the Acme Rank.

Although his body had resisted Xristodoulos' attack, he kept stumbling backward from the blow.

The power passed through and entered his body, causing the blood in his body to surge.

As his throat grew warm, blood flowed into his mouth.

Nevertheless, he forcefully swallowed the blood.

At this moment, he used the hidden power in his body and resisted the power of Xristodoulos' attack.

It was only then did he stabilize himself.

He put a bit of pressure on his chest.

Crack! The sword in Xristodoulos' hand instantly broke.

Xristodoulos also faced backlash and stumbled backward endlessly.

At the same time, James hit Xristodoulos with ease.

In an instant, James appeared before Xristodoulos, and his palm landed on the latter.

James' hit destroyed heaven and earth.

Xristodoulos' chest had sunken, and a bloody hole appeared.

Stepping backward, he looked at the hole in his chest as his expression was grave.

He said, "Yente, Wyot is quite strong. He's a tough match. We can only kill him if we attack together."

Yente watched the scene unfold before her eyes.

A heavy expression appeared on her fair face.

James did not continue to attack for victory.

To him, killing Yente and the other powerhouses was too easy.

"Is this all you got?"

Casually, James said, "You're too weak. I didn't even use much strength, yet you've fallen. If I used all of my strength, I might be able to kill you in one blow."

"Wyot, don't get ahead of yourself."

Reto of the Tengu Race said in a cold voice, "Wyot, you're too arrogant. If you picked a few teammates, you might have a chance of winning. However, you're thinking of achieving victory by yourself. You can keep dreaming. Cast the formation."

"Don't."

All of a sudden, Yente stood forward and said, "The formation is our trump card. We can't use it so easily. No matter how strong Wyot is, he has only reached the Quasi Acme Rank. He can't do much. Our opponents are Deshawn and other powerhouses in the Chaos Gold Rank. There's no need to show our ultimate move in advance."

When Yente said that, Reto of the Tengu Race calmed down.

Meanwhile, James looked at the five living beings before him with interest. His gaze landed on Yente and scanned her body.

Yente despised his gaze.

James smiled and asked, "Yente, why don't we make a bet?"

"A bet?"

Yente was slightly taken aback.

With doubt, she mumbled, "What is he planning to do?"

"Yeah."

With a smile, James said, "I won't fight against you today, and whoever fights against you in the future, I will help you. My bet is that the champion will be mine in the end. If I win, Mount Doom will welcome you, and you will become my concubine."

James smiled brightly.

Wyt was ambitious.

Even though he fancied Yemima, he was a player. It was something the entire Doom Race was aware of.

James' actions were based on Wyt's personality.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4232-James did everything to be more in line with Wyt's identity.

"How shameless."

Yente felt disgusted.

With a smile, James said, "Don't refuse just yet. Think it through. The Cloud Race used to be one of the Ten Great Races, but now, the Cloud Race is a lowly race. Even the Bug Race could abuse them."

Teasingly, he continued, "You can take on the bet. If I do become champion, you will become my concubine. With my protection, it will be easy for the Cloud Race to be in the Ten Great Races again."

Upon hearing that, Yente fell silent.

The name of the Ten Great Race was too tempting.

Countless races worked hard endlessly to become powerful races and obtain a place in the Greater Realms.

In the past, the Cloud Race had endless territories and resources.

Now, even the weak races were above the Cloud Race.

They could take the Cloud Race's resources at will.

If the Cloud Race could gain the Doom Race's protection, they would be considered lucky.

Nevertheless, she could not accept marrying Wyt and becoming his concubine.

“I will let you go today, but I need an answer the next time we meet.”

When James finished speaking, his body flashed and disappeared from the spot.

After he left, Yente appeared to have lost her energy.

At once, she plopped to the ground and sat on a rock as she broke out in a cold sweat.

“Yente,”

called out Xristodoulos before asking, “Are you alright?”

Yente shook her head and looked at him, asking, “How’s your injury?”

Xristodoulos said, “I only need to take a rest.”

“Yente, are you actually considering marrying Wyot and becoming his concubine?”

Fachtna noticed something odd about Yente’s expression and could not help but ask.

“What’s wrong with it?”

Xristodoulos said, “You’re aware of my race’s situation. During the battle of the Primordial Realm, my race suffered heavy losses, and the Grand Patriarch’s whereabouts are unknown. Now, anyone can bully my race. If we can get the protection of the DoomRace, who will dare to bully my race?”

Xristodoulos was supportive of James’ bet.

Nonetheless, he respected Yente’s choice.

“Yente, it’s your choice. I believe that the Cloud Race won’t force you into anything.” Yente sighed.

Then, she stood up and said, “Let’s leave this area first. In the Greater Realms, most of the powerhouses are Quasi Acmeans. Many Quasi Acmeans also entered the Ancient Realm this time. The period of this battle is thirty thousand years. At the start of the battle, we should be careful. Try not to meet powerhouses and keep your strength.”

“Alright.”

“Got it.”

The living beings in this team nodded and quickly left the area.

On the other hand, after James left, he searched for other teams.

Everything in the Ancient Realm was under Mount Doom’s powerhouses of all races’ supervision.

The powerhouses of the Greater Realms gathered in Mount Doom.

They were monitoring the situation of the Ancient Realm and the movements of their organizations’ powerhouses.

Countless powerhouses noticed James meeting Yente.

Their conversation also entered the ears of these powerhouses.

When Fitzroy, the Patriarch of the Cloud Race, heard the words of James, who turned into Wyot, he became excited.

Ever since the fall of the Cloud Race, Fitzroy had been seeking powerful allies.

He used to look for the Doom Race often, but the Doom Race did not pay him much attention, let alone ally with him.

‘Yente, you have to agree. For the Cloud Race, you must agree’ he prayed in his heart.

The Ancient Realm was huge.

After looking around, James could not find other living beings. He decided to stop looking. Instead, he appeared at the top of a mountain.

Sitting with his legs crossed, he began to focus on recuperating.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4233=Instead of seeking other teams, James should wait for other teams to find him.

Everyone knew his whereabouts.

Compared to a team with five living beings, it was easier for him to be killed as he was alone.He did not hide his aura.

Instead, he exuded his aura to attract the teams near him.It had only been a day since he took a rest, yet a team had already appeared.

“Tsk, tsk.It’s getting interesting.”

“The Tenth Place of the Chaos Gold Rank, Xiluvani Helani, has met Wyot.”

“Xiluvani is getting close to Wyot.Are they going to fight?”

“Now, many teams are avoiding battles, yet Xiluvani is going to have his first battle against Wyot.Is he trying to make a name for himself?”

“No.Although Wyot has a Thousand Paths Holy Body, he hasn’t showcased powerful combat power.Perhaps Xiluvani is picking on the weak.”

In Mount Doom, many powerhouses were having a discussion.

The Chaos Gold Rank was used to measure the strength of a Quasi Acmean.

The Second and Third Place of the Chaos Gold Rank were all living beings of the Doom Race.

As they had entered the Acme Rank, their names disappeared from the Chaos Gold Rank, and the living beings in the lower ranks moved forward.

Now, Xiluvani was ranked tenth in the Chaos Gold Rank.

The members of the team he led were carefully selected by him.

Even though they were not ranked in the Chaos Gold Rank, all of them were powerful.

In the Ancient Realm, there was a spiritual mountain that had lost its Spiritual Energy.

The mountain was bald and covered in rocks.

James sat on a rock at the top of the mountain with his legs crossed.

Far away, a team appeared.

The team of five appeared at a distance from the spiritual mountain James was at.

They stood in the void and looked at James, who was sitting at the peak of the mountain with his legs crossed.

“Xiluvani, it’s Wyot,” said a living being.

A young man was standing in front of the team.

He appeared to be around twenty-five years old.

He wore a red robe and was holding a red saber in his hand.

With a faint smile, he said, “My target is Wyot. Rumor has it that he has a Thousand Paths Holy Body, but he rarely traveled the outside realm. He had always been carrying out closed-door meditation in Mount Doom. Eight thousand epochs ago, he went out for cultivation but was caught by the Heaven-Eradicating Sect. It’s said that his cultivation base has a huge improvement this time.”

“Xiluvani, he has no teammates. He must be confident in his ability. We should be careful. Let’s attack Wyot together and kill him.”

“No need. I can deal with Wyot myself. If I can’t deal with him, how can we achieve champion?”

Xiluvani left his name on the Chaos Gold Rank two trillion epochs ago, but for the past twenty thousand epochs, he did not put his name there. Now, two trillion epochs had passed. He was a lot stronger than he was two trillion epochs ago.

Stepping into the void, he walked toward James and appeared ten thousand meters away from the latter.

Slowly, James stood up and looked at Xiluvani, who was wearing red clothes.

Casually, James said, "What's your name? I don't kill people without knowing their names."

"Xiluvani," answered Xiluvani.

"Oh, so you're Xiluvani, who used to rank thirteenth in the Chaos Gold Rank and is now ranked tenth." James appeared unbothered.

Xiluvani used to rank thirteenth in the Chaos Gold Rank, but after Hoder, Manley, and Wotan entered the Acme Rank, his ranking increased.

"Where are your teammates?"

Looking at Xiluvani, James said, "Ask your teammates to come and attack me altogether. You aren't my match alone."

James was full of confidence. He did not care about Xiluvani.

Even if James defeated Xiluvani, it would not be a huge commotion. James needed to wipe out an entire team.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4234-When facing Xiluvani, ranked tenth in the Chaos Gold Rank, James was calm. He did not fear a Chaos Gold Rank powerhouse.

Xiluvani clutched the saber in his hand.

James acted too confidently.

Even Xiluvani was a little nervous.

However, Xiluvani could not back out now. It was unknown as to how many powerhouses were watching this scene.

If he backed out now, even if he defeated James who had turned into Wyot, he would not rise to fame.

Gradually, his aura grew stronger. He slowly pulled out the saber in his hand. It was a red saber, blooming a faint red light. It appeared terrifying.

“Wyt, you may begin.”

Once he was facing James, Xiluvani became very careful.

There were four living beings gathered in the distance.

“Is he not going to attack?”

“Wyt dares to participate in the duel without teammates. This means that he’s confident in his ability. I’m scared that Xiluvani can’t defeat him.”

“Why don’t we attack Wyt?”

“Don’t you know Xiluvani’s temper? Let’s see how this turns out first. If something happens, we’ll launch attacks and kill Wyt.”

Before the duel began, Xiluvani’s teammates were already devising a plan.

Standing in the void, James wore a white robe and had a confident expression.

Carrying a weapon on one hand, he used the other hand to make a gesture.

Casually, he said, “Don’t accuse me of bullying you later. You should attack first.”

“You’re seeking death.” Xiluvani’s face darkened.

Then, he moved.

The moment he moved, a red light appeared above James’ head.

Quietly, it thrust toward his head.

The scene scared all the powerhouses watching because everything happened too quickly.

This sword had surpassed the restrictions of time and space.

Even an Acmean might not react in time. Nonetheless, James appeared calm.

He stood in the same spot.

When the red light was about to slash his head, he raised his hand and stretched out two fingers, catching the red light easily.

Although James caught the light, the light was too powerful.

Once he caught it, he could feel a terrifying power flow from his fingers to his body. His body could not help but descend.

In a flash, he landed on the ground.

Boom! The aftermath of the battle was frightening.

The ground around him was destroyed instantly.

Meanwhile, James stood on the ground in the void unharmed.

Under countless gazes in Mount Doom, James stepped into the void and walked toward the sky.

In the end, he appeared in mid-air, standing on the same level as Xiluvani.

After James received Xiluvani's attack, even though his Blood Energy was surging, his body appeared unharmed.

Looking at Xiluvani who had a grave expression, James smiled and said, "Is this all you got? It isn't consistent with your rank in the Chaos Gold Rank."

"Damn," cursed Xiluvani.

He knew the power of this saber. It was enough to severely injure or kill a Quasi Acmean.

However, his attack had been caught by James.

James even used his fingers to catch it.

How could Xiluvani not be shocked? At this moment, he realized that Wyot was too strong.

Even if their team of five attacked James together, they might not defeat the latter.

After one attack, Xiluvani wanted to back out.

“Wyot, we will meet again next time. When we meet again, I will kill you.”

After saying that, Xiluvani disappeared from the spot.

In the next moment, he reunited with the other teammates.

“Xiluvani.”

“Xiluvani, are you alright?”

The few teammates quickly questioned.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4235-“He’s too strong. Let’s leave.”

Xiluvani did not speak further.

At this moment, a shadow appeared quietly behind them and blocked their way. It was James.

With both hands full, James stared at Xiluvani leading the five living beings.

At this time, the Greater Paths in his body gathered and formed the Chaos Power. His aura grew stronger.

In a flash, it reached the extreme.

As soon as they faced James who had a powerful aura, Xiluvani and the other living beings became serious.

“It seems that there must be a battle today.”

A living being clenched his fists eagerly.

“Please don’t fight. Retreat,” ordered Xiluvani in time.

Xiluvani knew how terrifying he could be if he used all his power. His full power was near the Acme Rank. However, his attack was caught by James at ease.

Wyot was too strong. He was a tough opponent.

“I’m afraid you can’t leave today.”

James had a calm expression.He raised his hand.

In the blink of an eye, the Greater Paths gathered and formed the Chaos Power.It was the most completed Chaos Power that emerged from the Doom Race since its founder.

The powerful Chaos Power ran in his palms, blooming with brilliance.

Nevertheless, under this brilliance hid a destruction power.

In the distance, the living beings under Xiluvani had grave expressions.

“Escape separately.”

When Xiluvani sensed the power moving in James’ palms, his expression changed, and he instantly shouted.

Once Xiluvani shouted, James moved.

The Space Path and the Time Path were used simultaneously.

The strong power solidified the void, and time froze at this moment.

James rushed to ward the five living beings ahead of him and hit five times in a row.

Five of his hits landed on the opponents’ chests.

Then, time returned to normal.

Xiluvani and the other living beings stumbled back from the impact.

Their bodies instantly cracked, and a large amount of blood splattered.

Their bodies were destroyed in the blink of an eye.

The power not only destroyed their bodies, but it also perished their souls.

“Ah!”

“No!”

Unsatisfied roars sounded from the area.

Then, silence filled the place.

The five powerhouses died without leaving anything behind.

Even soul sigil fragments were not left behind.

This was how powerful James was.

After entering the Quasi Acme Rank, he could kill the powerhouses of the same cultivation rank relying on the Chaos Power he mastered.

Even Xiluvani, a powerhouse in the Chaos Gold Rank, could not resist James' attack.

In Mount Doom, many powerhouses saw this scene.

Upon seeing James as Wyot kill the team led by Xiluvani, who was ranked tenth in the Chaos Gold Rank, all the powerhouses were stunned.

"Is this how terrifying the Thousand Paths Holy Body is?"

"Is this the Chaos Power cultivated based on the Greater Paths?"

"Is this the power of the most completed Chaos Power?"

All powerhouses were shocked by the power James showed.

Many powerhouses glanced at Dolph, the Patriarch of the Doom Race, and Youri, an elder of the Doom Race.

They thought, 'I'm afraid that the gathering this time was specially prepared for Wyot'

Many of them thought this way.

They believed that the motive of this gathering was to let Wyot rise to fame and become the strongest powerhouse in the Greater Realms so that he could prepare himself to take over the Doom Race. No one knew that this Wyot was fake and that he was actually James of the Human Race.

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4236

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4236-Wyot was a prodigy of the Doom Race.His birth shocked the Greater Realms because he had a Thousand Paths Holy Body.

Since he had such a physique, he could cultivate anything quickly.He entered the Divine Rank in a short amount of time, but ever since then, his cultivation speed decreased.He turned into a mediocre person from a prodigy.

The outside realm spread that one could not completely cultivate the Greater Paths even if one had a Thousand Paths Holy Body because there were too many mysterious paths in the Greater Paths, such as the Five Great Paths and the Karma Path.

The living beings in the world did not believe Wyot could cultivate these paths.

Thus, the outside realm spread that the Thousand Paths Holy Body had restricted Wyot.

Slowly, Wyot was forgotten.

Even if there were living beings who remembered him, they did not think highly of him.

Now, Wyot rose to fame with one battle.He killed five Quasi Acmeans in a flash, and one of the Quasi Acmeans was Xiluvani, who ranked tenth in the Chaos Gold Rank.

The powerhouses of Mount Doom were shocked when they witnessed this scene.

They expected Wyot to be strong but did not expect him to be this powerful.

Thus, many living beings believed this duel was specially arranged for Wyot.It was to make him famous.

When Dolph saw this scene, he felt satisfied.

Nevertheless, he was a little worried because James was too showy.It was not a good thing.

In the Ancient Realm, after James killed Xiluvani easily, only a few Chaotic Treasures were left behind.

James walked in the direction of where Xiluvani died. He looked at the red saber on the ground and picked it up.

Once James held the red saber, he could sense the burning power contained in the saber.

The power engulfed his entire body.

At this moment, the red saber shook, and a violent power erupted. His arm also began to tremble.

“What a great Ancestral God Weapon. I don’t believe that I can’t tame you.” James snorted.

The Chaos Power flowed to the red saber. Under the pressure of the Chaos Power, the saber quickly became stable.

James looked at the body of the red blade.

On the body of the blade, there were two words—Red Malice—carved on it.

“This Ancestral God Weapon isn’t bad.”

James put the saber away and kept the other weapons on the ground.

Then, he found a place and sat with his legs crossed. He knew that the news of this battle would spread quickly.

Soon, he would be known in the Ancient Realm, and the teams confident in their abilities in the Ancient Realm would look for him.

With his legs crossed, James sat at the peak of a mountain. His body was relaxed, and his mind was clear. He was thinking of his future.

Now, his body had countless signature skills and Supernatural Powers.

There were the Primal Mantra and the Chaos Sacred Art. However, even though these skills and powers were strong, they were not his.

They were all created by the older generation.

Even if he could learn all of them, he could only reach the cultivation rank of the creators. He could not surpass everything. He needed to create his own path.

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4237

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4237-Raising his head, James looked at the grey sky.

The sky was clear from the stars.

“Where’s my path? “What should I do to walk the true path and create an invincible path?”

James felt melancholy.

Then, he let out a deep sigh.

“The invincible path is easy to be said. Even in the Sky Burial Age, no one dared to claim themselves as invincible.”

Taking a deep breath, he got rid of all these messy thoughts.

Activating the Greater Paths, he gathered the Greater Paths in his body and formed a strong Chaos Power. He continued to deduce the Greater Paths, wanting to improve the Greater Paths further and enter the middle-stage Quasi Acme Rank.

Soon, the news of James and Xiluvani was spread out as many powerhouses in Mount Doom were watching the battle.

These powerhouses secretly informed the disciples under their organizations.

“Wyot is too strong. Don’t provoke him. If necessary, give up. Don’t lose your life for the Chaos Sacred Lotus.”

“Even though Wyot doesn’t have teammates, he won’t lose to any teams. The team led by Xiluvani, who ranked tenth in the Chaos Gold Rank, was wiped out by Wyot. Wyot killed them within seconds.”

“Yente, Wyot is too powerful. Now, he hasn’t reached the Acme Rank, but once he reached the Acme Rank, he would have a place in the Greater Realms. Since he’s interested in you right now, hurry up and cotton up to him.”

Fitzroy, the Patriarch of the Cloud Race, also sent a message to Yente.

In Mount Doom, Youri stood to the side without showing any expression, but he was worried. He glanced at Qimat next to him.

When Youri looked at Qimat, Qimat realized that Youri was staring at him, so he said, “Don’t worry. Nothing will happen. This time, we arranged powerhouses at the peak of the Permanence Acme Rank who are close to reaching the Terra Acme Rank. No matter how strong Wyot is, he will only be killed upon facing a powerhouse at the peak of the Permanence Acme Rank.”

Although what Qimat said was true, Youri still was not assured.

Even though Xiluvani, ranked tenth in the Chaos Gold Rank, had only reached the peak of the Quasi Acme Rank, his ability was on par with a Terra Acmean.

Now, Xiluvani was killed by James with only one attack, so how could Youri believe that a powerhouse at the peak of the Terra Acme Rank could kill the Wyot James was pretending to be? Even if the Terra Acmean was strong, many people were watching the Ancient Realm.

Before a powerhouse who had surpassed the Quasi Acme Rank appeared, the powerhouses in Mount Doom would have already attacked him before he could kill James.

Youri could become an elder of the Doom Race because he trusted no one.

Since he began to rule the world, James, who was Wyot, was his biggest obstacle.

After Qimat arranged powerhouses in the Ancient Realm to kill James, Youri came up with a plan.

This time, no one who had headed to the Ancient Realm would come out alive.

When he thought of this, Youri smiled.

In an area in the Ancient Realm, there was a mountain range.

However, this mountain range was not on the ground, but it was floating in mid-air.

The scenery of bald mountains floating in mid-air was strange.

Outside the mountain range, a team appeared.

The team was led by Deshawn, the champion of the Chaos Sage Rank.

His team was filled with popular powerhouses in the Quasi Acme Rank.

Behind Deshawn, a man looked at the mountains floating in mid-air ahead and asked, "Is this the legendary Sky Islands?"

"Yeah."

In the lead, Deshawn nodded slightly and said, "This is the Sky Islands. It is said that it was the dojo of the Primal Path Master. There were many powerhouses under the Primal Path Master. Every sky island had an owner who is a Terra Acmean."

"There must be countless fortunes here. Anyway, there's some time left before the duel ends. Deshawn, let's go there. If we could find the Primal Mantra, we would be rich."

Thinking for a while, Deshawn said, "This place has existed for thousands of years, and during the years, many powerhouses have been born. It should be empty by now, but opportunities and fortunes don't rely on ability. Obtaining them needs luck. Let's go in and see."

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4238

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4238-The Sky Islands were the core area of the Ancient Realm.

In the past, it was where the dojo of the Primal Path Master was located.

Long ago, a Terra Acmean lived on each sky island.

If the Terra Acmeans were in the current era, they would be the top powerhouses and could scare the other powerhouses.

The team led by Deshawn was the first to discover the Sky Islands.

Since the duel had just started, it would only end in thirty thousand years.

So, they decided to take a look at the Sky Islands and see if they could find opportunities and fortunes.

In the past, there were formations in the place, but many years passed.

Thus, the formations had become broken formations.

The power of the formations could not do anything to Deshawn and the other powerhouses.

They entered the Sky Islands.

Not long after they entered, they found something strange with the island.

Swoosh! A piercing light beam shot up to the sky.

It lighted up the grey space, and the areas in the Ancient Realm.

“What is that?”

“What a glaring light beam.”

“A great treasure must have appeared.”

“Let’s go and have a look.”

The bright light beam shot up the sky, and it could be seen from the entire Ancient Realm.

All living beings who saw the light beam rushed to the area where the Sky Islands were at.

In Mount Doom, Deshawn was the champion of the Chaos Gold Rank.

The team he led entered the Sky Islands and attracted the attention of many powerhouses.

However, when Deshawn and his team entered the Sky Islands, the powerhouses realized that their Divine Sense could not detect Deshawn and the other powerhouses' aura.

Even if they had a great Divine Sense, they could not observe the situation within the Sky Islands.

This made many powerhouses puzzled.

“What’s going on?”

“I went to the Sky Islands before, but I did not discover anything odd. Why did something strange happen when Deshawn and the other living beings entered?”

“Did they really find something in the Sky Islands?”

“Many teams are heading toward the Sky Islands.”

“A fortune must have appeared. Among this group of living beings, there must be a lucky person. Thus, something strange happened in the Sky Islands.”

“There’s still time. There’s no need to rush. Let’s just wait and see.”

The powerhouses of Mount Doom stared at the Ancient Realm.

Even though they could not see the situation in the Sky Islands, they could see the situation outside of it.

They could see many teams approaching and entering the Sky Islands.

In a place in the Ancient Realm, James sat with his legs crossed at the peak of a mountain.

At this moment, he opened his eyes and gazed at the core area of the Ancient Realm.

Under his gaze, he saw a colorful light beam shooting up the sky.

The light beam lighted up the grey space of the Ancient Realm.

“What’s that? Did a treasure appear?”

James was slightly taken aback.

The Ancient Realm used to be the place of the Primal Path Master, and the Primal Path Master was the creator of the Primal Mantra. He was a top powerhouse in the Sky Burial Age. He was at the top of the pyramid in history.

Anything could happen here.

When James returned to his senses, he quickly stood up and his body disappeared from the spot.

At the next moment, he appeared outside the Sky Islands. Ahead of him were islands.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4239-Every island was huge and took up more than one thousand light-years of space.

Every island was floating in mid-air, looking grand yet strange.

In the sky islands, there were no plants.

Without hesitation, James entered the place.

When James entered the Sky Islands, he sensed a mysterious formation.

The formation blocked all auras.

Even if something happened here, the outside realm could not sense it.

James could not help but look behind him and frown.

“Why did I not sense the formation when I was in the outside realm? I only sensed the formation when I entered,” mumbled James, puzzled.

At this moment, he had a bad feeling. He felt that something would happen in this place.

“Maybe I’m overthinking this. This is the place of the Primal Path Master. It makes sense that I can’t sense the formation when I’m in the outside realm.”

Taking a deep breath, James stopped his train of thought.

Since he had arrived at the place, he decided to head in and take a look.

Perhaps there might be opportunities and fortunes. It would be great if he could obtain something.

The mysterious light beam attracted the attention of all the living beings in the competition and the Ancient Realm.

They entered the Sky Islands one after another.

On Mount Doom, an elder of the Doom Race appeared before Dolph and asked in a soft voice, "Will something happen here?"

Dolph furrowed his brows.

Something unexpected would happen.

Now, all living beings had entered the Sky Islands.

The powerhouses in this place could no longer sense the situation in the Sky Islands.

"What can happen?"

A powerhouse who was to one side smiled and said, "Fortunes will appear. It must be the first time so many living beings head toward the Ancient Realm since ages ago. Perhaps someone had fumbled with a restriction left by the Primal Path Master. Thus, opportunities and fortunes appeared. As for who will obtain them depended on luck."

"I think so too. Perhaps the Primal Mantra which has been lost for years has appeared."

"If the Primal Mantra appeared, I want to go to the Ancient Realm too."

Many powerhouses began a discussion.

All of a sudden, Youri stood forward and glanced at the powerhouses before reminding in a cold voice, "No matter what happens, no matter what fortunes appear in the Ancient Realm, no matter what appears in the Sky Islands, these fortunes belong to their generation. The fortunes have nothing to do with us. Besides, the duel is still ongoing. Acmeans can't interfere."

“I was joking.”

“That’s right.Don’t take it so seriously.We were just joking.”

Many powerhouses expressed themselves.It was only then Youri stopped talking.He had arranged everything in advance.His motive was simple.He wanted to wipe out all living beings who entered the Ancient Realm, including Wyot, who was actually James, and stir up a dispute in the Greater Realms.

In this way, he could gather the ten keys and obtain the Blithe Omniscience from Soren.

In the Sky Islands in the Ancient Realm, James was at the top of a bald mountain.He scanned the area as his Divine Sense spread continuously.

A clear scene of this area appeared in his mind.

James focused on the formation of this place.He found that the formation here was not an ancient formation.

In fact, the formation was not as old as the formations in Planet Desolation.

“How strange.”

With a frown, he mumbled, “The Ancient Realm existed in the Sky Burial Age.Logically speaking, the formation should be old.However, the formations in Planet Desolation were older than the formation here.Even though the place appeared ancient and mysterious, the formation inscriptions and sigils are from this age.”

James was a master in formations.

Although he had a high understanding of them, he was not on par with a few Acmeans who specialized in formations in the Greater Realms.

Nonetheless, the Acmeans could not understand ancient formations, but he could.It was because he could turn everything into rules.

When he was on Planet Desolation, he comprehended ancient formations.

“Could it be that the formation here was arranged by someone of this age?” mumbled James.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4240-“Maybe I’m worrying too much.Perhaps the formations in the Sky Burial Age are created this way,” mumbled James before stopping himself from thinking further.

He continued deeper into the Sky Islands and headed in the direction of the light beam.

In the deepest part of the Sky Islands, in the central region of the few large islands, there was an abyss.

The bottom of the abyss could not be seen and could not be detected by the Divine Sense.

When James rushed over, many living beings had already gathered there.

There were at least one thousand teams.

There were approximately five thousand living beings.

Among them, the majority were at the peak of the Quasi Acme Rank and were all confident in obtaining the Chaos Sacred Lotus.

Upon seeing so many powerhouses, James could not help but be taken aback.

Many races of the Greater Realms had solid backgrounds.

They could send out a large number of powerhouses easily.

Besides, the powerhouses were all at the peak of the Quasi Acme Rank.

They could enter the Acme Rank at any time.

Around five thousand powerhouses had gathered and appeared before the abyss.

Once James appeared, he became the center of attention.

He walked toward the team Yente was in.

When the team saw James, they stepped back and stared at him warily.

The news about James wiping out Xiluvani's team had spread.

Now, everyone knew that James killed the team led by a powerhouse ranked tenth in the Chaos Gold Rank alone.

Moreover, he killed them in only one move.

"What's going on?"

James looked at the stunning Yente and smiled.

Yente wanted to keep a distance from James.

Nonetheless, when she thought about the predicament the Cloud Race was in and Fitzroy's instruction, she put on a forced smile.

Shaking her head slightly, she responded, "I've just arrived. I don't know what's going on. However, the mysterious light beam began here. After having a discussion, we think that it might be the Light of Acme."

"The Light of Acme?"

James was immediately interested. He knew of the Light of Acme. He used it for cultivation before.

From what he knew, the Light of Acme was mysterious.

It needed at least ten Acmeans gathered in the same place to be born.

"It wasn't an average Light of Acme."

Yente tried her best to not show a disgusted expression as she smiled and said, "It might be a Light of the Caelum Acme Rank, which is formed when a Caelum Acmean descended."

"Is that so?"

Rubbing his chin, James fell into deep thought.

When he was in Ecclesiastical Restricted Zone, he used the Light of Acme to stimulate his body and open up the potential of his body again. He also reached a new level in the Omniscience Path.

If there actually was a Light of the Caelum Acme Rank here, if he could obtain it and use it, he might be able to stimulate his body and bloodline power again. He could also go further in the Omniscience Path. He could enter the late-stage Seventh Stage and maybe even the Eighth Stage.

Swoosh!

At this moment, in the bottomless abyss, another colorful light beam shot out.

A living being near the abyss did not dodge in time and was hit by the colorful light beam.

His body instantly turned into ash.

Even his soul was gone.

In a flash, a Quasi Acmean was killed without a chance of resisting.

The scene shocked many living beings.

The living beings around the abyss quickly stepped back to safety.

“Be careful.”

“It’s the Light of Acme. I can sense the strong power. The Light of Acme is known as the Light of Death and the Light of Destruction. If it touches someone, the person will die.”

“Besides, this is the Light of the Caelum Acme Rank. Even a true Acmean would die if the light touches him, let alone us.”

Many powerhouses began a discussion.

The leaders of every team were also warning their teammates to be careful.

The Light of Acme flashed and disappeared.

Many living beings were on alert.

Swoosh!
