The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4251-James roughly knew how strong the twelve death spirits were and knew he could not kill them in a single blow despite having Chaos Power and being a Quasi Acmean. Whoever was manipulating them must have felt threatened and made them evacuate from the fight.

James scanned the area but found no traces of the twelve death spirits' auras nor their mysterious master. Even the Acme of Light had vanished.

A frown formed on his face. Everything that happened was very abnormal.

James' Chaos Power was terrifyingly strong. The moment the death spirits broke out of the formation, they were struck by his Chaos Power. He had been keeping an eye out, yet they still escaped from right under his nose.

This brought him to one conclusion—the creature secretly controlling the death spirits was very adept in the Space and Time Path, far better than James. After searching everywhere, he could not detect them. He turned around and walked toward the group in the distance.

As he approached, one of the creatures asked him, “How did it go, Wyot? Did you kill them?”

Everyone eyed James intently.

James shook his head and said, ‘Those death spirits were very strange. A powerful creature must be secretly controlling them. They most likely retreated and have hidden themselves. Their commander definitely knows the Space and Time Path better than me. I can't find them that easily.”

Everyone's expressions turned grim when they heard the death spirits had survived.

At that moment, many creatures purposely moved closer toward James. They had changed their minds about following Deshawn and felt that James was more capable of protecting them.

Although they were all supposed to be in a competition, none of them had their minds on the Chaos Sacred Lotus anymore. Their top priority was to leave the Ancient Realm alive.

“What should we do now?”

“How are we going to survive? We’re at the mercy of this hidden commander who can control both the twelve death spirits and the Light of Acme.”

“Is there anyone who can undo this formation? Please deal with it and let us leave this place.”

As things neared a breaking point, many of the creatures began to panic. Several had already lost their lives, and the remaining creatures feared they would all die at this rate.

James was satisfied that anxiety was spreading among the participants. The more panicked they got, the better.

However, he felt that more people needed to die before he stepped in. His status in the Greater Realms would increase significantly if he saved them only after more were to die.

“Wyot, please find us a way out of here.”

“Yeah, we’re counting on you. I couldn’t care less about this competition or the Chaos Sacred Lotus. I just want to leave this place safely.”

Many creatures looked toward James.

James replied, “Don’t worry. Just follow my lead. I promise I’ll get everyone out of this place safely.”

With James’ reassurance, many of them felt relieved and began to move toward him. However, there were still a few that remained with Deshawn.

Deshawn was held in high regard since he was at the top of the Chaos Ranking’s Gold Rank. Moreover, he held this position for a long time. Therefore, many of them found him to be a very reliable powerhouse.

Yente blurted out, “What do we do now, Wyot?”

James fell into deep thought. After a while, he replied, “I should be able to break the formation, but I’ll need more time to study it. It’ll require my complete and undisturbed attention. However, there are many threats still lurking around the area. Before I can focus on breaking the formation, we’ll have to eliminate these threats.

Unfortunately, I still don’t have a clue about who’s trying to take us out. It’s hard to locate them too.”

“You don’t need to go through the trouble of finding me. I’m right here.”

Suddenly, a hoarse and gravelly voice interrupted James.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4252-The voice belonged to someone that was standing at a distance. The figure looked like a human and was dressed in a black robe.

He seemed like an average middle-aged man in his 50s and had some wrinkles on his face. He had long black hair with a few white strands.

His gaze was extremely menacing. As his gaze swept past the crowd, it made everyone tremble in fear.

The man had a very unusual aura. His aura felt cold as if he had been living in a dark and humid place all year round.

Everyone scattered to safety. Some rushed behind Deshawn, while the majority stood behind James.

James stared at the black-robed man that had just appeared and unleashed his Divine Sense.

He realized that the man’s body was simply an illusion. It was not an actual physical body but a collection of dismembered body parts and skeletal remains.

James could sense the power of at least 300 different races from his body.

His brows furrowed.

“W-What is that man? Why does he have such a sinister aura?”

“Not only does his aura feel despicable, but it’s also imposing. He’s already surpassed the Permanence Acme Rank and is most likely a Terra Acmean.”

“Let’s attack him together. Even if he’s a Terra Acmean, we can definitely overpower him with sheer numbers.”

“I agree. If we kill him, the twelve death spirits will lose their master, and will be easy to deal with later.”

Many creatures voiced their thoughts.

James turned around and looked at Yente, Leilani, and the other creatures standing behind him. He reminded them, saying, “Don’t act without my orders.”

Everyone nodded back to him.

James took a few steps forward. He stood right in the front and looked at the black-robed man in the distance. Then, he asked calmly, “You can control the twelve death spirits and the Light of Acme.

So killing us should be an easy feat. But before that, I’d like to know who’s behind this entire thing. Who is trying to eliminate me and the others in this competition?”

James wanted to fish for information.

“Unfortunately, you’ll never find out the answers, Wyot.”

The black-robed man had a blood-curdling expression. His lips parted in a creepy grin and replied, “You should blame your fate for being born to the Dooms.”

At that moment, the 12 death spirits surrounded James. Although they had been struck by James’ Chaos Power, they reappeared completely unscathed.

Following the appearance of the death spirits, a beam of magical light appeared above the black-robed man.

It was the Light of Acme again.

The powerful man was most likely a Terra Acmean, who had control over twelve death spirits and a Light of Acmean, making him a terrifying opponent. With his trump cards, he could fight and destroy a powerful race. Yet, he appeared merely to deal with some Quasi Acmeans.

James' expression gradually became solemn. He had the opportunity to open the formation and leave long ago, but he had other plans in mind. Thus, he missed his chance to leave. James had the strength to defend himself but could not protect everyone.

He attempted to get an answer again, saying, "At least let me know why before I die."

Although he suspected it was most likely Youri from the Doom Race, he could not be certain.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4253-The black-robed man was named the Devouring Demon. He was not exactly a living being and was more accurately described as a being that straddled the border between life and death.

The Devouring Demon was confident he could kill everyone since the competition lasted for 30,000 years.

Within this period, none of the powerhouses on Mount Chaos could enter the Ancient Realm. He was sure he could wipe out the creatures that entered the Sky Islands before the end of the competition.

The Devouring Demon burst out in maniacal laughter. Then, he replied, "Since you insist, I'll simply enlighten you before your death."

Everyone standing behind James quickly drew their weapons and unleashed their powerful auras. All of them entered their combat forms and prepared to engage in a battle.

The Devouring Demon paid the Quasi Acmeans no mind. He hardly even cared about Deshawn who had reached the Quasi Boundless Rank.

The only person he wanted to fight was James, disguised as Wyot. The Devouring Demon was a Terra Acmean and was not intimidated by James.

James waited silently for an answer.

“Wyot, Wyot, Wyot. I wonder why you weren’t killed by the humans. If only they did, then things wouldn’t have to be so complicated.

Elder Youri could easily take over the Doom Race with the other members’ support. Then, he could slowly conquer the Greater Realms.”

“Are you saying Elder Youri is the one who’s behind this?” James asked calmly, unsurprised by the revelation.

The Devouring Demon replied, “Yes, that’s right. Elder Youri wants you dead. He’s already entered the Omniscience Path’s Ninth Stage and has acquired an incredible physical body.

Now, he only lacks Blithe Omniscience. However, someone has been going around as him and causing trouble.

His plans to obtain the ten tokens were derailed. Due to recent developments, he abandoned his original plan and wanted to acquire the Ten Great Race’s tokens by any means possible.”

The Quasi Acmeans behind James gasped after hearing the Devouring Demon’s words.

“The Omniscience Path’s Ninth Stage?”

“He’s lying, right?”

“Youri’s from the Doom Race. He’s not a human. How could he reach the Omniscience Path’s Ninth Stage?”

Many creatures were in disbelief despite hearing the truth for themselves.

“Since I’ve already satisfied your curiosity, now it’s time to send you on your way.”

The Devouring Demon raised his hand, and the Light of Acme transformed into a sword. The sword exuded overwhelming power.

The Devouring Demon was a Terra Acmean, and wielding the Light of Acme strengthened him further. His aura was oppressive and made everyone tremble. Even Deshawn lost his fighting spirit and was overcome with dread.

“Am I really going to die here?” Deshawn was devastated.

He was Quasi Acmean for a long time and had finally stepped into the legendary Quasi Boundless Rank. He was not going to go down without a fight.

However, he could not even defeat one of the death spirits, let alone twelve. Even worse, their commander, a Terra Acmean, had now joined the fight.

Everyone held their weapons and mustered all their strength in preparation for a potentially fatal battle.

The Devouring Demon held the Light of Acme in its sword form. He looked at James, and an eerie smile appeared on his face.

“Although you’re the Doom Race’s Young Master, you probably have never seen a weapon like mine before.

The Light of Acme I wield was born from the remnants of more than ten dead Acmeans. I’ve already refined it into a Terra Acmean God Weapon.”

James’ expression grew darker. However, he still restrained himself. He asked, “What exactly are you?”

TN: There has been a slight error with the rankings of a few previous chapters. Deshawn is at the Quasi Boundless Rank, whereas the twelve death spirits are at the Eternal Boundless Rank. The Eternal Boundless Rank is above the Quasi Boundless Rank, i

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4254-James still did not know anything about his opponent and still had many questions about him.

Thus, he did not rush in before understanding his opponent better.

“Then, how do you have control over those death spirits?”

“Curiosity killed the cat, Wyot.”

The Devouring Demon’s face grew serious. He quickly ordered the twelve death spirits. “Kill them! Leave none of them alive.”

The twelve death spirits immediately charged as soon as the command was issued. The creatures behind James had already unleashed their auras and were prepared to fight to the bitter end.

James shouted, "If you don't want to die, get away from me now!"

His exclamation was deafening. Those behind him felt their eardrums ring from the volume.

Yente said anxiously, "What are you trying to do, Wyot? Are you thinking of fighting all of them alone?"

The twelve death spirits are at the Eternal Boundless Rank. Meanwhile, the mysterious powerhouse is a Terra Acmean with a Terra Acmean God Weapon."

James ignored her. Instead, he used his Chaos Power to form an energy shield temporarily deflecting the twelve death spirits. After buying the rest some time, James looked at Deshawn and told him, "Lead them somewhere safe for now. Leave the rest to me."

Deshawn refused, saying, "Who are you kidding? I admit you're powerful, Wyot and I know you even have supreme Chaos Power.

You were able to subdue the death spirits despite only being a Quasi Acmean. However, you have an additional opponent, a Terra Acmean with a Terra Acmean God Weapon. You think too highly of yourself if you think you can handle this alone!"

"Shut up, and leave now if you want to survive! If you insist on dying then, go ahead and stay to fight."

Boom!!!

While they were busy bickering, the shield that James had set up with Chaos Power shattered.

Deshawn immediately turned to the rest. "Follow me!"

Since James wanted to take center stage at a time like this, Deshawn decided to let him be. He quickly led the creatures to the formation's border. He planned to breach the formation and get everyone out of the Sky Islands.

The Devouring Demon had too many weapons at his disposal, and he could easily wipe out a powerful race. No one wanted to stay behind to fight, and they quickly evacuated with Deshawn.

He did not bother chasing after them. They were merely Quasi Acmeans and could not decode the mysterious formation around the Sky Islands.

Once he dealt with Wyot, he could get rid of them in a snap. Moreover, the formation secluded them from the outside. Thus, he did not have to worry that his secrets would be revealed to others.

After the other creatures evacuated, James was left to face the enemies on his own. The twelve death spirits instantly surrounded him. However, the Devouring Demon did not immediately ask them to kill James. Instead, he slowly approached step by step.

“You have tremendous potential, Wyot. You’ve cultivated pure Chaos Power and can subdue my death spirits that are at the Eternal Boundless Rank despite only being a Quasi Acmean yourself.

If you were to enter the Permanace Acme Rank, you’d definitely become one of the most powerful cultivators in the Greater Realms. With even more time, I’m sure you’ll overshadow the rest.”

After praising his efforts, the Devouring Demon stretched out his hand and demanded, “Hand it over.”

James replied calmly, “What do you want?”

‘The Chaos Sacred Art.’

James frowned. He did not respond and began to formulate a plan. At the same time, he was trying to buy more time for the escaping creatures. The other creatures escaped a huge distance away.

When they were safe, Yente spoke up and said, “Are you sure we did the right thing? We escaped, leaving only Wyot behind. If he dies, there’s no chance we’ll make it out alive. We should head back and fight together. If we unite, we might stand a chance against the Devouring Demon.”

“Yente, are you in love with Wyot? He insisted on taking them alone, so why should we interfere?”

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4255-“Yeah, it’s none of our business.”

“We can’t just charge to our deaths.

“Hurry and think of a way to break the formation, Deshawn. We need to escape this place while Wyot keeps them busy. If we don’t leave before he dies, we’ll also perish here.”

“Please hurry!”

“Quick, break the formation!”

Many creatures pleaded with Deshawn, placing their hopes on him.

Deshawn replied solemnly, “Calm down. Let’s head to the formation’s border and try striking it together. We might be able to force it open and leave.”

“We’ll follow whatever you say, Deshawn!”

The group of creatures left hastily, following Deshawn’s lead. Yente, on the other hand, looked into the distance worriedly.

“Don’t even think about going to him, Yente. Our survival is more important at the moment.”

Xristodoulos grabbed Yente and made her follow the others. Leilani also glanced in the direction they fled from, but only for a fleeting moment. Then, she quickly caught up with the group.

Meanwhile, James was surrounded by the twelve death spirits.

The Devouring Demon still held out his arm, demanding that James hand over the Chaos Sacred Art.

“You’re going to die soon, Wyot. The Chaos Sacred Art will be useless to your then. I’ll give you a chance. If you hand it over, I’ll spare you. I won’t destroy your soul and allow you to be reincarnated.”

‘The Chaos Sacred Art...’

James felt threatened by the Devouring Demon’s weapons. Despite that, he kept his composure, and asked, “Are you taking it for yourself or Youri?”

“Elder Youri wants the Blithe Omniscience. He’s not interested in the Chaos Sacred Art, but I am. He’s unaware of what’s happening within this formation. If you hand it to me, I’ll let you be reborn. How does that sound?”

The Devouring Demon stared at James, waiting for a reply. However, James suddenly smiled faintly at him. James knew it was impossible for him to continue hiding his strength and his Omniscience Path in his current circumstances.

Even though the Omniscience Path was the main cultivation system of the Human Race, it was not exclusive to them. Other races could also cultivate the Omniscience Path, but they would have a slightly harder time than humans.

James activated his Omniscience Path, and his Blood

Energy began to churn. His aura rose rapidly, and a faint halo appeared on his body’s surface. He looked very mysterious and ethereal.

“T-The Omniscience Path?”

The Devouring Demon stared alarmedly at James, and a hint of panic flashed across his face.

“H-How? That’s impossible. When did you cultivate the Omniscience Path?”

James smiled lightly and replied, “After the fight in the Primordial Realm, the Ten Great Races ordered for the Omniscience Path to be outlawed. No one was allowed to cultivate in the Omniscience Path. Therefore, I had to do it in secret.”

The Devouring Demon composed himself. Then, he said in an impressed tone, “Not bad, Wyot. You’re quite impressive. You’ve managed to hide your strength very well. It’s no wonder Elder Youri is afraid of you. Unfortunately, your attainments in the Omniscience Path are worthless. You’re not leaving this place alive even if you have the Omniscience Path.”

“Are you sure? Do you want a taste of my strength?”

James looked at him calmly.

Meanwhile, the group of creatures that escaped finally arrived at the formation’s border.

“Do you feel that? What kind of aura is that?”

Everyone looked toward the distance and released their

Divine Senses to observe the battle.

“No way.”

‘Wyot has also cultivated the Omniscience Path. Moreover, I can sense that his Omniscience Path’s attainments are quite high, and he is at the Seventh Stage’s middle stage.”

“He’s hidden his strength really well.”

“How dare he cultivate the Human Race’s Omniscience Path?”

“Youri cultivated the Omniscience Path too. As the Doom Race’s Young Master, it’s not surprising that he also secretly cultivated it. Plus, who would dare question them about it?”

“All that aside, Wyot’s death is unavoidable. He’s not at the Omniscience Path’s Eight Stage yet. If he was, he might stand a chance since he also has Chaos Power. Even so, his chances of survival are very slim.”

‘That’s enough. We can’t concern ourselves with Wyot right now. We need to quickly breach this formation, or else we’ll all die.”

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4256-James did not ask everyone else to evacuate simply to flaunt his strength. Rather, he wanted to obtain their approval and pave the way for him to take control of the Doom Race. Once he assumes control, the Human Race would have a chance to re-establish themselves in the Greater Realms.

However, the creatures that escaped did not appreciate James' sacrifice. They prioritized themselves and their own survival.

While James faced the enemies alone, the creatures united to attack the formation. Their powerful force struck the formation, and cracks appeared, spreading out on the formation. However, the formation was multilayered, and their strength was only enough to destroy the innermost layer of the formation. It was impossible for them to completely shatter it.

Moreover, the formation would instantaneously repair any damage inflicted on it.

Right after, a devastating force swept out of the formation. Many of the creatures were injured by the aftershock.

Meanwhile, James was still surrounded by the twelve death spirits. The Devouring Demon was reigning them in.

Although Yuri ordered him to kill James and the other participants, the Devouring Demon knew that James possessed the Chaos Sacred Art, and he wanted it.

Under normal circumstances, an opponent's treasures would be destroyed if they were in battle. As such, he acted prudently.

The Devouring Demon grew impatient and roared, "I'm giving you one last chance, Wyot. My patience is at its limits. If you don't hand it over, I'll obliterate you."

He pointed the long sword formed by the Light of Acme at James, and power filled the air.

Although James had already entered the Omniscience Path, he still felt a crushing pressure bear down on him. Small injuries began to form throughout his body.

The weapon formed by the Light of Acme was terrifying. In the hands of a Terra Acmean, it became even more lethal. James was intrigued by the sword. His strength would greatly improve if he had such a powerful sword.

“I can’t hand over the Chaos Sacred Art. It’s our race’s heirloom. Even if it ends up destroyed, I won’t relinquish it. I can’t let it fall into the hands of outsiders,” said James.

“If that’s your decision, you leave me with no choice then.”

The Devouring Demon’s face darkened, and he ordered, “Kill him!” 1

The twelve death spirits shot forward simultaneously. James knew the death spirits were powerful, and that the Devouring Demon was even more terrifying.

However, he was aware although they were at the Eternal Boundless Rank, they were not corporeal beings. If they were alive, they would be more powerful than someone at the early stage of the Terra Acme Rank.

The Devouring Demon was the more dangerous enemy. However, the Devouring Demon had a body that was cobbled together. Even though he had reached the early stage of the Terra Acme Rank, he did not necessarily have the real strength of an early stage Terra Acmean. Still, the weapon he had was horrifying.

The twelve death spirits charged at James.

The space around James immediately began to collapse, and deadly force permeated the area. In just an instant, many islands were destroyed.

James wanted to eliminate the twelve death spirits, before dealing with the Devouring Demon. He needed to end the battle quickly, afraid that more trouble would arise.

The Ignis began to circulate his whole body. The power fused with his blood, muscles, and bones. White-hot flames began to emerge from his body.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4257-In addition to the white halo from the Omniscience Path, James’ body was also cloaked with white flames. His aura was instantly magnified.

In the distance, the creatures injured after failing to break the formation were nursing their wounds. Suddenly, everyone sensed a strange power filling the air. They immediately turned towards the battlefield with their Divine Senses.

Everyone was stunned after realizing James' strength.

"Huh? What's going on?"

"Is this one of the Dooms' Supernatural Powers? Why haven't I read about it in my ancient books?"

"I don't think it's from the Dooms. Isn't Chaos Power their Supernatural Power?"

"Then what is that?"

"It's crazily strong."

"Those flames are insane."

Almost everyone was in awe of James' strength. Only Deshawn had a solemn expression. He sensed James' aura along with the white flames around his body.

Deshawn said solemnly, "If I'm not mistaken, he's using the Flame Art's Three Fire Transformations."

Someone immediately asked in return, "What is that?"

Deshawn explained, "When the Space Race ruled the Greater Realms, there was a Caelum Acmean called the Compassionate Path Master. He created an invincible Supernatural Power called the Flame Art's Three Fire Transformations.

'To perform the Flame Art's Three Fire Transformations, one required an Ignis, which is only formed after the destruction of a major world.

"Back in that era, it was very hard to collect Ignis. The Compassionate Path Master destroyed countless worlds to accumulate enough."

Deshawn explained past events.

“Oh, I remember! Before the Doom Race’s conference, Wyot had gone to the Red Flame Realm, which was where the Compassion Path Master used to live.”

“Now that you mention it, I remember he went there and refined the Red Flame Realm and obtained a ball of flames.”

“So that’s why he did that. He was trying to cultivate the Flame Art’s Three Fire Transformations.”

“Wyot has so many resources at his disposal. Not only did he cultivate the Omniscience Path of the Human Race, but he even mastered the Supernatural Power created by a Caelum Acmean. He’s amazing. These skills will only improve once he takes over the Doom Race.”

Deshawn was also impressed and agreed, “I think so too.

Wyot has shown extraordinary potential. Under his leadership, the Doom Race might even overpower. He could bring about a new era.”

James activated Ignis and used the First Transformation of the Flame Art’s Three Fire Transformations, Flame God Incarnation. His Ignis had grown stronger from the time he was on Planet Desolation, since it had also absorbed the Red Flame Realm’s Ignis. Its strength grew even more overbearing and powerful.

James’ body spewed blazing white flames, which rose several meters into the sky. His aura was overpowering.

Readying for combat, James loosened his muscles.

The Devouring Demon was flustered and had a horrified face.

James looked at him and asked, “Am I a worthy opponent now?”

The Devouring Demon took a few steps back and looked at James. He said grimly, “You’re really something, Wyot. I can’t believe you also obtained the Compassionate Path Master’s inheritance.”

James smiled faintly, then sprung into action. He rushed toward one of the death spirits and thrust his palm at it. His attack contained the power of his Chaos Path, Omniscience Path, physical strength, and Ignis. The various powers fused together and struck the death spirit.

Although the death spirit was strong, it was unable to withstand the full brunt of James' attack. It was completely obliterated and vanished from sight.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4258-James unleashed all his strength and entered his strongest state.

The death spirit that was at the Eternal Boundless Rank was obliterated in the face of his might.

"What the hell?" The Devouring Demon's expression changed.

He had heard of the Flame Art's Three Fire Transformations before. It was an extraordinary Supernatural Power created by a Caelum Acmean. However, he was unaware of the extent of its devastating power since he was not from that era.

He roared, "Attack him together! Kill him!"

The Devouring Demon was mortified. The situation would grow complicated if James were to make it out alive.

At that moment, the remaining 11 death spirits charged at James from different directions. The remaining death spirits were all extremely powerful so James proceeded carefully. Even with his physical strength, he would still be injured if they were to hit him.

Suddenly, the Devouring Demon also entered the fray. He held the sword formed by the Light of Acme and dashed toward James. Before James could scarcely blink, the Devouring Demon had already closed the gap. He was much more proficient in the Space and Time Path than James.

Therefore, James was unable to predict his movements.

The gleaming long sword appeared in front of James before he could even react. James instinctively tried to dodge. However, his body was crushed by an immense weight and the time around him had slowed down. His movement speed had drastically reduced, making it impossible to dodge the sword in time.

The sword pierced through James' body, instantly opening a large gash.

The Light of Acme unleashed terrifying force, which spread throughout James' body and rapidly destroyed him from within.

James sensed his life force being sapped away and felt as if he were rapidly aging. Horrified, he immediately raised his hand to counter the attack. James' flaming palm energy flew toward the Devouring Demon.

The Devouring Demon had immediately retreated after successfully landing a blow on James and easily dodged the attack. At that moment, the other 11 death spirits assaulted him mercilessly. His body was blasted away and sustained even more injuries. James was struck over and over as his injuries deepened.

James was incredibly strong and could stand toe-to-toe with Terra Acmeans. However, he was not completely proficient in Paths and he had yet to reach the Acme Rank. The Devouring Demon's Path mastery was much higher which put James at a disadvantage.

James roared furiously, "F*ck off!"

He crossed his arms in front of his chest to shield himself. Then, he unleashed his Ignis Power at the death spirits.

The death spirits cautiously avoided all of James' attacks.

James quickly seized the chance to retreat and create distance between himself and the Devouring Demon. Then, he mobilized his Life Path to treat the injuries on his body. Although his external injuries recovered instantly, his internal injuries were quite severe.

The Devouring Demon also retreated away and observed James. He expected that his sword strike would incapacitate James. However, his opponent was still full of vigor and able to fight. On the contrary, James' power seemed to have increased.

"It's no wonder the Omniscience Path is known for its power. The more seriously he's injured, the stronger he gets."

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4259-The Devouring Demon was greatly displeased. He went through a lot of trouble to create the 12 death spirits. However, James had effortlessly obliterated one of them. He felt incredibly distressed to see it die before him.

However, there was no time for him to grieve. It was important that he figure out how to take out James while minimizing his losses.

Meanwhile, the other competition participants were gathered far away at the border of the formation that encircled the Sky Islands.

Everyone was spectating James' battle.

After witnessing James' strength, all of them were astounded.

Out of curiosity, one asked, "A Terra Acmean in their early stage wielding a Light of Acme, and twelve death spirits at the Eternal Boundless Rank. Who in the Greater Realms could stand a chance against such a formidable individual?"

Another creature replied to him, "Probably only the Grand Patriarchs or Patriarchs from the Ten Great Races."

"Indeed. Among the known powerhouses, there should be about twenty or so that can take him on. The Greater Realm has a storied history, and there may still be powerhouses unknown to us."

Many creatures began to discuss amongst themselves.

They concluded that only the Ten Great Race's Grand Patriarchs and Patriarchs could oppose the Devouring Demon. This implied that James' current strength was equivalent to these 20 or so powerhouses.

James was only a Quasi Acmean and still had much room for improvement. Once he reaches the Permanence Acme Rank or Terra Acme Rank, he would be almost invincible.

Right then, the two were still locked in a stalemate.

After trading a few blows, James and the Devouring Demon did not rush back to battle.

James stared at the Devouring Demon, and then at the 11 death spirits, asking, "If you want the Chaos Sacred Art, I could possibly give it to you. However, how sure are you that you'd cultivate it successfully? It's the Doom Race's Supernatural Power. To cultivate it, Chaos Power is required."

The Devouring Demon assumed James was fearful and was trying to negotiate.

He replied ruthlessly, "You won't have to worry about that. Just hand it over to me. My offer still stands. If you give it to me, I won't destroy your soul and will allow you to be reincarnated. Considering your cultivation rank, you should be able to reincarnate with your memories intact."

James put up a finger and moved it from side to side, saying, "You don't get it. I'm pretty sure you're just one of Youri's monstrous creations. However, he didn't manage to subjugate you completely. I'm sure he promised to give you the Doom Race's cultivation method in exchange for your servitude. Your ultimate goal is the Chaos Sacred Art, isn't it? Instead of Youri, how about you work for me? I can provide you anything he offered you. Even better, I can give you what he can't."

Actually, James was not really confident in defeating the Devouring Demon. Even if he could wipe out the remaining death spirits, fighting the Devouring Demon would exact a heavy toll. He might be lucky enough to kill his opponent but would definitely suffer a heavy loss in the process.

"Haha."

The Devouring Demon snickered and said, "Are you seriously that naive, Wyot? Do you really think I'd submit to you?"

James looked at him and said calmly, "Anything is possible if we can negotiate properly."

"Don't you know how terrifying Elder Youri is? Even if I agreed to follow you, he'll kill me once he finds out."

Not only was the Devouring Demon unwilling to serve James, but he was also afraid of the consequences of doing so.

James responded, "I know he's strong, but no matter how strong he is, he only reached the Omniscience Path's Ninth Stage. Moreover, he's been stuck at the Terra Acme Rank and hasn't yet made it to the Caelum Acme Rank yet. As long as he isn't a Caelum Acmean yet, I can definitely surpass him.

"With a little more time, I'll grow stronger than him.

"You should reconsider. Should we fight to our deaths or make a deal? You can serve me and be my errand boy. In exchange, I'll give you the Chaos Sacred Art. I can even give you the Primal Mantra if you want as well. You're not the only one that wants to obtain the Blithe Omniscience. I'm also very much interested in it. Who do you think has a higher chance of getting it?"

"How long has it been since his birth, and what about me? If you think about it, the answer to who has greater potential is quite apparent.

"Why don't you give it another thought?"

James' voice gradually grew louder. At the same time, his aura also rose rapidly. He slowly approached the Devouring Demon. With each step he took, the Devouring Demon took a respective step backward.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4260-James glared at the Devouring Demon.

The Devouring Demon was a bizarre being comprised of various body parts from countless different races. His soul was also abnormal and held similarities to the evil spirits of the Dark World.

In the Dark World, some evil spirits would devour other souls to grow stronger.

James could sense one dominant soul within the Devouring Demon, but at the same time, there were also others within him.

"You should take his offer!"

“Hurry up, and take it!”

“He’s definitely more promising than Youri. If you give him more time, he’ll surely surpass Youri.”

“I can sense his amazing strength. I know he’ll create a prosperous world that no one has ever seen!”

The Devouring Demon’s body contained several remnant souls from ancient times. Some of them were souls of sentient Primordials that could sense James.”

The Devouring Demon continuously retreated as he sweat profusely.

James immediately understood the situation and said, “You haven’t fully refined your other souls yet. There are too many minds within you. I’m guessing some of them would occasionally take control of you and fight for dominance over your physical body.

“If you follow me, I can use Ignis to incinerate them and purify your soul. I can help you become a free spirit with complete autonomy over your body.”

While speaking, James had already gotten close to the Devouring Demon.

James’ words had sown discord among the souls within the Devouring Demon. At that moment, countless voices clamored in his mind. He felt like his brain was about to explode, and like his souls were splitting apart. The other sentient souls were trying to usurp him.

He had to cultivate instantly, or his consciousness would be swallowed by the other souls. Not only would the body be usurped by another soul, but his consciousness would also be completely obliterated.

The Devouring Demon had no other choice and shouted, “A- Alright! I accept your terms!”

Hearing this, James sighed in relief. He had taken a gamble. If he failed to convince the Devouring Demon, he would have no choice but to fight.

James was surprised his attempt to convince his opponent had worked.

After the Devouring Demon agreed to submit to James, he sat in a lotus position and began suppressing the other souls in his body. Meanwhile, the other eleven death spirits surrounded him protectively.

James watched his actions. He stood in place and quietly watched the Devouring Demon cultivate.

Meanwhile, the other creatures at the formation's border exchanged looks of disbelief.

"How did that work?"

"He easily subdued a powerhouse with a few simple words?"

"C-Could that monster be working with the Doom Race? Is he putting on an act with Wyot for us to see?"

They began to ramble on about the situation.

Deshawn shook his head lightly and said, "I don't think that's the case. That monster's body was purposefully put together. It also has many souls within it with a myriad of minds in it. Wyot's words must have upset these souls. He was panicked and had no choice but to comply with his demands."

Amongst the many creatures, only Deshawn understood what had happened.

"Wyot's amazing."

Deshawn had always thought himself to be one of the best. However, he began to feel inferior after meeting Wyot.

The Devouring Demon used his powers to quickly suppress the rioting souls in his body. His face eventually took on color once more.

He stood up and looked at James. He sighed and said helplessly, "You're terrifying, Wyot. You managed to discover and exploit my only weakness. If you hadn't upset the consciousness of the other souls within me and caused them to rebel, I wouldn't have compromised."

James smiled lightly and said, "I was sincere with my offer. I have the Chaos Sacred Art and Primal Mantra with me.

There's no doubt that I'm definitely the better choice.

Moreover, I can actually help you with your condition.”
