The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4287-The Yansh Realm was very big, but it was not really famous in the Greater Realms. No one knew Deshawn was from the Yansh Clan, and their clan had no well-known powerhouses.

However, ordinary creatures did not know the truth. In fact, the Yansh Clan was powerful, and their overall strength was not inferior to the Ten Great Races. They were even more potent than a few of the Ten Great Races. However, the Yansh Clan had no ambitions and was not interested in fame.

James looked through the map. After locating the Yansh Universe, he quickly began his journey.

He speedily traveled through the Chaos and soon arrived outside the Yansh Universe.

James looked toward the dazzling universe ahead and could sense a very familiar power from it.

‘Ignis? I must be right. It feels like Ignis,’ thought James.

The Yansh Realm had potent fire elements, and many of their cultivators were very proficient in the Fire Path.

James’ body flickered, and he entered the Yansh Universe without hesitation.

He traveled through the Yansh Universe, heading toward Deshawn’s clan.

Deshawn was from the strongest clan in the Yansh

Universe. However, there were very few that knew about the Yansh Clan. Only a few powerhouses and major families or sects knew about its existence. Cultivators at the Ancestral God Rank were clueless about the Yansh Clan.

The Yansh Clan was situated on a spiritual mountain within the Yansh Realm.

The spiritual mountain was called Mount Inferno. A formation surrounded the mountain, making it impossible to detect unless one had reached the Acme Rank.

James appeared outside of Mount Inferno. Although he had not reached the Acme Rank, his cultivation base and comprehension allowed him to sense the formation. James could break the protective formation around Mount Inferno with a little bit of time.

He walked over to the mountain gate, looked at the mountain range with weak Spiritual Energy, and shouted, "Wyt from the Doom Race is here to visit!"

His voice resounded throughout the Yansh Clan's territory.

The Yansh Clan's senior members were immediately alarmed and quickly gathered together.

"Why has Wyt come to visit our clan at a time like this?"

"The Doom Race is very ambitious. After Youri became the Patriarch, he must've made an elaborate plan to expand their race. Could it be they sent Wyt to try to conquer our clan?"

"Our clan has never interfered with the affairs of the outside world, nor do we have any desire to gain power. Even if the Doom Race wanted to expand their power, why would they come to us?"

Wyt's name had spread throughout the Greater Realms. His deeds and the battle in the Ancient Realm had spread wide and far.

Everyone knew Wyt had terrifying strength, and even a Terra Acmean would not be able to defeat him.

His appearance made the Yansh Clan's member panic.

"Father, Elders."

Deshawn stepped forward, clasped his fists, and looked at everyone in the hall, saying, "I've met Wyt before and am quite aware of his character. He most likely isn't here to recruit us. Moreover, he's very skilled in formations, and our formation isn't going to block him. We should open the formation, welcome him, and try to find out what he wants."

A middle-aged man in a golden robe sat in the highest seat. The Yansh Clan's Patriarch said solemnly, "If he had come to recruit us, what should we do?"

Should we fight him with all our strength or obediently agree to him? If we join them, we'll have to fight for them."

Deshawn said troubledly, 'The Doom Race is too powerful. If they really want us to join them, we have no choice but to agree. If we try to resist them, our entire clan will be wiped out."

The Yansh Clan's elders had solemn expressions.

They had stayed isolated and out of the Greater Realms' affairs. Thus, none of them expected the Doom Race to come looking for them.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4288-James' appearance caused panic in the Yansh Clan.

With the Yansh Clan's overall strength, they could easily deal with James.

However, the Doom Race was not going to be an easy opponent.

Everyone in the Yansh Clan began analyzing why James had visited them.

However, it was impossible to guess James' purpose for visiting the Yansh Clan.

Deshawn persuaded again, "Father, Elders, please open the formation and invite Wyot into our mountain."

The Yansh Clan's Patriarch fell into thought. After a while, he said, "Open the formation. Deshawn, go and welcome Wyot and inquire about the purpose of his visit. We'll discuss things after figuring out why he's here."

"Alright." After receiving permission, Deshawn quickly walked toward the formation.

James waited outside the formation.

The announcement of his arrival had already spread throughout the Yansh Clan. A long time passed, but the formation had yet to be opened. Despite that, James waited patiently since he was here to seek guidance in cultivation.

After a few more moments, the formation finally opened.

An abundant Empyrean Spiritual Energy gushed out from the formation as soon as it opened.

A dashing young man dressed in a white robe walked out of the formation and smiled brightly. “Wyt!”

Deshawn beamed with a bright smile and acted like he was very close to James.

“Please come inside.”

Deshawn personally came to welcome and invite James into the Yansh Clan’s territory.

James nodded lightly and passed through the formation.

The scenery before him changed drastically.

Before passing through the formation, the Spiritual Energy he sensed from the mountain range was weak. Now that he was on the other side of the formation, it felt like a totally different place. It was a beautiful scenery with vast mountains and rivers. Countless spiritual mountains were in view, and even spiritual cranes were flying throughout the sky.

Deshawn smiled and asked tentatively, “Shouldn’t you be collecting the tokens from the Ten Great Races right now? What brings you to the Yansh Clan? We’ve lived isolated from the Greater Realms, and very few people know about us and our headquarters’ location. Who told you about our whereabouts?”

Meanwhile, the powerhouses in the main hall paid close attention to James’ every move. Everyone held their breath, waiting for James’ answer.

James said smilingly, “I didn’t come with ill intentions. I simply came to ask you a few questions.”

Deshawn was finally relieved. The other senior members of the Yansh Clan were also put to ease.

After calming down, Deshawn asked puzzledly, “You’re here to ask me a few questions?”

James nodded and said, “Yeah. I remember you claiming to have entered the Quasi Boundless Rank. I’m interested in the Boundless Rank. I gave up absorbing the Chaos Sacred Lotus and the opportunity to enter the Acme Rank to enter the Boundless Rank first.”

After learning about James’ intention of visiting him, Deshawn smiled.

“Is that so? Then, you’ve come to the right person. From what I know, I’m the only Quasi Acmean to have entered the Quasi Boundless Rank. No one in the Permanence Acme or Terra Acme Rank has reached the Boundless Rank.”

James smiled faintly and thought, ‘No one? Naturally, no one would know if they never publicly announced it. The Greater Realms’ history goes way back in time, and countless eras have passed. A few powerhouses must have survived throughout these long years.’

James was confident that as he got stronger, the cultivators he would encounter would also be more powerful.

Many more Permanence Acmeans and Terra Acmeans would also start to emerge.

Perhaps even Caelum Acmeans would show up.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4289-Although he had already reached such great heights in cultivation, James knew there was much more to learn.

The Chaos was boundless, and the Greater Realms was just a portion of it. He had yet to learn everything about the Greater Realms, and there was definitely more to the Chaos. Whether other similar spaces like the Chaos existed was still a mystery.

Perhaps he would only get close to the truth after reaching the Caelum Acme Rank, which every powerhouse that survived the Sky Burial Age dreamed of.

James put away his thoughts.

Deshawn continued, saying, “Since you’ve visited, how about staying here for a while? If you have any questions, I’ll be here to assist you. I’ll share everything I know with you.”

James followed Deshawn to a spiritual mountain.

Deshawn said, "This is where I reside. You can stay here for now..."

Before he could finish speaking, James interrupted, saying, "Our Patriarch has only given me one Epoch. After the time is up, I'll have to return home. Before returning, I need to enter the Quasi Boundless Rank, or even better, the Permanence Acme Rank. I don't have much time, so let's get straight to it."

Deshawn frowned as he glanced at James.

"One Epoch isn't enough time, Wyot. Do you know how long I stayed in the Quasi Acme Rank before entering the Boundless Rank? I was already a Quasi Acmean during the Primordial Realm Era and only recently entered the Quasi Boundless Rank."

James was aware of the difficulties but was in a race against time. Youri was not going to give him much time, nor could the Human Race wait that much longer.

James said, "Tell me about your understanding of the Boundless Rank first."

"Alright. Let's go to the back mountain first."

Deshawn led James toward the back of the spiritual mountain.

Behind the spiritual mountain was a beautiful waterfall.

James and Deshawn each sat on a rock before the waterfall.

"The Boundless Rank is about constantly improving in strength. A powerhouse at the Quasi Boundless Rank is stronger than someone at the Permanence Acme Rank's Early Stage. To enter the Boundless Rank, you'll have to reach the limit of every rank and acquire great strength.

"Once you sense an opportunity to breakthrough, you'll have to condense your cultivation rank and keep improving your strength until you can no longer improve."

Deshawn shared his understanding of the Boundless Rank.

James frowned. "Until I can no longer improve?"

Deshawn replied, 'That's right. The Boundless Rank is about constantly pushing your strength's limit. Theoretically, you'll be in the Quasi Boundless Rank for a long time, but your strength will keep improving without obstacles. If I'm not mistaken, you can reach the Caelum Acme Rank or even surpass it.

"As long as you have enough time, it's possible."

James' brows furrowed even tighter.

"Boundless Rank... Pushing the limit..."

Deshawn's explanation was similar to that of the elder in the Doom Race's library chamber.

However, Deshawn's sharing was more difficult to comprehend.

From what James knew, every cultivation rank had a limit.

After reaching the limit of the rank, it was impossible to go any further. One would have to enter the next cultivation rank to obtain greater strength.

'That's right. The Boundless Rank allows you to keep getting stronger.'

Deshawn explained, "However, this is my theory from what I've learned. Perhaps, I haven't really entered the Boundless Rank yet. I'm only at the Quasi Boundless Rank, which is slightly stronger than the Quasi Acme Rank or maybe a little more superior to the Permanence Acme Rank. My strength is probably only equivalent to the Permanence Acme Rank's Middle Stage. However, I feel like I've already reached the limit of my strength and haven't been able to grow anymore.

I might have to enter the Acme Rank to get stronger."

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4290-Understanding the theory and successfully cultivating it was two different things.

According to Deshawn's theory, the Boundless Rank allowed one to constantly improve in strength while staying in the same cultivation rank.

However, his strength in the Quasi Acme Rank had reached a limit, and there was no way to improve. Since he had no progress, he left the Yansh Realm to participate in the Doom Race's competition, hoping to win the Sacred Chaos Lotus and enter the Acme Rank.

James pondered on Deshawn's words.

"Is there anything else you'd like to know?"

After thinking for a while, James asked, "As long as I'm strong enough, I can enter the Boundless Rank, right?"

Deshawn replied, "From my understanding, there is a requirement to enter the Boundless Rank."

"Oh?" Intrigued, James asked, "What's the requirement?"

Deshawn explained, "After entering the Quasi Acme Rank's Last Stage, right when you're about to make a breakthrough, you'll have to condense and improve your strength simultaneously.

'The stronger you get, the harder it is to condense it. When you feel like your strength has already reached a point where it's impossible to condense anymore, you've most likely reached the Boundless Rank."

Deshawn had no idea what it was like for others to reach the Boundless Rank. Thus, he could only share what he felt when entering the Boundless Rank.

James stayed in the Yansh Clan for some time. During this period, he spent almost all his time learning from Deshawn.

Even though Deshawn was weaker than him, he managed to enter the Boundless Rank. He had learned and gained quite a lot of insights.

Deshawn kept no secrets from James and answered his every question honestly.

After learning about Deshawn's understanding of the Boundless Rank, James did not want to extend his stay any longer.

He planned to leave the Yansh Clan and visit the Angel Race. He wanted to see the hidden powerhouse that had reached the Eternal Boundless Supreme Path Rank.

On Deshawn's spiritual mountain, James clasped his fists and said gratefully, "Thank you for the generous teaching, Deshawn. I've learned a lot from you, and it's time for me to leave."

Deshawn stood up and said, "I know you have great ambition, Wyot. However, entering the Boundless Rank is an extensive process. With the current situation of the Greater Realms, I'm afraid you're short of time."

James replied, "I understand. Thank you for the reminder."

Suddenly, James recalled something and asked, "By the way, I sensed potent fire attributes in the Yansh Universe. Where is it coming from?"

Hearing this, Deshawn was startled. He knew that James had cultivated the Flame Art's Three Fire Transformations. The Yansh Universe had a very powerful Ignis, which allowed them to be exceptionally skilled in the Fire Path.

Deshawn was afraid James had his eyes on their Ignis.

"Your Ignis is already strong enough. Even a Terra Acmean wouldn't dare to take on your Ignis. There's no need to destroy the Yansh Realm for the Ignis."

Deshawn looked at James worriedly. If James wanted to enhance his Ignis, then he might really destroy the Yansh Realm for their Ignis.
