

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4328

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4328-James was completely flabbergasted by Zella's questions.

He had knowledge about the secret art of Projection after having mastered the Greater Paths. With that method, a cultivator could use a living being's past to create an artificial world or realm for the purpose of training.

'I know how to do that too. However, the living being, whose past has been borrowed for the projection, shouldn't be able to sense it happening.

'Yet, this lady is somehow aware that I am here for the trials. ' James pondered.

"Who are you?"

James fixed an intense gaze at Zella.

Zella appeared calm and composed as she continued to observe James. She was not nervous in the slightest even though she knew James had come from the future.

She replied in a steady voice, "My name is Zella Yanes. The Yaneiri King is my older brother. Can you tell me now what is the task that you have to do to pass the trial?"

James was extremely curious about how Zella was aware of his situation.

Yet, he decided to tell her the truth. "My task is to kill all living beings in this world within a period of thirty thousand years. If I couldn't do that within the time period, I will die inside the realm of the Path of Heavenly Awakening."

"Young man, I'm afraid you won't be able to complete the task. You are going to die in the realm."

The Yaneiri King took a few steps toward James.

'I'm not trying to belittle the man. The truth is he is just too weak,' the Yaneiri King thought.

“Well, we’ll see about that after I try fighting you. Just come at me with...”

The Yaneiri King materialized right before James before the latter had finished talking.

James did not even see how the man moved when he felt an overwhelming aura coming toward him the next instant. The energy was so great that it sent James flying several meters backward.

Boom!

James had crashed into the base of the next mountain, causing a huge commotion as the gigantic mountain began to collapse.

A short while later, James managed to climb his way out of the stone and rubble. He slowly got to his feet.

The man was now in a bloodied and disheveled state.

“He’s insanely strong.” James glared at the Yaneiri King.

‘This man is a superior cultivator. His powers are greater than that of the Angel Race’s Grand Patriarch by folds.

‘I know I can eventually surpass this man if I have been given enough time. However, I only have thirty thousand years now.

‘Even if I could reach the Permanence Acme Rank before my time runs up, I would still be no match for him...’ James concluded inwardly.

“Damn it! Why did they have to come up with an ultimate- level difficulty for the Path of Heavenly Awakening?! This task is virtually impossible!” James grumbled through clenched teeth.

‘You’re too weak,’ the Yaneiri King said in a low voice, “I could give you a critical blow just by using parts of my aura. It’ll only take one hit from me to end you right away.”

James’ hands balled into fists.

He activated the Ignis at that moment. Slowly, the Ignis spread and fused with each cell in his body. In a flash, James was completely engulfed in blazing white flames.

“He’s got a few tricks up his sleeve.”

The Yaneiri King lifted his brows. He could sense that James’ aura and powers were growing stronger. Then, he curled his lips.

“Even so, I would still say the same. Even if you do that, you are still no match for me.”

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4329

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4329-Ze Ila had a grim expression on her face. Still, she remained standing in the same spot without saying a word.

Just then, the Yaneiri King lifted his hand and snapped his fingers.

A ripple of energy was formed around the space where James was standing. James could feel immense energy attacking him from all directions the next instant.

The attack came so swiftly that James didn’t even have the time to dodge or avoid it. The Yaneiri King even managed to damage James’ Genesis with that hit.

The Ignis contained in James’ body went out almost instantly. James dropped to the ground, feeling as though all of his life force were drained from his body.

“How boring.”

The Yaneiri King had lost interest. “I thought that I would be facing a really strong or impressive cultivator. I guess the trials designed for the Path of Heavenly Awakening aren’t that difficult, after all. I think I could easily complete all of the tasks if I were the one who had entered the realm.

“Let’s go, Zella.”

The Yaneiri King started pulling Zella along as he headed toward the entrance to Mount Yaneiri.

Zella took another glance over her shoulder in James’ direction.

“Brother, that man was chosen to enter the Path of Heavenly Awakening with the ultimate-level difficulty. Even our world has been projected into the realm because of him. There must be something more to that human cultivator,” Zella said.

“Has the projection ended? Are we still inside the realm now?” The Yaneiri King asked as he still could not sense and discern as Zella did.

Zella shook her head. “There are only two ways we can leave this realm.”

“What are they?”

Zella replied, “The first is when he dies in this realm trying to pass the trial. The second way is when he manages to kill all of us and complete his task. Naturally, we’ll be able to leave the realm as well.”

“I’ll kill him right now.”

The Yaneiri King did not like the idea of staying inside a realm that was designed to be the training ground of some unknown cultivator.

Zella caught him by his arm. “You can’t, Brother.”

“Why can’t I?” The Yaneiri King was on the verge of losing his patience.

The Yaneiri King’s disciples remained silent as they followed behind the siblings who were in a heated discussion.

Zella explained, “You have been doing your research on the Sky Burial, Brother. I have seen the future where the Everlasting Night Demon Lord has fallen upon all living beings. The Greater Realms were in total chaos. There was nothing left, except for a ray of hope.”

“I can sense that this man is the beacon of hope for future generations. He might be able to overcome the Everlasting Night Demon Lord. We must help him pass the trial,” Zella said firmly.

‘That guy?’ The Yaneiri King burst out laughing.

‘You must be joking. There were so many oracles and superb cultivators of the Caelum Acme Rank who perished due to the Sky Burial back in the past. How would a man like him be able to overcome it?’

The Yaneiri King was not convinced in the slightest.

“It’s fine if you don’t believe me. Just pay the man no mind, and allow him to train for the next thirty thousand years.

Anyhow, no matter what happens to him at the end of his time limit, it won’t affect us in any way. In the end, this may all turn out to be just a strange dream to us once it is all over.”

After saying that, Zella turned around and teleported to James’ side.

James was laying over the rubble. His clothes were drenched in his own blood. The man was staring absently at the sky.

Suddenly, a beautiful face came into his sight.

Zella waved her hand. A soft beam of light shone down on James, and he could feel his body recovering at a miraculous speed.

A brief moment later, James was able to get to his feet again. He looked at Zella.

‘Why did you save me?’

Read The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4330

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4330-James knew how severe his injuries were. He even knew how long and arduous it would take for him to heal those injuries caused by the Yaneiri King.

However, it only took Zella less than a minute to heal James completely.

James stared at the lovely and graceful lady for quite some time. He couldn’t help but feel curious about why Zella had helped him.

“I’ve saved you because I think you are important,” Zella replied in a gentle voice.

“I’m important?”

James had a puzzled look in his eyes.

“Follow me.”

After saying that, Zella started walking toward the entrance of Mount Yaneiri. Despite his initial confusion, James followed behind her.

“Have you heard of the Sky Burial before?” Zella asked.

“Mhm.” James said, “I’ve heard about it before.”

Zella said, “All beings perish whenever the Everlasting Night Demon Lord befalls us. In the long history of the Greater Realms, each and every civilization that was flourishing or thriving would inevitably come to an end due to the Sky

Burial.”

“The Sky Burial is divided into the Mega Sky Burial and the Miniature Sky Burial. During the Miniature Sky Burial, only cultivators that were in and above a certain cultivation rank would be wiped out. The Mega Sky Burial is much worse. When it happens, everything is engulfed in darkness. All beings return to the Chaos, and the world restarts from nothing again.”

Zella explained about the Sky Burials in a calm, unhurried tone.

James furrowed his brow.

I’m aware of the Sky Burial.

‘As far as I know, there was once a time when there were countless cultivators of the Caelum Acme Rank living and prospering for a long time together. It was a period when the Blithe Omniscience, the Primal Mantra, and the Chaos Sacred Art were created.

‘However, all of those cultivators perished at some point around the same time.

‘Another example would be the people of the Space Race. All their top cultivators perished as well.

‘Regardless of how those people had died, everyone called it a Sky Burial,’ James thought.

“What exactly is a Mega Sky Burial?” James asked.

Zella replied, "People say that the Mega Sky Burial is a myth. However, it is very real. When it happens, the Greater Realms will be engulfed in total darkness. All of the universes will be consumed and disintegrated. Everything will cease to exist at that point and return to the Chaos when it happens."

She continued, "I can see fragments of the future, and I'm certain that a Mega Sky Burial will happen at some point in the future. I can't say for sure when that is, but it will most likely happen when you have more and more cultivators of the Caelum Acme Rank in the future."

"Is there any way of stopping it?" James asked.

"Of course." Zella stopped and looked at James. "Someone has to achieve the Chaos Rank. Then, they would be able to fight the darkness and overcome the Mega Sky Burial."

Then, she led James as they hiked up Mount Yaneiri.

Mount Yaneiri was a very unique and beautiful mountain as the spiritual mountain floated in mid-air and had the shape of a crescent moon.

Soon, they arrived at a picturesque manor located on the top of Mount Yaneiri.