The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4331-Zella pointed at the manor and said, "Based on your current cultivation rank, you can't defeat Wynton, and you don't have much time left. You can stay here for now and use this place for cultivation. If you need any help, you can tell me."

Upon thinking of Wynton's cultivation rank, James felt his head throb.

How could James defeat and kill Wynton within thirty thousand years?

He pushed the door open and entered the manor.

The manor was huge, and there were many Empyrean herbs inside. He sat in a sitting area and looked at Zella walking over. Putting aside whether or not he could defeat Wynton, he found the lady before him mysterious. She even knew that he was in the realm.

The lady knew many secrets he did not know.

He was interested in the Sky Burial Age.

"I read about the legend of the Yaneiri Clan in ancient texts. Wynton also saw the records in them. As far as I know, the time Yaneiri Clan appeared in the Greater Realms was thirty thousand epochs after the Sky Burial Age ended.

Meanwhile, the Yaneiri Clan only existed in history for less than ten thousand epochs before disappearing."

James looked at Zella, who was standing to the side and wearing white clothes.

"The Sky Burial Age was only thirty thousand epochs past your era. How much do you know about the Sky Burial Age?"

Hearing that made Zella fall into deep ponder.

After a while, she slowly sat down and looked at James opposite her. Softly, she said, 'You're finally asking the right questions. I know more about the Sky Burial Age, which was thirty thousand epochs past my era because I lived from that era.'

When James heard that, he held his breath.

The era where Master Blithe and the Chaos Path Master existed was far from his current era.

The majority of the living beings here knew nothing about that era. They only knew whatever was recorded in the ancient books.

Looking at Zella, James waited for her answer.

Slowly, Zella said, "Everything happened because of a contradiction. At first, the contradiction was minor, but as time passed, the contradiction grew, igniting an intense battle. Every powerhouse of every universe in the Chaos could not avoid this battle. In the end, everyone died."

"Although a contradiction caused it, no matter what was the reason, it was arranged by the Chaos Heavenly Path. Even if there were no contradictions, there might be grudges and other reasons which would wipe out these powerhouses."

The things Zella said were what James knew.

"What were the grudges?" James could not help but ask.

Zella responded, "It's a long story. I can't explain it in such a short time. Besides, you don't need to know all this now. Knowing these things will affect your Cultivation Heart. So, it's best that you don't know about them."

James knew that Zella would not tell him these matters. Perhaps it was for his own good.

"Huff!"

James took a deep breath.

The past was the past, and history was history.

As a powerful human, he should look ahead and worry about the future.

"One cycle every three times."

Zella continued, "Thirty thousand epochs was the first time. I don't know when will be the second time. However, I know that the current era you're in has experienced the second Sky Burial Age. The third time may be Mega Sky Burial.”

‘There’s another saying. The lifespan of the Chaos Heavenly Path can only adhere to this time. When the third Sky Burial Age comes, the lifespan of the Chaos Heavenly Path will end. By then, everything will return to chaos, obliterate, and disappear until the Chaos births a new Chaos Heavenly Path, universe, and life.”

‘This saying is quite true. If understood this way, the cultivation base of all living beings in the universes in the Greater Realms will be stronger. Then, the lifespan of the Chaos Heavenly Path will be shorter. To protect itself and exist for a longer time, the Chaos Heavenly Path will make arrangements to kill the group of powerhouses with the strongest cultivation base.”

Upon hearing that, James could not help but frown.

Was this the truth?

Was it because the Chaos Heavenly Path wanted to protect itself and prolong its existence, or were there powerhouses beyond all cultivation realms who arranged this?

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4332-James did not ponder on the complex questions for now.

Currently, he needed to think of a way to defeat and kill Wynton.

The environment here was elegant with sufficient Spiritual Energy. It was an excellent place for cultivation.

With a wave of hands, several Time Inscriptions emerged and gathered, forming a time formation.

Thirty thousand years was short.

It was especially so when James had reached such a high cultivation rank. Each time he carried out closed-door meditation, it would take millions of years. If he wanted to comprehend secret arts, he would need several epochs.

Thirty thousand years was too short. He would only have a breakthrough if he used the time formation.

Besides, even if he had a breakthrough, he could not defeat Wynton.

Looking at Zella, he asked, "What cultivation rank do I need to reach to defeat Wynton?"

Zella had a heavy expression as she said, 'Theoretically, even if you reached the same cultivation rank as Wynton, you can't defeat him, let alone kill him. Wynton has extraordinary potential. He reached the extreme for every cultivation rank. He's invincible in the same cultivation rank.

His Quasi Acme Rank and Acme Rank have all reached the Boundless."

Her words made James feel pressured.

"Since you saved me, you don't wish for me to die and hope I can defeat Wynton, breaking through this secret rank. You must have a way to let me defeat Wynton, right?"

Zella stared at James and did not respond.

A way? She did not have a way.

The difference between James' cultivation rank and Wynton's was too big. Even treasures and unique cultivation methods could not narrow the gap.

James' body flashed, and he disappeared.

At the next moment, he appeared in the sky outside. With his legs crossed, he sat in mid-air twenty meters above the ground. He was in deep thought.

Huff!

After a while, he took a deep breath.

Now, he could only try entering the Quasi Boundless Supreme Path Rank in the shortest time and reach the Eight Stage Omniscience Path.

Then, a special lotus appeared.

It was the Chaos Sacred Lotus, a treasure of the Doos. He had obtained it for a while now, but he never absorbed and cultivated it.

‘The Chaos Sacred Lotus.’

Upon seeing the Chaos Sacred Lotus, Zella was surprised. It was a special relic. It contained a complete Chaos Power. It was a treasure to any living being.

“I didn’t expect him to have such a treasure. He has the Chaos Power. Perhaps he’s related to the Doom Race,” mumbled Zella softly.

Standing far away, she looked at James. She wanted to see how far he could cultivate in such a limited time.

In an instant, James entered the Omniscience Path and a white halo appeared on his body.

Looking at the Chaos Sacred Lotus before him, he opened his mouth and absorbed it.

A strong power emerged from the Chaos Sacred Lotus. The power was absorbed into his body, and it began to nourish his body and blood veins.

His body and blood veins were absorbing the power of the Chaos Sacred Lotus like crazy, as though they had been starved for a long time.

However, his body quickly became full.

He was a human. The potential humans had been cut off, so it was extremely difficult to cultivate the Omniscience Path.

Currently, James needed to use the power of the Chaos Sacred Lotus to open up the potential.

His potential, future, and cultivation path had been cut off.

He could not hide this fact from Zella.

When Zella sensed all of this, she appeared to be shocked.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4333-‘His cultivation path has been cut off, yet he could cultivate his Omniscience Path to this level. He’s amazing. Even if he has the Chaos Sacred Lotus, it will be hard for him to enter the Eighth Stage. He will waste the power and the complete Chaos Path of the Chaos Sacred Lotus. It’s a great help in comprehending paths, but it’s such a waste to absorb it to open up the potential of life.’

Looking at James from a distance, Zella suddenly had an idea. She raised her hands, and a white light emerged from her palms.

She raised her right hand high. Her palm faced James.

At this moment, a mysterious pattern appeared in her right palm. The pattern was dazzling and was blooming white light.

She mumbled a curse James did not understand.

Then, James sensed a mysterious power. The power entered his body through the pores of his body.

In a flash, his blood boiled. The cells in his body were active.

James could sense a strong power appear in his blood, bones, and muscles.

In his blood, the potential was released and he became more energetic.

His cultivation path that had been cut off was restored at this time, and his potential was growing endlessly.

James could not help but look at Zella.

Zella’s face was pale. It was clear that she restored James’ cultivation path and opened up his potential. She paid a huge price.

Zella’s face grew paler, and her black hair gradually turned grey. On her beautiful face, wrinkles appeared. Even though she had wrinkles, she looked stunning.

After a while, the pattern in her palm darkened. It no longer shone. Then, it disappeared.

As if she had lost her energy, she fell to the ground.

Before she reached the ground, James caught her. Weakly, she fell into James' embrace.

James helped her to a chair nearby.

"What happened?" James asked, "Why is your aura so weak? What did you do?"

James did not know what Zella had done to let him restore his cultivation path of the Omniscience Path.

Zella was exhausted. Without energy, she said, "I used all of my power to restore your cultivation path and open up your potential."

Looking at the dying Zella, James sighed helplessly and said, "Why? We aren't close to each other, so why did you help me? You did so much for me. Because of that, the two of us and the entire Yaneiri Clan will be tainted with Karma."

"Haha!" Zella laughed. "I know. I want you to be tainted with my race's Karma. I believe that you have a way to resolve it. Wynton wants to research the Sky Burial Age and change everything on his own. He won't succeed. He will only ruin my race. I saw that my race will disappear one day in the near future. All living beings of my race will be trapped in a realm of the Chaos. If you want to resolve the Karma, find where my race is trapped and save them in the future."

Zella was a prophet. Even if she did not cultivate the Extrapolation Art, she had the eyes of the prophet. She could see the future.

She had seen the future of the Yaneiri Clan long ago. She also kept advising Wynton to give up because she knew that he could not help the living beings of the Mega Sky Burial.

After learning about the future of the Yaneiri Clan, she saw the bright future of the endless ages.

Even though she did not know what the bright future was, she sensed that the man from the humans before her was related to it.

So, she used all her power to open up James' cultivation path.

Looking at the white-haired Zella, James could sense that her life was deteriorating quickly.

He raised his hand and a strong Life Power emerged in his palm. He wanted to prolong Zella's life.

Nonetheless, Zella said, "Don't worry. I won't die so easily.

I'm just tired. Even though I no longer have my cultivation base, it will be restored after I rest. However, I lost the ability to prophesy. I can no longer see the future."

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4334-Zella sacrificed a lot to help James restart his cultivation path. Not only did she use up all of her power, but she also lost her prophetic ability.

She did all this because she hoped the Yaneiri Clan could have a future. Zella also wished that James could locate the trapped Yaneiri Clan in the future and save them.

James did not expect his Path of Heavenly Awakening experience to involve the Yaneiri Clan and be tainted with Karma.

He got rid of the Life Power in his palm.

Zella leaned on the chair and said, 'You can ignore me and cultivate by yourself. I just need to take a rest alone.'

"Thank you." James sincerely expressed his gratefulness.

Then, he appeared one hundred meters away.

Sitting with his legs crossed twenty-odd meters above ground, he looked inside his body. It was full of vitality.

As he activated the Omniscience Path, his peaceful blood began to boil.

In his blood veins, strong power kept emerging. The power filled his limbs and bones. His aura also improved.

In the past, he needed elixirs to increase his Omniscience Path. However, his potential was not unlimited. Strong power was emerging in his body continuously. He turned the power into his aura and physical power.

He entered the state of cultivation.

To cultivate quicker, he still absorbed the power of the Chaos Sacred Lotus.

With the addition of the power of the Chaos Sacred Lotus and his limitless potential, his physical power increased quickly.

At this moment, the white search halo on his body grew more dazzling.

Several important acupoints in his body were also opened. A strange power kept emerging in the acupoints.

Gradually, every cell in his body was like a mysterious portal. In the portals, there was pure power.

These were all his potential.

He opened up his potential and let out his energy. His aura improved.

The white search halo on his body became more dazzling, and his aura grew stronger.

Boom!

All of a sudden, an eruption sounded from the inside of his body. Following the eruption, his aura and physical power improved a lot.

He had a breakthrough. After so much effort, James finally entered the Eighth Stage Omniscience Path.

Huff!

He took a deep breath and put away the Chaos Sacred Lotus.

The opened portals in his body slowly merged, and the acupoints stopped injecting energy.

Landing on the ground, James stabilized himself calmly. With his fists clenched, he could sense a strong power coming from his body. He felt proud.

“Even if you entered the Eighth Stage Omniscience Path, you aren’t Wynton’s match.”

A sweet voice sounded.

James looked in the direction of the voice.

Zella slowly walked over.

After she took a rest, her face became rosy again, and her white hair was gone. Her hair had returned to its original color. It was just that there was no power in her body. The power she lost could not be restored. She could only cultivate again.

Zella needed to cultivate for a long time to reach the Acme Rank.

“You need to reach the Ninth Stage Omniscience Path to have a chance of winning against Wynton.”

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4335-Zella appeared before James.

The smile on James’ face disappeared, and he became serious.

“What else can I do to improve my power in a short time?” James looked at Zella and asked.

Zella shook her head.

Cultivation needed to be done step by step. One could not break through continuously in a short time.

“However, you don’t need to be anxious. There’s still time. Now, you only need to try to enter the Quasi Boundless Supreme Path Rank,” said Zella.

If James could not enter the Quasi Boundless Supreme Path Rank, even if he entered the Permanence Acme Rank and the Terra Acme Rank, he would not be Wynton's match.

To defeat Wynton, James needed to enter the Boundless in the Quasi Acme Rank and the Permanence Acme Rank.

Then, he had to enter the Terra Acme Rank to have an opportunity to defeat and even kill Wynton.

Although James had a breakthrough in the Omniscience Path, he was not happy at all. If he failed, he would die in the secret stage.

'The Boundless... Can I reach the Boundless in the remaining time?'

James did not have any confidence and was doubting himself.

He sensed the time. It only took him three years in the outside realm to have a breakthrough in the Omniscience Path.

"Do you understand the Boundless?" James looked at Zella.

Zella nodded her head and said, "I think I do. Even though my cultivation rank isn't high, Wynton entered the Boundless under my guidance."

James asked, "So, what should I do now to enter the Boundless?"

Zella answered, "You need to comprehend the path first to sense the Permanence Acme Rank."

"Alright."

Without any hesitation, James sat with his legs crossed in mid-air again. He summoned the Chaos Sacred Lotus once more and looked at it before him. Then, his Divine Sense entered the Chaos Sacred Lotus.

In the Chaos Sacred Lotus, he sensed the complete Chaos Power.

'The Chaos Power was formed by the Greater Paths.

However, even if one cultivated the complete Greater Paths, without special cultivation techniques, one might not be able to form the Chaos Power.

“I can’t guide you on this. Besides, you have already cultivated the Chaos Power. You don’t need my guidance.

‘The Chaos Sacred Lotus is delicate. Each petal contains a different path. You can choose a path to comprehend. The petals contain the process of deducing the Acme Rank. If your comprehension is strong, you can comprehend the true Acme Rank quickly.’

Zella’s voice spoke next to James.

James’ Divine Sense entered the Chaos Sacred Lotus. At this moment, he seemed to have appeared in the Chaos.

In the vast Chaotic Void, a light suddenly appeared. The light grew continuously, forming the Greater Paths. The power of the Greater Paths was deducing constantly and formed a Macrocosm Power in the end.

After deducing Ninth-Rank Macrocosm Power, the paths began to mutate strangely. Then, it birthed an Acme Power.

After birthing the Acme Rank, all the paths under the mysterious power began to merge and form a strange lotus.

In the silence, James deduced the paths and the process of change.

In his mind, the scene of the Ninth-Rank Macrocosm Power turning into the Acme Rank kept flashing.

While comprehending the paths, he was also absorbing the power of the Chaos Sacred Lotus to increase his Path Energy.

To enter the Acme Rank, not only did he need to completely comprehend the paths, but he also needed to improve his power.

In the process of comprehending the paths, the more he comprehended, the stronger his paths would become. While increasing his Path Energy, he could also understand the paths.

Both were linked.

Deducing the Acme Rank was too mysterious and profound.

Even James could not comprehend it in a short time.

In the end, he used the Primal Mantra. He began to break down the paths in the Chaos Sacred Lotus one by one into the most primitive paths and inscriptions.

James began to use his own way to deduce the changes in the paths.

While deducing could see the changes in the paths of the Chaos Sacred Lotus, he could also check whether or not he was deducing in the right way.
