The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4338-Zella knew the situation and predicament of James right now.

James had no time to settle down.

“Begin the next path.”

Zella’s voice sounded in his ear and mind.

James was trying his best to suppress the Space Path. Upon hearing Zella’s voice, he took a deep breath and forcefully activated another path. This time, he activated the Life Path.

He activated the Life Path to the extreme.

It was hard enough to suppress one path from having a breakthrough. Now, he needed to suppress two paths. In an instant, large drops of sweat fell from his forehead.

His face became distorted.

From afar, Zella observed James suppress the extreme.

She called out to him to continue activating the paths. At the same time, he needed to forcefully suppress the paths to prevent having a breakthrough. These were contradictory.

“Activate the third path,” continued Zella.

James continued to activate a path. This time, he activated the Death Path.

At this time, he had already activated three paths. All three paths had reached the extreme, but he never stopped activating them.

Tribulation Clouds filled the sky.

In the Tribulation Clouds, the lightning tribulations of the Acme Rank constantly flashed. Then, the lightning tribulations struck.

Nonetheless, James' aura was too strong. The aura formed an invisible armor, resisting the Heavenly Tribulation. Before the lightning tribulations could reach his body, they disappeared.

At this moment, a man stood outside the Apex Main Hall of Mount Yaneiri.

He was Wynton, the Patriarch of the Yaneiri Clan, Zella's brother.

Staring at the sky, he watched the lightning tribulations and sensed the manor James was carrying out closed-door meditation. He could not help but smile as he said, "I can't believe my sister is helping a human to enter the Boundless. So what if he can enter the Quasi Boundless Rank? I can kill him in one move."

Wynton was confident.

As for Zella sacrificing her ability to reopen a human's cultivation path, he did not care and did not want to bother.

It was because whatever his sister did, she would have her reasons for doing so.

James activated three paths.

"Continue activating the next path."

"Activate one more path."

Slowly, James had already activated six paths, including the Karma Path and the Five Great Paths.

While activating six paths at the same time, he needed to suppress them as well. It was a huge challenge for him. He felt a little powerless.

"Try to absorb the energy of heaven and earth carefully. The energy of the lightning tribulations is the purest. If you can absorb it, then absorb it. If you can't, then forget it."

James did as she said. He tried to absorb the energy.

The moment he absorbed it, his paths grew violent. He felt as though his power and his body were going to explode.

Nevertheless, he forcefully absorbed the energy. Even though he did not absorb much, he absorbed some.

Although Zella lost her cultivation base, she could still sense everything that happened to James. She could sense that James had absorbed some energy of the Heavenly Tribulation. She could not help but smile.

She was satisfied with James.

“You need to remember that no matter what happens, you can’t have a breakthrough. You can’t give up on activating the Path Energy.

“Resist.

“Use your thought to resist, your willpower to suppress, and your heart to absorb the energy of the Heavenly Tribulation.”

Zella spoke slowly.

However, when James heard her speak, she was speaking at a normal speed. As James was under a lot of pressure, his consciousness was blurry.

Zella also knew this. James would be fine after he went through this.

To enter the Boundless from the peak of the Quasi Acme Rank, other living beings needed numerous years. They might need millions of epochs or more to reach the Boundless.

James did not have that much time. She needed James to finish the path other living beings needed countless years to complete in a short time.

“Activate one more path.”

Zella’s voice sounded in his ear again.

James activated a path once more.

“Continue.

“Don’t stop.

“Suppress the paths. Don’t have a breakthrough. If you fail to suppress the paths and have a breakthrough, all our efforts will go to waste. Once you have a breakthrough, even if you have time, you will not be able to defeat Wynton. You will not be able to leave the Path of Heavenly Awakening alive.” “Willpower is infinite.”

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4339-‘Thoughts are invincible.1 “Use your thought to resist, your willpower to suppress, and your heart to absorb the energy of the Heavenly Tribulation.”

“Activate again.”

Time was ticking.

To James, every minute was torture.

Under Zella’s guidance, he continued the activate new paths.

Now, he had already activated the Greater Paths. His Soul Power was exhausting quickly. He needed to absorb the energy to recover the exhausted Soul Power by multitasking.

He could activate the Greater Paths and suppress them, but if he wanted to absorb the energy of the Heavenly Tribulation, it would be hard.

Nevertheless, no matter how hard it was, he absorbed the energy slowly.

Everytime he absorbed the energy meant he walked the paths other living beings needed countless years to complete.

“Merge them and form the Chaos Path.”

Zella could sense that James had reached his limit. She wanted to press the latter once more. She instructed him to merge the Greater Paths and form the Chaos Path.”

James did as instructed.

After he formed the Chaos Path, his pressure did not disappear. Instead, it increased.

It was because the Chaos Path surpassed everything. Suppressing the Chaos Path and the Greater Paths at the same time was extremely difficult.

“What a terrifying Chaos Power.”

Sensing James’ powerful Chaos Power, Zella could not help but be stunned.

“Continue activating the paths. Don’t stop. You have to suppress them. If you can absorb the energy, try everything to absorb the energy of the Heavenly Tribulation.”

James tried his best to suppress the paths and absorb the energy.

The Heavenly Tribulation appeared on the surface of his body and entered his body through his pores. The energy was refined and became the Chaos Power. His Chaos Power improved. The more it improved, the harder it was to suppress.

His body was covered in sweat. There was even a drop of blood falling from his forehead.

Nonetheless, he adhered to suppressing the paths with his strong willpower.

In the time formation, time was passing.

James’ Chaos Power was slowly improving.

“Forget.”

Zella’s voice sounded once more.

‘What you need to do now is forget how to enter the Acme Rank.

“Forget the deduction of paths and you will enter the Boundless.”

“How do I forget it?” James slightly frowned.

He wanted to forcefully cut off his comprehension of the Acme Rank, but he could not do it.

“I asked you to forget. I did not ask you to cut off your cultivation base. If you cut it off, your cultivation rank will drop.”

“Don’t do anything, and don’t think of anything. Then, you will forget naturally,” Zella reminded.

James was under a lot of pressure. However, he gradually calmed down when Zella reminded him.

His mind became empty. With his mind empty, he sensed that he was no longer under a lot of pressure. He also felt that it was no longer difficult to suppress the cultivation rank.

It was unknown as to how long had passed.

Seconds seemed to have passed, but at the same time, countless years seemed to have passed.

In the sky, there were still Tribulation Clouds.

James was still sitting with his legs crossed in the sky. His aura and power were powerful.

His Chaos Power was still increasing.

At this moment, he had forgotten.

He had forgotten how to have a breakthrough and enter the Acme Path.

In theory, if he did not enter the Acme Rank, he could not increase his power. Nevertheless, his Chaos Power was increasing right now.

‘You have entered the Quasi Boundless Rank.’

Zella, who had been standing still, could not help but sit down. She raised her hand to wipe the sweat on her forehead. She was afraid James could not hold on.

Thus, she was satisfied with his performance.

James had held on.

In the outside realm, only three thousand years had passed

James used three thousand years to finish the path other living beings could not finish even after thirty thousand epochs.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4340-James withdrew his aura. Then, he descended from the sky and landed on the ground steadily before walking toward Zella.

He looked at Zella who was covered in sweat.

He was grateful to her.

If it weren't for Zella's guidance, he wouldn't be able to enter the Boundless in such a short time.

"Zella, thank you."

Zella stood up. With an appreciative smile, she said, "You're strong. It has only been three thousand years in the outside realm, yet you have reached the end of the path other living beings needed thousands of epochs to complete."

"With my Eighth Rank of Omniscience Path and my Quasi Boundless Rank Acme Path, do you think I can defeat Wynton?" James asked.

Zella shook her head and answered, "No. The gap is too big. With your current ability, Wynton can kill you in one blow."

Upon hearing that, James frowned.

He was a lot stronger than before. If he could not kill Wynton after all this, did that mean he wouldn't have a chance within the thirty-thousand-year period?

"So, what should I do?"

James' expression was grave.

If he could not kill Wynton, he would not be able to kill all the living beings in this illusion. If he did not kill all the living beings here, he would die when the time was up.

In a gentle voice, Zella said, "If you have enough time, you can definitely defeat and kill Wynton. However, you don't have that much time. Now, I don't know how to help you leave this realm."

"Can you ask Wynton not to fight back and let me kill him?" James began to think of another way.

Zella shook her head. "It won't work. Wynton won't believe my words. He won't believe it's only an illusion. He thinks it's real. Doing this is equivalent to making him give up his life. Wynton won't agree to this."

Helplessly, James sat down.

If everything could not be done, what should he do?

"Calm down. There's still time." Zella said comfortingly, "You must be tired after entering the Boundless. You should take a rest. Do some activities in Mount Yaneiri. If you feel bored, you go down the mountain and walk around. I'll look for Wynton and discuss this matter with him."

After speaking, Zella stood up and left.

Wynton had been watching James' every move.

James entering the Quasi Boundless Rank in such a short time was out of his expectation.

Zella appeared before Wynton, but he was not surprised.

"Wynton."

Respectfully, Zella called out to Wynton.

"Zella, is what you're doing worth it? You gave up on your cultivation base for someone of the Human Race and even ruined your prophet ability," said Wynton with a frown.

Zella responded, "It's worth it. I'm saving the entire Yaneiri Clan."

"How's our clan's destiny?" Wynton asked.

"Our clan disappeared one night and appeared somewhere in the Chaos. The clan will be sealed away and can no longer see the world until the lifespan of the Chaos Path come to an end,” answered Zella.

“I don’t believe you.” Wynton was determined as he said, “I want to change destiny. I don’t believe that I can’t change our clan’s destiny. Even though you’re a prophet and can see the future, as long as one is strong enough, one can change the future. The so-called future is just a picture projected according to the current trajectory. It isn’t the real future. Since it’s projected, there is a change for changes.”

Zella knew how stubborn Wynton was.

She did not want to advise him further.

“Wynton, do you believe everything we’re experiencing is another person’s illusion? Do you believe that after this person of the Human Race appeared, we have been projected into his illusion for cultivation?”

Zella looked at Wynton and asked him.

Wynton was also looking at Zella. He nodded slightly and said, “Zella, I’ve never doubted you before. I believe everything you say.”

‘Then, can you sacrifice yourself and let him pass the trial? He may be our clan’s future hope.” Zella had a pleading expression on her face.
