The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4351-Wynton immediately leaped into action.

James had already entered the Omniscience Path's Eighth Stage, and his skills improved in turn. Although Wynton was not bound by the limits of time and space anymore, James could still perceive his movements clearly.

He quickly raised his hand, attempting to block Wynton's attack. However, Wynton suddenly vanished at the last second and struck James from behind. A devastating force hit James' back, causing him to topple forward.

An injury immediately formed on his back and spread throughout his body. The sheer force also caused his Blood Energy to churn. Unable to suppress it, James spat out a mouthful of blood.

Against a powerhouse like James, Wynton mustered his full strength and attacked with all his might to injure James. Before James could recover from the first blow, thousands of palm attacks surrounded him, forming a terrifying space formation.

James was trapped inside the formation and was struck a few thousand times in a single instant. In mere seconds, his entire body was riddled with injuries.

"He's terrifying."

From that brief moment of fighting, James realized how powerful Wynton was. Wynton had condensed his cultivation rank and was currently at the same rank as James. Had he not done so, he could easily defeat and kill James.

"Dispell!"

James ignored the injuries on his body. He concentrated the power of Ignis, Omniscience Path, and Chaos Path to his fingertip and pointed toward the sky. A powerful force erupted from his finger and damaged the formation around him.

James seized the opportunity and quickly escaped the formation.

Boom!

As soon as he fled into the distance, the formation immediately exploded.

Mount Yaneiri was destroyed instantly.

The magical power contained in the illusion seemed to have vanished, and the damage done to Mount Yaneiri was not restored.

Once he had distanced himself considerably, James gasped for breath. Then, he quickly used the Life Path's power to treat his wounds.

As long as his Soul Genesis was undamaged, he was immortal.

Wynton was not surprised that James promptly recovered from the injuries. He calmly stood in the void with his hands behind him.

James said smilingly, "It's time for you to taste my power."

He had not encountered such a powerful opponent that occupied the same rank as him in a long time and was thrilled by the challenge.

James immediately urged the power of his various Paths and performed Blossoming. The Path Powers combined into a dazzling Sacred Blossom above his head. Blossoming was a Supernatural Power created by Emperor Jabari. Unfortunately, he never perfected it.

After James entered the Quasi Boundless Supreme Path Rank, the power of his Sacred Blossom increased drastically. Wynton gasped in surprise seeing the perfected Sacred Blossom. He praised James, saying, "It's impressive that you've managed to pull off such a unique technique using the powers of your various Paths."

Wynton had to admit that James was abnormally talented to have turned the various Path Powers into the Sacred Blossom. Sacred Blossoms were divine and contained the various Paths of heaven and earth. Yet, James, a human, was capable of reforming one.

James did not respond to him.

The Sacred Blossom flew toward Wynton and hovered above him. Its radiance instantly engulfed Wynton.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4352-The Sacred Blossom's glow surrounded Wynton.

James was currently at the Quasi Boundless Supreme Path Rank. Normally, his Sacred Blossom's light would be sufficient to kill even Permanence Acmean. However, Wynton stood unscathed even after being bathed by the Sacred Blossom's light.

He hovered calmly in the void, allowing the Sacred Blossom's light to engulf him.

Suddenly, the Sacred Blossom fell apart, and a destructive force burst out.

Wynton finally made a move. He simply waved his hand and summoned several golden inscriptions. The inscriptions gathered to form a golden, protective barrier around him.

The Sacred Blossom's powers spread out and destroyed the area where Wynton stood. Although the area was highly fortified, the space began to collapse.

After being struck by the force, Wynton's protective barrier cracked slightly.

Meanwhile, James was disappointed at the result. Wynton was simply too strong. Even the Sacred Blossom was unable to penetrate his protective barrier.

'Didn't Zella say that Wynton was at the Quasi Boundless Rank, and I had a fifty percent chance of victory against him? Why does it seem like he's way stronger than me?' wondered James.

Swoosh!

A long sword manifested in Wynton's hand, causing his aura to climb.

Wynton pointed his sword at James in the distance and said calmly, "I won't show you any mercy. Even though we're inside an illusion, and this is simply training, I won't hold back."

Wynton had summoned the Moonlit Sword. The Yaneiri Clan spent a lot of effort crafting it. It was the most impressive sword that James had ever seen.

Overwhelming force radiated from the dazzling long sword. The force surpassed the strength of a Terra Acmean and was on par with a Caelum Acmean. Although it could not compare to a real Caelum Acmean's power, it was quite comparable.

James' expression gradually became solemn. He quickly summoned the Death-Celestial Sword, pointed it at Wynton, and said earnestly, "I'm going to give it all I've got, so give me your best shot!"

Wynton swung his sword several times, unleashing gleaming Sword Energies. However, the Sword Energies did not charge at James but disappeared into the surrounding space.

James was slightly taken aback and carefully observed his surroundings. He realized Wynton's Sword Energies had meshed into the surroundings, and something around them had changed.

Wynton's Sword Energies contained terrifying Path Power.

James realized he was in danger and wanted to escape the area. However, it was already too late, and he was trapped in a different space.

"This is a world I created, James. It's called the Sword World."

Wynton's voice echoed around him. His voice sounded imaginary and unreal. James felt it ringing in his ears, yet it also seemed like it came from the distant sky.

"The Sword World?" James pursed his lips

Wynton said, "That's right. I created this Sword World. Even though my understanding of the Sword Path isn't deep, I'm confident this world is enough to kill you."

After Wynton had spoken, James felt tremendous pressure rush toward him. James was trapped inside Wynton's Sword World, and the horrifying pressure started to crush his body.

He had already utilized the Omniscience Path's Eighth Stage, urged the power of the Flame God Incarnation, and mobilized his Chaos Power. However, his body was still in pain from Wynton's attack.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4353-Swoosh!

Sword Energies darted at James from various directions.

James quickly raised the Death-Celestial Sword and unleashed his own Sword Energies to parry the attacks. However, he was trapped inside Wynton's Sword World. His opponent could summon Sword Energies simply by using his mind.

In mere seconds, thousands of Sword Energies swarmed the area and surrounded James. Although James was in his strongest form, he still struggled to survive in Wynton's Sword World. He blocked the Sword Energies one after another, but the sheer number of Sword Energies overwhelmed him.

Swoosh!

His body was pierced several times by the flurry of attacks, and James' blood rained down from the sky.

Meanwhile, Wynton floated outside his Sword World, calmly watching James struggle inside it. James deftly deflected the onslaught of Sword Energies but he still missed a few. In just a short moment, he was struck several thousand times and his body was covered in wounds.

"Let me out, damn you!!"

James' face was scrunched in desperation. He channeled all his powers into the Death-Celestial Sword and charged into the sky.

Gleaming Sword Energy burst out from the sword and shot up into the sky like a giant dragon. James' attack was potent enough to severely injure and kill a beginning-stage Terra Acmean. However, he failed to even make a dent in Wynton's Sword World.

An invisible force rushed down from the sky. James' Sword Energy was helpless against it and was forced backwards. Suddenly, it was turned around and the attack redirected at James.

James quickly fled from it.

Boom!

The Sword Energy imploded and multiplied into several more Sword Energies. Wynton controlled them, directing them to attack James from different directions.

James rallied his powers and quickly assembled a protective barrier around himself.

At the same time, he summoned several inscriptions and combined them with his powers to reinforce the protective barrier.

From outside the Sword World, Wynton pointed toward James and mumbled, "Get him."

Suddenly, countless Sword Energies emerged from his fingertip and were sent into the Sword World. Gleaming blades of Sword Energies surrounded James and blocked off every escape route. His protective barrier created using his potent powers and inscriptions gradually began to fracture.

"Damn it!"

James clenched his teeth. He had already brought his full might to bear but could not destroy the Sword World nor could he deflect Wynton's attacks.

James frowned as he watched the cracks widen all over his protective barrier. He used his Divine Sense and scanned the surroundings. The world he was trapped inside of was packed with Sword Energy.

The Sword World was constructed using Wynton's Sword Energy, and fortified using his Path Powers, making it impossible for James to destroy.

Crack!

James' protective barrier split apart and shattered. As soon as his protective barrier was destroyed, his body was struck thousands of times. All the Sword Energies inside Wynton's Sword World slashed at James.
