The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4365-“Who the hell are you?” Thea stared at James.

Nobody knew her name, so how could a human recognize her?

James’ legs had sunk into the hard ground, but he looked at Thea, trying to persuade her, “It’s never too late to make things right, Thea. You should right your wrongs.”

‘You must have a death wish.’ Thea suddenly unleashed a different attack. A dazzling light emerged from her sharp claws.

Creak!!!

James’ protective barrier was shattered instantly. As soon as the barrier ruptured, he disappeared from sight.

Before Thea could react, she felt a finger on her back.

James’ fingertip came in contact with Thea’s back. However, he withdrew his strength to prevent injuring her.

Thea was surprised that James held back against her.

She quickly recollected herself, summoned a long sword, and slashed at James.

However, James had disappeared again.

Thea was currently at the peak of the Terra Acme Rank. However, James had comprehended the basics of the Blithe Omniscience and was much superior to her in terms of strength.

‘What a strange guy.’

Thea realized she would not be able to hurt James and quickly withdrew from the fight.

James stood aside and looked in the direction where Thea had fled puzzledly.

‘What’s going on? Why is Thea known as Zaire? Isn’t she the Human Race’s matron? She has a very high prestige amongst the humans. How could she be Zaire that slaughtered an entire city of humans?’

James was confused. He sensed Thea’s aura and chased after her.

Thea fled to a desolate mountain range.

She sat in a lotus position on the ground, and a powerful black aura emerged from her body. Veins bulged on her face, making her look hideous and terrifying.

James quietly appeared nearby and observed Thea, who had a terrifying and devil-like aura.

He walked over and stood in front of Thea.

Thea looked at James grimly and said, “It’s you again? Why are you following me? I’m about to refine and absorb the Spiritual Power I collected. Get out of my sight. Otherwise, I won’t show you any mercy.

James looked at her and felt his heart ache for her.

He raised his hand, and countless magical inscriptions emerged from his palm to form space confinement.

Thea immediately noticed she was in trouble and mobilized her James’ space confinement was complete, she broke through the inscriptions and escaped.

James chased after her.

Thea fled to another area and spat out a mouthful of blood.

She had absorbed a considerable amount of Spiritual Power from other living beings, causing her a lot of discomfort. If she could not refine them immediately, she would suffer a backlash from the unrefined power.

Thea quickly sat in a lotus position to refine the Spiritual Power but was interrupted by James again.

‘You...’

Livid, Thea shouted, ‘What do you want from me?!!’

James looked at her and summoned the powerful Ignis in his palm.

“I’d like to purify the evil power inside your body.”

‘Well, let’s see if you have the ability to do so.’

Thea was furious after being interrupted several times. She unleashed a powerful energy and thrust her palm at James.

The terrifying force caused the surrounding space to shake. However, James disappeared before the attack could land.

Thea quickly tried to sense his location but it was to no avail. When she finally detected his aura, her expression darkened.

James reappeared and unleashed the final inscription needed to form an ancient formation. Thea was instantly trapped within it.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4366-Thea was trapped. After sensing the space seal, she cursed furiously, “Bastard, what exactly do you want?!!”

A dazzling long sword manifested in her hand, and she urged all her strength to break the space seal. Her powerful force struck the seal.

Creak!!!

The space seal cracked and shattered instantly.

Thea flashed in front of James and plunged her sword at him.

James did not dodge and allowed the long sword to pierce his body.

Thea had already reached the peak of the Terra Acme Rank and was incredibly strong. Even though James was powerful after comprehending the Blithe Omniscience, his strength was still inferior to Thea.

Thea followed up with a palm attack, sending him flying into the distance.

Afterward, Thea quickly fled the area. She had absorbed too many living beings' Spiritual Power and needed to refine them as soon as possible. Otherwise, she would suffer a backlash.

The backlash would cause her to drop in cultivation rank, or even worse, she might lose her life.

Thea disappeared from the area.

Although James sustained severe injuries, he still chased after

James suspected the illusion was projected from before the Primordial Realm Era, where Thea had not become the Human Race's matron yet. Although Thea was powerful, she was not strong enough to realize they were inside an illusion.

However, James' mission was to save Thea. He believed she was oblivious to the illusion and would only realize it in the future.

Thea hid her aura and fled the area.

Unfortunately, James was proficient in the various Paths of Heaven and Earth and could easily track her no matter how hard she tried to hide.

Thea hid in a mountain range and focused on refining the Spiritual Power she had absorbed. As soon as she began, James appeared and stood before her.

Thea was furious and roared at him, "What the hell do you want from me?!!"

She had absorbed a lot of Spiritual Power, and getting angry stimulated the energy and caused her to suffer a backlash. As a result, she spat out a mouthful of blood.

James tried to persuade her gently, saying, "It's not too late to turn over a new leaf, Thea."

Thea hissed, "It has nothing to do with you. Get lost."

She was enraged by his actions.

'Who is this guy? Why is he meddling so much?' thought Thea.

“Whatever concerns you concerns me as well. I’ll help you purify the evil power inside your body.”

James inched closer to her and summoned a white flame in his palm.

However, he was greeted by a terrifying palm force.

He did not dodge and was blasted away, sustaining another injury that caused him to spit out blood.

“What a weirdo. Why isn’t he dying?”

Thea was rendered speechless. She had no time to waste with James and quickly fled the area.

James sighed helplessly and dragged his injured body after her, trying to persuade her.

However, he was injured over and over again. Despite that, he could not bring himself to fight back.

Whenever he caught up to her, she would beat him up and escape.

James was covered in injuries after consecutively receiving a few hits from her.

Meanwhile, Thea fled to a desolate area exhaustedly.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4368-"Nobody can stop me."

Thea's demeanor immediately shifted. Her innocent appearance was gone, and she became like a demon. Her long black hair lifted into the air, and a wicked aura erupted from her body. Veins bulged on her face, making her look hideous and terrifying.

She casually waved her hand, and black energy spread in the air.

The black energy devoured the living beings, and their skeletal remains dropped to the ground.

“You!” James was furious. He rushed over to Thea and raised his palm.

Thea brought her face close to James’ palm and said, “Go ahead and hit me.”

Although Thea had no idea who James was, she could tell from their previous interactions that he had no intentions of hurting her.

“Damn it,” James cursed with his hand still in the air.

He scanned the surroundings and saw the great number of casualties in a huge area of the city.

Meanwhile, those that survived watched in fear.

“It’s Zaire!”

“She’s here to slaughter everyone in the city! Hurry and evacuate!”

The survivors frantically fled for their lives.

James watched in distress. He raised his palm, and many inscriptions emerged. The time in the area regressed, and the dead were resurrected.

He looked at the furious Thea and said, “I’ll revive every living being you kill.”

“I’d like to see how many you can save.”

Thea was irritated by his actions. She leaped into the air and looked down at the city. A black aura emerged from her body and instantly shrouded the city.

Boom!

A massive explosion erupted and obliterated the city, instantly killing everyone.

The living beings were reduced to nothingness, and not even skeletal remains were left behind.

James closed his eyes and urged his Path Powers again.

Countless inscriptions spread out in the sky, restoring the city and reviving the dead.

James activated a Supernatural Power to revive the dead creatures engulfed him, and he was unable to neutralize it instantly.

Thea noticed James was shrouded by Karma and said coldly, 'You shouldn't have overestimated yourself. You can save them once or twice, but I doubt you can do it forever. You'll eventually crumble after being contaminated with great Karma.'

Thea's attack immediately destroyed the city. With her strength, obliterating a city was only a matter of the snap of a finger.

Although there was Permanence Acmean in the city, it was impossible for him to resist Thea's destructive Supernatural Powers.

James used his profound knowledge of the different Paths to resurrect the dead creatures again.

By doing so, he attracted even stronger Karma. He fell to the ground and spat out a mouthful of blood.

"Hmph." Thea looked at him from the sky and snorted. Then, she turned around and disappeared from his sight.

James wanted to chase after her, but he was contaminated with terrifying Karma. He had no choice but to neutralize the Karma Power first.

He gave up following her and sat in a lotus position to refine the Karma Power.

Meanwhile, the living beings that were revived were made aware of James' terrifying powers. Terrified, they did not dare linger in the city and fled.

James was not afraid of Karma. In fact, he could refine them and convert them into his own Path Powers.

He was currently at the Quasi Boundless Supreme Path Rank, and his strength improved at a very slow rate. Despite setting up a time formation, it took him a very long time to completely absorb the Karma he had attracted.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4370-Thea was at the peak of the Terra Acme Rank and cultivated Diabolic Art

She used Diabolic Art to devour the Spiritual Power of other living beings and refine them into her own power.

Zaire was infamous in the era before the Primordial Realm Era. Only a few powerhouses were capable of suppressing her.

However, Thea was very clever and never directly confronted these powerhouses. Whenever she encountered someone she could not defeat, she would escape.

Although the living beings in the mountain range were no match for her, she set up the formation as a precaution. However, James easily destroyed it.

Thea ignored James, who was suffering on the ground, and looked at the living beings with a sinister smirk.

Suddenly, she gripped tightly onto her sword and charged at one of the weaker opponents. The man who had just been resurrected by James was still in a daze, unable to process what had happened. Before he could react, he was already slashed by the long sword.

Thea instantly absorbed his Spiritual Powers, and his skeletal remains crumbled to the ground.

James wanted to intervene but was powerless. He had forcibly resurrected a few cultivators above the Permanence Acme Rank just moments ago and attracted powerful Karma to himself.

They were in an illusion, and the living beings were mere illusory projections. However, Thea was an actual living being that had been brought to his trial. Thus, he would still suffer Karma by resurrecting those she had killed.

Thea, on the other hand, was still unaware she was inside an illusory projection of her world.

James' body showed signs of disintegrating, and he slowly became translucent. His eyelids felt heavy, and he felt drowsy.

He knew it would be bad to fall unconscious now, as there was a chance he might never wake up again.

However, he could not resist it any longer. Before passing out, James caught a glimpse of the fierce battle.

After a long time, James finally woke up.

As soon as he gained consciousness, he groaned. "Argh..."

His whole body was aching. At the same time, a sharp pain could be felt from the deepest part of his soul.

James' vision gradually became clear, and a beautiful woman appeared in black dress and had a slender figure.

Thea looked at the barely-alive James on the ground and praised him, saying, "You're very tenacious. I can't believe you're still alive."

"Your Blood Energy is exceptionally strong. If I were to absorb it, my strength would increase tremendously."

Thea grinned, revealing her white teeth.

James used his Divine Sense to scan the area.

The surroundings had already been destroyed. Countless skeletal remains were scattered on the ground.

Thea had already killed the cultivators, and her aura was much stronger than before.

Although she used cunning methods to improve her strength, her strength was very close to that of a cultivator at the peak of the Terra Acme Rank.

Previously, Thea was already superior to him. She had grown even stronger after absorbing the Spiritual Power of so many powerhouses.

James endured the pain and tried to get up from the ground.

“Don’t move.”

A sharp blade pressed against his neck.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4369-Three thousand years had passed while James refined the contaminated Karma Power.

When James was done, he closed his eyes and tried to locate Thea.

Although Thea deliberately hid her aura to avoid him, he easily found her whereabouts.

Thea had set up Devouring Formation in a desolate mountain range and was hiding within it.

Shortly after she completed the formation, a few dozen living beings wandered into the mountain range.

The formation was triggered when the living beings entered the mountain range. Several Permanence Acmeans had their Spiritual Powers sucked away, and only their bones remained.

Thea absorbed the Spiritual Power and murmured, “Wonderful.”

Sensing the energy in her body, she smiled with satisfaction.

“Show yourself, Witch!” A furious voice came from within the formation.

“You’re a coward, hiding in the dark! Come and face us!”

A few powerhouses trapped inside the formation taunted her.

The powerhouses were relatively strong and had united to kill Thea. The weakest was a Permanence Acmean, and the strongest was a Terra Acmean.

Thea did not want to confront them head-on, so she set up a formation.

James had arrived just on time and witnessed the tragic death of several of the powerhouses.

Seeing even more lives taken by Thea, James was distressed. He pondered, 'Thea is supposed to be the Human Race's matron. What kind of person was she before earning the title? How many lives has she taken?'

James appeared outside the formation. He released his Divine Sense and quickly deciphered the formation. He raised his hand, and powerful force erupted from his fingertip, instantly transforming into magical inscriptions.

The inscriptions submerged into the formation and shattered it.

James walked over to the powerhouses and took a glance at them. Upon noticing a few skeletal remains on the ground, he unleashed his Path Powers and resurrected the dead cultivators.

Since these cultivators were powerhouses, James had to pay a heavy price to revive them. At the same time, the Karma attracted was much stronger.

Karma Power instantly shrouded him. Unable to withstand it, he spat a mouthful of blood and fell to the ground.

Although he was in the middle stage of the Omniscience Path's Eighth Stage and had a powerful physical strength, he could not resist the Karma from resurrecting these powerhouses. Injuries began to form all over his body. His physical body would have been shredded apart if it were not for his potent Chaos Power.

James parted his mouth with difficulty and said, "Leave. All of you united is still no match for her. If you treasure your life, leave immediately. I can't save everyone."

The powerhouses were terrified of the hidden Thea and immediately thought of escaping.

Thea gritted her teeth and murmured coldly, "Damn it, James."

She revealed herself in front of James and summoned her long sword. She thrust her sword forward and pierced through his body.

As soon as the sword penetrated James' body, several Sword Energies exploded within him.

James was severely injured and fell to the ground. He could not muster up any strength to get back to his feet.

"None of them will be leaving today! I'll be absorbing their Spiritual Power!"

Thea glanced at the powerhouses with a smirk.

The cultivators present were powerhouses, and absorbing their Spiritual Power would significantly improve her strength.
