The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4381-Regardless of Chetan's background, they were brought into the illusion as opponents. Thus, James was not going to show any mercy.

He was in the Path of Heavenly Awakening's fourth trial, where being careless would cost his list.

"Hit me with your best shot."

James unleashed a powerful aura and beckoned Chetan to attack. Chetan did not hold back either and unleashed his terrifying aura.

The two different auras soared into the sky and collided, causing a huge explosion.

An immense force spread out to the surroundings and caused spatial rifts to form in the area.

Both of them were blasted away by the force and retreated to a safe distance.

James exclaimed, "He's strong."

It was the first time James fought against a powerhouse at the peak of the Terra Acme Rank. Thus, he was not expecting Chetan's aura to have such monstrous strength.

Chetan was equally surprised at James' strength. He suddenly stomped into the ground to redirect the force and stabilize himself.

The ground split open and continued to spread further in James' direction. At the same time, a powerful force traveled along the crack, charging at James.

The space around James' body burst open, and terrifying force shot at him like lightning.

Despite having potent physical strength, James still felt a scorching pain in his body.

James did not dare to be reckless against a powerhouse that entered the Path of Heavenly Awakening. He quickly activated the Omniscience Path's Eighth Path.

The Omniscience Path was also called the Battle Rank.

James' body emitted white light and a powerful aura. At that moment, he looked like a formidable War God.

He growled, "Useless!"

His voice was deafening like rumbling thunder.

The force that was charging at him was redirected back at Chetan.

The space around Chetan's body split apart, and powerful force permeated the air.

Chetan quickly disappeared, effectively dodging the attack.

The area he stood at a few seconds ago was shattered instantly, and a bottomless hole formed in the ground.

Chetan had mastered the Space Path and could travel through the invisible void. He appeared behind James and summoned a long sword with a dazzling golden radiance. He slashed the sword at James' head.

However, James had a basic understanding of the Blithe Omniscience. His mind was clear, and he easily detected the impending danger.

His heart, mind, body, and soul were one with the universe, or more precisely, the Chaos.

At the last second, James vanished without a trace.

He did not even need to use the Space Path's Power.

Boom!!!

Chetan's sword swung at the empty void.

"Blithe Omniscience?" Chetan was startled.

Before he could react, the Death-Celestial Sword had already pierced his body, and blood splattered from the sky.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4382-Chetan was a powerhouse at the peak of the Terra Acme Rank. He was almost invincible in the era he was from.

To his surprise, his opponent had pierced through his body instantly.

He roared, “Argh!!!”

Chetan unleashed a powerful energy, forcing the Death- Celestial Sword from him.

James was instantly blasted away into the distance and spat out a mouthful of blood.

Chetan looked down to observe the wound on his body. Then, he glared in James’ direction with a grim expression.

“Now that you’ve angered me, I’ll make sure you die miserably. Nobody can get in my way of reaching the Caelum Acme Rank. I’ll get rid of everything in my way.”

Although Chetan was pierced by the Death-Celestial Sword, the injury was not fatal. He mobilized powerful energy, allowing it to flow through his body and repair his wound.

Chetan raised his long sword and pointed it at James in the distance.

“Die!!!” he growled and swung his sword.

Chetan and James were separated by a far distance.

However, Chetan appeared above James instantly after slashing his sword.

A Sword Energy in the shape of a cross descended from the sky.

James smiled faintly and was about to dodge when he suddenly realized his Blithe Omniscience was not working anymore.

Before he could react, the cross-shaped Sword Energy had landed on his chest.

A cross-shaped wound formed on his chest.

James was physically strong, but Chetan managed to hurt him.

“Hmph.” Chetan snorted coldly. “Unless you’re at the Omniscience Path’s Ninth Stage, having a preliminary comprehension in the Blithe Omniscience is useless.”

The Omnsience Path was a human cultivation system, and the Blithe Omniscience was created by an unrivaled powerhouse. Despite not witnessing it before, Chetan had read about it in ancient books.

Chetan had the strength to overpower James’ Blithe Omniscience. Thus, he was confident in defeating James.

James looked at the cross-shaped wound with lingering Sword Energy on his chest.

The Sword Energy was slowly destroying his cells, causing him a lot of pain.

James grinned. “He’s a worthy opponent.”

Chetan’s strength was not overpowering enough for James to feel hopeless.

The only opponent he felt utterly powerless against was Wynton.

Suddenly, James made a move. He repeatedly slashed his sword, unleashing tens of thousands of Sword Energies.

The Sword Energies burst out, surrounding Chetan from every direction.

With the emergence of the Sword Energies, mysterious inscriptions also appeared.

The Sword Energies and inscriptions formed a Sword World.

James imitated Wynton’s technique. Although he had not grasped the principles of it, James believed his Sword World was quite strong.

Chetan was instantly trapped inside James’ Sword World.

At that moment, countless Sword Energies shot at Chetan.

Chetan waved his golden long sword and resisted the Sword Energies in James' Sword World.

The two of them were on par with each other.

In the Sword World, countless Sword Energies clashed and exploded.

“Attack.”

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4383-James waved his hand casually, and the Death-Celestial Sword shot into the Sword World.

The Death-Celestial Sword enlarged and turned into a giant sword. It slashed at the Sword World, and countless Sword Energies with terrifying Sword Intent burst out.

The Sword World began to tremble as the Death-Celestial Sword and Sword Energies got close.

Chetan raised his head and saw the Death-Celestial Sword. He urged his strength and threw out the golden long sword, which enlarged instantly.

Chetan poured all his energy into the golden long sword and began to control it.

The golden long sword charged at James' attacks.

Before their swords collided, their Sword Energies clashed.

Everything seemed to have frozen at that moment.

James, who was outside of the Sword World, exerted all his strength to control the Death-Celestial Sword. Veins bulged on his face, and he looked ferocious.

Meanwhile, Chetan also poured all his strength into the golden long sword. At that moment, blood beads began to emerge from his forehead.

He suddenly raised his hand, and a golden light emerged from his palm, pouring into his long sword.

His golden long sword glowed even brighter.

Chetan's golden light engulfed James' Sword Energies and shattered the Sword World.

James' Death-Celestial Sword was sent flying.

After the Sword World was shattered, James suffered a painful backlash. The force blasted his body, and as he stumbled backward, the void beneath his feet was shattered.

Before James could react, Chetan made another attack. The giant golden sword pierced James' body.

Although James' had a robust physical body, Chetan was strong enough to injure him.

Chetan held onto his golden long sword, panting as he observed the injured James.

His powerful attack had severely wounded James.

However, James was still standing. Chetan's attack was not enough to take down James.

James stimulated his Life Path, and his injuries recovered instantly. He looked over at Chetan, who was still emitting a powerful aura, with a smile. "This is getting entertaining."

"You've imitated Wynton's Sword World. Who the hell are you, kid? Why do you know so many Supernatural Powers?" Chetan stared at James.

James was a human that had cultivated the Blithe Omniscience and could perform Wynton's Sword World.

Chetan's era was not that far from Wynton, so there were detailed records about Wynton.

Thus, Chetan had read about Wynton's Supernatural Power in ancient books before.

Wynton could construct a terrifying Sword World with his powers.

“It’s a shame Wynton didn’t teach me how to construct a powerful Sword World. Lucky for you, I still haven’t grasped the principles. Otherwise, you wouldn’t be able to escape it.”

James had a regretful expression.

Chetan glared at James and said, “Since we’ve come to this, I’m not going to hold back anymore.”

He gripped tightly on his sword and stepped forward.

“Although you’re at the late stage of the Omniscience Path’s Eighth Stage and are very powerful, your cultivation rank is still very low. Right now, you’re only at the Quasi Boundless Supreme Path Rank.

“I’ll show you the difference between our strengths.”

Chetan took a step forward, and time froze.

With another step, the space around them was sealed.

By the third step, everything around them seemed to have become illusory. It looked as if the whole world would collapse at any moment.

When he took the fourth step, he appeared in front of James.

At that moment, James was already immobilized.

He could not move a muscle even if he exerted all his strength.

“Is this the true strength of a Terra Acmean?”

James’ face darkened.

He took a deep breath to calm down. At that moment, various tones began playing in his mind.

As soon as he opened his mouth, a magical sound rang in the area.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4384-James unleashed the Chaos' Nine Voices' First Tone.

A mysterious sound came from his mouth.

The tone contained the supreme strength of the Chaos, capable of destroying everything.

Chetan's seals were shattered instantly.

James quickly seized the opportunity to attack before Chetan could make another move.

He summoned the Ignis in his body, allowing it to flow throughout his body. The Ignis Power fused with his body, immediately enhancing his strength.

In terms of strength and aura, James had surpassed Chetan.

James was being conservative at the beginning of the fight, but now he had entered his strongest state.

Chetan's eardrums felt numb by the Chaos' Nine Voices' First Tone, and his mind went blank.

Before he could recollect himself, a terrifying force struck him.

A long sword pierced his body, and several Sword Energies burst from his wound.

He quickly distanced himself from James.

After arriving at a safe distance, Chetan looked at James, who was glowing with white light.

His face immediately darkened.

"What a strange kid."

Chetan was shocked by James' strength. He had read records of the Blithe Omniscience in ancient books before but had never seen anything about the Chaos' Nine Voices.

The Chaos Master rarely used the Chaos' Nine Voices, so only a handful of people knew it was recorded inside the Chaos Sacred Art.

James entered the First Transformation of the Flame Art's Three Fire Transformations. He had a mighty aura and looked like an unrivaled War God. His black long sword radiated with a dazzling glow.

'What else do you have?' James' voice resounded throughout the area.

"Hmph." Chetan snorted.

Even though James had terrifying strength, he would never admit defeat. He was a Terra Acmean with great strength. He swung his sleeves, and his aura immediately skyrocketed.

Chetan refused to believe he could not defeat someone at the Quasi Boundless Supreme Path Rank.

He raised his golden long sword and charged at James again.

James prepared to parry his attack.

The two engaged in a fierce battle.

Both of them used all their strength and trump cards.

Their terrifying force shattered the surrounding void, causing several spatial rifts.

James used the Flame Art's Three Fire Transformations to increase his strength but still could not defeat the powerful Chetan in one blow. At most, he could only cause some insignificant wounds.

On the other hand, Chetan could not even hurt James, who had activated the Blithe omniscience.

The two kept exchanging moves.

Soon, James realized something abnormal. Mysterious and ancient inscriptions surrounded the battlefield.

"Haha!!!"

Chetan suddenly let out a shriek of laughter, making him look ferocious.

‘Your time has come, James!’

His menacing laughter resounded throughout the area.

The inscriptions gathered together, forming a powerful formation that looked like an altar.

James was trapped on the altar. He calmly inspected the inscriptions. After a while, he raised the Death-Celestial Sword and slashed at the formation.

The Death-Celestial Sword struck the formation inscriptions.

Buzz!!!

A strong force came from the formation and snaked through the Death-Celestial Sword to enter his body.

James was struck backward by the force, and his Blood Energy churned. Unable to suppress it, he spat out a mouthful of blood.

‘The formation inscriptions used are very powerful.’ James was taken aback.

Meanwhile, Chetan had an unconcealable smile on his face. He laughed wildly and said, ‘I admit you’re powerful, James. Although you’re at a lower rank than me, your strength has surpassed me. I had to resort to setting up this formation to kill you.’

A mysterious symbol emerged from Chetan’s hand and submerged into the bizarre Altar Formation.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4385-A powerful force emerged from the Altar Formation.

James felt his Spiritual Power seeping from his body and gathering above his head.

The mysterious formation was absorbing his Spiritual Power.

“Haha!!!” Chetan let out a maniacal laugh.

“You’ve got very powerful Spiritual Power. It’ll definitely help me step into the Caelum Acme Rank. The rumors about the Path of Heavenly Awakening are true. Completing the Nine Trials will allow one to enter the Caelum Acme Rank.

“I’m finally going to become a Caelum Acmean.”

Chetan’s laughter resounded throughout the area.

Meanwhile, James’ Spiritual Power was being rapidly absorbed by the formation.

“Break!!!” James was furious.

He poured his power of the Omniscience Path, Ignis, Chaos, and his physical strength into the Death-Celestial Sword, attempting to break the formation.

However, James could not even get a proper grip on his sword.

The formation had a very bizarre power, making him unable to concentrate.

His vision blurred, and his mind gradually went blank. The Death-Celestial Sword fell to the ground, and James toppled to the ground.

“Haha!” Chetan laughed. “Even if you have invincible Supernatural Powers, you won’t be able to escape my formation.”

James fell to the ground and cursed lividly, “Damn it.”

He parted his lips and roared, unleashing the Chaos’ Nine Voices’ First Tone again.

However, his attempt to break the formation failed.

James proceeded to use the Chaos’ Nine Voices’ Second Tone.

Rumble!!!

The Chaos’ Nine Voices’ Second Tone caused a slight fluctuation in the formation and a crack appeared. Usually, James would be able to easily escape a formation after creating a small crack.

However, the strange power inside the formation caused James to fall to the ground again. The formation had a numbing effect on his body, making it hard for him to stand.

Chetan was startled as he watched from outside the formation.

‘This guy sure is tenacious.’

Chetan unleashed a few more inscriptions to reinforce the formation.

“AH!!!”

James parted his lips, performing the Chaos’ Nine Voices’ Third Tone.

The formation began to split apart. However, Chetan quickly repaired it.

After three attempts, James was still trapped inside the formation. However, he was already drained of energy.

“Damn it. What kind of formation is this? Why is it so strong?”

James lay down on the ground weakly.

His energy was still being absorbed, and blood was seeping from his pores.

“I can’t die here. I need to escape.”

James took a deep breath and cleared his mind.

The Chaos’ Nine Voices’ three tones began playing in his mind.

James parted his lips and performed three of them simultaneously.

Rumble!!!

The space around him burst open, and several black holes appeared. The black holes continued to enlarge, and the Altar Formation was shattered.

As soon as the formation was destroyed, Chetan suffered a backlash. He stumbled backward and spat out a mouthful of blood.

He looked at James, who had escaped, in disbelief. Then, he exclaimed, "Impossible! There's no way! How could you break my formation with your current cultivation rank?"
