The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4426-Although many of the powerhouses believed in James' Chaos Power, Xezal's words made them doubtful.

Suddenly, the powerhouses unleashed their powerful auras.

Zusman stepped forward and said, "It doesn't matter whether you're an imposter or not, surrender and let us detain you, Wyot. We promise not to hurt you or Soren. After we bring you back to the search Doom's headquarters, we'll ask Sir Youri to clarify the situation."

James knew he could no longer bluff them and burst out laughing.

He rubbed his nose and said smilingly, "I guess I'm busted."

His face and aura gradually changed, returning to his original self.

"No way..."

The powerhouses stepped back in shock after seeing Wyot's appearance change.

"Bingo. I'm James Caden."

James leaped several hundred meters into the air and looked down at the powerhouses. He laughed and said, "That's right. It's always been me impersonating Wyot. I infiltrated the Dooms to save Soren. Now that the formation is open, Soren is almost freed, and every one of you should know what comes next..."

He pointed his finger at the powerhouses below him, and his expression darkened.

"In the past, you guys joined forces to besiege the humans in the Primordial Realm, which resulted in the tragic deaths of many of our powerhouses. An eye for an eye, and a tooth for a tooth. I'll give you guys a taste of what you've done to us. Prepare to be buried here!"

James' ferocious voice resounded in the area.

“Haha,” the Soul-Demon Master laughed and ridiculed, “What makes you think you can save Soren alone? You’re overestimating yourself, James “

The Soul-Demon Master unleashed his powerful aura, and black energy emitted from his body to form a spear. He grabbed the spear and quickly attacked James.

The spear zoomed in front of James instantly.

Swoosh!!!

James instantly entered the Omniscience Path’s Eighth Stage, and his aura skyrocketed. He raised his hand, and a powerful force erupted to block the black spear.

After defending the attack, James mobilized his Chaos Power to erode the black spear.

The Soul-Demon Master shouted, “What is everyone waiting for? Let’s join forces and kill him!”

The other powerhouses immediately unleashed their powers and entered combat mode.

“Move if you dare!” James shouted and summoned the Death-Celestial Sword.

He pointed his long black sword at the group of powerhouses and said coldly, “Whoever moves will die! I forgot to tell you that I’ve already cultivated the Blithe Omniscience. I can kill anyone here if I want to.”

Since Soren was not freed yet, James did not dare to fight with them recklessly and tried to scare them with threats.

He would be distracted if he had to fight and protect Soren simultaneously.

Swoosh!!!

Xezal leaped into the air and said, “You’re playing with fire, James. If you had stayed hidden for a while, perhaps nobody in the Greater Realms would stand a chance against you. However, you’re not invincible yet and can’t singlehandedly take on so many of us.”

James came face to face with Xezal. Among the powerhouses present, she was the one that worried him the most.

Suddenly, a furious roar came from the distance.

“I’ll kill you, James!!!”

A woman in a white dress charged at James with a long sword.

Yemima was at the Terra Acme Rank and was relatively strong. She appeared in front of James with her long sword almost instantly.

However, James had reached the late stage of the Omniscience Path’s Eighth Stage and was far superior to her.

Yemima poured all her strength into the attack but could not break through his defenses.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4427-James did not hold back against Yemima. He was worried the humans would perish if he were to show her mercy.

Xezal followed up with an attack.

Her body disappeared into thin air. The next moment, she reappeared before James and thrust her palm at him.

James immediately cast the Flame Art’s Three Fire Transformations. His Ignis Powers flowed through his body and immediately lit him on fire.

He looked like a fairytale character with a white halo and white flames emitting from his body.

During James’ previous fight against Xezal, he had to hold back because he was afraid of exposing his identity.

This time, he could finally go all out.

James did not dodge Xezal's attack. Instead, he concentrated all his strength into his palm and met her attack head-on.

Boom!!!

An explosion erupted when the two palms came in contact, causing shock waves to spread to the surrounding area. The cracks in the void around them also began to enlarge.

James was pushed away by the force and stumbled backward. At the same time, he waved his hand and unleashed a powerful force. His force surrounded the black palace on the ground and lifted it away.

Bang!!!

The shock waves permeated the air, causing mass destruction to the Cloud Race's territory.

James retreated to the distance. Meanwhile, the black palace floated behind him.

"How long more, Mr. Soren? I can't focus on fighting while you're still trapped," James asked anxiously.

"Buy me some more time. It's going to take a while."

Soren's voice came from inside the formation.

Xezal chased after him and appeared nearby. Her shadowy figure fluttered in the air as if she would disappear at any moment.

"Surrender, James," Xezal tried to persuade him.

"Ha!" James sneered and said, "I couldn't go all out against you last time. Today, I'd like to have a good fight. I'm curious to find out whether the mysterious maid of the Dooms' Patriarch is at the Caelum Acme Rank or not.

Unless you're a Caelum Acmean, it's impossible for you to defeat me."

Swoosh!!!

The other powerhouses appeared one after another, standing behind Xezal.

James had a solemn expression after seeing so many powerhouses of the Greater Realms chase after him. He was in a very sticky situation. James could activate the formation and kill these powerhouses instantly if Soren had already been freed.

He wanted to take down as many of them as possible. If he could not take them down, then he planned to escape.

James thought of putting the formation trapping Soren into a storage treasure but was unable to do so. The formation was created by the Ten Great Races and was made impossible to be stored.

‘This place will be your grave, James.’

“Xezal was right. If you hid away in the dark for some time, no powerhouse in the Greater Realms will be able to fight you in the future. It’s a pity you were impatient and chose to expose yourself now.”

“Why are you still chatting with him? Let’s just get rid of him right away!”

The powerhouses had murderous intent.

Meanwhile, James remained calm. He raised his long sword and pointed it at the powerhouses.

He recalled Xezal’s words.

She mentioned shouting the Chaos’ Nine Voices was the most basic form of it.

James was enlightened and figured out a new way to use the Supernatural Power.

He closed his eyes, and he activated the Chaos’ Nine Voice’s First Tone in his mind. The tone broke down and became mysterious symbols that contained great power.

The power poured into the Death-Celestial Sword, causing it to tremble.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4429-Xezal said, "Leave James to me. Everyone below the Terra Acme Rank should leave the Cloud Realm immediately. I'll distract James while everyone else goes to deal with Soren. We should get rid of him first."

The powerhouses below the Terra Acme Rank left the area one after another.

James noticed some of them trying to flee the area and quickly activated the formation around the Cloud Universe."

When the Permanence Acmeans arrived at the universe's border, they realized a formation had already been cast to trap them. They urged all their strength to try and break the formation but were to no avail.

Left with no other option, they returned to the Soul Realm.

"We're in trouble. The Cloud Universe has already been sealed by a formation. We tried to break it, but our efforts were futile."

The powerhouses present realized how grave the situation was.

"Haha!!!" James laughed menacingly and said, "I admit, all of you are very powerful cultivators. I can't kill everyone, but I'll make sure most of you die here and pay the price for the damage you've done to the humans and the Primordial Realm."

James' laughter echoed throughout the area.

"Shut up," Xezal sneered and commanded the powerhouses, "Attack now!"

She immediately dashed before James raised her hand and unleashed an illusory palm print at him.

James poured his strength into the Death-Celestial Sword and slashed out. His sword instantly sliced the illusory palm print in half.

However, Xezal had already appeared behind him and launched another attack.

James sensed the danger behind him and turned around, calmly blocking the attack.

Xezal was incredibly strong and could surpass the limits of time and space. Unfortunately for her, James had cultivated the Blithe Omniscience.

James could match up to her speed, no matter how fast she was.

Meanwhile, James had a fair grasp on Xezal's strength.

While he was in his strongest state, her strength seemed rather mediocre.

James met Xezal's attack head-on but did not suffer much damage. Apart from his Blood Energy tumbling, he was practically unscathed.

As soon as Xezal engaged in battle with James, the other powerhouses quickly rushed toward the formation where Soren was being trapped. A powerhouse at the peak of the Terra Acme Rank led the group.

Suddenly, James disappeared from Xezal's sight. He reappeared in front of the Terra Acmean and slashed out his sword.

The Terra Acmean concentrated all his strength in his palm and unleashed a palm print.

Boom!!!

James' sword clashed with the palm print.

The Terra Acmean was blasted away by an immense force, which also shattered the void. He was injured after the confrontation and spat out a mouthful of blood.

Although the Terra Acmeans had very powerful cultivation bases, their strength was still inferior to the powerhouses James had encountered in the Path of Heavenly Awakening's fourth trial.

Thus, James could handle them without breaking a sweat.

Meanwhile, the other powerhouses seized the opportunity to attack the formation trapping Soren.

James suddenly disappeared into thin air. He magically appeared before the dozens of powerhouses, blocked their attacks, and forced them to back away from the formation.

When he appeared before the powerhouses, it seemed like there were dozens of him flashing throughout the sky. In fact, he was simply moving at a rapid speed, and it left afterimages.

James managed to force away the dozens of powerhouses in just the blink of an eye.

When Xezal charged at James, her aura increased significantly. She quickly unleashed another palm attack toward James' back, giving him no chance to relax.

James promptly turned around and jabbed his sword at her. Xezal's powers blocked his sword.

To James' surprise, a powerful force had permeated the Death-Celestial Sword and crept into his body.

The destructive force caused injuries along his arm and spread toward his body.

Boom!!!

The force affected the void around James' body, and an explosion erupted.

The shock waves from the explosion blasted James away

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 4430-Xezal's power had increased significantly compared to the beginning of the fight.

Just moments ago, she was almost even matched with James. But now, her strength had surpassed him significantly.

After the direct confrontation, James suffered a major injury. At the same time, his body was blasted into the distance by the explosion's force.

Xezal relentlessly chased after him, continuously launching fierce attacks.

Seeing that James was distracted by Xezal, the other powerhouses quickly charged at the formation again.

James paid Xezal no attention. He quickly dashed to the formation to block the powerhouses' attacks, protecting the formation from sustaining any damage.

After repelling them, he cast a Supernatural Power and teleported the formation to a desolate ruin in the distance.

James placed the black palace down and released the Death Demon from his storage.

While inside the storage, the Death Demon had been recuperating wholeheartedly. His injuries had been healed, and his strength had already recovered. Additionally, his cultivation base had also improved, and he had reached the middle stage of the Terra Acme Rank.

"What's the matter, Master?"

The Death Demon instantly sensed the unusual power from the surroundings and gasped. Shocked, he asked, "W-What the hell is going on?"

“Death Demon, I need you to guard this formation. Don’t let anyone damage it,” James quickly issued an order.

James had sensed Xezal summoning inscription sigils in the distance, and it seemed like she was setting up a formation.

He was alarmed and knew he had to prevent her from setting up a formation. Otherwise, he would be restricted, and protecting Soren would become difficult.

James quickly charged at Xezal and slashed his sword. A powerful Sword Energy erupted and darted toward Xezal.

Xezal raised her hand, and a circle of light burst out. It swept forward, blocking James’ Sword Energy.

James’ Sword Energy was shattered and dispersed into nothingness.

However, James had already disappeared from sight. He suddenly reappeared directly in front of Xezal and shattered a few of her inscription sigils.

Meanwhile, the other powerhouses attempted to break the formation again.

The Death Demon saw the large group of powerhouses and urged all his strength to fight them. However, he was injured instantly after trying to repel them.

After James destroyed Xezal’s formation, he quickly charged toward the group of powerhouses. He blocked their attacks and forced them away again.

Fortunately, he had comprehended the Blithe Omniscience. Otherwise, he would be unable to simultaneously deal with Xezal and defend the formation from the group of powerhouses.

Once again, James managed to temporarily protect the formation. Despite that, Xezal was too strong of an opponent. In terms of strength, she was superior and repeatedly inflicted injuries upon him.

“Damn it.” James sustained another wound from Xezal.

He flew over to the formation and hovered above it. He raised his sword and slashed the void above him.

A terrifying burst of Sword Energy emerged and struck the void.

A powerhouse hiding in the void was exposed instantly.

Unexpectedly, another powerhouse ambushed James. A powerful force struck his back, causing his back to bend.

The fierce battle continued in the Cloud Universe.

The majority of the Cloud Universe's area was destroyed.

Thea anxiously watched James entangled in the intense battle from the dark. She asked worriedly, "Do you need help, James?"

James quickly replied to her telepathically, "Stay hidden, Thea. Your cultivation base hasn't recovered to its prime. Moreover, you're pregnant. These cultivators are the strongest of the Greater Realms. Any one of these peak Terra Acmeans can easily suppress you. If you expose yourself now, it will only distract me."

"But..."

"No buts. Even if I die, I'll make sure Soren survives."

James did not say anything more to Thea.

He floated above the black palace and stared at the dozens of peak Terra Acmeans around him.

The group of powerhouses simultaneously attacked the black palace with all their strength.

James unleashed his powers and formed a barrier around the black palace.
